PART 2
CREATION OF TRUST AND CHARACTERISTICS OF TRUST

Creation of trust

2. (1) A trust is an arrangement in terms of which ownership of property of a person is made over or bequeathed in terms of a trust instrument –

- (a) in whole or in part, to the trustee, to be administered and controlled, or disposed of according to the trust instrument for the benefit of the person or class of persons designated in the trust instrument or for the achievement of the object stated in the trust instrument; or
- (b) to the beneficiaries designated in the trust instrument, which property is placed under the control of the trustee, to be administered and controlled, or disposed of according to the provisions of the trust instrument –
  - (i) for the benefit of the person or class of persons designated in the trust instrument; or
  - (ii) for the achievement of the object stated in the trust instrument, but does not include the case where the property of a person is to be administered by a person as an executor, a tutor or a curator in terms of the Administration of Estates Act or any other written law, or as a trustee or a liquidator in terms of the Insolvency Act, 1936 (Act No. 24 of 1936) or any other written law.

- (2) A trust includes a non-profit trust.

Characteristics of trust

3. A trust has the following characteristics:

- (a) the founder must intend to create a trust, which means not merely using the trustees as contracting parties whilst the founder retains ultimate power and control over how the trust is managed;
- (b) the trust must be created for a permitted purpose;
- (c) the subject matter of the trust must be capable of being defined with reasonable certainty;
- (d) the object of the trust must be capable of being defined with reasonable certainty;
- (e) the trust property does not form part of the trustee's own property;
- (f) the trust property is administered and controlled by the trustee on behalf of the beneficiaries;
- (g) the trustee has the power and duty to administer, control or dispose of the trust property of the trust in accordance with the terms of the trust instrument and the duties and functions imposed upon the trustee in terms of this Act or any other law; and

Act No. 11, 2023 TRUST ADMINISTRATION ACT, 2023

- (h) the trustee is accountable for the administration, control or disposal of the trust property.

Beneficiaries of trust

4. (1) Beneficiaries of a trust must be –
- (a) identifiable by name; or
- (b) ascertainable by reference to –
- (i) a class; or
- (ii) a relationship to some person whether or not living at the time of the creation of the trust or at the time which under the terms of the trust is the time by reference to which members of a class are to be determined.

(2) The trust instrument may provide for the addition of a person as a beneficiary or the exclusion of a beneficiary from a benefit by the founder or trustee after registration of the trust in terms of section 8.

Certain documents considered to be trust instruments

5. A document, which is purported to represent the reduction to writing of an oral agreement by which an oral trust was created or amended, is considered a trust instrument for the purposes of this Act.

Prohibition on administering oral trust

6. (1) A person may not create or administer an oral trust.
- (2) An oral trust created after the commencement of this Act is invalid.
- (3) A person administering an oral trust or oral trust properties must, within 90 days after the date of commencement of this Act, ensure that the oral trust is reduced to writing and is registered with the Master in accordance with the provisions of this Act, provided that where the founder of the oral trust is deceased the trustee has the obligation to register the oral trust.

Validity of trust

7. (1) A trust is valid and enforceable in accordance with the terms of the trust instrument.
- (2) Without limiting the grounds on which a trust is invalid in terms of a law of Namibia, a trust is invalid, if –
- (a) it purports to do anything that is against the law of Namibia;
- (b) it purports to confer any right or power or impose any obligation the exercise or carrying out of which is contrary to the law of Namibia; or
- (c) the court declares the trust as invalid.

PART 3
REGISTRATION OF TRUST

Registration of trust and authorisation to act as trustee

8. (1) After the date of commencement of this Act, the end of the financial year of a trust registered in terms of this Act or registered in terms of the repealed Act or a prior law is 28 February each year.

(2) After the date of commencement of this Act, a person may not administer and control or dispose of trust property in accordance with a trust instrument unless that person –

- (a) is the founder of the trust; or
- (b) is a trustee nominated in terms of the trust instrument and has accepted such nomination; and
- (c) has –
  - (i) registered the trust, by lodging the relevant trust instrument with the Master and the Master has issued a trust certificate in accordance with this Act; and
  - (ii) in the case of a trustee, been authorised by the Master in accordance with this Act to act as a trustee in respect of the trust.

(3) A person that wishes to register a trust and obtain authorisation to act as trustee must in the prescribed form and manner lodge with the Master –

- (a) the original trust instrument in terms of which the trust property is to be administered and controlled or disposed of, or a copy of the trust instrument certified as a true copy by a notary public referred to in section 86 of the Legal Practitioners Act, or a commissioner of oaths referred to in the Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Oaths Act, 1963 (Act No.16 of 1963); or
  - (b) in the case of a foreign trust, the original trust instrument or a copy of the trust instrument certified as a true copy by the authority or official authorised by the laws of the foreign country to notarise documents.
- (4) A trust instrument lodged with the Master under subsection (3) must –
- (a) indicate the type of trust and its objects;
  - (b) clearly identify the trust property;
  - (c) indicate the first or initial trustees;
  - (d) indicate whether the trustee must provide security in terms of the trust instrument or this Act or is exempted from payment of security;
  - (e) have attached a record to indicate the following information in respect of each beneficial owner of the trust:

Act No. 11, 2023*TRUST ADMINISTRATION ACT, 2023

- (i) the full legal names and any former full legal names of the beneficial owner;
  - (ii) the date of birth and identification number appearing on the national identity document of the beneficial owner;
  - (iii) in the case of a beneficial owner who is not a Namibian citizen, the official number appearing on the passport of the beneficial owner;
  - (iv) full particulars of residential address, business address, email address and postal address of the beneficial owner;
  - (v) all available phone numbers of the beneficial owner;
  - (vi) the nationality of the beneficial owner;
  - (vii) the dates indicating the beginning and the conclusion of the beneficial ownership and the nature and extent of the beneficial ownership; and
  - (viii) in the case of a beneficial owner being a natural person who has not reached the age of 18 years, the information referred to in items (i) to (vi) in relation to the parent or legal guardian of the beneficial owner;
- (f) contain the following information relating to the beneficiaries:
- (i) the full legal names and any former full legal names of the beneficiary in the case of an individual;
  - (ii) the date of birth and identification number appearing on the national identity document of the beneficiary, in the case of an individual;
  - (iii) in the case of a beneficiary who is a natural person and who is not a Namibian citizen, the official number appearing on the passport of the beneficiary;
  - (iv) full particulars of residential address, business address, email address and postal address of the beneficiary;
  - (v) the nationality of the beneficiary; and
  - (vi) the certificate of incorporation or registration, in the case that the beneficiary is a juristic person, partnership or another form of legal arrangement.
- (5) A trust instrument lodged with the Master under subsection (3) must also be accompanied by the following:
- (a) a written acceptance by the trustee to act as trustee in respect of the trust property in the form and manner prescribed;

Act No. 11, 2023 TRUST ADMINISTRATION ACT, 2023

- (b) an undertaking by an accountant or an auditor to act as an accountant or auditor of the trust, which undertaking must indicate the particulars referred to in subsection 4(f) in respect of the accountant or auditor;
  - (c) an undertaking indicating the name and branch where the bank account in the name of the trust will be opened;
  - (d) an undertaking indicating at which tax office the tax registration in the name of the trust will take place;
  - (e) the prescribed fee;
  - (f) such other relevant information or documentation as required in terms of this Act; and
  - (g) other information and documentation as may be prescribed.
- (6) Despite subsection (4)(f), a trustee may identify a beneficiary by reference to –
- (a) a class of beneficiaries;
  - (b) a relationship to another person, whether such person is alive or deceased at the time of the creation of a trust; or
  - (c) members of a class of beneficiaries that is to be determined under the trust instrument.
- (7) The Master must consider the trust instrument and information submitted under subsection (3), (4) and (5), and may –
- (a) approve the trust instrument, register the trust and issue to the applicant a trust certificate or an authorisation to act as a trustee; or
  - (b) refuse to register the trust or to approve the authorisation to act as trustee and in writing inform the applicant of the decision and reasons for the decision.
- (8) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable upon conviction to a fine not exceeding N$ 10 000 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 10 years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

Amendment of trust instrument

9. Where a trust instrument does not contain instructions providing for the amendment of such trust instrument, a trustee may amend that trust instrument on being required to do so by all of the beneficiaries, if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

- (a) the trust is not a testamentary trust;
- (b) every beneficiary or a representative of a class of beneficiary authorised by the beneficiaries, consents to the amendment;

Act No. 11, 2023 TRUST ADMINISTRATION ACT, 2023

- (c) the trustee receives a written request to amend the trust instrument from or on behalf of each beneficiary;
- (d) the amendment is for the benefit of the beneficiaries; and
- (e) the trustee has agreed to the proposal for amendment.

PART 4

- (f) has been convicted, in Namibia or elsewhere, for theft, fraud, forgery, perjury or another form of dishonesty or a financial crime or an offence –
  - (i) involving money laundering, terrorist financing or proliferation financing activities as defined in section 1(1) of the Financial Intelligence Act; or
  - (ii) under this Act, the Companies Act, 2004 (Act No. 24 of 2004), the Insolvency Act, 1936 (Act No. 24 of 1936) the Close Corporations Act, 1988 (Act No. 26 of 1988), the Financial Intelligence Act, Prevention of Organised Crime Act, 2004 (Act No. 29 of 2004), the Prevention and Combatting of Terrorist and Proliferation Activities Act, 2014 (Act No. 4 of 2014), the Income Tax Act, 1981 (Act No. 24 of 1981) and the Value Added Tax Act, 2000 (Act No. 10 of 2000);
- (g) is an unemancipated minor;
- (h) has been declared by a competent court to be mentally ill or incapable of managing their own affairs or if the person is, pursuant to the Mental Health Act, 1973 (Act No. 18 of 1973), detained as a patient in an institution or as a State patient; or
- (i) otherwise lacks capacity that prevents a person from incurring legal liability.

Act No. 11, 2023 TRUST ADMINISTRATION ACT, 2023

(2) The Registrar of the High Court must, if any of the following circumstances occur, send a copy of the relevant order or particulars of the conviction to the Master:

- (a) the issuing of a sequestration order in respect of a trustee or a trust practitioner who is a natural person;
- (b) the issuing of an order of liquidation in respect of a trustee or trust practitioner which is a juristic person;
- (c) the issuing of an order for the removal of a trustee or trust practitioner from any office of trust on the grounds of misconduct involving dishonesty; or
- (d) a conviction of a trustee or trust practitioner for an offence referred to in subsection (1)(f).

(3) The Master must give written notice of the information referred to in subsection (2) to the competent authorities and the trustees.

(4) The Master must establish and maintain in the prescribed manner a register of persons who are disqualified from acting as a trustee or a trust practitioner in terms of an order of court, in terms of this Act or any other law.

(5) The Master must ensure that the register referred to subsection (4) is published on the website of the Ministry and is open to the public for inspection during office hours and copies of the register must, on request by any person, be made available to that person.

Appointment of trustees

- 11. (1) A person who is –
- (a) nominated as a trustee in terms of a trust instrument and accepts such nomination;
  - (b) appointed as trustee in terms of a court order; or
  - (c) appointed as a trustee in terms of this Act,

may only act in that capacity if authorised in writing by the Master in accordance with this Act.

(2) An application for authorisation to act as a trustee must be made in the prescribed form and manner and be accompanied by the prescribed information and documents and the fee as may be prescribed.

(3) Where a juristic person applies in terms of this section for authorisation to act as a trustee in respect of a trust property, the Master must issue the authorisation in the name of an individual –

- (a) that qualifies in terms of this Act to be appointed as a trustee; and

Act No. 11, 2023 TRUST ADMINISTRATION ACT, 2023

- (b) nominated by the juristic person to act as a trustee on behalf of that juristic person, and the juristic person is responsible and liable for the actions of such trustee, and where the juristic person replaces that individual, the juristic person must in terms of this section apply for authorisation for such individual to act as trustee in respect of the trust property concerned.

Foreign trustees

12. (1) Any person who is appointed as a trustee in terms of a foreign trust to administer or dispose of trust property located in Namibia must be authorised to act as a trustee by the Master in accordance with section 11 and the provisions of this Act apply to that trustee.

(2) Where none of the trustees in respect of a trust whose trust property is located in Namibia are resident in Namibia, the founder or the Master in terms of section 31 in case the founder is deceased, must appoint a person who is resident in Namibia as co-trustee, and –

- (a) such person must apply in terms of this Act for authorisation to act as trustee; and
- (b) such person is responsible for reporting to the Master in respect of any matter required in terms of this Act and ensuring compliance with this Act.

Security

13. (1) The Master may not grant authorisation for a person to act as a trustee unless the person –

- (a) furnishes security to the satisfaction of the Master for the due and faithful performance of his or her duties as trustee; or
- (b) is exempted from furnishing security by –
  - (i) the trust instrument; or
  - (ii) a court order.
- (2) The Master may -
  - (a) dispense with security, whether or not security is required by the trust instrument;
  - (b) reduce or cancel security to be furnished or security furnished;
  - (c) in writing direct a trustee to furnish additional security; or
  - (d) in writing, issue a directive to a trustee who is exempted from furnishing security in terms of a trust instrument, to furnish security.

Act No. 11, 2023 TRUST ADMINISTRATION ACT, 2023

(3) The Master must have regard to the following factors, in making a decision under subsection (2) –

- (a) whether the cost of providing security is preventing the registration of a trust;
- (b) whether there is no real danger of maladministration of trust property;
- (c) the stability of the value of the trust property;
- (d) whether the trust property has already been distributed between beneficiaries; or
- (e) whether there are pending criminal proceedings regarding financial crimes against a trustee who is exempted from furnishing security.

Duties of trustees

14. (1) A trustee must in the performance of his or her duties and the exercise of his or her powers act with the care, diligence and skill which can reasonably be expected of a person who manages the affairs of another.

- (2) Despite the generality of subsection (1), a trustee must –
  - (a) know the terms of the trust instrument;
  - (b) act in accordance with the terms of the trust instrument;
  - (c) act honestly and in good faith;
  - (d) hold or deal with trust property and act for the benefit of the beneficiaries or to further the permitted purpose of the trust;
  - (e) exercise the trustee's powers for a permitted purpose;
  - (f) not exercise a power of a trustee directly or indirectly for the trustee's own benefit, except where –
    - (i) the trustee exercises powers to the benefit of the trust beneficiaries and furthers the objects of the trust;
    - (ii) the direct or indirect benefit is disclosed to all trustees; and
    - (iii) all trustees consent to such benefit in writing;
  - (g) consider regularly whether he or she should be exercising any of the powers conferred on him or her in relation to the trust;
  - (h) avoid a conflict between his or her interests and the interests of the trust or any of the beneficiaries of the trust;
  - (i) treat all beneficiaries in accordance with the terms of the trust instrument; and

Act No. 11, 2023 TRUST ADMINISTRATION ACT, 2023

- (j) not take remuneration or reward in his or her capacity as trustee except the remuneration and expenses contemplated in section 25.

Trustees to act jointly

15. Where there is more than one trustee, the trustees must act jointly in the exercise of their powers and performance of their functions.

Restriction on exemption and indemnity provisions

16. (1) The trust instrument may not limit or exclude a trustee's liability for any breach of trust arising from the trustee's dishonesty, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

(2) The trust instrument may not give a trustee any indemnity against the trust property for liability for any breach of trust arising from the trustee's dishonesty, willful misconduct or gross negligence.

(3) A provision in a trust instrument is invalid to the extent that it purports to have the effect prohibited under subsection (1) or (2).

Keeping trust property separate

17. (1) A trustee must preserve and enhance the value of the trust property, so far as is reasonable and in compliance with this Act and the trust instrument.

(2) Each trustee must keep the trust property separate from his or her personal property and as separately identifiable from any other property of which he or she is a trustee.

(3) A trustee must –

- (a) indicate clearly in his or her books the trust property which he or she holds in his or her capacity as trustee;
- (b) register the trust property with the registrar of deeds or keep it registered in such manner as to make it clear from the registration that it is the trust property;
- (c) make any account or investment at a financial institution identifiable as a trust account or trust investment; and
- (d) in the case of the trust property other than property referred to in paragraphs (b) and (c), make such property identifiable as the trust property in the best possible manner.

(4) A trustee must in respect of a trust registered in terms of the repealed Act, within 12 months after the date of commencement of this Act, ensure that the registration or identification of trust property being administered by a trustee or trust practitioner complies with subsection (3).

Act No. 11, 2023 TRUST ADMINISTRATION ACT, 2023

- (5) The registrar of deeds –
  - (a) is authorised to register immovable property in the name of the trust with its trust registration number; and
  - (b) must register the trust property in accordance with the deeds registration laws.

Notifying address of trustee

18. (1) Trustees in respect of which authorisation to act as trustee has been issued under the repealed Act, must within 14 days after the date of commencement of this Act –

- (a) furnish the Master with an address for the service on him or her of notices and processes; and

- (a) the trustee or any one of the trustees; or
- (b) any person with a beneficial interest in the trust property.

(4) On an application in terms of this section, the court must consider the –

- (a) nature of any person's interest in the trust property and the effect of the proposed order on that interest;
- (b) benefit or detriment that may result to any person with an interest in the trust property if the court makes or refuses to make the proposed order; and
- (c) intentions of the founder of the trust in settling the trust, if it is realistic to determine those intentions.

(5) The court may not make an order in terms of this section if its effect would be to reduce or remove any vested interest in the trust property.

Application for court order on failure by trustee to account or perform duties

37. If a trustee fails to comply with a request by the Master in terms of section 34 or to perform any duty imposed on the trustee by this Act, the trust instrument or any other law, the Master or any person having an interest in the trust property may apply to the court for an order directing the trustee to comply with the request by the Master or to perform the imposed duty.

Act No. 11, 2023*TRUST ADMINISTRATION ACT, 2023*Removal of trustee

38. (1) The Master or any person that has an interest in the trust property may apply to the court for the removal of a trustee by the court if any of the circumstances referred to in subsection (3) exist and the court is satisfied that the removal of the trustee is in the interests of the trust and the beneficiaries of the trust.

(2) Despite subsection (1), trustees may be removed in accordance with the terms of the trust instrument, by an order of the court or in terms of subsection (3).

(3) The Master may remove a trustee as contemplated in subsection (1) if the –

(a) trustee becomes disqualified to be authorised as a trustee in terms of section 10; or

(b) trustee fails to perform satisfactorily any duty imposed on him or her by or under this Act or fails to comply with the requirements of this Act or any lawful request of the Master.

(4) Before removing a person as a trustee under subsection (3), the Master must give the trustee written notice of the intention to remove the trustee and must give the trustee a reasonable opportunity to be heard.

(5) If a trustee is removed from his or her office or resigns, the trustee must return the trust certificate to the Master within 14 days of such removal or resignation.

PART 9
INVESTIGATION AND INSPECTION

Appointment of inspectors

39. (1) The Executive Director of the Ministry, after consultation with the Master or on the request of the Master, may –

(a) from among the staff members of the Ministry designate persons to be inspectors for purposes of this Act; or

(b) subject to applicable laws, appoint other persons to be inspectors for the purposes of this Act.

(2) An inspector –

(a) has such powers and functions as may be provided for by this Act or as may be delegated or assigned to the inspector by the Master; and

(b) must exercise such powers and perform such functions in compliance with the directions or instructions as may be specified by the Master.

(3) The Master must issue an identification card to every person appointed as an inspector in terms subsection (1).

Act No. 11, 2023 TRUST ADMINISTRATION ACT, 2023

- (4) The identification card referred to in subsection (3) –
- (a) must be signed by the official appointed by the Master; and
  - (b) is prima facie evidence of the appointment of the person concerned.

(5) An inspector must show the identification card referred to in subsection (3) and issued to him or her to any person in relation to whom he or she may seek to exercise any power or perform any function or duty under this Act.

Inspection of books

40. (1) The Master may from time to time inspect and audit the books of any of the following persons to determine the extent of compliance with the requirements of this Act –

- (a) trustees;
- (b) trust practitioners; or
- (c) any person who is or was acting as a trustee without holding an authorisation required by this Act.

(2) For the purpose of an inspection in terms of subsection (1), the Master may instruct an inspector or may, after consultation with the Executive Director of the Ministry and subject to applicable laws, designate an auditor to inspect and audit books of the trustees and trust practitioners or any person who is or was acting as a trustee without holding an authorisation required by this Act.

(3) A trustee and trust practitioner must give the Master full and free access to the books as may be reasonably required for an inspection or audit.

Investigation

41. The Master may from time to time instruct an inspector to conduct an investigation for the following purposes –

- (a) if there are reasonable grounds to believe that an offence is committed or to be committed in terms of this Act;
- (b) to ensure compliance with this Act; or
- (c) to determine whether the trustee is conducting business in a manner not prejudicial to the trust property or the interest of the beneficiaries of the trust.

Powers and functions of inspectors

42. (1) In so far as section 40, 41 and this section provides for a limitation on the fundamental rights contemplated in Sub-Article (1) of Article 13 of the Namibian Constitution, in that it authorises interference with the privacy of a person's home, correspondence or communication, that limitation is enacted upon the authority of Sub-Article (2) of that Article.

Act No. 11, 2023*TRUST ADMINISTRATION ACT, 2023

(2) A person who enters and searches any premises under section 40, 41 or this section must exercise those powers with strict regard for decency and order, and with regard for each person's right to dignity, freedom, security and privacy.

(3) In carrying out an inspection or investigation in terms of this Act, an inspector may be accompanied and be assisted in the exercise of his or her powers by such other officials authorised by the Master or a member of the Namibian Police Force.

(4) In conducting an inspection or investigation in terms of this Act an inspector may, subject to subsection (5), without a warrant or prior notice to the person under inspection or investigation –

- (a) enter any premises, other than premises that are a home or are being used as a home, occupied by the person under inspection or investigation and require the production of any book or thing relating to its business or affairs;
- (b) open any strong room, safe or other container in which the inspector, on reasonable grounds, suspects any book or thing relating to the business or affairs of the person under investigation or inspection is kept;
- (c) search the premises or any person on the premises if there are reasonable grounds for believing that the person has personal possession of any book or thing that has a bearing on the inspection or investigation;
- (d) use any computer system on the premises or require assistance of any person on the premises to use that computer system, to –
  - (i) search any data contained in or available to that computer system;
  - (ii) reproduce any record from that data; and
  - (iii) seize any output from that computer for examination and copying;
- (e) if the inspector is of the opinion that any book or thing relating to the business or affairs of the person under inspection or investigation contains information relevant to the investigation, examine, make extracts from and copy the book or thing;
- (f) against the issue of a receipt, remove any book or thing to in paragraph (e) temporarily for the purposes referred to in that subsection; or
- (g) if the inspector is of the opinion that any book or thing referred to in paragraph (e) contains evidence of an offence under this Act or any other law, against the issue of a receipt, seize such books or thing and retain it for so long as it may be required for any criminal or other relevant legal proceedings.

Act No. 11, 2023 TRUST ADMINISTRATION ACT, 2023

(5) In respect of premises or part of premises that are a home or are being used as a home, entry and search of the premises may be conducted –

- (a) only if authorised to do so by a warrant issued under subsection (6);
- (b) if there are reasonable grounds for the inspector to believe that –
  - (i) the delay in obtaining a warrant would prejudice the object of the inspection or investigation, or failure to act immediately may prejudice securing books or things for the Master; or
  - (ii) a warrant will be issued under subsection (6) if the inspector or the Master applies for such warrant;
- (c) consent to entry and search has been given by –
  - (i) the person lawfully in control of the premises or lawfully in possession or having custody of books or thing; or
  - (ii) a person with the power to give such consent.

(6) A judge or magistrate in chambers having jurisdiction in the area where the premises in question are located may, on application by an inspector or the Master, issue a warrant referred to in subsection (7).

(7) A warrant may only be issued pursuant to subsection (6) if it appears from information given under oath or affirmation that there is reason to believe that one or more documents relating to the business or affairs of the person under inspection or investigation is kept at the premises concerned.

(8) A person under inspection or investigation pursuant to this section or the authorised representative of such person may, during business hours, examine and make extracts from any book or thing under subsection (4)(f) or (g), under the supervision of an inspector.

(9) If it transpires during or after an investigation conducted under this section that a document or other item referred to in subsection (4)(f) or (g) has no relation to the business or affairs of the person under inspection or investigation or is patently of a private nature, the inspector must release such book or thing to its rightful owner.

Privilege and self-incrimination

43. (1) At any time during an inspection or investigation under this Act, the inspector or an officer authorised in writing by the Master, may summon any person who is believed to be able to furnish any information on the subject of the inspection or investigation, or to appear before the inspector at a specified time and place in order –

- (a) to be questioned; or
- (b) to deliver or produce such books or thing.

Act No. 11, 2023*TRUST ADMINISTRATION ACT, 2023

(2) The inspector before whom a person appears in terms of subsection (1), may –

- (a) require that person to provide the information under oath or on affirmation; and
- (b) administer an oath to, or accept an affirmation from, that person.

(3) No self-incriminating answer given or statement made to a person exercising any power or function in terms of this Act is admissible as evidence against the person who gave the answer or made the statement in any criminal proceeding, except in criminal proceedings for perjury or in which the person is tried for an offence contemplated in this section and only to the extent that the question of answer is relevant to prove the offence charged.

(4) Any person who attends an investigation or inspection after having been summoned under this section is entitled to receive such compensation in respect of expenses incurred by him or her in connection with such attendance as he or she would be entitled to receive if he or she was a witness attending criminal proceedings before a magistrates' court.

(5) A person commits an offence if the person, without reasonable cause –

- (a) after having been duly summoned in terms of this section, fails to –
  - (i) attend at the date, time and place specified in the summons; or
  - (ii) remain in attendance until excused by the person conducting the investigation or presiding at the enquiry;
- (b) having been called upon to take an oath or make an affirmation in terms of this section, without sufficient cause –
  - (i) refuses to be sworn or to affirm as a witness; or
  - (ii) fails to answer fully and satisfactorily to the best of his or her knowledge all questions lawfully put to him or her or to produce any book or thing in his or her possession or custody or under his or her control which he or she has been required to produce; or
- (c) prevents another person from obeying a summons issued under this section or from giving evidence or producing a book or thing which he or she is required to give or produce, and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding N$ 10 000 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 10 years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

PART 10
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Electronic filing

44. (1) The Master may require that books, information or documents to be lodged, filed or submitted in terms of this Act, be lodged, filed or submitted electronically on an electronic filing system kept and maintained by the Ministry or a third party on behalf of the Ministry.
