SCHEDULE

PART I PRELIMINARY

Definitions

1. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise indicates, any word or expression to which a meaning has been assigned in the Act, bears the meaning so assigned to it, and -

“bar” means a strip of decorative metal added to a decoration or medal ribbon to signify a repeated award to the recipient of the same decoration or medal, usually 32 mm x 4 mm in size and usually worn in the middle of the length of the decoration or medal ribbon;

“brooch bar” means a strip of metal with a safety pin fastening device for affixing a decoration or medal, suspended from ribbons, to a garment;

“clasp” means a strip of metal, with the name, date or number of the occasion at which the recipient was presented with an award, which is added to a decoration or medal ribbon, usually 32 mm x 4 mm in size and usually worn in the middle of the length of the decoration or medal ribbon, and includes an emblem;

“emblem” means a small heraldic device, usually of metal, added to a ribbon to signify or clarify the particular distinction awarded, usually not exceeding 8 mm in diameter;

“foreign decoration or medal” means any decoration or medal awarded otherwise than under the Act;

“miniature” means a half-size exact reproduction of an award with a 16 mm ribbon;

“POL” means Namibian Police;

“qualifying service” means service in the Force, but does not include any period of service during which a member was -

- (a) absent without leave; or
- (b) suspended from office in terms of section 23(1) or (2) of the Act in respect of any offence of which the member was found guilty;

“Registrar of Honours and Awards” means a person designated as such by the Inspector-General;

“suspender bar” means an elaborate or ornamental bar used to suspend a decoration or medal from a ribbon;

“the Act” means the Police Act, 1990 (Act No. 19 of 1990).

Application of regulations

2. These regulations apply in respect of all decorations, medals, bars, clasps and ribbons which may be awarded to any person -

- (a) who is or was a member of the Force in respect of his or her services as such a member; or
- (b) who has rendered exceptional services to the Force.

PART II
AWARDING, WEARING, FORFEITURE, RESTORATION AND LOSS
OF DECORATIONS AND MEDALS

Awarding of decorations and medals

3. (1) Only the President may, in the exercise of the power conferred by section 30 of the Act, award, subject to these regulations, any decoration, medal, bar, clasp or ribbon established and introduced by the President under that section.

(2) Except to the extent otherwise prescribed by the Inspector-General, no decoration, medal, bar or clasp referred to in subregulation (1) may be awarded to a member who during a period of 5 years immediately preceding the date on which he or she, but for this subregulation, would have become eligible for the award of the decoration, medal, bar or clasp -

- (a) was found guilty of -
  - (i) any offence referred to in paragraph (b) of regulation 6(1);
  - (ii) any offence set out in Schedule 1 to the Act; or
  - (iii) any offence or misconduct under the Act or any regulation; or
- (b) forfeited under regulation 6(1) any decoration or medal previously awarded to him or her:

Provided that the decoration, medal, bar or clasp for which any such member, but for this subregulation, would have become eligible may be awarded to the member after the lapse of a period of 5 years from the date of the conviction or forfeiture, or, if the member has been convicted more than once, from the date of the last conviction.

Certificate of award and undertaking by recipient

4. (1) A certificate of award signed by the President must be issued in respect of each decoration, medal or bar awarded.

(2) Except in the case of a posthumous conferment, the Inspector-General may require any person to whom a decoration, medal, bar or clasp has been awarded, to give a written undertaking that he or she will -

- (a) not, at any time, give away, throw away, sell, pledge, barter or in any way other than by bequest, alienate such decoration, medal, bar, clasp or the certificate of award in respect thereof;
- (b) immediately report the theft, loss or destruction thereof to the Inspector-General in writing; and
- (c) immediately return to the Inspector-General any such conferment which, in terms of these regulations, may be declared forfeited.

Wearing of decorations and medals

5. (1) Pursuant to section 31 of the Act, a decoration or medal, as well as the bar, clasp and ribbon in respect thereof, may be worn only by the person to whom the decoration, medal, bar, clasp or ribbon was awarded or has been bequeathed.

(2) Decorations and medals must be worn by members in the manner hereinafter in this subregulation provided:

- (a) Full-size and miniature decorations and medals must be worn on the left breast in a horizontal line and be suspended from a brooch bar of which no part should be seen.
- (b) Decorations and medals must be worn in the correct order of precedence, with the most senior ribbon nearest to the lapel.
- (c) The maximum number of decorations and medals that are permitted to be worn side by side is five. When they cannot be suspended in this manner, on account of their number, they are overlapped. The highest decoration or medal and ribbon, in order of precedence, must be totally exposed.
- (d) Decorations and medals must be worn in such a manner as to show the obverse to the front.
- (e) The length of the ribbon of a full-size medal is 32 mm from the top of the brooch bar to the slit in the suspender bar. The overall length of a miniature medal and ribbon is 51 mm from the top of the ribbon to the bottom point of the medal, unless the unusual shape or size of the medal dictates otherwise.

(3) When a decoration or medal is worn by a person to whom it has been bequeathed or by a next of kin referred to in regulation 34, the decoration or medal must be worn in the manner provided in subregulation (2), except that the decoration or medal must be worn on the right breast.

Forfeiture and restoration of decorations and medals

6. (1) A decoration or medal may be declared forfeited if the person to whom it was awarded -

- (a) deserts from the Force or is discharged or dismissed therefrom on account of misconduct; or
- (b) is found guilty of treason, crimen laesae majestatis, sedition or any other offence which, either under the common law or military law or any statute, is calculated to endanger the safety of the Republic of Namibia.

(2) The forfeiture of a decoration or medal under subregulation (1) also results in the forfeiture of any bar or clasp in respect thereof as well as any certificate of award.

(3) A decoration or medal, as well as any bar, clasp and certificate of award in respect thereof, must upon forfeiture be returned to the Inspector-General immediately.

(4) A decoration or medal declared forfeited under subregulation (1) may, on written application under regulation 8(5), be restored by the President after the lapse of a period of 5 years from the date of the forfeiture.

(5) Every application for the restoration of a forfeited decoration or medal, as well as any bar, clasp and certificate of award in respect thereof, must be considered on its merits.

Theft, loss, destruction or damage of decorations and medals

7. The theft, loss or destruction of or damage to a decoration, medal, bar, clasp or certificate of award must immediately be reported to the Inspector-General in writing.

Procedural matters regarding decorations and medals

8. (1) If a person to whom a decoration or medal was awarded is believed to have forfeited, on any of the grounds mentioned in regulation 6(1), the decoration or medal, a written motivated recommendation that the decoration or medal be declared forfeited must be submitted to the Inspector-General.

(2) On receipt of a recommendation in terms of subregulation (1), the Inspector-General must transmit the recommendation, together with his or her comments thereon as well as any representations by the person concerned, to the President.

(3) A person in respect of whom a recommendation for the forfeiture of his or her decoration or medal has been made in terms of subregulation (1), must be notified in writing of the President's decision on the matter, whereupon such person must, if the decoration or medal is declared forfeited, immediately hand in the decoration or medal, as well as any bar, clasp and certificate of award in respect thereof, at the office of the Registrar of Honours and Awards.

(4) When a person hands in a decoration or medal at the office of the Registrar of Honours and Awards, such person must be issued with a receipt to that effect, and it is then deemed that the decoration or medal, as well as any bar, clasp and certificate of award in respect thereof, has been returned to the Inspector-General.

(5) A person whose decoration or medal has been declared forfeited under regulation 6(1) may, subject to regulation 6(4), apply in writing to the Inspector-General for the restoration of that decoration or medal, as well as any bar, clasp and certificate of award in respect thereof.

(6) On receipt of an application referred to in subregulation (5), the Inspector-General must transmit the application, together with his or her comments thereon, to the President.

(7) The applicant must be notified in writing of the President's decision on the matter and, if the forfeited decoration or medal is restored, the applicant may collect that decoration or medal, as well as any bar, clasp and certificate of award in respect thereof, at the office of the Registrar of Honours and Awards.
