ACT

To amend the Defence Act, 1957, so as to empower the Council of Ministers to appoint a manpower board for the territory of South West Africa; and to provide for incidental matters.

BE IT ENACTED by the National Assembly of South West Africa, as follows:—

1. The following section is hereby substituted for section 74bis of the Defence Act, 1957 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act):

Substitution of section 74bis of Act 44 of 1957, as inserted by section 13 of Act 77 of 1963 and amended by section 47 of Act 85 of 1967.

“Manpower
board

74bis. (1) The Council of Ministers may —

(a) appoint a manpower board to —

- (i) advise it at any time concerning the use of the manpower of the territory of South West Africa with particular regard to the allocation of the necessary manpower to any unit of the Citizen Force or the commandos forming part of the South West African Territory Force, as defined in section 1 of the Defence Matters in South West Africa Proclamation, 1980 (Proclamation 131 of 1980), to enable that Force to carry out the tasks assigned to it from time to time;
- (ii) determine from time to time, with due regard to the maintenance of the economy of the territory of South West Africa, which categories or portions of categories of persons employed in or practising any particular profession, industry, trade or occupation, should be exempted from military service and submit recommendations in accordance with such determinations to the Council of Ministers, who may, in terms of the powers conferred hereby, direct any exemption board appointed in terms of this Act to authorize the exemption of persons in any such category or portion thereof from such service; or

(iii) perform such other duties as the Council of Ministers may assign to it;

(b) abolish the manpower board;

(c) terminate the appointment of any member of the manpower board, and if considered necessary, appoint another person to take his place as a member of the board; and

(d) authorize the manpower board to appoint committees to investigate such matters as the board may deem necessary and report thereon to the board.

(2) The manpower board shall consist of a chairman and as many other members as the Council of Ministers may deem necessary to represent the interests of the South African Defence Force, employers and employees.

(3) A member of the manpower board or of a committee appointed in terms of subsection (1) who is not on a full-time basis employed in a department established under section 3 of the Government Service Act, 1980 (Act 2 of 1980), shall be paid such remuneration and allowances in respect of his services as may be determined by the Council of Ministers.”.

2. Section 97 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for paragraph (h) of subsection (1) of the following paragraph:

Amendment of section 97 of 1957, as amended by section 19 of Act 77 of 1963, section 53 of Act 85 of 1967 and section 9 of Act 83 of 1974.

“(h) occupying a post which has been designated by the Council of Ministers upon the recommendation of the manpower board established under section 74*bis*, as a key post in a key industry or service:”.

3. This Act shall be called the Defence Amendment Act, 1982.
