PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF NAMIBIA

No. 12

1994

AMENDMENT OF SCHEDULE TO
JUDGES' REMUNERATION ACT, 1990
(Act 18 of 1990)

Under the powers vested in me by section 3 of the Judges' Remuneration Act, 1990 (Act 18 of 1990), I hereby substitute, on the recommendation of the Judicial Service Commission, the following schedule for the First Schedule to that Act:

“FIRST SCHEDULE
(Section 2(1))

Designation of Office	Salary per annum
Chief Justice	N$225 000
Additional judge of the Supreme Court	N$222 000
Ad hoc judge of the Supreme Court	A remuneration on the same rate as that of an additional judge of the Supreme Court, proportionate to the period during which he or she acts as an ad hoc judge.
Judge President	N$220 000
Additional judge of the High Court	N$212 000”.

This Proclamation shall be deemed to have come into operation on 1 April 1994.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Republic of Namibia at Windhoek this 26th day of April, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Ninety-four.

MINISTRY OF JUSTICE

No. 65

1994

AMENDMENT OF REGULATIONS MADE UNDER THE JUDGES' REMUNERATION ACT, 1990

The President has under section 5 of the Judges' Remuneration Act, 1990 (Act 18 of 1990), amended the regulations promulgated under Government Notice 76 of 1990, as set out in the Schedule.

SCHEDULE

1. Regulation 3 is hereby amended -

(a) by the substitution in subregulation (1)(a) for the expression "R650,00" of the expression "N$4 000,00";

(b) by the substitution for subregulation (4) of the following subregulation:

"(4) (a) Any judge who is on official duty outside Windhoek, but within Namibia, shall, during any period of actual absence, including short periods in which the judge returns to Windhoek at his or her own expense and if his or her commitments in respect of accommodation at the place where he or she performs his or her official duties continue in his or her absence, be entitled to a subsistence allowance of N$60,00 for every period of 24 hours or of a proportionate amount for any portion of such period: Provided that if the amount of such allowance is less than the amount reasonably spent by the judge in connection with accommodation, he or she shall be entitled to a subsistence allowance equal to such last-mentioned amount.

(b) Any judge who is on an official journey outside Namibia shall -

(i) in the case of the Chief Justice or the Judge-President, be entitled to the same subsistence allowances payable to any Minister;

(ii) in the case of any other judge, be entitled to the same subsistence allowances payable to any Deputy-Minister."

2. Regulation 5 is hereby amended -

(a) by the insertion of the following subregulation after subregulation (1):

"(1A) (a) The Chief Justice or the Judge-President may for the purpose of an official journey outside Namibia, travel by air as a first-class passenger.

(b) Any judge other than a judge referred to in paragraph (a) may for the purpose of a journey referred to in that paragraph travel by air as a business-class passenger.";

(b) by the substitution for paragraph (b) of subregulation (2) of the following paragraph:

"(b) (i) Any judge of the Supreme Court, other than the Chief Justice, who is not ordinarily resident in Namibia, shall be entitled to the costs of air travel, calculated according to the rate applicable to business-class passengers, to and from his or her place of permanent residence on as many occasions as are considered reasonable in all the circumstances by the Chief Justice acting in consultation with the Minister of Justice.

- (ii) If the Chief Justice is not ordinarily resident in Namibia, he or she shall be entitled to the costs of air travel, calculated according to the rate applicable to first-class passengers, to and from his or her place of permanent residence on as many occasions as are considered reasonable in all the circumstances by the Judicial Service Commission.”
3. The amendments effected by this Schedule shall be deemed to have come into operation on 1 April 1994.
