IN THE APPLICATION FOR A PRESERVATION OF PROPERTY ORDER IN TERMS OF SECTION 51 OF THE PREVENTION OF ORGANISED CRIME ACT, 2004, NO. 29 OF 2004

Notice in terms of section 52 of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act 29 of 2004 (POCA)

This notice is addressed to all persons who have an interest in the positive balance in the Sanlam Unit Trust for investor code 65230878 in the name of Natangwe Kondjeni Kanime; A Uno Fiat with registration number N14620R; A green BMW 3 series with registration number N3322 SH and a White Toyota Hilux with registration number N79000 SH and Erf No0014 Oshakati ("the properties");
Take notice that:

1. The Prosecutor General has obtained a preservation of property order (the order), a copy of which is attached to this notice, in terms of section 51 of the POCA in respect of the properties;
2. If you have an interest in the properties, you should understand that it is now at risk. You are advised to obtain legal advice on whether your interest can be protected and, if so, on how to protect it;
3. You are notified that the Prosecutor General will, within 120 days of publication of this notice, apply to the High Court under section 59 of the POCA for an order declaring the property forfeit to the state. The order will remain in force until the application for a forfeiture order is finalised, and until any forfeiture order that is made is satisfied;
4. If you intend to oppose the application for a forfeiture order, or you intend to apply for an order excluding your interest from a forfeiture order in respect of the properties, you must enter an appearance in terms of the order. The requirements for such an appearance are set out in the order and are also dealt with in sections 52(3), (4) and (5) of the POCA. An appearance must comply with these requirements;
5. Your attention is specifically drawn to the 21-day time limit prescribed in section 52(4) for the entry of an appearance referred to in paragraph 4 above;
6. If you enter an appearance in terms of the order you will be entitled to be given 21 days notice of the application by the applicant for a forfeiture order in respect of the properties;

7. If you fail to enter an appearance in terms of the order or to comply with the above requirements, you will not be given notice of the application for a forfeiture order and you will not be entitled to appear at the hearing of the application. In such a case, the court may grant a default order forfeiting the properties to the state under section 64 of the POCA;
8. You may, on good cause shown (including the non-availability of any other suitable remedy to protect your legitimate rights or interests), on 3 days notice in urgent instances and at least 7 days notice in other instances to the applicant, and within 8 days of becoming aware of the order, apply for reconsideration of the order;
9. You are specifically advised that even if you intend to apply for reconsideration of the preservation order in this case, you must, in addition, comply with paragraphs 4 and 5 above if you intend to oppose the forfeiture application at a later date. Failure to do so can result in a forfeiture order being granted against the properties by default and without further notice to you.
