Note that any text in red contains a cross-reference. If you press “Ctrl” while clicking on this text, this will take you to the linked item in the NAMLEX document. This enables you to jump from the Index or the List of Statutes at the front of the document to the category or the entry which is referenced.

If the text is red with underlining, it contains a hyperlink. If you press “Ctrl” while clicking on this text on a device with internet access, this will take you to the linked item online. This enables you to see the actual Gazette which is the source of the information described in the NAMLEX entry.

The Legal Assistance Centre will endeavour to update NAMLEX from time to time. While every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information in NAMLEX, there are undoubtedly some errors. We appeal to NAMLEX users who become aware of any mistake or omission to alert us to this, so that an appropriate correction or addition can be included in future updates.

Please note that information on multilateral treaties has been moved to the NAMLEX APPENDIX, which is a companion document to NAMLEX.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The goal of this publication is to make the law more accessible to the public. Its starting point was the Index to the Laws of Namibia published by the NAMLAW Project under the direction of the late Advocate Anton Lubowski.

The Legal Assistance Centre has produced updates in 1999, 2000, 2001, 2003, 2004, 2010, 2015, 2017 and 2018. The initial index and the 1999 and 2000 updates were compiled by Dianne Hubbard, with the assistance of Clinton Light and Kapena Laura Tjihero. The 2001 update was compiled by Dianne Hubbard, with assistance from Leigh-Anne Agnew, Heather Sherdahl and Susan Taylor. The 2003 update was prepared by Dianne Hubbard, with assistance from Evelyn Zimba and Naomi Kisting. The 2004 update was prepared by Dianne Hubbard, with assistance from Hilary Blain. The 2010 update was prepared by Dianne Hubbard, with assistance from Romy Noeske, Elizabeth Fisher, Tessa Harris, Jessica Sun, Laila Hassan and Thom Wood. The 2015 update was prepared by Dianne Hubbard, with assistance from Rachel Coomer, Yolande Engelbrecht, Grace Kapere, Romy Noeske, Joy Sworn, Michael Hazel, Tyler Holmes, Stefanie Braun, Julia Ward, Chelsea Brake, Laura Halonen, Felix Lüth and Sam Forsyth. The 2017 update was prepared by Dianne Hubbard, with assistance from Romy Noeske, Kaity Cooper, Anesha Lewis, Klaus Striewe, Perri Caplan, Anél van der Vyver, Samm Niingungo and Cecil Jossop. The 2018 updates were prepared by Dianne Hubbard, with assistance from Anél van der Vyver, Samm Niingungo and Perri Caplan.

We would also like to thank the Ministry of Justice for giving us access to its library to check citations, and the Ministry of International Relations and Cooperation (previously the Ministry of Foreign Affairs) for assistance with queries on international law.
Initial funding for the project was provided by the National Democratic Institute for International Affairs, with support from US-AID. The 1999 update was funded by US-AID. The 2010 update was funded in part by Namibia’s Law Reform and Development Commission. The 2015 update was carried out in conjunction with work for the Parliamentary Support Programme, funded by the European Union through the Konrad Adenauer Stiftung. The 2017 and 2018 updates were funded by the US Embassy, through the assistance of the Office of the Attorney-General.

TERMINOLOGY

There are laws which are termed “Acts”, “Ordinances”, “Proclamations” and “AG Proclamations” because legislative authority over South West Africa vested in various different offices and bodies at different points in the country’s history. The differences in terminology do not give the laws in question any greater or lesser legal force.

This index refers to “South West Africa” to mirror the use of that term in the laws which are being discussed, and to differentiate between the period before and after independence.

FORMAT

INDEX
The categories used in NAMLEX are listed in the index in boldface type. All other headings have cross-references to NAMLEX categories.

LIST OF STATUTES
This is an alphabetical list of all the statutes in force in Namibia. The category in which each statute has been placed is indicated in brackets. South African statutes inherited by Namibia at independence are indicated in italics. Laws which have come into force are shown in boldface type; laws which are not yet in force are in ordinary typeface.

INDIVIDUAL ENTRIES
The individual statutes in each index category are listed chronologically, starting with the oldest statute.

Title of statute: South West African and Namibian legislation appear in ordinary typeface. South African legislation is indicated in italics. The title also indicates which South African amendments to South African legislation are applicable to Namibia.

Summary: This is a brief summary of the topics covered by the statute. For post-independence statutes, the date on which the statute came into force is given if this is a date other than the date the statute was published in the Government Gazette.

Applicability to SWA: For South African statutes there is an explanation of how the statute became applicable to Namibia.

Transfer of administration to SWA: Various laws called “transfer proclamations” transferred the administration of certain South African statutes to South West Africa, primarily during the period 1977-1979. This information is important for determining which South African amendments to the statute are applicable to Namibia. The transfer proclamations are discussed in more detail below.
Amendments: Amendments to each statute are listed. The name of the amending law is omitted where it is simply a reference to the primary legislation (e.g., where the Namibian Citizenship Act is amended by the Namibian Citizenship Amendment Act). The name of the amending law is included where it is not simply a reference to the principal legislation (e.g., where the Agricultural Bank Act is amended by the Posts and Telecommunications Companies Establishment Act).

Application of law: This section reports instances where some other law has affected the application of the statute, or restricted or exempted its application in some context.

Regulations / Rules / Notices: These parts of the entry list regulations, rules and other subsidiary notices. These listings are not comprehensive. However, for the period since independence, all regulations and most subsidiary rules and notices have been included.

Appointments: For most statutes, recent appointments made in terms of the statute are listed. However, these listings are not comprehensive in every case.

Cases: Judicial decisions which relate to the statute are also included. These listings are not comprehensive. However, they include all Namibian cases published since independence in the Namibian Law Reports (published by the Legal Assistance Centre and Juta), as well as a few unreported cases and a few significant cases dating from before independence. Generally not included are unreported cases available only via www.saflii.org or www.superiorcourts.org.na and Namibian cases reported only in Butterworths Constitutional Law Reports (BCLR) or in the South African Law Reports.

Commentary: The commentary sections include selected books and articles which discuss the statute in question, as well as relevant educational materials. Most of the items listed are Namibian publications. Unpublished theses are not listed. This feature was introduced with the 2010 update and feedback on its usefulness or suggestions for inclusion would be welcomed.

Other information: Additional information which may be useful has been included with some entries, such as information on relevant international law. In some instances, information on cases, commentary, international law or other issues relevant to an entire topic appear at the end of the category in question, below all of the individual entries in that category.

Government Notices and General Notices NOT catalogued: Although key notices are logged under the relevant statutes, NAMLEX does not include notices pertaining to the following:

- advertisements
- announcements of vacancies
- bulk water supply tariffs
- closures of roads or erfs
- communications licences and tariffs (Communications Regulatory Authority of Namibia)
- determinations by Namibia Competition Commission
- town planning schemes
- township establishment and boundaries
- farming units offered for allotment
- hunting seasons
- name changes
- petrol prices
- prohibition and proposed prohibition of use of certain merchandise marks
- proclamation of district roads
- registration or de-registrations of close corporations
- registration or de-registrations of companies
- registration of air services
• registration of trademarks
• road carrier permits
• sanction lists, freezing orders and arms embargos (terrorism)
• tenders
• total allowable catches (fish).
See individual entries for further exclusions.

ABBREVIATIONS

AG  Administrator General
This refers to the Administrator-General of South West Africa. Where the term AG appears on its own in a citation, this refers to an AG Proclamation.

GG  Government Gazette
Prior to Namibian independence, laws and regulations which were applicable to South West Africa were published in the Government Gazette of South Africa, in the Official Gazette of South West Africa and sometimes in both. At independence, Namibia began publication of the Government Gazette of the Republic of Namibia. Thus the term “Government Gazette” refers to two different publications, depending on the relevant date. The context should indicate whether the term refers to the Namibian Government Gazette or to the South African one.

There are two groups of South African Government Gazettes: those issued before 31 May 1961 by the Union of South Africa (abbreviated as “SA GG”), and those issued after 31 May 1961 by the Republic of South Africa (abbreviated as “RSA GG”). The change came about as a result of the Republic of South Africa Constitution Act 32 of 1961, which transformed South Africa into a Republic with effect from 31 May 1961 and served as South Africa’s constitution until it was replaced by the Republic of South Africa Constitution Act, 1983. The differing designations are necessary because the numbering of the South African Government Gazettes recommenced with number 1 after 31 May 1961 when South Africa became a Republic.

GN  Government Notice
“Government Notices” should not be confused with “General Notices”. The abbreviation GN is used only for “Government Notice” in this index. The term “General Notice” is spelled out.

OG  Official Gazette of SWA

Ord.  Ordinance

Proc.  Proclamation

RSA  Republic of South Africa
South Africa became the Republic of South Africa in 1961.

SA  Union of South Africa

SWA  South West Africa or South West Africa/Namibia

NAMLEX APPENDIX – INTERNATIONAL LAW

This list includes all binding multi-lateral international agreements signed, ratified or acceded to by Namibia. Individual agreements are cross-referenced in the Namlex entries, but detailed information on specific agreements is contained in the Namlex Appendix on International Law.

Some non-binding agreements are referenced in Namlex entries for information, but the references to non-binding instruments are not comprehensive. Only binding and potentially-binding international agreements are included in the list below and in the individual entries in this Namlex Appendix on International Law.

Treaties which have been ratified or acceded to by Namibia but have not yet satisfied the conditions for coming into force internationally are indicated with an asterisk (*). These will become binding on Namibia as soon as they come into force internationally.

Treaties which have been signed by Namibia but not yet ratified or acceded to by Namibia are indicated with a double asterisk (). These are not binding on Namibia, regardless of whether or not they are in force internationally. They are listed here because signature of an international agreement generally indicates an intention to become a party to the agreement at some future point.

Treaties which were entered into prior to Namibian independence that appear to continue to be binding on Namibia are indicated by a cross (†).

Technically, the numbers appear at the end. For example, what is listed here as “ILO Convention 29 concerning Forced or Compulsory Labour, 1930” is in fact “ILO Convention concerning Forced or Compulsory Labour (No. 29), 1930”. The titles in the entries in the Namlex Appendix are the ones which are technically correct.

Public Accountants’ and Auditors’ Act 51 of 1951, with some South African amendments.

Summary: This Act governs the registration and regulation of public accountants and auditors.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 originally defined “Union” to include “the territory of South West Africa”; after amendment by Act 30 of 1962, section 1 defined “Republic” to include “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 33 states “This Act shall apply also to the territory of South West Africa”. Although section 33 did not make amendments to the Act in South Africa automatically applicable to South West Africa, they appear to have applied to South West Africa by virtue of the definitions of “Union” and “Republic” in section 1. This assumption is supported by the fact that the first post-independence amendments to this Act, made by Act 10 of 1994 (GG 922), cite previous amendments by Act 47 of 1956, Act 30 of 1962, Act 68 of 1965, Act 53 of 1975, Act 80 of 1971 and Act 9 of 1988. However, it should be noted that three amending acts – Act 30 of 1962, Act 68 of 1965, and Act 53 of 1975 – were made expressly applicable to South West Africa, while none of the other South African amending Acts contained any such language.

Transfer of administration to SWA: This Act was administered by the Minister of Finance. Acts administered by the Minister of Finance in the Department of Inland Revenue were transferred to South West Africa by the Executive Powers (Inland Revenue) Transfer Proclamation, AG 18 of 1978, but this Act fell under the Department of Finance at the time, as indicated by government notices pertaining to the appointment of members of the Public Accountants’ and Auditors’ Board and the rules of that Board issued during the 1970s. See, for example, Government Notice 2085/1977 (RSA GG 5767), Government Notice 2809/1979 (RSA GG 6776) and Government Notice 625/1976 (RSA GG 5080). There was no transfer proclamation for laws administered by the Minister of Finance in the Department of Finance.

Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890 (53 & 54 Vict c 57), as applied in the Cape of Good Hope as of 1 January 1920.

Summary: This Act (53 & 54 Vict c 57) concerns the admiralty jurisdiction of the courts. Section 2(2) of the Act states that “The jurisdiction of a Colonial Court of Admiralty shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be over the like places, persons, matters, and things, as the Admiralty jurisdiction of the High Court in England, whether existing by virtue of any statute or otherwise, and the Colonial Court of Admiralty may exercise such jurisdiction in like manner and to as full an extent as the High Court in England, and shall have the same regard as that Court to international law and the comity of nations.” It thus applies two statutes from English admiralty law – the Admiralty Court Act 1840 and the Admiralty Court Act 1861.

Applicability to SWA: The Act was applied to South West Africa by virtue of Administration of Justice Proclamation 21 of 1919.

In South Africa, the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890 was repealed in so far as it relates to prizes by the Prize Jurisdiction Act 3 of 1968 (RSA GG 2000). This Act was made applicable to SWA by section 6, which states, “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South-West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section 3 of the South-West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951), and in relation to all persons in that portion of the said territory known as the “Rehoboth Gebiet” and defined in the First Schedule to Proclamation No. 28 of 1923 of the said territory.” However, Act 3 of 1968 never came into force in respect of South Africa or South West Africa.

The Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1980 was repealed “in so far as it applies in relation to the Republic, except in so far as it relates to prize matters”, by the Admiralty Jurisdiction Regulation Act 105 of 1983 – which was not made applicable to South West Africa.

Section 2(2) of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890 makes the Admiralty Court Act, 1840, and the Admiralty Court Act, 1861 applicable to Namibia.

“The next question is whether a South African Court of admiralty did have such jurisdiction prior to 1 November 1983. The jurisdiction of such a Court was governed by the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, a statute of the British Parliament. In terms of s 2(2) of this Act the jurisdiction of a colonial court of admiralty was stated to be ‘...over the like places, persons, matters, and things, as the admiralty jurisdiction of the High Court of England, whether existing by virtue of any statute or otherwise, and the Colonial Court of Admiralty [might] exercise such jurisdiction in like manner and to as full an extent as the High Court in England...’. It has been authoritatively held that the effect of s 2(2) was that the jurisdiction of a Court of admiralty was governed by the admiralty jurisdiction of the English High Court as it existed in 1890. The sources of such jurisdiction included English statutes passed before 1890, notably the Admiralty Court Act, 1840, and the Admiralty Court Act, 1861, but not subsequent legislation. (Beaver Marine (Pty) Ltd v Wuest 1978 (4) SA 263 (A) at 274C-D; Malilang and Others v MV Houda Pearl 1986 (2) SA 714 (A) at 722J-723B. The suggestion in Joubert (ed) The Law of South Africa vol 25 para 114 note 8 that the true date was 1 July 1891 is, in my view, incorrect. According to The Yuri Maru, The Woron [1927] AC 906 (PC) at 915, the critical time was ‘when the Act passed’, which was 25 July 1890; and it does not seem to me that this is affected by the provision in s 16 that generally the Act was to come into force on 1 July 1891.) Furthermore, the proceedings in a Court of admiralty were regulated by the rules in force in 1890 under the Vice-Admiralty Courts Act, 1863 (see Tharros Shipping Corporation SA v Owner of the Ship ‘Golden Ocean’ 1972 (4) SA 316 (N) at 319A).”

Rules: The 1890 Act repealed the Vice-Admiralty Courts Act 1863, but provided that the rules made under the Vice-Admiralty Courts Act 1863, made under that Act would continue to apply in any British possession until revoked or varied (see section 16(3)):

See MV “Jute Express” v Owners of the Cargo Lately Laden on Board the MV “Jute Express” 1992 (3) SA 9 (A) at 19: “… in South African admiralty practice from the last century until the passing of the Act, the action was commenced by the issue of summons: see Rule 5 of the Rules made in terms of the English Vice-Admiralty Courts Act 1863 (in force in this country by virtue of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act 1890).”
See Namibia Ports Authority v M V ‘Rybak Leningrada’ 1996 NR 355 (HC) at 358F-G: “There is no issue between the parties that the Rules relied upon in this application are made under the 1840 and 1861 Acts named the Vice Admiralty Rules.”

See Bourgwells Ltd (Owners of MFV Ofelia) v Shepalov & Others 1998 NR 307 (HC) at 311E-F: “…the Admiralty Proceedings Rules of South Africa do not apply in Namibia. The Rules for the Vice-Admiralty Courts in Her Majesty’s Possessions Abroad, 1883, strange as it may seem, still apply.”

“As was correctly found by Levy J the South African Admiralty Jurisdiction Regulation Act, Act 105 of 1983 does not apply to Namibia. However, prior to Act 105 of 1983 Admiralty Jurisdiction was exercised by South African Courts by virtue of the provisions of s 2 of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act 1890. (See in this regard Trivett & Co (Pty) Ltd and Others v Win Brandt’s Sons & Co Ltd and Others 1975 (3) SA 423 (A).) The provisions of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act 1890 was therefore part of the statute law of the Cape of Good Hope when by s 1(1) of Proc 21 of 1919 the law as existing and applied in that province was introduced into the then South-West Africa. (See further R v Goseb 1956 (2) SA 696 (SWA). S v Redondo 1992 NR 133 (SC) also 1993 (2) SA 528 (NmS) and The Law of Shipping and Carriage in South Africa, 3rd ed by B Bamford, p 4 footnote 27.) In cases such as Tittel v The Master of The High Court 1921 SWA 58 and Krueger v Hoge 1954 (4) SA 248 (SWA) it was decided that statutes which applied in the Cape as at 1 January 1920 also apply in South-West Africa by virtue of the provisions of Proc 21 of 1919. This was again reaffirmed in the Redondo case supra at 150 (NR) and 539I-540B (SA). Admiralty law as applied by the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, is therefore part of the Namibian law.”

Freiremar SA v The Prosecutor-General of Namibia & Another 1996 NR 18 (HC) at 27H-28D (emphasis added)

“On 10 July 1974 the Natal Provincial Division, purporting to sit as a Colonial Court of Admiralty in terms of sec. 2 (1) of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890 (53 and 54 Vict. C. 27), granted, at the instance of the first respondent, an order, with costs against certain of the defendants, appointing a commissioner for the examination of such claims against the proceeds of the sale of the ship, Waikiwi Pioneer, sold by order of Court, as may be lodged with him, and for the determination of their nature and the amounts thereof, to enable the Court to decide their proper order of preference.

The application for the order was resisted on the ground that the Republic of South Africa having ceased to be a “British possession” within the meaning of that expression in sec. 2 (1) of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, the several Provincial and Local Divisions of the Supreme Court of South Africa were no longer Colonial Courts of Admiralty with the jurisdiction conferred upon such Courts by the said Act, and that the order prayed for could, therefore, not properly be made by the Natal Provincial Division sitting as a Colonial Court of Admiralty under the Act of 1890. The Court a quo held, however, that the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, was a law in force in the Union of South Africa immediately prior to the commencement of the Republic of South Africa Constitution Act, 32 of 1961, and that sec. 107 of the latter Act accordingly provided for its continuation in relation to the Republic until repealed or amended by competent authority. The appellants now appeal to this Court against the order of the Court a quo.

Sec. 2 (1) of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, provides as follows:

“(1) Every Court of law in a British possession, which is for the time being declared in pursuance of this Act to be a Court of Admiralty, or which, if no such declaration is in force in the possession, has therein original unlimited civil jurisdiction, shall be a Court of Admiralty, with the jurisdiction in this Act mentioned, and may for the purpose of that jurisdiction exercise all the powers which it possesses for the purpose of its other civil jurisdiction, and such Court in reference to the jurisdiction conferred by this Act is in this Act referred to as a Colonial Court of Admiralty. Where in a British possession the Governor is the sole judicial authority, the expression ‘Court of law’ for the purposes of this section includes such Governor.”

The expression “British possession” is by sec. 18 (2) of the Interpretation Act, 1889 (52 and 53 Vict. C. 63) defined as:

“All parts of Her Majesty’s Dominions exclusive of the British Islands, and of British India, and where parts of such dominions are under both a central and a local legislature, all parts under the central legislature shall, for the purposes of this definition, be deemed to be one British possession.”

The expression “unlimited civil jurisdiction” is defined by sec. 15 of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, as - “Civil jurisdiction unlimited as to the value of the subject-matter at issue, or as to the amount that may be claimed or recovered”.

No Court of law in South Africa has, in terms of sec. 2 (1) as read with sec. 3 (a) of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, been declared to be a Colonial Court of Admiralty, but the several Divisions of the Supreme Court in South Africa became Colonial Courts of Admiralty by virtue of their having unlimited civil jurisdiction in a British possession as envisaged by the said sec. 2 (1). (Tharros Shipping Corporation S.A. v Owner of the Ship “Golden Ocean”, 1972 (4) SA 316 (N) at pp. 318-319).

The jurisdiction of Colonial Courts of Admiralty are prescribed as follows by sec. 2 (2) of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890:

“The jurisdiction of a Colonial Court of Admiralty shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be over the like places, persons, matters, and things, as the Admiralty jurisdiction of the High Court in England, whether existing by virtue of any statute or otherwise, and the Colonial Court of Admiralty may exercise such jurisdiction in like manner and to as full an extent as the High Court in England, and shall have the same regard as that Court to international law and the comity of nations.”

It is clear that the four British Colonies which in 1910 became the Union of South Africa in terms of sec. 4 of the South Africa Act, 1909 (9 Edward VII, C. 9) were British possessions within the meaning of that expression in sec. 2 (1) of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, and that every court of law which in those Colonies had unlimited civil jurisdiction, became, in terms of that section, a Colonial Court of Admiralty with the jurisdiction conferred by the 1890 Act.

The Union of South Africa was clearly also a British possession within the meaning of that expression in sec. 2 (1) of the 1890 Act and it is, therefore, also clear that the several Divisions of the Supreme Court of the Union of South Africa also became Colonial Courts of Admiralty.
in terms of the said sec. 2 (1), for they were Courts of law which had unlimited civil jurisdiction in a British possession.

The jurisdiction exercised by them as Courts of Admiralty in the Union of South Africa being prescribed by the Act of 1890, that Act accordingly applied in the Union. It was accordingly not necessary to provide for its continuation in the Union of South Africa by sec. 135 of South Africa Act, 1909, and it probably never was the intention to do so. Sec. 135 was concerned more with the continuation of existing Colonial laws in the respective Provinces of the Union, and not with the 1890 Act which, by reason of the definition of British possession, was applicable to the whole of the Union as a single British possession.

The application in the Union of South Africa of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, was recognised by sec. 6 of the Statute of Westminster, 1931 (22 Geo. 5 C. 5), as read with sec. 3 of the Status of the Union Act, 69 of 1934, and by the proviso to sec. 106 of the South Africa Act, 1909, and it was common cause that immediately prior to the commencement of the Republic of South Africa Constitution Act, 32 of 1961, the 1890 Act was in force in the Union of South Africa.

Act 32 of 1961, however, introduced important constitutional changes in South Africa which in terms of that Act became a republic and accordingly ceased to be a British possession. For its contention that the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, nevertheless continued to be in force in the Republic of South Africa, the respondent relied mainly upon sec. 107 of Act 32 of 1961 which reads as follows:

“Subject to the provisions of this Act, all laws which were in force in any part of the Union of South Africa, or in any territory in respect of which Parliament is competent to legislate, immediately prior to the commencement of this Act, shall continue in force until repealed or amended by the competent authority.”

These are words of wide import no doubt employed to ensure the continuation in the Republic of all laws in force in the Union of South Africa immediately prior to the coming into existence of the Republic, except those expressly repealed by the Act, until such time as they are repealed or amended by the authorities competent to do so under the Act.

This would accord with the general policy of the Act of 1961 as it appears clearly from the provisions of, inter alia, secs. 24, 80, 94 and 112, namely, that, except for the fact that the Union of South Africa became a Republic in terms of the Act and therefore ceased to be a British possession, and that the Crown, or the Queen or the Governor-General was replaced by the State President, everything was to continue as before, including all statutory institutions which operated in the Union of South Africa. In terms of sec. 24 (2), for instance, the Senate and the House of Assembly, as constituted for the Parliament of the Union of South Africa, and in existence immediately prior to the coming into existence of the Republic, were deemed to have been duly constituted for the Parliament of the Republic, and any person elected or nominated as a member of the Senate or House of Assembly, and holding office immediately prior to the coming into existence of the Republic, was deemed to have been duly elected or nominated to the Senate or House of Assembly established by Act 32 of 1961. See also secs. 24 (4), 24 (5) and 24 (6) which provide, inter alia, for the disposal by the Parliament of the Republic of matters partly dealt with by the Union Parliament.

Having regard to these considerations, there can be no doubt that the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, which was a law in force in the Union of South Africa immediately prior to the coming into existence of the Republic, was intended by the Legislature to be included within the ambit of sec. 107 of Act 32 of 1961. The argument on behalf of the appellants that, because by Act 32 of 1961 the Union of South Africa ceased to be a British possession, the words "subject to the provisions of this Act" in sec. 107 have the effect of excluding from its ambit laws which were in force in the Union of South Africa by virtue of the fact that it was a British possession, cannot be sustained. It was precisely by reason of the constitutional changes brought about by Act 32 of 1961 that the enactment of sec. 107 thereof became necessary, and it would be strange indeed if the constitutional change of the Union of South Africa from a British possession to a republic was to have the effect of rendering sec. 107 inoperative in relation to a law which was in force in the Union of South Africa by virtue of its having been a British possession.

The more difficult question is whether, even if the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, continues in force in the Republic by reason of the provisions of sec. 107 of Act 32 of 1961, that Act can operate to confer upon Courts of law in the Republic the status and jurisdiction of Colonial Courts of Admiralty. It is clear that sec. 2 (1) of the 1890 Act in terms confers such status and jurisdiction only upon Courts of law in a British possession, and counsel for the respondent was constrained to concede that, unless that section of the Act as extended to the Republic by sec. 107 of Act 32 of 1961 is construed to refer to Courts of law in the Republic, it cannot be read as conferring upon such Courts the status and jurisdiction of Colonial Courts of Admiralty.

The Colonial Courts of Admiralty are the successors to the Vice-Admiralty Courts which were abolished by sec. 17 of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, but subject to the provisions of that Act. The Vice-Admiralty Courts exercised the judicial functions of the Lord High Admiral by whom they were established in the United Kingdom and its dependencies. (Crooks & Co. v Agricultural Co-operative Union Ltd., 1922 AD 423). The jurisdiction exercised by the Vice-Admiralty Courts was commonly that of the High Court of Admiralty (The Yuri Maru: The Woron, 1927 A.C. 906 at p. 912), which exercised concurrent jurisdiction with Vice-Admiralty Courts abroad (The Peerless, (1860) 30 Lush. 167 E.R. 16). All Admiralty Courts administer English Admiralty law. (Currie v McKnight, 1897 A.C. 97 at p. 101, and Crooks & Co.’s case, supra at pp. 429-430, 432 et seq.).

Having regard to these features and to the origin and historical development in general of Admiralty Courts as sketched in the judgments in Crooks & Co’s case, supra, and the cases cited therein, it seems clear that Colonial Courts of Admiralty were by their very nature primarily intended to operate only in British possessions. The existence of such Courts administering English Admiralty law in a foreign country, such as the Republic of South Africa, would therefore be an anachronism; an anachronism which, however, seems to be perpetuated, in part, by the Admiralty Jurisdiction Regulation Act, 5 of 1972, of the Republic of South Africa. That Act which, we are informed, has not yet come into operation, provides for the repeal of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, in so far as it applies in relation to the Republic. Sec. 1 of the Act provides that:

“The powers and jurisdiction of the courts of admiralty of the Republic referred to in the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890 (53 and 54 Victoria, C. 27) of the United Kingdom shall, as from the commencement of this Act, and notwithstanding the repeal of that Act by this Act, vest in the provincial and local divisions of the Supreme Court of South Africa.”

It follows from this, I think, that the powers and jurisdiction thus conferred upon the several Divisions of the Supreme Court will still have to be determined by reference to the Act of 1890.

In enquiring whether the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, applies in relation to the Republic, no regard can be had to the assumption made by Parliament in Act 5 of 1972 that it does, for, if the assumption is erroneous in law, it cannot alter the law (Ex parte Swirsky, 1930 T.P.D. 370 at p. 372), and, in enquiring whether the assumption is correct, the assumption itself cannot be of any assistance.

It obviously never was the intention of the British Parliament, in enacting the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, that the status and jurisdiction of Colonial Courts of Admiralty be conferred on Courts of law in any country other than a British possession, and it is indeed difficult, if not impossible, to apply some of the provisions of the 1890 Act, such as secs. 8 and 9, in relation to any country which is not a British possession. We are, however, not here concerned with the intention of the Parliament at Westminster in enacting the 1890 Act, but with the intention of the Parliament of the Union of South Africa in extending to the Republic the provisions of the 1890 Act by sec. 107 of Act 32 of 1961, for since South Africa ceased to be a British possession and became a Republic it is by the will of the Union Parliament, and not of the British Parliament, that the 1890 Act applies in relation to the Republic.
The 1890 Act would have ceased to apply in relation to South Africa when the Union became a Republic and ceased to be a British possession. What then was the intention of the Union Parliament in providing by sec. 107 of Act 32 of 1961 for the continuation in the Republic also of the 1890 Act?

In seeking an answer to this question, the general policy of Act 32 of 1961 cannot be overlooked. As already indicated that policy was that, subject to the specific exceptions mentioned, everything was to continue exactly as before, and that all statutory institutions which operated in the Union of South Africa immediately prior to the commencement of the Act, were to continue to operate in the Republic. If that was the intention of the Union Parliament it would be going against that intention to hold that Parliament did not intend to provide for the continued functioning in the Republic of Courts of Admiralty under the provisions of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890. If Parliament did not, in extending to the Republic the provisions of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, contemplate the continued functioning in the Republic of Admiralty Courts under the provisions of that Act, and if the words “every court of law in a British possession” in sec. 2 (1) of that Act are to be given their literal meaning, the extension of the Act to the Republic would be meaningless and a nullity. In Salmon v Duncombe, (1886) 11 App. Cas. 627 at p. 634, Lord HOBHOUSE, in the Privy Council, said:

“It is, however, a very serious matter to hold that when the main object of a statute is clear, it shall be reduced to a nullity by the draftsman’s unskillfulness or ignorance of law. It may be necessary for a Court of Justice to come to such a conclusion, but their Lordships hold that nothing can justify it except necessity or the absolute intractability of the language used.”

If sec. 3 of the Act 32 of 1961, which provides for the construction of pre-Republican laws, had included a provision that any reference in any law in force in the Union of South Africa immediately prior to the commencement of Act 32 of 1961 to a “British possession” shall be construed as a reference to the Republic, the matter would have been clear. It would, however, be a serious matter to hold that the extension to the Republic of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, by sec. 107 of Act 32 of 1961 should be reduced to a nullity where, though the intention of the Legislature is clear, the necessity for such a provision as aforesaid was overlooked. (Cf. also R. v Vasey, (1905) 2 K.B. 748, and R. v Ettridge, (1909) 2 K.B. 24). The necessity sometimes to modify or vary the words of a statute to give effect to the clear intention of the Legislature was referred to by DE VILLIERS, J.A., in Principal Immigration Officer v Hawabu and Another, 1936 AD 26 at p. 31, where the learned Judge of Appeal said:

“It is true that, even where the words of an Act are capable of one meaning only, there is an exceptional class of extreme cases in which courts of law have felt themselves compelled to ‘modify’ or ‘cut down’ or ‘vary’ the words used by the Legislature. In a sense this might be called amputation rather than interpretation. This process has been applied to statutory enactments in a few cases, such as Storm & Co. v Durban Municipality, 1925 AD 49 at p. 55; Brown v Brown, 1921 AD 484; R. v Venter, 1907 T.S. 910.”

In Venter’s case, supra, INNES, C.J., stated the principle thus -

“that when to give the plain words of the statute their ordinary meaning would lead to an absurdity so glaring that it could never have been contemplated by the Legislature, or where it would lead to a result contrary to the intention of the Legislature, as shown by the context or by such other considerations as the Court is justified to take into account, the Court may depart from the ordinary effect of the words to the extent necessary to remove the absurdity and to give effect to the true intention of the Legislature”.

Applying these principles to the case before us, it seems to me that we are bound to construe the words “every court of law in a British possession” in sec. 2 (1) of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, in its application in relation to the Republic, as a reference to “every court of law in the Republic”. That being so, sec. 2 (1) of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, as extended to the Republic by sec. 107 of Act 32 of 1961, does operate to confer upon the several Divisions of the Supreme Court of South Africa the status and jurisdiction of Colonial Courts of Admiralty.
For these reasons the appeal fails and is dismissed with costs, including the costs of two counsel, such costs to be paid by the appellants jointly and severally, the one paying the others to be absolved.”

1975 (3) SA 423 (A) (emphasis added)

Admiralty Jurisdiction Regulation Act 5 of 1972, as amended in South Africa to November 1979.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 3406) requires the High Court, when sitting as a court of admiralty, to refer to the law of England. Note that it was never brought into force in respect of either South Africa or SWA.

Applicability to SWA: Section 5 of this Act states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” Section 6 states “This Act shall be called the Admiralty Jurisdiction
Regulation Act, 1972, and shall come into operation on a date fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette.” No such Proclamation was issued, meaning that the Act was never in force in South West Africa or in independent Namibia.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended. The Act was repealed in its entirety in South Africa by the Admiralty Jurisdiction Regulation Act 105 of 1983 (RSA GG 8891), which was not made applicable to SWA.

In terms of section 3(1) of the Executive Powers Transfer (General Provisions) Proclamation, AG 7 of 1977, a reference to the Republic is to be construed as a reference to the territory of South West Africa. However, section 3(1)(r) of the transfer proclamation excluded sections 1 and 2 of this Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation. Thus, in those sections, prior to Namibian independence, “Republic” retained the meaning of the Republic of South Africa while in sections 3 and 4, “Republic” was to be construed as referring to South-West Africa.

Bonemeal and Superphosphates Control Proclamation 37 of 1944.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 1147) controls the importation, sale and supply of bonemeal, bonemeal products and superphosphates. It is still in force, but there is some overlap with the provisions of the Fertilizers, Farm Feeds and Agricultural Remedies Act 36 of 1947.

Amendments: The Proclamation is amended by Proc. 33/1947 (OG 1322).

Regulations: The Proclamation does not include authorisation for regulations.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 3834) governs the registration, importation, sale and use of the items listed in the title. It was originally called the Fertilizers, Farm Feeds, Seeds and Remedies Act 36 of 1947. However, the name was changed several times by various amendments to the Act. The Act repeals the Fertilizers, Farm Foods, Seeds and Pest Remedies Act 21 of 1917. The RSA Fertilizers, Farm Feeds, Agricultural Remedies and Stock Remedies Amendment Act 17 of 1972 (RSA GG 3459), which made this Act applicable to South West Africa, also repealed the SWA Fertilisers, Farm Foods, Seeds and Pest Remedies Ordinance 15 of 1930.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1, as added in 1972, defines “Republic” to include “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 24, as inserted in 1972, states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of the Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Agricultural Technical Services) Transfer Proclamation (AG 11/1978), dated 2 March 1978.

Section 3(1)(b) of the transfer proclamation excluded section 2 of the Act (which deals with the designation of a Registrar of Fertilizers, Farm Feeds, Agricultural Remedies and Stock Remedies by the Minister) from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that this section of the Act continued to be administered by the South African Minister of Agriculture.

Section 3(1)(b) of the transfer proclamation also excluded the references to the “Republic” in sections 16(1) and 16(6)(a)(i) of the Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that in these sections “Republic” retained the meaning it was given in the definition section of the Act (South Africa and SWA).

Section 3(1)(g) of the transfer proclamation exempted section 23 of the Fertilizers, Farm Feeds, Agricultural Remedies and Stock Remedies Amendment Act 24 of 1977 (regarding regulations) from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation.

There was only one South African amendment to the Act after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Fertilizers, Farm Feeds, Agricultural Remedies and Stock Remedies Amendment Act 4 of 1980 – which was not made expressly applicable to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Fertilizers, Farm Feeds, Seeds and Remedies Amendment Act 48 of 1950 (SA GG 4422)
- Seeds Act 28 of 1961 (SA GG 6673)
- Fertilizers, Farm Feeds and Remedies Amendment Act 60 of 1970 (RSA GG 2845)
- Fertilizers, Farm Feeds, Agricultural Remedies and Stock Remedies Amendment Act 17 of 1972 (RSA GG 3459)
- Fertilizers, Farm Feeds, Agricultural Remedies and Stock Remedies Amendment Act 24 of 1977 (RSA GG 5461)

Section 15 of this amending Act, which amends section 16 of Act 36 of 1947, was brought into force in South Africa on 3 October 1980 by RSA Proc. R.189/1980 (RSA GG 7243). This date is after the date of transfer of Act 36 of 1947. Therefore, in terms of section 3(4) of the Executive Powers Transfer (General Provisions) Proclamation, AG 7 of 1977, section 15 of the amending Act was not thereby brought into force in South West Africa because the proclamation in question did not contain an express statement that it was issued with the consent of the Administrator-General and applies also in the territory.

The Act was amended by the Animal Slaughter, Meat and Animal Products Hygiene Amendment Act 13 of 1975 (RSA GG 4632). However, this Act was never brought into force in South Africa or South West Africa. The portions of the amending Act relevant to Act 36 of 1947 (section 16 and the Schedule to Act 13 of 1975) were repealed by the Fertilizers, Farm Feeds, Agricultural Remedies and Stock Remedies Amendment Act 4 of 1980 (RSA GG 6907), but this repeal was not effective in respect of South West Africa because it occurred after the date of transfer and was not made expressly applicable to South West Africa.

After Namibian independence, the Medicines and Related Substances Control Act 13 of 2003 (GG 3051) amended sections 1, 3, 7, 15, 23, and 26, deleted section 7(2)(b) and amended the short title of the Act – but these amendments were all repealed by the Medicines and Related Substances Control Amendment Act 13 of 2003 (GG 3051). These amendments would have removed “stock remedies” from the Act’s coverage. However, section 47 of Act 13 of 2003 was amended by the Namibian Medicines and Related Substances Control Amendment Act 8 of 2007 (GG 3968), brought into force on 1 August 2008 by GN 187/2008 (GG 4091). The amended section states in relevant part that “all amendments to the Fertilizers, Farm Feeds, Agricultural Remedies and Stock Remedies Act, 1947 (Act No. 36 of 1947), contained in the Schedule are repealed”. Thus, it appears that the amendments to Act 36 of 1947 by Act 13 of 2003 are no longer applicable.

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations which appear to remain in force are listed below. Note that section 23 of the Act, which gives the Minister power to make regulations, was excluded from transfer by section 3(1)(g) of the transfer proclamation. Thus, regulations which came into force after the date of transfer were applicable to SWA.

Note also that there are no savings clauses for regulations made under the laws repealed by this Act or by the Fertilizers, Farm Feeds, Agricultural Remedies and Stock Remedies Amendment Act 17 of 1972 which applied it to SWA.

Regulations on returns to be rendered by manufacturers of fertilizers are contained in SA GN 1522/1951 (SA GG 4636). No amendments or repeals in respect of these regulations have been located.

Regulations on returns by manufacturers and importers of farm feeds and prohibitions in connection with farm feeds of animal origin are contained in SA GN 1229/1955 (SA GG 5491), as amended by SA GG 643/1956 (SA GG 5662), which substitutes Schedule 1.

Regulations on the registration and sale of agricultural remedies are contained in SA GN 1243/1951 (SA GG 4614). No amendments or repeals in respect of these regulations have been located.

Regulations relating to the registration, importation, manufacture, movement and sale of farm feeds and the registration of sterilizing plants are contained in RSA GN R.987/1973 (RSA GG 3927), as amended by RSA GN R.1373/1973 (RSA GG 3994), RSA GN R.1996/1974 (RSA GG 4478) (which erroneously cites RSA GN R.897/1973 as being the original regulations), RSA GN R.254/1976 (RSA GG 4984), RSA GN R.2296/1977 (RSA GG 5800), and RSA GN R.1679/1978 (RSA GG 6133). RSA GN R.2296/1977, which contains a provision repealing regulation 3 of these regulations, was repealed by RSA GN R.1449/1983 (RSA GG 8783). These regulations were repealed except insofar as they relate to sterilizing plants by the regulations relating to farm feeds contained in RSA GN R.1359/1980 (RSA GG 7105). These 1980 regulations post-dated the relevant date of transfer, but, in addition to the exemption from transfer of the Minister’s power to make regulations (as noted above), regulation 27 of these 1980 regulations states: “These regulations are made with the consent of the Administrator-General for the Territory of South West Africa and shall also apply in the Territory.”

Regulations relating to farm feeds are contained in GN R.1359/1980 (RSA GG 7105). These 1980 regulations post-dated the relevant date of transfer, but regulation 27 states: “These regulations are made with the consent of the Administrator-General for the Territory of South West Africa and shall also apply in the Territory.” These regulations are amended by RSA GN R.1420/1981 (RSA GG 7655) and RSA GN R.1449/1983 (RSA GG 8783).

Regulations relating to agricultural remedies are contained in RSA GN R.2561/1981 (RSA GG 7934). Regulation 24 states 24 that these regulations “(a) shall come into operation on 2 January 1982; and (b) shall apply in the territory of South West Africa and are, in so far as they thus apply, made with the consent of the Administrator-General of that territory”. These regulations are amended by RSA GN R.1449/1983 (RSA GG 8783).

Regulations relating to the registration of fertilizers, farm feeds, agricultural remedies, stock remedies, sterilising plants and pest control operators, appeals and imports are contained in RSA GN R.1449/1983 (RSA GG 8783). These regulations make no specific reference to South West Africa. They are amended by RSA GN R.96/1984 (RSA GG 9035), RSA GN R.2055/1984 (RSA GG 9419) and RSA GN R.1053/1988 (RSA GG 11326).

Post-independence regulations concerning the registration of fertilizers, farm feeds, sterilising plants and agricultural remedies are contained in GN 112/2007 (GG 3863), which repeals GN 202/2001 (GG 2624) and replaces GN 58/2007 (GG 3812) — which had previously repealed GN 202/2001. None of the post-independence regulations repeal any pre-independence regulations.

Repealed regulations: The following list of repeals of pre-independence regulations may be helpful, although it is not comprehensive.

- Regulations on returns by manufacturers and importers of farm feeds and prohibition in connection with farm feeds of animal origin were published in SA GN 630/1949 (SA GG 4137), but repealed by GN 1229/1955 (SA GG 5491).
- Regulations in connection with the registration and sale of fertilizers were published in RSA GN R.2105/1971 (RSA GG 3314) but repealed by RSA GN R.799/1977 (RSA GG 5552).
- Regulations pertaining to the registration, importation, manufacture, movement and sale of agricultural remedies were published in RSA GN R.538/1974 (RSA GG 4241) but repealed by RSA GN R.2561/1981 (RSA GG 7934).
- Regulations relating to appeals against decisions of the Registrar were published in RSA GN R.2296/1977 (RSA GG 5800) but repealed by RSA GN R.1449/1983 (RSA GG 8783).
• Regulations relating to the importation of fertilizers, farm feeds, agricultural remedies and stock remedies were published in RSA GN R.2042/1980 (RSA GG 7243) but repealed by RSA GN R.1449/1983 (RSA GG 8783).

• Regulations relating to pest control operators were published in RSA GN R.663/1983 (RSA GG 8617) but repealed by RSA GN R.1449/1983 (RSA GG 8783).

Notices: Some pre-independence notices made prior to the date of transfer appear to remain in force.

SA Proc. 204/1950 (SA GG 4435) confers upon the Secretary for Agriculture the power to prohibit by notice in the Gazette the acquisition, disposal or use of any Group I fertilizer, as defined in SA GN 1156/1948 (SA GG 3977).

SA GN 1156/1948 (SA GG 3977) contained regulations on the registration and sale of fertilizers, which were repealed and replaced by regulations in SA GN 2099/1955 (SA GG 5564), repealed and replaced in turn by regulations in RSA GN R.1541/1963 (RSA GG 622), repealed and replaced in turn by regulations in RSA GN R.2105/1971 (RSA GG 3314), repealed and replaced in turn by regulations in RSA GN R.799/1977 (RSA GG 5552).

SA Proc. 122/1952 (SA GG 4860) confers upon the Secretary for Agriculture the power to prohibit by notice in the Gazette the acquisition, disposal or use of farm feeds except on such conditions as he may determine.

Section 7*bis*, added to the Act in 1950, gave the Minister power to prohibit by notice in the Gazette the acquisition, disposal, sale or use of certain fertilizers, farm feeds, agricultural remedies and stock remedies. A notice was issued pursuant to section 7*bis* of the Act in SA GN 1886/1950 (SA GG 4435), but the controls on fertilizer were lifted with respect to all fertilizers other than bonemeal by SA GG 2392/1953 (SA GG 5172).

A notice was issued pursuant to section 7*bis* of the Act in RSA GN R.1933/1970 (RSA GG 2916) prohibiting the acquisition, disposal or use of certain farm feeds without a permit. (This notice was repealed in respect of South Africa after the date of transfer by RSA GN R.472/1980 (RSA GG 6880).)

After independence, prohibitions on certain types of farm feeds were issued in terms of section 7*bis* in GN 199/1998 (GG 1927) and GN 201/2003 (GG 3060).

Application of law: Certain farm feeds are excluded from the operation of the Act by SA Proc. 218/1948 (SA GG 4016).

Certain remedies are excluded from the operation of the Act by SA Proc. 109/1948 (SA GG 3977), as amended by SA GN 111/1951 (SA GG 4614).

Certain fertilizers are excluded from the operation of the Act by RSA GN R.1651/1977 (SA GG 5721).

Exclusions issued after the date of transfer would presumably not have applied to SWA and so are not listed here.

Related laws: See GN 179/2008 (GG 4088) for exemptions from the application of section 29 of the Medicines and Related Substances Control Act 13 of 2003 (GG 3051) to certain substances registered under this Act.

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 1959) provides for the control of the meat industry and establishes the South West Africa Meat Corporation. Although technically still in force, it appears to have been superseded in some respects by the Meat Trade Control Ordinance 20 of 1962 (OG 2409), which was replaced by the Meat Industry Act 12 of 1981 (OG 4506).

Amendments: Section 39 is repealed by Ord. 7/1958 (OG 2141). See also the Financial Affairs Ordinance 8 of 1982 (Official Gazette 23 of the Representative Authority of the Whites), which repeals section 36 in respect of Whites.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 6673) governs the registration of dairy premises, the marketing of dairy products, and the dairy industry in general. Only the portions of the Act relating to margarine apply to Namibia. The Act repeals the RSA Dairy Industry Act 63 of 1957.

Applicability to SWA: The Act was applied to SWA only in so far as it relates to margarine, as a result of amendments made to the Act by the Dairy Industry Amendment Act 7 of 1976 (RSA GG 5015), brought into force on 1 July 1976 by RSA Proc. R.103/1976 (RSA GG 5161). Section 1 as amended defines “Republic” as including the territory “in relation to margarine”, and the “territory” is defined as “the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel”. Section 35A, inserted by Act 7 of 1976, states “This Act, and any amendment thereof which may be made from time to time, in so far as it relates to margarine or to a margarine factory, shall apply also in the territory.”
Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Agricultural Economics and Marketing) Transfer Proclamation (AG 18/1977), dated 20 December 1977.

Section 3(1) of the transfer proclamation excluded section 13 of the Act (which deals with the sale of falsely marked dairy produce) from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that in this section “Republic” retained the meaning it was given in the definition section of the Act.

There were two amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Dairy Industry Amendment Act 37 of 1983 (RSA GG 8662) and the Transfer of Powers and Duties of the State President Act 97 of 1986 (RSA GG 10438) – which were not made expressly applicable to South West Africa.

The Act was repealed in South Africa, after Namibian independence, by the Agricultural Product Standards Act 119 of 1990 (RSA GG 12641), gazetted on 13 July 1990.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Proclamation R.21 of 1961 (RSA GG 36), under the authority of section 28(1) of the Act
- Proclamation R.293 of 1964 (RSA GG 943), under the authority of section 28(1) of the Act
- Dairy Industry Amendment Act 34 of 1965 (RSA GG 1079)

- Marketing Amendment Act 52 of 1969 (RSA GG 2384)
- Proclamation R.158 of 1970 (RSA GG 2733), under the authority of section 28(1) of the Act
- Dairy Industry Amendment Act 96 of 1971 (RSA GG 3212)
- Proclamation R.194 of 1971 (RSA GG 3238), under the authority of section 28(1) of the Act
- Dairy Industry Laws Amendment Act 32 of 1972 (RSA GG 3492)
- Dairy Industry Amendment Act 7 of 1976 (RSA GG 5015).

The Importation of Margarine Amendment Proclamation, AG 32/1978 (OG 3754), amends section 15 to prohibit the importation of margarine into South West Africa without a permit from the Administrator-General.

Section 15(3) is deleted by the Dairy Industry Amendment Act 6 of 1997 (GG 1685).

Regulations: Regulations made in terms of the repealed RSA Dairy Industry Act 63 of 1957 survive pursuant to section 35 of this Act provided that they “are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act”. However, no such regulations appear to remain in force.\(^1\)

There is one set of pre-independence regulations relating specifically to margarine made under this Act. Margarine and margarine factories would also appear to fall under the general regulations on registration, inspection and sampling, noting that the definition of “dairy produce” in section 1 of the Act includes margarine.

Regulations relating to the structure, sanitation, drainage, ventilation, lighting and equipment of, the accommodation in, and the equipment, instruments, appliances and utensils to be used on premises registered in terms of the Dairy Industry Act, 1961 are contained in RSA GN R.2061/1964 (RSA GG 973), and include provision on margarine factories. These regulations were not amended in South Africa prior to the date of transfer. They were amended in South Africa after the date of transfer by RSA GN R.1254/1989 (RSA GG 11954) which was not made specifically applicable to SWA.

Regulations providing for the manner of registration, and renewal of registration, of premises under the Dairy Industry Act, 1961 are contained in RSA GN R.2062/1964 (RSA GG 973), as corrected by RSA GN R.328/1965 (RSA GG 1056) and as amended by RSA GN R.176/1971 (RSA GG 2991). They were amended in South Africa after the date of transfer by RSA GN R.1256/1989 (RSA GG 11954) which was not made specifically applicable to SWA.

Regulations prescribing the form of an inspector’s order or: prohibition under the Dairy Industry Act, 1961 are contained in RSA GN R.2063/1964 (RSA GG 973). No amendments were located.

Regulations relating to the taking of samples of dairy produce for the purpose of analysis or examination under the Dairy Industry Act, 1961 are contained in RSA GN R.2070/1964 (RSA GG 973), as amended by RSA GN R.176/1971 (RSA GG 2991).

Regulations relating to the manufacture, composition, packing and marking of margarine are contained in RSA GN R.1716/1977 (RSA GG 5725, dated 2 September 1977, which was prior to the date of transfer). These regulations repeal those published in RSA GN R.1495/1971 (RSA GG 3238), as amended by RSA GN R.2186/1972 (RSA GG 3718), RSA GN R.2100/1973 (RSA GG 4074) and RSA GN R.1132/1976 (RSA GG 5194). The 1977 regulations were amended in South Africa only after the date of the transfer proclamation (20 December 1977), by RSA GN R. 2121/1985 (RSA GG 9935), which was corrected by RSA GN R. 2850/1985 (RSA GG 10048); this amendment is not made explicitly applicable to SWA. These regulations were repealed in South Africa by RSA GN 562/1990 (RSA GG 12341), dated 16 March 1990 – which was after the date of transfer and would not have been effective in SWA. No repeal in respect of SWA has been located, so these regulations appear to remain in force.

Regulations providing for the manner of registration, and renewal of registration, of premises under the Dairy Industry Act, 1961 (in respect of premises under section 3, which covers margarine) were contained in RSA GN R.2080/1964 (RSA GG 973). However, this notice was cancelled by GN. R.100/1965 (RSA GG 1011), which explained that they were inadvertently published. RSA GN R.2080/1964 was also subsequently repealed by RSA GN R.1254/1989 (RSA GG 11954), which was not made specifically applicable to SWA.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 1778) provides for the control and promotion of the marketing of canned fruit on export markets. It was brought into force in both South \textbf{Note:} This Act repeals the \textit{Canned Fruit and Vegetables Export Control Act 66 of 1956 (SA GG 5715)}, which applied to South West Africa by virtue of the definition of “the Union” in section 1, which included “the territory of South-West Africa”, and by virtue of section 7, which stated: ‘This Act shall apply also in the territory of South-West Africa.” Act 66 of 1956 was amended by the \textit{Canned Fruit and Vegetables Export Control Amendment Act 83 of 1957 (SA GG 5908)}, the \textit{Canned Fruit and Vegetables Export Control Amendment Act 28 of 1958 (SA GG 6109)} and the \textit{Canned Fruit and Vegetables Export Control Amendment Act 69 of 1959 (SA GG 6259)}; Act 69 of 1959 expressly made all three amending Acts applicable to South West Africa. The three amending Acts do not seem to have been repealed in South West Africa or Namibia; thus, they remain in force, but they have no independent relevance given the repeal of the principal Act which they amended.

\textbf{Applicability to SWA:} Section 11 of the Act originally stated: “This Act shall apply also in the territory of South-West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section 3 of the South-West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951), and in relation to all persons in that portion of the said territory known as the “Rehoboth Gebiet” and defined in the First Schedule to Proclamation No. 28 of 1923 of the said territory.”

Section 11 (as substituted by \textit{Act 48 of 1971, RSA GG 3135}, which was brought into force on 2 August 1971 by Proc. R.168 of 1971, \textit{RSA GG 3221}), states that “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South-West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel”.

\textbf{Transfer of administration to SWA:} The administration of this Act (which was the responsibility of the Minister of Economic Affairs) was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Commerce) Transfer Proclamation (AG 28/1978), dated 28 April 1978. The only amendment to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the \textit{Canned Fruit Export Marketing Amendment Act 15 of 1981 (RSA GG 7436)} – was not made expressly applicable to SWA. The Act and its amendments were repealed in South Africa by the \textit{Marketing Amendment Act 79 of 1987 (RSA GG 10956)}, which was not made expressly applicable to SWA.

\textbf{Amendments:} The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –
- \textit{Canned Fruit Export Marketing Amendment Act 48 of 1971 (RSA GG 3135)}
- \textit{Finance Act 111 of 1977 (RSA GG 5663)}

\textbf{Regulations:} There is no savings clause regarding regulations made under the repealed Act. Regulations on meetings of the South African Canned Fruit Export Board were made in terms of this Act in South Africa prior to independence and prior to the date of transfer, and are contained in RSA GN R.1336/1971 (\textit{RSA GG 3224}), which withdraws RSA GN R.660/1968 (RSA GG 2053).

\textbf{Notices:} Certain canned products are declared to be canned fruit for the purposes of the Act in RSA GN R.2230/1971 (\textit{RSA GG 3327}), which withdraws RSA GN R.819/1968 (RSA GG 2072).

A notice on export licences for canned fruit, which covered both RSA and SWA, was issued in terms of section 8 of the Act in RSA GN 723/1978 (\textit{RSA GG 5981}) (dated 14 April 1978, just before the date of transfer). This notice is amended in South Africa by RSA GN R.1384/1980 (RSA GG 7112), which postdates the date of transfer but makes specific mention of SWA (without discussing its applicability to SWA explicitly).

This notice withdraws RSA GN R.1846/1975 (RSA GG 4856), which withdrew RSA GN R.1933/1971 (RSA GG 3296), which in turn withdrew RSA GN R.818/1968 (GG 2072).

Note: Canned fruit is also covered by other laws listed under AGRICULTURE.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 2107) regulates the production and sale of agricultural products, as well as the grading and standardisation of such products. It also establishes various boards and control bodies. It repeals the Marketing Act 26 of 1937 and its amendments.

Applicability to SWA: Section 99 of the original Act stated “The provisions of this Act, in so far as they relate to karakul pelts, shall also apply in the territory of South-West Africa.” Section 99(1), as amended by Act 78 of 1971, states “This act and any amendments thereof shall apply also in the territory, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” Section 99(2) states “Any proclamation, regulation or notice issued or made under this Act prior to the commencement of the Marketing Amendment Act, 1971, and which does not apply in the territory immediately prior to such commencement, shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, not apply in the territory.” In definitions inserted by Act 78 of 1971, “Republic” is defined to include the “territory”, which is defined as “the territory of South West Africa”.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Agricultural Economics and Marketing) Transfer Proclamation (AG 18/1977), dated 20 December 1977.

The provisions of the Act which relate to the Karakul Scheme published under the Act in Proclamation R.172 of 1968 (RSA GG 2112), and the Wool Scheme published under the Act in Proc. R.155 of 1972 (RSA GG 3585) were excluded from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that they were not transferred to SWA. However, the Executive Powers (Agricultural Economics and Marketing) Transfer Proclamation (AG 18/1977) was amended by the Karakul Scheme Amendment Proclamation AG 41 of 1978 (OG 3771), to remove the references to the Karakul Scheme from this exemption with effect from 1 July 1978.

The provisions of the Act relating to boards and control bodies relevant to these schemes were excluded from transfer by section 3(2)(b) of the General Proclamation, which exempted from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation “those provisions of any law... which provide for or relate to the institution, constitution or control of any juristic person or any board or any other body of persons that may exercise powers or perform other functions in or in respect of both the territory and the Republic”.

None of the amending acts in South Africa after the date of transfer were made expressly applicable to SWA. The Marketing Amendment Act 79 of 1987 (RSA GG 10956) repealed section 99 of the Act (concerning applicability to SWA) in South Africa, but this amending Act was not made expressly applicable to SWA.
Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Marketing Amendment Act 52 of 1969 (RSA GG 2384)
- Marketing Amendment Act 69 of 1970 (RSA GG 2864)
- Marketing Amendment Act 78 of 1971 (RSA GG 3189)
- Marketing Amendment Act 68 of 1972 (RSA GG 3558)
- Marketing Amendment Act 31 of 1973 (RSA GG 3860)
- Marketing Amendment Act 73 of 1974 (RSA GG 4501)
- Marketing Amendment Act 38 of 1975 (RSA GG 4701)
- Marketing Amendment Act 50 of 1976 (RSA GG 5075)
- Marketing Amendment Act 109 of 1977 (RSA GG 5661)

This Act came into force on its date of publication (20 July 1977), with the exception of section 10 of the amending Act (which amended section 28 of the Act), which came into force on 1 July 1978, after the date of transfer to South West Africa and so was not applicable to South West Africa.

Schedule 1 of the Act was amended in South Africa after the date of transfer by RSA Proc. 119/1986 (RSA GG 10279), RSA GN 1177/1987 (RSA GG 10753), RSA GN 2579/1987 (RSA GG 11037) and RSA GN 119/1989 (RSA GG 1673) – but none of these amendments were made explicitly applicable to SWA.

The Meat Industry Act 12 of 1981 (OG 4506) repealed the Act insofar as it relates to controlled products, which it defines as being “livestock, meat or meat products”.

The Karakul Pelts and Wool Act 14 of 1982 (OG 4707) repealed the Act insofar as it relates to karakul pelts or wool.

The Marketing Amendment Act 19 of 1980 (OG 4293) amends section 46D.

Regulations: Section 100(2) of the Act includes a saving provision in respect of regulations issued under the repealed Marketing Act 26 of 1937 and its amendments. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

The import of vegetable oil is governed by AG 31/1979 (OG 4031) (as amended by AG 20/1986 (OG 5182)), which is issued under the authority of the principal Act.

See also AG GN 112/1980 (OG 4160), read together with the Marketing Amendment Act 19 of 1980 (OG 4293) (re: levies and regulations); section 2 of Act 19 of 1980 states: “The general levy imposed by Government Notice AG. 112 of 1980 and the directions, regulations and determinations made thereby, shall be deemed to have been so imposed and made with effect from 17 July 1980.”

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 5077) covers a wide range of matters relating to abattoirs.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “the territory” as “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 75 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Agricultural Economics and Marketing) Transfer Proclamation (AG 18/1977), dated 20 December 1977. None of the amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Abattoir Industry Amendment Act 69 of 1982 (RSA GG 8214), the Abattoir Industry Amendment Act 32 of 1984 (RSA GG 9169) and the Transfer of Powers and Duties of the State President Act 97 of 1986 (RSA GG 10438) – were made expressly applicable to SWA.

Section 3(2) of the transfer proclamation provided that, notwithstanding section 3(2)(b) of the General Proclamation, references to the Minister of Agriculture in sections 3(1)(c) and (e) and sections 46(j) and (l) of the Act (which deal with certain powers and functions of the Abattoir Commission and the South African Abattoir Corporation) should be construed as a reference to the Administrator-General.

Regulations: General regulations are contained in RSA GN R.93/1977 (RSA GG 5387), as amended by RSA GN R.625/1977 (RSA GG 5516) and RSA GN R.1122/1977 (RSA GG 5607). Unless there was a repeal in SWA which has not been located, these regulations remain in force in Namibia.

These regulations were substituted after the date of transfer in South Africa by RSA GN R.2555/1977 (RSA GG 5835), dated 23 December 1977, meaning that this substitution did not apply to SWA.

Application of law: RSA Proclamation R.15/1977 (RSA GG 5387) declares South West Africa to be a proclaimed area for purposes of the Act.

RSA Proclamation R.624/1977 (RSA GG 5516) determines, in terms of section 35 read with section 43(b), that Chapter I of the said Act does not apply to abattoirs where not more than eight units are slaughtered per month.

RSA Proclamation R. 63/1977 (RSA GG 5486) also limits the application of the Act, in terms of section 42 of the Act. (In South Africa, this notice was amended after the date of transfer by RSA GN R.70/1980 (RSA GG 6928), which makes no mention of SWA.)

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 5462) provides for the development and promotion of the livestock industry and regulates breeding. There is some question as to whether it is in force in Namibia. The 1993 judgement of S v Lofty-Eaton & Others (1) 1993 NR 370 (HC) (dated 1 November 1993) found that the Act had never been brought into operation in South West Africa or Namibia by proclamation, as section 38 of the Act requires. This case also found that the organs and procedures mentioned in section 16 must be in place before the Act can be operational. However, the Act was amended in independent Namibia in 1993, and the Ministry continues to issue subsidiary notices under the Act as if it were in force.

Applicability to SWA: Prior to the 1993 amendments to the Act, section 1 of the Act defined “Republic” to include “the territory”, which was defined as “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 35 stated “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” However, section 38 stated that the Act would come into operation only on a date fixed by the State President by Proclamation in the South African Government Gazette.
Portions of the Act were brought into force in South Africa as of 1 May 1979 by RSA Proc. R.80/1979 (RSA GG 6416):

I hereby declare that all the provisions of the said Act except –

(a) the definitions of “Stud Book Association” and “livestock breeders’ society” in section 1;
(b) section 9(3)(b) in so far as it relates to other animals than those of which the pedigree and performance records have been evaluated in terms of a scheme, irrespective of whether the scheme concerned was established under the said Act or not;
(c) sections 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 30(1)(q), (r) and (s), 34(1)(k) and 36;
(d) sections 30(1)(i) in so far as it relates to section 30(l)(q), (r) and (s); and
(e) section 37 in so far as it relates to (i) the Registration of Pedigree Livestock Act, 1957 (Act 28 of 1957); (ii) the Registration of Pedigree, Livestock Amendment Act, 1962 (Act 27 of 1962); and (iii) the Registration of Pedigree Livestock Amendment Act, 1967 (Act 1 of 1967):

shall come into operation on 1 May 1979.

The State President was acting in terms of section 38 of the Act, which was excluded from transfer to SWA, and so had the authority to bring the Act into force with respect to SWA. However, the Proclamation which brought the Act into force in part in RSA was arguably not applicable to SWA because it occurred after the date of transfer and yet made no explicit reference to SWA or to the consent of the SWA Administrator-General. Section 3(4) of the General Proclamation provides as follows:

(4) Any proclamation, regulation or rule which is issued or made after the commencement of any transfer proclamation by, or on the authority of, the State President or Minister under a law which at such commencement applies both in the territory and in the Republic, and which is published in the Government Gazette of the Republic, shall, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) apply in the territory if such proclamation, regulation or rule or the notice by which it is so published, contains a statement that it was or is issued or made with the consent of the Administrator-General, and applies also in the territory: Provided that for the purposes of the application of such proclamation, regulation or rule in the territory, the provisions of subsection (1) shall apply.

A possible counterargument might be that the Act did not “apply” in either RSA or SWA before it was brought into force and so did not fall under section 3(4) of the General Proclamation. However, it should be noted that the post-independence case of S v Lofty-Eaton & Others (1) 1993 NR 370 (HC) (discussed below) drew a distinction between “applying” and being “operative”, and found that the Act is not actually in force in Namibia.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Agricultural Technical Services) Transfer Proclamation (AG 11/1978), dated 2 March 1978.

Section 3(1)(h) of the transfer proclamation excluded section 4(1), the references to the “Minister” in section 33, and section 38 of the Act from the operation of section 3(1)(c) of the General Proclamation. Section 3(2) of the transfer proclamation excluded the Act from the operation of section 3(1)(c) of the General Proclamation, meaning that “Republic” retained the meaning given to it in the definition section of the Act (South Africa and SWA).

The provisions of the Act relating to the Advisory Board for Animal Production were excluded from transfer by section 3(2)(b) of the General Proclamation, which exempted from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation “those provisions of any law ... which provide for or relate to the institution, constitution or control of any juristic person or any board or any other body of persons that may exercise powers or perform other functions in or in respect of both the territory and the Republic”.

There was only one amendment to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Livestock Improvement Amendment Act 31 of 1984 (RSA GG 9168) – which was not made expressly applicable to SWA. (This amending Act does not apply to SWA despite the continuing definition of “Republic” to include SWA, by virtue of section 3(5) of the General Proclamation, as amended.)

After independence, the Act was substantially amended by Act 25/1993 (GG 753), which establishes a Livestock Improvement Board. However, Act 25/1993 does not repeal section 38, which requires that a date for the commencement of the Act be set by a Proclamation of the State President, nor does it otherwise expressly bring the primary Act into force.

The nature of the notices issued under the Act indicates that Government believes the Act to be operative. However, we have not been able to locate any legal instrument bringing the Act into force in Namibia in light of the ruling in S v Lofty-Eaton & Others (1) 1993 NR 370 (HC).

Amendments: As noted above, in South Africa, the Act was amended after the relevant date of transfer, and prior to Namibian independence, by the Livestock Improvement Amendment Act 31 of 1984 (RSA GG 9168) – which was not made expressly applicable to SWA. This amending Act was to be brought into force by Proclamation of the State President. It was brought into force in part as of 29 June 1984 by RSA Proc. R.107/1984 (RSA GG 9277):

Under the powers vested in me by section 23 of the Livestock Improvement Amendment Act, 1984 (Act 31 of 1984), I hereby declare that the provisions of sections 1, 3, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20(h), (i), (j) and (k), 21 and 22(h) of the said Act shall come into operation on the date of publication hereof.

The remainder of the amending Act was brought into force as of 1 July 1986 by RSA Proc. R.104/1986 (RSA GG 10288):

By virtue of the powers vested in me by section 23 of the Livestock Improvement Amendment Act, 1984 (Act 31 of 1984), I hereby declare that the provisions of sections 2, 4 to 14, 20(a) to (g) and 22(a) to (g) and (i) of the said Act shall come into operation on 1 July 1986.

There is no indication that the amendments made in South Africa in terms of this amending Act were made applicable to SWA.

After Namibian independence, the Act was substantially amended by Act 25/1993 (GG 753).

Regulations: In South Africa, regulations relating to the artificial insemination and inovulation of animals and the import and export of animals, semen, ova and eggs were promulgated in RSA GN R.851/1979 (RSA GG 6416), effective as of 1 May 1979. These regulations post-date the relevant date of transfer, coming into force at the same time as the Act came into force in part in South Africa, but they have been amended in independent Namibia. Prior to independence, these regulations were amended in South Africa by RSA GN R.1753/1979 (RSA GG 6620), RSA GN R.580/1981 (RSA GG 7494), RSA GN R.516/1982 (RSA GG 8111), RSA GN R.568/1983 (RSA GG 8604) and RSA GN R.1109/1985 (RSA GG 9744). After independence, they were amended by GN 60/1993 (GG 653). The status of this regulation set in Namibia, like the status of the Act, is unclear.

In South Africa, this set of regulations was repealed and replaced, prior to the date of Namibian independence, by RSA GN R.1181/1986 (RSA GG 10288). Like the 1979 regulations, the 1986 regulations were issued in terms of section 34(1) of the Act.
(which was not excluded from transfer) and make no reference to SWA. Prior to Namibian independence, the 1986 regulations were corrected by RSA GN R.1441/1986 (RSA GG 10341), amended by RSA GN R.1245/1987 (RSA GG 10759), corrected by RSA GN R.1305/1987 (RSA GG 10779) and RSA GN R.1536/1987 (RSA GG 10827), and amended by RSA GN R.1602/1989 (RSA GG 12024) and by RSA GN R.2506/1989 (RSA GG 12181). However, it would seem that these regulations were not be applicable to SWA because of the effect of the relevant transfer proclamation – which is reinforced by the fact that the previous set of regulations is the one which has been amended in Namibia since independence.

Notices: See AG GN 61/1979 (OG 3991), concerning kinds and breeds of animals to which the Act applies.

The following have been declared to be breeds of animals in Namibia (with capitalisation reproduced as it appears in the respective Government Notices):
- Gellaper breed-GN 63/2010 (GG 4451).
- Damara Sheep breed-GN 68/2011 (GG 4725).
- Meatmaster Breed-GN 59/2014 (GG 5455).
- Draughtmaster Breed-GN 104/2015 (GG 5760).
- Veldmaster Breed-GN 105/2015 (GG 5760).
- Pinto Horse-GN 38/2017 (GG 6254).
- Boerboel Breed-GN 83/2017 (GG 6285).

The karakoel breed was renamed swakara breed by GN 202/2011 (GG 4823).

Cases: S v Lofty-Eaton & Others (1) 1993 NR 370 (HC).

The relevant passage is quoted here at length as it may be relevant to the applicability of other South African statutes which mention “South West Africa”:

> “The problem is that s 35 applied the Act to Namibia, but did not make it operative in Namibia because s 38 of the said Act provided:
> ‘(1) This Act shall be called the Livestock Improvement Act, 1977, and shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette.
> (2) Different dates may be fixed under s (1) in respect of different provisions of this Act.’
> The proclamation which put part of the said Act into operation was Proc R80 of 1979, but only in South Africa. It must be assumed that the State President deliberately did not put the Act into operation in Namibia. He could have done so by merely stating in Proc R80 of 1979 that Proc R80 of 1979 applies in the territory of South West Africa, and is made with the consent of the Administrator-General.

Even in South Africa the said Livestock Improvement Act was passed and assented to by the State President and published in Government Gazette 5462 of 23 March 1977. Part of it was, however, only put into operation in South Africa by Proc R80 of 1979 on 1 May 1979.

The question is why? Again the answer is obvious. It was provided for in the Act itself that a large number of administrative organs and the appointment of officials to carry on the day-to-day administration of the Act would be in place once it, or a relevant part of it, would come into operation. So, for example:
(a) The Minister had to appoint 16 members to the Advisory Board in s 3 of that Act, of which two had to be officers of the Department of Agriculture and one had to be an officer of the Department of Agriculture, Economics and Marketing.

(b) The Minister had to appoint a Registrar in terms of s 4 of that Act.

(c) The Registrar had to invite a list of names of three persons to be submitted to him by each one of the 13 associations, Boards or companies contemplated in s 3(2)(b)-(xiii).

(d) The Minister had to appoint the executive committee of the Studbook Association and the other committees contemplated in s 3(5)(c)(i)-(iii) read with s 16(2)(b).

(e) A register had to be prepared as contemplated in s 5 of the Act.

(f) Notices as contemplated in s 2 and regulations contemplated in s 34 had to be prepared to be ready for promulgation before, on or shortly after the date on which the Livestock Improvement Act had come into operation.

(g) The application forms in terms whereof one could apply for –

(i) registration as an inseminator;

(ii) registration of premises as an artificial insemination centre;

(iii) a certificate for the approval of an animal to collect semen;

(iv) the renewal of a registration of an artificial insemination centre;

(v) the renewal of certificates in respect of animals for the collection of ova, and the like – see, for example, the numerous forms and certificates contemplated in Schedules I-XVI of Government Gazette 6416, dated 27 April 1979.

It is important to note that, when a law provides for certain organs and procedures to be established without which the Act cannot be implemented properly, the Legislature usually provides that the law will only become ‘operative’, as distinguished from ‘applicable’, on a date to be determined by the President, Administrator, Minister or similar entity by proclamation or notice in the Gazette.

The Legislature that enacts an Act may even provide for bringing different parts of an Act into operation on different dates, as was the case in the Livestock Improvement Act, 1977. This last procedure should of course only be used if the various sections or parts of such an Act are severable and would not be applicable to s 16(1) and (2)(a) and (b) of the Livestock Improvement Act 1977 and its various parts.

That an Act is capable of being administered (notwithstanding the fact that it has not as yet come into operation) is furthermore explicitly envisaged in s 12(3) of the Interpretation of Laws Proclamation 37 of 1920 [OG 35], which provides as follows:

‘(3) Where a law confers a power –

(a) to make any appointments; or

(b) to make . . . rules, regulations or by-laws; or

(c) to give notices; or

(d) to prescribe forms; or

(e) to do any other act or thing for the purpose of the law, that power may, unless the contrary intention appears, be exercised at any time after the passing of the law so far as may be necessary for the purpose of bringing the law into operation at the commencement thereof, subject to this restriction that any instrument . . . rules, regulations or by-laws made . . . under the power shall not . . . come into operation until the law comes into operation.’ (My emphasis.)

See also s 14 of the equivalent South African Act 33 of 1957, and S v Manelis 1965 (1) SA 748 (A) at 753.

It is common cause between the State and defence that at the time of the alleged offences, ie in April 1993, about six years after the Act was passed, the crucial organs and procedures for receiving, considering and deciding applications for written authorisation to import, as provided for in s 16 of the said Act, had still not been established in Namibia.

Mr Small is correct in contending that the Administrator-General had the power himself to declare the Act operative in Namibia, but for that an AG proclamation expressly stating that the Act is operative from a certain date would have been necessary. I do not understand Mr Small to contend that such an AG proclamation was ever issued. [With respect, this contention appears to be incorrect. Section 3(1)(h) of the transfer proclamation excluded section 38 from the operation of section 3(1) of the Executive Powers Transfer (General Provisions) Proclamation, AG 7 of 1977, meaning that the reference to the State President in section 38 was not to be construed as referring to the Administrator-General.]
In conclusion on this issue I must point out that the provision in an Act of Parliament that the date of operation is to be decided on and promulgated by an organ of the Executive may be regarded as an administrative function or as delegated legislation or a combination of both. In all instances, however, the decision to declare operative, and the declaration itself, must comply with the provisions of the enabling Act, and must in itself be reasonable and not ambiguous, particularly where it provides for criminal offences and criminal sanctions for non-compliance with the provisions of the Act.

To declare an Act operative, when essential organs or procedures for complying with the law and for avoiding a contravention and avoiding criminal sanctions are not yet established, appears to me not only to be ultra vires the enabling Act but in conflict with art 18 of the Namibian Constitution. See also art 21 of the Namibian Constitution; Steyn Die Uitleg van Wette 5th ed at 238-49.

Even if the State President, or the Administrator-General in this instance, declared the Act as a whole or parts of it operative at any point in time, when the organs and procedures to be set up under s 16 were not yet established, it seems to me that such declaration would in itself be ultra vires or unconstitutional, particularly insofar as it purported or purports to make s 16(1) and 16(2)-(8) of the said Act operative.”

Summary: This Act (OG 4506) establishes a meat board and sets forth its objects, powers, duties and functions. It also provides for control over the grading, sale, import and export of livestock, meat and meat products, and the levies on these items. It repeals the Meat Trade Control Ordinance 20 of 1962 (OG 2409). The Act was brought into force by AG 30/1981 (OG 4553), and applied to Rehoboth by the Meat Industry in Rehoboth Act 5 of 1986 (Rehoboth) (Official Gazette 152 of Rehoboth, dated 10 April 1987).

Amendments: Prior to independence, the Act was amended by Act 3/1987 (OG 5349).

Act 21/1992 (GG 466), which was brought into force by GN 125/1992 (GG 482), amends sections 1, 2, 4, 8, 10, 12 and 21, inserts section 10A, and substitutes certain expressions and the long title to make the Act consistent with an independent Namibia and to extend the powers of inspectors in certain circumstances.

The State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 (GG 3698) which was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733) and which has since been re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006, amends sections 4 and 8, and deletes sections 5, 7(1) and 15.

Regulations: Regulations made in terms of the Meat Trade Control Ordinance 20 of 1962, which was repealed by this Act, survive pursuant to section 26(2) of this Act. However, pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched.

Notices: A notice of certain record-keeping requirements and prohibitions relating to livestock is contained in General Notice 8/1982 (OG 4613), as amended by General Notice 90/1982.

AG GN 20/1983 (OG 4735) prohibited the import and export of certain controlled products, but was withdrawn by GN 129/2004 (GG 3214).
A notice concerning record-keeping in respect of controlled products and livestock is contained in General Notice 3/1993 (GG 567).

A notification of measures to promote the interests of the meat industry in Namibia is contained in General Notice 115/2004 (GG 3214).

Prohibitions relating to abattoirs, factories and refrigeration plants of unregistered producers are addressed in General Notice 91/2006 (GG 3620).

GN 94/2007 (GG 3841) prohibits the import and export of certain controlled products.

Levies are periodically set in terms of the Act but have not been recorded here.

Cases: Matador Enterprises (Pty) Ltd v Minister of Trade and Industry & Others 2015 (2) NR 477 (HC) (discusses in dicta the relationship between this Act and the more generalised Import and Export Control Act 30 of 1994).

Notes: See the related Swameat Corporation Ordinance 2 of 1986 (Official Gazette 75 of the Representative Authority of the Whites), which has since been repealed by the Meat Corporation of Namibia Act 1 of 2001 (GG 2522).

Karakul Pelts and Wool Act 14 of 1982.

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Control of the Importation and Exportation of Dairy Products and Dairy Product Substitutes Act 5 of 1986.

Summary: This Act (OG 5195) controls the import and export of dairy products and dairy product substitutes.

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Cases: Matador Enterprises (Pty) Ltd v Minister of Trade and Industry & Others 2015 (2) NR 477 (HC) (Act 5 of 1986 not impliedly repealed by Import and Export Control Act 30 of 1994 because of its specialised nature, and should be the basis for controlling the import of dairy products rather than the more general 1994 legislation).

Summary: This Act (GG 322) controls the administration of certain products to animals which may cause undesirable residue in meat and meat products, and further regulates the marketing of meat and meat products. It was brought into force on 28 November 1994 by Proc. 29/1994 (GG 975).

Amendments: Act 11/1994 (GG 923) amends sections 1 and 2. This amending Act is deemed to have come into operation on the date of commencement of the principal Act.

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. Post-independence regulations are contained in GN 219/1994 (GG 975).

Notices: Prohibited substances are listed in GN 220/1994 (GG 975), as amended by and supplemented by GN 58/2011 (GG 4711).

Summary: This Act (GG 465) establishes the Namibian Agronomic Board and sets forth its powers and functions. It repeals the Agronomic Industry Proclamation, AG 11/1985. The Act was brought into force on 5 October 1992 by Proc. 33/1992 (GG 496).

Amendments: The State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 (GG 3698), which was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733) and which has since been re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006, amends section 1, 4, 5, 7 and 8 and deletes section 15.

The State-owned Enterprises Act inconsistently refers to this Act as the “Agronomic Industry Act” in Schedule 1 and the “Namibian Agronomic Industry Act” in Schedule 2. The correct name is the Agronomic Industry Act. However, the Act establishes the “Namibian Agronomic Board”.

Regulations: Regulations made under the repealed Proclamation survive under section 25(2) of this Act, but none have been located as yet.

In terms of the current Act, regulations relating to the grading and classification of maize are contained in GN 71/1994 (GG 854).

Regulations relating to the composition and quality of pearl millet (mahangu) products are contained in GN 97/2016 (GG 6015).

Notices: Notices and other actions under the repealed Proclamation survive under the new Act. The pre-independence notices are not comprehensively recorded here, but one which was referred to in post-independence case law is GN 58/1986 (OG 5186).

Standards for maize products in terms of section 19(1) of the Act are contained in GN 72/1994 (GG 854).

Agronomic crops are addressed in GN 45/1993 (GG 626), GN 293/1996 (GG 1435), GN 146/2002 (GG 2802) and GN 109/2008 (GG 4047).

Paragraph 3 of the Schedule to GN 147/2002 is amended by GN 125/2012 (GG 4947). The entire Schedule to GN 147/2002 is substituted by GN 268/2014 (GG 5645), which repeals GN 125/2012.

GN 116/2003 is amended by GN 36/2015 (GG 5681).

The importation of certain products without a permit is prohibited by GN 101/2006 (GG 3661) and GN 110/2008 (GG 4047).

Appointments: The appointment of agents to assist the Namibian Agronomic Board with certain specified functions is announced in General Notice 247/2014 (GG 5523).

Cases: Matador Enterprises (Pty) Ltd t/a National Cold Storage v Chairman of the Namibian Agronomic Board 2010 (1) NR 212 (HC).

Summary: This Act (GG 1227) consolidates and amends the laws relating to the branding of stock. It was brought into force on 9 April 1999 by GN 57/1999 (GG 2078). It repealed the Native Stock Brands Proclamation 15 of 1923 and the Stock Brands Ordinance 8 of 1931.

Amendments: Act 7/2001 (GG 2569) inserts sections 20A and 21A and amends section 22.

Regulations: There is no savings provision in respect of any regulations or notices which might have been made under the repealed laws.

Regulations made under this Act are contained in GN 73/2004 (GG 3187), which repeals the regulations in GN 58/1999 (GG 2078). Regulation 7 is amended by GN 39/2007 (GG 3799), GN 239/2009 (GG 4391) and GN 145/2015 (GG 5783).

Notices: GN 72/2004 (GG 3187) declares sheep and goats to be stock in terms of section 2.

Meat Corporation of Namibia Act 1 of 2001.

Summary: This Act (GG 2522) establishes the Meat Corporation of Namibia (“Meatco”) to establish and manage abattoirs and other meat factories. This law repeals the Swameat Corporation Ordinance 2 of 1986 (Official Gazette 75 of the Representative Authority of the Whites). It was brought into force on 3 May 2001 by GN 80/2001 (GG 2521).

The State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 (GG 3698), which was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733) and which has since been re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006, amends sections 1, 5, 7, 9 and 12, and substitutes section 8.

Regulations: Regulations made under the repealed Ordinance survive under section 33(2) of this Act, but none have been located.

Agricultural Bank of Namibia Act 5 of 2003.

Summary: This Act (GG 3003) provides for the Agricultural Bank of Namibia (Agribank). It repeals the Agricultural Bank Act 13 of 1944. It was brought into force on 15 November 2003 by GN 225/2003 (GG 3092).

Amendments: Act 22/2004 (GG 3355) amends sections 7, 8, 16, 22 and 29 and substitutes section 10. The State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 (GG 3698), which was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733) and which has since been re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006, substitutes section 7, and amends sections 8, 10, 11, 16 and 17.

Regulations: Notices made under the repealed law survive pursuant to section 30(4) of this Act, which states: “Any notice made under a provision of a law repealed by this Act is deemed to have been made under a corresponding provision of this Act.” This savings clause does not seem to apply to regulations – and even if it did, it would have no effect since the current Act does not make any provision for regulations to be issued.

Notices: Notices made under the repealed law survive pursuant to section 30(4) of this Act (quoted above). Certain activities are declared to be “activities related to agriculture” as defined in section 1 of the Act in GN 109/2006 (GG 3672).

Appointments: The re-appointment of board members is announced in GN 191/2012 (GG 5005). No previous appointments could be located in the Government Gazettes. Note that GN 191/2012 (GG 5005) erroneously refers to the Act as the “Agribank Act”.

Application of law: Structures established under this Act are affected by directives issued in terms of the State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 (GG 3698), which was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733) and which has since been re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006, on remuneration for chief executive officers and senior managers of state-owned enterprises and annual fees and sitting allowances for board members.

The Financial Intelligence Act 13 of 2012 (GG 5096) places certain duties on the Agricultural Bank of Namibia.

Brewers & Distillers Licences Duty Proclamation 3 of 1924.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 127) provides for the payment of licence duties by brewers of beer and distillers of wine, brandy and spirits. It was extended to the Rehoboth Gebiet by Proc. 12/1930 (OG 365).

Amendments: This Proclamation is amended by Ord. 9/1935 (OG 613), Ord. 14/1937 (OG 716), Ord. 1/1938 (OG 744) and Ord. 47/1952 (OG 1732). The Liquor Act of 1998 (GG 1843), which was brought into force on 22 December 2001 by GN 250/2001 (GG 2670), amends sections 1, 2, 3 and 3bis.

_Abuse of Dependence-Producing Substances and Rehabilitation Centres Act 41 of 1971_, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 3118), which came into force on 6 December 1971 by virtue of RSA Proc. R.265/1971 (RSA GG 3321), restricts dealings in dependence-producing drugs and establishes rehabilitation centres for treatment of people with drug problems.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Republic” to include “the territory”, which is defined as “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 64 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” RSA Proc. R.266/1971 (RSA GG 3321) also makes specific reference to issues pertaining to applicability to the territory of South-West Africa.

Transfer of administration to SWA: Section 53 of this Act states that the State President may assign the administration of all or part of the Act to one or more South African Ministers. A race-based assignment of the administration of the Act was made by RSA Proc. R.266/1971 (RSA GG 3321), with administration being divided between the Minister of Bantu Administration and Development (for “Bantus” in South Africa or “natives” in SWA), the Minister of Indian Affairs (for “Indians”), the Minister of Coloured Affairs (for “Coloured persons”) and the Minister of Social Welfare and Pensions (for all other persons).

The administration of this Act was partially transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers Transfer Proclamation (AG 3/1977) dated 28 September 1977, as amended. This transfer proclamation applies to matters which were administered by the South African Minister of Bantu Administration and Development, and the South African Minister of Coloured, Rehoboth and Nama Relations. Section 3(2)(e) of the transfer proclamation excluded sections 12 and 50(1) of the Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation.

The administration of this Act was further transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Social Welfare and Pensions) Transfer Proclamation (AG 11/1977), dated 30 November 1977, and the Executive Powers (Health) Transfer Proclamation (AG 14/1977), dated 1 December 1977. Both of these Transfer Proclamations excluded sections 12 and 50(1) of the Act, and the reference to the “Government of the Republic” in section 50(2) of the Act, from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation.

None of the amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of the earliest transfer proclamation were made expressly applicable to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- RSA Proclamation R.32 of 1972 (RSA GG 3390)
- RSA Proclamation R.263 of 1972 (RSA GG 3682)
- RSA Proclamation R.155 of 1973 (RSA GG 3957)

- Medical, Dental and Supplementary Health Service Professions Act 56 of 1974 (RSA GG 4445), which was brought into force by RSA Proc. R.52/1975 (RSA GG 4594)
- RSA Proclamation 243 of 1975 (RSA GG 4883)
- RSA Proclamation 25 of 1976 (RSA GG 4988)

- Abuse of Dependence-producing Substances and Rehabilitation Centres Amendment Act 14 of 1977 (RSA GG 5446)
- Criminal Procedure Act 51 of 1977 (RSA GG 5532)
- RSA Proclamation 277 of 1977 (RSA GG 5789).

Certain terminology in the Act was amended by Native Laws Amendment Proclamation, AG 3 of 1979 (OG 3898), deemed to have come into force in relevant part on 1 August 1978 (section 5 of AG 3 of 1979).

The Act was also amended prior to independence by Act 25/1987 (OG 5462).

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations are contained in RSA GN R.2166/1971 (RSA GG 3323), promulgated by the Minister of Social Welfare and Pensions in respect of White persons, effective from 3 December 1971. These regulations are made explicitly applicable to SWA. (They withdraw RSA GN R.479/1964, as amended by RSA GN R.1629/1967, RSA GN R.1736/1967, RSA GN R.3299/1969, and SWA GN 182/1965.) These regulations were amended in South Africa by RSA GN R.1812/1977 (RSA GG 5733), which was published prior to the relevant date of transfer, on 9 September 1977 and came into force on 1 October 1977, which was also prior to the relevant date of transfer (30 November 1977).

These regulations were further amended in South Africa after the date of transfer by RSA GN R. 584/1984 (RSA GG 9124). This amendment was not made explicitly applicable to SWA.

Additional regulations are contained in RSA Proc. R.1003/1973 (RSA GG 3927), promulgated by the Minister of Bantu Administration and Education acting on behalf of the Minister of Bantu Administration and Development in respect of Bantu, with effect from 15 June 1973. These regulations are also explicitly applicable to SWA.

There are no post-independence regulations under this Act.

Summary: This Act (GG 1843) consolidates and amends the laws relating to the sale and supply of liquor. It was brought into force on 22 December 2001 by GN 250/2001 (GG 2670). It repeals the following laws pertaining to liquor:

- Kaffir Beer (Rural Areas) Control Ordinance 36 of 1957
- Chapter V, Railways and Harbours Control and Management Consolidation Act 70 of 1957 (SA GG 5908)

Note: Although the Liquor Act 6 of 1998 (GG 1843) states that it repeals Chapter V of the Railways and Harbours Control and Management Consolidation Act 70 of 1957 (SA GG 5908), research by the authors of Namlex indicates that this Act was not actually in force in Namibia at that stage. Act 70 of 1957 was repealed in South Africa by the South African Transport Services Act 65 of 1981 (RSA GG 7786), which was made expressly applicable to SWA (see section 78). (Act 65 of 1981 was subsequently repealed in respect of South West Africa by the National Transport Corporation Act 21 of 1987 (OG 5439).) Thus, it is our theory that even if the Railways and Harbours Control and Management Consolidation Act 70 of 1957 had already been transferred to SWA in terms of a Transfer Proclamation, the repealing Act would have repealed it in respect of SWA because it was explicitly made applicable to SWA.

- section 22, General Law Amendment Act 102 of 1967 (RSA GG 1771)
- Supply and Sale of Liquor to Native in South West Africa Proclamation (RSA Proc. R.231/1967, RSA GG 1826), which were regulations issued in terms of section 22(4) and 22(5) of the General Law Amendment Act 102 of 1967
- Supply and sale of liquor to Natives in South West Africa and the Brewing and Supplying of Kaffir Beer in South West Africa (RSA Proc. 205/1968, RSA GG 2133), which were regulations issued in terms of section 22(5) of the General Law Amendment Act 102 of 1967

- Liquor Ordinance 2 of 1969
- Arrangement appertaining to the sale and supply of liquor in Walvis Bay (RSA Proc. R.21/1984, RSA GG 9096), which made the Liquor Act 87 of 1977 and “any regulation made thereunder” applicable in Walvis Bay, rather than the Liquor Ordinance 2 of 1969 of SWA, pursuant to section 38 of the South-West Africa Constitution Act 39 of 1968;
- section 5, National Transport Corporation Act 21 of 1987 (OG 5439) (which was in the interim repealed by the National Transport Services Holding Company Act 28 of 1998 (GG 1961), with effect from 1 April 1999).

In addition to regulating the licensing process, the Act forbids the sale of drinks that are more than 3% alcohol to persons under 18, prohibits the supply of liquor to employees as remuneration and forbids the consumption of liquor in public places.

Amendments: The Fourth Schedule of the Act is amended by GN 251/2001 (GG 2670) and substituted by GN 104/2006 (GG 3665) which contains requirements for shebeens. Act 5/2009 (GG 4307) substitutes the expression “Chief Magistrate” for “Chief of Lower Courts” wherever it appears.

The Child Care and Protection Act 3 of 2015 (GG 5744), which is not yet in force, substitutes section 56, repeals paragraphs 70(h) and 71(1)(s) and amends section 72.

Regulations: Regulations made under any of the laws repealed by the Act survive in terms of section 86 of the Act:

- Kaffir Beer (Rural Areas) Control Ordinance 36 of 1957
- Chapter V, Railways and Harbours Control and Management Consolidation Act 70 of 1957 (SA GG 5908) – no authorisation for regulations
- section 22, General Law Amendment Act 102 of 1967 – two sets of race-based regulations made applicable to SWA in terms of that section were repealed by this Act; no others have been located
- Liquor Ordinance 2 of 1969
- Arrangement appertaining to the sale and supply of liquor in Walvis Bay (RSA Proc. R.21/1984, RSA GG 9096), which made any regulation issued in terms of the Liquor Act 87 of 1977 applicable in Walvis Bay; these regulations have not been researched since they appear to have been superseded by this Act and its regulations which have national application in independent Namibia;
- section 5, National Transport Corporation Act 21 of 1987 (OG 5439) – refers to regulations authorised by section 52 of Act 21 of 1987, regarding the supply of refreshments and intoxicating liquor by the Corporation in or on its vehicles, trains, aircraft, vessels or premises.

Regulations under the new Act are contained in GN 142/2001 (GG 2575), as amended by GN 105/2006 (GG 3665) and GN 18/2015 (GG 5668) (which substitutes Regulation 75). These regulations came into force on the same date as the Act.

The Government Notice which issues these regulations purports to repeal GN 49/1969 and all the amendments thereof. However, SWA GN 49/1969 (OG 2981) contained no regulations. It was the Government Notice which promulgated the Liquor Ordinance 2 of 1969. That Ordinance and its amendments were repealed by section 86(1) of the Liquor Act 6 of 1998 (GG 1843).

Appointments: Members of Regional Liquor Licensing Committees are appointed in GN 20/2002 (GG 2692), GN 41/2003 (GG 2933), GN 77/2004 (GG 3189), GN

ANIMALS

Summary: This Act (SA GG 2271) regulates the exhibition and training of performing animals.

Applicability to SWA: Section 11A inserted by Act 7 of 1972, states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: Section 11 of the Act defines “Minister” as “the Minister to whom the administration of this Act has been assigned”. The administration of the Act was assigned to the Minister of Justice by SA GN 1426/1935 (SA GG 2299). Therefore, the administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979.

There were two amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Animals Protection Amendment Act 54 of 1983 (RSA GG 8691) and the Animals Protection Amendment Act 20 of 1985 (RSA GG 9653) – neither of which was made expressly applicable to SWA.

The Protection of Animals Amendment Act 7 of 1991 (RSA GG 13112) was assented to by the State President on 15 March 1991 and gazetted on 28 March 1991; there were two different proclamations bringing different portions of it into force, but both took effect after the date of Namibian independence. In any event, this amending Act was not made expressly applicable to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- General Law Amendment Act 62 of 1955 (SA GG 5512)
- Animals Protection Amendment Act 7 of 1972 (RSA GG 3414).

Regulations: Prior to the date of transfer, regulations contained in RSA GN R.1914/1972 (RSA GG 3686) were issued pursuant to section 2(d) of the Act. These regulations repealed the regulations contained in RSA GN R.1205/1961 (RSA GG 136), which in turn repealed the regulations contained in SA GN 432/1956 (SA GG 5648).

There are no post-independence regulations under this Act.

Cases: In South Africa, sections 2 and 3 of the Act were declared unconstitutional in NSPCA v Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries & Others 2013 (5) SA 571 (CC), to the extent that they require a magistrate to decide applications for, and issue, animal training and exhibition licences.

Trespass of Animals Ordinance 16 of 1939.

Summary: The Ordinance (OG 796) regulates trespass by animals, provides for the recovery of fees and damages and establishes pounds.

Amendments: This Ordinance is amended by Proc. 21/1943 (OG 1065) and Ord. 9/1944 (OG 1115).

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. There are no post-independence regulations under this Act.

Trespass of Donkeys Proclamation 18 of 1941.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 909) regulates trespass by donkeys.

Regulations: The Proclamation does not provide for regulations.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 271) is concerned with the prevention of cruelty to animals.

Applicability to SWA: Section 10A which was inserted by the Animals Protection Amendment Act 7 of 1972, states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” The act thus became applicable to SWA when Act 7 of 1972 was brought into force on 1 January 1973 by RSA Proc R.275/1972 (RSA GG 3686).

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended. None of the amendments to the Act in South Africa after that date – the Animals Protection Amendment Act 54 of 1983 (RSA GG 8691), the Animals Protection Amendment Act 20 of 1985 (RSA GG 9653) or the Animals Protection Second Amendment Act 84 of 1985 (RSA GG 9821) – were made expressly applicable to SWA.

The Protection of Animals Amendment Act 7 of 1991 (RSA GG 13112) was assented to by the State President on 15 March 1991 and gazetted on 28 March 1991; there were two different proclamations bringing different portions of it into force, but both took effect after the date of Namibian independence. In any event, this amending Act was not made expressly applicable to SWA. It repealed section 10A which made the Act applicable to SWA, in the version of the Act in force in South Africa.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Animals Protection Amendment Act 7 of 1972 (RSA GG 3414)

Regulations: The only pre-independence regulations issued under the Act in South Africa were made after the date of transfer and were not made explicitly applicable to SWA.

The regulations which post-dated the date of transfer related to the seizure of animals... by an officer of a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, and were issued in RSA GN R.468/1986 (RSA GG 10121), as corrected by RSA GN R.654/1986 (RSA GG 10185).

No SWA regulations prior to independence could be located.

No post-independence regulations have been issued under this Act.

Municipal Dog Tax Ordinance 13 of 1967.

Summary: The Ordinance (OG 2798) provides for the control and taxation of the keeping of dogs within municipal areas. It came into force on 1 April 1968 (section 19).

Amendments: Ord. 41/1967 (OG 2837) amends sections 1, 4, 15 and 19 and substitutes section 2.

Ord. 12/1973 (OG 3335) substitutes the term “Executive Committee” for the word “Administrator” throughout, amends section 1 and substitutes section 16.

Ord. 8/1978 (OG 3783) substitutes sections 3 and 14, amends sections 4 and 15. This amendment was initially brought into force by GN 305/1978 (OG 3882). However, this notice was repealed by the Postponement of the Commencement of the Municipal Dog Tax Amendment Ordinance, 1978, Ordinance 1/1979 (OG 3906), which amended section 5 of Ord. 8/1978 to provide that it would come into force on 1 January 1980. Section 5 of Ord. 8/1978 was further amended by the Municipal Dog Tax Amendment Ordinance 2/1980 (OG 4104) to provide that it would come into force on 1 January 1981.

Ord. 15/1980 (OG 4165) substitutes section 3 and amends section 15.

The Dog Tax Ordinance, 1927, Repeal Act 14 of 1987 (OG 5411) repeals section 17.

Act 30/1987 (OG 5478) amends sections 6, 14 and 15.

The Local Authorities Act 23 of 1992 (GG 470), which was brought into force on 31 August 1992 (GN 118/1992, GG 472), repeals section 18.

Application of law: AG 8/1986 (OG 5168) applies sections 1-15 to all peri-urban areas to which they were not already applicable, with effect from 1 January 1986.

Regulations on Municipal Dog Tax (Maximum Amount) are contained in GN 145/1980 (OG 4243). These regulations are amended by AG GN 7/1985 (OG 4992), GN 36/1986 (OG 5175) and GN 60/1987 (OG 5348).

Model Regulations for the Control of Dogs in Local Authority Areas are contained in GN 166/2008 (GG 4077).

Note that there is a corrected version of GG 4077. The correct version states at the top: “This gazette replaces Government Gazette No. 4077 of 3 July 2008.”

Animal Health Act 1 of 2011.

Summary: This Act (GG 4694) provides for the prevention, detection and control of animal diseases and the maintenance and improvement of animal health. It repeals the Animal Diseases and Parasites Act 13 of 1956. It was brought into force on 30 April 2013 by GN 100/2013 (GG 5183).

Regulations: Regulations made under the repealed legislation survive pursuant to section 37(2) of this Act.

The Animal Diseases and Parasites Ordinance 14 of 1958, was repealed by the Animal Diseases and Parasites Ordinance 34 of 1959 (OG 2199), which was then repealed by the Animal Diseases and Parasites Amendment Act 9 of 1973, which was subsequently repealed by the Animal Health Act 1 of 2011.

Section 36(2) of the Animal Diseases and Parasites Ordinance 34 of 1959 preserves the regulations issued under the repealed Animal Diseases and Parasites Ordinance 14 of 1958. It states: “Any proclamation, regulation, order and notice issued, made or given under any law repealed by subsection (1) and in force at the commencement of this Ordinance, shall remain in force until withdrawn under this Ordinance, and any other thing done or action taken under any provision of a law so repealed, shall be deemed to have been taken or done under the corresponding provision of this Ordinance.”

The Animal Diseases and Parasites Amendment Act 9 of 1973 inserted section 35A into the Animal Diseases and Parasites Act 13 of 1956, which made that Act applicable to SWA. Section 6(1) of the Animal Diseases and Parasites Amendment Act 9 of 1973 repeals the SWA Animal Diseases and Parasites Ordinance 34 of 1959 (and the Animal Diseases and Parasites Amendment Ordinance 14 of 1967), and section 6(2) states: “Anything done under a provision of any law repealed by subsection (1), shall be deemed to have been done under the corresponding provision of the principal Act.”

However, pre-independence regulations have not been fully researched. The following regulations have been made since independence.

Animal Identification Regulations are contained in GN 29/2009 (GG 4217), as amended by GN 201/2009 (GG 4350) (Regs 3 and 16) and GN 5/2011 (GG 4645) (Regs 16, 31, new Reg 31A). These regulations and their amendments were repealed and replaced with new Animal Identification Regulations by GN 307/2017 (GG 6476) but, as explained below, the repealed regulations continue to have some ongoing relevance.

Animal Health Regulations are contained in GN 144/2013 (GG 5218), as amended by GN 306/2016 (GG 6209) (which substitutes Schedule 2). These regulations replace the Animal Diseases and Parasites Standing Regulations in RSA GN 1531/1963 (RSA GG 620) promulgated under the Animal Diseases and

New Animal Identification Regulations are contained in GN 307/2017 (GG 6476). These regulations repeal the previous Animal Identification Regulations contained in GN 29/2009 (GG 4217), as amended. However, it should be noted that regulation 8(2) of the 2017 regulations states:

Despite the repeal [of the] Animal Identification Regulations published under Government Notice No. 29 of 5 March 2009 by these regulations, the obligation[s] imposed on the owner of -

(a) cattle by regulation 16(5);
(b) sheep and goats by regulation 17(4); and
(c) pigs by regulation 18(4), of the repealed regulations to identify cattle, sheep, goats and pigs continue to have effect.

Thus, the repealed 2009 Animal Identification Regulations continue to have some ongoing relevance.

Notices: Restricted materials in terms of section 1(2)(d) are declared in GN 177/2013 (GG 5239), which replaces GN AG 88/1982.

Protected areas for the purposes of preventing foot and mouth disease, corridor disease and bovine tuberculosis, and the classes of animals and animal products restricted from those protected areas, are declared in terms of section 20 in GN 178/2013 (GG 5239).

Animal vaccines are declared to be animal products in terms of section 1(2)(b) in GN 179/2013 (GG 5239).

Notifiable diseases in respect of particular classes of animals are declared in terms of section 1(2)(e) in GN 180/2013 (GG 5239).

A quarantine area is declared in GN 154/2015 (GG 5788), because of the presence of Foot and Mouth Disease.

A protected area is declared in GN 155/2015 (GG 5788), for preventing the spread of Foot and Mouth Disease.

Emergency restrictions prohibiting importation or entry into Namibia of live poultry, poultry products, birds, ostriches and ostrich products from South Africa and Belgium are published in GN 201/2017 (GG 6376), in response to the outbreak of Highly Pathogenic Avian Influenza (HPAI) H5N8 in poultry.

Cases: The case of S v Lofty-Eaton & Others (1) 1993 NR 370 (HC) was decided under the previous Act.

Veterinary and Veterinary Para-Professions Act 1 of 2013.

Summary: This Act (GG 5139) establishes the Namibian Veterinary Council and regulates the qualifications and registration of persons practising veterinary professions and para-professions. It repeals the Veterinary and Para-Veterinary Professions Proclamation 14 of 1984 (OG 4915). It was brought into force on 27 February 2014 by GN 16/2014 (GG 5415).

It should be noted that this law was first promulgated in GN 318/2012 as the Veterinary and Veterinary Para-Professions Act 16 of 2012 in GG 5115. However, GN 318/2012 was withdrawn by GN 32/2013 (GG 5143) on 1 March 2013. The texts of the Act in the two Gazettes are identical aside from the Act number and year. The Act was initially published in error before being signed by the President; it states at the top “(Signed by the President on ?? December 2012)”. It was signed by the President on 1 February 2013 and then re-published as Act 1 of 2013.

Regulations: In terms of section 75(2), regulations, notice, rules, appointments and other acts done under the previous law remain valid unless inconsistent with the new Act or explicitly set aside or repealed. However, the regulations issued under the current Act have repealed all of the surviving regulations made under the previous law.

Regulations relating to Veterinary and Veterinary Para-Professions issued in terms of the current Act are contained in GN 17/2014 (GG 5415). These regulations are amended by GN 249/2015 (GG 5865), which amends Table 1. (This Table, which appears at the end of the regulations, relates to regulation 18(1), but it is not an amendment of “section 18(1)” of the regulations as the Government Notice erroneously states.) The regulations are also amended by GN 269/2016 (GG 6171), which substitutes Table 3. GN 54/2018 (GG 6554) again substitutes Table 3 of the regulations.

GN 218/2017 (GG 6384) substitutes the enacting formula contained in GN 17/2014 so as to repeal the surviving regulations made under the previous Act with effect from 27 February 2014. (The previous regulations were contained in AG GN 76/1985 (OG 5042), as amended by GN 96/1997 (GG 1557), GN 133/2002 (GG 2776) and GN 57/2008 (GG 4005).)

Rules: Rules relating to the practice of veterinary and veterinary para-professions are contained in GN 93/2016 (GG 6005).

Appointments: The results of elections to the Veterinary Council under the previous Act are announced in General Notice 132/1990 (GG 81), General Notice 130/1993 (GG 657), General Notice 250/1996 (GG 1395), General Notice 294/1999 (GG 2204), General Notice 380/2002 (GG 2867) and General Notice 443/2012 (GG 5094).

Appointments to the Namibian Veterinary Council are announced in GN 147/2014 (GG 5559), which also confirms the appointment of a Registrar, and in General Notice 313/2017 (GG 6384).

Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards Act 40 of 1977.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 5504) provides for the recognition and enforcement of foreign arbitral awards.

Applicability to SWA: Although the Act does not contain a specific provision making it applicable to SWA, “court” was defined in section 1 of the original Act as “...a court of a provincial division or local division of the Supreme Court of South Africa”. At the relevant time, the South African Supreme Court Act 59 of 1959 defined “provincial division” to include “the Eastern Cape division and the Southwest Africa division”. Furthermore, the First Schedule to the Supreme Court Act 59 of 1959 contained a description of the various provincial and local divisions of the Supreme Court of South Africa and their areas of jurisdiction which, at the time, included a description of the “South-West Africa Division of the Supreme Court of South Africa”.

Transfer of administration to SWA: Although this Act makes no reference to any minister, because of its subject matter it probably fell under the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation, AG 33 of 1979, dated 12 November 1979 (OG 4038). In any event, there were no amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

In 1981 the “South-West Africa Division of the Supreme Court of South Africa” was converted into the “Supreme Court of South-West Africa” by the RSA Supreme Court of South West Africa Proclamation 222 of 1981 (RSA GG 7909), brought into force by RSA Proc. 260/1981 (RSA GG 7973). In terms of the transitional provisions contained in section 38(2) of the RSA Supreme Court of South West Africa Proclamation 222 of 1981, the reference to the “provincial or local division of the Supreme Court of South Africa” in the definition of “court” in section 1 of the Act would be construed as a reference to the Supreme Court of South West Africa:

(2) Unless it would in any particular case be obviously inappropriate -
(a) any reference in any law other than the Supreme Court Act, 1959 (Act 59 of 1959), or in any document; or
(i) to the South-West Africa division of the Supreme Court of South Africa; or
(ii) to any division of the said Supreme Court, which immediately prior to the commencement of this Proclamation included a reference to the said South-West Africa division;
(iii) to the High Court of South-West Africa, shall be construed as a reference or as including a reference, as the case may be, to the Supreme Court;
(b) any reference to the said Supreme Court Act or any provision thereof, in any law which applies in or in respect of the territory shall, in so far as it so applies, be construed as a reference or including a reference, as the case may be, to this Proclamation or any provision thereof corresponding to such first-mentioned provision.

The Supreme Court Act 15 of 1990 (GG 84) repealed the RSA South West Africa Proclamation 222 of 1981 in so far as it applied to Namibia. In terms of the transitional provisions contained in section 40 of the High Court Act 16 of 1990 (GG 85) any reference in any other law to the Supreme Court of South West Africa, including a reference to that court as construed in accordance with the provisions of section 38(2) of the RSA Supreme Court of South West Africa Proclamation 222 of 1981, is required to be construed as a reference to the High Court of Namibia. Thus, the definition of “court” in the Act should now be construed as a reference to the High Court of Namibia.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Related international agreements: The Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards, (New York Convention), 1958, which entered into force internationally on 7 June 1959, is relevant. However, Namibia is not a party to this Convention.

Arbitration Act 42 of 1965, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 1084) provides for the settlement of disputes by arbitration tribunals. It replaced the Arbitration Proclamation 3 of 1926 in South West Africa.

Applicability to SWA: Section 41 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory.” Section 1 defines “the territory” as “the territory of South West Africa including that portion of the territory known as the ‘Rehoboth Gebiet’, and the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in subsection (3) of section three of the South West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951)”.

Transfer of administration to SWA: There is no reference to any minister in the Act, so it is not clear from the face of the Act what transfer proclamation, if any, was applicable. In any event, there were no amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

ARCHIVES

Summary: This Act (GG 421) deals with the custody, care and control of archives. It repeals the Archives Act 4 of 1987.

Regulations: Section 17(2) of the Archives Act 12 of 1992 states: “Anything done in terms of a provision of the Act repealed by subsection (1) and which could have been done under a corresponding provision of this Act shall be deemed to have been done under the provision of this Act.” However, since the current Act makes no provision for regulations, this savings clause does not apply to regulations made under the repealed Act.

ARMS AND AMMUNITION

Summary: Section 4 of this Ordinance (OG 2018) makes the possession and sale of dangerous weapons a criminal offence. (Section 5 of this Ordinance is discussed under WILLS, and sections 6-8 are discussed under CRIMINAL LAW AND PROCEDURE.)

Amendments: Section 4 was repealed in respect of Rehoboth by the Dangerous Weapons Act (Rehoboth) Act 5 of 1980 of Rehoboth (Rehoboth Official Gazette 34 of 24 July 1981).

Summary: Section 8 of this Ordinance (OG 2409) makes pointing a firearm, air gun or air pistol a criminal offence.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 738) regulates the possession, manufacture and importation of tear-gas and articles which are used to release tear-gas.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Republic” to include “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 6 states “This Act shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa (including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section three of the South West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951)), and in relation to all persons in that portion of the said territory known as the ‘Rehoboth Gebiet’ and defined in the First Schedule to Proclamation No. 28 of 1923 of the said territory.”

Although the wording of section 6 did not make amendments to the Act in South Africa automatically applicable to SWA, they would probably have been applicable by virtue of the definition of “Republic” in section 1. In any event, there were no amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended.

Section 3(1)(l) of the transfer proclamation excluded the references to the Republic throughout the Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that Republic retained the meaning it was given in the definition section of the Act (South Africa and SWA).

There were no amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.
Arms and Ammunition Act 7 of 1996.

Summary: This Act (GG 1338) regulates the possession, sale, manufacture, import and export of arms and ammunition. It was brought into force on 1 April 1998 by GN 66/1998 (GG 1830), replacing the Arms and Ammunition Act 75 of 1969.

Regulations: Section 45(2) contains a savings clause, stating that “anything done under a provision of a law repealed by subsection (1) which could have been done under a corresponding provision of this Act, shall be deemed to have been done under such corresponding provision of this Act”.

Notices: Periodic notices about the surrender of arms, ammunitions or armaments have been issued but are not recorded here.

Cases: The following cases concern the present Act –
S v Likuwa 1999 NR 151 (HC) (examining purpose of section 29(1)(a); striking the words “of not less than 10 years, but” from section 38(2)(a) of the Act on constitutional grounds)

Summary: This Act (SA GG 3649) gives effect to the Warsaw Convention that governs international air travel. It was brought into force in respect of both South Africa and South West Africa on 22 March 1955 by SA Proc. No. 65 of 1955 (SA GG 5434).

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 originally stated “In this Act, ‘Union’ includes the Mandated Territory of South-West Africa and the port and settlement of Walvis Bay.” It was amended by Act 5 of 1964 to remove the reference to Union and to define “Republic” to include “any territory in respect of which Parliament is competent to legislate”.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Transport) Transfer Proclamation (AG 14/1978), dated 15 March 1978. There were only two amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Carriage by Air Amendment Act 81 of 1979 (RSA GG 6529) and the Transfer of Powers and Duties of the State President Act 97 of 1986 (RSA GG 10438) (section 7) – neither of which was made expressly applicable to SWA.

Section 3(1)(a) of the transfer proclamation excluded section 5 of the Act (which deals with the ratification of amendments to the Warsaw Convention by the State President) from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that the administration of this section was not transferred to SWA.

Section 3(2) of the transfer proclamation excluded the reference to “Republic” throughout the Act from the operation of section 3(1)(c) of the General Proclamation, and specified that it should be read to include SWA as well as South Africa.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Carriage by Air Amendment Act 5 of 1964 (RSA GG 728)
- RSA Proclamation R. 294 of 1967 (RSA GG 1892)

  applies the Hague Protocol to “the Republic” from 17 December 1974
- RSA Proclamation R. 93 of 1974 (RSA GG 4276)

  applies the Guadalajara Convention to “the Republic” from 4 April 1974

Act 14/1992 (GG 430) amends sections 1, 3, 5 and 7 and substitutes certain expressions to make the Act consistent with an independent Namibia, and to provide for the conversion of sums in francs into Namibian currency in respect of claims against carriers.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 8 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Notices: See GN 265/1998 (GG 1982), which deals with the conversion of sums into francs in terms of section 3(7).

Related international agreements: The schedule to the Act, as amended, contains the Warsaw Convention as amended and supplemented by the Hague Protocol and the Guadalajara Convention. However, Namibia has ratified the Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules relating to International Carriage by Air (Montreal Convention), 1999 which supersedes the Warsaw Convention system. This ratification took place on 27 September 2001, according to the international depositary, the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO), and became binding on Namibia on 4 November 2003. Article 55 of the Montreal Convention, on the Relationship with other Warsaw Convention instruments) provides:

This Convention shall prevail over any rules which apply to international carriage by air:

1. between States Parties to this Convention by virtue of those States commonly being Party to –
   (a) the Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules relating to International Carriage by Air signed at Warsaw on 12 October 1929 (hereinafter called the Warsaw Convention);
   (b) the Protocol to amend the Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules relating to International Carriage by Air signed at Warsaw on 12 October 1929, done at The Hague on 28 September 1955 (hereinafter called The Hague Protocol);
   (c) the Convention, Supplementary to the Warsaw Convention, for the Unification of Certain Rules relating to International Carriage by Air Performed by a Person other than the Contracting Carrier, signed at Guadalajara on 18 September 1961 (hereinafter called the Guadalajara Convention);
   (d) the Protocol to amend the Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules relating to International Carriage by Air signed at Warsaw on 12 October 1929 as amended by the Protocol done at The Hague on 28 September 1955, signed at Guatemala City on 8 March 1971 (hereinafter called the Guatemala City Protocol);
   (e) Additional Protocol Nos. 1 to 3 and Montreal Protocol No. 4 to amend the Warsaw Convention as amended by The Hague Protocol or the Warsaw Convention as amended by both The Hague Protocol and the Guatemala City Protocol, signed at Montreal on 25 September 1975 (hereinafter called the Montreal Protocols); or

2. within the territory of any single State Party to this Convention by virtue of that State being Party to one or more of the instruments referred to in sub-paragraphs (a) to (e) above.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 4201) provides for the licensing and control of air carriers.

Applicability to SWA: Section 24 states “The provisions of this Act and any amendment thereof shall apply in respect of any air services provided by the Railway Administration, and shall also apply to the Territory of South West Africa”, which is defined in section 1 to include “the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section three of the South West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951).”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Transport) Transfer Proclamation (AG 14/1978), dated 15 March 1978. There was only one amendment to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Transfer of Powers and Duties of the State President Act 97 of 1986 (RSA GG 10438) – which was not made expressly applicable to SWA.
Section 3(1)(b) of the transfer proclamation excluded section 2(2) of the Act (which refers to bilateral agreements between South Africa and other countries) from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that the reference to the “Government of the Republic” in this section was not to be construed as a reference to the Administrator-General. Section 3(1)(h) of the transfer proclamation excluded section 15 of the Air Services Amendment Act 43 of 1973 from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation.

Section 3(2) of the transfer proclamation excluded the references to the “Republic” throughout the Act from the operation of section 3(1)(c) of the General Proclamation and provided that “Republic” should be deemed to include “the territory”.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendment was applicable to SWA –

- Air Services Amendment Act 6 of 1964 (RSA GG 728).

Act 51 of 1959 was also amended by the Air Services Amendment Act 43 of 1973 (RSA GG 3906). However, Act 43 of 1973 was never brought into force in respect of South Africa or South West Africa. Therefore, the amendments contained in it are not incorporated here. Act 43 of 1973 was repealed in South Africa by the Repeal of Laws Act 94 of 1981 (RSA GG 7855), which came into force on its date of publication: 28 October 1981. However, this repeal, which took place after the date of transfer, was not effective in respect of South West Africa.

Act 6/1991 (GG 216) amends the Act substantially to make it consistent with an independent Namibia (affecting sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, 8, 11, 13, 16, 17, 19, 20, 22, 24 and the substitution of certain words).

The Road Traffic and Transport Act 22 of 1999 (GG 2251) amends section 1.

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched.

Civil Air Services Regulations are contained in RSA GN R.449/1964 (RSA GG 752), as amended by the following:

- RSA GN R.1799/1967 (RSA GG 1799)
- GN 224/1995 (GG 1204)

Application: Visiting aircraft are excluded from the application of section 2(1) of the Act in terms of modifications set forth in GN 58/1998 (GG 1826).

Aerodrome Ordinance 12 of 1963.

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 2487) provides for the establishment, management and maintenance of airports.

Amendments: Section 3(1) of the Ordinance was assigned to the administration of the Minister of Transport by GN 179/1986 (OG 5254).

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 6(1) of the Ordinance. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Airports Company Act 25 of 1998.

Summary: This Act (GG 1958) provides for the incorporation of a company to undertake the operation, management and control of certain aerodromes in Namibia. The Act came into force on 1 November 1998 (GN 261/1998, GG 1981). However, by virtue of section 19(2) of the Act, sections 5-13 and sections 15-18 came into force on 5 February 1999, in terms of GN 19/1999 (GG 2045), on the date of transfer to the Company of the aerodromes listed in the Schedule set by the Minister in terms of section 14(1). (This date of transfer was originally set as 5 November 1998 by GN 262/1998 (GG 1981), but this notice was withdrawn by GN 275/1998 (GG 1993).)

Amendments: The State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 (GG 3698), which was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733) and which has since been re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006, amends sections 1-11 and 14.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 5(5), but none have yet been promulgated.

Aerodrome and airport charges are contained in GN 20/1999 (GG 2045).

Civil Aviation Act 6 of 2016.

Summary: This Act (GG 6047) consolidates the laws relating to civil aviation and civil aviation offences. It establishes the Namibia Civil Aviation Authority, the Air Navigation Services in that Authority and provides for a civil aviation regulatory and control framework. It implements several international aviation agreements applicable to Namibia. It also establishes the Directorate of Aircraft Accident and Incident Investigations and provides for the establishment of Namibia Register of Aircraft and the Civil Aviation Registry. It repeals the Aviation Act 74 of 1962 and the Civil Aviation Offences Act 10 of 1972. It was brought into force with effect from 1 November 2016 by GN 260/2016 (GG 6164).
Regulations: Regulations made in terms of the repealed Acts survive in terms of section 236(2) of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched. However, it appears that these regulations made in terms of the Aviation Act 74 of 1962 remain in force:

The Civil Aviation Security Regulations, contained in GN 181/1996 (GG 1348) and made in terms of the Civil Aviation Offences Act 10 of 1972, initially remained in force, but were repealed by GN 293/2018 (GG 6763).

Technical standards: Standards made in term of the repealed Acts survive in terms of section 236(2) of the Act. The following technical standards were issued in terms of Regulation 11.03.5 of the Namibian Civil Aviation Regulations, 2001:

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 2728) prohibits the desecration or disturbance of graves and regulates exhumation.

Concessions from Natives Proclamation 8 of 1915.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 1) provides that concessions for mineral, trading and other rights obtained (and to be obtained) by private individuals from “coloured and native inhabitants” shall be invalid.

Native Reserves Trust Funds Administration Proclamation 9 of 1924.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 131) requires that separate Native Reserve Trust Funds be set up for each native reserve established pursuant to the Native Administration Proclamation 11 of 1922 (OG 82, which is no longer in force), and governs the administration of such funds. It appears to be obsolete.

This Proclamation was repealed in Damaraland by the Damara Community and Regional Authorities and Paramount Chief and Headman Ordinance 2 of 1986 of the Damara Legislative Assembly (OG 5355). Repeals in respect of other areas may exist, but have not been located.

Native Reserves Fencing Proclamation 12 of 1926.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 205) provides for the recovery of the costs of fencing native reserves from the reserves’ inhabitants.

Native Administration Proclamation 15 of 1928, sections 17-18 and 23-27.

Summary: The surviving portions of this Proclamation (OG 284) (sections 17, 18, 23, 24, 25, 26 and 27 and any regulations made in terms of those sections) deal primarily with marriage and succession in respect of “natives”.

The Proclamation, with the exception of Chapter IV on Marriage and Succession, came into force in all of South West Africa on 1 January 1930 (GN 165/1929) (OG 350). Selected portions of Chapter IV -- section 17(6) and sections 18(3) and (9) -- were subsequently applied to the area north of the Police Zone with retroactive effect from 1 August 1950 (GN 67/1954) (OG 1818).

The whole of section 18 and its accompanying regulations was made applicable to the whole of South West Africa with the exception of Ovambo, Kavango and Caprivi by Thus, only sections 17(6) on marriage and sections 18(3) and 18(9) on succession apply in Ovamboland, Kavango and Caprivi (with effect from 1950). None of section 17 on marriage applies elsewhere, but the whole of section 18 on succession applies to the remainder of Namibia (with effect from 1974).

The Traditional Authorities Act 17 of 1995 (GG 1158) repeals the remaining sections of the Proclamation with the exception of sections 17, 18, 23, 24, 25, 26 and 27 and any regulations made in terms of those sections.

The Estates and Succession Amendment Act 15 of 2005 (GG 3566) repeals portions of section 18, but provides that “the rules of intestate succession that applied by virtue of those provisions before the date of their repeal continue to be of force in relation to persons to whom the relevant rules would have been applicable had the said provisions not been repealed”.

Regulations: Regulations relating to the “administration and distribution of native estates” in the area north of the Police Zone were issued pursuant to section 18(9) in GN 70/1954 (OG 1818). These regulations were subsequently extended to the whole of South West Africa with the exception of Ovamboland, Kavango and Caprivi by RSA Proc. R.192/1974 (RSA GG 4164).

The Proclamation was affected by RSA Proc. 2/1973 (criminal jurisdiction of native commissioners).

Comment: This Proclamation was once supplemented by the Native Administration Proclamation 11 of 1922 (OG 82), which was repealed in its entirety by the Local Authorities Act 23 of 1992 (GG 470), effective 31 August 1992.

Additional information: The history of the application of this Proclamation to persons in various parts of Namibia is complex; as one judicial opinion recently stated, “any discussion of the wider aspects of the Proclamation and the regulations made thereunder has always created more heat than light” (Nakashololo v Nakashololo 2007(1) NR 27 (HC) at 28I). For this reason, some excerpts on the Proclamation’s history and purpose have been included below.

The Native Administration Proclamation 15 of 1928 is modelled on South Africa’s Black Administration Act 38 of 1927. The Administrator of South West Africa gave the following explanation of the Proclamation’s purpose to the League of Nations:
It may be stated that to meet the position legislation is being introduced which a) will simplify procedure in native cases generally; b) will give Native Commissioners power to deal with all matrimonial cases and so cheapen and expedite proceedings. There will, of course, be a right of appeal to the High Court; c) will secure the inheritances under native law of the offspring of a marriage or alliance contracted under native custom in the event of a marriage in accordance with civil law being entered into subsequently;
d) will simplify marriage procedure.” (UG 31/1928: para 41)

The Native Administration Proclamation 15 of 1928, with the exception of Chapter IV on Marriage and Succession, generally came into force in all of South West Africa on 1 January 1930 (GN 165 of 11 December 1929).

Selected portions of Chapter IV – section 17(6) and sections 18(3) and (9) – were subsequently applied to the area north of the Police Zone with retroactive effect from 1 August 1950 (GN 67 of 1 April 1954).

On 1 April 1954, regulations concerning inheritance were promulgated, in terms of section 18(9)
of the Proclamation, in GN 70 of 1 April 1954 (hereinafter referred to as ‘Regulation GN 70’).
These regulations were by their own terms applicable only “to native estates in that portion of the territory north of the Police Zone”.

On 1 April 1954, regulations concerning inheritance were promulgated, in terms of section 18(9)
of the Proclamation, in GN 70 of 1 April 1954 (hereinafter referred to as ‘Regulation GN 70’).
These regulations were by their own terms applicable only “to native estates in that portion of the territory north of the Police Zone”.

The Police Zone is the area south of (‘within’) an imaginary line drawn through Namibia. It is defined in the First Schedule to Proclamation 26 of 1928. The area north of (‘outside’) the Police Zone was primarily viewed as labour reserves during the early colonial period. During German colonization, there was no direct colonial rule of this
The whole of section 18 of the Proclamation and Regulation GN 70 was made applicable to the whole of South West Africa with the exception of Ovamboland, Kavango and Caprivi by RSA Proclamation R.192 of 15 February 1974.

Technically, RSA Proclamation R.192 of 15 February 1974 excludes the areas “referred to paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) of section 2(1) of the Development of Self-Government for Native Nations in South West Africa Act, 1968 (Act 54 of 1968)”.

The result was as follows:
(1) In Ovamboland, Kavango and Caprivi, sections 17(6) on applied to marriages between Africans, and sections 18(3) and 18(9) on succession and Regulation GN 70 applied (with effect from 1950).
(2) In all of Namibia north of the old Police Zone, section 17(6) on marriage applied to marriages between Africans (with effect from 1950).
(3) Inside the old Police Zone, none of section 17 on marriage applied.
(4) In all of Namibia other than Ovamboland, Kavango and Caprivi, the whole of section 18 on succession, including Regulation GN 70, applied (with effect from 1974).

The Native Administration Proclamation Amendment Act 27 of 1985 repealed sections 18(3), 18(4), 18(5), 18(7), 18(8) and 18(9)(c).

In Berendt & Another v Stuurman & Others, 2003 NR 81 (HC), the High Court declared sections 18(1), 18(2) and 18(9) and Regulation GN 70 to be in conflict with the Constitution.

The Estates and Succession Amendment Act 15 of 2005 (GG 3566) repeals subsections 18(1), 18(2), 18(9) and 18(10), but states:

Despite the repeal of the provisions referred to in subsection (1), the rules of intestate succession that applied by virtue of those provisions before the date of their repeal continue to be of force in relation to persons to whom the relevant rules would have been applicable had the said provisions not been repealed.

This would appear to leave the subsections in question, along with Regulation GN 70, applicable to the same persons in the same parts of Namibia as before the Berendt case. However, the constitutionality of the approach taken by the Estates and Succession Amendment Act 15 of 2005 is an open question.

Legal Assistance Centre, 2010

The Western concept of a civil marriage and the legal consequences thereof were foreign to the indigenous peoples of Southern Africa during the pre-colonial era. Theirs was one of (potentially) polygynous customary unions concluded without formal officiation according to the tradition of each tribe and cemented by bridewealth agreements between the families of the partners in such unions. The arrival of European colonial powers in Southern Africa and their ‘mission to “civilize” their colonies’ (T W Bennett Application of Customary Law in Southern Africa (1985) at 138) had a far-reaching impact upon African customary legal systems. A choice was given to members of those indigenous groups to conclude civil marriages. The personal and proprietary consequences of those marriages were, however, not only foreign to the indigenous people but, if so contracted, had the potential to cause serious prejudice to other parties in existing customary unions.

Hence, uncoordinated attempts were made prior to 1928 to address those concerns by legislation (see J M T F Labuschagne ‘Spanningsveld tussen die Psigokulturele en die Juridiese: Opmerkinge oor die Vermoeuregeltike gevolge van gemeenregeltike Huwelike tussen Swartes’ THRHR (1995) 302 at 303-304). From 1 January 1929 the position was comprehensively regulated in South Africa by s 22 of the Native Administration Act, 1927. Being a mandated territory of the Republic of South Africa at the time, the legislative authorities in the then South West Africa soon followed suit with the promulgation of the Native Administration Proclamation, 1928. Section 17 dealt with ‘Marriage’ in almost identical terms as s 22 of Act 38 of 1927 (RSA).

However, whereas s 22 became of force and effect in South Africa from the beginning of 1929, s 17 of Proc 15 of 1928 did not. In terms of s 27 of the Proclamation, the Administrator had to fix the date on which it would commence by notice in the Gazette and he could exclude from application in such notice any specified part or provision of the Proclamation ‘which shall thereupon not apply until brought into operation by a further notice’. When the Administrator brought the Proclamation into operation with effect from 1 January 1930 by Government Notice 165 of 11 December 1929, he expressly excluded Chap IV (which contains s 17). That chapter, with all the legislative intentions to protect customary unions, was never applied in Namibia. That is, except for ss 17(6) and 18(3) and (9), which were applied with effect from 1 August 1950 only to the area north of the ‘Police Zone’ as defined in the first schedule to the Proclamation. That area includes Ovamboland.

Section 17(6) of the Proclamation (as amended by s 6 of Act 27 of 1985) provides as follows:

‘A marriage between Blacks, contracted after the commencement of this Proclamation, shall not produce the legal consequences of marriage in community of property between the spouses: Provided that in the case of a marriage contracted otherwise than during the subsistence of a customary union between the husband and any woman other than the wife it shall be competent for the intending spouses at any time within one month previous to the celebration of such marriage to declare jointly before any magistrate or marriage officer (who is hereby authorised to attest such declaration) that it is their intention and desire that community of property and of profit and loss shall result from their marriage, and thereupon such community shall result from their marriage.’

… the plaintiff did not challenge the constitutionality of s 17(6)… and did not attack the validity of GN 67 of 1954 or the retroactive effect thereof on the pleadings or in argument. Hence, those questions do not arise for decision and I shall refrain from expressing any view thereon….

The legislative intention behind the promulgation of the subsection, according to Bennett (op cit at 155) (dealing with an almost identical s 22(6) of the RSA Act), was to ensure that ‘the parties to the marriage would not be caught unawares by a property system with which they would be unfamiliar’.

The effect of this section on the legal consequences of civil marriages between Blacks contracted after 31 July 1950 in the area defined as the ‘Police Zone’ is significant. No longer does community of property follow unless excluded – rather, the converse applies: The marriage is out of community of property, unless declared or agreed otherwise. After a careful and authoritative analysis of s 22(6) of the RSA Act, Watermeyer CJ concluded as follows in Ex parte Minister of Native Affairs: in re Molefe v Molefe (1946 AD 315 at 320):

‘The proprietary rights of native spouses who contract a valid marriage at a time when no customary union subsists between the husband and another woman, and who do not make a declaration in terms of s 22(6) of Act 38 of 1927, will, except in so far as there is a specific statutory provision, depend upon whether or not parties have entered into any antenuptial agreement with regard to their proprietary rights after marriage. If they have entered into such an antenuptial agreement then their proprietary rights will depend upon the legal effects, whatever they may be, of such agreement. If they have not entered into any such antenuptial agreement then, since community of property, and of profit and loss, does not result from marriage, each spouse retains, subject to any statutory provision, the ownership of his or her own property, but the control of the property of the spouses vests in the husband by virtue of his marital power.’

Those remarks apply, mutatis mutandis, to s 17(6).

Ovamboland Affairs Proclamation 27 of 1929.

‘BLACKS’-5
Summary: This Proclamation (OG 345) enables the Administrator to make regulations for the government of Ovamboland, the establishment of a trust fund and the establishment of the Ovamboland Police.

Caprivi Zipfel Affairs Proclamation 27 of 1930.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 383) makes provision for the establishment of trust funds for any “tribe or aggregate of tribes” in the Caprivi Zipfel, and for the Administrator to make regulations for the area or particular classes of persons or “tribes or portions of tribes” in the area.

Okavango Native Territory Affairs Proclamation 32 of 1937.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 728) enables the Administrator to make regulations for the government of the Okavango Native Territory, the establishment of a trust fund and the establishment of the Okavango Native Territory Police.

Amendments: This Proclamation is amended by Proc. 38/1940 (OG 873), Proc. 26/1948 (OG 1367) and Proc. 53/1950 (OG 1552).

Native Trust Funds Proclamation 23 of 1939.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 792) established the “Herero Tribal Trust Fund” and authorised the Administrator-General to establish similar funds for other “tribes” or “aggregations of natives”. It did not repeal the Native Reserves Trust Funds Administration Proclamation 9 of 1924 (OG 131), although there is some overlap between the two. However, the 1929 Proclamation ties the funds created under it to the land, while this Proclamation relates rather to groups of people.

Black Reserves (South West Africa) Act 44 of 1945.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 3514), originally called the “Native Reserves (South-West Africa) Act”, authorises the dis-establishment of one area reserved for Black occupation, in exchange for the establishment of another. There were no amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Applicability to SWA: This Act applies specifically to South West Africa. It governed only the one particular transaction and has no ongoing applicability.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 6253), originally named the “Native Affairs Act”, establishes a Commission for Black Affairs, so as to facilitate the administration of black affairs. It was repealed in South Africa by Act 108 of 1991.

Applicability to SWA: Section 16A, which was inserted by Act 49/1970, provides that “sections 2, 3 and 4 and any regulation made under section 15(1)(a) shall also apply in respect of the territory of South-West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel”. This wording does not appear to make South African amendments automatically applicable to SWA, and none of the amending acts after Act 49 of 1970 were made expressly applicable to SWA.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of the Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers Transfer Proclamation (AG 3/1977), dated 28 September 1977, as amended.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –
- Black Laws Amendment Act 63 of 1966 (originally called the “Bantu Laws Amendment Act”) (RSA GG 1585)
- Third Black Laws Amendment Act 49 of 1970 (originally called the “Third Bantu Laws Amendment Act”) (RSA GG 2820).

Reservation of State Land for Natives Ordinance 35 of 1967.

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 2837) authorises the Administrator-General of South West Africa to set aside and reserve state land “for the sole use and occupation of natives”.

Amendments: This Ordinance is amended by Ord. 5/1969 (OG 2983), Ord. 19/1971 (OG 3198), Ord. 16/1974 (OG 3442), Ord. 5/1975(OG 3472), Ord. 6/1977 (OG 3605) and Ord. 5/1978 (OG 3736).

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 2100) was intended to assist the “native nations” in South West Africa to “develop in an orderly manner to self-governing nations and independence”. It set aside areas for “native nations” in Damaraland, Hereroland, Kaokoland, Kavango, Eastern Caprivi, Owanbo and any other area gazetted for this purpose in terms of the Act. The Act may remain in force in technical terms in some areas.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –
- Second Black Laws Amendment Act 27 of 1970 (originally called the “Second Bantu Laws Amendment Act”) (RSA GG 2665)
- Black Laws Amendment Act 23 of 1972 (originally called the “Bantu Laws Amendment Act”) (RSA GG 3447)
- Black Laws Amendment Act 70 of 1974 (originally called the “Bantu Laws Amendment Act”) (RSA GG 4486)

Section 52 of the Representative Authorities Proclamation, AG 8/1980 (OG 4401) (amended by AG 4/1981 and repealed by the Namibian Constitution) provided that the Act would be repealed in Hereroland, Kaokoland, Kavango, Eastern Caprivi, Owamboland and Damaraland when representative authorities for these areas came into operation, and in other parts of the territory on a date determined by the Administrator-General by proclamation. No proclamation specifying dates for repeals in other parts of South West Africa has been located.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 2054), originally called the “Promotion of the Economic Development of Bantu Homelands Act”, provides for the establishment of development corporations so as to carry out the economic development of homelands (“national states”).

Applicability to SWA: Section 32 states “This Act and any amendment thereof also apply in the territory of South-West Africa, including that portion of the said territory known as the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel and mentioned in section 3 of the South-West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951).”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The relevant transfer proclamation is the Executive Powers Transfer Proclamation (AG 3/1977) dated 28 September 1977, as amended. However, this Act is excluded from the operation of section 3(1) of the transfer proclamation by section 3(2)(b), meaning that it was not transferred to SWA.

Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006.

Summary: This Act (GG 3698), which was originally named the State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006, makes provision for the efficient governance of State-owned enterprises, their restructuring and the monitoring of their performance. It establishes the State-owned Enterprises Governance Council. The Act was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733). It was re-named by Act 8/2015 (GG 5835).

Amendments: Act 5/2008 (GG 4146) amends sections 15 and 27, substitutes section 48 and validates the appointment of certain board members. The changes to sections 15 and 48 are deemed to have come into force at the same time as the principal Act, while the remainder of the amendments came into force on the date the amending Act was gazetted (22 October 2008).

Schedule 1 of the Act is amended by section 134(2) of the Communications Act 8 of 2009 (GG 4378), which is brought into force in relevant part on 18 May 2011 (GN 64/2011, GG 4714). Schedule 1 is substituted by GN 142/2013 (GG 5213), GN 43/2016 (GG 5965) and GN 222/2018 (GG 6708), pursuant to section 47 of the Act.

The Act is substantially amended by Act 8/2015 (GG 5835), which changes the name of the Act from the State-owned Enterprises Governance Act to the Public Enterprises Governance Act. This amending Act amends “Schedule 2 to the principal Act and other laws” – presumably including those laws which were previously amended by Schedule 2 – to reflect the name change.

Application: This Act affects a number of companies other than those established or governed by specific statutes (Air Namibia (Pty) Ltd, National Petroleum Corporation of Namibia (Pty) Ltd, August 26 Holdings Company (Pty) Ltd, Windhoek Machinen Fabrik (Pty) Ltd, Namibia Bricks Enterprise (Pty) Ltd and Star Protection Services (Pty) Ltd) and one association not for gain (National Theatre of Namibia).

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 43 of the Act, but none have yet been promulgated.

Notices: Directives in relation to remuneration for CEOs and Senior Managers and annual fees and sitting allowances for Board members are contained in GN 174/2010 (GG 4538), as amended by GN 141/2013 (GG 5213), GN 261/2014 (GG 5644) and GN 69/2018 (GG 6572). Table 1 of that Notice is substituted by GN Tables 2 and 3 of that Notice are substituted by GN 261/2014 (GG 5644). Tables 1, 2 and 3 are all substituted by GN 69/2018 (GG 6572).

GN 69/2018 (GG 6572) also sets a moratorium on any adjustment to the salaries and benefits of Chief Executive Officers, Senior Management Staff and Board Members of public enterprises beyond the inflation adjustments specified in that notice, pending public enterprise reform in Namibia.

A memorandum of agreement between the Namibian Competition Commission and NAMFISA, made pursuant to section 67(3) of the Competition Act 2 of 2003, is published in General Notice 270/2014 (GG 5527).

Exemptions: The Namibia Financial Institutions Supervisory Authority (NAMFISA) and the National Fishing Corporation of Namibia Limited (FISHCOR) are exempted from certain provisions of the Act by GN 151/2011 (GG 4787). Note that GG 4787 erroneously uses the acronym FISCHOR.

Appointments: GN 232/2008 (GG 4131) determines the number and terms of board members of the Namibia Airports Company, Namibia Ports Authority, Roads Authority, Roads Contractor Company and TransNamib Holdings Company. Members of the Boards of these enterprises are announced in GN 11/2009 (GG 4210). GN 131/2010 (GG 4914) announces the appointment of members of the Board of the Communications Regulatory Authority of Namibia.

Cases:
Road Fund Administration v Government of the Republic of Namibia & Others 2012 (1) NR 28 (HC) (court takes prima facie view that Government and Cabinet are not entitled to interfere with executive decisions taken by board of parastatal)

Commentary:

Business and Intellectual Property Authority Act 8 of 2016.

Summary: This Act (GG 6105) establishes a Business and Intellectual Property Authority (BIPA), governed by a Board, which centralises the registration of business and intellectual property (industrial property and copyright) under the Close Corporations Act 26 of 1988, the Companies Act 28 of 2004, the Copyright and Neighbouring Rights Protection Act 6 of 1994 and the Industrial Property Act 1 of 2012. The Registrar of Business and Industrial Property, who is the CEO of BIPA, replaces the Registrar of Companies and the Registrar of Close Corporations as well as the Registrar of Industrial Property. It was brought into force with effect from 16 January 2017 by GN 293/2016 (GG 6197). GG 6105 was replaced with a corrected copy, which has the same date. The replacement copy corrects a mistake in the Contents section on page 1 where the Act number was wrongly stated as 7 instead of 8. This second version of GG 6105 was then replaced with a third version, because of further unspecified errors on page 1. The correct Gazette is not otherwise indicated.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 30 of the Act, but none have yet been promulgated.

Notices: General Notice 640/2018 (GG 6767) announces the location and operating hours of the Registration Office of BIPA.

COMMENTARY
INTERNATIONAL LAW
African Charter on Statistics, 2009

Summary: This Act (SA GG 6417) regulates adoption of children; provides for the appointment of Commissioners of Child Welfare and for the establishment of Children’s Courts; deals with the protection of children from neglect, abuse and exploitation; and provides for certain institutions for children and juveniles. It repeals the Children’s Ordinance 31 of 1961 (OG 2328), which had replaced the Adoption of Children Ordinance 10 of 1927. The Act is repealed, along with its amendments, by the Child Care and Protection Act 3 of 2015 (GG 5744), which has not yet been brought into force.

Applicability to SWA: The Act was made applicable to Namibia by the Children’s Amendment Act 74 of 1973, which came into force on 1 January 1977, by virtue of RSA Proc. 264/1976 (RSA GG 5360).

As amended, section 1 defined “Republic” to include “the territory”, which is defined as “the territory of South West Africa”. The added section 93A states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” (Act 74/1973 also made a number of other amendments, the purpose of which was to provide continuity with the repealed Children’s Ordinance 31 of 1961.)

RSA Proc. 263/1976 (RSA GG 5360) which also came into force on 1 January 1977 and explicitly stated that it was applicable to SWA, assigned the general administration of the Act to the Minister of Social Welfare and Pensions, with certain exceptions stipulated in respect of different racial groups.

Transfer of administration to SWA: Because responsibility for administering the Act rested with different South African ministries, different transfer proclamations may have applied.

Matters administered by the Minister of Coloured, Rehoboth and Nama Relations and by the Minister of Bantu Administration and Development were transferred to the Administrator-General by the Executive Powers Transfer Proclamation (Bantu Administration and Development; Bantu Education; Coloured Rehoboth and Nama Relations; Water), AG 3 of 1977, dated 28 September 1977 (OG 3651). This transfer applied to the Act as it related to Basters of Rehoboth, Coloured persons and Namas, and to Asians in schools of industries and reform schools, with the exception of Indians in reform schools.

Matters administered by the Minister of Social Welfare and Pensions were transferred to the Administrator-General by the Executive Powers (Social Welfare and Pensions) Transfer Proclamation, AG 11 of 1977, dated 30 November 1977 (OG 3675).

Matters administered by the Minister of the Interior were transferred to the Administrator-General by the Executive Powers (Interior) Transfer Proclamation, AG 17 of 1978, dated 30 March 1978. This transfer applied to the Act as it related to Chinese persons.

Matters administered by the Minister of National Education were transferred to the Administrator-General by the Executive Powers (National Education) Transfer Proclamation (AG 1/1978), dated 11 January 1978. This transfer applied to the Act as it related to schools of industries and reform schools for White persons.

Matters administered by the Minister of Indian Affairs were not transferred to SWA. This included the Act as it applied to Indians and Zanzibari Arabs, with the exception of Indians and Zanzibari Arabs in reform schools.

Alternatively, the Executive Powers (Social Welfare and Pensions) Transfer Proclamation, AG. 11 of 1977, dated 30 November 1977, may have applied because the general administration of the Act fell under the Minister of Social Welfare and Pensions.

There were two amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of the various transfers and prior to Namibian independence – the Children’s Amendment Act 15 of 1977 (which was brought into force by RSA Proc. R.170/1979, effective 1 September 1979) and the Special Courts for Blacks Abolition Act 34 of 1986 – neither of which was made expressly applicable to SWA.

Amendments: The South African amendments to the Act prior to the Children’s Amendment Act 15 of 1977 (which was brought into force by RSA Proc. R.170/1979, effective 1 September 1979) were applicable to SWA by virtue of section 93A of the amended Act. This includes the Criminal Procedure Act 51 of 1977, which was brought into force in South Africa and South West Africa on 22 July 1977 by RSA Proc. R.148 of 1977 (RSA GG 5654).

Act 7/1981 of Rehoboth made the Children’s Amendment Act 15 of 1977 (which was not applicable to other parts of SWA) applicable to Rehoboth.

Section 104 is repealed by the Prisons Act 17 of 1998 (GG 1894) (which is repealed in turn by the Correctional Service Act 9 of 2012).

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been researched, as this Act and its regulations are expected to soon be replaced by the Child Care and Protection Act 3 of 2015 and new regulations promulgated under that Act.

Administration of Act: Administration of the Act is assigned to the Minister responsible for child welfare by Proc. 6/2012 (GG 4891), pursuant to the Assignment of Powers Act 4 of 1990.

Cases:
- Ex Parte Attorney-General, Namibia: In Re Corporal Punishment by Organs of State, 1991 NR 178 (SC) (references to whipping and corporal punishment in sections 32 and 92(1) unconstitutional)
- S v Van der Bergh 2003 NR 69 (HC) (suggestion that youthful offender is a child in need of care as defined by this Act)
- Detmold & Another v Minister of Health and Social Services & Others 2004 NR 174 (HC) (section 71(2)(f) declared unconstitutional and therefore invalid)
See also NS v RH 2011 (2) NR 486 (HC) at 526E-529B, which discusses in dicta the impact of Detmold in the absence of Namibia’s accession to the Hague Convention on Inter-Country Adoption and the subsidiarity principle in Art 21(b) of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child incorporated into Namibian law by virtue of Art 144 of the Namibian Constitution.

Commentary: Oliver C Ruppel & Pombili L Shipila, “Adoption: Statutory and customary law aspects from a Namibian perspective” in Oliver C Ruppel (ed), Summary: This Act (RSA GG 3533) sets the age of majority at twenty-one and provides for other related matters. It is repealed by the Child Care and Protection Act 3 of 2015 (GG 5744), which has not yet been brought into force.

Applicability to SWA: Section 8 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” There were no amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended. There were no amendments to the Act in South Africa after that date and prior to Namibian independence.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Children’s Status Act 6 of 2006.

Summary: This Act (GG 3761) removes discrimination against children born outside marriage, provides for custody, access and guardianship in respect of such children and provides procedures for the appointment of custodians and guardians for all children upon the death of their parent or guardian. The Act was brought into force on 3 November 2008 by GN 266/2008 (GG 4154). It is repealed by the Child Care and Protection Act 3 of 2015 (GG 5744), which has not yet been brought into force.

Regulations: Regulations are contained in GN 267/2008 (GG 4154).

Cases:
Frans v Paschke & Others 2007 (2) NR 520 (HC) implicitly extended the applicability of section 16 on the inheritance rights of children born outside marriage, through section 26(2), by finding the common law rule that children born outside marriage may not inherit intestate from their fathers unconstitutional with effect from 21 March 1990. (See Paschke v Frans 2015 (3) NR 668 (SC) which held that the date of litis contestation is the relevant date for determination of the quantum of unjust enrichment resulting from the constitutional ruling.)

NS v PS 2010 (2) NR 418 (HC) makes a passing mention of the Act, noting that section 5(1) allows for variation of a High Court custody order in the children’s court “if circumstances have changed”.

S v S 2011 (1) NR 144 (HC) suggests that the common-law concept of putative marriage should fall into disuse since the main purpose of the concept is to mitigate harshness to any children involved, now that “the Children’s Status Act essentially puts children born out of wedlock on the same legal footing with children born in wedlock” (at 148B-C).
Jordaan v Jordaan (A 317/2012) [2012] NAHCMD 106 (11 December 2012), deals with an ex parte application for interim custody under the Act which was found to be outside the Act’s criteria for such an order.

FN v SM 2012 (2) NR 709 (HC) overturned a decision not to confirm an interim protection order in terms of the Combating of Domestic Violence Act 4 of 2003, and issued a final protection order giving interim custody to the mother and access to the father; the Court made this final protection order for a duration of 12 months, to allow time for a custody proceeding under the Children’s Status Act.

LNL v LJL (I 2406/2013) [2014] NAHCMD 309 (17 October 2014) involved a dispute about the paternity of one child in divorce proceedings, on the basis that the wife had affairs. The High Court said that the Children’s Status Act reiterates the common law presumption that a child born in wedlock is the child of the father married to the mother. It “assists a father of a child born in marriage only to this extent: If the mother refuses to subject a child to a paternity test, there is a presumption that she is seeking to conceal the truth concerning the parentage of that person”. The Court held that the husband cannot demand paternity tests when he has not produced any evidence which contradicts the presumption that children born inside marriage are the children of the spouses.

JM & Another v SM 2016 (1) NR 27 (HC) concerned a request for an interim variation of a divorce order on custody, pending the outcome of a custody application under the Children’s Status Act. It is not clear why the parties utilised two different forums. The case found that the High Court has very broad discretion to consider any relevant information.

Kriel v Kantak (A 268-2015) [2015] NAHCMD 242 (7 October 2015) involved a High Court application for interim custody of a child launched only three court days after a custody application was made in the children’s court under the Children’s Status Act. The High Court refused to entertain the case on the grounds that this would be usurping the lower court’s function. It noted that if the lower court is not acting, the appropriate remedy is mandamus.

Commentary:

*Child Care and Protection Act 3 of 2015.

Summary: This Act (GG 5744) gives effect to the rights of children as contained in the Namibian Constitution and international agreements binding on Namibia. It sets out principles relating to the best interests of children. It reduces the age majority from 21 to 18, while providing that parental consent to marry is still required up to age 21. It establishes a National Advisory Council on Children, a Children’s Advocate in the Office of the Ombudsman and a Children’s Fund to finance cross-cutting issues. It covers the appointment and designation of social workers, social auxiliary workers, community child care workers and probation officers, and provides for the designation of private social workers and child protection organisations for certain purposes. It also provides for... children’s courts and for the registration of residential child care facilities, places of care and shelters.

It provides procedures for determining the parentage of a child. It also provides for the allocation of parental responsibilities and rights in respect of children born outside marriage and children of divorced parents. It provides mechanisms for custody and guardianship of children on the death of the person having custody or guardianship. (These parts of the Act closely resemble the provisions of the Children’s Status Act 6 of 2006, which was repealed and re-enacted as part of this Act to bring all related procedures in the children’s court under one legislative umbrella.)

The Act covers parenting plans between persons with parental responsibilities and provides for agreements in respect of the kinship care of children.

It authorises prevention and early intervention services in relation to children and provides measures relating to children in need of protective services. It redefines foster care. It provides for the issuing of contribution orders. It covers both domestic and inter-country adoption of children, and paves the way for Namibia to adopt several key Hague Conventions on children.

It provides measure to combat the trafficking of children as well as measures to assist child victims of trafficking. It provides for additional measures for the protection of children, including issues pertaining to certain forms of child labour and measures to combat baby-dumping. It requires certain persons to be in possession of police clearance certificates to ensure that they are not unfit to work with children.

It provides for grants payable in respect of certain children and creates some new offences relating to children.

It repeals the Children’s Act 33 of 1960, the Age of Majority Act 57 of 1972, and the Children’s Status Act 6 of 2006 and amends several other laws.

The Act will be brought into force on a date set by the Minister by notice in the Government Gazette.

Amendments: The Act is amended by the Combating of Trafficking in Persons Act 1 of 2018 (GG 6562), which has not yet been brought into force.

Regulations: Section 258 contains a savings provision for regulations made in terms of the repealed laws.

Notices: Section 258 contains a savings provision for notices and other actions done in terms of the repealed laws.

Applicability to SWA: Section 8A states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in Section 38(5) of the South West Africa Constitution Act, 1968 (Act No. 39 of 1968).”

CITIZENSHIP AND IMMIGRATION

Departure from Namibia Regulation Act 34 of 1955, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 5509, also published in OG 1920) regulates the departure of persons from Namibia. More specifically, it prohibits departure without a passport or a permit, or at a place other than an official border post. It also makes it an offence to assist anyone to leave the country illegally.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Union” to include “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 10 of the original Act stated “This Act shall apply also in the territory of South-West Africa.” Section 10, as amended by Act 69 of 1962, stated “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including that portion thereof known as the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” These provisions were repealed after Namibian independence.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The relevant Transfer Proclamation is the Executive Powers (Interior) Transfer Proclamation (AG 17/1978), dated 30 March 1978. However, section 3(1)(6) of this Proclamation excluded the Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that the administration of the Act was not transferred to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments applied to SWA –

- Commonwealth Relations Act 69 of 1962 (RSA GG 264)
- Residence in the Republic Regulation Act 23 of 1964 (RSA GG 746)
- Border Control Act 61 of 1967 (RSA GG 1745)
- Admission of Persons to and Departure from the Republic Regulation Amendment Act 38 of 1969 (RSA GG 2370)
- Departure from the Union Regulation Amendment Act 7 of 1979 (RSA GG 6340)
- Aliens and Immigration Laws Amendment Act 49 of 1984 (RSA GG 9182)
- Transfer of Powers and Duties of the State President Act 97 of 1986 (RSA GG 10438).

Act 4/1993 (GG 686), which commenced on 22 September 1994 (GN 172/1994, GG 925), amends sections 1, 2, 6, 8 and 9; inserts section 6A; repeals section 10; and substitutes certain expressions and the long title. It also substitutes section 11 to change the name of the Act (from “Departure from the Union Regulation Act”).

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. Post-independence regulations are contained in GN 136/1994 (GG 895), as amended by GN 243/2013 (GG 5284) (which substitutes Regulation 2 and adds Annexure B).

Cases:
- S v Lofty-Eaton & Others (1) 1993 NR 370 (HC)
- S v Malumo & Others (In re Ndala) 2014(3) NR 690 (the question of whether this Act is applicable to the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel was put forward, but the Court ruled that the issue can be raised only after the conclusion of the trial in terms of s. 319 of the Criminal Procedure Act 51 of 1977).

Summary: This Act (GG 65) regulates the acquisition and loss of Namibian citizenship in accordance with Article 4 of the Constitution. It repeals the South African Citizenship Act 44 of 1949 and the Residence of Certain Persons in South West Africa Regulation Act 33 of 1985. It was brought into force with effect from 15 September 1990 by Proc. 13/1990 (GG 72).

Amendments: The Immigration Control Act 7 (GG 690) of 1993, which was brought into force on 29 July 1994 (GN 133/1994, GG 895), amends section 29.

Regulations: There is no savings clause for regulations made in terms of the repealed laws. Regulations made in terms of the current Act are contained in GN 14/1991 (GG 154), as amended by GN 135/2018 (GG 6647) (concerning fees payable for citizenship certificates and renunciation of Namibian citizenship).

Cases:
Alberts v Government of Namibia & Another 1993 NR 85 (HC) (holding that the Constitution does not allow Parliament to enact legislation depriving a Namibian citizen by birth of his or her citizenship by reason of having served in the armed forces of another country; that the Act does not purport to do this; and that the Constitution may not be effectively altered by a policy decision)
Swart v Minister of Home Affairs 1997 NR 268 (HC) (section 5)
Thloro v Minister of Home Affairs 2008 (1) NR 97 (HC) (section 5(1)(g) requiring renunciation of foreign citizenship in order to attain Namibian citizenship by naturalisation and section 26 prohibiting dual citizenship both held to be constitutional; judgment notes that section 26 must be interpreted in light of overall constitutional scheme for citizenship, meaning that citizenship by birth may not be regulated or derogated from by statutory provisions and that citizenship by descent may be regulated only by a requirement of registration)
Minister of Home Affairs v Dickson & Another 2008 (2) NR 665 (SC)(ordinary residence for purposes of acquiring citizenship by marriage means lawful residence)
Le Roux v Minister of Home Affairs and Immigration & Others 2011 (2) NR 606 (HC) (endorsing and applying the Thloro holding that section 26 interpreted in light of the Namibian Constitution does not apply to Namibian citizens by birth)
Berker v Minister of Home Affairs and Immigration & Others 2012 (1) NR 354 (HC) (refers to court order made by agreement between parties confirming that application of section 26 is unconstitutional insofar as it is applied to deprive Namibians by birth or descent of their Namibian citizenship; special costs awarded against respondents, because applicant’s Namibian passport was unlawfully confiscated by immigration official on grounds that she also held a German passport and because she was “treated as foreigner in her own country”).

Commentary:

Summary: This Act (GG 311) makes provision for the conferment of Namibian citizenship upon certain descendants of persons who left Namibia because of persecution by the colonial government.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Immigration Control Act 7 of 1993.

Summary: This Act (GG 690) regulates and controls the entry of persons into Namibia and their residence inside the country. It also provides for the removal from Namibia of certain immigrants. It repeals the Aliens Control Act 30 of 1963, Aliens Registration Act 26 of 1939, Residence in the Republic Regulation Act 23 of 1964 and Admission of Persons to Namibia Regulation Act 59 of 1972, as well as most of the Aliens Act 1 of 1937. It was brought into force on 29 July 1994 by GN 133/1994 (GG 895).

Regulations: Regulations made in terms of the repealed legislation survive in terms of section 60(3) of this Act, but pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Immigration regulations made in terms of the current Act are contained in GN 134/1994 (GG 895). The portions of the regulations relating to fees for various visas and permits are amended by GN 82/2008 (GG 4029). Regulation 13 on “Contagious infections or viruses or diseases” and Regulation 24 on visa fees were substituted by GN 133/2010 (GG 4514), which also amended Annexure I of the regulations by deleting item 10. Regulation 13 is amended to add ebola to the list of prescribed diseases by GN 145/2014 (GG 5556), but this amendment ignores the substitution of Regulation 13 by GN 133/2010 and does not make sense in respect of the substituted regulation.

These regulations are also amended by GN 138/2018 (GG 6647) (substitution of Regulation 24 on fees, substitution of Annexure H, and amendment of Annexure I). Note that there is some overlap and contradiction between regulation 24 and regulation 29 as a result of this amendment.

Notices: Maximum amounts in terms of section 11(2)(a) are set in GN 135/1994 (GG 895).

Cases: The following cases concern the present Act –

- Swart v Minister of Home Affairs 1997 NR 268 (HC) (sections 1, 2(1)(b), 22; also discusses section 1 of the previous Admission of Persons to the Republic Regulation Act 59 of 1972 and section 3(2)(b) of the previous Residence of Certain Persons in South West Africa Regulation Act 33 of 1985)
- S v Ithilenga 1997 NR 239 (HC) (section 56(d))
- Correia v Commanding Officer, Windhoek Prison & Another 1999 NR 48 (SC) (sections 24, 36, 39(2)(h), 41, 42(4)(b)(i))

Namibia Refugees (Recognition and Control) Act 2 of 1999.

Summary: This Act (GG 2065) concerns the recognition and control of refugees in Namibia and gives effect to certain provisions of international conventions on refugees to which Namibia is party. It was brought into force on 22 September 2000 by GN 234/2000 (GG 2412).

Regulations: Namibia Refugees (Recognition and Control) Regulations are contained in GN 236/2000 (GG 2412).

Notices: Osire was declared as a reception area for refugees and others in GN 235/2000 (GG 2412).

Cases: S v Isaac 2004 NR 122 (HC); Namrights Inc v Nicodemus & Others 2016 (2) NR 596 (LC) (section 18; UN Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees, Articles 2 and 26).

Namibian Citizenship (Second) Special Conferment Act 6 of 2015.

Summary: This Act (GG 5775) makes provision for the conferment of Namibian citizenship upon certain descendants of persons who left Namibia because of persecution by the colonial government. It contains provisions similar to those in the Namibian Citizenship Special Conferment Act 14 of 1991 (GG 311). However, the time period covered by the 1991 Act has expired; the 2015 Act covers an additional time period.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 5 of the Act, but none have yet been promulgated.

One-Stop Border Posts Control Act 8 of 2017.

Summary: This Act (GG 6423) provides for the conclusion of agreements between Namibia and adjoining countries on the establishment and implementation of one-stop border posts which are jointly managed.

Regulations: Section 9 of the Act authorises regulations, but none have yet been issued.

CIVIL REGISTRATION

Aliens Act 1 of 1937, sections 1, 9 and 14, as amended in South Africa to February 1978.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 2409) originally governed the presence of anyone who is not a South African citizen in South Africa and South West Africa. The Immigration Control Act 7 of 1993 repealed most of this Act (sections 2-8ter and 10-13bis), along with most of its amending Acts. The only surviving sections are section 1 (definitions, as amended by various Acts), section 9 (change of name, as amended by section 12 of Proc. 15/1989) and section 14 (short title). The only substantive provision remaining in force, section 9, deals with name changes. (This is why the Act now appears in the category on “CIVIL REGISTRATION” rather than “CITIZENSHIP AND IMMIGRATION”.)

Applicability to SWA: The definition of “Union” in section 1 included “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 13bis, prior to its repeal by the Immigration Control Act 7 of 1993, stated “This Act and any amendment thereof shall also apply in the territory of South West Africa, including that portion thereof known as the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Immigration) Transfer Proclamation (AG 9/1978), dated 10 February 1978. Section 3 of the transfer proclamation excluded sections 8(1) and 12(1) of the Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation. However the reference to “sections 8(1) and 12(1) of the Aliens Act” in section 3 of the transfer proclamation was subsequently substituted by section 51 of the Aliens and Immigration Laws Amendment Proclamation (AG 15/1989) (OG 5728) to read “section 12(1)(b) of the Aliens Act”.

The Executive Powers (Interior) Transfer Proclamation (AG 17/1978), dated 30 March 1978, was also applicable to this Act. Section 3(2)(a) of this transfer proclamation excluded section 12(1) of the Act from the operation of section 3(1)(c) of the General Proclamation, which deals with the interpretation of the term “Republic”.

The provisions of the Act relating to the Immigrant Selection Board were excluded from transfer by section 3(2)(b) of the General Proclamation, which exempted from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation “those provisions of any law ... which provide for or relate to the institution, constitution or control of any juristic person or any board or any other body of persons that may exercise powers or perform other functions in or in respect of both the territory and the Republic”.

None of the amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of the transfer proclamations were made expressly applicable to SWA.

Amendments: None of the South African amendments to the original Act which were applicable to South West Africa are relevant now that the only surviving substantive section of the Act is section 9. (Section 1 is still in force, but none of the surviving definitions appear in section 9.)

The amendments made to the Act by the Namibian Citizenship Act 14 of 1990 (GG 65) are not relevant to the sole surviving substantive section.

The Immigration Control Act 7 of 1993 (GG 690) repealed sections 2-8ter and 10-13bis of the primary Act.

It should be noted that the amendments made to the Act in SWA and Namibia have been so extensive that hardly any of the original RSA Act remains. As noted above, the only surviving sections are sections 1, 9 and 14.

Regulations: Regulations pertaining to name changes are contained in GN 759/1937 (OG 720), as amended by the following:
- SA GN 1030/1938 (SA GG 2540)
- SA GN 2134/1943 (SA GG 3272).

Application of law: The First Law Amendment (Abolition of Discriminatory or Restrictive Laws for the Purposes of Free and Fair Election) Proclamation (AG 14/1989) (OG 5726) affected how the definition of “alien” was to be construed, but this is of no relevance to the surviving portions of the Act.

Cases:
- Swart v Minister of Home Affairs 1997 NR 268 (HC) (deals with aspects of the Act which were repealed by the Immigration Control Act 7 of 1993 (sections 1, 2 and 12(1)(a))
- Müller v President of the Republic of Namibia & Another 1999 NR 190 (SC) (section 9) (critiqued in E Bonthuys, “‘Deny Thy Father and Refuse Thy Name’: Namibian Equality Jurisprudence and Married Women’s Surnames”, 117 (3) South African Law Journal 464 (2000); analysis revised by Minister of Health and Social Services & Others v Medical Association of Namibia Ltd & Another 2012 (2) NR 566 (SC))

  According to Müller, the references to the Administrator-General in section 9 should be construed as references to the President after independence in terms of Article 140(5) of the Namibian Constitution. However, according to the subsequent case of Minister of Health and Social Services & Others v Medical Association of Namibia Ltd & Another, this interpretation should be based on Art 140(4) instead of Art 140(5).

  Following on the Müller case, the United Nations Human Rights Committee which oversees the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights ruled in 2002 that the different procedures for men and women with respect to the assumption of a spouse’s surname upon marriage constituted unfair sex discrimination in terms of the International Covenant and gave the Namibian government 90 days to report on what has been done to rectify that problem. United Nations Human Rights Committee, Communication No. 919/2000, CCPR/C/74/D/919/2000, 28 June 2002. However, subsection (1) has not been amended accordingly.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 550) governs the registration of births, marriages and deaths. It repeals the Births, Marriages and Deaths Registration Act 17 of 1923.

Applicability to SWA: This Act was initially brought into force in South West Africa by Ord. 27/1965 (OG 2636) with effect from the date of publication of that Ordinance (21 June 1965), subject to certain rules of construction contained in Ord 27/1965. Ord 27/1965 was repealed and replaced by the Births, Marriages and Deaths Registration Amendment Act 58 of 1970 (RSA), which was brought into force on 1 February 1972, making the Act, with the exception of sections 7A and 42(4), applicable to South West Africa through the insertion of section 51A into the Act.

Section 1, as substituted by Act 58 of 1970, defines “Republic” to include “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 51A, inserted by Act 58 of 1970, states “This Act, except sections 7A and 42(4), and any amendment thereof, and any regulations made under this Act, shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel, and in such application the word ‘Bantu’ shall be construed as ‘native’ and any compound or derivative of ‘Bantu’ shall be construed as a corresponding compound or derivative of the word ‘native’.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Interior) Transfer Proclamation (AG 17/1978), dated 30 March 1978.

Section 3(2)(c) of the transfer proclamation excluded the reference to the “Republic” throughout the Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that “Republic” retained the meaning given to it in the definition section of the Act (South Africa and SWA).

There were two amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Births, Marriages and Deaths Registration Amendment Act 35 of 1982 (RSA GG 8094) and the Marriages, Births and Deaths Amendment Act 41 of 1986 (RSA GG 10211) – neither of which was made expressly applicable to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Births, Marriages and Deaths Registration Amendment Act 17 of 1967 (RSA GG 1670)
- Births, Marriages and Deaths Registration Amendment Act 18 of 1968 (RSA GG 2023)
- Births, Marriages and Deaths Registration Amendment Act 58 of 1970 (RSA GG 2843)
- Births, Marriages and Deaths Registration Amendment Act 51 of 1974 (RSA GG 4440).

The Act was also amended by section 1 of the Native Laws Amendment Proclamation AG. 3 of 1979 (OG 3898), deemed to have come into force in relevant part on 1 August 1978 (section 5 of AG 3 of 1979).

Certain terms are to be construed in accordance with section 1 of the References to Plural Relations and Development Act 10 of 1979 (OG 4023) (which does not technically make any amendments to the Act).

The Marriages, Births and Deaths Amendment Act 5 of 1987 (OG 5356) makes substantial amendments to this Act.

Repealed regulations: Regulations are contained in SA GN 1181/1934 (SA GG 2218; re-published in OG 579). These regulations were originally made in terms of section 34 and 48 of the Births, Marriages and Deaths Registration Act 17 of 1923, which was repealed by the Births, Marriages and Deaths Registration Act 81 of 1963. Pursuant to section 51(2) of the Births, Marriages and Deaths Registration Act 81 of 1963, the General Regulations are deemed to have been made under that Act. These regulations are amended by GN 873/1937 (OG 721), GN 1329/1955 (OG 1934), GN 718/1956 (OG 2017) and GN 415/1960 (OG 2257). However, these regulations do not appear to be in force in Namibia.

There was a chain of regulations which replaced the regulations contained in SA GN 1181/1934. They were first substituted by regulations published in RSA GN R.86/1964 (RSA GG 703).

These 1964 regulations were in turn substituted (along with the amendments contained in RSA GN R.819/1967, RSA GG 1766) by regulations contained in RSA GN R.1737/1971 (RSA GG 3272) in so far as the substituted regulations “are applicable to a person who is not a Bantu”.

The 1964 regulations, as amended and read with RSA GN R.1737/1971 (RSA GG 3272), were then withdrawn by RSA GN R.2385/1975 (RSA GG 4936). However, these 1975 regulations applied only “in relation to persons who are Bantu as defined in the Population Registration Act, 1950 (Act 30 of 1950), or who are natives (excluding Namas) as defined in section 25 of the Native Administration Proclamation, 1928 (South-West Africa Proclamation 15 of 1928).”

Thus, the regulations which applied to Namibia were the regulations published in RSA GN R.1737/1971 (RSA GG 3272) (for “non-Bantu”), and the regulations published in RSA GN R.2385/1975 (RSA GG 4936) (for “Bantus and natives excluding Namas”) – both of which were promulgated prior to the date of transfer of the Act to SWA. (It is possible that the 1964 regulations, as amended prior to the date of transfer, remained in force in respect of Namas – but if so, they would have no practical relevance in post-independence Namibia.)

In Namibia, subsequent regulations were made under this Act in GN 214/1987 (OG 5480), which repealed RSA GN R.1737/1971 and RSA GN R.2385/1975.

Regulations: Regulations made under the law repealed by this Act survive pursuant to section 51(2) of the Act. However, aside from the repealed regulations discussed above, the pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched.

Regulations made under this Act are contained in GN 214/1987 (OG 5480). These regulations are amended by GN 128/2001 (GG 2564), GN 214/2013 (GG 5264) and GN 137/2018 (GG 6647).

Notices: Forms and certificates made pursuant to Regulation 2 of the regulations contained in GN 214/1987 (OG 5480) were announced in GN 27/2014 (GG 5425), but this notice was withdrawn by GN 49/2014 (GG 5439) and replaced by GN 52/2014 (GG 5444). GN 52/2014 is amended by GN 173/2016 (GG 6088).

GN 52/2014 (GG 5444) prescribes forms in terms of regulation 2(a)(iii), which it erroneously refers to as regulation 2(iii). GN 172/2016 erroneously states that it is amending the regulations contained in GN 214/1987. It also erroneously states that GN 27/2014 (GG 5425) amended these regulations, and makes no reference to the fact that GN 27/2014 was withdrawn and replaced by GN 52/2014.

Identification Act 21 of 1996.

Regulations: Identification Regulations are contained in GN 96/2001 (GG 2533), as amended by GN 136/2018 (GG 6647) (substitution of Regulation 7(1), concerning fees for duplicate IDs).

Note: Identity documents issued under the previous acts will continue to be valid until a date determined by the Minister of Home Affairs and announced in the Government Gazette.

COMMISSIONS

Commissions’ Powers Ordinance 6 of 1927.

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 234) confers certain powers, jurisdiction and privileges upon commissions enquiring into matters of public concern. It appears to have been superseded by the Commissions Act 8 of 1947.

Amendments: This Ordinance is amended by Ord. 2/1976(OG 3521).

Commissions Act 8 of 1947, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 3800) empowers the Governor-General (and now the State President) to appoint commissions to investigate matters of public concern.

Applicability to SWA: The Act was made applicable to South West Africa by RSA Proc. R.149/1980 (RSA GG 7199), as of 29 August 1980. Section 6A(1), as inserted by this Proclamation, states “This Act shall apply also in the Territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” As the Act applied to South West Africa, the Administrator-General was empowered to appoint commissions in addition to the Governor-General (section 6A(2)).

Transfer of administration to SWA: The Administrator-General acquired authority to administer this Act in South West Africa by virtue of RSA Proc. R.149/1980 (RSA GG 7199). This did not qualify as a “transfer proclamation” in terms of the General Proclamation, which defines “transfer proclamation in section 1 as “a proclamation by the Administrator-General by which the administration of the affairs of the territory in relation to any matter is transferred from a Minister of the Republic to the Administrator-General” (emphasis added). Therefore, the General Proclamation was not applicable to this Act. In any event, there were no amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of RSA Proc. R.149/1980 and prior to Namibian independence.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA:

- General Law Amendment Act 80 of 1964 (RSA GG 829)
- General Law Amendment Act 102 of 1967 (RSA GG 1771)

Regulations: Regulations relating to the Commission of Inquiry into Health Services in South West Africa are contained in AG 26/1981(OG 4542). They have no ongoing relevance.

Commissions: The following Commissions were established in terms of the Act by the SWA administration:

- Commission of Inquiry into Health Services (AG Proc.19/1981) (OG 4509);
- Commission appointed in AG GN 113/1981
- Commission of Inquiry into Alleged Irregularities and Misapplication of Property in Representative Authorities in, and the Central Authority

During the election campaign which was part of the implementation of UN Resolution 435, AG Proc. 11/1989 (OG 5718) established a Commission for the Prevention and Combating of Intimidation and Election Malpractices, but this Commission did not operate in terms of the Commissions Act.

The following commissions have been established in terms of the Act since Namibian independence:

CONSTITUTION

The pre-independence laws, while still technically in force, are primarily of historical interest.

The Namibian Constitution is not legislation in the same way as the other laws listed here, but is rather the Supreme Law of independent Namibia.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 2331) related to the administration of South West Africa, principally by transferring authority over a number of issues to Ministers of the relevant South African departments, by extending the power of the State President to make South African laws applicable to South West Africa, and by changing several of the financial aspects of the administration of the territory. It was repealed in South Africa by Act 108/1993 and has no current relevance to Namibia.

Applicability to SWA: The law applies to SWA by virtue of its subject matter. Sections 24 states “This Act shall apply also in the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendment was applicable to SWA –
- Finance Act 102 of 1969 (RSA GG 2465).

The Customs and Excise Act 20 of 1998 (GG 1900), which was brought into force on 1 August 1998 (GN 186/1998, GG 1918), repeals section 6.

The application of this Act was affected by the subsequent SWA Transfer Proclamations, which transferred administration of certain matters back to South West Africa.

NAMIBIAN CONSTITUTION.

Summary: The Namibian Constitution (GG 2) is the fundamental law of independent Namibia. All other laws are subject to it. It was adopted by elected representatives of the Namibian people after Namibia’s first democratic elections. It was published and came into force on the date of Independence: 21 March 1990 (Article 130 of the Namibian Constitution).

Amendments: Article 132 of the Namibian Constitution sets out the procedures for its amendment. It has been amended by the following –
- Namibian Constitution First Amendment Act 34 of 1998 (GG 2014)
- Namibian Constitution Second Amendment Act 7 of 2010 (GG 4480)
- Namibian Constitution Third Amendment Act 8 of 2014 (GG 5589).

Because of their importance, these amending Acts all have separate entries in this section.
Cases: Cases involving the Constitution are numerous and are not listed here. Where other legislation has been tested against the Constitution, those cases are listed under the entries for the statute in question. A few selected cases are cited at the end of this section.

Commentary: For commentary on constitutional issues, see the list at the end of this section.

Summary: This Act (GG 4) determines the national coat of arms for the Republic of Namibia, in accordance with Article 2(2) of the Constitution.

Summary: This Act (GG 29) empowers the President to establish departments and other administrative divisions and to assign the administration of certain laws to the Prime Minister or to any Minister. It also provides for the temporary performance of the functions of the Prime Minister or a Minister by another Minister.

Special Advisers and Regional Governors Appointment Act 6 of 1990.

Summary: This Act (GG 31) provides for the appointment of persons by the President as special advisers and regional governors. It also sets forth the powers, duties and functions of such appointees. (The Act was initially known as the Special Advisers and Regional Representatives Appointment Act 6 of 1990. It originally provided for the appointment of persons as regional representatives, but this portion of the Act was repealed in 1992. The name of the Act was changed by Act 15/2010 (GG 4617), which inserted a section on the appointment of regional governors.)

Amendments: Section 2 of the Act was repealed by the Regional Councils Act 22 of 1992 (GG 469), as of 30 November 1992.

Act 15/2010 (GG 4617) inserts a new section 2 to provide for regional governors, and substitutes section 3 (the short title).

Appointments: Regional representatives are appointed in Proc. 14/1990 (GG 75).

The appointment of Regional Governors is announced in Proc. 1/2011 (GG 4645), Proc. 18/2013 (GG 5188) and Proc. 8/2018 (GG 6527).

Regional governors were appointed in 2015, but these appointments were not gazetted. See “President announces governors”, The Namibian, 10 April 2015 (listing the names of each governor).

Note that GG 6527 was initially numbered incorrectly as GG 6528. A corrected version was subsequently issued.
The following Special Advisers have been appointed (in chronological order):

Note that some Gazettes refer to Special “Advisors” rather than “Advisers”. The Act uses the spelling “Advisers”.

NOTE: Section 1 of the Act authorises the appointment by the President of Special Advisers “to the President, the Cabinet or any Minister designated by the President”, stating that this may be done “from time to time by proclamation in the Gazette”.

However, not all of the appointments of Special Advisers seem to have been gazetted. For example, a tender advertisement in GG 1519 refers to equipment for a Special Adviser to the Minister of Justice, although no such appointment had been gazetted by that date. Proc. 14/2000 in GG 2434 refer respectively to a Special Adviser to the Ministry of Justice and a Special Adviser to the Attorney-General (in connection with pension fund coverage), but these appointments were not previously gazetted. The same is true with respect to the Special Advisers referred to in Proc. 17/2001 in GG 2607 and Proc. 33 of 2004 in GG 3198 (in connection with pension fund coverage). As another example, GG 4725 refers to the appointment of a Special Adviser on Social and Political Issues for the Erongo Region (in discussing a vacancy), which is not gazetted (although this position may fall outside the parameters of the Act altogether).

The apparent failure to announce all appointments under the Act in the Gazette as section 1 requires also appears to raise a Constitutional issue. Article 32(3)(i) of the Namibian Constitution discusses the President’s powers of appointment, including some specific offices as well as covering the appointment of “any other person or persons who are required by any other provision of this Constitution or any other law to be appointed by the President”. Article 32(8) states that all such appointments “shall be announced by the President by Proclamation in the Gazette”.

HISTORICAL NOTE

There have been two declarations of a state of emergency under Article 26(1) of the Constitution.

1) The Declaration of State of Emergency: Caprivi, Proclamation 23 of 1999 (GG 2156) declared a state of emergency in the Caprivi Region effective as of 2 August 1999, and Emergency Regulations were promulgated in Proc. 24/1999 (GG 2157). An Advisory Board as referred to in Article 26(5)(c) of the Constitution was appointed with respect to the state of emergency by Proc. 25/1999 (GG 2159). The declaration and the regulations were both revoked on 26 August 1999 by Proc. 27/1999 (GG 2176). Lists of persons detained under the Emergency Regulations were published in GN 172/1999 (GG 2167) and GN 173/1999 (GG 2172). It is relevant to note that the Katima Mulilo police cells (in the Caprivi Region) were declared to be a prison by GN 160/1999 (GG 2163). The case of Mazila v Minister of Home Affairs 2000 NR 224 (HC) discussed the applicability of the Emergency Regulations to areas outside the Caprivi Region.

2) The Declaration of State of Emergency: National Disaster (Drought) Proclamation 5 of 2016 (GG 6056) declared a state of emergency in all regions of Namibia on account of the persisting national disaster of drought. This became effective on the date of publication of the Proclamation, 28 June 2016.

CONTRACTS

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 202) alters the pre-existing common law by providing for the enforceability of penalty stipulations in breaches of contract.

Applicability to SWA: Section 6 of the Act states “This Act shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa.” This wording does not seem to make South African amendments to the Act automatically applicable to South West Africa. However, the only amendment to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence is contained in section 18(1) of the General Law Amendment Act 102 of 1967 (RSA GG 1771), and it is made expressly applicable to South West Africa by section 18(2) of that Act.

Transfer of administration to SWA: Although this Act makes no reference to any minister, by virtue of its subject matter it probably fell under the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended. (Note that it is one of the laws listed in the South African Justice Laws Rationalisation Act 18 of 1996 (RSA GG 17129).) In any event, there were no amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence.

Amendments: As indicated above, the following pre-independence South African amendment was applicable to SWA –

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Cases: Barotti Furniture (Pty) Ltd v Moodley 1996 NR 295 (HC).
Co-operatives Act 23 of 1996.

Summary: This Act (GG 1467) regulates the formation, registration and winding-up of co-operatives. It repeals the Co-operative Societies Ordinance 15 of 1946.

Regulations: Regulations made in terms of the previous Co-operatives Societies Ordinance 15 of 1946 survive pursuant to section 110(2) of this Act, which states: “Anything done under a provision of the repealed Ordinance which may be done under a provision of this Act shall be deemed to have been done under the last-mentioned provision.” Pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Regulations are authorised by section 107 of the current Act, but none have yet been promulgated.

Notices: Fees for registration and provisional registration of co-operatives are set in GN 66/1997 (GG 1537).

Notices relating to the establishment and winding up of particular co-operatives have not been recorded here.

Transfer of Convicted Offenders Act 9 of 2005.

Summary: This Act (GG 3495) makes provision for the mutual transfer of sentenced offenders between Namibia and foreign States. It was brought into force on 28 July 2006 by GN 116/2006 (GG 3674).

Amendments: The Act is amended with respect to the use of various terms by the Correctional Service Act 9 of 2012 (GG 5008), which was brought into force on 1 January 2014 by GN 330/2013 (GG 5365).

Regulations: Regulations are contained in GN 117/2006 (GG 3674).

Notices: GN 309/2012 (GG 5109) announces the ratification of an agreement on the transfer of sentenced offenders between Zambia and Namibia, in terms of section 20(3) of the Act. (The text of the agreement is not included in the notice.) According to the Ministry of Safety and Security, the National Assembly ratified this bilateral agreement on 9 October 2012 and notified Zambia of the ratification on 23 January 2013. On 11 November 2015, Namibia received notification from Zambia that they had fulfilled their domestic procedures in respect of the agreement. The agreement then entered into force on 12 December 2015 (in terms of Article 20(1) of the Agreement).

Correctional Service Act 9 of 2012.

Summary: This Act (GG 5008) provides for the establishment of the Namibian Correctional Service and correctional facilities (previously known as prisons). It also covers health care services and hygiene for incarcerated offenders, discipline and rehabilitation programmes for incarcerated offenders, and rules for searches and seizures in correctional facilities. It establishes the National Release Board and provides for parole, remission and pardons. The Act repeals the Prisons Act 17 of 1998 (GG 1894), which was brought into force on 24 August 1998 by GN 206/1998, GG 1927). This Act was brought into force on 1 January 2014 by GN 330/2013 (GG 5365).

The Prisons Act 17 of 1998 replaced the Prisons Act 8 of 1959. Because there is a chain of savings clauses which stretch back to that Act, it may be relevant to note its applicability to SWA. Section 96 of the Prisons Act 8 of 1959 stated: “The State President may, by proclamation in the Gazette and subject to such conditions, modifications, exceptions and additions as he may specify in such proclamation, apply the provisions of this Act and of any amendments thereof to the territory of South West Africa including that portion of the said territory known as the ‘Rehoboth Gebiet’ and defined in the First Schedule to Proclamation No. 28 of 1923 of the said territory and also that portion of the said territory known as the ‘Eastern Caprivi Zipfel’ referred to in section 38 of the South West Africa Constitution Act, 1968 (Act No. 39 of 1968), and he may in the like manner amend or repeal any such proclamation”. The Act was initially applied to South West Africa by SA Proclamation 271 of 1959, which was subsequently replaced by RSA Proclamation R.130 of 1969, as amended by RSA Proclamation R.211 of 1977. These Proclamations made several amendments to the Act as it applied to SWA. Although these South African proclamations functioned in some respects as transfer proclamations, the administration of this Act was also

Regulations: Anything done under any provision of any law repealed by this Act which could be done under a provision of this Act is deemed to have been done under this Act in terms of section 134(3) – including the issue of regulations.

Regulations made under laws repealed by the Prisons Act 8 of 1959 survived pursuant to section 95(b) of that Act.

Regulations under the Prisons Act 8 of 1959 appeared to have survived pursuant to the general wording of section 127(2) of the Prisons Act 17 of 1998, which states:

“(2) Anything done under any provision of any law repealed by subsection (1) and which could be done under a provision of this Act shall be deemed to have been done under the last-mentioned provision.”

However, according to the Namibian Supreme Court in Kamahere & Others v Government of the Republic of Namibia & Others 2016 (4) NR 919 (SC) at para [38], there was “no savings provision in respect of the regulations promulgated under the 1959 Act or orders issued under reg 148 [of those regulations] in s 127 of the 1998 Act”. The Court does not discuss the reasoning behind this interpretation, other than to state:

“When the minister made regulations under s 124 of the 1998 Act on 8 November 2001 [referring to the regulations contained in GN 266/2001 (GG 2643), as amended by GN 34/2009 (GG 4223) and GN 134/2009 (GG 4272)], those regulations did not repeal the regulations made under the 1959 Act, further demonstrating that those regulations had been repealed by s 127 of the 1998 Act.”

Regulations made under the Prisons Act 17 of 1998 survived pursuant to section 134(3) of the Correctional Service Act 9 of 2012, but have subsequently been repealed.

Namibian Correctional Service Regulations, made under the current Act, are contained in GN 331/2013 (GG 5365). These regulations repeal the regulations contained in GN 266/2001 (GG 2643), as amended by GN 34/2009 (GG 4223) and GN 134/2009 (GG 4272).

Establishment of prisons: Several new prisons were established under the Prisons Act 17 of 1998 by GN 201/1998 (GG 1927), and the Katima Mulilo police cells were declared to be a prison under that Act by GN 160/1999 (GG 2163).

Cases: The following cases relate to this Act –

Lomboleni & 10 Other Appeal Cases v The State & Others 2016 (1) NR 22 (NLD) (discussion of official duties in section 3(3) in context of inability of prisons to account for whereabouts of prisoners seeking to prosecute appeals)

Katjivena & Others v Prime Minister of the Republic of Namibia & Others 2016 (3) NR 903 (HC) (section 133(3))
Kamahere & Others v Government of the Republic of Namibia & Others 2016 (4) NR 919 (SC) (effect of successive repeals of previous legislation on regulations and orders issued under previous Acts, in respect of eligibility for parole in respect of life imprisonment; section 117 and Regulation 281 of the Namibian Correctional Service Regulations, 2013 apply to persons sentenced under the Prisons Act 17 of 1998, but not under the Prisons Act 8 of 1959; persons sentenced under the Prisons Act 8 of 1959 continue to be governed by the right to parole acquired under that Act).

The following cases relate to the Prisons Act 17 of 1998, which was repealed by this Act –

S v Babiep 1999 NR 170 (HC) (meaning of “prison”, section 54, section 75(1))

Conditions in police cells: The Correctional Service Act defines “correctional facility” to include, for certain purposes, every place used as a police cell or lock-up. McNab & Others v Minister of Home Affairs & Others 2007 (2) NR 531 (HC) at 548C-ff found that conditions in the holding cells in which the plaintiffs were detained were inhuman and degrading and therefore a violation of the constitutional right to human dignity.

Further Administration of Justice Proclamation 38 of 1920.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 35) provides for the procedure of circuit courts of the High Court. All that remains in force of this Proclamation are sections 1, 7, 11 and 13-15.

Amendments: The SA Supreme Court Act 59 of 1959 (SA GG 6253) repeals sections 2-6, 8, 9 and 12. Proc. 30/1935 (OG 649) amends sections 3 and 11 and repeals section 10. The RSA Civil Proceedings Evidence Act 25 of 1965 (RSA GG 1066) amends section 11.

Regulations: Section 13 of the Proclamation authorises regulations “as to the method of transport of the Judge of the High Court of South-West Africa and the scales of transport, travelling and subsistence allowances when he is travelling on duty or is absent on duty from his place of residence”. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched, as they would now be obsolete.

Summary: This Act consolidates all laws relating to magistrates’ courts.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1, as amended by Act 17 of 1970, defines “territory” as “the territory of South West Africa”, and “province” and “Republic” are both defined to include the territory. Section 115A, inserted by Act 17 of 1970, states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended. None of the amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer were made expressly applicable to SWA.

Section 3(1)(d) of the transfer proclamation excluded all references to “Republic” in the Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that “Republic” retained the meaning it was given in the definition section of the Act (South Africa and SWA).

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

The Native Laws Amendment Proclamation, AG 3 of 1979 (OG 3898), deemed to have come into force in relevant part on 1 August 1978 (section 5 of AG 3 of 1979), amends certain terminology.

Act 14/1981 (OG 4565), which is brought into force by AG Proc. 33/1981 (GG 4577), amends section 92.

The Appeals Amendment Act 29 of 1985 (OG 5149), which is brought into force by AG 19/1986 (OG 5182), amends sections 1 and 83.

Act 9/1990 (GG 43) amends section 1 and 10 of the Act (with regard to the administration of the Act and the qualifications for the appointment of judicial officers).

The Attorneys Amendment Act 17 of 1991 (GG 314) substituted section 21, with effect from 29 September 1989; this amending Act was repealed in its entirety by the Legal Practitioners Act 15 of 1995.

The Married Persons Equality Act 1 of 1996 (GG 1316) amends section 5 and deletes section 111(4).

Act 9/1997 (GG 1696), which was brought into force on 3 November 1997 by GN 220/1997 (GG 1723), increases the limits on the jurisdiction of magistrates’ courts, by altering sections 29, 46, 50, 65I, 74 and 92. In terms of these amendments, the basic limit for civil actions is N$25 000. For criminal actions, a magistrates’ court may impose a sentence of up to five years or a fine of up to N$20 000, and a regional magistrates’ court may impose a sentence of up to 20 years and a fine of up to N$100 000.

Act 1/1999 (GG 2058) amends the minimum qualifications for regional magistrates, gives regional courts jurisdiction for murder trials, and repeals the provisions relating

The Magistrates Act 3 of 2003 (GG 2996) (the relevant portion of which was brought into force on 30 June 2003 by GN 125/2003, GG 3001) amends sections 1 and 66, substitutes section 8 and repeals sections 9, 9bis, 10, 11 and 12.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations. However, section 22 of Act 17 of 1970 (which made this Act applicable to SWA) repealed section 3 of the South-West Africa Affairs Act, 1922 (Act No. 24 of 1922) “in so far as it relates to the attendance of witnesses in any civil action in any magistrate’s court in the territory of South-West Africa”, and the SWA Magistrates’ Courts Ordinance 29 of 1963. Section 22(3) included a savings clause: “Any regulation, rule, notice, approval, authority, return, certificate, document or appointment made, issued or given, and any other act done under any provision of any law repealed by this Act, shall be deemed to have been made, issued, given or done under the corresponding provision of the principal Act.” However, pre-independence regulations under these repealed laws which might have been thus saved have not been researched and are probably now obsolete.

Vexatious Proceedings Act 3 of 1956.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 5632) places restrictions on frivolous legal proceedings.

Applicability to SWA: Section 3 states “This Act shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa”, and section 1 defines “court” accordingly. The wording of section 3 did not make South African amendments automatically applicable to South West Africa. However, in any event, there were no amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Transfer proclamation: Although this Act makes no reference to any minister, by virtue of its subject matter it probably fell under the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation, AG 33 of 1979, dated 12 November 1979. Regardless of whether or not there was a transfer of administration, the wording of the Act did not make South African amendments automatically applicable to South West Africa – and, in any event, there were no amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Cases: Namibia Financial Institutions Supervisory Authority v Christian & Another 2011 (2) NR 537 (HC).

Summary: Section 1 of this Ordinance (OG 2152) makes it an offence to publish details of any person under 18 years old who is a party to civil proceedings. Section 2 of this Act (now obsolete) recognises the official title of “landdros”.

Amendments: Section 1(1) is amended by Ord. 13/1962 (OG 2409), to change the relevant age to 18. Section 2(2) is deleted by the Magistrate’s Courts Ordinance 29 of 1963 (OG 2499).
Supreme Court Act 15 of 1990.

Summary: This Act (GG 84) provides for the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of Namibia in accordance with Article 79 of the Namibian Constitution. It repeals the Supreme Court Act 59 of 1959, the Supreme Court of South West Africa Proclamation 222 of 1981 and sections 3, 4 and 5 of the Appeals Amendment Act 29 of 1985 (OG 5149).

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations, and there is no clause saving any regulations which may have been made under the repealed Act.

Rules: The Rules of the Supreme Court are contained in GN 249/2017 (GG 6425), which withdraws GN 221/2017 (GG 6392). GN 249/2017 provides that the new rules come into operation on 15 November 2017. (GN 221/2017 had repealed the previous rules contained in GN 56/1990 (GG 86), as amended by GN 80/2003 (GG 2949) and GN 119/2003 (GG 2994).

Rules relating to Presidential Election Challenges are contained in GN 118/2015 (GG 5761).

Black Range Mining (Pty) Ltd v Minister of Mines & Energy & Others NNO 2014 (2) NR 320 (SC) (conflating Namibian court rules with those of other jurisdictions)

Katjaimo v Katjaimo & Others 2015 (2) NR 340 (SC) (instructing counsel awarded to pay costs out of his own pocket because of “negligence and remissness” which cannot be attributed to the litigant; general caution about compliance with rules of court at paras 34-35:

Sufficient warning has been given by this court that the non-compliance with its rules is hampering the work of the court. The rules of this court, regrettably, are often more honoured in the breach than in the observance. That is intolerable. The excuse that a practitioner did not understand the rules can no longer be allowed to pass without greater scrutiny. The time is fast approaching when this court will shut the door to a litigant for the unreasonable non-observance of the rules by his or her legal practitioner. After all, such a litigant may not be without recourse as he or she would in appropriate instances be able to institute a damages claim against the errant legal practitioner for their negligence under the Acquilian action.... We hope that the cautionary observations made in this judgment will be taken seriously by all legal practitioners who practise in the Supreme Court. A legal practitioner has a duty to read the decided cases that emanate from the courts (both reported and unreported) and not simply grope around in the dark as seems to have become the norm for some legal practitioners, if judged by the explanations offered under oath in support of the condonation applications that come before the court.)

Balzer v Vries 2015 (2) NR 547 (SC) (condonation in respect of non-compliance with rules 8(3) and 5(5) refused; at para 33: “appellant has acted with defiance with regard to an order of the High Court and has frustrated the due process of law and thus undermined the rule of law upon which the Constitution is premised”)

High Court Act 16 of 1990.

Summary: This Act (GG 85) provides for the jurisdiction of the High Court of Namibia in accordance with Article 80 of the Namibian Constitution.

Note: Goseb & Others v Minister of Regional and Local Government and Housing & Others 2011 (1) NR 224 (HC) erroneously states in para 10 at 227C that the Appeals Law Amendment Act 10 of 2001 “substituted s 2 of the High Court Act 16 of 1990”. The provision quoted by the High Court is actually section 18(2), which was substituted by the amending Act in question.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations, and there is no clause saving any regulations which may have been made under the repealed Act.

Rules: Section 40(1) of this Act states:” Any appointment or rules made or tariff prescribed in respect of allowances to witnesses, or deemed to have been made or prescribed, and any security given or anything done in connection with or by virtue of any such appointment under the Supreme Court of South West Africa Proclamation, 1981, shall be deemed to have been made, prescribed or done under the corresponding provisions of this Act.” This refers to the Supreme Court of South West Africa Proclamation 222 of 1981 which was repealed by the Supreme Court Act 15 of 1990. However, pre-independence rules have not been researched.

COURTS-12
Rules of the High Court are contained in GN 4/2014 (GG 5392), effective from 16 April 2014. These rules are amended by the addition of rules on administrative breaks and recesses in GN 118/2014 (GG 5526), with effect from 1 January 2015. They are further amended by GN 227/2014 (GG 5608), which repeals Rule 78.

GN 182/1996 and GN 67/2011 were not repealed by GN 4/2014, although this appears to have been an oversight since they have no relevance after the repeal of the previous High Court rules which they amended.

Rules for High Court proceedings in terms of Chapters 5-6 of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act 29 of 2004 are issued in terms of that Act, in GN 79/2009 (GG 4254).

Notices: Practice Directions are issued in terms of the 2014 Rules of the High Court in GN 47/2014 (GG 5461), which repeals all previous High Court Practice Directions and their amendments. They are amended by GN 10/2017 (GG 6227), which is deemed to have come into operation on 1 January 2017.

Sittings of the court and court terms are addressed in GN 60/1990 (GG 90), GN 189/2000 (GG 2386) and GN 221/2002 (GG 2879) – but these were all repealed by GN 4/2014 (although GN 4/2014 erroneously refers to GN 60/1999 instead of GN 60/1990).

A local division of the High Court, to be known as the Northern Local Division, is established by Proc. 5/2012 (GG 4891). The seat and area of jurisdiction of this division are set forth in GN 70/2012 (GG 4391), which makes reference to the Magisterial District Division: Oshakati in GN 22/1994 (GG 799).

developments and should avoid clinging on to the repealed rules, notwithstanding how used they were to them... Especial care and attention should therefore be taken to ensure the proper citation of the rules in terms of which relief is sought in the papers. I shall, for present purposes, however, overlook the citation of the wrong rule and pay regard to the correct rule. The court may not always adopt this position as the new rules would be expected to have taken root in the minds of all practitioners in this jurisdiction by now.”)

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Notices: The Republic of South Africa is declared to be a designated country in terms of section 2(1) of the Act by GN 113/1995 (GG 1095).

Summary: This Act (GG 978) provides that civil judgements granted in designated countries may be enforced in magistrates’ courts in Namibia. It repeals the Reciprocal Enforcement of Civil Judgements Act 9 of 1966.

Note that there are two versions of GG 2327. The correct one states at the top: “This Gazette replaces previous Gazette No. 2327.”

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations, and there is no clause saving any regulations which may have been made under the repealed Act.

Notices: The Republic of South Africa is declared to be a designated country in terms of section 2(a) of the Act by GN 112/1995 (GG 1095).

Summary: This Act (GG 3044) provides for the recognition and establishment of community courts and the application of customary law by these courts. It sets the jurisdiction and procedure of community courts and provides an appeal procedure. This Act repeals Proclamation No. R.348 of 1967, Proclamation No. R.320 of 1970, Proclamation No. 160 of 1975, Ordinance No. 2 of 1986, and Ordinance No. 3 of 1986. It was brought into force on 17 November 2003 by GN 236/2003 (GG 3095).

Regulations: Regulations are contained in GN 237/2003 (GG 3095), as amended by GN 280/2018 (GG 6753).

Ongandjera-GN 100/2009 (GG 4262), replaced by GN 55/2010 (GG 4450), which is amended by GN 148/2013 (GG 5221), which is amended by
GN 26/2014 (GG 5425).

Oukwanyama-GN 101/2009 (GG 4262), replaced by GN 57/2010 (GG 4450), which is amended by GN 258/2012 (GG 5061), which is amended by
GN 237/2014 (GG 5613).

GN 237/2014 (GG 5613) contains an amendment in respect of assessors-designate and judges of a community court, but it is not clear what is being amended. The heading of GN 237/2014 states that it amends “Government Notice No. 101 of 20 May 2009 relating to the recognition of the Oukwayama [sic] Customary Court”. However, GN 101/2009 was withdrawn by GN 57/2010 (GG 4450).

The text of GN 237/2014 states that it amends “Government Notice.
95 of 20 May 2009 as set out in the Schedule”; GN 95/2009 pertains to the Mafwe Community Court. The Schedule of GN 237/2014 states that it amends “Government Notice No. 285 of 15 October 2012”; however, this appears to be a typographical error and was probably meant to refer to GN 258/2012, issued on 15 October 2012, which relates to the Oukwanyama Community Court. It would appear that the amendment in GN 237/2014 was intended to apply to the Oukwanyama Community Court.

Uukwambi-GN 102/2009 (GG 4262), replaced by GN 59/2010 (GG 4450)
Mayeyi-GN 103/2009 (GG 4262), as amended by GN 262/2012 (GG 5061)
Khobesen-GN 104/2009 (GG 4262)

Linyanti-GN 105/2009 (GG 4262), as amended by GN 261/2012 (GG 5061)
and by GN 255/2018 (GG 6724)

Note that the list of contents for GG 6724 and the heading of GN
255/2018 both erroneously state that GN 255/2018 amends GN
56/2010, but the text of GN 255/2018 correctly states that it amends
GN 105/2009.

Fransfontein-GN 106/2009 (GG 4262), as amended by GN 140/2018 (GG

Shambyu-GN 108/2009 (GG 4262), as amended by GN 97/2013 (GG 5175)
and GN 207/2013 (GG 5256)

The title and the Schedule of GN 97/2013 state that it amends GN 108/2009 relating to the Shambyu Customary Court, but the introductory text indicates that it amends GN 60/2009. The cited publication date of 20 May 2009 matches GN 108/2009. GN 60/2009 is a moratorium on import of large predators and alien species of wild animals issued under the Nature Conservation Ordinance, 1975.)

Ombalantu-GN 109/2009 (GG 4262), replaced by GN 54/2010 (GG 4450), which is amended by GN 101/2011 (GG 4750)

Note that the list of contents for GG 4750 erroneously states that GN 101/2011 amends GN 54/2011, but the text of GN 101/2011 correctly states that it amends GN 54/2010.

Uukwaluudhi-GN 110/2009 (GG 4262), as amended by GN 290/2012 (GG 5094) and GN 147/2013 (GG 5221), which is amended by GN 101/2011 (GG 4750), and by GN 312/2017 (GG 6482).

Note that the list of contents for GG 4750 erroneously states that GN 101/2011 amends GN 54/2011, but the text of GN 101/2011 correctly states that it amends GN 54/2010.

Uukwaluudhi-GN 110/2009 (GG 4262), replaced by GN 54/2010 (GG 4450), and by GN 101/2011 (GG 4750), and by GN 312/2017 (GG 6482).

Note that the list of contents for GG 4750 erroneously states that it is amending GN 96/2011. This was clearly intended to refer to GN 111/2009.

Otjikaoko-GN 111/2009 (GG 4262), as amended by GN 96/2011 (GG 4747), GN 234/2015 (GG 5853) (which is amended by GN 86/2018 (GG 6595)), and by GN 312/2017 (GG 6482).

Otjikaoko-GN 111/2009 (GG 4262), as amended by GN 234/2015 (GG 5853) (which is amended by GN 86/2018 (GG 6595)), and by GN 312/2017 (GG 6482).

Ombadja-GN 53/2010 (GG 4450), as amended by GN 259/2012 (GG 5061), which is amended by GN 91/2017 (GG 6285), and by GN 254/2018 (GG 6724)

Note that GN 254/2018 indicates that GN 53/2010 was previously amended by GN 259/2012 and by GN 91/2017, but GN 91/2017 actually amended the amending notice, GN 259/2012.

Uukolokkadhi-GN 58/2010 (GG 4450), as amended by GN 113/2012 (GG 4941) (which states that it is amending GN 59/2010, but must have intended to refer to GN 58/2012 which concerns the Uukolokkadhi Community Court), which is amended by GN 229/2015 (GG 5848)

Finance and Audit Ordinance 1 of 1926, section 24D.

Summary: Only section 24D of this Ordinance (OG 208) remains in force. This section provides that the government may pay a reward to informers whose information assists in law enforcement relating to illegal dealing in precious stones or metals. The section in question was inserted by Ord. 42 of 1952, where it was originally numbered 24bis. It was amended and renumbered as 24D by Ord. 28/1969 (OG 3011).

The Ordinance was extended to the Rehoboth Gebiet by Proc. 12/1930 (OG 365).

Amendments: The State Finance Act 1 of 1982 (OG 4610) (which was repealed by the State Finance Act 31 of 1991 (GG 333)) repeals all of the Ordinance except sections 24D and 26A. The Tender Board of Namibia Act 16 of 1996 (GG 1380) repeals section 26A, leaving only section 24D in force.

Section 24D was inserted by Ord. 42/1952 (OG 1732), where it was originally numbered 24bis. It was amended and renumbered as 24D by Ord. 28/1969 (OG 3011).

Price Control Admissions of Guilt Proclamation 40 of 1944.

Criminal Law Amendment Act 8 of 1953, as amended in South Africa to November 1979.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 5018; also published in OG 1750) provides special increased penalties for offences committed in the course of protests or campaigns against any law of the Republic.

Applicability to SWA: This Act was not made specifically applicable to South West Africa. However, section 8 indicates that the Act, or at least that section of it, applied to South West Africa by providing special instructions for the removal of “undesirable inhabitants” from the Territory of South West Africa. However, the status of the remainder of the Act in SWA is uncertain.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended. There were no amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer. The Act was repealed in South Africa by section 73 of the Internal Security Act 74 of 1982, which was not applicable to South West Africa.

Amendments: The Second Law Amendment (Abolition of Discriminatory or Restrictive Laws for the Purposes of Free and Fair Election) Proclamation (AG 25/1989) (OG 5758) repeals sections 8 and 9 of this Act.

Cases: Ex Parte Attorney-General, Namibia: In Re Corporal Punishment by Organs of State, 1991 NR 178 (SC) (references to whipping in sections 1 and 2 unconstitutional).

Summary: Most of this Act (SA GG 5651) was repealed in respect of South West Africa. The remaining sections address power to regulate the transportation of explosives and the criminal offences of incitement to public violence, conspiracy, attempted crimes, and inducement to commit crimes.

Applicability to SWA: Section 19A, inserted by Act 79 of 1976, with effect from 16 June 1976, states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zetfel.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended.

After the date of transfer, much of the Act was repealed by the Intimidation Act 72 of 1982, which was made applicable to SWA by virtue of the Security Matters Proclamation, AG 29 of 1985 (OG 5059). Other portions of the Act were repealed in South Africa by the Internal Security Act 74 of 1982 (RSA GG 8232), which was not applicable to SWA. Therefore the Act applied to South West Africa as it stood after Act 72 of 1982, but before Act 74 of 1982.

In support of this interpretation, see Mweuhanga v Administrator-General of South West Africa & Others 1990 (2) SA 776 (A):

On appeal before us Mr. Gauntlett, for the appellant, accepted the Court’s finding that section 29 of the General Law Amendment Act [101 of 1969] applied in South West Africa, but that the Internal Security Act [74 of 1982] did not. I agree with this. Section 29(3) of the General Law Amendment Act specifically provides that the provisions of section 29 and any amendment thereof apply also in the territory of South West Africa. No corresponding provision is found in the Internal Security Act. And it is noteworthy that sub-sections 66(1) and (2) of the Internal Security Act correspond almost word for word with sub-sections 29(1) and (2) of the General Law Amendment Act (as substituted by section 25 of the General Law Amendment Act, no. 102 of 1972) save that the latter contain a reference to South West Africa whereas the former do not. The meaning and effect of this reference will be considered later, but its absence from section 66 of the Internal Security Act is a further indication that the latter act was not intended to apply in South West Africa.

Section 3(1)(f) of the transfer proclamation excluded the term “Republic” from the provisions of section 3(1)(c) of the General Proclamation except where it occurs for the second and third times in section 5 of the Act. Thus, in the remainder of the Act, “Republic” continued to refer only to South Africa even after the transfer.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA—

- Unlawful Organisations Act 34 of 1960 (SA GG 6413)
- General Law Amendment Act 39 of 1961 (SA GG 6692)
- General Law Amendment Act 76 of 1962 (RSA GG 273)

However, the first three of these four amending Acts applied only to sections of the Act that have since been repealed. The Act was further amended and made applicable to SWA by the Internal Security Amendment Act 79 of 1976 (RSA GG 5159).

The Riotous Assemblies Amendment Proclamation (AG 10/1977) (OG 3665) repeals sections 4 and 19 and amends sections 1, 2, 3 and 7 (all now repealed).

After the date of transfer, the Act was amended by the Intimidation Act 72 of 1982, which was made applicable to SWA by virtue of the Security Matters Proclamation, AG 29 of 1985 (OG 5059) and which repealed sections 10-15.

The First Law Amendment (Abolition of Discriminatory or Restrictive Laws for the Purposes of Free and Fair Election) Proclamation (AG 14/1989) (OG 5726) repeals sections 2, 6 and 7(1)(a), amends section 4 (which had already been repealed by AG 10/1977) (OG 3665), and amends sections 5 and 7(1)(b) (both now repealed).

The Public Gatherings Proclamation (AG 23/1989) (OG 5756) repeals sections 1, 3, 5, 7, 8 and 9.

Thus, the only remaining sections of the Act are sections 16, 17, 18, 19A, 20 and 21.

Cases: S v Campbell & Others 1990 NR 310 (HC); Awaseb, Geinub, Lange v S, High Court, Case No. CA 46/2003 (unreported).

General Law Amendment Ordinance 13 of 1962, section 9.

Summary: Section 9 of this Ordinance (OG 2409) sets forth the criminal offences of attempt, conspiracy and inducing another to commit an offence.

Criminal Procedure Ordinance 34 of 1963, sections 300(3) and 370.

Summary: Only sections 300(3) and 370 of this Ordinance (OG 2504) are still in force. Section 300(3) concerns the criminal offence of perjury. Section 370 deals with peace bonds. (These sections are the South West African counterparts of sections 319(3) and 384 of the Criminal Procedure Act 56 of 1955 which applied to South Africa.) The other sections of the Ordinance have been repealed by the Criminal Procedure Act 51 of 1977.

Cases: S v Somses 1999 NR 296 (HC) (section 300(3)); S. v Gariseb 2002 NR 112 (HC) (section 300(3)).

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 2316) sets forth penalties for being in disguise in suspicious circumstances.

Applicability to SWA: Section 3 states “This Act and any amendment thereof which may be made from time to time, shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including that part of the said territory known as the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel and defined in the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel Administration Proclamation, 1939 (Proclamation No. 147 of 1939 of the Republic).”

Transfer of administration to SWA: It is not clear what transfer proclamation, if any, applied to this Act. In any event, there were no amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 5532) governs procedure in criminal proceedings. It is repealed by the Criminal Procedure Act 25 of 2004, which has not yet been brought into force – and there is speculation that the 2004 Act may be replaced by a new version rather than being brought into force. It was brought into force in both South Africa and South West Africa on 22 July 1977 by RSA Proc. No. R.148 of 1977 (RSA GG 5654). It was applied to Rehoboth insofar as it relates to matters which fell under the Legislative Authority of Rehoboth by the Criminal Procedure Act 3 of 1982 (Rehoboth) (Official Gazette 70 of Rehoboth, dated 11 March 1983).

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Republic” to include “the territory”, which is defined as “the territory of South West Africa”. “State”, in relation to a department of State, is defined to include “the Administration of the territory”. Section 343 states “This Act shall apply also in the territory, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

The wording of section 343 did not make amendments to the Act in South Africa automatically applicable to SWA. None of the amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence were made expressly applicable to SWA, but they were probably applicable by virtue of the definition of “Republic” in section 1 of the Act where they were made prior to the date of transfer.

This would mean that the South African Criminal Procedure Matters Amendment Act 79 of 1978 (which was published and came into force on 2 June 1978 and amends section 185), and Criminal Procedure Amendment Act 56 of 1979 (which was published and came into force on 1 June 1979 and amends sections 50, 60, 75, 119, 121, 123, 124, 144, 170, 212, 217, 296, 300, 307 and Schedule 3, and inserts section 115A, Chapter 19A and section 219A) were applicable to SWA. Note that the South West African Criminal Procedure Matters Act 31 of 1985 refers to previous amendments by... the Criminal Procedure Amendment Act 56 of 1979, lending further support to this conclusion.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended. Both of the amending Acts cited above came into force before this date.

Section 3(1)(t) of the transfer proclamation (as amended) excluded the following provisions of the principal Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation:

sections 77, 78 and 79 (except 79(11)): These provisions concern the capacity of the accused to understand proceedings, i.e. mental illness and criminal responsibility. (Section 79(11) concerns the tariff used to compensate a court psychiatrist. It is not excluded from the operation of section 3(1), meaning that here “Minister” was interpreted to mean Administrator-General.)

section 106(1)(e): Under this provision, an accused may plead that he has received a free pardon from the State President under section 327(b), which is similarly excluded from the operation of section 3(1).

section 111: This section allows the Minister to remove trials to the jurisdiction of another attorney-general.

section 279(1)(b), (2) and (3): These provisions deal with the commutation of death sentences by the State President.

section 323: This section concerns the State President’s power to extend mercy to any person.

section 325: This section concerns the State President’s power to issue a pardon or substitute a verdict of the court.

section 327: This section concerns the State President’s power to issue a pardon or substitute a verdict of the court.

section 333: Under this provision, the Minister of Justice may refer questions to the Appellate Division on a question of law.

These powers were not transferred to the Administrator-General.

Section 3(1)(t) of the transfer proclamation also exempted the following sections from the operation of section 3(1)(c) of the General Proclamation (concerning the interpretation of the term “Republic”):

section 3: This section establishes the Attorney-General as the prosecuting authority for the State.

section 212(4)(a): This section deals with proof of certain facts by affidavit or certificate.

section 229: This section deals with evidence of times of sunrise and sunset. (“Republic” is excluded from the operation of section 3(1)(c) only the first time it occurs here.)

section 328: This section concerns the enforceability of a warrants, subpoenas, summons, etc. executed within the Republic.

Thus, “Republic” in the indicated places in these provisions retained the meaning it was given in the definition section of the Act (South Africa and SWA).

Section 3(1)(t) of the transfer proclamation also excluded from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation all references to the “State,” in relation to the authority to institute and conduct a prosecution and to make seizures.
Section 1(2) of AG Proc. 24 of 1983 (OG 4854), which amends the transfer proclamation, states: “In the application of the provisions of the Executive Powers Transfer (General Provisions) Proclamation, 1977 (Proclamation AG. 7 of 1977) (hereinafter referred to as the General Proclamation), in respect of section 3 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act 51 of 1977), this proclamation shall be deemed to be a transfer proclamation as defined in section 1 of the General Proclamation, and the reference in section 5 of the General Proclamation to a law referred to in section 2 of that Proclamation, shall be construed as a reference to section 3 of the said Criminal Procedure Act, 1977.”

Section 2 of AG Proc. 24 of 1983 (OG 4854) states: “In the application of the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act 51 of 1977), section 3 thereof shall be deemed to be amended by the substitution for the words “public service”, wherever they occur, of the expression “government service mentioned in section 2 of the Government Service Act, 1980 (Act 2 of 1980).”

None of the amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer were made expressly applicable to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Criminal Procedure Matters Amendment Act 79 of 1978 (RSA GG 6041)
- Criminal Procedure Amendment Act 56 of 1979 (RSA GG 6476)

The Native Laws Amendment Proclamation, AG 3 of 1979 (OG 3898), deemed to have come into force in relevant part on 1 August 1978, amends certain terminology.

The Criminal Procedure Amendment Act 15 of 1981 (OG 4566), which is brought into force by AG 31/1981 (OG 4577), amends sections 114 and 116.

The Appeals Amendment Act 29 of 1985 (OG 5149), which is brought into force by AG 19/1986 (OG 5182), amends sections 315-319 and 323.

The Criminal Procedure Matters Act 31 of 1985 (OG 5151), amends the Act substantially (affecting sections 24, 37, 42, 55, 56, 57, 60, 68A, 112, 119, 121, 145, 146, 169, 170, 188, 262, 296, 297, 300, 302, 307, Schedule 2 (Part II)).

The Criminal Procedure Amendment Act 5 of 1991 (GG 215) amends several provisions relating to bail (sections 59, 60, 61, 68, 72, 307 and Schedule 2).

The Criminal Procedure Amendment Act 26 of 1993 (GG 755) amends the Act to allow appeals by either party to the High Court and the Supreme Court (sections 310, 311, 316, 316A, 320, 321, 322).

The Combating of Rape Act 8 of 2000 (GG 2326), which was brought into force on 15 June 2000 (GN 140/2000, GG 2348), amends sections 1, 62, 153, 154 and 227 of the Act, and inserts sections 60A, 211A and 227A.

Note that there are two versions of GG 2327. The correct one states at the top: “This Gazette replaces previous Gazette No. 2327.”

The Appeal Laws Amendment Act 10 of 2001 (GG 2585) substitutes section 315 and amends section 316.

The Combating of Domestic Violence Act 4 of 2003 (GG 3002), which was brought into force on 17 November 2003 (GN 234/2003, GG 3094), amends sections 60A, 62 and 153.

The Maintenance Act 9 of 2003 (GG 3043), which was brought into force on 17 November 2003 by GN 232/2003 (GG 3093), amends section 195.

The Criminal Procedure Amendment Act 24 of 2003 (GG 3123) inserts sections 158A and 216A and amends sections 164, 166 and 212 (dealing with vulnerable witnesses and related matters).

The Criminal Procedure Amendment Act 13 of 2010 (GG 4554) amends sections 55-57, 72, 74 112, 170 and Schedule 2, substitutes section 185 and 338, and inserts section 57A.

The Act is amended with respect to the use of various terms and cross-references by the Correctional Service Act 9 of 2012 (GG 5008), which was brought into force on 1 January 2014 by GN 330/2013 (GG 5365).

Note: S v Malumo & Others 2010 (1) NR 35 (HC) states the following at para 2 in respect of section 217(1)(a): “[NB: Para (a) has been substituted by s 11 of the Criminal Procedure Amendment Act 86 of 1996, a provision which will be put into operation by proclamation.]” However, there was no such amending Act in Namibia. It appears that the quoted provision erroneously refers to the South African version of the Criminal Procedure Act, as there is a Criminal Procedure Amendment Act 86 of 1996 in South Africa which substitutes section 217(1)(a) in the South African Criminal Procedure Act 51 of 1977.

The Child Care and Protection Act 3 of 2015 (GG 5744), which is not yet in force, amends section 1 (to add a definition of “probation officer”), repeals sections 292, 293 and 294 and removes the words “or a whipping” from section 290(2).

The Witness Protection Act 11 of 2017 (GG 6451), which is not yet in force, amends section 158A and repeals section 185.

Note that Article 141(2) of the Namibian Constitution provides: “Any reference to the Attorney-General in legislation in force immediately prior to the date of Independence shall be deemed to be a reference to the Prosecutor-General, who shall exercise his or her functions in accordance with this Constitution.”

Road inspectors referred to in section 11 of the Road Transportation Act 74 of 1977 (now replaced by the Road Traffic and Transport Act 22 of 1999 except insofar as it relates to passenger transport) are declared to be peace officers in terms of certain offences relating to road transportation in GN 219/1996 (GG 1395) and in GN 92/2001 (GG 2530).

Traffic officers appointed under section 11(1)(d) of the Road Traffic and Transport Act 22 of 1999 are declared to be peace officers in respect of certain offences in GN 206/2008 (GG 4113), as amended by GN 243/2014 (GG 5624).
Fisheries inspectors designated in terms of section 4 of the Marine Resources Act 27 of 2000 and inspectors designated under section 23 of the Inland Fisheries Resources Act 1 of 2003 are declared to be peace officers in respect of certain offences in GN 38/2014 (GG 5438).

Note that S v Coetzee 2011 (1) NR 359 (HC) emphasises that a record of criminal proceedings in the magistrates’ court must be prepared in accordance with Chap XIII of the Codified Instructions: Clerk of the Criminal Court” issued by the Permanent Secretary for Justice (Permanent Secretary’s Administrative Circular dated 12 May 2008 re: ‘Amendment of Codified Jurisdictions Justice Code: Clerk of Criminal Court’, updated 19 March 2008).

Application of law: The Police Amendment Proclamation (AG 21/1983) affects the application of section 20.

The Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended by AG 24/1983, affects the application of section 3.

S v LK 2016 (1) NR 90 (SC) (sentencing for rape of 7-year-old by 20-year-old by insertion of finger in vagina; substantial and compelling circumstances need not be exceptional, but sentence imposed must be weighed against benchmark of original minimum sentence and against fact that legislature particularly extended strong protection to persons vulnerable because of their youth; court upholds departure from minimum sentence of 15 years but substitutes heavier sentence (9 years, 4 years suspended) than that imposed by trial court (7 years, 4 years suspended))
S v JB 2016 (1) NR 114 (SC) (sentencing for rape of daughter (age not stated) by her father; time spend in custody awaiting trial cannot constitute

Summary: This Act (GG 2327) facilitates the provision of evidence and the execution of sentences in criminal cases, and the confiscation and transfer of the proceeds of crime, between Namibia and certain designated foreign states. It was brought into force on 15 September 2001 by GN 185/2001 (GG 2614). Note that there are two versions of GG 2327. The correct one states at the top: “This Gazette replaces previous Gazette No. 2327.”

Amendments: This Act is substantially amended by the Prevention of Organized Crime Act 29 of 2004 (GG 3363), which was brought into force on 5 May 2009 (GN 77/2009, GG 4254). Schedule 2 is amended by the Criminal Procedure Act 25 of 2004, which is not yet in force. Schedule 1 is amended by the addition of the Federal Republic of Germany, by GN 107/2005 (GG 3491), and by the addition of several other countries by GN 167/2006 (GG 3714).

Regulations: Regulations for International Co-operation in Criminal Matters are contained in GN 186/2001 (GG 2614).

Anti-Corruption Act 8 of 2003.

Summary: This Act (GG 3037) establishes an Anti-Corruption Commission and provides for the prevention and punishment of corruption. It repeals the Prevention of Corruption Ordinance 2 of 1928 and amends Schedule 3 of the Public Service Act 13 of 1995. It was brought into force on 15 April 2005 by GN 37/2005 (GG 3411).

Amendments: The Act is amended by Act 10/2016 (GG 6156), which substitutes sections 11 and 12 and substitutes “Director-General” for “Director” and “Deputy Director-General” for “Deputy Director” throughout. (This necessitates a corresponding amendment to Schedule 3 of the Public Service Act 13 of 1995. See section 54(2) of this Act, as amended.)

Notices: Investigating officers of the Anti-Corruption Commission, already appointed and to be appointed, are appointed as justices of the peace for all magisterial districts in terms of the Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Oaths Act 16 of 1963 by GN 33/2012 (GG 4883).

(HC) (striking down the definition of “corruptly” in section 32 as being unconstitutionally vague, leaving the term as used in other sections of the Act to be interpreted by the courts; but finding the definition of “gratification” in section 32 to be wide but not unduly vague).

Simataa v Magistrate of Windhoek & Others 2012 (2) NR 658 (HC) (sections 18, 22, 43)

S v Goabab & Another 2013 (3) 603 (SC) (following on striking down of definition of “corruptly” in section 32 on Constitutional grounds, encourages judicial development and finds that term “corruption” at its lowest threshold in the context of the public service includes “abuse of a public office or position (including the powers and resources associated with it) for personal gain” and that synonyms of “corruptly” include “immorally, wickedly, dissolutely and dishonestly”)

Hailulu v Director of the Anti-Corruption Commission & Others 2014 (1) NR 62 (HC) (sections 18, 43(1) and 28); confirmed on appeal in Hailulu v Director, Anti-Corruption Commission & Others 2016 (1) NR 1110 (SC) (section 18 and relationship between Commission and Prosecutor-General).

at para 65: “The fact that appellant has not succeeded in this appeal should not obscure the fact that it is a cause for grave concern that the Commission was found by the High Court to have advanced the cause of the Union and its members in effecting the arrest of appellant. Such conduct is deplorable and appellant is entitled to feel aggrieved by it. The Commission is established as an independent and impartial institution to prevent and punish corruption. It is an institution of national importance pursuing a goal that is central to the wellbeing of Namibia’s democracy. Its conduct must be beyond reproach. The achievement of the Commission’s goal will be imperilled if its reputation is tarnished as it has been in this case by its unlawful conduct. Appellant may of course choose to pursue civil remedies against the Commission. Such remedies, however, even if successful, will not repair the Commission’s reputation. Its reputation will only be repaired if the Commission by its conduct and the conduct of its officials demonstrates unwaveringly that it must and will always act in a manner that is independent, impartial and lawful.”

CULTURE AND CULTURAL INSTITUTIONS

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 2344) provides for the payment of government subsidies to cultural institutions.

Applicability to SWA: Section 18 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including that part of the said territory known as the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel and referred to in section 38(5) of the South West Africa Constitution Act, 1968 (Act No. 39 of 1968).”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (National Education) Transfer Proclamation (AG 1/1978), dated 11 January 1978. There were two amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Cultural and Education Laws Amendment Act 11 of 1981 (RSA GG 4524) and the Education and Culture Laws Amendment Act 28 of 1983 (RSA GG 8628) – neither of which was made expressly applicable to SWA.

Section 3(2)(d) of the transfer proclamation excluded section 16 of the Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendment was applicable to SWA –
- Cultural Institutions Amendment Act 93 of 1974 (RSA GG 4524).

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 15 of the Act, and section 17 includes a savings clause that applies to regulations issued under laws repealed by this Act. However, pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Cultural Promotion Ordinance 9 of 1980.

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 4159) provides for the promotion of culture in relation to the “white population group”.

Amendments: This Ordinance was amended by the Libraries Ordinance 4 of 1981 (Official Gazette 2 of the Representative Authority of the Whites), which has since been repealed.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by the Ordinance, but have not been researched given that this Ordinance is clearly obsolete in independent Namibia.

Notices: Permanent committees are established in GN 28/1981 (OG 4456).

Summary: This Act (GG 2376) establishes the National Art Gallery of Namibia and provides for its objects. It was brought into force on 10 September 2001 by GN 177/2001 (GG 2603).

Amendments: The State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 (GG 3698), which was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733) and which has since been re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006, amends section 1, substitutes section 5 and deletes section 7.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 23 of the Act, but none have yet been promulgated.

Notices: GN 178/2001 (GG 2603) sets 10 September 2001 as the date on which the National Art Gallery of Namibia must assume responsibility over the Government collection.

* National Arts Fund of Namibia Act 1 of 2005.

Summary: This Act (GG 3424) establishes the National Arts Fund and a Council to control and manage the Fund. It is not yet in force.

CURRENCY

Silver Coin (Control of Importation) Proclamation 26 of 1932.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 489) controls the importation of silver coins.

Amendments: The Proclamation is amended by Proc. 33/1932 (OG 493).

Payment of Bank Notes Proclamation 3 of 1933.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 498) provides that the holder of a bank note shall not be entitled to be paid in gold. It is probably obsolete since it applies to bank notes issued under the Banks Proclamation, 1930 (Proclamation No. 29 of 1930), which is no longer in force.

Currency and Exchanges Act 9 of 1933, section 9, in part, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 2098) regulates legal tender, currency, exchange and banking. The only section applicable to Namibia is section 9 which authorises the making of regulations on these matters.

Applicability to SWA: Section 9 of the Act was made applicable to SWA by the addition of subsection 9(6) by Act 36 of 1950 (SA GG 4413), with effect from 23 June 1950, which states that “the provisions of this section shall apply also to the Territory of South-West Africa”. The wording of this provision did not seem to make South African amendments to section 9 automatically applicable to SWA after section 9 was applied to SWA in 1950.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of the Act does not appear to have been transferred to South West Africa. No Minister is mentioned in the Act. In any event, since the wording of section 9(6) does not make amendments to the Act automatically applicable to South West Africa, the issue of transfer would not affect the content of the Act.

Amendments: Prior to and contemporaneous with section 9 being applied to SWA, it was amended in South Africa by the following –

- Finance Act 27 of 1940 (SA GG 2762)
- Finance Act 43 of 1941 (SA GG 2911)
- Finance Act 36 of 1950 (SA GG 4413).

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched. However, the following pre-independence regulations remain in force and have been amended since independence.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 1060) sets forth various offences relating to counterfeiting.

Applicability to SWA: Section 11 states “Sections one to four, inclusive, and section twelve, and any amendment thereof, shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including that portion thereof known as the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel and referred to in section three of the South West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951), and in relation to all persons in that portion of the said territory known as the ‘Rehoboth Gebiet’ which is defined in the First Schedule to Proclamation No. 28 of 1923 of the Administrator of that territory.” (Those sections which do not apply to SWA are all amendments to other acts.)

Transfer of administration to SWA: It is not clear what transfer proclamation, if any, applied to this Act. However, the sections applicable to South West Africa were not amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Regulations: The portions of this Act in force in Namibia make no provision for regulations.

Application of law: The application of this law is affected by the Financial Intelligence Act 13 of 2012 (GG 5096).

Relevant international law: South Africa became a party to the International Convention for the Suppression of Counterfeiting Currency on 28 August 1967, after the termination of its mandate over South West Africa in 1966. South Africa was not a predecessor state to Namibia, but an illegal occupying power as from that date, thus making it impossible for it to bind Namibia. The UN Institute for Namibia made a few exceptions to this approach for “general conventions of a humanitarian character”, on the basis of the 1971 advisory opinion of the International Court of Justice 1971 – but this Convention was not amongst them. There is, in any case, no indication that South Africa made any attempt to expressly extend the treaty to South West Africa (ie, no declaration and no note under “territorial application”). Accordingly, Namibia does not appear to be a party to the International Convention for the Suppression of Counterfeiting Currency.

SUMMARY: This Act (GG 1900) repeals the Customs and Excise Act 91 of 1964 (RSA GG 866), which replaced the Customs Act 55 of 1955 and the Excise Act 62 of 1956. This Act was brought into force on 1 August 1998 by GN 186/1998 (GG 1918).

Amendments: The Act is substantially amended by Act 17/2016 (GG 6203), which was brought into force on 31 March 2017 by GN 74/2017 (GG 6277).

GN 213/2013 (GG 5264) temporarily withdraws a levy imposed by GN 61/2004 (GG 3181), and GN 198/2014 (GG 5590) re-instates it.

Schedule 1 was also amended by GN 14/2002 (GG 2688). However, this Government Notice was to be brought into force by notice in the Gazette and no such notice has been located.

Schedule 1 was also amended by GN 61/2007 (GG 3817), which relates to the implementation of the Customs Union Agreement 2002, but GN 61/2007 was withdrawn by GN 97/2008 (GG 4038).

GN 307/2013 cites GN 147/2007 as a previous amendment, but this should be GN 146/2007.

Schedule 5 is amended by GN 93/2000 (GG 2305).

Regulations: Regulations made under the Customs Act 55 of 1955 survived in terms of section 121(2) of the Customs and Excise Act 91 of 1964. Regulations under the Customs and Excise Act 91 of 1964 remain in force in terms of section 131(2) of the present Act. However, pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Regulations concerning Export Processing Zones are contained in GN 87/1996 (GG 1298).

Rules: Rules concerning the visa arrangement between Namibia and the USA for exports of textiles and clothing from Namibia to the USA are contained in GN 225/2001 (GG 2642), which was subsequently replaced by GN 231/2001 (GG 2653). GN 37/2004 (GG 3158) amends GN 231/2001, and is deemed to come into effect on 1 August 2003.

Notices: Notification of taxation proposals for additional duties in respect of the importation of certain pasta products is contained in GN 70/2008 (GG 4022). Notification of taxation proposals for additional duties in respect of the importation of certain categories of milk is contained in GN 71/2008 (GG 4022). Notification of taxation proposals for additional duties in respect of a range of products is contained in GN 165/2008 (GG 4075).

Notification of taxation proposals for additional duties in respect of the importation of Portland cement is contained in GN 208/2012 (GG 2015), but this notice appears to be invalid.

A previous notification of taxation proposals for additional duties in respect of the importation of Portland cement was issued by the Minister, but this notice was declared invalid by Jack’s Trading CC v Minister of Finance & Another 2013 (2) NR 480 (HC) on the grounds that it was not properly issued in accordance with section 65 of the Act, because it was not promulgated before being tabled in the National Assembly.

In an interlocutory application by Jack’s Trading CC to give effect to the Court order issued in this case while an appeal against that judgment by the Ministry of Finance was pending, an intervening party (Ohorongo Cement) sought rescission of the judgment. This application for rescission was considered in Jack’s Trading CC v Minister of Finance & Another (Ohorongo Cement (Pty) Ltd Intervening) 2013 (2) NR 491 (HC), where the Court discussed additional factual information about the Notice submitted to the Court by the Minister of Finance.

According to the second case (2013 (2) NR 491 (HC)), the Minister signed a notice dated 27 July 2012 on the proposed cement duties and forwarded it to the Directorate Legal Drafting for promulgation in the Government Gazette. The legal drafters advised the Minister that the effective date in the notice should have been 18 April 2012, which was the date when the taxation proposal was tabled in the National Assembly. The Notice was amended by the Directorate Legal Drafting and promulgated in the Government Gazette on 15 August 2012, with a commencement date of 18 April 2012.

The second notice was dated 18 July 2012, which the Court found odd since the Minister stated in an affidavit that the advice on the need to amend the first notice came only after this notice was signed on 27 July 2012 and delivered to the legal drafters for promulgation.

The notice which was attacked in the case Jack’s Trading CC v Minister of Finance & Another 2013 (2) NR 480 (HC) was the first one, which was signed by the Minister but never promulgated. However, even though judgment was reserved in this case on 15 August 2012 and delivered on 31 August 2012, the Court was never informed of the second notice, which was published in the Gazette on 15 August 2012. Nevertheless, the application for rescission was denied on the grounds that there was no error in the court’s judgment on the basis of the facts placed before it at the time (Jack’s Trading CC v Minister of Finance & Another (Ohorongo Cement (Pty) Ltd Intervening) 2013 (2) NR 491 (HC)).

It should be noted that the reasoning applied by the Court to the first notice would be equally applicable to the second notice which was actually promulgated, since it was also promulgated after being tabled in the National Assembly instead of prior to such tabling as section 65 of the Act requires; “the wording of s 65 construed as a whole requires that the promulgation of the notice is to precede the tabling of the proposal” (2013 (2) NR 480 (HC) at para 28).
It should also be noted that the second case (2013 (2) NR 491 (HC) at para 12) states that the second notice appeared in the Government Gazette of 15 August 2012 as Government Notice 298 of 2012. Government Notice 298 of 2012 in fact appeared on 14 December 2012 and was the promulgation of the Prevention and Combating of Terrorist Activities Act 12 of 2012. However, the relevant notice on Portland cement appears as Government Notice 208 of 2012 in Government Gazette 5015 dated 15 August 2012.

An environmental duty on certain goods and on carbon dioxide (CO²) emissions of specified vehicles is imposed by GN 100/2016 (GG 6019).

Application of law: The Financial Intelligence Act 13 of 2012 (GG 5096) gives certain powers to customs and excise officers.

The administration of this Act is affected by the Namibia Revenue Agency Act 12 of 2017 (GG 6486).

DAMAGES

Summary: This Act (SA GG 5689) apportions damages in cases of contributory negligence or joint or several liability.

Applicability to SWA: Section 6 originally stated “This Act shall apply also in the territory of South-West Africa.” After amendment by Act 58 of 1971, section 6 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer proclamation: Although this Act makes no reference to any minister, it probably fell under the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended. (Note that it is one of the laws listed in the South African Justice Laws Rationalisation Act 18 of 1996 (RSA GG 17129).) There was only one South African amending act after the date of transfer – the Matrimonial Property Act 88 of 1984 (RSA GG 9322) – which was not made expressly applicable to SWA.

Amendments: Assuming that the justice transfer proclamation was indeed applicable, the only SA amendment which applied to South West Africa was the Apportionment of Damages Amendment Act 58 of 1971 (RSA GG 3150).

Application: Section 37 of the Motor Vehicle Accident Fund Act 10 of 2007 (GG 3970) affects the application of this Act.

Cases:
Beukes v Mutual & Federal Insurance 1990 NR 105 (HC)
Johannes v South West Transport (Pty) Ltd 1992 NR 358 (HC), confirmed on other points on appeal to a full bench in 1994(1) SA 200 (Nm)
FS v Minister of Safety and Security 2009 (2) NR 417 (SC).

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 2305) amends the law regarding assessment of damages for loss of support as a result of a person’s death.

Transfer proclamation: Although this Act makes no reference to any minister, by virtue of its subject matter it probably fell under the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended. In any event, there were no amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Application: Section 37 of the Motor Vehicle Accident Fund Act 10 of 2007 affects the application of this Act.

Usury Proclamation 26 of 1921.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 63) regulates the rates of interest on loans. Although it has not been technically repealed, it has been superseded by the Usury Act 73 of 1968.

Amendments: This Proclamation is amended by Ord. 25/1965 (OG 2636).

Payment of Loans Proclamation 28 of 1933.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 538) provides that repayment of money based on references to the price of gold, shall not be affected by variations in the price of gold.

Usury Act 73 of 1968, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 2119) provides for the limitation and disclosure of finance charges on loan and credit transactions and sets maximum rates of interest for loans. It was originally called the “Limitation and Disclosure of Finance Charges Act”, but the name was changed to “Usury Act” by the Limitation and Disclosure of Finance Charges Amendment Act 42 of 1986.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1, as amended by Act 62 of 1974, defines “Republic” to include “the territory”, which is defined as “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 19(1), which was in the original Act, states “The provisions of this Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the area known as the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel and referred to in section 3(3) of the South West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951), and also in relation to all persons in that portion of the territory known as the ‘Rehoboth Gebiet’ and defined in the First Schedule to Proclamation No. 28 of 1923, of the Administration of the said territory.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: This Act was administered by the Minister of Finance. Acts administered by the Minister of Finance in the Department of Inland Revenue were transferred to South West Africa by the Executive Powers (Inland Revenue) Transfer Proclamation, AG 18 of 1978, but this Act fell under the Department of Finance, as indicated by various government notices issued under the Act. See, for example, Government Notice R.2019/1974 (RSA GG 4475) and Government Notice R. 2457/1982 (RSA GG 8446). There was no transfer proclamation for laws administered by the Minister of Finance in the Department of Finance.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Limitation and Disclosure of Finance Charges Amendment Act 90 of 1980 (RSA GG 7143)
The Act was also amended in South Africa by the Usury Amendment Act 67 of 1990 (RSA GG 12566), but this amendment came into force only on 29 June 1990 (its date of publication), which was after the date of Namibian independence.

After independence, section 15(e) of the Act was repealed by Act 1/2000 (GG 2269).

The Namibia Financial Institutions Supervisory Authority Act 3 of 2001 (GG 2529) amends section 1.

Act 6/2018 (GG 6663), which was brought into force on 15 October 2018 by GN 260/2018 (GG 6736), amends section 1 and inserts section 2C. Act 6/2018 states that it amends section 2 by the insertion of section 2C, but section 2C appears to be intended for insertion as an independent section; the Act already contains independent sections 2A and 2B.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 16 of the Act, but pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Maximum finance charge rates for microlending transactions are determined in General Notice 571/2018 (GG 6736).

Notices on exemptions: Certain exemptions relating to micro loan transactions are set forth in GN 34/2000 (GG 2267), which is replaced by GN 136/2002 (GG 2782), replaced in turn by GN 189/2004 (GG 3266). However, GN 189/2004 was repealed by GN 262/2018 (GG 6736) when the Microlending Act 7 of 2018 came into force.

Cases: Open Learning Group Namibia Finance CC v Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Finance & Others 2006 (1) NR 275 (HC).

Suretyship Amendment Act 57 of 1971.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 3149) repeals the common law rules which previously protected women from the consequences of suretyship.

Applicability to SWA: Section 4 states “This Act shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” This wording would not have made amendments to the Act in South Africa automatically applicable to SWA, but there were in any event no amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.
Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of the Act does not appear to have been transferred to South West Africa. In any event, the issue of transfer is not relevant to the content of the Act since there were no amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Prescribed Rate of Interest Act 55 of 1975, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 4755) prescribes the calculation of interest on debts in certain circumstances and provides for payment of interest on certain judgement debts.

Applicability to SWA: Section 4 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: It is not clear whether the administration of this Act was transferred to SWA. Section 1(2) of the Act gives the Minister of Justice power to prescribe rates of interest, suggesting that the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended, may have been applicable. In any event, there were no amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Summary: This Act provides for the rights of participants in certain mortgage bonds.

Applicability to SWA: Section 16 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: This Act post-dated the transfer proclamations.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendment was applicable to SWA –

- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 51 of 1988 (RSA GG 11313).

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 2443) regulates the registration of deeds. It replaced the Deeds Registry Proclamation 37 of 1939 in SWA.

Applicability to SWA: Section 102A states “This Act and any amendment thereof, save sections 70 to 74bis, inclusive, and sections 84 and 85, shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel, but excluding the Rehoboth Gebiet as described in section 6 of the Rehoboth Self-Government Act, 1976.” (The excluded sections relate to mineral rights and prospecting contracts.) Section 102 defines “Government,” “provincial administration,” “Republic,” “State,” and “Territory” accordingly.

Section 16 of the Deeds Registries Amendment Act 3 of 1972, which makes the principal Act applicable to South West Africa, repeals a number of SWA laws relating to the registration of deeds. This amending Act also specifically excludes certain mining titles from its coverage.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to South West Africa by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation, AG 33 of 1979, dated 12 November 1979. Section 3(1)(b) of that Proclamation as originally enacted excluded section 2, section 103(2) and the references to the Republic in the Act from the operation of the Executive Powers Transfer (General Provisions) Proclamation, AG 7 of 1977 (the “General Proclamation”). Section 2(a)(i) of the original transfer proclamation provided that the references to the Government of the Republic in sections 3(1)(c) and (l) and in section 99 of the Act were to be construed as including a reference to the Administrator-General.

The Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Amendment Proclamation, AG 32 of 1985 (OG 5060) – which was deemed to have come into force on 1 June 1984 and which amended both the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation and the Deeds Registries Act 47 of 1937 – states in section 1(2): “In the application of the provisions of the Executive Powers Transfer (General Provisions) Proclamation, 1977 (Proclamation AG. 7 of 1977) (hereinafter referred to as the General Proclamation) in respect of sections 2, 9, 45, 45bis, 48 and 102 of the Deeds Registries Act, 1937 (Act 47 of 1937), this Proclamation shall be deemed to be a transfer proclamation as defined in section 1 of the General Proclamation, and the reference in section 5 of the General Proclamation to a law referred to in section 2 of that Proclamation, shall be construed as a reference to sections 2, 9, 45, 45bis, 48 and 102 of the said Deeds Registries Act, 1937”. All of the sections of the Deeds Registries Act 47 of 1937 cited in AG 32 of 1985 were amended by that Proclamation.

Section 3(1)(b) of the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation, AG 33 of 1979, as amended by AG 32 of 1985, excluded section 103(2), all the references to the Republic and all the references to the State in the Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation – meaning that prior to independence these terms retained the meaning given to them in section 102 of the Act (both South Africa and South West Africa). Section 2(a)(i) of the transfer proclamation as amended continued to provide that the references to the Government of the Republic in sections 3(1)(c) and (l) and in section 99 of the Act were to be construed as including a reference to the Administrator-General.
Section 2, which provides for the appointment of registrars, was initially excluded from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, but this exclusion was removed by AG 32 of 1985, which also substituted section 2 in its entirety. The provisions of the Act relating to the Deeds Registry Regulation Board were initially excluded from transfer by section 3(2)(b) of the General Proclamation, which exempted from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation “those provisions of any law ... which provide for or relate to the institution, constitution or control of any juristic person or any board or any other body of persons that may exercise powers or perform other functions in or in respect of both the territory and the Republic”. However, section 9 of the Act – which pertains to this Board – was explicitly transferred to South West Africa by AG 32 of 1985, which also amended the provisions of section 9 on the constitution of the Board. The purpose of citing other specific sections of the Act in AG 32 of 1985, after the administration of the Act as a whole had already been transferred to South West Africa, is not clear.

None of the amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Deeds Registries Amendment Act 44 of 1980 (RSA GG 6991), the Deeds Registries Amendment Act 27 of 1982 (RSA GG 8079), the Deeds Registries Amendment Act 62 of 1984 (RSA GG 9241), the Matrimonial Property Act 88 of 1984 (RSA GG 9322), the Black Communities Development Amendment Act 74 of 1986 (RSA GG 10333), the Deeds Registries Amendment Act 75 of 1987 (RSA GG 10952), the Marriage and Matrimonial Property Law Amendment Act 3 of 1988 (RSA GG 11171) and the Deeds Registries Amendment Act 24 of 1989 (RSA GG 11777) – were applicable to South West Africa because none were made expressly so applicable.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Deeds Registries Amendment Act 15 of 1953 (SA GG 5120)
- Matrimonial Affairs Act 37 of 1953 (SA GG 5170)

DEFENCE

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 468) provides for moratoriums on contractual debts, prescription of civil legal remedies and similar matters for persons fulfilling their military service requirements. It repeals the Moratorium Act 53 of 1962. It has no practical effect in Namibia as it applies only to persons conscripted into military service.

Applicability to SWA: Section 7 states “This Act shall also apply in the territory of South West Africa.” This wording did not make amendments to the Act in South Africa automatically applicable to SWA, and none of the amending acts in South Africa prior to Namibian independence were made specifically applicable to SWA.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of the Act does not appear to have been transferred to South West Africa.

Protection of Information Act 84 of 1982.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 8248) makes it an offence to disclose certain information which might be prejudicial to the security or interests of South Africa. It authorises prosecution within South Africa for offences committed elsewhere. (It also repeals the Official Secrets Act 16 of 1956 and its amendments.)

Applicability to SWA: The Security Matters Proclamation (AG 29/1985) (OG 5059) makes the Act applicable to SWA, with some amendments.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The Security Matters Proclamation (AG 29/1985) (OG 5059) meets the definition of a “transfer proclamation” in section 1 of the Transfer (General Provisions) Proclamation, AG 7 of 1977 – “a proclamation by the Administrator-General by which the administration of the affairs of the territory in relation to any matter is transferred from a Minister of the Republic to the Administrator-General” (emphasis added). There were no amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Section 45 of the National Intelligence Act 19 of 1987 (OG 5423) amends section 1 of the Act (definition of “security matter”). Act 19 of 1987 is repealed by the Namibia Central Intelligence Service Act 10 of 1997 (GG 1699), which also amends section 1 of this Act (definition of “security matter”).

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Namibia Central Intelligence Service Act 10 of 1997.

Summary: This Act (GG 1699) repeals the National Intelligence Act 19 of 1987 inherited from South Africa by establishing a Namibia Central Intelligence Service.
One matter of general interest is that a judicial direction is required in terms of the Act for the interception or monitoring of communications and the search of premises. The Act was brought into force on 5 June 1998 by Proc. 12/1998 (GG 1876).

Regulations: Regulations are contained in GN 118/1998 (GG 1876).

Notices: Access to certain premises under the control of the Namibia Central Intelligence Service is prohibited by GN 133/2005 (GG 3517) and Proc. 8/2007 (GG 3803).

GN 178/2005 (GG 3553) contains directives relating to proceedings before a judge of the High Court under sections 19 and 25.

Appointments: The Director-General of the Namibia Central Intelligence Service is appointed in Proc. 14/1999 (GG 2062).

Defence Act 1 of 2002.

Summary: This Act (GG 2749) repeals the Defence Act 44 of 1957, which replaced the South Africa Defence Act 13 of 1912. The Namibian Defence Force established under the previous Act continues to exist under the new Act. The Act was brought into force on 15 July 2002 by GN 109/2002 (GG 2765).

Amendments: Schedule 1 is amended by the Correctional Service Act 9 of 2012 (GG 5008), which was brought into force on 1 January 2014 by GN 330/2013 (GG 5365).

Regulations: Regulations made under the previous Act remained in force in terms of section 94 of this Act. The Defence Act 44 of 1957 similarly provided that regulations made under the South Africa Defence Act 13 of 1912 remained in force pursuant to section 152(2) of the Defence Act 44 of 1957. However, pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Regulations relating to the performance of police duties by members of the Defence Force were made under the Defence Act 44 of 1957 in GN 234/1994 (GG 993), as amended by GN 241/1994 (GG 1002), which was later repealed by GN 189/2010 (GG 4547). These regulations have not been repealed, but they applied only to the 1994 election.

It should be noted that there were two Government Notices numbered 241 in 1994.

Rules: Rules relating to the Military Discipline Code are contained in GN 223/2008 (GG 4114).

Notices: GN 193/1995 (GG 1179) and GN 46/1999 (GG 2075) designate certain areas for training purposes.

DISASTERS

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 1567) provides for a Directorate of Civil Defence in the public service and deals with emergency powers. It was repealed in its entirety in South Africa by the Civil Protection Act 67 of 1977 (RSA GG 5555).

Applicability to SWA: Section 19 originally stated “This Act and any amendments thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section three of the South West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951).”

However, section 19 was substituted by Act 69/1967, to give the State President of South Africa authority to make the Act and its amendments applicable to SWA. Section 19(1) states:

“The State President may by proclamation in the Gazette declare any or all the provisions of this Act and of any amendment thereof to be mutatis mutandis applicable in the territory of South-West Africa (including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section 3 of the South-West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951)), and in relation to all persons in that portion of the said territory known as the ‘Rehoboth Gebiet’ and defined in the First Schedule to Proclamation No. 28 of 1923 of the Administrator of the said territory.”

The Act was then again made applicable to South West Africa by RSA Proc. 205/1969 (RSA GG 2495), subject to certain interpretations and conditions specified in the Proclamation. This Proclamation stated:

“Under the powers vested in me by section 19 of the Civil Defence Act, 1966 (Act 39 of 1966), I hereby declare that, subject to the provisions of the Schedule to this Proclamation, all the provisions of the said Act shall apply mutatis mutandis in the territory of South-West Africa [including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section 38(5) of the South-West Africa Constitution Act, 1968 (Act 39 of 1968)], and in relation to all persons in that portion of the said territory known as the ‘Rehoboth Gebiet’ and defined in the First Schedule to Proclamation 28 of 1923 of the Administrator of the said territory, with effect from the first day of April 1969.”

[words in square brackets appear in the Gazette along with the square brackets].

The Civil Protection Act 67 of 1977 (RSA GG 5555), which repealed the statute in South Africa, was not made applicable to South West Africa.

Amendments: There were no amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to the amendment to section 19 (regarding the method of applicability to SWA) by the Civil Defence Amendment Act 69 of 1967 (RSA GG 1754).

After the amendment to section 19, the Act was amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence by the Defence Amendment Act 85 of 1967 (RSA GG 1776), the Civil Defence Amendment Act 5 of 1969 (RSA GG 2301) and the Defence Further Amendment Act 83 of 1974 (RSA GG 4508). However, section 19 as amended made amendments to the Act in South Africa applicable to South West Africa only if they were declared to be so applicable by proclamation, and no such proclamations could be located.

The Defence Act 1 of 2002 (GG 2749) repeals sections 20, 21 and 22.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 18 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Disaster Risk Management Act 10 of 2012.

Summary: This Act (GG 5029) establishes institutions for disaster risk management in Namibia, as well as a National Disaster Fund. It provides for an integrated and coordinated approach to disaster management which includes prevention, mitigation measures, emergency preparedness, disaster response and post-disaster recovery. It also covers the involvement of Namibia’s uniformed forces in disaster situations, and repeals the Civil Defence Proclamation, AG. 54 of 1978 and the Civil Defence Ordinance 3 of 1979. However, anything done under the repealed laws which could have been done under a corresponding provision of this Act is deemed to have been so done. The Act was brought into force on 31 December 2013 by GN 348/2013 (GG 5380).

Regulations: Regulations, rules and codes of conduct made under the repealed laws remain valid until explicitly repealed, in terms of section 59(2). However, pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Regulations made under this Act are contained in GG 349/2013 (GG 5380). These regulations do not repeal any of those made under previous legislation.

Appointments: The members of the National Disaster Risk Management Committee are announced in GN 149/2016 (GG 6062), with retroactive effect from 22 October 2015.

Relevant international law: There are no current international treaties regarding natural disasters. However, guidelines for model national laws on natural disasters have been developed by the International Federation of Red Cross/Red Crescent Societies with support from the UN. Information on these guidelines is available at www.atha.se/thematic-areas/international-disaster-response-law.

Summary: The remaining portions of this Act (OG 4358) relate only to agricultural colleges providing tertiary education. The Act was brought into force on 1 April 1981 by AG 6/1981 (OG 4430).

Amendments: The Act is amended by AG 39/1984 (OG 4983), which repeals sections 13-24, deletes section 25(6) and amends other sections by the substitution of expressions. (AG 39/1980 was repealed by the Public Service Act 13 of 1995 (GG 1121)).

The Act is also amended by Act 12/1988 (OG 5579).

The Act is repealed by the Education Act 16 of 2001 (GG 2673), brought into force on 28 October 2002 (GN 186/2002, GG 2841) in so far as it applies to schools and education other than tertiary education. This repeal is amended by the Higher Education Act 26 of 2003 to be effective except in so far as the Act “applies to teachers’ education colleges and agricultural colleges providing tertiary education”.

The Act is repealed by the Teachers’ Education Colleges Act 25 of 2003 (GG 3124, brought into force on 1 April 2005 by GN 18/2005, GG 3386) insofar as it applies to teachers’ education colleges.

Thus, it remains in force only insofar as it applies to agricultural colleges providing tertiary education.

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Summary: This Act (GG 460) establishes the University of Namibia and provides for the administration and control of its affairs. It repeals the Academy Act 9 of 1985, which in turn replaced the Academy for Tertiary Education Act 13 of 1980. This Act was brought into force on 31 August 1992 by GN 109/1992 (GG 462).

Amendments: Sections 26-28 are amended by the Polytechnic of Namibia Act 33 of 1994 (contained in (GG 991) and brought into force on 15 December 1994 by GN 241/1994, GG 1000) and repealed by the Namibia University of Science and Technology Act 7 of 2015 (GG 5827), brought into force on 16 November 2015 by GN 254/2015 (GG 5876).

Commentary:

As a matter of historical interest, the amendments to the Electoral Act 24 of 1992, which has been replaced by the Electoral Act 5 of 2014, were as follows:

Electoral Act 24 of 1992 (GG 471)

The Act was substantially amended by Act 23/1994 (GG 957).

The definition of “party list” was amended by section 3 of the Local Authorities Amendment Act 3 of 1997 (GG 1584), to conform with the amendment of the Local Authorities Act 23 of 1992 (GG 470) to defer the change from election on a party list system to election on a ward basis until after the second local elections.

Act 20/2002 (GG 2890) amended section 15 (pertaining to the period for the second general registration of voters) and is deemed to have come into force on 23 October 2002.

Act 7/2003 (GG 3013), which was brought came into force on 8 July 2003 by GN 146/2003 (GG 3014), made substantial amendments.

The Act was substantially amended by Act 7/2009 (GG 4322), which came into force on the date of publication (14 August 2009), with the exception of new section 79B (concerning voting machines) which was brought into force on 14 March 2014 by GN 24/2014 (GG 5425).

Act 11/2010 (GG 4542) amended section 7 of the Act to extend the term of office of certain members of the Electoral Commission. It applied only to those members whose term of office was set to expire on 31 July 2010, extending their tenure until 30 June 2011.

Act 8/2012 (GG 4983) inserted section 28B to provide for the use of a digital voter registration system.

Act 9/2013 (GG 5277) amended section 15 to extend the deadline for the third general registration of voters.

Several of the amending Acts were discussed in Rally for Democracy and Progress & Others v Electoral Commission & Others 2013 (2) NR 390 (HC) at para 202-ff.

Summary: This Act (OG 4225) gives certain powers to the SWA Water and Electricity Corporation (Pty) Ltd, subject to the approval of the Minister of Mines and Energy. (This corporation is now known as “NamPower”.)

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Application of law: Namibia Power Corporation (Pty) Ltd was deemed to be a company registered in terms of Chapter IV of the Companies Act 61 of 1973 (which has since been replaced by the Companies Act 28 of 2004) by Proc. 7/1998 (GG 1849).

The application of the Act is also affected by the State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 (GG 3698), which was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733) and which has since been re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006.

Summary: This Act (GG 3922) provides for the establishment and functions of the Electricity Control Board. It repeals the Electricity Act 2 of 2000 (GG 2270), which in turn replaced the Electric Power Proclamation 4 of 1922. The Act was brought into force on 15 November 2007 by GN 201/2007 (GG 3933).

A Transmission Grid Code is contained in General Notice 561/2018 (GG 6731).

Notices: A levy on electricity supplied by NamPower is imposed by GN 118/2018 (GG 6626). The levies issued previously in terms of this Act and its predecessor have all been repealed.

Summary: This Act (OG 5244) regulates the engineering profession. It was brought into force by AG 1/1987 (OG 5313) and AG 5/1989 (OG 5687). It repeals the Professional Engineers’ Act 81 of 1968.

Cases: Fischer Seelenbinder Associates CC v Steelforce CC 2010 (2) NR 684 (HC).

See also Namibia Qualifications Authority Act 29 of 1996 (occupational standards) (EDUCATION).

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 2437) covers the prevention and combating of soil erosion; the conservation, improvement and manner of use of the soil and vegetation; and the protection of water sources. It repeals the Soil Conservation Act 45 of 1946. The Second Soil Conservation Amendment Act 38 of 1971 (RSA GG 3108), which amended this Act to make it applicable to South West Africa, provided for some additional repeals in respect of South West Africa: the Soil Conservation Ordinance 28 of 1952, the Soil Conservation Amendment Ordinance 20 of 1954 and the Soil Conservation Validation Ordinance 11 of 1961.

Applicability to SWA: Section 27A (inserted in 1971) states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall also apply in the territory”, which is defined in section 1 as “the territory of South-West Africa”.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of the Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Agricultural Technical Services) Transfer Proclamation (AG 11/1978), dated 2 March 1978.

In South Africa, the Forest Act 122 of 1984 (RSA GG 9380), brought into force on 27 March 1986 by RSA Proc. R.44/1986 (RSA GG 10158), repealed Part VII of the Act and the Conservation of Agricultural Resources Act 43 of 1983 (RSA GG 8673), brought into force on 1 June 1984 by RSA Proc. R.74/1984 (RSA GG 9238), repealed the remainder. Neither of these Acts was made expressly applicable to South West Africa.

The reference to the “Minister” in section 24 of the Act (which deals with limitation of liability) was excluded from the operation of the General Proclamation, meaning that in this section “Minister” continued to refer to the South African Minister of Agriculture.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Soil Conservation Amendment Act 4 of 1971 (RSA GG 3020)
- Second Soil Conservation Amendment Act 38 of 1971 (RSA GG 3108)
- Soil Conservation Amendment Act 11 of 1973 (RSA GG 3820)
- Soil Conservation Amendment Act 21 of 1974 (RSA GG 4212)
- Expropriation Act 63 of 1975 (RSA GG 4780)
- Soil Conservation Amendment Act 22 of 1977 (RSA GG 5459).

Certain terminology is amended by the Native Laws Amendment Proclamation, AG 3 of 1979 (OG 3898), deemed to have come into force in relevant part on 1 August 1978 (section 5 of AG 3 of 1979).

Section 13 is amended by the Forest Act 12 of 2001 (GG 2667).

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. There does not appear to be a savings clause for regulations issued under the laws repealed by this act or by the Second Soil Conservation Amendment Act 38 of 1971 (RSA GG 3108). However, section 4 of Act 38 of 1971, which effects the repeals of the SWA legislation contains a proviso which states that “any provision of any law so repealed shall, notwithstanding the repeal of such law, continue to apply in respect of any matter in connection with which anything has been done under any law aforesaid or in respect of anything incidental to any such matter or which may be necessary to be done in connection with any such matter, as if such law had not been so repealed”.

No regulations have been issued under the Act since independence.

See the regulations promulgated under the Communal Land Reform Act 5 of 2002 (GG 2787); regulations 31 and 32 deal with the prevention of soil erosion and the protection of pastoral resources.

Application of law: Regulations 31 and 32 issued under the Communal Land Reform Act 5 of 2002 in GN 37/2003 (GG 2926) refer to the application of this Act in respect of communal areas.

Mountain Catchment Areas Act 63 of 1970.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 2858) provides for the management and conservation of land in designated mountain catchment areas.

Applicability to SWA: Section 19 states “This Act shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” This wording did not make amendments to the Act in South Africa automatically applicable to SWA, and none of the amendments were made specifically applicable to SWA. (The Act was amended in South Africa by the Expropriation Act 63 of 1975 (RSA GG 4780), which was brought into force on 1 January 1977 by RSA Proc. 273/1976 (RSA GG 5363), and by the Mountain Catchment Areas Amendment Act 41 of 1976 (RSA GG 5068), which came into force on its date of publication: 7 April 1976.)

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Forestry) Transfer Proclamation (AG 16/1977), dated 1 December 1977. There was only one amendment to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Mountain Catchment Areas Amendment Act 76 of 1981 (RSA GG 7800) – which was not made expressly applicable to SWA.

Amendments: Certain terms in the Act were amended by the Native Laws Amendment Proclamation, AG 3 of 1979 (OG 3898), deemed to have come into force in relevant part on 1 August 1978 (section 5 of AG 3 of 1979).

There have been no amendments to the Act since independence.

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Hazardous Substances Ordinance 14 of 1974.

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 3415) provides for the control of toxic substances. It covers manufacture, sale, use, disposal and dumping as well as import and export. The Health Act 21 of 1988 (OG 5651) extended this Ordinance to all of SWA.
Amendments: The Ordinance is amended by the Atomic Energy and Radiation Protection Act 5 of 2005 (GG 3429), which was brought into force in relevant part on 18 November 2011 by GN 220/2011 (GG 4835).

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 27 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 3469) covers game parks and nature reserves, the hunting and protection of wild animals (including game birds), problem animals, fish, and the protection of indigenous plants. It also establishes a Nature Conservation Board. It repeals the Nature Conservation Ordinance 31 of 1967.

The Ordinance is also amended by the Inland Fisheries Resources Act 1 of 2003 (GG 2962), which was brought into force on 6 June 2003 by GN 117/2003 (GG 2992) (sections 18, 65-71 and 84).

Schedule 3 is amended by GN 115/1978 (OG 3741), GN 75/1987 (OG 5364), Act 31/1990 (GG 133) and GN 18/2016 (GG 5936).

Government Notice 18 of 2016 (GG 5936) states that it is amending Schedule 3. However, it states that it is adding “African Wild Dog (Lycaon)” to the list of animals in subparagraph (i). There is no subparagraph (i) in Schedule 3, raising a question as to whether this amendment was perhaps intended to apply to subparagraph (i) of Schedule 4.

Note that there are two versions of GG 5936. The corrected version is not marked as having been corrected in any way. None of the changes affect the amendments to Schedule 3.

Government Notice 18 of 2016 (GG 5936) states that it is amending Schedule 3. However, it states that it is adding “African Wild Dog (Lycaon)” to the list of animals in subparagraph (i). There is no subparagraph (i) in Schedule 3, raising a question as to whether this amendment was perhaps intended to apply to subparagraph (i) of Schedule 4.

Note that there are two versions of GG 5936. The corrected version is not marked as having been corrected in any way. None of the changes would affect the amendments which appears to have been meant for Schedule 4.

Schedule 5 is amended by GN 117/1976 (OG 3535).

Schedule 6 is amended by Government Notice AG 77/1985 (OG 5045).

Act 3/2017 (GG 6344) amends sections 1, 17, 26, 27, 38 and 49, and substitutes section 87. These amendments, amongst other things, increase the penalties for certain wildlife crimes.
Application of law: The application of the Ordinance was affected by the Provision for Control of the Import, Export and Possession of and Trading in Controlled Game Products Proclamation, AG 42/1980 (OG 4238) – which has since been repealed by the Controlled Wildlife Products and Trade Act 9 of 2008 (GG 4190).

Regulations: Regulations made under the Nature Conservation Ordinance 31 of 1967 survive pursuant to section 90(2) of this Ordinance.
Hunting regulations for the year 1968 are contained in GN 60/1968 (OG 2881). Hunting regulations for the year 1969 are contained in GN 59/1969 (OG 2994). Both sets of regulations were originally made in terms of section 4 of the Nature Conservation Ordinance 31 of 1967, and are now clearly obsolete.

Regulations made under this Ordinance are contained in GN 240/1976 (OG 3556). These regulations are amended as follows-

Note that there are two versions of GG 5936. The corrected version is not marked as having been corrected in any way. All of the changes affect Schedule G – Record Sheet. As a quick method of verification, the corrected version of this form contains the heading “MEASUREMENTS AND PHOTOGRAPHS” above the line drawing of the predator; the incorrect version of this form contains the heading “MEASUREMENTS & PHOTOGRAPHS” at this spot. There are several other differences between the forms in the two Gazettes.

GN 210/2012 (Regs 1 and 36 re: Dorob National Park)  GG 5015
The original regulations are erroneously cited in GN 210/2012 as being GN 240/1975 instead of GN 240/1976. GN 210/2012 also erroneously lists GN 101/1985 as being “AG GN 101/1985”. GN 210/2012 also lists GN 304/1996 as an amendment to the regulations, but note that it was withdrawn by GN 83/1997 (which GN 210/2012 fails to list).

GN 85/2017 (new Reg 9A: plastic bags in game parks/nature reserves)  GG 6285

GN 94/2018 (regs 107-108A)  GG 6605
This Notice erroneously lists GN 86/2017 amongst the previous amendments to the regulations; the correct reference is GN 85/2017. It also erroneously lists GN 85/2012 as an amendment to the regulations contained in GN 240/1976; these regulations are in fact a separate set of regulations concerning large carnivores. They are listed separately below.

The topics covered in the regulations include tariffs (game parks); regulations relating to game parks; swimming baths and use of boats in game parks; inland fisheries; keeping game and other wild animals in captivity; game dealers; game skins; protected plants and permits for them; regulations for cage bird societies; trophy hunting, manufacturing and dealers’ licences and the export of trophies; hunting of huntable game, hunting at night and the export of game and game meat; sea bird guano; private game parks and nature reserves; succulent societies; game-proof fences, recognition and regulation of associations; and registers for coyote getters.

GN 85/2012 (GG 4911) contains additional regulations for large carnivores (lions, cheetahs, leopards, spotted hyenas, brown hyenas and wild dogs) in captivity.

GN 246/1977 (OG 3638) contains prohibitions on the export of processed or tanned leopard & cheetah skins.

GN 60/2009 (GG 4236) placed a moratorium on permits for the importation of large predators and alien species of wild animals into Namibia. However, this blanket prohibition was found to be outside the authority of the Act in Erindi Ranch (Pty) Ltd v Government of the Republic of Namibia & Others 2012 (1) NR 185 (HC) and is thus invalid.

Most of the other Government Notices issued in terms of the Ordinance deal with specific private game parks, conservancies, hunting seasons, honorary nature conservators or boundaries of public game parks and nature reserves. These notices have not been recorded here.

Plant Quarantine Act 7 of 2008.

Summary: This Act (GG 4149) provides for the preventing, monitoring, controlling and eradication of plant pests and regulated the movement of plants and plant products. It also provides for the certification of the phytosanitary standards of plants and plant products exported from Namibia and affects compliance with the International Plant Protection Convention of 1951. It repeals the Locust Suppression Proclamation 34 of 1923, the Agricultural Pests Ordinance 11 of 1927 and the Agricultural Pests Act 3 of 1973. This Act was brought into force on 1 July 2012 by GN 157/2012 (GG 4975).

Regulations: Section 23(2) states that anything done under the repealed Agricultural Pests Act 3 of 1973 “which could have been done under a corresponding provision of this Act is deemed to have been done under that provision”. This would appear to include regulations. Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched. However, the following post-independence regulations made under the Agricultural Pests Act 3 of 1973 would appear to survive:

Regulations relating to importation permits and the lodging of appeals are contained in GN 57/2007 (GG 3812).

In terms of the current Act, regulations relating to import and export permits, examination of imported plants, diseases or insects and appeals are contained in GN 158/2012 (GG 4975). (These regulations do not repeal the regulations issued under the repealed Agricultural Pests Act 3 of 1973 in GN 57/2007 (GG 3812), but it appears as though there is overlap in subject matter.)

Procedure and Evidence Proclamation 8 of 1938, section 7.

Summary: Most of this Proclamation (OG 747) has been repealed. The only remaining provision is section 7, which states that in criminal proceedings arising out of the fact that a cheque has been dishonoured, the onus is on the accused to prove that he had good reason to believe that the cheque would be honoured on the due date.

Amendments: This Proclamation is amended by General Laws Amendment Ordinance 11/1954 (OG 1846) (amending section 6 which was subsequently repealed), the SA Supreme Court Act 59 of 1959 (which repeals section 4), the RSA Civil Proceedings Evidence Act 25 of 1965 (RSA GG 1066) (which repeals sections 1-3 and 5), and the RSA Maintenance Amendment Act 39 of 1970 (which repeals section 6).

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 1066) regulates the law of evidence in civil proceedings.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Republic” to include “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 43 states “This Act and any amendment thereof which may be made from time to time shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section three of the South West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951).”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended. There were two amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Transfer of Powers and Duties of the State President Act 97 of 1986 and the Law of Evidence Amendment Act 45 of 1988 – neither of which was made expressly applicable to SWA.

Section 3(1)(n) of the transfer proclamation excluded all references to the “Republic” in the Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that “Republic” retained the meaning given to it in the definition section of the Act (South Africa and SWA).

Amendments: An item in the Schedule to the Act is repealed by the Criminal Procedure Act 51 of 1977 (RSA GG 5532).

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Summary: Section 29 of this Act (RSA GG 2464) authorises the withholding of evidence from any court of law if the Administrator-General (or the responsible Minister) is of the opinion that disclosure of the information could be detrimental to state security.

Applicability to SWA: Section 29(3) states “The provisions of this section and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer to SWA: It is not clear how this Act was administered, and thus we have not ascertained what, if any, transfer proclamation applied. However, the case of Mweuhanga v Administrator-General of South West Africa & Others 1990 (2) SA 776 (A) at 784C-785E considered who is empowered to act in respect of South West Africa for purposes of this provision:

This then brings me to South West Africa. In the section South West Africa is grouped together with the provincial administrations, and this is hardly surprising. Whatever the constitutional differences may have been between the provinces and South West Africa, they had, at all relevant times, one feature in common which is of decisive importance for present purposes. This feature is that their administrations were divided ones. Certain governmental functions were performed in the provinces and South West Africa by the central Government in the course of governing the country as a whole (including South West Africa) whereas others were performed by the local administrations (see eg the South West Africa Constitution Act 39 of 1968 and, in particular, ss 22 and 38). There was therefore a need for the head of the administration of South West Africa (at that stage the Administrator) to be granted the same rights in respect of his administration as were granted to the heads of the provincial administrations and the Government departments. The fact that, in s 29, South West Africa is included without comment with the provincial administrations suggests that this indeed was what was intended. However, Mr Gauntlett points out that there is a difference in the wording. Whereas the Act speaks of ‘a provincial administration’ it refers to the ‘territory of South-West Africa’. A territory, he contends, cannot be responsible for governmental action, and therefore the section must mean something different in reference to South West Africa from what it does in reference to the provincial administrations.

Now, of course, a possible explanation for this wording is simply that the draftsman did not repeat the word ‘administration’ with respect to South West Africa: in other words, that he meant ‘in the case of a provincial administration or the administration of the territory of South West Africa’. Elliptical expressions of this sort are, as we know, quite common. This possibility gains added force if one considers possible alternative meanings of the reference to South West Africa. In his written heads of argument Mr Gauntlett contended that ‘(w)here as a matter of territorial jurisdiction South West Africa is “concerned”, its Administrator is the relevant authority’.

This contention raises the question: when is South West Africa concerned as a matter of territorial jurisdiction? It can hardly be suggested, and was not in fact suggested, that this happens whenever the performance of a governmental action affects the territory or its inhabitants, since this would cover a large part of the central Government’s activities. At one stage Mr Gauntlett suggested that the test was whether the proceedings in which privilege was claimed were conducted in South West Africa. This would, however, mean that governmental actions of the administration of South West Africa could not be protected from disclosure before a tribunal in any other part of the country, and Mr Gauntlett later accepted that the place where the privilege is claimed, could not be decisive. In the result the appellant’s argument did not attribute any clear meaning to the expression ‘in the case of ... the territory of South West Africa’, and a great deal of extensive interpretation would be required to ascribe a sensible meaning to it which would afford the Administrator of South West Africa greater powers than his counterparts in the provinces. I conclude, therefore, that there was no intention to distinguish between the various provinces on the one hand, and South West Africa on the other, and that the power of an Administrator of any of these territories to invoke the privilege was limited to matters falling under the authority of his administration. As I have indicated, this result is achieved by simply reading the word ‘administration’ as also being implied in respect of South West Africa.

In the present matter the affidavit signed by the Minister of Defence clearly related to a matter falling under the Department of Defence and not under the administration of South West Africa. The Minister of Defence was, accordingly, the proper person to make this affidavit.

This case holds that the statute empowered the Administrator-General and any other Minister to act in terms of section 29 with respect to a power falling under their administration – thus implying that there was no single authority which ‘administered’ the provision in question. In any event, the issue of transfer is not relevant to the content of section 29 since there were no amendments to that section in South Africa between the earliest possible date of transfer and the repeal of the section in South Africa.

Section 29 was repealed in South Africa by the Internal Security Act 74 of 1982 (RSA GG 8232), which was not applicable to SWA. It was held in Mweuhanga v Administrator-General of South West Africa & Others 1990 (2) SA 776 (A) at 780H-781G that this repeal was not effective in respect of SWA:

“I now turn to the merits of the appeal. It will be recalled that the affidavit by the Minister of Defence which was filed in the interlocutory application purported to be based on both s 66 of the Internal Security Act of 1982 and s 29 of the General Law Amendment Act of 1969. As appears from the judgment of the Court a quo, the appellant contended in that Court that neither of these Acts applied in South West Africa. The Court held that the Internal Security Act did not apply in South West Africa but that s 29 of the General Law Amendment Act was in force there, although the latter section had, insofar as the Republic of South Africa was concerned, been repealed by s 73 of the Internal Security Act […]

On appeal before us Mr Gauntlett, for the appellant, accepted the Court’s finding that s 29 of the General Law Amendment Act applied in South West Africa, but that the Internal Security Act did not. I agree with this. Section 29(3) of the General Law Amendment Act specifically provides that the provisions of s 29 and any amendment thereof apply also in the territory of South West Africa. No corresponding provision is found in the Internal Security Act. And it is noteworthy that s 66(1) and (2) of the Internal Security Act corresponds almost word for word with s 29(1) and (2) of the General Law Amendment Act (as substituted by s 25 of the General Law Amendment Act 102 of 1972) save that the latter contains a reference to South West Africa whereas the former does not. […] [I]ts absence from s 66 of the Internal Security Act is a further indication that the latter Act was not intended to apply in South West Africa.”

Amendments: The General Law Amendment Act 102 of 1972 (RSA GG 3610) substitutes subsections (1) and (2) of section 29.

Summary: Section 2 of this Act (RSA GG 4510) requires the permission of the Minister of Trade and Industry for the furnishing of information on business carried on in or outside Namibia in compliance with any order, direction or letter of request emanating from outside Namibia in connection with any civil proceedings.

Applicability to SWA: The text of the Act itself makes no reference to South West Africa. No legal authority for the application of the Act to South West Africa has been located, but section 2 of the Act was ‘substituted’ in post-independence Namibia (effective 15 September 2001), which would seem to make it part of Namibian law now even if it was not previously.

Note that there are two versions of GG 2327. The correct one states at the top: “This Gazette replaces previous Gazette No. 2327.”

Summary: This Act (OG 5152) provides for the admissibility of computer evidence in civil proceedings. It was brought into force on 1 August 1987 by AG 25/1987 (OG 5379).

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Cases: S v Ningisa & Others 2013 (2) HC 504 (SC) (Act applicable only to civil proceedings, as it explicitly states, and not relevant to criminal proceedings); Rally for Democracy and Progress & Others v Electoral Commission & Others 2013 (2) NR 390 (HC).

Summary: This Act (GG 1033) provides for the obtaining of evidence of persons in Namibia by courts outside Namibia. It repeals the South African Foreign Courts Evidence Act 80 of 1962.

Note that there are two versions of GG 2327. The correct one states at the top: “This Gazette replaces previous Gazette No. 2327.”

Note that section 10 of the Act gives the Minister of Justice the power to amend the Schedules to the Act by notice in the Gazette.

Regulations: The Act provides that anything done under the repealed Foreign Courts Evidence Act 80 of 1962 which could have been done under a provision of this Act will be deemed to have been done under this Act. However, this Act makes no provision for regulations, so no regulations made under the repealed Act could survive.

Cases: The following case concerns the predecessor to this Act, the Foreign Courts Evidence Act 80 of 1962 –

EXPLOSIVES

Explosives Act 26 of 1956, as amended in South Africa to April 1978.

Summary: This Act regulates the manufacture, storage, sale, transport, import, export, use and possession of a wide range of explosives.

Applicability to SWA: Section 31A, which was inserted by Act 74 of 1972, states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Commerce) Transfer Proclamation (AG 28/1978), dated 28 April 1978. (At that time, the Act was administered by the Minister of Economic Affairs. In South Africa, the Explosives Amendment Act 5 of 1981 substituted the Minister of Police for the Minister of Economic Affairs.)

Section 3(1)(c) of the transfer proclamation excluded the reference to the “Republic” in the Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation.

None of the amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer were made expressly applicable to SWA.

In South Africa, the Application of Certain Laws in Namibia Abolition Act 56 of 1991 removed the references to SWA from the Act as it applies in South Africa.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Explosives Amendment Act 79 of 1962 (RSA GG 280)
- Explosives Amendment Act 21 of 1963 (RSA GG 456)
- Mines and Works and Explosives Amendment Act 46 of 1964 (RSA GG 807)
- Explosives Amendment Act 20 of 1965 (RSA GG 1066)
- Explosives Amendment Act 12 of 1967 (RSA GG 1665)
- Explosives Amendment Act 74 of 1972 (RSA GG 3573)
- Explosives Amendment Act 35 of 1975 (RSA GG 4698)
- Explosives Amendment Act 101 of 1977 (RSA GG 5638).

Act 16/1986 (OG 5238) amends the Act substantially.

The Police Act 19 of 1990 (GG 113) amends the definition of “Minister” in section 1. Note that the original Gazette was replaced by another GG 113 with the same date; the correct version states at the top: “This Government Gazette replaces Government Gazette No. 113 of 3 December 1990.”

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched. However, regulations are contained in RSA Government Notice R.1604/1972 (RSA GG 3648), as amended by –

- RSA GN R.2371/1973 (RSA GG 4103)
- RSA GN R.155/1977 (RSA GG 5395)
- RSA GN R.2153/1977 (RSA GG 5779)

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 5443) consolidates a number of previous laws dealing with a variety of financial matters. Only section 9 was made applicable to SWA. It deals with the exemption of “Bantu governments, assemblies, councils and authorities” from the payment of duties, fees and other taxes, and has no relevance in independent Namibia.

Applicability to SWA: The Act was not generally applicable to South West Africa. The only portion of the Act made applicable to South West Africa was section 9, which was made explicitly so applicable by section 9(2) which states “This section and any amendment thereof shall apply also in territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” Section 9 was not amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Several other sections of the Act concerned specific financial transactions relevant to South West Africa, but they were not made applicable to South West Africa as laws and have no ongoing relevance.

- Section 5 requires the Administration of South West Africa to pay a contribution toward certain pensions.
- Section 21 concerns the continued applicability to SWA of certain regulations with financial implications under laws which have since been repealed.
- Section 41 allows money owed on a loan from the Administration of South West Africa to a magistrate of Rehoboth to be used for the promotion of the welfare of the residents of the “Rehoboth Gebiet”.
- Section 47 requires that the Revenue Fund of South West Africa repay amounts that were paid into it from inactive Post Office Savings Accounts under a previous SWA Ordinance.

Amendments: Certain terms in the Act were amended by the Native Laws Amendment Proclamation, AG 3 of 1979 (OG 3898), deemed to have come into force in relevant part on 1 August 1978 (section 5 of AG 3 of 1979).

Amendments: The Act is amended by the Public Service Act 13 of 1995 (GG 1121), brought into force on 1 November 1995 by GN 210/1995 (GG 1185).

Regulations: Section 38(2) is a savings clause which states: “Anything done under a provision of a law repealed by subsection (1), and which could have been done under a corresponding provision of this Act, shall be deemed to have been done under the provision of this Act.” However, since this Act makes no provision for regulations, any regulations made under the repealed laws would not survive.

Directives: Administrative Directive 1/2006 relating to over-expenditure is contained in GN 56/2006 (GG 3611). It calls attention to sections 6, 9, 16 and 17 of the Act.

Summary: This Act establishes a Development Bank of Namibia to promote economic growth and social development through the financing of key development activities. It was brought into force on 15 May 2003, with the exception of sections 21 and 22, by GN 99/2003 (GG 2978). Section 21 of the Act was brought into force on 14 July 2005 by GN 76/2005 (GG 3459). Section 22, which repeals the Namibia Development Corporation Act 18 of 1993, was never brought into force and was subsequently repealed by the Namibia Industrial Development Agency Act 16 of 2016 (GG 6202), which was brought into force in relevant part on 15 November 2018 by GN 295/2018 (GG 6767), and which also repeals the Namibia Development Corporation Act 18 of 1993.

Cases: Van Straten NO & Others v Namibia Financial Institutions Supervisory Authority & Others 2014 (2) NR 425 (HC); overturned on appeal 2016 (3) NR 747 (SC).

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 9156) governs the administration of funds and trust property by financial institutions. It repeals the Financial Institutions (Investment of Funds) Act 56 of 1964, as amended.
Applicability to SWA: Section 10 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall also apply in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA:

- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 6 of 1987 (RSA GG 10645)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 51 of 1988 (RSA GG 11313).

The Act was amended in South Africa by section 38 of the Financial Markets Control Act 55 of 1989 (RSA GG 11894). This amending Act, which amended the definitions of “financial institution” and “registrar”, was gazetted prior to Namibian independence, on 26 May 1989 – but it was brought into force in relevant part on 10 August 1990, by RSA Proc. 133/1990 (RSA GG 12690), after the date of Namibian independence. (That Proclamation brought sections 2, 3 and 18 of Act 55 of 1989 into force with effect from 7 August 1989, prior to Namibian independence, but the amendments to Act 39 of 1984 were effected by section 38.) Therefore, the amendments made by Act 55 of 1989 were not applicable to South West Africa.

Regulations: Section 11(2) is a savings clause which states: “Anything done or deemed to have been done under any provision of a law repealed by subsection (1) and which could be done under a provision of this Act is deemed to have been done under the last-mentioned provision.” However, since this Act makes no provision for regulations, any regulations made under the repealed Act would not survive.

Amendments: Prior to independence, this Act was amended by Act 15/1987 (OG 5413).

Act 25/1990 (GG 124) amends sections 1, 2 and 49 and substitutes certain words and expressions.

Act 8/1992 (GG 392) amends section 38 so as to remove the prescribed limitation on the amount which may be advanced by a building society on immovable property used for residential purposes.

Act 25/1994 (GG 967) substitutes the title of Chapter VII and adds a new section 52A.

The Married Persons Equality Act 1 of 1996 (GG 1316), which was brought into force on 15 July 1996 by GN 154/1996 (GG 1340), substitutes section 62.
Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 78 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Application of law: The application of the Act is affected by GN 61/1990 (role of the Central Bank), GN 63/1990 (approval to undertake certain business), GN 64/1990 (approval of certain shares and loans as securities), GN 54/1993 and GN 187/1999 (liquid assets).

Summary: This Act (GG 1761) provides for the continuation of the Bank of Namibia as a central bank. It also regulates the issue of bank notes and coins, and the monetary system. The Act was brought into force, with the exception of section 35, on 16 February 1998 by GN 11/1998 (GG 1794). Section 35 was brought into force on 1 June 1998 by GN 117/1998 (GG 1872). It repeals the Bank of Namibia Act 8 of 1990 (GG 42).

Savings: Section 60(2) of this Act states: “Anything done in terms of a provision of the Act repealed by subsection (1) and which may or is required to be done in terms of that Act, shall be deemed to have been done in terms of the corresponding provision of this Act.”

Regulations: The savings clause would apply to regulations, which are authorised by section 59 of this Act, but no regulations under the repealed Act have been located.

Financial Intelligence Act 13 of 2012.

Summary: This Act (GG 5096) establishes the Financial Intelligence Centre and the Anti-Money Laundering and Combating of the Financing of Terrorism and Proliferation Council, to address suspicious financial activities and transactions which may relate to money laundering, or terrorism or proliferation. It also places certain duties on persons and institutions identified as accountable and reporting institutions, supervisory and regulatory bodies, the Registrar of Companies and Close Corporations and the Master of the High Court. It repeals the Financial Intelligence Act 3 of 2007 (GG 3880). The Act was brought into force on 21 December 2012 (GN 304/2012, GG 5104).

Determinations: Determinations made under the repealed Act survive in terms of this legislation.

A Determination on the Period for Establishment of Identity of Existing Clients by Accountable Institutions (FICD 2) is contained in General Notice 69/2009 (GG 4256). An exemption for certain accountable institutions made in terms of FICD 2 is extended by GN 159/2012 (GG 4977).

Summary: This Act (GG 64) provides measures for the saving of petroleum products and economy in the cost of distributing such products. It controls pricing and certain information about petroleum products, and regulates certain services in connection with motor vehicles. The Act also establishes a National Energy Fund and a National Energy Council, and provides for levies on fuel. It repeals the Petroleum Products Act 120 of 1977 and the Levy on Fuel Proclamation AG. 16 of 1984.

Act 3/2000 (GG 2289), which was brought into force on 3 July 2000 by GN 154/2000 (GG 2357), amends sections 1, 6, 8 and 21 and inserts section 2A and 4A.

Act 16/2003 (GG 3113), which was brought into force on 17 March 2005 by GN 29/2005 (GG 3396), amends sections 1, 2A, 11,13, 17, 18, 19, and the long title, and inserts sections 11A, 11B, 18A, 18B, 19A and 19B.

Regulations: Section 23(2) is a savings clause which states:” A regulation made, notice given or any other act done under any provision of the Act or Proclamation referred to in subsection (1), and which is in force at the repeal of that Act and Proclamation by this section, shall, notwithstanding such repeal, remain in force after the commencement of this Act in so far as it deals with any matter in respect of which the Minister may make regulations or give any notice or perform any act under this Act, until it is repealed, replaced, amended or withdrawn under any provision of this Act.”

Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched. However, GN 38/1993 (GG 617) repeals the regulations made under the repealed Act in RSA GN R.1614 of 19 July 1985, without promulgating any new regulations.

Regulations relating to the purchase, sale, supply, acquisition, possession, disposal, storage, transportation, recovery and re-refinement of used mineral oil are contained in GN 48/1991 (GG 183), which is replaced by GN 112/1991 (GG 281).

GN 122/2016 states that these regulations were amended by GN 3/2001. This is incorrect. GN 3/2001 (GG 2468) was an extension of a time period issued under regulation 64(3)(a) and has no relevance beyond 2001.

GN 122/2016 also states that these regulations were amended by GN 75/2003, dated 23 July 2003. This is incorrect. GN 75/2003 (GG 2946) is actually dated 1 April 2003. It was an application of certain specifications and standards under regulation 44 which was withdrawn by GN 166/2007 (GG 3900).

Regulations for arbitration procedures are contained in GN 93/2003 (GG 2970).
Regulations on funding of approved agencies are contained in GN 230/2004 (GG 3307), which is withdrawn by GN 30/2005 (GG 3397), which publishes new regulations on the same topic. However, GN 247/2013 (GG 5287) purports to amend the regulations in GN 230/2004, leaving the correct text of these regulations uncertain.

Regulations relating to the reselling price of petrol and petrol products are issued frequently, with each one revoking or replacing the previous one. These have not been recorded here.

Notices: Pursuant to regulation 44 of the Petroleum Products Regulations promulgated by GN 155/2000, GN 166/2007 (GG 3900) and GN 149/2013 (GG 5222) apply certain codes of practice and specifications and standards. (Previous codes, specifications and standards were contained in GN 21/2002 (GG 2696) and GN 75/2003 (GG 2946).) There is some confusion here. GN 166/2007 (GG 3900) withdraws GN 75/2003. However, GN 149/2013 (GG 5222) purports to repeal the same GN 75/2003. It appears that GN 149/2013 (GG 5222) may have intended to repeal GN 166/2007.

Pursuant to sections 2 and 2A of the Act, certain specifications and standards of petroleum products and storage are contained in GN 543/2016 (GG 5984).

A levy on electricity supplied by NamPower as a transmission licensee is imposed in terms of section 19(1) of the Act by a series of Government Notices, each of which replaces the previous one: GN 296/2012 (GG 5094), with the particulars referred to in section 19(3) of the Act set out in the Schedule; GN 93/2014 (GG 5509); GN 225/2014 (GG 5606); GN 145/2016 (GG 6059) and GN 331/2017 (GG 6494).

Levies imposed on gasoil diesel and unleaded petrol are issued from time to time, with each one revoking or replacing the previous one. These have not been recorded here.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Gambling Act 51 of 1965.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 1108) prohibits lotteries, sports pools and games of chance. It repeals the SWA Lotteries Ordinance 13 of 1937. It also repeals a number of other laws, including the Prohibition of Sports Pools Act 38 of 1949 and section 38 of the General Law Amendment Act 62 of 1955 (relating to prosecutions in connection with gambling houses).

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Republic” to include “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 12 states “This Act (with the exception of section thirteen) shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa (including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section three of the South West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951), and in relation to all persons in that portion of the said territory known as the ‘Rehoboth Gebiet’ and defined in the First Schedule to Proclamation No. 28 of 1923 of the said territory”. (The excluded section is an amendment to another Act. Despite not being applicable to South West Africa and thus not applicable to Namibia, section 13 was repealed by Act 17 of 1992.)

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended. The only amendment to the Act in South Africa after this date and prior to Namibian independence – the Gambling Amendment Act 39 of 1988 (RSA GG 11238) – was not made expressly applicable to SWA.

Amendments: Prior to the date of transfer the Act was amended in South Africa by General Law Amendment Act 70 of 1968 (RSA GG 2106).

Application of law: The application of the Act is affected by the Casinos and Gambling Houses Act 32 of 1994 (GAMBLING) and the Lotteries Act 15 of 2002 (GAMBLING). See also the Licensing of Totalisators Ordinance 5 of 1938 (GAMBLING).
Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations, and there is no savings clause pertaining to regulations which may have been issued under any of the repealed laws.

Summary: This Act (GG 983) makes provision for the licensing, supervision and control of casinos and gambling houses and provides for the establishment of a Casino Board. It was brought into force on 2 December 1994 by GN 230/1994 (GG 984).

Amendments: Act 12/1995 (GG 1118) amends sections 1, 10, 14, 15, 18, 22, 41, 44, 45 and 54 and inserts section 51A. Act 28/1996 (GG 1475) inserts section 21A, which suspends the granting of gambling house licences until a date fixed by notice in the Government Gazette.

Application of law: The application of this law is affected by the Financial Intelligence Act 13 of 2012 (GG 5096), which places certain duties on casinos and gambling houses and on the Casino Board.

Related laws: See Gambling Act 51 of 1965 (GAMBLING) and Licensing of Totalisators Ordinance 5 of 1938 (GAMBLING).

Summary: This Act (GG 2885) establishes a Lotteries Board for the promotion and conduct of the National Lottery, and provides for the administration of the National Lottery Trust Fund and the Social Upliftment Fund. The National Lottery is to be conducted for the benefit of social welfare, sport and cultural activities and for the social upliftment of the Namibian people. The Act will be brought into force on a date set by the Minister by notice in the Government Gazette.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 36 of the Act, but none have yet been promulgated.

Related laws: See Gambling Act 51 of 1965 (GAMBLING).

Summary: This Act (GG 6500) establishes a Lotteries Board for the promotion and conduct of the National Lottery, and provides for the administration of the National Lottery and sports pool by this Board. It also provides for and regulates other lotteries and promotional competitions. Proceeds from the State Lottery are paid into a State Lottery Trust Fund, which is to be used for funding –
• charitable expenditures;
• arts, culture, sport, national heritage and conservation;
• youth empowerment, psycho-social disorders, science and innovation; and
• national emergencies such as droughts and floods.

This Act repeals the Lotteries Act 15 of 2002 (GG 2885), which was never brought into force. This Act will be brought into force on a date set by the Minister by notice in the Government Gazette.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 85 of the Act, but none have yet been promulgated.

Related laws: See Gambling Act 51 of 1965 (GAMBLING).

HEALTH

Venereal Diseases Prevention Proclamation 5 of 1919.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 24) authorised military magistrates to order persons infected with venereal disease to obtain medical treatment. It is still technically in force.

Public Health Act 36 of 1919, as amended by SWA Proclamation 36 of 1920.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 979) makes provision for the prevention and control of infectious diseases, venereal diseases and epidemics. It also regulates sanitation, food and public water supplies. It will be repealed by the Public and Environmental Health Act 1 of 2015 when that Act comes into force.

Applicability to SWA: The Act was made applicable to South West Africa by the SWA Public Health Proclamation 36 of 1920 (OG 37) which also amended the Act as it applied to SWA. This Proclamation did not make future amendments to the Act in South Africa automatically applicable to SWA, and none of the subsequent amending acts were made expressly so applicable. The Health Act 21 of 1988 (OG 5651) extended the application of the Act to all parts of SWA.

Transfer of administration to SWA: Section 159 defines “Minister” as “the Minister holding the portfolio of Health”. Therefore the administration of this Act was probably transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Health) Transfer Proclamation (AG 14/1977), dated 1 December 1977.

The Act was replaced in South Africa by the Health Act 63 of 1977 (RSA GG 5558). The relevant section of this repealing act came into force on 1 September 1977 (RSA Proc. R 175/1977, RSA GG 5716), prior to the probable date of transfer. However, this Act was not made expressly applicable to SWA and would not have applied automatically.

Amendments: SWA Proclamation 36 of 1920 (OG 37) amends the Act as it applies to SWA. (Proc. 28/1923 (OG 118) makes SWA Proclamation 36 of 1920 applicable to the Rehoboth Gebiet.)

Ord. 7/1932 (OG 476) amends section 36 of the Act.

Proc. 16/1936 (OG 676) amends section 71.

Proc. 20/1938 (OG 761) amends section 86 and inserts sections 26bis and 34bis.

Ord. 50/1957 (OG 2094) amends section 50 and section 51.

Ord. 35/1958 (OG 2153) amends sections 5, 115, and 159, and inserts sections 8, 8bis, 8ter, 17bis, 91bis, 92bis, 96bis and 124bis.

Ord. 10/1964 (OG 2565) amends section 16.

Ord. 2/1971 (OG 3147) amends section 130.
Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Ordinance for Prevention and Combating of Alcoholism and Anti-Social Conduct 11 of 1965.

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 2614) provides for the certification of institutions for the treatment of persons addicted to drink, drugs, gambling, etc. and the detention of such persons for treatment. It was brought into force on 1 September 1965 by Proc. 78/1965 (OG 2674).

Amendments: Section 63(1) of the Abuse of Dependence-Producing Substances and Rehabilitation Centres Act 41 of 1971 states:

Subject to the provisions of subsections (2) and (3), the Retreats and Rehabilitation Centres Act, 1963 (Act No. 86 of 1963), is, except in so far as it is necessary for the administration thereof by the Minister of Coloured Affairs in terms of Proclamation No. 57 of 1964, and the Ordinance for the Prevention and Combating of Alcoholism and Anti-social Conduct, 1965 (Ordinance No. 11 of 1965), of the territory, hereby repealed.

Although the wording may seem at first glance to be somewhat ambiguous, this provision is understood to mean that Act 86 of 1963 is repealed – except insofar as that Act is relevant to the administration of the other two laws cited (Proc. 57 of 1964 and Ord. 11 of 1965). This interpretation is supported by the use of the verb “is….repealed” – which indicates that the provision refers to only a single repealed law – and by the placement of commas in the provision. Thus, it appears that Act 41 of 1973 does not repeal this Ordinance as has been assumed in some sources.

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

International Health Regulations Act 28 of 1974, as amended to December 1977.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 4219) applies the International Health Regulations adopted by the World Health Assembly in 1969 to South Africa.

On 25 May 1951 WHO Member States adopted the International Sanitary Regulations – World Health Organisation Regulations No. 2, which entered into force internationally on 01 October 1952 (Source: UNTC). In accordance with Article 106 – 110 of the ISR the Regulations entered into force in the Union of South Africa (including the territory of South West Africa) upon acceptance on the same date 01 October 1952 (Source: UNTC).

The International Sanitary Regulations were replaced by and renamed the International Health Regulations in 1969. The 1969 Regulations were subject to minor modifications in 1973 and 1981.

The International Health Regulations were replaced in turn by the International Health Regulations, 2005, which entered into force internationally on 15 June 2007 (source: WHO). Namibia is bound by these 2005 Regulations from that date in accordance with Articles 21(a) and 22 of the WHO Constitution.

According to Article 58 of these regulations, headed “International sanitary agreements and regulations”, the 2005 Regulations replace inter alia the International

However, this South African statute, which is still in force in Namibia, incorporates the earlier 1969 version of the International Health Regulations directly into Namibian domestic law.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Republic” to include “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 5 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Health) Transfer Proclamation (AG 14/1977), dated 1 December 1977. There was only one amendment to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Transfer of Powers and Duties of the State President Act 97 of 1986 (RSA GG 10438) – which was not made expressly applicable to SWA.

Amendments: The regulations in this law are amended by RSA Proc. R.139/1975 (RSA GG 4741).

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched.

Supplementary regulations are contained in RSA GN R.2001/1975 (RSA GG 4878), and amended by RSA GN R.2069/1978 (RSA GG 6188) and RSA GN R.790/1980 (RSA GG 6954). The 1975 and 1980 Notices specifically mention that they are being effected with the consent of the Administrator-General for the Territory of South-West Africa and that they also apply in the Territory.

Notices: Designations of approved ports and airports are contained in RSA Proc 241/1975 (RSA GG 4877).

Foodstuffs, Cosmetics and Disinfectants Ordinance 18 of 1979.

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 4011) controls the sale, manufacture and import of foodstuffs, cosmetics and disinfectants. It repeals the Food, Drugs and Disinfectants Ordinance 36 of 1952.

Amendments: This Ordinance originally authorised local authorities to enforce it locally. It was extended to all of SWA by the Health Act 21 of 1988 (OG 5651).

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched. Regulations relating to the standards of food, drugs and disinfectants are contained in GN 195/1968 (OG 2949); they were amended after independence by GN 123/1994 (GG 883). These regulations were originally made in terms of sections 13 and 42 of the Food, Drugs and Disinfectants Ordinance 36 of 1952, and survive pursuant to section 28(2) of this Ordinance.

Notices: Standards regarding salt and iodised salt are amended in GN 124/1994 (GG 883).
Related laws: See GN 179/2008 (GG 4088) for exemptions from the application of section 29 of the Medicines and Related Substances Control Act 13 of 2003 (GG 3051) to certain substances approved under this Act.

Public and Environmental Health Act 1 of 2015.

Summary: This Act (GG 5740) provides a framework for a structured uniform public and environmental health system in Namibia. It covers notification, prevention and control of diseases and sexually-transmitted infections; maternal, ante-natal and neo-natal care; water and food supplies; infant nutrition; waste management; health nuisances; public and environmental health planning and reporting. It repeals the Public Health Act 36 of 1919 (SA GG 979), the SWA Public Health Proclamation 36 of 1920 (OG 37) (which made the Public Health Act 36 of 1919 applicable to South West Africa as well as amending it) and some of its other amendments. The Act does not amend any other laws, but section 91 states: “If any other law is in conflict or inconsistent with this Act, this Act prevails.” The Act will be brought into force on a date set by the Minister by notice in the Government Gazette.

Regarding the Public Health Act 36 of 1919, the amending Acts repealed are Ord. 50/1957 (OG 2094), Ord. 35/1958 (OG 2153), and Ord. 2/1971 (OG 3147). The amendments made by Ord. 7/1932 (OG 476), Proc. 16/1936 (OG 676), Proc. 20/1938 (OG 761) and Ord. 10/1964 (OG 2565) are not repealed.

Savings: Section 94 provides that anything done under a law repealed by this Act which could have been done under a corresponding provision of this Act will be deemed to have been done under this Act.

Regulations: The savings clause could include regulations, as regulations on a variety of topics are authorised by this Act. However, pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Notices: Pre-independence notices which could survive in terms of the savings clause have not been researched.

HEALTH PROFESSIONS

Summary: This Act (GG 762) establishes a nursing association for Namibia and defines its powers. It repeals the Nursing Association of South West Africa Act 14 of 1979 (OG 4035).

Regulations: Pursuant to section 13(2) of this Act, any regulations or rules made under the repealed Act survive if they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Council for Health and Social Services Professions Repeal Act 3 of 2004.

Summary: This Act (GG 3241) repeals the Council for Health and Social Services Professions Act 29 of 1993 (GG 763), and provides for the transfer of moneys standing to that Council’s credit. It was brought into force on 10 January 2005 by GN 6/2005 (GG 3369).

Summary: This Act (GG 3246) provides for the establishment and constitution of a professional council for social workers and psychologists. It also regulates the social work and psychology professions. It repeals the Allied Health Services Professions Act 20 of 1993 (GG 710) insofar as it relates to these professions and the whole of the Social and Social Auxiliary Workers Professions Act 22 of 1993 (GG 712). It was brought into force on 1 October 2004 by GN 211/2004 (GG 3291).

Savings: In terms of section 62(2), any regulation, rule, notice, authorization or order made under any one of the pieces of legislation repealed by this Act remains in force insofar as it is not inconsistent with this Act. The Social Auxiliary Workers Professions Act 22 of 1993 repealed by this Act contained a savings clause in section 52 which stated: “Any notice, regulation, rule, authorization, order or approval issued, made or granted or any appointment or any other thing done in terms of a provision of the National Welfare Act, 1965, prior to the amendment of that Act by the National Welfare Amendment Act, 1993, and which may or is required to be issued, made, granted or done under this Act, shall be deemed to have been issued, made, granted or done under the corresponding or allied provision of this Act.”

Regulations and rules: Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. Post-independence regulations and rules made under the repealed laws which were not explicitly repealed include the following –

- Rules relating to acts or omissions constituting improper conduct or misconduct in respect of which the Clinical Psychology Board may conduct inquiries and take disciplinary steps, contained in GN 219/2001 (GG 2637).
Qualifications for registration with the Clinical Psychology Board, contained in GN 36/2002 (GG 2704).

GN 142/2006 (GG 3691) is concerned with regulations relating to the first election of the members of the Social Work and Psychology Council of Namibia.

Regulations relating to the election of members to the Social and Social Auxiliary Workers’ Board are contained in GN 229/1999 (GG 2214). (As explained below, it appears that GN 142/2006 intended to withdraw this notice.)

However, section 4(1) of this Act states: “The Council is for all purposes the successor to the former Social and Social Auxiliary Workers’ Board and the former Clinical Psychology Board.” This presumably makes the regulations in question inconsistent with the current Act.

Regulations issued under the current Act are as follows:

Social workers: Regulations on additional examinations that may be conducted in respect of social workers and social auxiliary workers are contained in GN 230/2010 (GG 4581). Regulations on the scope of practice of social workers, social auxiliary workers and students are contained in GN 14/2011 (GG 4656). Regulations relating to the minimum requirements for registration as a social worker are contained in GN 118/2016 (GG 6030), which replaces GN 34/2007 (GG 3795). Regulations relating to the registration of social workers, specialities and additional qualifications, the maintaining of registers of social workers and the restoration of a name to a register are contained in GN 119/2016 (GG 6030).

Social auxiliary workers: Regulations relating to the minimum requirements for registration as a social auxiliary worker are contained in GN 133/2018 (GG 6644).

Appeals: Regulations relating to appeals and the conducting of appeals by the Appeal Committee of the Council are contained in GN 66/2009 (GG 4245).

Impaired persons: Regulations relating to Impaired Registered Persons are contained in GN 301/2013 (GG 5340).
General: Regulations relating to the registration of students of social work and psychology are contained in GN 32/2009 (GG 4218).

Regulations concerning allowances payable to members of the Council are contained in GN 294/2015 (GG 5899), which withdraws GN 151/2008 (GG 4068).

Regulations relating to continuing professional development are contained in GN 91/2010 (GG 4482).

Regulations on the maximum fine that may be imposed by the Council or the Professional Conduct Committee are contained in GN 19/2018 (GG 5559), which repeals GN 157/2014 (GG 6527).

Note that GG 6527 was initially numbered incorrectly as GG 6528. A corrected version was subsequently issued.

Regulations relating to the investigation of alleged unprofessional conduct by registered persons and professional conduct inquiries are contained in GN 138/2015 (GG 5778).

Fees: Fees payable to the Council are contained in General Notice 498/2017 (GG 6489), which repeals General Notice 353/2013 (GG 5281), which in turn withdraws both General Notice 68/2007 (GG 3804) and General Notice 310/2010 (GG 4600).

Appointments and elections: Regulations relating to the first election of members to the Social Work and Psychology Council are contained in GN 142/2006 (GG 3691).

GN 26/2007 (GG 3759) states in the heading that it contains “regulations”, but it is in fact an invitation for nominations for social workers and psychologists eligible as candidates for election.

GN 142/2006 (GG 3691) and GN 26/2007 (GG 3759), which pertain to the first election of the Social Work and Psychology Council, both withdraw “Government Notices Nos. 215 and 229 of 20 October 2004”. However, there were no Government Notices with these numbers gazetted on that date.

GN 215/2004 (GG 3291) was gazetted on 1 October 2004 and is concerned with the commencement of the Medical and Dental Act 2004. GN 229/2004 (GG 3302) was gazetted on 21 October 2004 and is concerned with the final deregistration of companies. It is unlikely that the regulations intended to withdraw either of these provisions.

It is possible that GN 215/1999 (GG 2214) was intended for repeal, instead of GN 215/2004 (GG 3291). This is because GN 215/1999 is concerned with regulations relating to the election of members to the Clinical Psychology Board under the Allied Health Services Professions Act 1993. This is relevant to the subject matter of GN 142/2006 (GG 3691) and GN 27/2007 (GG 3795). For the same reason it is likely that GN 229/1999 (GG 2214) was intended for repeal, since it is concerned with regulations relating to the election of members to the Social and Social Auxiliary Workers’ Board under the Social and Social Auxiliary Workers’ Professions Act 1993.

However, since there are no government notices which match both the indicated numbers and dates given, the withdrawals are presumably legally ineffective.

The first Social Work and Psychology Council is announced in GN 62/2008 (GG 4008), replacing the Interim Council established by GN 217/2004 (GG 3293). The terms of office of certain Council members were extended by GN 223/2012 (GG 5023),
GN 68/2013 (GG 5060), GN 255/2013 (GG 5303), GN 31/2014 (GG 5425), GN 150/2014 (GG 5559), GN 193/2015 (GG 5818) and GN 220/2016 (GG 6125). The terms of office of certain members was extended by GN 59/2017 (GG 6263).

Subsequent to amendments to the Act to provide for the appointment of Council members, appointments are announced in GN 298/2018 (GG 6770).

Allied Health Professions Act 7 of 2004.

Summary: This Act (GG 3247) provides for the establishment of a professional council for allied health service professions. It also defines and provides for the registration, training and qualifications of members of such professions, and prohibits unregistered persons from practising such professions. This Act repeals all remaining portions of the Allied Health Services Professions Act 20 of 1993 (GG 710) which repealed the Chiropractors Act 6 of 1971 and the Homeopaths, Naturopaths, Osteopaths and Herbalists Act 52 of 1974. This Act was brought into force on 1 October 2004 by GN 212/2004 (GG 3291).

Amendments: Act 8/2018 (GG 6701) amends the Act to make provision for the appointment of members of the Allied Health Professions Council.

Application of law: The Act has been made applicable to the following professions:
- orthopaedic technologists and orthopaedic technicians – GN 157/2005 (GG 3535)
- several health professions – GN 100/2006 (GG 3661)
  - Medical Technologists (Blood Transfusion Technology); Medical Technologists (Chemical Pathology); Medical Technologists (Clinical Pathology); Medical Technologists (Cytogenetics); Medical Technologists (Cytotechnology); Medical Technologists (Forensic Pathology); Medical Technologists (Haematology); Medical Technologists (Histopathological Technique); Medical Technologists (Immunology); Medical Technologists (Microbiology); Medical Technologists (Pharmacology); Medical Technologists (Virology); Blood Transfusion Technicians; Chemical Pathology Technicians; Haematology Technicians; Histopathology Technicians; Microbiology Technicians; Cytotechnicians; Clinical Pathology Technicians
- medical orthotists and prosthetists – GN 2/2007 (GG 3771)
- ultrasound radiography and nuclear medicine radiography – GN 147/2009 (GG 4302)
- emergency care technicians – GN 12/2010 (GG 4419)
- art therapy, music therapy, dance movement therapy and drama therapy – GN 254/2012 (GG 5060)
- medical laboratory scientists – GN 87/2013 (GG 5173)
- traditional Chinese medicine practitioners – GN 101/2013 (GG 5183)
- acupuncturists – GN 102/2013 (GG 5183)
- dental technologists – GN 103/2013 (GG 5183)
- sonographers and sonography technicians – GN 124/2014 (GG 5533)
- phlebotomy technicians – GN 117/2015 (GG 5760)
- Unani Tibb Practitioner – GN 209/2015 (GG 5831)
- Combat Medic – GN 279/2015 (GG 5892)
Savings: In terms of section 62(2), any regulation, rule, notice, authorization or order made under the legislation repealed by the Act remains in force insofar as it is not inconsistent with the Act. The Allied Health Services Professions Act 20 of 1993 contained a similar savings clause in section 50(2) which refers to any notice, regulation, rule, authorization or order under the legislation repealed by that Act, or under the Medical, Dental and Supplementary Health Service Professions Act 56 of 1974 or the Health Service Professions Proclamation AG. 70 of 1989, which could have been done in terms of the 1993 Act.

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. Post-independence regulations and notices made under previous laws which may be of continued relevance include the following:

Homeopaths: Fees which registered homeopaths may charge for their services are contained in GN 55/1998 (GG 1817), General Notice 43/2001 (GG 2489), General Notice 93/2003 (GG 2985) and General Notice 82/2004 (GG 3189).

Physiotherapists: Fees which registered physiotherapists may charge for their services are contained in GN 57/1998 (GG 1819), which replaces GN 41/1997 (GG 1507), and General Notice 44/2001 (GG 2489).

Traditional healers: Regulations were made under the Allied Health Services Professions Act 20 of 1993 on election to the Traditional Healers Board, in GN 230/1999 (GG 2214). These regulations are not inconsistent with the current Act as traditional healers do not fall under the Sallied Health Professions Council. However, they appear to be obsolete as that Board is no longer in existence.

Other allied health professions: Other regulations made under previous laws relating to various individual boards were as follows:

- GN 217/1999 (GG 2214) – Dental Technology Board
- GN 218/1999 (GG 2214) – Health Inspectors Board
- GN 219/1999 (GG 2214) – Homoeopathic Board
- GN 222/1999 (GG 2214) – Medical Technology Board
- GN 224/1999 (GG 2214) – Occupational Therapy Board
- GN 225/1999 (GG 2214) – Optometric Board
- GN 227/1999 (GG 2214) – Radiography Board
- GN 185/2000 (GG 2385) – Optometric Board
- GN 72/2003 (GG 2946) – Joint Complimentary Health Professions Board

However, section 4(1) of Act 7 of 2004 states:

“The Council is for all purposes the successor of the former Dental Technology Board, the former Health Inspectors Board, the former Homoeopathic Board, the former Medical Technology Board, the former Occupational Therapy Board, the former Optometry Board, the former Physiotherapy Board, the former Radiography Board, the former Joint Allied Health Professions Board, and the former Joint Complimentary Health Professions Board.”

This statement presumably makes the regulations relating to the former boards inconsistent with the new Act, meaning that they fail to survive on that basis.

Regulations made under the current Act are as follows:

Acupuncturists: Minimum requirements of study for registration are contained in GN 324/2013 (GG 5360). Regulations relating to the registration of these professionals are contained in GN 325/2013 (GG 5360).

Arts therapists: Regulations on minimum requirements of study for registration, registration and scope of practice are contained in GN 92/2017 (GG 6287).

Biokineticists: Minimum requirements for registration as a biokineticist are contained in GN 105/2007 (GG 3853), and other regulations relating to biokineticists are contained in GN 106/2007 (GG 3853). Regulations relating to the scope of practice of biokineticists are contained in GN 45/2010 (GG 4443).

Chiropractors: Regulations relating to the minimum requirements of study for registration as a chiropractor are contained in GN 121/2010 (GG 4502). Regulations relating to additional examinations that may be conducted by the Council in respect of chiropractors are contained in GN 120/2010 (GG 4502). Additional regulations pertaining to chiropractors are contained in GN 123/2010 (GG 4502). Regulations on the scope of practice of chiropractors are contained in GN 229/2010 (GG 4581).

Clinical technologists: Regulations relating to the minimum requirements of study for registration as a clinical technologist are contained in GN 274/2010 (GG 4633). Regulations on registration and additional qualifications are contained in GN 275/2010 (GG 4633).

Combat medics: Regulations relating to minimum requirements of study and registration as a combat medic are contained in GN 36/2017 (GG 6249).

Dental technicians: Regulations relating to the minimum requirements of study for registration as a dental technician are contained in GN 30/2017 (GG 6249), which repeals GN 18/2010 (GG 4426). Regulations relating to examinations that may be conducted by the Council in respect of dental technicians are contained in GN 19/2010 (GG 4426). Regulations relating to the registration of dental technicians are contained in GN 20/2010 (GG 4426).

Dental technologist: Regulations relating to the minimum requirements of study for registration as a dental technologist are contained in GN 31/2017 (GG 6249).

The reference in GN 31/2007 to “regulation No. 224 of 7 November 2005” must be wrong. There was no Government Gazette published on that date. GN 224/2005 (GG 3498) was published on 15 September 2005 and is concerned with charges and fees regarding the control of outdoor advertising in Walvis Bay. The regulations published in GN 49/1997 do not contain a regulation numbered 224. It is therefore unclear which regulation was intended to be withdrawn.

Medical and Dental Act 10 of 2004.

Summary: This Act (GG 3251) provides for the establishment of a professional council for the medical and dental professions. It also defines and provides for the registration, training and qualifications of members of these professions, and prohibits unregistered persons from practising such professions. This Act was brought into force on 1 October 2004 by GN 215/2004 (GG 3291).

This Act repeals the Medical and Dental Professions Act 21 of 1993 (GG 711), and the Allied Health Services Professions Act 20 of 1993 (GG 710) insofar as it relates to the professions regulated by this Act.

The Medical and Dental Professions Act 21 of 1993 repealed the Medical, Dental and Supplementary Health Service Professions Act 56 of 1974 and the Health Service Professions Proclamation, AG 70 of 1989.

The Medical, Dental and Supplementary Health Service Professions Act 56 of 1974 (RSA GG 4445), which applied to SWA and which was brought into force by RSA Proc. R.52/1975 (RSA GG 4594), repealed the Medical, Dental and Pharmacy Act 13 of 1928 (and its amending acts) with the exception of sections 83 and 83bis. Sections 83 and 83bis of that Act were repealed in South Africa by the Health Act 63 of 1977 (RSA GG 5558). The relevant section of this repealing act came into force on 1 September 1977 (RSA Proc. R.175/1977, RSA GG 5716), prior to the relevant date of transfer. Therefore, Act 63 of 1977 (although not made generally applicable to SWA) would appear to have repealed the remaining sections of Act 13 of 1928 in SWA by virtue of the wording of section 99 of Act 13 of 1928, which provided that the “mandated territory of South West Africa” was to be deemed to be a province of South Africa for all purposes of the Act (except for the purposes of (b) paragraph (b) of the proviso section 2(4), which concerned representation on the council established by the Act). The transfer date in respect of health-related laws was 1 December 1977, meaning that repeals of regulations in SA prior to that date applied to SWA.

GN 215/2004, which brought the Act into force, was arguably withdrawn by GN 142/2006 (GG 3691) and again by GN 26/2007 (GG 3795). However this appears to be an error.

GN 142/2006 (GG 3691) and GN 26/2007 (GG 3795), both of which pertain to the first election of the Social Work and Psychology Council, withdraw “Government Notices Nos. 215 and 229 of 20 October 2004”. However, there were no Government Notices with these numbers gazetted on that date. GN 215/2004, which deals with the commencement of this Act, was gazetted on 1 October 2004 (GG 3291), and GN 229/2004, which deals with final deregistration of companies, was gazetted on 21 October 2004. It is unlikely that the regulations intended to withdraw either of these notices.

It is possible that GN 215/1999 (GG 2214) was intended for withdrawal, instead of GN 215/2004. This is because GN 215/1999 is concerned with regulations relating to the election of members to the Clinical Psychology Board under the Allied Health Services Professions Act 20 of 1993 (now repealed). This is relevant to the subject matter of GN 142/2006 (GG 3691) and GN 27/2007 (GG 3795). For the same reason it is likely that GN 229/1999 (GG 2214), instead of GN 229/2004, was intended for repeal, since it is concerned with regulations relating to the election of members to the Social and Social Auxiliary Workers’ Board under the Social and Social Auxiliary Workers’ Professions Act 22 of 1993.

Since there are no government notices which match both the indicated numbers and dates given, the withdrawal is presumably legally ineffective.

Amendments: Act 9/2018 (GG 6702) amends the Act to make provision for the appointment of members of the Medical and Dental Council.

Savings: Section 65(2) of this Act states:
Unless otherwise provided in this Act, any notice, regulation, rule, authorisation or order issued, made or granted, or any removal from the register or appointment made, or any other act done, or regarded to have been so issued, made, granted or done in terms of a provision of any of the laws repealed by subsection (1), must be regarded as having been issued, made, granted or done in terms of the corresponding provision of this Act, and continues to have force and effect -

(a) unless it is inconsistent with this Act; or
(b) until such time as it is set aside or repealed.

Prior to the enactment of this law, fees payable to the Council were contained in GN 223/2003 (GG 3086); annual fees were determined in terms of those regulations in GN 230/2003 (GG 3092). The regulations on fees in GN 223/2003 were withdrawn by General Notice 8/2007 (GG 3771), which was amended by General Notice 307/2010 (GG 4600). Both of these General Notices were withdrawn and replaced by General Notice 285/2013 (GG 5252).

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

State Hospitals Ordinance 17 of 1966.

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 2727) has no ongoing force and effect. The only provisions which remain in force (sections 10, 11, 12, 16, 17 and 18) relate to transitional matters. This Ordinance repealed the State Hospitals Ordinance 49 of 1957.

Hospitals and Health Facilities Act 36 of 1994.

Summary: This Act (GG 996) consolidates and amends the laws relating to state and private hospitals and health facilities (which are broadly defined to include clinics, pharmacies, laboratories etc). It repeals the Hospitals Ordinance 14 of 1972 (OG 3265) and was brought into force on 15 February 1995 by GN 25/1995 (GG 1028). Most of this Act is repealed by the National Health Act 2 of 2015 (GG 5742), which is not yet in force. Once it does come into force, the only remaining provisions of this Act will be:

- section 1 (definitions)
- Part VI (private hospitals)
- Part VII (private health facilities)
- section 33(1)(c)-(d)
- section 38(1)(b), (k) and (l)
- section 39(2)(b).

Amendments: Act 1/1998 (GG 1804) amends sections 1, 2, 4, 5, 18, 19, 23, 24, 27, 31, 38 and 39 of the Act. Portions of this amending Act — sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 11, 12 and 13 — are repealed by the National Health Act 2 of 2015 (GG 5742), which is not yet in force.

Regulations made under the State Hospitals Ordinance 17 of 1966, which (with the exception of the transitional provisions) was repealed by the Hospitals Ordinance 14 of 1972 (OG 3265), survived in terms of section 43(3) of that Ordinance.

Regulations under the Hospitals Ordinance 14 of 1972, which was repealed by this Act survive in terms of section 39(2)(c) of this Act.

However, the pre-independence regulations have not been researched. The following regulations were made in terms of this Act –

Regulations concerning the classification of hospitals and health facilities are contained in GN 184/2001 (GG 2609).

Cases:

Lisse v The Minister of Health and Social Services 2004 NR 107 (HC), Minister of Health and Social Services v Lisse 2006 (2) NR 739 (SC)

Kaulinge v Minister of Health and Social Services 2006 (1) NR 377 (HC).

National Health Act 2 of 2015.

Summary: This Act (GG 5742) consolidates the laws relating to state hospitals and state health services and regulates the conduct of such hospitals and services. It provides for state hospital committees by the health practitioners and staff at the hospital in question. It covers access to treatment and fees, and establishes a Special Fund for Treatment of State Patients to provide financial assistance for such special treatment. It also establishes regional and district health boards and offices, and provides for the authorisation of research at state hospital and grants for such research. The Act repeals most of the Hospitals and Health Facilities Act 36 of 1994 (GG 996) and most of its sole amending Act 1/1998 (GG 1804). (The Hospitals and Health Facilities Act 36 of 1994 replaced the Hospitals Ordinance 14 of 1972 (OG 3265).) Section 67(2)(b) of the Act provides a savings provision for actions taken under the repealed laws. The Act will be brought into force on a date set by the Minister by notice in the Government Gazette.

INTERNATIONAL LAW

Note: The topic of human rights is a very broad one. The international treaties listed here are core human rights documents which cover a range of issues. International treaties covering more specific topics have been listed under those topics.

UNITED NATIONS

The United Nations (UN) was established on 24 October 1945. Today, nearly every nation in the world belongs to the UN. The Republic of Namibia joined the UN on 23 April 1990. Admission to the UN includes the acceptance of the Charter of the United Nations, which sets out basic principles of international relations. According to the Charter, the UN has four purposes: (1) to maintain international peace and security; (2) to develop friendly relations among nations; (3) to cooperate in solving international problems and in promoting respect for human rights for all “without distinction as to race, sex, language, or religion”; and (4) to be a centre for harmonizing the actions of nations.

All UN Member States are represented in the General Assembly. Each Member State has one vote. Decisions on “important matters,” such as international peace and security, admitting new members, the UN budget and the budget for peacekeeping, are decided by two-thirds majority. Other matters are decided by simple majority. There is usually an effort to reach decisions through consensus, rather than by taking a formal vote.

Primary responsibility for maintaining international peace and security rests with the Security Council. Under the Charter, all Member States are obligated to carry out the Security Council’s decisions. The Security Council has 15 members. Five of these – China, France, the Russian Federation, the United Kingdom and the United States – are permanent members. The other 10 are elected by the General Assembly for two-year terms. Decisions of the Security Council require nine votes.

According to Art 93 of the Charter of the United Nations, all members of the UN are automatically parties to the Statute of the International Court of Justice annexed to the Charter of the United Nations. The International Court of Justice is the main judicial organ of the UN. It consists of 15 judges elected by the UN General Assembly and the UN Security Council. The Court decides disputes between countries. Participation by States in a court proceeding is voluntary, but if a State agrees to participate, it is obliged to comply with the Court’s decision. The Court also provides advisory opinions to the General Assembly and the Security Council upon request.

The UN General Assembly adopted the Universal Declaration of Human Rights on 10 December 1948. This document has been referred to as an “international bill of rights”. Although it is not a binding international treaty, many commentators have argued that provisions of this document have become part of customary international law which is binding on all states. Some of the provisions of the Namibian Constitution are modelled on language in the Universal Declaration. At the 1993 Vienna Conference on Human Rights, representatives of 171 nations, including Namibia, affirmed by consensus their “commitment to the purposes and principles contained in the Charter of the United Nations and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights”.

Namibia has ratified several of the core international human rights treaties developed under the auspices of the UN, as reflected in the list below.

Export Credit and Foreign Investments Re-insurance Act 78 of 1957, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 5908, also published in OG 2100) provides for state re-insurance of insurance contracts relating to exports in order to promote foreign trade.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Republic” to include “the Territory”, which is defined as “the Territory of South West Africa and includes for all purposes the portion of the Territory known as the ‘Rehoboth Gebiet’ and defined in the First Schedule to Proclamation No. 28 of 1923”. Section 12 originally stated “This Act shall apply also in the Territory.” Section 12 (as amended by Act 88 of 1962) states “This Act and any amendment thereof, whenever enacted, shall apply also in the Territory.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The relevant Transfer Proclamation is the Executive Powers (Commerce) Transfer Proclamation (AG 28/1978), dated 28 April 1978. However, section 3(1)(d) of the transfer proclamation excluded this Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that the administration of the Act was not transferred to SWA. Thus, amendments to the Act in South Africa continued to apply to South West Africa by virtue of the wording of section 12.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –
- Export Credit Re-insurance Amendment Act 66 of 1961 (RSA GG 31)
- Export Credit Re-insurance Amendment Act 88 of 1962 (RSA GG 284)
- Export Credit Re-insurance Amendment Act 75 of 1971 (RSA GG 3186)
- Export Credit Re-insurance Amendment Act 81 of 1981 (RSA GG 7841)
- Transfer of Powers and Duties of the State President Act 97 of 1986 (RSA GG 10438)
- Export Credit and Foreign Investments Re-insurance Amendment Act 27 of 1988 (RSA GG 11217).

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 11 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Notices: RSA Proc. 84/1989 (RSA GG 11919) concerns the application of the Act to transactions between persons in the Republic of South Africa and UNTAG.

Importation of Cement Ordinance 24 of 1963.

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 2493) authorises the government to prohibit or regulate the import of cement, cemetitious material or slag by notice in the Government Gazette. No such notices have been located.

Summary: This Act (GG 980) provides for import and export control. It repeals the Import and Export Control Act 45 of 1963.
Regulations: Section 6(2) of this Act states: “Anything done, or deemed to have been done, under the provisions of the said Act, shall be deemed to have been done under the corresponding provisions of this Act.” However, since this Act makes no provision for regulations, any regulations made under the repealed Act could not survive.

Notices: Import and export issues are addressed in AG GN 6/1981 (export permits), AG GN 7/1981 and GN 33/1987 (import permits), all of which appear to survive under the new legislation.

The export of returnable bottles is prohibited by GN 176/1992 (GG 536), which was issued under the previous legislation.

The import of certain ozone depleting substances is prohibited by GN 281/2010 (GG 4636), which withdraws GN 80/2004 (GG 3193).

The import of certain motor vehicles is prohibited by GN 257/2004 (GG 3334), as amended by GN 252/2013 (GG 5293), and by GN 253/2013 (GG 5293).

The import of certain poultry products is restricted by GN 81/2013 (GG 5167), as amended by GN 321/2013 (GG 5351) (which is amended by GN 79/2015 (GG 5738)).

Prohibitions pertaining to the export of sheep and goat skins are contained in GN 244/2013 (GG 5285).

Prohibitions pertaining to the import of certain dairy products are contained in GN 245/2013 (GG 5285). However, this Government Notice was set aside by Matador Enterprises (Pty) Ltd v Minister of Trade and Industry & Others 2015 (2) NR 477 (HC).

Cases:

Matador Enterprises (Pty) Ltd v Minister of Trade and Industry & Others 2015 (2) NR 477 (HC) (decision-making process under sections 2 and 3, and relationship to Control of the Importation and Exportation of Dairy Products and Dairy Product Substitutes Act 5 of 1986)

South African Poultry Association & Others v Ministry of Trade & Industry & Others 2015 (1) NR 260 (HC) (review application seeking to set aside GN 81/2013 as being ultra vires the Act; this case is an interlocutory judgment dealing with discovery in respect of the underlying matter); the underlying application was dismissed in South African Poultry Association & 5 Others v The Minister of Trade and Industry & 3 Others (A 326/2015) [2016] NAHCMD 199 (8 July 2016) on the basis that an unreasonable time had elapsed before the application had been launched.

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 2194) ratifies a double taxation treaty between South Africa and South West Africa.

Amendments: The Ordinance is amended by Ord. 4/1970 (OG 3060) and Ord. 7/1973 (OG 3329).

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 2362) has been superseded by the Income Tax Act 24 of 1981.

INHERITANCE

Political Ordinance of 1 April 1580, articles 19-29.

Summary: This Ordinance unified the law of intestate succession in the provinces of North Holland and South Holland so that the whole of the Netherlands was governed by the “Skependomserfreg” (Southern Provinces System) principle of per stirpes inheritance. See a translation and summary of this law in English below.

Amendment and interpretation: The Interpretation of 13 May 1594 and Octrooi of 10 January 1661 clarify and amend the 1580 Ordinance.

Applicability to SWA: The Octrooi of 10 January 1661 clarified that both the Ordinance and the 1594 Interpretation applied to the Cape Colony. (The Octrooi applied the Political Ordinance to the “Indies”, which at the time included the Cape Colony.) They were subsequently made applicable to SWA by the SWA Administration of Justice Proclamation 21 of 1919, as interpreted by Tittel v The Master of The High Court 1921 SWA 58.

Cases: Frans v Paschke & Others 2007 (2) NR 520 (HC) (citing the Political Ordinance of 1580, the Interpretation of 13 May 1594 and the Octrooi of 1661, explaining their historical background and the route by which they became applicable to SWA at paragraphs 9-14, and finding the rule that children born outside marriage may not inherit intestate from their fathers to be unconstitutional).

Political Ordinance of 1 April 1580, articles 19-29

Art 19: Regarding inheritances, the States are hereby withdrawing and repealing all written rights, customs and laws applicable in the States and countries of Holland and Friesland concerned with intestate deaths or where a person dies without a last will. These regulations concern all movable and immovable properties. From now on only these new Articles that follow will be applicable.

Art. 20: Firstly, children and other direct descendants ad infinitum succeed by representation or per stirpes.

Art. 21: If both parents of the intestate be alive, they succeed absolutely upon failure of children and descendants of remoter degree.

Art 22: If one or both of the parents be dead, the succession must go absolutely to the intestate’s brothers and sisters and their children and grandchildren per stirpes or by representation.

Art. 23: Half-brothers and half-sisters, their children and grand-children, and other collateral relations who were related to the intestate through one parent only, take with the “half-hand” and according to the degree of consanguinity in which they stood related to him.

Art. 24: Failing all descendants, father, mother, brothers and sisters and their children and grandchildren, the uncles and aunts, and their children, take per stirpes.

Art. 25: But, however, if grandfather and grandmother on the one side be both alive, they succeed, as regards property derived from that side, in preference to the uncles and aunts and their children descended from these grandparents of the intestate; but these grandparents do not oust the intestate’s brothers and sisters as regards such property.

Art 26: In the case of own parents or other ascendants when the bed has been severed and one alone survives, the latter does not participate in the succession.

Art. 27: “The estate of the deceased shall go to his next of kin on the father’s and mother’s side, and be divided into two equal parts, without any distinction being made whether the deceased inherited more from his father than from his mother, or vice versa.” Now, the context clearly shows that this section was intended to apply to the case in which the deceased died without either descendants or parents him surviving. In such a case the general rule is laid down that the succession shall be per lineas, one-half of the estate going to the next of kin on the paternal side, and the other half to the next of kin on the maternal side.

Art. 28: Representation shall not be admitted among collaterals, further than the grandchildren of brothers and sisters, and the children of uncles and aunts, inclusively, and all other collaterals, being the next of kin of the deceased, in equal degrees, shall take per capita, to the exclusion of all who are in a more remote degree of consanguinity, the nearest excluding those more remote.

Art. 29: Children who have received from their parents any money or property given as a marriage gift or for the purpose of benefiting the children in business affair or otherwise in such matters, must collate or bring into the estate of their parents such money or property before sharing the estate with the other successors. the amount to be collated is the value of the donation at the time it was made, if the property had not had a valuation placed upon it; but if such was the case, the valuation must be followed in collating. The property must then be divided into equal parts, one half going to the surviving spouse, and the other half the heirs take: This will also take place in the first, second and third generations. The foregoing rules regarding succession and collation rule when no contrary provisions exist by virtue of a “testament, antenuptial contract, deeds executed before the Orphan Chamber, or any other contracts”.

Interpretation of 13 May 1594

This Interpretation essayed to elucidate the difficult and doubtful points that arose in regard to the terms of the Political Ordinance: Half-brothers and half-sisters must succeed with the half-hand if both of the parents of the intestate predeceased him; that is, the full brothers and sisters or their children or grandchildren by representation must take one-half of the estate, whilst the other half they share equally with the half-brothers and half-sisters, or their children or grandchildren by representation, who are related to the intestate on the one side only. But if that parent alone is dead through whom the half-brothers and half-sisters have their claim upon the intestate, the other parent of the intestate being still living, they, or their children or grandchildren by representation, succeed with a full hand: not otherwise, however. The same applies to the case of other collaterals, in their various degrees, when related to the intestate on the one side only. [Compare, however, the rule stated below, regarding collaterals related through other ascendants.] Further descendants of brothers and sisters, in the fifth and remoter degrees, rank before grandparents and remoter ascendants, as also uncles and aunts, their children and grandchildren, and further descendants, and they succeed per capita, not per stirpes. If, on the one side, only one of the ascendants [as in Art 26, the application hereof to parents is nullified by the Charter of 1661] be alive, neither he, nor any persons, related to the intestate through the deceased spouse alone, will succeed to the intestate. The division of the intestate’s estate per lineas, to the father’s and the mother’s side equally, occurs only when the parents are both dead. And the above rules must govern.

Octrooi of 10 January 1661

In applying the above laws to the Indies, this Charter partially altered Art 26 of the Ordinance: When the marriage of the intestate’s parents has been dissolved, and only one of them is living, he or she will succeed to the intestate along with the brothers and sisters, whether of the full or the half blood, or their children or grandchildren by representation. That is, the surviving parent takes one-half, and the brothers and sisters, or their children or grandchildren by representation, take the other half; but the half relations in order to succeed must be related to the intestate through his deceased parent. If there be neither brothers nor sisters alive, their children or grandchildren by representation will in like manner take one half, the parent taking the other. If there be neither, brothers, sisters, their children nor grandchildren alive, the surviving parent of the intestate will succeed to the estate absolutely, and exclude all collaterals. Land, houses and other immovable property must follow the law and customs of the Provinces, Districts of places where it is situated.
“By virtue of the Administration of Justice Proclamation, 21 of 1919, the Roman-Dutch common law applied in the Province of the Cape of Good Hope became the common law of Namibia. Mr Schickerling correctly points out that the common law on intestate succession was based upon the old Political Ordinance of 1580 and the Interpretation Ordinance of 1594, as modified by the Octrooi of 1661, all passed in the Netherlands and imported to the Cape Colony. The system was based upon consanguinity (blood relationships). The unfairness of intestate succession under the common law upon a spouse was ameliorated in South Africa by the Succession Act, 1934 by conferring rights of intestate succession upon a surviving spouse. Similar legislation was enacted in Namibia some 12 years later when the Intestate Succession Ordinance, 1946 was passed. The Ordinance amended the common law of intestate succession by providing that the surviving spouse of a deceased is declared to be an intestate heir of the deceased’s spouse according to certain rules set out in that ordinance which essentially provide for a surviving spouse to succeed to the extent of a child’s share or a certain amount whichever was the greater. The amount in question was subsequently increased in amendments to the Ordinance in 1963 and again in 1982.”

Administration of Estates (Rehoboth Gebiet) Proclamation 36 of 1!941, repealed but with some continued relevance.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 920) (which was amended by the Administration of Estates Amendment Act 4 of 1981 (Rehoboth) (Official Gazette) previously regulated the administration of estates in Rehoboth. The Estates and Succession Amendment Act 15 of 2005 (GG 3566) repeals the Proclamation, but provides that the rules of intestate succession that applied by virtue of Schedule 2 of the Proclamation before the date of its repeal “continue to be of force in relation to persons to whom the relevant rules would have been applicable had the said Proclamation not been repealed”. Therefore, Schedule 2 of the repealed Act continues to be of relevance. (The repealing Act also provides that the repeal does not affect the validity of a will which would have been valid in terms of the Proclamation had it not been repealed.)

Amendments: The Proclamation was amended by the Administration of Estates Amendment Act 4 of 1981 (Rehoboth) (Official Gazette 37 of Rehoboth, dated 23 December 1983). It was repealed by the Estates and Succession Amendment Act 15 of 2005 (GG 3566), with the caveat described above.

Regulations: The Act made no provision for regulations.

Intestate Succession Ordinance 12 of 1946.

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 1259) sets forth rules for intestate inheritance by surviving spouses and other relatives.

Amendments: The Ordinance is amended by Ord. 6/1963 (OG 2460) and Act 15/1982 (OG 4721), both of which simply substitute the amounts referred to in section 1. (The amounts which are currently applicable are all set at R50 000.)

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.
Cases: Legislative history discussed in Tjingaete v Lakay NO & Others 2015 (2) NR 431 (HC), as well as section 1(2).

Summary: This Act (SA GG 5018) covers the execution of wills.

Applicability to SWA: In the original Act, section 8 stated: “This Act shall apply also in the Territory of South-West Africa.” Section 8 was substituted, with retrospective effect, by the General Law Amendment Act 80 of 1964 (RSA GG 829) to make all amendments to the Act automatically applicable to South West Africa. As substituted, section 8 states: “This Act and any amendment thereof which may be made from time to time shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section three of the South West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951).” Section 1 defines “Court” and “Master” accordingly.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act is transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended. There were no amendments to the Act in South Africa after that date and prior to Namibian independence.

Amendments: The following pre-independence amendments in South Africa were applicable to SWA –

- Wills Amendment Act 48 of 1958 (SA GG 6122) (The wording of section 8 in the original Act did not make amendments to the Act automatically applicable to South West Africa, but this amendment was made expressly applicable to South West Africa by its own terms; see section 2 of the amending Act.)
- General Law Amendment Act 80 of 1964 (RSA GG 829) (amends section 8 of the Act with retrospective effect to make all amendments to the Act automatically applicable to South West Africa)
- Wills Amendment Act 41 of 1965 (RSA GG 1084).

The definitions of “Court” and “Master” are substituted by the Walvis Bay and Offshore Islands Act 1 of 1994 (GG 805).

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Commentary:
Namibia Institute for Democracy, Wills, Testaments and Estates, 2001

General Law Amendment Ordinance 12 of 1956, section 5.

Summary: Section 5 of this Ordinance (OG 2018) deals with the power of the High Court in certain situations where an unborn person will be entitled to an interest in immovable property in terms of a will. (Section 4 of this Ordinance is discussed under ARMS AND AMMUNITION. Sections 6-7 of this Ordinance are discussed under CRIMINAL LAW AND PROCEDURE)

Amendments: This portion of the Ordinance is amended by Ord. 36/1965 (OG 2642).

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 1128) governs the liquidation and distribution of the estates of deceased persons.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1, as amended by Act 54 of 1970, defines “Republic” to include “the territory”, which is defined as “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 108A, inserted by Act 54 of 1970, states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel, but shall, in the territory known as the ‘Rehoboth Gebiet’ and defined in the First Schedule to the agreement referred to in the Schedule to Proclamation No. 28 of 1923, of the territory, not apply to the estate of any person to whom Proclamation No. 36 of 1941, of the territory, applies”. (The Proclamation referred to was the Administration of Estates (Rehoboth Gebiet) Proclamation 36 of 1941 (OG 920), which was repealed by the Estates and Succession Amendment Act 15 of 2005 (GG 3566); Act 15 of 2005 provides that the administration of all estates in future falls under this Act.)

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979. None of the amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer were made expressly applicable to SWA.

Section 3(1)(o) of the Transfer Proclamation as originally enacted excluded sections 2, 88, 91, 92, 93, 97 and 103(1)(b) from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, and excluded all the references to the Republic in the Act from section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that Republic retained the meaning given to it in the definition section of the Act (South Africa and SWA). Section 3(1)(o) of the Transfer Proclamation, as amended by the SWA Administration of Estates Amendment Act 2 of 1987, no longer listed any specific sections, but continued to exclude all the references to the Republic in the Act from section 3(1) of the General Proclamation.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –
- General Law Amendment Act 102 of 1967 (RSA GG 1171)
- Establishment of the Northern Cape Division of the Supreme Court of South Africa Act 15 of 1969 (RSA GG 2315)
- Administration of Estates Amendment Act 54 of 1970 (RSA GG 2827)
- Administration of Estates Amendment Act 79 of 1971 (RSA GG 3196)
- General Law Amendment Act 57 of 1975 (RSA GG 4760)
- Administration of Estates Amendment Act 15 of 1978 (RSA GG 5919)
- Divorce Act 70 of 1979 (RSA GG 6506).

The Married Persons Equality Act 1 of 1996 (GG 1316) repeals section 17, amends section 72 and substitutes section 85.

Act 15/2001 (GG 2672), which was brought into force on 1 July 2002 by GN 107/2002 (GG 2760), amends sections 1, 18, 28, 30, 34, 80, 90, 91, 93, 102 and 103 of the Act.

The Estates and Succession Amendment Act 15 of 2005 (GG 3566) repeals the Administration of Estates (Rehoboth Gebiet) Proclamation 36 of 1941 and portions of section 18 of the Native Administration Proclamation 15 of 1928. It makes this Act applicable to all deceased estates, whether testate or intestate, of persons who died on or after the date of commencement of the amending Act (29 December 2005). Act 15 of 2005 also provides transitional provisions in section 3 in respect of estates already being administered in terms of the repealed laws where the liquidation and distribution was not yet complete; the general rule is that those estates will continue to be administered under the repealed laws, but any person with an interest in an estate has the option to request that the estate be administered in terms of this Act. Act 15 of 2005 also inserts section 4A, which authorises the Minister to assign functions of the Master to magistrates.

The Child Care and Protection Act 3 of 2015 (GG 5744), which is not yet in force, amends section 72.

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched.

Regulations are contained in RSA GN 473/1972 (RSA GG 3425), as amended by the following:
- RSA GN 817/1977 (RSA GG 5542)
- RSA GN 1209/1980 (RSA GG 7068)
- GN 107/1985 (OG 5128)
• GN 56/1993 (GG 645)
• GN 33/1999 (GG 2051).

Regulations determining the amounts set in terms of various sections of the Act are contained in GN 108/2002 (GG 2760).

Section 18 of the Native Administration Proclamation 15 of 1928 (OG 284), as amended by Act 27/1985 (OG 5147): This section previously governed the administration of the estates of “natives” in some parts of Namibia. Section 18(3) and (9) were applied to the area north of the Police Zone with retroactive effect from 1 August 1950 (GN 67 of 1 April 1954). The whole of section 18 and its accompanying regulations were made applicable to the whole of South West Africa with the exception of Ovamboland, Kavango and Caprivi by RSA Proclamation R.192 of 15 February 1974. Thus, sections 18(3) and 18(9) on succession applied in Ovamboland, Kavango and Caprivi (with effect from 1950), while the whole of section 18 on succession applied to the remainder of Namibia (with effect from 1974). The Estates and Succession Amendment Act 15 of 2005 (GG 3566) repeals section 18(1), (2), (9) and (10), but provides that the rules of intestate succession that applied by virtue of those provisions before the date of their repeal “continue to be of force in relation to persons to whom the relevant rules would have been applicable had the said provisions not been repealed”.

Administration of Estates (Rehoboth Gebiet) Proclamation 36 of 1941: This Proclamation (OG 920) (which was amended by the Administration of Estates Amendment Act 4 of 1981 (Rehoboth) (Official Gazette 37 of Rehoboth, dated 23 December 1983) previously regulated the administration of estates in Rehoboth. The Estates and Succession Amendment Act 15 of 2005 (GG 3566) repeals the Proclamation, but provides that the rules of intestate succession that applied by virtue of Schedule 2 of the Proclamation before the date of its repeal “continue to be of force in relation to persons to whom the relevant rules would have been applicable had the said Proclamation not been repealed”. Therefore, Schedule 2 of the repealed Act continues to be of relevance.

Notices: GN 43/2006 (GG 3591), issued in terms of section 4A of the Act, assigns certain powers of the Master of the High Court to magistrates in respect of intestate estates.

INQUESTS

Inquests Act 6 of 1993.

Summary: This Act (GG 688) provides for the holding of inquests in cases of deaths or alleged deaths apparently occurring otherwise than from natural causes. It repeals the South African Inquests Act 58 of 1959. It was brought into force on 1 January 1994 by GN 156/1993 (GG 756).

Note that there are two versions of GG 2327. The correct one states at the top: “This Gazette replaces previous Gazette No. 2327.”

Application of law: Persons who give statements or evidence in inquest proceedings may be eligible for protection under the Witness Protection Act 11 of 2017 (GG 6451), which is not yet in force.

Regulations: Section 27(2) states: “Anything done under a law repealed by subsection (1) and which could have been done under a corresponding provision of this Act shall be deemed to have been done under that corresponding provision.” Pre-independence regulations which might accordingly survive have not been researched.

Regulations are authorised by section 25 of this Act, but none have yet been promulgated.

INSOLVENCY

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 2365) governs insolvent persons and their estates. It details the sequestration procedure, and the rights of various creditors.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Republic” to include “the mandated territory of South West Africa,” and “Gazette” and “Supreme Court” are defined accordingly. Section 158 ter states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the Territory, including that portion of the Territory known as the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel and referred to in sub-section (3) of section three of the South West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951).”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended. The only South African amendment made applicable to SWA after the date of transfer was the Insolvency Amendment Act 78 of 1980, which was applied to SWA by Act 18/1980 (OG 4292).

Section 3(1)(a) of the transfer proclamation excluded the references to the “Republic” in the Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, except where this word occurs for the second and third times in section 148 of the Act. This means that the designated references to “Republic” in section 148 were to be construed as references to the Territory only, while elsewhere “Republic” retained the meaning given to it in the definition section of the Act (South Africa and SWA).

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

Commentary:

War Damage Insurance and Compensation Act 85 of 1976.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 5175) establishes a War Damage Fund for state insurance schemes against the risk of war damage, and for compensation for war damage on conditions determined by the Minister of Finance. “War damage” includes damage to specified property arising from “any hostile action directed against the security of the Republic”, and from attempts by the security forces of the Republic or any of its allies to suppress such hostile action, but only if the Minister of Finance declares these defensive actions to have caused war damage.

Applicability to SWA: Section 12 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa.” Although amendments in South Africa would have thus been automatically applicable to South West Africa, there were no amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of the Act does not appear to have been transferred to South West Africa. In any event, since there were amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence, the issue of transfer does not affect the content of the Act.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 11 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Summary: This Act (GG 1832) regulates the short-term insurance business in Namibia. It was brought into force on 1 July 1998 by GN 142/1998 (GG 1887), replacing the portions of the Insurance Act 27 of 1943 dealing with short-term insurance.

Act 13/2016 (GG 6183) amends sections 1 and 54 and substitutes section 10.

Application of law: See the notices issued under the Namibia National Reinsurance Corporation Act 22 of 1998.

Regulations: Regulations made in terms of previous legislation survive in terms of section 72 of the current Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Regulations made under the current Act are contained in GN 143/1998 (GG 1887), as amended by GN 194/2018 (GG 6688). These regulations repeal a large number of regulations made in terms of the previous Act insofar as they relate to short-term insurance.

Notices: A declaration in terms of section 25(3) is contained in GN 10/2003 (GG 2909).
GN 15/2015 (GG 5668), which revokes GN 123/2007 (GG 3877), determines the percentage of value of each reinsurance contract to be ceded by way of reinsurance to the Namibia National Reinsurance Corporation in respect of all classes of reinsurance business specified in Schedule 1 of the Act.

General Notice 220/2014 (GG 5510) emphasises the fact that section 60 of the Act prohibits the conditional sale of insurance products by insurance entities together with banking institutions, furniture stores, motor dealers and micro-lenders. The Notice explains:

“Conditional selling is when a transaction is completed if certain conditions are met as agreed by one or both parties. In this instance the condition is that, the insurance policy is taken out with only a certain insurer and the consumer does not have freedom of choice with whom to take out an insurance policy… NAMFISA hereby notifies the public that, should an insurance entity or any institution not allow any person to freely choose his/her own insurer from the beginning of the insurance related transaction such an institution should be reported to the Registrar of short-term insurance…”

Notices relating to specific insurers have not been recorded.

Appointments: Appointments to the Short-term Insurance Advisory Committee are announced in GN 155/2018 (GG 6666).

Cases: Chief Executive Officer of Namibia Financial Institutions Supervisory Authority v Legal Shields Namibia Ltd 2005 NR 151 (HC).

Summary: This Act (GG 1834) regulates the long-term insurance business in Namibia. It was brought into force on 1 July 1998 by GN 144/1998 (GG 1888), replacing the remaining portions of the Insurance Act 27 of 1943.

Amendments: The Namibia Financial Institutions Supervisory Authority Act 3 of 2001 (GG 2529) amends section 1 and substitutes section 4. Act 2/2011 (GG 4731) amends section 72.

Act 12/2016 (GG 6182) amends sections 1 and 56 and substitutes section 10.

Application of law: See the notices issued under the Namibia National Reinsurance Corporation Act 22 of 1998.

Regulations: Regulations made in terms of previous legislation survive in terms of section 73 of the current Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched

Regulations made under the current Act are contained in GN 145/1998 (GG 1888), as amended by GN 47/2000 (GG 2274), GN 143/2001 (GG 2579), GN 31/2008 (GG 3985), GN 126/2013 (GG 5205), GN 350/2003 (GG 5383) and GN 195/2018 (GG 6688). However, note that GN 350/2003 withdraws GN 126/2013 with effect from its publication date, as if it never existed. These regulations repeal a large number of regulations made in terms of the previous Act insofar as they are unrepealed by the Short-Term Insurance Regulations.
Notices: National standards developed by the Long-Term Insurance Industry are published for public comment and general information in General Notice 228/2002 (GG 2805).

A declaration in terms of section 25(3) is contained in GN 11/2003 (GG 2909).

General Notice 220/2014 (GG 5510) emphasises the fact that section 62 of the Act prohibits the conditional sale of insurance products by insurance entities together with banking institutions, furniture stores, motor dealers and micro-lenders. The Notice explains:

“Conditional selling is when a transaction is completed if certain conditions are met as agreed by one or both parties. In this instance the condition is that, the insurance policy is taken out with only a certain insurer and the consumer does not have freedom of choice with whom to take out an insurance policy… NAMFISA hereby notifies the public that, should an insurance entity or any institution not allow any person to freely choose his/her own insurer from the beginning of the insurance related transaction such an institution should be reported to the Registrar of short-term insurance…”

GN 16/2015 (GG 5668) determines the percentage of value of each reinsurance contract to be ceded by every registered insurer and registered reinsurer to the Namibia National Reinsurance Corporation in respect of all classes of reinsurance business specified in section 13(1) of the Act.

Notices relating to specific insurers have not been recorded.

Appointments: Appointments to the Long-term Insurance Advisory Committee are announced in GN 155/2018 (GG 6666).

See also Wilke NO v Swabou Life Assurance Company Limited 1997 NR 224 (HC), confirmed in Wilke NO v Swabou Life Assurance Company Limited 2000 NR 23 (HC), which concerns section 63(3) of the previous Insurance Act 27 of 1943.

Summary: This Act (GG 1949) provides for the establishment of the Namibia National Reinsurance Corporation (known as “NamibRe”) to carry on reinsurance business in Namibia. It was brought into force on 1 July 1999 by GN 108/1999 (GG 2129).

Certain provisions of the Act have been challenged on constitutional grounds in two pending High Court cases: HC-MD-ACT-CIV-OTH-2017/04493 and HC-MD-CIV-MOT-REV-2018/00127. The application and implementation of these “impugned provisions” of the Act have been stayed pending the determination of the cases. challenging them, by Minister of Finance & Another v Hollard Insurance Company of Namibia Limited & Others (HC-MD-CIV-MOT-GEN-2018/00227) NAHCMD 294 (20 September 2018). (This case does not indicate precisely which provisions of the Act are affected.)

Application of law: The application of this Act is affected by the State-Owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 (GG 3698), which was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733) and which has since been re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006.

Regulations: Regulations relating to short-term and long-term reinsurance business are contained in GN 332/2017 (GG 6496), which repeals the regulations contained in GN 155/1999 (GG 2160).

The 2017 regulations were to come into force 180 days from their date of publication on 29 December 2017 (regulation 12), noting that “day” is defined to mean any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday (regulation 1). This means that these regulations were to come into force on 19 September 2018. However, the repeal of the 1999 regulations is contained in the text of the Government Notice and not in the regulations contained in the Schedule to the Government Notice. Thus, the repeal would appear to be effective from the date of publication of the Government Notice on 29 December 2017.

Note that the application of the 2017 regulations is stayed pending the outcome of two court cases challenging their constitutionality, by Minister of Finance & Another v Hollard Insurance Company of Namibia Limited & Others (HC-MD-CIV-MOT-GEN-2018/00227) NAHCMD 294 (20 September 2018).

Notices: In terms of section 39(5), the percentage of value of reinsurance contracts to be ceded by every registered insurer and reinsurer is set by GN 333/2017 (GG 6496), which comes into force 180 days after its publication in the Government Gazette on 29 December 2017. The percentage of value of each short-term insurance contract to be ceded in reinsurance to the Corporation by every registered insurer and reinsurer is set by GN 334/2017 (GG 6496), which also comes into force 180 days after its publication in the Government Gazette on 29 December 2017. The percentage of value of each long-term insurance contract to be ceded in reinsurance to the Corporation by every registered insurer and reinsurer is set by GN 335/2017 (GG 6496), which also comes into force 180 days after its publication in the Government Gazette on 29 December 2017.

In terms of section 39(8), certain classes of registered insurers and registered reinsurers carrying on specified classes of business are exempted from the obligation to cede reinsurance to the Corporation by GN 336/2017 (GG 6496), which also comes into force 180 days after its publication in the Government Gazette on 29 December 2017.

In terms of section 43(2), the rates of commission payable to registered short-term insurers and reinsurers is set by GN 337/2017 (GG 6496), which also comes into force 180 days after its publication in the Government Gazette on 29 December 2017. The rates of commission payable to registered long-term insurers and reinsurers is set by GN 338/2017 (GG 6496), which also comes into force 180 days after its publication in the Government Gazette on 29 December 2017.

Note that the application of Government Notices 333-338/2017 (GG 6496) is stayed pending the outcome of two court cases challenging their constitutionality, by Minister of Finance & Another v Hollard Insurance Company of Namibia Limited
In terms of section 39(5), the percentage of value of reinsurance contracts to be ceded was initially set by GN 109/1999 (GG 2129), which was subsequently replaced by GN 3/2003 (GG 2893) (which revoked with retrospective effect GN 109/1999, as amended by GN 266/2000). GN 3/2003 was revoked and replaced by GN 123/2007 (GG 3877), with respect to reinsurance businesses specified in Schedule 1 of the Short-Term Insurance Act 4 of 1998. GN 213/2007 was replaced by GN 15/2015 (GG 5668), which revoked GN 3/2003 and replaced it with respect to reinsurance businesses specified in Schedule 1 of the Short-Term Insurance Act 4 of 1998. GN 15/2015 was replaced by GN 16/2015 (GG 5668), with respect to reinsurance businesses specified in the Long-Term Insurance Act 5 of 1998. GN 15/2015 and GN 16/2015 were both revoked and replaced by GN 266/2016 (GG 6165) (which changed the effective date of GN 266/2016 to 3 January 2017). However, GN 266/2016 was withdrawn by GN 25/2017 (GG 6238).

In terms of section 39(2), classes of insurance business and percentage of value of policies to be ceded was initially set by GN 110/1999 (GG 2129), which was revoked with retrospective effect by GN 4/2003 (GG 2893).

In terms of section 43(2), the rate of reinsurance commission payable in respect of insurance business ceded or offered to the Namibia National Reinsurance Corporation was initially set by GN 111/1999 (GG 2129), which was subsequently replaced in its entirety by GN 46/2000 (GG 2274). GN 46/2000 was replaced by GN 124/2007 (GG 3877), which was replaced in turn by GN 267/2016 (GG 6165) with effect from 1 January 2017. However, GN 267/2016 was withdrawn by GN 25/2017 (GG 6238).

The effective date for the three initial notices in terms of the Act (GN 109-111/1999) was set at 1 September 1999, changed to 1 November 1999 by GN 183-185/1999 (GG 2179), then changed to 1 January 2000 by GN 245-247/1999 (GG 2224), then to 1 April 2000 by GN 8-10/2000 (GG 2259), then to 17 April 2000 by GN 44-46/2000 (GG 2274), then to 22 August 2000 by GN 150-152/2000 (GG 2354), then to 1 October 2000 by GN 203-205/2000 (GG 2399), then to 1 November 2000 by GN 238-240/2000 (GG 2417), then to 1 February 2001 by GN 265-267/2000 (GG 2439). A further change to the effective date was made by GN 2-4/2003 (GG 2893), which applied retrospectively and changed the relevant date for these notices to 1 January 2002. GN 2/2003 (GG 2893) was revoked by GN 124/2007 (GG 3877), which came into effect 60 days after its publication on 16 July 2007.

The upshot is that none of the pre-2017 notices listed here appear to remain in force in 2017, aside from the portions of GN 3/2003 (GG 2893) which were not revoked by GN 123/2007 (GG 3877) (ie, its application to any insurer or reinsurer other than those classes of reinsurance businesses specified in Schedule 1 of the Short-Term Insurance Act 4 of 1998). The 2017 notices do not repeal any remaining portions of GN 3/2003, although they may supersede it when they come into force.

The following description of the recent history these notices comes from Minister of Finance & Another v Hollard Insurance Company of Namibia Limited & Others (HC-MD-CIV-MOT-GEN-2018/00227) NAHCMD 294 (20 September 2018) (footnotes omitted):

“[15]. It is not disputed that the Minister is empowered by the Act to make regulations and to issue notices with a view to giving effect to the objects of the Act. In exercise of that power, the Minister, in November and December 2016, caused certain notices to be issued and gazetted, namely notices numbers 266, 267 and 291. These notices dealt with the compulsory cession of insurance contracts and reinsurance business and related matters. A challenge to the issuance of these notices was mounted by the respondents, who brought an application for review before this court, in which they seek to have the said notices set aside. [Hollard Insurance Company of Namibia
The Minister, in view of the challenge, decided to withdraw the said notices and opted to engage in a public consultation process on the issue. In this regard, interested parties were required to make representations in writing.”

Cases:

Demutualisation Levy Act 9 of 2002.

Summary: This Act (GG 2827) provides for a levy on the free reserves of mutual insurers in respect of their demutualisation.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Namibia Special Risks Insurance Association Act 5 of 2017.

Summary: This Act (GG 6420) converts the Namibia Special Risks Insurance Association (NASRIA) established by the Second Finance Act 27 of 1987 (OG 5470) into a public company with a share capital, and determines what insurance business it may underwrite. The Act, which was brought into force on 1 August 2018 by GN 154/2018 (GG 6666), repeals the Second Finance Act 27 of 1987.

Application of law: The application of the Act is affected by the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006, which is referred to in several sections of this Act.

Regulations: Section 38 of the Act authorises regulations, but none have yet been issued. Section 42(2) of the Act contains a savings clause for anything done in terms of the repealed Act which could have been done under this Act. However, the repealed Act did not authorise the issue of regulations.

Note: According to the World Intellectual Property Organisation (WIPO), intellectual property refers to creations of the mind: inventions, literary and artistic works, and symbols, names, images, and designs used in commerce. Intellectual property is divided into two categories: (1) industrial property, which includes inventions (patents), trademarks, industrial designs, and geographic indications of source; and (2) copyright, which includes literary and artistic works such as novels, poems and plays, films, musical works, artistic works such as drawings, paintings, photographs and sculptures, and architectural designs.

Merchandise Marks Act 17 of 1941, as amended in South Africa to April 1978.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 2893) regulates the marking of merchandise and the packaging in which merchandise is sold.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Union” to include “the Territory”, which is defined as “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 21bis states “This Act and any amendment thereof which may be made from time to time shall apply also in the Territory, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section 3 of the South West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951), and in relation to all persons in that portion of the Territory known, as the ‘Rehoboth Gebiet’ and defined in the First Schedule to Proclamation No. 28 of 1923 of the Territory.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Commerce) Transfer Proclamation (AG 28/1978), dated 28 April 1978. The only South African amendment to the Act after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Merchandise Marks Amendment Act 54 of 1987 (RSA GG 10921) – was not made expressly applicable to SWA.

Section 3(1)(a) of the transfer proclamation excluded the reference to the “Republic” in the Act from section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that “Republic” retained the meaning given to it in the definition section of the Act (South Africa and SWA).

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Merchandise Marks Amendment Act 3 of 1946 (SA GG 3622)
- Merchandise Marks Amendment Act 26 of 1951 (SA GG 4601)
- Merchandise Marks Amendment Act 39 of 1952 (SA GG 4885)
- Merchandise Marks Amendment Act 47 of 1954 (SA GG 5302)
- Merchandise Marks Amendment Act 55 of 1967 (RSA GG 1732).

Sections 8 and 9 of the Act were suspended until further notice by SA Government Notice 1321/1941 (SA GG 2944), which was withdrawn by SA Government Notice 451/1946 (SA GG 3612). However, these sections were again suspended until further notice by SA Government Notice 1682/1946 (SA GG 3687). No notice lifting this suspension has been located.

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been researched.
Heraldry Act 18 of 1962, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 202) provides for the registration of coats of arms, badges and other emblems and established bodies to oversee this and all related matters.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “territory” as “the territory of South West Africa, including that part of the said territory known as the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel and referred to in section 38(5) of the South West Africa Constitution Act, 1968 (Act No. 39 of 1968)”. Section 27 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall also apply to the territory.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The relevant Transfer Proclamation is the Executive Powers (National Education) Transfer Proclamation (AG 1/1978), dated 11 January 1978. However, section 3(2)(b) of the transfer proclamation excluded this Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that the administration of the Act was not transferred to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –
- Heraldry Amendment Act 54 of 1969 (RSA GG 2401)
- Heraldry Amendment Act 63 of 1980 (RSA GG 7017)
- Heraldry Amendment Act 22 of 1982 (RSA GG 8071)

Regulations: Regulations made under the repealed legislation survive in terms of section 68(2) of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Amendments: The Act is amended by the Business and Intellectual Property Authority Act 8 of 2016 (GG 6105), which was brought into force with effect from 16 January 2017 by GN 293/2016 (GG 6197).

Industrial Property Act 1 of 2012.
Summary: This Act (GG 4907) provides for the registration and protection of patents, utility model certificates, industrial designs, trade marks, collective marks, certification marks and trade names. It also establishes an Industrial Property Office, a Registrar of Industrial Property, industrial property agents and an Industrial Property Tribunal. It repeals the Patents, Designs, Trade Marks and Copyright Act 9 of 1916 (SA GG 727), the Patents and Designs Proclamation 17 of 1923 (OG 112) (which it erroneously refers to as the “Patents, Designs and Trade Marks Proclamation”) and the Trade Marks in South West Africa Act 48 of 1973 (RSA GG 3913). It was brought into force with effect from 1 August 2018 by Government Notice 113/2018 (GG 6616).

Amendments: The Act is amended by the Business and Intellectual Property Authority Act 8 of 2016 (GG 6105), which was brought into force with effect from 16 January 2017 by GN 293/2016 (GG 6197).

Regulations: There is no savings provisions regarding regulations issued under the repealed laws.

Industrial Property Regulations issued in terms of this Act are contained in GN 114/2018 (GG 6616).

GN 114/2018 (GG 6616) repeals the following regulations, which were issued in terms of the RSA Trade Marks Act in South West Africa 48 of 1973 (RSA GG 3913): SA RSA GN R.2498/1973 (RSA GG 4109), as corrected by RSA GN R.87/1974 (RSA GG 4141) and as amended by AG GN 40/1989 (OG 5750) and GN 13/2001 (GG 2470). This repeal was not really necessary since the Act contains no savings clause in respect of regulations issued under the statutes it repeals. (See section 140 of the Act).

Cases: The following cases concern the predecessors to this Act –

- Ex Parte Hendrik Krekel (unreported judgement, SWA Supreme Court, 1983/11/11) and Gemfarm Investments v Trans Hex Group 2009 (2) NR 477 (HC) (concerning the repealed Patents, Designs, Trade Marks and Copyright Act 9 of 1916)
- Gemfarm Investments v Trans Hex Group 2009 (2) NR 477 (HC) (concerning the repealed Patents and Designs Proclamation 17 of 1923)
- Sparletta (Pty) Ltd v Namibia Breweries Ltd 1991 NR 384 (HC) (concerning the repealed Trade Marks in South West Africa Act 48 of 1973)

Note on relevant international law: The Act refers to the following international bodies and agreements (see sections 1, 12, 29, 37, 57, 63, 76, 85, 92, 126-129, 131, 198, 234) –

States can join the 1960 Hague Act, the 1999 Geneva Act, or both – or in the past, the 1934 London Act, which was frozen on 1 January 2010, although the renewal of existing designations under the 1934 Act and the recording in the International Register of any change affecting such designations will continue to be possible up to the maximum duration of protection under the 1934 Act (15 years). If a state accepts only one Act, then applicants for industrial design protection from that state can use the Hague system to obtain protection for their designs only in other states which are parties to the same Act. Treaty of Peace and South West Africa Mandate Act 49 of 1919.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 1000) gave effect to the Mandate for South West Africa established pursuant to the Treaty of Versailles by delegating authority for the administration of South West Africa to the Governor-General of South Africa. It was to cease to have effect on 1 July 1920 by its own terms (section 5), but it was extended by section 2 of the Treaties of Peace Act 32 of 1921 (SA GG 1167) until such time as it is repealed. It was repealed in South Africa by section 36 of General Law Amendment Act 108 of 1993 (RSA GG 14976).

Applicability to SWA: The Act was historically relevant to SWA by virtue of its subject matter, but was perhaps not a part of the laws in force in SWA. It refers to the power of the Governor-General of South Africa to make laws for South West Africa.

Diplomatic Privileges Act 71 of 1951, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 4668) covers diplomatic immunity, rights and privileges.

Applicability to SWA: The Act was made applicable to South West Africa by the RSA State President Proclamation 63 of 5 May 1989 (RSA GG 11861). Section 2 of that Proclamation states “The Act, as amended by Part II of this Schedule, shall apply in the Territory.” The Proclamation does not make any reference to the amendments made to the original Act in South Africa, but references in the Proclamation to text which is to be substituted indicates that the Proclamation referred to Act 71 of 1951 as amended in South Africa prior to 1989. The wording of the Proclamation does not appear to make future amendments to the Act automatically applicable to South West Africa.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The Administrator-General acquired authority to administer this Act in South West Africa by virtue of RSA Proc. 63 of 1989. This did not qualify as a “transfer proclamation” in terms of the Executive Powers Transfer (General Provisions) Proclamation, AG 7 of 1977, which defines “transfer proclamation” in section 1 as “a proclamation by the Administrator-General by which the administration of the affairs of the territory in relation to any matter is transferred from a Minister of the Republic to the Administrator-General” (emphasis added). Therefore, the Executive Powers Transfer (General Provisions) Proclamation, AG 7 of 1977, was not applicable to this Act. The Act was repealed in South Africa prior to Namibian independence by the Diplomatic Immunities and Privileges Act 74 of 1989 (RSA GG 11928). This repeal was not expressly applicable to South West Africa and does not seem to have applied by virtue of the wording of RSA Proc. 63 of 1989; furthermore it does not repeal RSA Proc. 63 of 1989. Thus, Act 71 of 1951 appears to have remained in force in South West Africa.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Commonwealth Relations Act 69 of 1962 (RSA GG 264)
- Diplomatic Privileges Amendment Act 61 of 1978 (RSA GG 6016)
- Diplomatic Privileges Amendment Act 39 of 1985 (RSA GG 9790)
- Restoration of South African Citizenship Act 73 of 1986 (RSA GG 10327)
The Diplomatic Privileges Proclamation 63 of 1989 (RSA GG 11861) amends the Act as it applied to SWA.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

General Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the Organisation of African Unity (OAU), 1965
SADC Protocol on Immunities and Privileges, 1992
Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations, 1961

Summary: This Act (SA GG 6700) provides that references to any Commonwealth country or countries in laws in force in South Africa or South West Africa immediately prior to 31 May 1961 shall not be automatically affected by the establishment of the Republic of South Africa. (After South Africa became a Republic in 1961, it intentionally allowed its membership in the British Commonwealth to lapse to avoid a rejection upon reapplication – but rejoined the Commonwealth after its democratic elections in 1994. Namibia became a member of Commonwealth at independence.)

Applicability to SWA: Section 3 states “This Act shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section three of the South West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951).” this wording does not seem to make amendments to the Act automatically applicable to SWA, but there were no amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (GG 3109) gives effect to certain conventions concluded at Geneva on 12 August 1949 and to the protocols to those conventions. It was brought into force on 1 October 2004 by GN 207/2004 (GG 3290). The conventions are –

- Geneva Convention for the Amelioration of Condition of Wounded and Sick in Armed Forces in the Field (First Geneva Convention), 1949
- Geneva Convention for the Amelioration of Condition of Wounded, Sick and Shipwrecked Members of Armed Forces at Sea (Second Geneva Convention), 1949
- Geneva Convention relative to the Treatment of Prisoners of War (Third Geneva Convention), 1949

LABOUR

Shop Hours and Shop Assistants Ordinance 15 of 1939.

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 796) governs shop hours and certain working conditions of shop assistants. It seems to have been superseded by labour legislation enacted in independent Namibia – currently the Labour Act 11 of 2007.

Amendments: This Ordinance is amended by Ord. 4/1940 (OG 840), Proc. 34/1950 (OG 1530), Proc. 50/1950 (OG 1552), Ord. 10/1952 (OG 1687), Ord. 5/1957 (OG 2072), Ord. 39/1957 (OG 2092), Ord. 4/1959 (OG 2185) and Act 12/1986 (OG 5221).

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Employees’ Compensation Act 30 of 1941, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 2909) makes provision for the compensation of workers or their dependants if the worker is injured or killed in the course of employment. It was previously known as the Workmen’s Compensation Act.

Applicability to SWA: Section 109bis states “This Act and any amendment thereto shall apply also in the territory including the portion of the territory known as the ‘Rehoboth Gebiet’ and in relation to all persons in the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section three of the South West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951) and defined in the First Schedule to Proclamation No. 28 of 1923 of the territory."

Section 109bis also provides that all proclamations and notices issued under the principal Act prior to the 1956 amendment that made it applicable to SWA shall automatically apply to SWA, unless their applicability is expressly limited to an area that excludes SWA.

Section 1 defines “employers’ organization”, “Gazette”, “provincial or local division of the Supreme Court”, “territory” and “Republic” appropriately to include South West Africa.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The relevant Transfer Proclamation is the Executive Powers (Labour) Transfer Proclamation, (AG 17/1977), dated 20 December 1977 (OG 3680). However, section 3 of the transfer proclamation excluded this Act from the operation of Section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that the administration of this Act was not transferred to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Workmen’s Compensation Amendment Act 27 of 1945 (SA GG 3504)
- Finance Act 48 of 1947 (SA GG 3830)
- Workmen’s Compensation Amendment Act 36 of 1949 (SA GG 4182)
- Workmen’s Compensation Amendment Act 5 of 1951 (SA GG 4563)
- SA Proclamation 147 of 1951 (SA GG 4644)
- SA Proclamation 63 of 1952 (SA GG 4817)
• Workmen’s Compensation Amendment Act 51 of 1956 (SA GG 5703)
• SA Proclamation 170 of 1959 (SA GG 6274)
• Railways and Harbours Superannuation Fund Act 39 of 1960 (SA GG 6431)
• Workmen’s Compensation Amendment Act 7 of 1961 (SA GG 6649)
• RSA Proclamation R.90 of 1962 (RSA GG 229)
• Workmen’s Compensation Amendment Act 21 of 1964 (RSA GG 746)
• Bantu Laws Amendment Act 42 of 1964 (RSA GG 801)

• RSA Proclamation R.98 of 1973 (RSA GG 3856)
• Workmen’s Compensation Amendment Act 11 of 1974 (RSA GG 4194)
• Workmen’s Compensation Amendment Act 28 of 1977 (RSA GG 5465)
• Workmen’s Compensation Amendment Act 8 of 1979 (RSA GG 6341)
• RSA Proclamation 233 of 1979 (RSA GG 6689)

• Transfer of Powers and Duties of the State President Act 97 of 1986 (RSA GG 10438)
• Workmen’s Compensation Amendment Act 35 of 1987 (RSA GG 10888)
• Workmen’s Compensation Amendment Proclamation 45 of 1990 (RSA GG 12328), which makes substantial amendments to the Act in preparation for Namibian independence.

The Native Laws Amendment Proclamation, AG 3 of 1979 (OG 3898), deemed to have come into force in relevant part on 1 August 1978 (section 5 of AG 3 of 1979), amends certain terminology.

Act 5 of 1995 (GG 1038), which was brought into force on 1 March 1995 by GN 52/1995 (GG 1039), amends the Act substantially and changes its name from the Workmen’s Compensation Act to the Employees’ Compensation Act.

Sections 25(5) and 37 of the National Education Act 30 of 1980 (GG 4358), which is brought into force by AG 6/1981 (OG 4430), provided that state teachers in South West Africa are to be deemed “workmen” while students at government schools may not be deemed “workmen”. However, this Act was repealed by the Education Act 16 of 2001 (GG 2673) except insofar as it applies to tertiary education, and by the Teachers’ Education Colleges Act 25 of 2003 (GG 3124) insofar as it applies to teachers’ education colleges.

It was brought into force, with the exception of section 2, sections 19-43 and sections 45-48, on 18 November 1998 by GN 278/1998 (GG 1996). The remaining sections were all brought into force on 6 August 1999 by GN 156/1999 (GG 2161).

Amendments: Act 6/2007 (GG 3965) amends sections 1, 10, 23, 24, 30, 44, 45 and 47. The Labour Act 11 of 2007 (GG 3971) amends section 45.

Labour Act 11 of 2007.

Summary: This Act (GG 3971) consolidates and amends the labour law. It entrenches fundamental labour rights and protections, regulates the basic terms and conditions of employment, ensures the health, safety and welfare of employees, protects employees against unfair labour practices, regulates the registration of trade unions and employers’ organizations, regulates collective labour relations, provides for the systemic prevention and resolution of labour disputes, establishes the Labour Advisory Council, Labour Court, Wages Commission and labour inspectorate, and provides for the appointment of the Labour Commissioner and Deputy Labour Commissioner.

This Act repeals both the Labour Act 6 of 1992 (GG 388) and the Labour Act 15 of 2004 (GG 3339), which was brought only partially into force. There is an extensive Schedule of transitional provisions. Any reference to the 1992 Act in any law must be construed insofar as possible as a reference to the corresponding provision of this Act.

The Labour Act 15 of 2004 was intended to repeal the Labour Act 6 1992, but it never came into force in its entirety. Sections 75, 97(a), (b), (c), (e) and (h), 94(1) and (4), 98, 99, 100 and 101 and items 1 and 11(3) of Schedule 1 were brought into force on 30 November 2005 by GN 162/2005 (GG 3545). Section 118 and item 13(1) of Schedule 1 were brought into force on 27 January 2006 by GN 20/2006 (GG 3582).

All of the Act other than section 128 (prohibiting labour hire) was brought into force on 1 November 2008 by GN 260/2008 (GG 4151). Section 128 of the Act was brought into force on 1 March 2009 by GN 1/2009 (GG 4192).

Regulations, notices, declarations, registrations, collective agreements and exemptions from collective agreements made under the 1992 Act generally remain in force.

The Labour Act 6 of 1992, which was repealed by this Act, repealed the Factories, Machinery and Building Work Ordinance 34 of 1952, the Wage and Industrial Conciliation Ordinance 35 of 1952, the Occupational Diseases in Mines and Works Act 78 of 1973 and the Conditions of Employment Act 12 of 1986 as well as a number of ethnic- and race-based laws relating to employment.

Amendments: Act 2/2012 (GG 4925) amends sections 1, 5, 82, 83, 89 and 128 and inserts sections 128A, 128B and 128C; these amendments relate to the issue of “labour hire”. This amending Act was brought into force from 1 August 2012 by GN 136/2012.
but GN 136/2012 was withdrawn by GN 192/2012 (GG 5005) on 1 August 2012. GN 193/2012 (GG 5005) provides that amending Act 2/2012 will come into force on 1 August 2012 – except for the provisions in section 10 in so far as they relate to section 26(2)(a)(ii)-(iii) of the Employment Services Act 8 of 2011.

The Whistleblower Protection Act 10 of 2017 (GG 6450), which has not yet been brought into force, amends section 84.

Application of law: Section 5 of the Act applies to all employers and employees. The remainder of the Act applies to all employers and employees except members of the Namibian Defence Force, the Namibian Police Force, municipal police services, the Namibian Central Intelligence Service or the Prison Service (unless the laws governing any of these services provide otherwise).

Application of the 1992 Act was addressed in the following:

Export processing zones are exempted from the operation of certain provisions of the Labour Act by section 8 of the Export Processing Zones Act 9 of 1995 (GG 1069) (as amended by Act 6/1996 (GG 1337)).

Section 35 of the Namibia Central Intelligence Service Act 10 of 1997 (GG 1699) provides that the Labour Act will not apply to the administration of the Service or to its staff members, with the exception of sections 35, 39, 40, 41, 52, 106 and 107.

Section 40 of the Namibia Water Corporation Act 12 of 1997 (GG 1703) provides that employees who would cause or prolong a disruption of water supply to a customer by withholding their services shall be deemed to be rendering an essential service for the purposes of section 79 of the Act.

Regulations: Regulations made in terms of Acts repealed by the Labour Act 6 of 1992 survived in terms of section 116(2) of that Act, and continue to survive pursuant to section 142 of the current Act (read together with paragraph 2 of Schedule 1). However, pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Regulations made in terms of the Labour Act 6 of 1992, which survive pursuant to section 142 of this Act are as follows –

- Regulations relating to the health and safety of employees at work are contained in GN 156/1997 (GG 1617). The administration of these regulations is assigned to various ministers by Proc. 10/1997 (GG 1615). (See also the Namibian Electricity Safety Code contained in GN 200/2011 (GG 4821), which is to be read in conjunction with these regulations.)

Regulations made under this Act are as follows:

- Regulations relating to domestic workers are contained in GN 257/2017 (GG 6428), which repeals GN 257/2014 (GG 5638). They require employers of domestic workers to submit a form annually to the Permanent Secretary of the labour ministry or to the Labour Office containing certain particulars about domestic workers.
These regulations are supplemented by a Wage Order setting a minimum wage and supplementary minimum conditions of employment for domestic workers, in GN 258/2017 (GG 6428), which repeals GN 258/2014 (GG 5638) (which was amended by GN 53/2016 (GG 5978)).

General Notice 639/2018 (GG 6767) increased the minimum wage with effect from 1 October 2018, pursuant to the provisions of the Wage Order, which provides for an increase by 1% plus a percentage equal to the average of the increases in the inflation rates in respect of certain specified categories of goods and services published by the Namibia Statistics Agency for the 12 months preceding 1 October 2018. The minimum wage from 1 October 2018 is N$1564.39/month, N$361.29/week, N$72.25/day or N$9.03/hour, and N$45.15/day for part-time domestic workers who work five hours or less on any day other than a Sunday or public holiday. The Wage Order’s rates for minimum overtime pay and minimum pay for work on Sundays and public holidays were similarly increased by General Notice 639/2018.

The Wage Order also contains rules about transport allowances, accompanying employers on holiday, food and accommodation, health and safety, uniforms, trade union access and a written contract of employment. These rules remain unchanged.

Rules: Rules made by the Labour Courts’ Rules Board in terms of the previous Act and surviving pursuant to section 14(4) of the current Act are as follows –

Rules of the District Labour Courts are contained in GN 138/1993 (GG 747). These courts no longer exist in Namibia (see section 16(b) of Schedule 1 of the Act), although pending cases before district labour courts are to be completed in terms of section 15(4) of Schedule 1 of the Act.

Rules made under the current Act are as follows:

Rules relating to the conduct of conciliation and arbitration before the Labour Commissioner are contained in GN 262/2008 (GG 4151), as amended by GN 69/2016 (GG 5990), which substitutes Annexure 1.

Codes of Good Practice: A Code of Good Practice on Industrial Action (Strikes and Lock-outs), issued in terms of section 137(1)(a) of the 2007 Act, is contained in GN 208/2009 (GG 4361).

A Code of Good Practice on Picketing, issued in terms of section 137(1)(a) of the 2007 Act, is also contained in GN 208/2009 (GG 4361).

Notices: Notices made under the previous Act which remain in force include the following (omitting those with no ongoing effect) –

Particulars to be submitted by employers in the agricultural sector are contained in GN 115/2003 (GG 2990), which is replaced by GN 171/2003 (GG 3030); GN 89/2005 (GG 3465) again withdraws GN 115/2003 (although it was probably meant to replace GN 171/2003), and sets forth particulars to be submitted by employers in the agricultural sector.

Guidelines and instructions pertaining to HIV/AIDS in employment were issued in GN 78/1998 (GG 1835), but these do not appear to remain in effect.

Other notices regarding specific topics are listed below.

Exemptions: The following work is exempted from the prohibition on work on Sundays and public holidays in section 33(1) of the 1992 Act:

- GN 100/1998 (GG 1856): work by employees engaged in providing an essential service in a hospital, clinic, pharmacy, radiography, medical laboratory, mortuary, children’s home or ambulance service

  Replaced by GN 301/1998 (GG 2010): nursing services, ambulance services, radiographic services, admission services, porter’s services, cleaning services, medical laboratory services, medical professional services, pharmacy services, health assistance (mortuary) services, child care services, Chief Children’s Home Superintendent’s services, driving services, Engineering Technician’s services, Medical Assistant’s services, Security Orderly’s services and watchman’s services.

- GN 49/2000 (GG 2280): security officers “who are engaged in the security services rendered by the security enterprises” (revoking any previous exemptions granted to any security enterprise in respect of Sunday and holiday work).

- GN 248/2000 (GG 2426): employees engaged in the continuous metallurgic process of Navachab Gold Mine

Essential services: Certain services are designated as essential services in terms of section 77(4) of the Act in

• GN 94/2014 (GG 5510)

Variations: Certain provisions of Chapter 3 of the Act (sections 8, 18, 20, 21, 22 and 28) are varied in respect of employers and employees in the tourism and hospitality industry by GN 17/2011 (GG 4660).

Certain provisions of Chapter 3 of the Act (sections 16, 17, 18 and 20) are varied in respect of fishers (defined as persons “employed or engaged in any capacity or carrying out an occupation on board a fishing vessel, including persons working on board paid on the basis of as share of the catch but excluding pilots, naval personnel, shore-based persons carrying out work aboard a fishing vessel and fisheries observers”) by GN 250/2016 (GG 6149).

Registered collective agreements: Registered collective agreements have been declared binding on three industries –

Construction industry: GN 298/1996 (GG 1444) contains the initial agreement between the Metal and Allied Namibian Workers Union and the Construction Industries Federation of Namibia (dealing with minimum wages, minimum protective clothing, minimum productivity levels, performance standards, living away allowance, safety, and stop order facilities) which is binding on the entire industry, with the exception of employers and employees engaged in any “labour-based project”.

This agreement, as well as each subsequent collective agreement, remains in force until its listed expiry date or until replaced by a subsequent agreement. The successive collective agreements use the term “amend”, indicating that each amends the previous collective agreement. However, since each collective agreement is only in force until there is a new collective agreement, the term “replaced” is a clearer reflection of what actually transpired; each new collective agreement replaces the one that came before it.

The next collective agreement between these two parties (dealing with the same topics as the initial agreement, with the addition of service allowance and shop steward training) was published in GN 272/1997 (GG 1752). It was extended by GN 300/1998 (GG 2010) and then replaced by the subsequent agreement published in GN 135/1999 (GG 2144). The applicability of this agreement was extended indefinitely, until a new agreement was reached, by GN 85/2000 (GG 2301).

The collective agreement in GN 135/1999 was replaced by GN 123/2000 (GG 2340), which was replaced by GN 217/01 (GG 2637), which was replaced by GN 39/2003 (GG 2927), which was replaced by GN 24/2005 (GG 3392), which was replaced by GN 224/2008 (GG 4115), which was replaced by GN 129/2009 (GG 4271).

The next collective agreement, GN 154/2012 (GG 4970), in addition to the usual clauses, adds fair practice and pension fund and sets specific dates for minimum wages (1 June 2011 to 31 May 2012, and from 1 June 2012 until a new agreement is reached). This method is repeated in the subsequent collective agreements.

The following collective agreement, GN 334/2013 (GG 5372), sets minimum wages for various construction employees applicable from 15 September 2013 until 31 May 2014 and from 1 June 2014 until a new agreement is reached. It also removes the application exception for those employees engaged in “labour-based projects”, applying the collective agreement to all employers and employees in the construction industry.
The following collective agreement, GN 319/2015 (GG 5917), sets minimum wages applicable from 31 December 2015 until 30 December 2016, and from 31 December 2016 until a new agreement is promulgated.

The current collective agreement, dated 15 November 2017, is extended to the entire construction industry (and set forth in full) in GN 65/2018 (GG 6567). It sets minimum wages, amongst other things, and amends the collective agreement contained in GN 319/2015 (GG 5917).

Agricultural industry: A registered collective agreement between the Agricultural Employers’ Association (AEA), the Namibian National Farmers’ Union (NNFU) and the Namibia Farm Workers’ Union (NFWU) is declared binding on the entire agricultural industry in GN 77/2003 (GG 2946). This agreement sets a minimum wage for agricultural employees at N$2.20/hour for entry level, plus (where the employee is required to live on the premises) housing with sanitation and water, and either food rations sufficient for the employee and any dependants or a minimum supplementary allowance of N$210/month. Alternatively, an employee who resides on agricultural land must be allowed to keep livestock and carry on cultivation as necessary for the reasonable needs of the employee and dependants. A new agreement which is binding on the industry is contained in GN 237/2009 (GG 4390). It raises the entry-level minimum wage for agricultural employees at N$2.87/hour, and the supplementary allowance in the absence of food rations (which may not exceed 35% of the employee’s basic wages) to N$300/month.

No further minimum wage increases have been gazetted for this sector, but it was reported in 2013 that the Agricultural Employers Association (AEA) has recommended as a guide that the minimum wage for entry-level farmworkers should be N$3.44 per hour, which at full employment is N$670 per month, as well as a food allowance at N$345 per month, with housing and sanitation requirements being unchanged. The official rate has reportedly remained unchanged due to the absence of meetings of the Namibia Agricultural Labour Forum – which is composed of the Agricultural Employers’ Association, the Namibia National Farmers’ Union and the Namibia Farm Workers’ Union – for the past few years. (“New minimum wage for farmworkers”, The Namibian, 25 June 2013)

It was reported in 2014 that the Agricultural Employers Association, Namibia National Farmers Union and Namibia Workers Union signed an agreement making the lowest minimum wage N$3.70/hour, or N$888/month. The agreement also reportedly states that if an employee is required to live on the place of their employment or on any property of their employer, that worker must receive an additional N$400 food allowance per month. (See “New minimum wage for farm workers”, The Namibian, 17 June 2014.)

A request to extend a collective agreement to the agricultural industry, and an invitation to submit objections to such extension, is published in GN 104/2014 (GG 5522).

Security industry: A registered collective agreement relating to employers and employee in the security industry which is declared binding on the entire industry is contained in GN 132/2005 (GG 3516). This agreement sets a minimum wage for entry-level security guards at N$25 per 12-hour shift (N$2.09/hour). It is amended by a Memorandum of Agreement contained in GN 202/2008 (GG 4112), which raises the minimum wage for security personnel to N$3.00 per hour and addresses the provision of uniforms.

A new agreement for this industry, which raises the minimum wage for entry level security officers to N$3.80 per hour and N$4.00 shift bonus, is contained in GN 190/2009 (GG 4342).

A registered collective agreement concluded by the Security Association of Namibia (SAN), the Namibia Transport and Allied Workers Union (NATAU), the Namibia Security Guards and Watchman’s Union (NASGWU) and the Namibia Independent Security Union (NISU), which is declared binding on the entire industry, is contained in GN 229/2012 (GG 5031). This agreement increases the previous minimum wage for entry-level security guards to N$5.00/hour with a N$4.00 shift bonus. It also details the uniforms which employers must provide to employees.

A registered collective agreement concluded by the Security Association of Namibia (SAN), the Namibia Transport and Allied Workers Union (NATAU), the Namibia Security Guards and Watchman’s Union (NASGWU) and the Namibia Independent Security Union (NISU), which is declared binding on the entire industry, is contained in GN 248/2014 (GG 5628). This agreement increases the previous minimum wage for entry-level security guards to N$5.30/hour and provides for other wage adjustments. It also contains rules about the provision of uniforms.

A collective agreement concluded by the Security Association of Namibia, the Namibian Transport and Allied Workers Union, the Namibia Independent Security Union and the Namibia Security Guards and Watchmen’s Union, dated 15 December 2016, is extended to all employers and employees in the Security Industry by GN 242/2017 (GG 6414). It sets the minimum wage for entry-level security officers at N$8.75 per hour as of 1 January 2017 and provides for other wage adjustments. It also contains rules about the provision of uniforms.

Fuel industry: No minimum wage has been gazetted, but a 2014 news report stated that agreement was reached between the Namibia Fuel and Allied Workers Union (NAFAWU), the Metal and Allied Workers Union (MANWU), the Namibia Wholesalers and Retail Workers Union (NWRWU), the Namibia Food and Allied Workers Union and the Association of Service Station Owners (ASSO) for a N$7.20/hour minimum wage for a basic minimum salary of N$1,404 per month. According to the news report, the agreement covers petrol attendants, cashiers and shop attendants at service stations. The minimum amount does not include payment for Sundays, public holidays or overtime. It was expected to be implemented on 1 January 2015, and to be renegotiated after two years. The plan was to extend the agreement to the entire industry. (“Minimum wage for Namibia’s fuel sector”, Namibian Sun, 29 September 2014)

A request to extend a collective agreement to the Fuel Retail Industry, and an invitation to submit objections to such extension, is published in GN 309/2015 (GG 5910).

Wages Commission: A Wages Commission was convened for the purpose of investigating the terms and conditions of employment of domestic workers by GN 135/2012 (GG 4956), which sets forth its terms of reference. The date for submission of this Commission’s report, originally 15 February 2013, was extended to 15 April 2013 by GN 308/2012 (GG 5109) and to 30 May 2013 by GN 112/2013 (GG 5188).

A Wages Commission was again convened for the purpose of investigating the terms and conditions of employment of domestic workers by GN 28/2017 (GG 6245), which sets forth its terms of reference. The deadline for submission of this Commission’s report is 23 March 2017.

The legislature has provided for sexual harassment in the workplace in ch 2 of the Act, where special remedies are also provided for discrimination in an employment setting. This is a clear indication of the seriousness with which sexual harassment at the workplace is viewed by the legislature and rightly so. Being subjected to unwanted and unwarranted conduct of a sexual nature not only creates a barrier to equality in employment as is stressed in s 2 of the Act, but it also violates an employee’s constitutional right to dignity and of the person. The seriousness of sexual harassment in employment is reinforced by the fact that the failure on the part of an employer to prevent it may even attract delictual liability.”)

Employment Services Act 8 of 2011.

Summary: This Act (GG 4764) establishes a National Employment Service aimed at achieving full employment in Namibia. The Service consists of an Employment Services Board which plays an advisory role, and an Employment Services Bureau which registers job vacancies and job-seekers, amongst other functions. The Act also requires designated employers to report vacancies and new positions and to provide information about the composition and training of their workforces. It also provides for the licencing of private employment agencies and for the appointment of employment officers to enforce the Act. Portions of the Act were brought into force on 1 September 2012 by GN 194/2012 (GG 5005): Part 1, Part 4 (except section 26(2)) and Part 5. Part 3 of the Act was brought into force on 15 September 2015 by GN 201/2015 (GG 5829) Note that the short title in section 35(1) of the Act (as promulgated in Government Gazette) is the “Employment Services Act”. However, the headings and contents section in the Gazette refer to it as the “Employment Service Act” (with “Service” being singular instead of plural).

Amendments: Act 2/ 2012 (GG 4925) amends sections 1, 24 and 26, in relation to “labour hire”. This amending Act was brought into force as of 1 August 2012 by GN 136/2012 (GG 4958) – but GN 136/2012 (GG 4958) was withdrawn by GN 192/2012 (GG 5005) on 1 August 2012, while GN 193/2012 (GG 5005) provides that amending Act 2/2012 will come into force on 1 August 2012, except for the provisions in section 10 insofar as they relate to section 26(2)(a)(ii)-(iii) of the Employment Service Act.

Regulations: Employment Service Regulations are contained in GN 62/2013 (GG 5147).

A separate set of regulations regarding employment services is published in GN 42/2015 (GG 5702).

Notices: Designations of employers and institutions under section 15(2) of the Act are contained in GN 202/2015 (GG 5829) (each employer employing 25 or more employees is identified as a designated employer).

LAND AND HOUSING

Some of these laws, while still technically in force, are primarily of historical interest.

Crown Lands (Trespass) Proclamation 7 of 1919.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 24) covers trespassing, removal of vegetation and the presence of animals on “crown lands in the protectorate”.

Amendments: This Proclamation is amended by Proc. 4/1937 (OG 701), Proc. 31/1938 (OG 770) and Proc. 18/1948 (OG 1357).

Crown Land Disposal Proclamation 13 of 1920.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 29) made the Crown Land Disposal Ordinance, 1903, of the Transvaal – as amended by the Crown Land Disposal Amendment Ordinance, 1906, of the Transvaal and by this Proclamation – applicable to South West Africa. According to one commentator (S. Amoo): “This effectively gave the South African Administration the power to either extend the application of existing South African legislation on property to South-West Africa or to promulgate completely new legislation for the territory.” It also authorised the Administrator of South West Africa to set aside Crown Lands as reserves “for the use and benefit of aboriginal natives, coloured persons and Asians”, as well as for various public purposes.

It was repealed in respect of Walvis Bay, along with Ord. 7/1951, by RSA Proclamation 149 of 1982 (RSA GG 8344).

Amendment of Execution (Mortgaged Properties) Proclamation 6 of 1933.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 502) supplements the law relating to the execution of judgements in respect of immovable property, in order to provide assistance to mortgage debtors by providing for suspension periods “in view of the prevailing financial depression”. Summary: This Ordinance (OG 2487) relates to the establishment of townships. The Ordinance and its amendments are repealed by the Urban and Regional Planning Act 5 of 2018 (GG 6631), which has not yet been brought into force. Act 5 of 1998 neglects to repeal the Townships and Division of Land Amendment Act 21 of 1998 (GG 1948) or Government Notice 63 of 1999 (GG 2083), both of which amend the Townships and Division of Land Ordinance 11 of 1963, but these amendments would have no ongoing effect on their own.

Application of law: The application of the Ordinance in Export Processing Zones is affected by section 5(e) of the Export Processing Zones Act 9 of 1995 (GG 1069).

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 36 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. Regulations pertaining to fees are contained in GN 10/2008 (GG 3983).

Immovable Property (Removal or Modification of Restrictions) Act 94 of 1965.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 1171) concerns restrictions imposed on land by wills and similar instruments. It repeals the SWA Removal or Modification of Restrictions on Immovable Property Proclamation 16 of 1948.

Applicability to SWA: Section 10 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including that portion of the said territory known as the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel and referred to in sub-section 3 of section three of the South West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951), and also in relation to all immovable property in that portion of the said territory known as the ‘Rehoboth Gebiet’ and defined in the First Schedule to Proclamation No. 28 of 1923 of the Administration of the said territory.” Although amendments to the Act in South Africa would have been automatically applicable to SWA, there were no amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.
Transfer of administration to SWA: Since the Act does not indicate what Minister administered the Act, it is not clear which transfer proclamation, if any, was applicable. However, the date of transfer is not relevant to the content of the statute, as there were no amendments to the law in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 1554) establishes a Land Tenure Board and provides for the acquisition and development of land in connection with farming purposes.

Applicability to SWA: Section 10A, which was added by RSA Act 67 of 1970, states “This Act and any amendments thereof which may be made from time to time, with the exception of section 5, shall apply also in the territory”, which is defined as “the territory of South West Africa”. (Section 5 concerns the disposal of state land which is not required for or suitable for farming purposes in terms of the State Land Disposal Act 48 of 1961.)

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Agricultural Credit and Land Tenure) Transfer Proclamation (AG 13/1977), dated 18 November 1977. There were no amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer. The Act was repealed in South Africa by the Second Community Development Amendment Act 68 of 1982 (RSA GG 8206), which was not made expressly applicable to SWA.

Section 3(2) of the General Proclamation excluded from transfer the provisions of any transferred law which “provide for or relate to the institution, constitution or control of any juristic person or any board or other body of persons that may exercise powers or perform other functions in or in respect of both the territory and the Republic”. This would appear to exclude from transfer the provisions of this Act relating to the Land Tenure Board.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Land Tenure Amendment Act 67 of 1970 (RSA GG 2862)
- Land Tenure Amendment Act 16 of 1972 (RSA GG 3458)
- Expropriation Act 63 of 1975 (RSA GG 4780).

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 8 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Summary: This Act controls the subdivision of agricultural land. Generally, subdivision is prohibited unless the Minister of Agriculture has given his consent.

Applicability to SWA: Section 14 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa”. Section 1 defines “agricultural land”, “executive committee” and “scheme” accordingly.
Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Agricultural Technical Services) Transfer Proclamation (AG 11/1978), dated 2 March 1978. None of the amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Subdivision of Agricultural Land Amendment Act 12 of 1979 (RSA GG 6345), the Subdivision of Agricultural Land Amendment Act 18 of 1981 (RSA GG 7447) and the Subdivision of Agricultural Land Amendment Act 33 of 1984 (RSA GG 9170) – were made expressly applicable to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Subdivision of Agricultural Land Amendment Act 55 of 1972 (RSA GG 3531)
- Subdivision of Agricultural Land Amendment Act 19 of 1974 (RSA GG 4210)
- Subdivision of Agricultural Land Amendment Act 18 of 1977 (RSA GG 5450).

Certain terminology is amended by the Native Laws Amendment Proclamation, AG 3 of 1979 (OG 3898), deemed to have come into force in relevant part on 1 August 1978 (section 5 of AG 3 of 1979).

The Act and two of its amending Acts (the Subdivision of Agricultural Land Amendment Act 55 of 1972 and the Subdivision of Agricultural Land Amendment Act 19 of 1974) were repealed in respect of Rehoboth by the Agricultural Land Act 5 of 1981 (Rehoboth) (Official Gazette 37 of Rehoboth), brought into force on 1 September 1981 by an unnumbered notice (Official Gazette 41 of Rehoboth, dated 23 September 1981), which provides a substituted law on the topic in respect of Rehoboth. Note that this Gazette appears to have been misnumbered as Official Gazette 38 of Rehoboth; it bears a handwritten notation altering it to Official Gazette 37 of Rehoboth.

Cases: Theron & Another v Tegethoff & Others 2001 NR 203 (HC).

It repeals the Subdivision of Agricultural Land Act 70 of 1970 in Rehoboth.

Note that Official Gazette 37 of Rehoboth was misprinted as Official Gazette 38 of Rehoboth. Some copies bear a handwritten correction showing the correct number, which was Official Gazette 37 of Rehoboth.
Regulations: Section 22(2) states: “Anything done under any provision of any law repealed by subsection (1) which is not contrary to or inconsistent with any provision of this Act, shall be deemed to have been done under the corresponding provision of this Act.” Section 20 of this Act provides for regulations. However, pre-independence regulations have not been researched, under this Act or the repealed Act.

Agricultural (Commercial) Land Reform Act 6 of 1995.

Summary: This Act (GG 1040) provides for the acquisition of agricultural land by the Namibian government for the purposes of land reform, and for its redistribution to Namibian citizens “who do not own or otherwise have the use of agricultural land or adequate agricultural land, and foremost to those Namibian citizens who have been socially, economically or educationally disadvantaged by past discriminatory laws or practices”. It also establishes a Land Reform Advisory Commission and a Lands Tribunal.

Part VI (Restriction on Acquisition of Agricultural Land by Foreign Nationals) came into force on the date of publication, 3 March 1995 (section 81(3) of the Act). The remainder of the Act, with the exception of Parts II, III, IV and V, was brought into force on 6 December 1995 by GN 230/1995 (GG 1214). All the remaining sections were brought into force on 17 October 1996 by GN 271/1996 (GG 1426).

Amendments: Act 16/2000 (GG 2378) amends sections 1, 4, and 12, and inserts a new Part establishing a Land Acquisition and Development Fund and a new section 37A. It was brought into force on 29 December 2001 (GN 258/2001, GG 2678).

Act 19/2003 (GG 3116) amends sections 18 and 76. It was brought into force on 1 April 2004 by GN 56/2004 (GG 3181).

Act 1/2014 (GG 5428) amends section 1, 17, 20 and 62, and substitutes section 9.
Regulations: Several sets of regulations have been issued under the Act -

Regulations relating to the acquisition of land by foreign nationals are contained in GN 257/1996 (GG 1411)

GN 120/2014 (GG 5530) purports to amend the Regulations relating to the Acquisition of Land by Foreign Nationals contained in GN 257/1996, but this seems to be an error. The Regulations relating to the Acquisition of Land by Foreign Nationals contained in GN 257/1996 contain only one form, which has no number. GN 120/2014 inserts a Form 1A and a Form 4 after Form 3. The General Regulations in GN 272/1996 contain a Form 1 and a Form 2, but no Form 3. Thus, the numbers of the forms in GN 120/2014 do not fit correctly with either of these sets of regulations. However, the forms in GN 120/2014 appear to concern sale and waiver in general rather than being relevant only to foreigner nationals.

There are other errors in GN 120/2014. It states “In these regulations “the Regulations” means the regulations in relation to Acquisition of Agricultural Land by foreign nationals, published under Government Notice No. 257 of 19 September 1996 as amended by Government Notice Nos. 272 of 17 October 1996, 243 of 15 December 2001, 259 of 29 December 2001, 128 of 1 June 2004, 181 of 15 December 2005, 120 of 3 July 2007, 143 of 1 August 2007, and 241 of 6 September 2013.” This statement is incorrect. Regulations relating to the Acquisition of Agricultural Land by Foreign Nationals were published in GN 257/1996, but all of the other Government Notices referred to concern other sets of regulations issued under the Act – with the exception of GN 143/2007, which is not a regulation but a notice issued under regulation 3 of the Land Valuation and Taxation Regulations concerning the dates for a general valuation of agricultural land.

General regulations are contained in GN 272/1996 (GG 1426), as amended by GN 243/2001 (GG 2663) (Form 1) and GN 181/2005 (GG 3555) (Form 1). They are also apparently amended by GN 120/2014 (GG 5530) (see the note above).

Land Valuation and Taxation Regulations were initially contained in GN 259/2001 (GG 2678), as amended by GN 128/2004 (GG 3214). These Land Valuation and Taxation Regulations were repealed and replaced by GN 120/2007 (GG 3870), as amended by GN 210/2011 (GG 4833) and GN 185/2015 (GG 5809). These regulations were in turn repealed and replaced by a new set of Land Valuation and Taxation Regulations contained in GN 285/2018 (GG 6755).

Regulations on Procedure to Sublease Portion of Farming Unit are contained in GN 241/2013 (GG 5279).

Regulations relating to the exemption of certain agricultural land from section 17 of the Act are contained in GN 233/2014 (GG 5613).

Regulations on criteria to be used for expropriation of agricultural land are contained in GN 209/2016 (GG 6115).

Rules: The Rules of the Lands Tribunal are contained in GN 76/1996 (GG 1289).

Notices: Bodies and associations are designated to appoint members to the Land Reform Commission in GN 98/1995 (GG 1090).

A pro forma lease agreement for farming units in terms of section 37 of the Act is contained in GN 50/1999 (GG 2075) which is withdrawn by GN 179/2009 (GG 4337).
Certain land is excluded from the definition of “agricultural land” by GN 248/2009 (GG 4403), GN 161/2012 (GG 4978), GN 228/2013 (GG 5264) and GN 123/2016 (GG 6037).

Certain agricultural land is excluded from the land tax imposed in terms of section 76 of the Act by GN 68/2015 (GG 5728).

Documents which must accompany an offer to sell agricultural land to the State are prescribed in GN 227/2016 (GG 6125).

Associations or bodies involved in agricultural affairs are designated in terms of section 4(1)(e) of the Act in GN 234/2016 (GG 6135).

Urban and Regional Planning Act 5 of 2018.

Summary: This Act (GG 6631) consolidates the laws relating to urban and regional planning, and provides a legal framework for spatial planning. It establishes the Urban and Regional Planning Board, which replaces the Namibia Planning Advisory Board (NAMPAB) and the Townships Board. It also covers urban zoning and subdivision, as well as structure plans and the establishment of new townships. It repeals the Town Planning Ordinance 18 of 1954, the Townships and Division of Land Ordinance 11 of 1963 and the Removal of Restrictions Ordinance 15 of 1975. The Act will be brought into force on a date set by the Minister by notice in the Government Gazette. The Act neglects to repeal the Townships and Division of Land Amendment Act 21 of 1998 (GG 1948) or Government Notice 63 of 1999 (GG 2083), both of which amend the Townships and Division of Land Ordinance 11 of 1963, but these amendments would have no ongoing effect on their own.
Regulations: The Act contains a savings clause. Section 132(2) of the Act provides that, unless otherwise provided in the Act, any regulation issued under any of the repealed laws must be regarded as having been issued in terms of the corresponding provision of this Act:

Regulations pertaining to fees were issued under the Town Planning Ordinance 18 of 1954 in GN 11/2008 (GG 3983). Pre-independence regulations issued under that Ordinance have not been researched.

Regulations pertaining to fees were issued under the Townships and Division of Land Ordinance 11 of 1963 in GN 10/2008 (GG 3983). Pre-independence regulations issued under that Ordinance have not been researched.

The Removal of Restrictions Ordinance 15 of 1975 made no provision for regulations.

Notices: Section 132(2) of the Act provides that, unless otherwise provided in the Act, any notice, rule, authorisation, appointment or other act done under any of the repealed laws must be regarded as having been done in terms of the corresponding provision of this Act.

Notices relating to specific townships issued under the Townships and Division of Land Ordinance 11 of 1963 have not been recorded.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 5221) establishes an Estate Agents Board and an Estate Agents Fidelity Fund and regulates the activities of estate agents.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Republic” to include “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 36 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel”. It was amended in SWA by Act 28 of 1987 to state that the Act applied to SWA, but not the amendments: “This Act shall apply in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Commerce) Transfer Proclamation (AG 28/1978), dated 28 April 1978. There were no amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to the date of transfer. (The Estate Agents Amendment Act 60 of 1978 came into force on the date of its publication, 17 May 1978, shortly after the date of transfer.) None of the six amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence were made expressly applicable to SWA. (This was confirmed by the 1987 amendment referred to above.)

Amendments: Act 28/1987 (OG 5476), which is brought into force on 1 April 1988 by AG 5/1988 (OG 5514), amends the Act substantially.

Application of law: The application of this law is affected by the Financial Intelligence Act 13 of 2012 (GG 5096), which places certain duties on estate agents and on the Estate Agents Board.

Regulations: Act 28/1987 (OG 5476) states: “The regulations published under section 33 of the principal Act in the Government Gazette of the Republic of South Africa which were of force and effect in the Republic immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (2), apply in the territory of South West Africa as if it were made by the Cabinet under the said section 33 and published in the Official Gazette on the date of commencement of this Act.” This amending Act also contains rules about how certain terms in the South African regulations are to be construed, and amends “the regulations published by Government Notice R.1409 in Government Gazette 8783 of 1 July 1983”.

Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched. The ones listed below have been amended since independence.

Regulations relating to Issue of Fidelity Fund and Registration Certificates are contained in RSA GN R.1798 of 1986 (RSA GG 10403), AG GN 97/1989 (OG 5844), GN 222/1996 (GG 1395) and GN 222/2015 (GG 5845). These Regulations are also affected by a correction notice contained in RSA Government Notice R.2106 of 1986 (RSA GG 10476), but the correction affects only the Afrikaans text. Act 28/1987 (OG 5476) contains some rules of construction which apply to these regulations.

Rules: The most recent Code of Conduct published under this Act is contained in GN 16/1996 (GG 1242).

Architects’ and Quantity Surveyors’ Act 13 of 1979.

Summary: This Act (OG 4029) provides for the establishment of a Namibia Council for Architects and Quantity Surveyors, and for the registration of persons in these professions. It was brought into force, with the exception of section 13(1)(b), on 1 January 1980 by AG 36/1979 (OG 4057). Section 13(1)(b) was brought into force on 2 May 1983 by AG Proc. 10/1983 (OG 4773).

Amendments: Act 11/1992 (GG 420) amends sections 1, 2, 3, 11, and 25, and substitutes certain words and expressions and the long title of the Act to make it consistent with an independent Namibia.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 18 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Fees: Minimum fees are contained in GN 250/1998 (GG 1968), as amended by GN 221/2003 (GG 3082), which provides that architects shall be remunerated for their standard services at a fee calculated as a percentage of the cost of the works, except where the nature of the work renders percentage fees inapplicable. In the latter case the fees shall be calculated on an hourly basis in accordance with Annexure 2 of the Notice. Annexure 2 of the Notice provides for payment on the basis of hourly rates determined by the Namibia Council for Architects and Quantity Surveyors.

GN 105/2013 (GG 5183) provides for a minimum hourly fee as prescribed by the Minister of Works and Transport on the recommendation of the Namibia Council for Architects and Quantity Surveyors.

Exemptions from the provisions of sections 11 and 13 in respect of work for the Millennium Challenge Account are contained in GN 12/2009 (GG 4210).

Exemptions of listed persons from registration, pursuant to section 23(1) read with section 11, were originally contained in GN 87/2017 (GG 6285), but this notice was repealed by GN 297/2017 (GG 6472).

The Act repeals the Land Surveyors’ Ordinance 10 of 1963 and the Land Surveyors’ Registration Act 14 of 1950. It was brought into force on 1 June 1994 by GN 85/1994 (GG 863).

Amendments: Act 16/1995 (GG 1155) inserts section 14A and amends section 15. Its primary purpose is to provide for the authorisation of professional land surveyors, technical surveyors and survey technicians in the public service.

Notices: The Institute of Land Surveyors is recognised as an approved society in GN 264/1998 (GG 1982).

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 2318) concerns formalities in leases of land.

Applicability to SWA: Section 2 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa.” Although amendments to the Act in South Africa would have been automatically applicable to SWA, there were no amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Transfer of administration to SWA: Since the Act does not indicate what Minister administered the Act, it is not clear which transfer proclamation, if any, was applicable. However, the date of transfer is not relevant to the content of the statute, as there were no amendments to the law in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Rents Ordinance 13 of 1977.

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 3634) regulates the letting and hiring of non-commercial immovable property. It was brought into force with effect from 1 January 1978 by Proc. 1/1978 (OG 3685). It repeals the Rents Proclamation 4 of 1944, as amended.

Regulations are also authorised by section 38 of this Ordinance. Regulations issued pursuant to this Ordinance are contained in GN 10/1978 (OG 3685). These regulations came into operation with effect from 1 January 1978, and repealed the regulations contained in GN 3421 of 15 December 1975.

Crown Liabilities Act 1 of 1910.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 72) concerns state liability.

Applicability to SWA: This Act was extended to South West Africa by section 1(1)(b) of the Railway Management Proclamation 70 of 1920 (OG 46). That section states “(1) The control and management of the Railways and Harbours within the Protectorate of South West Africa and of all subsidiary undertakings connected therewith hitherto controlled and managed by the Railways and Harbours Administration of the Union of South Africa (hereinafter called the Railway Administration) shall continue to be vested in and to be exercised by the Railway Administration, and for that purpose… (b) the following acts of the Union Parliament together with any regulations now or hereafter existing thereunder shall, mutatis mutandis and so far as capable of application, have force and effect within the Protectorate”. One of the laws listed in paragraph (b) is the Crown Liabilities Act 1 of 1910, along with several other laws since repealed.

According to Mwadingi v Minister of Defence 1990 NR 363 (HC) at 377C-D (approved of on appeal in Minister of Defence v Mwandingi 1993 NR 63 (SC) at 77C-F), “the Crown Liabilities Act 1 of 1910 was extended by the Railway Management Proclamation 20 of 1920 to the territory [this is an error; the correct citation for this Proclamation is Proclamation 70 of 1920]. It is true that it was so extended for purposes of that proclamation, but the act applied in its entirety and it seems to me, once it was extended, it was accepted by our courts as also binding on all other, at that stage, departments (see Hwedhanga v Cabinet for the Territory of South West Africa 1988 (2) SA 746 (SWA); Binga v Cabinet for South West Africa & Others 1988 (3) SA 155 (A)).”

The Act was repealed in South Africa by the State Liability Act 20 of 1957 (SA GG 5850), which was not made expressly applicable to South West Africa.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Administration of Justice Proclamation 21 of 1919.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 25) introduced Roman Dutch law to SWA. It originally contained provisions relating to courts and legal practitioners, but these have been repealed.

Application of law: See section 5 of the Rehoboth Affairs Proclamation 1 of 1937 (OG 696) regarding jurisdiction over certain civil suits in the Rehoboth Gebiet.
Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Cases: Tittel v Master of the High Court 1921 SWA 58 and Collisons v Kruger & Others 1923 SWA 74 are significant early cases interpreting this Proclamation.

- Kamahere & Others v Government of the Republic of Namibia & Others 2016 (4) NR 919 (SC) (section 11(2)(c); reference to section 2 in concurring judgment).

Summary: This Act covers the appointment, powers and duties of justices of the peace and commissioners of oaths. It repeals the Justices of the Peace and Oaths Act 16 of 1914. The Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Oaths Amendment Act 55 of 1970, which made the Act applicable to SWA, repealed the SWA Commissioners of Oaths Proclamation 24 of 1928.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Republic” to include “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 11A states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended. None of the amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Oaths Amendment Act 110 of 1984 (RSA GG 9360), the Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Oaths Amendment Act 36 of 1986 (RSA GG 10198) and the Transfer of Powers and Duties of the State President Act 97 of 1986 (RSA GG 10438) – were made expressly applicable to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- General Law Amendment Act 80 of 1964 (RSA GG 829)
- Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Oaths Amendment Act 8 of 1965 (RSA GG 1054)
- Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Oaths Amendment Act 21 of 1967 (RSA GG 1677)
- Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Oaths Amendment Act 55 of 1970 (RSA GG 2828)
- Parliamentary Service Act 33 of 1974 (RSA GG 4374)
- Second Bantu Laws Amendment Act 102 of 1978 (RSA GG 6095)

Terminology in the Act was amended by the Native Laws Amendment Proclamation, AG 3 of 1979 (OG 3898), deemed to have come into force in relevant part on 1 August 1978 (section 5 of AG 3 of 1979).

Regulations: Section 11(4) states: “Anything done under any provision of a law repealed by sub-section (1), shall be deemed to have been done under the corresponding provision of this Act, if any.”

Regulations are authorised by section 10 of this Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Notices: Notices regarding holders of office who are commissioners of oath are contained in RSA GN R.1257/1972 (RSA GG 3619) as amended by RSA GN R.56/1975 (RSA GG 4558), and in AG GN 128/1982 (OG 4672) and GN 100/2000 (GG 2312) (regional councillors to be Commissioners of Oaths).

Investigating officers of the Anti-Corruption Commission established by the Anti-Corruption Act 8 of 2003, already appointed and to be appointed, are appointed as justices of the peace for all magisterial districts by GN 33/2012 (GG 4883).

Certain inspectors for the Communication Regulatory Authority of Namibia are appointed as Ex-officio Commissioners of Oaths, with effect from 15 February 2016, by GN 48/2016 (GG 5971).

Namibia Financial Institutions Supervisory Authority v Christian & Another 2011 (2) NR 537 (HC) at 553F-554A (Reg 7).

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 3365) addresses delegations of power by the “Executive Committee of the Whites”. It would presumably now cover delegations by the Namibian authority corresponding to this Executive Committee, in terms of Art 140(4)-(5) of the Namibian Constitution; in terms of the transitional provisions in Art 140 of the Namibian Constitution, the reference to “Executive Committee” in the Ordinance is now construed as the relevant Minister responsible for administration of a particular law.

Amendments: The Ordinance is amended by Ord. 20/1975 (OG 3498). It was also amended for the purposes of the pre-independence Representative Authority for Whites by Ordinance 3 of 1982 (Official Gazette 15 of the Representative Authority of the Whites).

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Cases: The Ordinance is discussed in Waterberg Big Game Hunting Lodge Otjahewita (Pty) Ltd v Minister of Environment 2010 (1) NR 1 (SC):

> “The only statutory provision for delegations of authority referred to by counsel for respondent, was a general authority to delegate powers of the Executive Committee of the pre-independence period as contained in ss 2-6 of the Delegation of Powers Ordinance 24 of 1973 as amended by s 1 of Ord 20 of 1975. It must be noted that s 6(2) of Ord 24 of 1973 as amended contains a typical savings clause by providing:
> ‘Any power, authority or function delegated to any person in terms of the Ordinance repealed by s (1) shall be deemed to have been delegated to such person in terms of this Ordinance.’
> …I have considered arts 140 and 141 of the Namibian Constitution, which may be regarded as serving the purpose of a savings clause dealing with the law in force at the date of Namibian independence on 21 March 1990. The said Ord 24 of 1973 as amended was never expressly repealed or amended by Act of Parliament or declared unconstitutional by a competent court and consequently remained in force in terms of art 140(1) of the Namibian Constitution.”

Summary: This Act (GG 331) establishes a Law Reform and Development Commission. It was brought into force on 15 July 1992 by Proc. 21/1992 (GG 439).

Amendments: Act 4/1995 (GG 1036) amends sections 3, 5, 8 and 12. Act 2/2004 (GG 3238) amends sections 3, 6, and 8 and substitutes sections 4, 5 and 12. It was brought into force on 15 July 2004 by GN 147/2004 (GG 3239).

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 14 of the Act, but none have yet been promulgated.

Appointments: The appointment of a Chairperson is announced in Proc. 12/2011 (GG 4767). No previous announcements could be located, although there were several previous Chairpersons. (See, for example, GN 21/1997 (GG 1712), which refers to Mr U D Nujoma as a full-time Chairperson.) A Chairperson is announced in Proc. 34/2015 (GG 5869).

Note that there are two Proclamations numbered as Proclamation 34 of 2015, in GG 5853 and GG 5869.

Note: Article 32(3)(i) of the Namibian Constitution discusses the President’s powers of appointment, including some specific offices as well as covering the appointment of “any other person or persons who are required by any other provision of this Constitution or any other law to be appointed by the President”. Article 32(8) states that all such appointments “shall be announced by the President by Proclamation in the Gazette.”

Summary: This Proclamation (RSA GG 8367), which appears to have replaced the State Attorney Act 56 of 1957 in SWA, concerns the functions of the Government Attorney. It converts the Windhoek branch of the Office of the State Attorney in Pretoria into the Government Attorney’s Office for the Territory of South West Africa. It was brought into force on 1 April 1984 by RSA Proc. 52/1984 (RSA GG 9162).

Applicability to SWA: The Proclamation applies to SWA because it was issued in terms of section 38 of the South-West Africa Constitution Act 39 of 1968, which gave the State President of South Africa certain powers to make laws for SWA. It appears to replace the State Attorney Act 56 of 1957 in SWA.

The State Attorney Act 56 of 1957 (SA GG 5894) – as amended by the General Law Further Amendment Act 93 of 1962 (RSA GG 284) and the State Attorney Amendment Act 7 of 1966 (RSA GG 1380) – was made applicable to SWA by section 6 of Act 7 of 1966 which states: “The principal Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South-West Africa, (including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section 3 of the South-Africa West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951)), and in relation to all persons in that portion of the said territory known as the “Rehoboth Gebiet” and defined in the First Schedule to Proclamation No. 28 of 1923 of the Administrator of the said territory.” Section 7 of Act 7 of 1966 provided: “In the principal Act, unless the context otherwise indicates, “Republic” also includes the territory of South-West Africa.” These two sections were independent provisions of Act 7 of 1966 rather than amendments to Act 56 of 1957. (Section 9 of Act 7 of 1966 also repealed the State Attorney Proclamation, 1921 (Proclamation 46 of 1921), and the State Attorney Proclamation, 1921 Amendment Ordinance, 1963 (Ordinance 17 of 1963) in respect of SWA.) Act 7 of 1966 was brought into force on 3 January 1967 by RSA Proc. R.376/1966 (RSA GG 1626). After the State Attorney Act 56 of 1957 and its amendments became applicable to SWA, Act 56 of 1957 was further amended by the State Attorney Amendment Act 45 of 1980 (RSA GG 6992), which was deemed to have come into force on 13 September 1979 (section 2 of the amending Act).

Sections 6 and 7 of Act 7 of 1966 were both repealed by the Government Attorney Proclamation, R.161 of 1982, which converted the Windhoek branch of the Office of the State Attorney in Pretoria into the Government Attorney’s Office for the Territory of South West Africa. (This Proclamation states in section 13 that sections 11-14, which amend some provisions of the State Attorney Act 56 of 1957, repeal sections 6 and 7 of the State Attorney Amendment Act 7 of 1966, and provide transitional provisions, “shall apply also in the Republic of South Africa”.)

Some of these amendments refer to South West Africa, but without making Act 56 of 1957 applicable to SWA; they seem rather to have given the South African State Attorney’s Office authority to act on behalf of the SWA administration or the government of Rehoboth, if arrangements were made with that administration or government. Section 3(2) of the State Attorney Act 56 of 1957, as substituted by Act 7 of 1966 and amended by Proclamation R.161 of 1982, states:

There may also be performed at the State Attorney’s office or at any of its branches like functions for or on behalf of the administration of any province, any department established under the laws relating to the government service of the Territory of South-West Africa, the government of Rehoboth and the South African Railways and Harbours Administration, subject to such terms and conditions as may be arranged between the Minister of Justice and the administration, department or government concerned.

Section 3(3) of the State Attorney Act 56 of 1957, as substituted by Act 93 of 1962 and amended by Proclamation R.161 of 1982, states:

Unless the Minister of Justice otherwise directs, there may also be performed at the State Attorney’s office or at any of its branches like functions in or in connection with any matter in which the Government or such an administration, department or government as aforesaid, though not a party, is interested or concerned in, or in connection with any matter where, in the opinion of the State Attorney or of any person acting under his authority, it is in the public interest that such functions be performed at the said office or at one of its branches.

Section 8 of Act 7 of 1966, provided that any references in any law to the State Attorney for the territory of South-West Africa should be construed as references to the State Attorney in Act 56 of 1957. Section 12 of Proclamation R.161 of 1982 appears to follow on section 8 of Act 7 of 1966 (which was not repealed), by providing that references in any law to the Windhoek branch of the State Attorney shall be construed as references to the Government Attorney’s office. Thus, Proclamation R.161 of 1982 appears to have replaced the State Attorney Act 56 of 1957 in SWA – an understanding which is supported by the fact that Proclamation R.161 of 1982 duplicates much of Act 56 of 1957.

Transfer of administration to SWA: This Proclamation post-dated the SWA transfer proclamations.

The relevant transfer proclamation for the State Attorney Act 56 of 1957 which preceded it was the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended. However, section 3(1)(g) of this transfer proclamation excluded the State Attorney Act 56 of 1957 from the provisions of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that the administration of this Act was not transferred to SWA. Therefore, the amendments made to that Act in South Africa after the date of the transfer proclamation continued to be automatically applicable to SWA – until the legal provision which made that Act applicable to SWA was repealed by the Government Attorney Proclamation, R.161 of 1982 with effect from 1 April 1984.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 10 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Cases: The case of Eimbeck v Inspector-General of the Namibian Police & Another 1995 NR 13 (HC) refers at page 18 to the Government Attorney Proclamation R.161 of 1982:

The Government Attorney acted in terms of his functions in pursuance of s 4 of the Government Attorney Proclamation No R161 of 1982, which came into force on 1 April 1984 and which is still in force.

The State Attorney Act 56 of 1957 and the Government Attorney Proclamation R.161 of 1982 are discussed in para 28 of Minister of Health and Social Services v Medical Association of Namibia 2012 (2) NR 566 (SC):

Prior to independence, the State Attorney at Windhoek was a branch office of the office of the State Attorney, Pretoria, in terms of the State Attorney Act 56 of 1957. (Section 3(2) of Act 56 of 1957.) However, by State President’s proclamation R161 of 1982, the Windhoek branch office was converted into the Government Attorney’s office for the Territory of South West Africa. It did not repeal Act 56 of 1957 but amended certain words to bring it in line with the proclamation. Section 4 of the proclamation sets out the functions of the Government Attorney which, in general, are the same as set out in s 3 of Act 56 of 1957.

This case also discusses the role of the Government Attorney.

See also Maletzky v The President of the Republic of Namibia & Others 2016 (2) NR 420 (HC) (holding that it is not improper for the Government Attorney to represent a judicial officer in the employ of the State; section 4(b)(ii) of the Proclamation).

Legal Aid Act 29 of 1990.

Summary: This Act (GG 131) provides for the granting of legal aid in civil and criminal matters to persons whose means are inadequate to enable them to engage legal practitioners to assist and represent them. Amendments: Act 17/2000 (GG 2421) amends sections 1, 3, 6, 8, 10, 13, 15, and 20 and inserts section 24A.

Regulations: There is no savings clause for regulations issued under the repealed Act.

Legal Practitioners Act 15 of 1995.

Summary: This Act (GG 1141) governs the legal profession and legal practitioners, who were formerly known as attorneys and advocates. It establishes a Board for Legal Education, a Law Society of Namibia and a Legal Practitioners’ Fidelity Fund. The Act was brought into force on 7 September 1995 by GN 150/1995 (GG 1148). It repeals the RSA Admission of Advocates Act 74 of 1964, the Legal Practitioners’ Fidelity Fund Amendments: Act 4/1997 (GG 1586) amends sections 11, 21, 54, 67, 72, and 87 and substitutes section 22.

Act 6/1999 (GG 2126) temporarily suspends sections 79(1), (2) and (3) relating to the conferment of Senior Counsel status, until such time as the Minister of Justice reinstates them by notice in the Gazette. However, Act 6/1999 was repealed by Act 22/2002 (GG 2892), which was brought into force on 1 November 2005 by GN 139/2005 (GG 3529).

Act 10/2002 (GG 2849) amends sections 5 and 18.

Act 22/2002 (GG 2892), which was brought into force on 1 November 2005 by GN 139/2005 (GG 3529), amends sections 1, 21, 32, 52 and 72, substitutes section 45 and repeals section 79.

Application of law: The application of this law is affected by the Financial Intelligence Act 13 of 2012, which places certain duties on legal practitioners and on the Law Society.

A decision of the Namibian Competition Commission on an application by the Law Society for exemption in respect of professional rules is contained in General Notice 564/2015 (GG 5906).

Savings: Section 94(4) states: “Anything made or prescribed, including regulations or rules, or done under the provisions of any law repealed by subsection (1), and having the force of law immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, insofar as they are not inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Act, continue to be in force, until altered or revoked by the competent authority under the provisions of this Act.”

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations which might survive pursuant to the savings clause have not been comprehensively researched.

Regulations relating to the fidelity fund are contained in GN 136/1993 (GG 741). These regulations were issued in terms of the previous Legal Practitioners’ Fidelity Fund Act 22 of 1990, but survive under the new Act in terms of section 94(4). (This position is confirmed in Van der Merwe v Director of the Law Society of Namibia & Others 2013 (1) NR 98 at para 26, but the case erroneously refers to GN 135/1993 instead of GN 136/1993.)

Regulations relating to candidate legal practitioners are contained in GN 228/1995 (GG 1207), as amended by GN 58/1997 (GG 1528), GN 67/1997 (GG 1537) and GN 8/1999 (GG 2025). GN 8/2011 (GG 4649) substitutes Annexure 6 to these regulations.

Rules: Rules governing the Disciplinary Committee are set forth in GN 54/1996 (GG 1270).

Fees: Regulations relating to the fee for a certificate of enrolment as a legal practitioner are contained in GN 201/1995 (GG 1183).

Notices: Various Government Gazettes have prescribed degrees which are recognised in Namibia for the purpose of the practice of law. These have not been recorded here.

Appointments: The Board for Legal Education is announced in GN 184/1995 (GG 1165) and GN 15/1996 (GG 1241).

S v Conradie 2015 (3) NR 863 (HC) (although not dealing with the Act specifically, grant of postponement in criminal case based on constitutional right to legal representative of choice)

Makando v Disciplinary Committee for Legal Practitioners 2016 (4) NR 1127 (SC) (section 35: Disciplinary Committee is an administrative body in terms of Art 18 of Namibian Constitution, but section 35 procedure does not violate that Article; issue considered in context of prospects of success in condonation application).

This case includes criticism of the Disciplinary Committee at para 23: “Once again this court must chide the Disciplinary Committee for its failure to comply with the time limits stipulated in the rules of this court. It is not acceptable for an institution charged with the responsibility of regulating the conduct of legal practitioners itself to fail to observe the rules.” It also includes similar criticism of the Law Society of Namibia at para 27).

Regulations: There is no savings clause for regulations promulgated under the repealed laws.

Regulations issued in terms of this Act are contained in GN 70/2001 (GG 2519).

MAINTENANCE

Summary: This Act (GG 1035) provides for the reciprocal enforcement of maintenance orders between Namibia and other countries designated by the Minister of Justice. It repeals the South African Reciprocal Enforcement of Maintenance Orders Act 80 of 1963.

Amendments: Sections 1, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9 are amended by the Maintenance Act 9 of 2003 (GG 3043), which was brought into force on 17 November 2003 (GN 232/2003, GG 3093).

Savings: Section 13(2) states that anything done “under any provision of the Reciprocal Enforcement of Maintenance Orders Act, 1963, or deemed to have been so registered or confirmed or done, shall be deemed to have been registered or confirmed or done under the corresponding provision of this Act.”

Regulations: This Act makes no provision for regulations, which means that the savings clause does not apply with respect to regulations.

Rules: Rules issued under the previous Act are contained in RSA GN R.98/1965 (22 January 1965).

Designations: Section 13 of the Act provides that any country designated under the Reciprocal Enforcement of Maintenance Orders Act 80 of 1963 will be deemed to be a designated country for the purposes of the Act. South Africa was named as a designated country in GN 124/1993 (GG 727), effective 10 September 1993.

Although South Africa is the only country that was designated under the 1963 Act by an independent Namibian government, some of the designations made prior to Namibian independence by the State President of South Africa were applicable to “South West Africa” and thus survive in independent Namibia.

The Reciprocal Enforcement of Maintenance Orders Act 80 of 1963 was an Act of the South African Parliament that was made applicable to the “territory of South West Africa” by the Reciprocal Enforcement of Maintenance Orders Amendment Act 40 of 1970, with effect from 1 March 1971.

The 1963 Act was administered by the Minister of Justice of South Africa, thus, its administration was transferred to South West Africa by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979. Section 3(1)(k) of this Proclamation explicitly excluded the Reciprocal Enforcement of Maintenance Orders Act 80 of 1963 from the provisions of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation – meaning that the functions of the Minister were not transferred. Nevertheless, as of 1979, section 2 of the 1963 Act empowered the State President to issue Proclamations designating countries to which the Act was applicable. This power was not affected by the exclusion from section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, but was governed by section 3(4) of the General Proclamation which states that any proclamation issued by the State President after the commencement of any transfer proclamation under a law which at the time of such commencement applied to both South Africa and the territory of South West Africa and which is published in the Government Gazette of the Republic “shall, notwithstanding the provisions of (1), apply in the territory if such proclamation ... or the notice by which it is so published, contains a statement that it was or is issued or made with the consent of the Administrator-General, and applies also in the territory ...

None of the Proclamations issued by the State President under the 1963 Act after the date of transfer, or the notices publishing them, make any explicit reference to the territory or the Administrator-General, and thus were not applicable to the “territory of South West Africa”.

The South African Transfer of Powers and Duties of the State President Act 97 of 1986 amended section 2 of the 1963 Act so that the power to designate countries under the Act was in future to be exercised by means of a notice issued by the Minister of Justice rather than by a Proclamation of the State President. The effect of this change would have been that any subsequent notices issued by the Minister of Justice in this regard would have been applicable to the Territory of South West Africa by virtue of the exclusion of the 1963 Act from section 3(1) of the General Proclamation. However, we have not located any such notices between 1986 and Namibian independence on 21 March 1990.

The result is that the only designations applicable to “South West Africa” were those which were made prior to the date of transfer in 1979.

The countries in question are as follows (excluding the South African “homelands” which existed as semi-autonomous political units under apartheid but are now part of a unitary South Africa, as declarations in respect of these “homelands” are of no ongoing relevance):

- North-West Territories, Canada (Proclamation No. R. 160 of 1970 of 19 June 1970)
- State of California, USA (Proclamation No. R. 1 of 1971 of 8 January 1971)
- Province of Alberta, Canada (Proclamation No. R. 175 of 1971 of 13 August 1971)

Several secondary sources list RSA Government Notice 68 of 1968 as designating Germany under the Act. However, it has not been possible to locate this Government Notice, and it seems impossible that it could have been a valid designation under the Act because in 1968 such a designation could only have been made by means of a Proclamation of the State President. Therefore, Germany is not included in the list of designated countries.

Upon Namibia’s independence, the powers given to the South African Minister of Justice under the 1963 Act were vested in the Minister of Justice of Namibia by virtue of the transitional provisions contained in Article 140 of the Namibia Constitution. However, as noted above, the only country designated under the 1963 Act since independence is South Africa.

Maintenance Act 9 of 2003.

Summary: This Act (GG 3043) concerns the payment of maintenance, the holding of maintenance enquiries, and enforcement of maintenance orders. It repeals the South African Support of Dependants (Natives) Proclamation of 1936 and the South African Maintenance Act 23 of 1963. It was brought into force on 17 November 2003 by GN 232/2003 (GG 3093).

Savings: Section 50(5) states: “Notwithstanding the repeal of the Maintenance Act, 1963 (Act No. 23 of 1963) by subsection (1) the rules which were made under that Act and were in force immediately before the commencement of this Act and which are not inconsistent with this Act, continue in force until repealed, withdrawn or amended by regulations made under section 49.” Pre-independence rules and regulations have not been researched.

Regulations: The savings clause appears to apply to rules but not regulations made in terms of the repealed Maintenance Act 23 of 1963.

Regulations made under this Act are contained in GN 233/2003 (GG 3093).

S v Gawaseb 2007 (2) NR 600 (HC) (quotes with approval at 602I-603B the following statement from a South African case: “Systemic failures to enforce maintenance orders have a negative impact on the rule of law. The courts are there to ensure that the rights of all are protected. The judiciary must endeavour to secure for vulnerable children and disempowered women their small but life sustaining legal entitlements. If court orders are habitually evaded and defied with relative impunity the justice system is discredited and the constitutional promise of human dignity and equality is seriously compromised for those dependent on the law. It is a function of the State not only to provide a good legal framework but to put in place systems that will enable these frameworks to operate effectively. Our maintenance courts and the laws that they implement are important mechanisms to give effect to the rights of children protected by s 28 of the Constitution. Failure to ensure their effective operation amounts to a failure to protect children against those who take advantage of the weaknesses of the system.”)

Summary: This Act (GG 330) provides for the formation of the National Fishing Corporation of Namibia Limited, a company with the object of exploiting fish and other marine resources, and promoting the establishment, development and efficiency of other businesses engaged in the fishing industry.

Application of law: The application of the Act is affected by the State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 (GG 3698), which was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733) and which has since been re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Summary: This Act (GG 2458) provides for the conservation of the marine ecosystem; for the responsible utilisation, conservation, protection and promotion of marine resources on a sustainable basis; and for the control of marine resources for these purposes. It repeals the Sea Fisheries Act 29 of 1992 (GG 492), which in turn replaced the Sea Fisheries Act 58 of 1973. It also repeals the Sea Birds and Seals Protection Act 46 of 1973, and the Fishing Boat and Factory Owners’ Committee Ordinance 16 of 1968. The Act was brought into force on 1 August 2001 by GN 152/2001 (GG 2591).

Amendments: The State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 (GG 3698), which was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733) and which has since been re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006, amends section 13, 16, and 17, and deletes section 15.

Act 9/2015 (GG 5837) amends sections 1, 3, 32, 38 and 39 and inserts section 39A.

Regulations: Regulations made under previous legislation remain in force, in terms of section 64(2) of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched.

GN 153/2001 (GG 2591) states that it repeals the “regulations promulgated by Government Notice No. 566 of 4 January 1993”. There is no such Government Notice. However, the repeal probably intended to refer to Government Notice No. 1 of 4 January 1993, which was published in Government Gazette 566.

Regulations made under the current Act are as follows:

Regulations relating to the Exploitation of Marine Resources are contained in GN 241/2001 (GG 2657), as amended by GN 63/2015 (GG 5721), GN 55/2016 (GG 5985) and GN 93/2018 (GG 6601). These regulations repeal the ones on the same topic initially contained in GN 153/2001 (GG 2591).

GN 92/2018 (GG 6601) announces a period for applications for rights to harvest certain marine resources in terms of these regulations, along with criteria for granting rights to harvest these resources. Both the time period and the criteria were amended by GN 150/2018 (GG 6657).

Vessel Monitoring Regulations are contained in GN 65/2005 (GG 3446), as amended by GN 2/2014 (GG 5391).

Regulations relating to the licensing of foreign flag vessels for the purpose of harvesting Namibia’s marine resources are contained in GN 147/2006 (GG 3696).

These regulations refer to “conservation and management measures published by Government Notice No. 126 of 30 August 2006”. This appears to be an error. GN 126/2006 is dated 1 September 2006 and contains Otjiwarongo Amendment Scheme No. 8 (GG 3688). No Government Gazette was published on 30 August 2006. The reference was probably intended to be to the conservation and management measures published by Government Notice 148 of 8 September 2006 (GG 3696).

Regulations relating to Namibian Islands’ Marine Protected Area are contained in GN 316/2012 (GG 5111).

Regulations relating to Inspection of Register are contained in GN 238/2015 (GG 5853).

Regulations to Reduce Incidental By-catch of Seabirds in the Hake Demersal Trawl Vessels are contained in GN 269/2015 (GG 5877).

Regulations to Reduce Incidental By-catch of Seabirds in the Hake Demersal Longline Vessels (07) are contained in GN 270/2015 (GG 5877), as amended by GN 68/2016 (GG 5990).

Notices: In terms of section 37(2) of the Act, conservation and management measures adopted under Article VIII of the International Convention for the Conservation of Atlantic Tunas are published in GN 148/2006 (GG 3696).

The Namibian Islands Marine Reserve was declared in GN 17/2009 (GG 4210).
GN 2/2013 (GG 5119) requires persons harvesting marine resources under a right, an exploratory right or a fisheries agreement to carry aboard a fishing vessel a specified number of fisheries observers, depending on the type and size of vessel.

A Designation Agreement between the Ministry of Fisheries and Marine Resources and the National Fishing Corporation of Namibia Limited is published in GN 74/2016 (GG 5996). A Co-operation Agreement and a Designation Agreement between the Ministry of Fisheries and Marine Resources and the National Fishing Corporation of Namibia Limited are published in GN 99/2016 (GG 6017), which withdraws GN 74/2016, and is amended by GN 113/2017 (GG 6307) (by the addition of Addendum No. 1 to the Co-operation Agreement as set out in the Schedule).

GN 92/2018 (GG 6601) announces a period for applications for rights to harvest certain marine resources, along with criteria for granting rights to harvest these resources. Both the time period and the criteria were amended by GN 150/2018 (GG 6657).

Total allowable catches: Total allowable catches for various types of fish are set periodically in terms of the relevant law and have not been recorded here.

Fees and levies: Fees and levies on certain marine resources have been issued in terms of this Act, each of which replaces its predecessor – with the most recent one in this series contained in GN 158/2017 (GG 6342).

Fees and levies on other marine resources have been issued in another series of notices, each of which replaces its predecessor – with the most recent one in this series contained in GN 159/2017 (GG 6342).

Levies for the benefit of the Fisheries Observer Fund are imposed in another series of notices, each of which replaces its predecessor – with the most recent one in this series contained in GN 146/2014 (GG 5559).

MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE

Divorce Laws Amendment Ordinance 18 of 1935.

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 643) amends the common law by setting forth additional grounds for divorce.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 2635) concerns jurisdiction over divorce proceedings.

Applicability to SWA: Section 7bis of the Act defines “Republic” to include the territory of South West Africa. Section 7ter, as inserted by Act 17 of 1943, originally stated “This Act shall apply to the Mandated Territory of South-West Africa and the port and settlement of Walvis Bay, and for the purpose of such application the High Court of South-West Africa shall be deemed to be a provincial division of the Supreme Court of South Africa.” As substituted by Act 70 of 1968 with retroactive effect from 18 October 1953, section 7ter states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section 38(5) of the South West Africa Constitution Act, 1968 (Act No. 39 of 1968).” Section 7ter (as amended) states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section 38(5) of the South West Africa Constitution Act, 1968 (Act No. 39 of 1968).”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended.

The Act was repealed in South Africa with effect from 1 July 1979 by the Divorce Act 70 of 1979 (RSA GG 6505), shortly before it was transferred to SWA in November 1979. The repealing Act was not made expressly applicable to SWA, but should have repealed the Act in respect of SWA by virtue of section 7ter of Act 22 of 1939. However, the principal Act was specifically mentioned in the subsequent SWA transfer proclamation. Therefore, it apparently remained in force in SWA – and it has been amended in independent Namibia, and applied in practice by the High Court in several post-Independence cases.

Note that the Matrimonial Causes Jurisdiction Act 35 of 1945, which once applied to SWA by virtue of the references in the text of the Act to the Supreme Court of South Africa (“including the High Court of South West Africa”) and to certain decrees and orders “to be recognised in the Union and in South West Africa”, was also repealed by the Divorce Act 70 of 1979, shortly before the relevant SWA transfer proclamation was issued in November 1979. There have been no further references to this Act in SWA or in independent Namibia, meaning that there is no reason to think that the repeal in question was not effective for both SWA and SA.
Section 3(1)(c) of the transfer proclamation excluded the reference to the “Republic” in the Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that “Republic” retained the meaning given to it in section 7bis of the Act (South Africa and SWA).

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Matrimonial Causes Jurisdiction Amendment Act 17 of 1943 (SA GG 3180)
- Matrimonial Affairs Act 37 of 1953 (SA GG 5170)
- General Law Amendment Act 70 of 1968 (RSA GG 2106).

Section 1 on jurisdiction is amended by the Married Persons Equality Act 1 of 1996 (GG 1316).

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Cases: SS v YS 2013 (1) NR 32 (HC) (jurisdiction under sections 1 and 5); ZS v ES 2014 (3) NR 713 (HC).

Matrimonial Affairs Ordinance 25 of 1955.

Summary: Only sections 4-6 remain in force. The surviving portions of this Ordinance (OG 1927) deal with the Court’s power to make an order of sole guardianship for a minor child in cases of divorce or separation of married parents and that guardian’s power to name a guardian in a will, and with spousal maintenance in divorce cases.

Amendments: The Ordinance is amended by Ord. 9/1967 (OG 2777) and by the Married Persons Equality Act 1 of 1996 (GG 1316), which repeals sections 1, 2 and 3 and amends section 4.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Cases:

NS v PS 2010 (2) NR 418 (HC) (issues to be considered in respect of maintenance)

DK v DK 2010 (2) NR 761 (HC) (section 5, which authorises the court to order a guilty spouse to maintain an innocent spouse, does not prevent a court from ordering an innocent spouse to pay maintenance to a guilty spouse who is in need of it)

S v S 2011 (1) NR 212 (HC) (the issue of guilt still remains an issue to be determined in respect of maintenance for the innocent spouse, with guilt already having been determined in the case at hand; in absence of proof of maintenance needs, a nominal amount of maintenance awarded to reserve innocent party’s right of entitlement to maintenance should circumstances change)

AP v PP 2014 (3) NR 671 (no spousal maintenance justified for defendant where plaintiff has agreed to pay more than a fair share of child maintenance costs).

Summary: This Act (SA GG 6670) governs the solemnisation of civil marriages.

Applicability to SWA: Section 39A states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”
Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Interior) Transfer Proclamation (AG 17/1978), dated 30 March 1978.

Section 3(2) of the transfer proclamation excluded references to the “Republic” in the Act from the operation of section 3(1)(c) of the General Proclamation.

None of the amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer were made expressly applicable to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA:

- Marriage Amendment Act 11 of 1964 (RSA GG 734)
- Bantu Laws Amendment 42 of 1964 (RSA GG 801)
- Marriage Amendment Act 19 of 1968 (RSA GG 2023)
- Marriage Amendment Act 51 of 1970 (RSA GG 2822)
- Marriage Amendment Act 26 of 1972 (RSA GG 3464)
- Marriage Amendment Act 12 of 1973 (RSA GG 3831).

In South West Africa –

- the Marriage Amendment Proclamation, AG 8 of 1977 (OG 3666) amends sections 2 and 3 of the Act and inserts section 5bis;
- the Native Laws Amendment Proclamation, AG 3 of 1979 (OG 3898), deemed to have come into force in relevant part on 1 August 1978 (section 5 of AG 3 of 1979), substitutes certain expressions; and
- the Marriages, Births and Deaths Amendment Act 5 of 1987 (OG 5356) makes substantial amendments to the Act.

The Married Persons Equality Act 1 of 1996 (GG 1316) amends sections 1 and 26 and substitutes “Minister” for “Cabinet”.

The Child Care and Protection Act 3 of 2015 (GG 5744), which is not yet in force, substitutes section 24.

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched. However, some pre-independence regulations on marriage officers are contained in GN 213/1987 (OG 5480).

Cases: Ex parte Groebler & Another 2004 NR 105 (HC) (procedure regarding consent to marriage of child under age 18); Gurirab v Minister of Home Affairs and Immigration & Another 2016 (1) NR 37 (HC) (review of decision to revoke licence of marriage officer in terms of section 9 of the Act; review cannot be undertaken until potential remedies under section 9(2) have been exhausted).

Summary: This Act (GG 315) provides for the recognition of marriages contracted in terms of the SWAPO Family Act, 1977, and for the adoption of children in terms of this Act.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

the exception of the rights and obligations of the spouses in relation to the matrimonial property (both during the subsistence of the marriage and on dissolution thereof), the status of all marriages contracted outside Namibia prior to the date of independence in accordance with the provisions of the Family Act, is in all respects the same as those marriages contracted in terms of the Marriages Act, 1961. It follows that, notwithstanding the wide ranging grounds for dissolution of a marriage provided for in articles 55 to 63 of the Family Act (some of them rather progressive but alien to our common law), the grounds on which one or both partners in such a marital relationship can sue for divorce are the same as those applicable to common law marriages.”

Summary: This Act (GG 768) provides for the dissolution of marriages of persons presumed to be dead.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Married Persons Equality Act 1 of 1996.

Summary: This Act (GG 1316) abolishes the marital power which previously applied to civil marriages and amends the law on matrimonial property in civil marriages in community of property. It also amends the common law on the domicile of married women and minor children, and on the guardianship of minor children. The Act was brought into force on 15 July 1996 by GN 154/1996 (GG 1340).

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

NS v RH 2011 (2) NR 486 (HC) (factors to consider in determining best interest of minor child for purposes of awarding custody in situation involving relocation of parents to different countries, including discussions of gender dimensions of this issue; advantages of mediation in family matters)

T v T [2013] NAHCMD 377 (13 December 2013) (notes that joint custody is sometimes awarded in Namibia; disagrees with statement in A v A 2011 (1) NR 70 (HC) that joint custody is appropriate only when children are mature enough to decide this issue for themselves; “It often happens that parents divorce on amicable terms. They might be ideal candidates for joint custody even if the children are still too young to indicate any preferences.”).

Civil actions for adultery:

Restitution:

HV v SV (1) 2014 (3) NR 808 (HC) (order for the restitution of conjugal rights: it is the deserter spouse and not the deserted spouse who bears the onus of showing that an offer to return is genuine; change of heart by the deserter and a commitment to reform are crucial elements of bona fides).

Judicial statements on Namibia’s antiquated divorce law:

HV v SV (2) 2014 (3) NR 842 (HC) at para 8: “There is, to the best of my knowledge, not a single modern constitutional democracy where the fault-based principle of divorce has not been abandoned in favour of ‘irretrievable breakdown’ or some other more flexible criteria such as the parties having lived apart for a certain period of time. The state of our law is such that even if a court is satisfied that a marriage between two people has no hope of ever being salvaged, the court must keep them together as long as one spouse wants to remain married…. under our law, love is an irrelevant consideration when it comes to whether or not a deserted spouse who does not want to continue with a marriage, should be granted her wish. A more fertile ground for violence in the family is hardly imaginable!”

ZS v ES 2014 (3) NR 713 (HC) at para 44: “Although it is already the second decade of the twenty-first century, Namibia is, in this area of the law [divorce and matrimonial property], still hobbling along in antiquity. It has remained stuck in the distant past instead of joining ‘the worldwide shift to irretrievable marriage breakdown as the main or only ground of divorce’ (Hahlo supra 5 ed at 331) or some similar approach which more accurately reflects the reality of the modern marriage. I agree with the learned author’s view that ‘the guilt principle has long been little more than a polite fiction’ in many, if not most, of the divorce cases that serve before this court. In spite of many calls for reform, the current state of affairs continues, forcing this court to continue to apply laws which, I am convinced, do not reflect the values and aspirations of the Namibian people who have embraced a progressive Constitution based on modern democratic principles.”

This section now combines the laws previously indexed under BROADCASTING, CENSORSHIP, FILMS, POSTS AND TELECOMMUNICATIONS and PRESS AND PRINTING, to reflect the increasing integration of these modes of communication and their legal regulation.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 3159) provides for the registration of newspapers and printer’s imprints and requires that the printer of all printed matter be identified.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Republic” to include “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 14(1) states that “this Act and any amendment thereof shall also apply in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel”.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Interior) Transfer Proclamation (AG 17/1978), dated 30 March 1978. The only amendment to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence—the Registration of Newspapers Amendment Act 98 of 1982 (RSA GG 8280)—was not made expressly applicable to SWA. (There were no South African amendments to the Act prior to the date of transfer.)

Section 3(2)(c) of the transfer proclamation excluded section 8 of the Act from the operation of section 3(1)(c) of the General Proclamation, which concerns the interpretation of the term “Republic”. Section 8 requires that the editor of a newspaper published in the Republic must reside in the Republic; “Republic” in this section retained the meaning it was given in the definition section of the Act (South Africa and SWA).

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 13 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 1689) makes it an offence to possess indecent or obscene photographic matter. Although still technically on Namibia’s law books, it has no force, because the High Court of Namibia declared section 2(1) of the Act unconstitutional and found that the remainder of the Act was not severable. Therefore, this law is effectively defunct.

Applicability to SWA: Section 4A states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended. The only amendment to the Act in South Africa after that date and prior to Namibian independence – the Indecent or Obscene Photographic Matter Amendment Act 72 of 1983 – is duplicated by the SWA Indecent or Obscene Photographic Matter Amendment Act 4 of 1985.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- General Law Amendment Act 101 of 1969 (RSA GG 2464)
- Publications Act 42 of 1974 (RSA GG 4426).

Act 4/1985 (OG 5093) amends the Act to extend the meaning of “cinematograph film”.

Regulations: Regulations have not been researched given the inoperable status of the Act in Namibia.

Cases: Fantasy Enterprises CC t/a Hustler The Shop v Minister of Home Affairs & Another; Nasilowski & Another v Minister of Justice & Others 1998 NR 96 (HC) (section 2(1) declared unconstitutional; remainder of Act not severable from the unconstitutional section).

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 4426) establishes a Directorate of Publications and provides for the control of certain publications, objects, films and public entertainments.

Applicability to SWA: Section 46 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” Section 47 defines “Republic” to include “the territory of South West Africa”.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The Act was under the authority of “the Minister to whom the administration of this Act is from time to time assigned” rather than under any particular government department (section 47). Section 3(2) of the Executive Powers (Interior) Transfer Proclamation (AG 17/1978) specifically exempted the Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that the administration of the Act was not transferred to SWA by that transfer proclamation.

Certain powers under the Act were transferred to the Administrator-General by the Publications Proclamation (AG 43/1978) (OG 3776). However, this Proclamation did not seem to function as a transfer proclamation. Under section 2 of AG 43/1978, the Administrator-General was given the power to amend, set aside or substitute any decision made by any committee referred to in the principal Act, by the Publications Appeal Board, or by the Directorate of Publications. However, these bodies were still in a position to make decisions which were applicable to South West Africa if the Administrator-General did not intervene.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Publications Amendment Act 79 of 1977 (RSA GG 5594)
- Publications Amendment Act 109 of 1978 (RSA GG 6101)
- Publications Amendment Act 44 of 1979 (RSA GG 6433)
- Divorce Act 70 of 1979 (RSA GG 6506)
- Registration of Newspapers Amendment Act 98 of 1982, section 3(b) (RSA GG 8280), brought into force on 1 May 1983 by RSA Proc. 64/1983 (RSA GG 8688)
- Publications Amendment Act 60 of 1986 (RSA GG 10306).

Application of law: The Publications Proclamation (AG 43/1978) (OG 3776) supplements the Act, without actually amending it, to give the Administrator-General the power to overrule the Publications Appeal Board or any of the other committees or persons referred to in the Act.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 44 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Namibian Broadcasting Act 9 of 1991.

Summary: This Act (GG 223) provides for the establishment of a broadcasting corporation for Namibia and sets forth its objectives, powers, duties and functions. It repeals the Broadcasting Act 73 of 1976.

Amendments: Sections 1 and 6 are amended by section 1 of the General Law Amendment Act 18 of 2000 (GG 2422), which was brought into force on 2 February 2001 by GN 25/2001 (GG 2483). The State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 (GG 3698), which was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733) and which has since been re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006, amends sections 6, 8 and 13. The Schedule to the Act is amended by the Communications Act 8 of 2009 (GG 4378), brought into force in relevant part on 18 May 2011 by GN 64/2011 (GG 4714).

Regulations: Regulations made under the repealed Act survive pursuant to section 34(2)(c)(ii) of this Act. However, pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Regulations regarding television licences are contained in GN 118/1993 (GG 726). License fees are increased to N$132 by General Notice 245/1995 (GG 1128), which does not technically amend the regulations. Regulation 6 and the Annexure on television licence fees are substituted by General Notice 95/1999 (GG 2113), which also raises the standard television licence fee from N$132 to N$180. General Notice 245/1995 states that it is amending the Annexure, but it appears to substitute the Annexure in its entirety.) The Annexure is again substituted in its entirety by Government Notice 220/2001 (GG 2637), which is substituted in turn by GN 235/2004 (GG 3313).
Appointments: The initial board was appointed by GN 88/1990 (GG 120), with the appointments of new board members being announced in GN 93/1995 (GG 1062) and GN 175/2000 (GG 2374).

Amendments: Sections 1 and 5 are amended by section 2 of the General Law Amendment Act 18 of 2000 (GG 2422), which is deemed to have come into force on 29 November 2000 (GG 2483). The State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 (GG 3698), which was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733) and which has since been re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006, amends sections 5, 6 and 10.

Amendments: Sections 1 and 6 are amended by section 3 of the General Law Amendment Act 18 of 2000 (GG 2422), which is deemed to have come into force on 29 November 2000 (GG 2483).

Act 13/2004 (GG 3283) amends sections 4, 5, 6, 11, and 14.

Application of law: The application of the Act is affected by the State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 (GG 3698), which was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733) and which has since been re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Summary: This Act (GG 447) provides for the incorporation of a postal company, a telecommunications company and a holding company, and for the transfer of Namibia’s postal and telecommunications enterprises to the postal and telecommunications companies. It also provides for the conditions of service of persons transferred to or employed by the postal or telecommunications companies, and for the control of the Post Office Savings Bank by the postal company.

Section 10 of the Act provided that the Act, with the exception of Chapter I, would come into force on a date to be determined by the Minister in the Government Gazette. The entire Act actually came into force at the same time: Chapter I came into force on 31 July 1992, the date of publication of the Act, and the remainder of the Act was brought into force on 31 July 1992 by virtue of GN 88/1992 (GG 446).

Amendments: The Customs and Excise Act 20 of 1998 (GG 1900), which was brought into force on 1 August 1998 by GN 186/1998 (GG 1918), repeals the amendments to the Customs and Excise Act 91 of 1964 set forth in the Schedule to this Act.

Act 20/2000 (GG 2425) amends section 2 of the Act with respect to the number of company directors, but the amendment actually re-iterates the original Act – and it was in any event never brought into force.

The State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 (GG 3698), which was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733) and which has since been re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006, amends section 2.

The Schedule to the Act is amended by the Communications Act 8 of 2009 (GG 4378), brought into force in relevant part on 18 May 2011 (GN 64/2011, GG 4714).

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Notices: A transfer date in terms of the Act was determined in GN 89/1992 (GG 446).

Summary: This Act (GG 464) provides for the regulation and control of postal and telecommunications services. It also sets forth the powers, duties and functions of Namibia Post Limited and Telecom Namibia Limited, replacing the Post Office Act 44 of 1958. Section 55 of the Act provides that the Act is deemed to have come into force on 1 August 1992, with the exception of section 2 (prohibition of conduct of a postal service or a telecommunications service), which was deemed to have come into force on 15 February 1995 (GN 126/2000, GG 2340).
Amendments: Act 20/1995 (GG 1223) adds section 18A, which enables Namibian Post Ltd. to prescribe and levy service fees.

The Communications Act 8 of 2009 (GG 4378), brought into force in relevant part on 18 May 2011 by GN 64/2011 (GG 4714), repeals Chapters II and IV and section 45.

Application of law: The application of this law is affected by the Financial Intelligence Act 13 of 2012 (GG 5096), which places certain duties on Namibia Post Limited. The Financial Intelligence Act 13 of 2012 (GG 5096) also gives certain powers to officers of the post office.

Savings: Section 54 of the Act states: “Notwithstanding the repeal of the Post Office Act, 1958 by section 10 of the Posts and Telecommunications Establishment Act, 1992 [which seems to refer to the Posts and Telecommunications Companies Establishment Act 17 of 1992] any regulation made or anything done under any provision of the Post Office Act, 1958 or any contract concluded in connection with the postal enterprise or the telecommunications enterprise, as defined in section 1 of the Posts and Telecommunications Establishment Act, 1992 [which seems to refer to the Posts and Telecommunications Companies Establishment Act 17 of 1992], shall, in so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been made by the postal company or the telecommunications company, as the case may be, under the corresponding provision of this Act.”

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

After independence, Post Office Savings Bank Regulations are promulgated in General Notice 113/1996 (GG 1322), as amended by General Notice 276/1997 (GG 1684) and General Notice 64/1998 (GG 1829). These replace the “Savings Bank Regulations” which were “promulgated under Government Notice No. 16 of 14th February 1961, as amended”.

Notices: GN 34/2011 (GG 4679) removes the Post Office Savings Bank from the coverage of section 2(2) of the Banking Institutions Act 2 of 1998 with effect from 1 April 2011.

Fees and tariffs: Tariffs set in terms of the Act are set and amended periodically and have not been recorded here. Notices setting service fees in respect of Post Office Savings Bank transactions have not been recorded here.

The Act will be brought into force on a date set by the minister responsible for information and broadcasting by notice in the Government Gazette.
Amendments: Act 11/2001 (GG 2620) amends sections 1 and 5.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 28 of the Act, but none have yet been promulgated.

Communications Act 8 of 2009.

Summary: This Act (GG 4378) provides for the regulation of telecommunications services and networks, broadcasting, postal services and the use and allocation of the radio spectrum. It establishes an independent Communications Regulatory Authority of Namibia (CRAN) and an association to manage the internet domain “.na”. It also provides for the interception of telecommunications.

It was brought into force, with the exception of Parts 4 and 6 of Chapter V (universal service and interception of telecommunications) and Chapter IX (establishment and incorporation of .na domain name association), on 18 May 2011 by GN 64/2011 (GG 4714). Part 4 of Chapter V (universal service) was brought into force on 1 December 2016 by GN 285/2016 (GG 6188).

Note that GN 285/2016 is correctly numbered in the Contents section of GG 6188, but the actual Government Notice is misnumbered as GN 286/2016.

Application of law: The application of this Act with respect to the Communications Regulatory Authority of Namibia is affected by the State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 (GG 3698), which was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733) and which has since been re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006.

Regulations: Pursuant to section 135(1), any regulation or notice issued under a repealed law survives if it could have been made under any provision of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched.

The following regulations were made in terms of the Radio Act 3 of 1952 –

Note that the regulations regarding the licence exempt spectrum in General Notice 395/2011 (GG 4839) amend the Radio Regulations contained in RSA GN R.2862 of 28 December 1979, insofar as they are inconsistent with the new regulations.

The regulations regarding administrative and licence fees for service licences in General Notice 311/2012 (GG 5037) amends the regulations in GN 213/2007 (GG 3942) (which amend these regulations) insofar as they are inconsistent with the new regulations.

The following regulations were made in terms of the Namibian Communications Commission Act 4 of 1992 –

Regulations pertaining to VSAT (very small aperture terminal) telecommunications licences are contained in GN 108/2007 (GG 3858).

Note that the regulations regarding administrative and licence fees for service licences in General Notice 311/2012 (GG 5037) amend the regulations in GN 212/2007 (GG 3942) and GN 108/2007 (GG 3858) insofar as they are inconsistent with the new regulations.

The following regulations have been made in terms of this Act –

- Broadcasting and telecommunications service licence categories – General Notice 124/2011 (GG 4714), as amended by General Notice 74/2013 (GG 5148) and General Notice 387/2015 (GG 5805).
- Transitional procedures for holders of telecommunications and broadcasting service licences and spectrum use licences – initially contained in General Notice 125/2011 (GG 4714), effective from the date the Act came into force, then replaced by General Notice 171/2011 (GG 4737), which applies retrospectively from the date the Act came into force. Forms relating to the initial regulations were published in General Notice 130/2011 (GG 4714). They appear to continue to apply in respect of the replacement regulations on the same topic.
- Submission of interconnection agreements and tariffs – General Notice 126/2011 (GG 4714).
  Note that the Table of Contents of GG 6588 indicates that these regulations are withdrawn by General Notice 175/2018. This is an error. GN 175/2018 is actually a notice of the submission of some specific tariffs in terms of the regulations. Guidelines relating to these regulations are contained in General Notice 455/2018 (GG 6668).
- Licencing procedures for telecommunications and broadcasting service licences and spectrum use licences – initially contained in General Notice 127/2011 (GG 4714), which is repealed by General Notice 170/2011 (GG 4737), repealed in turn by General Notice 272/2011 (GG 4785), as amended by General Notice 330/2013 (GG 5269) and General Notice 182/2016 (GG 6035). All of these successive sets of regulations state that they apply retrospectively from the date the Act came into force. Forms CRAN 1-11 which accompany these regulations are contained in the separate Regulations prescribing Forms for Applications, contained in General Notice 328/2013 (GG 5269), which repeals General Notice
131/2011 (GG 4714) and which is amended by General Notice 18/2016 (GG 5947). (Note that General Notice 328/2013 states that General Notice 272/2011 is amended by GN 74/2013 (GG 5148), but this is incorrect; GN 74/2013 amends the Regulations Setting Out Broadcasting and Telecommunications Service Licence Categories published in General Notice 124/2011.) Form CRAN 15 is appended to these regulations by General Notice 182/2016 (GG 6035). (Forms CRAN 12-14 are appended to the Regulations prescribing the National Numbering Plan for Use in the Provision of Telecommunications Services in the Republic of Namibia, Numbering Licence Fees and Procedures for Number Licences General Notice 97 of 2016 (GG 5983).)

- Licence exempt spectrum use – General Notice 395/2011 (GG 4839). These regulations amend the Radio Regulations contained in RSA GN R.2862 of 28 December 1979 insofar as they are inconsistent with the new regulations. See also General Notice 177/2018 (GG 6588) on the application of these regulations.

- Confidential information and confidential communications with CRAN – General Notice 307/2012 (GG 5037).

- Licence conditions for telecommunications services licences – General Notice 308/2012 (GG 5037).

- Licence conditions for broadcasting service licences – General Notice 309/2012 (GG 5037).

- Hearings – General Notice 310/2012 (GG 5037).

- Administrative and licence fees for service licences – General Notice 311/2012 (GG 5037), as amended by General Notice 331/2013 (GG 5269) and General Notice 181/2016 (GG 6035). These regulations amend the regulations in GN 212/2007 (GG 3942), GN 213/2007 (GG 3942) and GN 108/2007 (GG 3858) insofar as they are inconsistent with the new regulations.

  Note that Communications Regulatory Authority of Namibia v Telecom Namibia Ltd & Others 2018 NASC (11 June 2018), struck item 6 of these regulations with effect from 11 June 2018, and held that this item, during its period of validity, may not be applied retrospectively to anything which occurred before the date on which the regulation came into force (13 September 2012).

- Frequency channelling plan for digital terrestrial television – General Notice 166/2013 (GG 5201).

- Regulations prescribing forms for applications – General Notice 328/2013 (GG 5269), as amended by General Notice 18/2016 (GG 5947)

- Licence conditions for class comprehensive multiplex and signal distribution licences – General Notice 329/2013 (GG 5269)

- Licence conditions for spectrum use licences – General Notice 469/2013 (GG 5354)

- Cost accounting procedures and reporting requirements – General Notice 474/2013 (GG 5357)

- Minimum technical standards for set-top box decoders – General Notice 475/2013 (GG 5357)

- Type approval and technical standards for telecommunications equipment – General Notice 22/2015 (GG 5659). General Notice 265/2015 (GG 5765) states that it “amends the Regulations in respect of Type Approval and Technical Standards for Telecommunications Equipment published in General Notice No. 22 of 30 January 2015 by substituting the preamble thereof”. In fact, there is no Preamble. What is substituted is the text of the General Notice which promulgated the regulations. The substituted text contains transitional provisions which apply until 30 November 2015. General
Notice 269/2016 (GG 6074) similarly substitutes the text of the General Notice which promulgated the regulations to provide for a transitional period up to 31 October 2016.

See also General Notice 177/2018 (GG 6588) which contains a definition of “Telecommunications Equipment” for purposes of type approval. Schedule 1 of this notice lists equipment which will not require type approval from the date of publication of the notice (8 May 2018).

- Quality of service standards applicable to service licensees – General Notice 152/2015 (GG 5713)
- National numbering plan for use in the provision of telecommunications services in the Republic of Namibia, numbering licence fees and procedures for number licences equipment – General Notice 97/2016 (GG 5983), as amended by General Notice 500/2018 (GG 6692) (number portability)

  Note that another Government Gazette incorrectly numbered as GG 6692 was issued and subsequently withdrawn. The Government Gazette containing General Notice 500/2018 was issued at one stage as GG 6693, but this incorrectly-numbered version was withdrawn.

- Frequency Channeling Plan for the spectrum bands 694-790 Mhz and 790-862 Mhz – General Notice 424/2016 (GG 6160)
- Sharing of infrastructure – General Notice 400/2016 (GG 6141)
- Fees for spectrum licences, certificates and examinations – General Notice 155/2017 (GG 6322)
- Procedures for the adjudication of disputes – General Notice 468/2017 (GG 6466), which repeals the Regulations regarding Consumer Complaints in General Notice 128/2011 (GG 4714), and the Regulations regarding Licensee Disputes in General Notice 148/2013 (GG 5194). Forms were published pursuant to the repealed Regulations regarding Consumer Complaints in General Notice 129/2011 (GG 4714). The General Notice containing these forms has not been repealed or withdrawn, but they have no current relevance. The replacement regulations contained in General Notice 468/2017 (GG 6466) contain their own forms.

- Provision of universal service by telecommunications service licensees - General Notice 178/2018 (GG 6589)
- Fair competition in the telecommunications sector - General Notice 179/2018 (GG 6593).

  Although the regulations refer to “Form A hereto”, no such form is included in the Government Gazette.

Regulations setting out the Frequency Band Plan for Namibia were contained in General Notice 191/2013 (GG 5214), but these were replaced by a Frequency Band Plan of Namibia contained in General Notice 424/2016 (GG 6160) which does not take the form of regulations.

Cases:
Mobile Telecommunications Ltd v Namibia Communications Commission & Others
2012 (2) NR 421 (HC) (regulatory decision on tariffs which can be charged by mobile telephone operators generally upheld on review; certain portions of decision excised on grounds that they had not served before NCC)

Note: The court judgment refers to “the decision taken by the NCC as published in Government Gazette 36 of 2011”. There is no such Government Gazette. It appears that the case intended to refer to General Notice 56 of 2011 (GG 4669), which contains “Amendment of tariffs of mobile operators” (reporting a decision of the NCC taken on 9 February 2011). See discussion of case by CRAN in General Notice 335/2012 (GG 5044).

Medical Aid Funds Act 23 of 1995.

Summary: This Act (GG 1226) regulates medical aid funds and establishes the Namibian Association of Medical Aid Funds. This Act repeals the Medical Schemes Act 72 of 1967. Part III was brought into force on 1 February 1996 by GN 25/1996 (GG 1255). The remainder of the Act was brought into force on 11 February 1997 by GN 11/1997 (GG 1496).

Regulations: Section 46(2) provides that anything done under a repealed law “which could have been done under a corresponding provision of this Act” survives. However, pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Regulations made under this Act are contained in GN 12/1997 (GG 1496), as amended by GN 193/2018 (GG 6688).

Consent to Operations on Native Minors Proclamation 37 of 1943.

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 1080) empowers magistrates to give consent for operations on “native minors” if the parent or guardian is not readily available or if a delay to obtain consent might be dangerous. This law is repealed by the Child Care and Protection Act 3 of 2015 (GG 5744), which has not yet come into force.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 2319) establishes a South African Medical Research Council to promote research in the medical sciences.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Republic” to include “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 25 states “This Act, and any amendment thereof, shall also apply in the territory of South West Africa.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of the Act was probably transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Health) Transfer Proclamation (AG 14/1977), dated 1 December 1977. However, it may have been excluded from transfer by section 3(2)(b) of the General Proclamation, which exempted from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation “those provisions of any law … which provide for or relate to the institution, constitution or control of … any board or other body of persons that may exercise powers or perform other functions in or in respect of both the territory and the Republic”.

There was only one amending act in South Africa after the date of transfer – the South Africa Medical Research Council Amendment Act 47 of 1982 (RSA GG 8106) – which is not expressly applicable to SWA. If the administration of the Act was in fact transferred to SWA, then this amending act would not have applied to SWA.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 23 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Abortion and Sterilization Act 2 of 1975, as amended in South Africa to December 1977.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 4608) regulates abortion and sterilization. Abortion is legal only in cases of severe mental or physical risk to the woman concerned, cases where there is a serious risk that the child will suffer a severe physical or mental handicap, and cases where the child was conceived as a result of rape or incest.

Applicability to SWA: Section 11 states that “this Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”
Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Health) Transfer Proclamation (AG 14/1977), dated 1 December 1977. Neither of the amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Abortion and Sterilization Amendment Act 38 of 1980 (RSA GG 6985) and the Abortion and Sterilization Amendment Act 48 of 1982 (RSA GG 8107) – was made expressly applicable to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendment was applicable to SWA –

- Abortion and Sterilization Amendment Act 18 of 1976 (RSA GG 5034).

The Native Laws Amendment Proclamation, AG 3 of 1979 (OG 3898), deemed to have come into force in relevant part on 1 August 1978 (section 5 of AG 3 of 1979), amends some of the terminology in the Act.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 8 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Cases:
S v Haimbodi 1993 NR 129 (HC)
S v Alweendo 1993 NR 177 (HC)
S v Iyambo 2007 (2) NR 842 (HC) (lenient sentence appropriate where very young foetus is involved).

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 3633) covers the donation of human bodies and tissue (including flesh, organs, bones and body fluids) for therapeutic and scientific purposes. It also regulates post-mortems.

Amendments: This Ordinance is affected by the Health Act 21 of 1988 (OG 5651), which made it applicable to all of SWA.

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Medicines and Related Substances Control Act 13 of 2003.

Summary: This Act (GG 3051) provides for the establishment of a Namibia Medicines Regulatory Council, for the registration of medicines intended for human and animal use, and for the control of medicines and scheduled substances. It repeals the Medicines and Related Substances Control Act 101 of 1965. The Act was brought into force on 25 July 2008 by GN 177/2008 (GG 4088).

Amendments: Act 8/2007 (GG 3968) – which was brought into force on 1 August 2008 by GN 187/2008 (GG 4091) – amends the Act substantially.

Savings: Pursuant to section 46(2), the schedules of the Medicines and Related Substances Control Act 101 of 1965 continue to apply until the Minister publishes a notice in the Gazette in terms of section 29(1). Note that the notice referred to has been published: GN 180/2008 (GG 4088), as amended and as subsequently replaced (see the section on “Notices” below).

Pursuant to section 46(1A), the Medicines Control Council established under the previous legislation is to serve the functions of the new Namibia Medicines Regulatory Council until such time as the Minister appoints the new Council. A new Council was initially appointed in GN 209/2009 (GG 4367), which has been followed by subsequent appointments.

Notices, regulations, authorisations, orders, approvals, certificates made and other things done under the previous legislation survive, by virtue of section 47(2), as amended.

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched.

Proposed regulations under the current Act were published in GN 241/2004 (GG 3317).

Extensive regulations pertaining to medicines and related substances were subsequently issued in GN 178/2008 (GG 4088) (which repeals the pre-independence regulations contained in RSA GN R.352 of 21 February 1975, RSA GN R.1188 of 9 July 1976 and Namibian GN 47/2001). These regulations are amended by GN 28/2015 (GG 5681) (substitution of Regulation 4 and repeal of Annexure II) and by GN 316/2015 (GG 5915) (substitution of Annexure XXXVIII, with effect from 1 April 2016).

Note that GN 316/2015 refers to “Annexure XXXVIII of regulation 47 published in Government Notice 1 of 25 July 2008”. It should refer to Annexure XXXVIII of the

These regulations were ruled invalid in Medical Association of Namibia Ltd & Another v Minister of Health and Social Services & Others, 2010 (2) NR 660 (HC). Subsequently, Medical Association of Namibia Ltd & Another v Minister of Health and Social Services & Others 2011 (1) NR 272 (HC) suspended the operation of sections 46(3) and (4) of the Act until such time as new regulations are made. However, these holdings were overruled by Minister of Health and Social Services & Others v Medical Association of Namibia Ltd & Another 2012 (2) NR 566 (SC), which found the regulations to be generally valid, with the exception of regulation 34(3)(a), (c), (d) and (e) which was declared invalid as being ultra vires the powers of the Minister under the Act, and also found that it was not competent for the High Court to suspend the operation of section 46(3) of the Act.

Exemptions: Exemptions from the application of section 29 of the Act are contained in GN 179/2008 (GG 4088), as amended by GN 43/2015 (GG 5703).

Exemptions from section 18(1) of the Act are contained in GN 85/2010 (GG 4473) and GN 194/2011 (GG 4808).

Certain medicines are exempted from the operation of certain regulations, permanently or for a specified time period, in GN 272/2008 (GG 4174), GN 49/2010 (GG 4444), GN 84/2011 (GG 4736), GN 187/2012 (GG 5003), GN 22/2014 (GG 5425), GN 29/2015 (GG 5681), GN 76/2017 (GG 6277), GN 207/2017 (GG 6384) and GN 52/2018 (GG 6552).

Registrations and cancellations: Registrations and cancellations under the previous Act are as follows:

- GN 64/2001 (GG 2512) relates to the continued registration of medicines registered prior to independence.

- The registration of certain medicines is cancelled in GN 26/2006 (GG 3584), GN 203/2006 (GG 3746) and GN 137/2007 (GG 3887).

The registration of certain medicines is cancelled in terms of the current Act in GN
GN 111/2011 (GG 4756) determines classes of veterinary medicines which are subject to registration under the Act.

Health care practitioners are ordered to return certain cancelled medicines to the manufacturers, suppliers or importers of those medicines in terms of GN 90/2012 (GG 4915).

Notices: Notices under the previous Act which appear to survive include the following –

- GN 154/1999 (GG 2155) is a notice requiring the return to the suppliers of certain undesirable medicines (those containing chloroxyzanone).
- GN 105/2002 (GG 2759) is a notice concerning medicines and classes of medicines subject to registration.
- GN 104/2002 (GG 2759) is a notice about inspection of the Medicines Register.

There are a number of RSA Government Notices which amended the Schedules to the previous Act. These have not been recorded here.

In terms of the current Act, GN 180/2008 (GG 4088), as amended by GN 163/2012 (GG 4978), GN 198/2013 (GG 5255), GN 190/2014 (GG 5582) and GN 53/2018 (GG 6552), classifies certain medicines and other substances as Schedule 0, Schedule 1, Schedule 2, Schedule 3, Schedule 4 or Schedule 5. It is published in terms of section 29(1) of the Act – and so replaces the Schedules of the Medicines and Related Substances Act 101 of 1965 which survived in terms of section 47(2) of the Act.

GN 180/2008 (GG 4088) was repealed and replaced by GN 278/2018 (GG 6749), which classifies certain medicines and other substances as Schedule 0, Schedule 1, Schedule 2, Schedule 3, Schedule 4 or Schedule 5.

Note that GG 6527 was initially numbered incorrectly as GG 6528. A corrected version was subsequently issued.

Cases: Medical Association of Namibia Ltd & Another v Minister of Health and Social Services & Others 2010 (2) NR 660 (HC) finds the proposed regulations published in GN 241/2004 (GG 3317) and the regulations published in GN 178/2008 (GG 4088) to be unlawful and ultra vires; it also affects the application of section 31(3) and 34(1) and suspends the application of 46(3) until such time as valid new regulations are in place; Medical Association of Namibia Ltd & Another v Minister of Health and Social Services & Others 2011 (1) NR 272 (HC) varies the order made in the previous case, but still suspends the operation of sections 46(3) and (4) of the Act until such time as new regulations are made; and Minister of Health and Social Services & Others v Medical Association of Namibia Ltd & Another 2012 (2) NR 566 (SC) finds the regulations to be generally valid – with the exception of regulation 34(3)(a), (c), (d) and (e) which are invalid as being ultra vires the powers of the Minister under the Act – and finding that it was not competent for the High Court to suspend the operation of section 46(3) of the Act

Medical Association of Namibia Ltd & Another v Minister of Health and Social Services & Others 2015 (1) NR 1 (HC) (licensing scheme for dispensing of medicines under section 31(3) – read together with sections 29(7)(b), 29(9)(b), 29(13)(b) and 29(19)(b) – is not unconstitutional; the Namibia Medicines Regulatory Council is a tribunal as envisaged by Art 12(1)(a) of the Namibian Constitution).

Regulations: The Proclamation makes reference to regulations. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Railways and Harbours Pensions Amendment Act 26 of 1941, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 2904) concerns benefits for employees of the Railway Administration upon retirement and for the dependants of deceased employees.

Applicability to SWA: Section 8A states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The relevant Transfer Proclamation is the Executive Powers (Transport) Transfer Proclamation (AG 14/1978), dated 15 March 1978. However, the Act was excluded from transfer by section 3(2)(a) of the General Proclamation, which exempted “those provisions of any law ... which provide for or relate to ... pension rights and privileges or any other conditions of service of any person who is, or is engaged for employment, in the service of the State or the Government of the Republic or any of its departments in terms of that law or any other law.”

PENSIONS-1
Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments applied to SWA –
- Railways and Harbours Acts Amendment Act 23 of 1944 (SA GG 3338)
- Railways and Harbours Acts Amendment Act 44 of 1959 (SA GG 6237)
- Railways and Harbours Acts Amendment Act 62 of 1962 (RSA GG 253)
- Railways and Harbours Acts Amendment Act 6 of 1965 (RSA GG 1050)
- Second Railways and Harbours Acts Amendment Act 85 of 1971 (RSA GG 3202)
- Railways and Harbours Pensions Further Amendment Act 45 of 1974 (RSA GG 4434)
- Second Railways and Harbours Acts Amendment Act 89 of 1976 (RSA GG 5179)
- Railways and Harbours Acts Amendment Act 67 of 1980 (RSA GG 7039)
- Railways and Harbours Acts Amendment Act 29 of 1981 (RSA GG 7475)
- Second Railways and HarboursActs Amendment Act 60 of 1981 (RSA GG 7753)
- South African Transport Services Amendment Act 6 of 1982 (RSA GG 8039)

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 7 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Ex-Volunteers Assistance Proclamation 2 of 1945.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 1166) covers grants and loans to persons who rendered certain military services.

Regulations: The Proclamation makes no provision for regulations.

Railways and Harbours Special Pensions Act 36 of 1955, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 5494, also published in OG 1915) provides for the recalculation of benefits payable to certain former members of the various Railways and Harbours pension funds or their dependants. (It applies only to persons who died or retired before October 1953.)

Applicability to SWA: Section 8 states “This Act shall apply to the Territory of South West Africa”. The only amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence – the Railways and Harbours Pensions Amendment Act 22 of 1956 and the Railways and Harbours Act Amendment Act 34 of 1957 – are both expressly applicable to SWA.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The relevant Transfer Proclamation is the Executive Powers (Transport) Transfer Proclamation (AG 14/1978), dated 15 March 1978. However, the Act was excluded from transfer by section 3(2)(a) of the General Proclamation, which exempted “those provisions of any law ... which provide for or relate to ... pension rights and privileges or any other conditions of service of any person who is, or is engaged for employment, in the service of the State or the Government of the Republic or any of its departments in terms of that law or any other law”.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments applied to SWA –

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Pension Funds Act 24 of 1956, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 5679) regulates pension funds.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Union” to include “the Territory”, which is defined as “the Territory of South West Africa”. Section 40 states “This Act shall apply also in the Territory.” Although section 40 did not make amendments to the Act in South Africa automatically applicable to SWA, they appear to have applied to SWA by virtue of the definition of “Union” in section 1. (Act 9/1994 supports this assumption by referring to previous amendments made by Act 103 of 1979, Act 86 of 1984 and Act 53 of 1989).

Transfer of administration to SWA: This Act was administered by the Minister of Finance. Acts administered by the Minister of Finance in the Department of Inland Revenue were transferred to South West Africa by the Executive Powers (Inland Revenue) Transfer Proclamation, AG 18 of 1978, but this Act fell under the Department of Finance at the time, as indicated by government notices pertaining to the Registrar and Deputy Registrar of Friendly Societies issued during the 1970s. See, for example, Government Notice 1317/1970 (RSA GG 2768) and Government Notice 1640/1977 (RSA GG 5715). There was no transfer proclamation for laws administered by the Minister of Finance in the Department of Finance.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Finance Act 81 of 1957 (SA GG 5907)
- Finance Act 80 of 1959 (SA GG 6255)
- Second Finance Act 58 of 1966 (RSA GG 1577)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 65 of 1968 (RSA GG 2107)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 80 of 1969 (RSA GG 2446)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 23 of 1970 (RSA GG 2661)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 91 of 1972 (RSA GG 3594)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 101 of 1976 (RSA GG 5217)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 94 of 1977 (RSA GG 5624)

- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 103 of 1979 (RSA GG 6568)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 82 of 1982 (RSA GG 8240)
- Corporation for Public Deposits Act 46 of 1984 (RSA GG 9149)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 86 of 1984 (RSA GG 9313)

- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 50 of 1986 (RSA GG 10248)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 51 of 1988 (RSA GG 11313)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 53 of 1989 (RSA GG 11892)
- Financial Institutions Second Amendment Act 54 of 1989 (RSA GG 11893).

Act 94 of 1969 was also amended in South Africa by the Legal Succession to the South African Transport Services Act 9 of 1989 (RSA GG 11743). However, the portions of Act 9 of 1989 which amended Act 94 of 1969 came into force only after Namibian independence, on 1 April 1990, in terms of section 37(2) read with section 3(1) of Act 9 of 1989; the date referred to in section 3(1) was set by RSA Government Notice 578/1990 (RSA GG 12364) as being 1 April 1990. Therefore these amendments were not applicable to South West Africa.

After Namibian independence, Act 4/1994 (GG 812) amends section 36 to allow the imposition of limits on the amount of funds which may be invested outside Namibia.

The Short-term Insurance Act 4 of 1998 (GG 1832) repeals section 39 insofar as it relates to short-term insurance.

The Long-term Insurance Act 5 of 1998 (GG 1834) repeals the remainder of section 39.

The Namibia Financial Institutions Supervisory Authority Act 3 of 2001 (GG 2529) amends section 1, substitutes section 3 and repeals section 3A.

The Maintenance Act 9 of 2003 (GG 3043) amends section 37.

Act 5/2011 (GG 4735) amends sections 1, 19, 36 and 37.

Act 6/2014 (GG 5584) amends sections 19 and 37D.

Application of law: The application of the Act is affected by the Members of Parliament and other Office-bearers Pension Fund Act 20 of 1999 (GG 2239), in respect of the fund created by that Act.

The Government Institutions Pension Fund (GIPF) is exempted from section 19(4) of the Act, subject to specified limitations, by GN 91/2015 (GG 5751).

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations were contained in RSA GN R.98 of 1962 (RSA GG 162), as amended by –

- RSA GN R.2144/1984 (RSA GG 9437)
- RSA GN R.1790/1985 (RSA GG 9892)
- RSA GN R.1037/1986 (RSA GG 10249)

- GN 108/1995 (GG 1095)
- GN 30/2008 (GG 3985)
- GN 127/2013 (GG 5205)

Note that GN 350/2003 withdraws GN 127/2013 with effect from its publication date, as if it never existed.

- GN 351/2003 (GG 5383)
- GN 38/2015 (GG 5689).
This Government Notice refers to a previous amendment made by GN 321 of 18 December 2013. This is in error. GN 321/2013 (GG 5351) was published on 29 November 2013 and concerns the import of poultry products into Namibia. The only Government Gazette published on 18 December 2013 (GG 5365) contains nothing relating to this Act. This erroneous reference was probably intended to refer to GN 351/2003 (GG 5383) published on 31 December 2013.

However, new Pensions Funds Regulations are contained GN 211/2018 (GG 6697), which repeals the regulations in RSA GN R.98 of 1962 (without mentioning their amendments).

Appointments: A Registrar and Deputy Registrar of Pension Funds are appointed in General Notice 29/1991 (GG 174).

Cases: Old Mutual Life Assurance Co Namibia Ltd v Old Mutual Namibia Staff Pension Fund & Another 2006 (1) NR 211 (HC) (section 37D).

Administration Employees Pension Ordinance 19 of 1959.

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 2199) provides for pensions and benefits for certain employees of the administration of South West Africa.

Amendments: This Proclamation is amended by Ord. 18/1960 (OG 2254) and Ord. 23/1962 (OG 2409).

See also the Regulation of Membership of the Union Widows’ Pension Fund Ordinance 15 of 1960 (OG 2254), which provides for male contributors of the Administration Employees Pension Fund to be members of the Union Widows Pension Fund.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 29 of the Ordinance. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Members of Statutory Bodies Pension Act 94 of 1969, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 2459) establishes a pension scheme for employees of statutory bodies.

Applicability to SWA: Section 7 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall, so far as is necessary for the effective application thereof, apply also in the territory.” Section 1 defines “territory” as “the territory of South West Africa, including that part of the said territory known as the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel and referred to in section 38(5) of the South West Africa Constitution Act, 1968 (Act No. 39 of 1968)”.
Transfer of administration to SWA: The relevant Transfer Proclamation is the Executive Powers (Social Welfare and Pensions) Transfer Proclamation (AG 11/1977), dated 30 November 1977. However, section 3(c) of the Transfer Proclamation provided that section 3(1) of the General Proclamation shall not apply to “the provisions of any law relating to any pension or provident fund or scheme which is administered by the Minister of Social Welfare and Pensions or is otherwise controlled by him ...”. Therefore, the administration of the Act was not transferred to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –
- Pension Laws Amendment Act 73 of 1973 (RSA GG 3955)
- Pension Laws Amendment Act 50 of 1975 (RSA GG 4739)
- Pension Laws Amendment Act 100 of 1979 (RSA GG 6549)
- Pension Laws Amendment Act 96 of 1983 (RSA GG 8809).

Act 94 of 1969 was also amended in South Africa by the Legal Succession to the South African Transport Services Act 9 of 1989 (RSA GG 11743). However, the portions of Act 9 of 1989 which amended Act 94 of 1969 came into force only after Namibian independence, on 1 April 1990, in terms of section 37(2) read with section 3(1) of Act 9 of 1989; the date referred to in section 3(1) was set by RSA Government Notice 578/1990 (RSA GG 12364) as being 1 April 1990. Therefore these amendments were not applicable to South West Africa.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Black Authorities’ Service Pensions Act 6 of 1971. as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 3022) (originally called the “Bantu Authorities’ Service Pensions Act”) provides for the establishment and control of a pension fund for the employees of certain “black authorities”.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines the authorities covered by the Act to included “any executive council, tribal authority, community authority or regional authority referred to in the Development of Self-Government for Native Nations in South West Africa Act, 1968 (Act No. 54 of 1968)”. Section 1 defines “the territory as “the territory of South West Africa,” and section 8 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer of administration of SWA: The relevant transfer proclamation is the Executive Powers Transfer Proclamation (AG 3/1977) dated 28 September 1977, as amended. However, section 3(1)(e) exempts from transfer “those provisions of any law providing for or relating to... pension rights and privileges of any person who is, or is engaged, in the service of the state...”. Thus, the administration of the Act was not transferred to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –
- Black Education Account Abolition Act 20 of 1972 (originally “Bantu Education Account Abolition Act”) (RSA GG 3431)
- Black Laws Amendment Act 23 of 1972 (originally “Bantu Laws Amendment Act”) (RSA GG 3447)
- Black Laws Amendment Act 4 of 1976 1972 (originally “Bantu Laws Amendment Act”) (RSA GG 5012)
- Black Laws Amendment Act 119 of 1977 (RSA GG 5671).

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 5 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 3104) deals with pensions and other retirement benefits for employees of the Administration of Railways and Harbours.

Applicability to SWA: Section 21 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the Territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The relevant Transfer Proclamation is the Executive Powers (Transport) Transfer Proclamation (AG 14/1978), dated 15 March 1978. However, the Act was excluded from transfer by section 3(2)(a) of the General Proclamation, which exempted “those provisions of any law ... which provide for or relate to ... pension rights and privileges or any other conditions of service of any person who is, or is engaged for employment, in the service of the State or the Government of the Republic or any of its departments in terms of that law or any other law”.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –
- Railways and Harbours Acts Amendment Act 33 of 1972 (RSA )
- Railways and Harbours Acts Amendment Act 47 of 1973 (RSA GG 3912)
- Railways and Harbours Acts Amendment Act 44 of 1974 (RSA GG 4433)
- Railways and Harbours Acts Amendment Act 46 of 1975 (RSA GG 4719)
- Railways and Harbours Acts Amendment Act 8 of 1976 (RSA GG 5016)
- Railways and Harbours Acts Amendment Act 64 of 1978 (RSA GG 6019)

- South African Transport Services Amendment Act 44 of 1985 (RSA GG 9708)
- Finance Act 88 of 1988 (RSA GG 11410)
- Finance Act 80 of 1989 (RSA GG 11935).

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 4 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 3934) provides for pensions and other financial benefits for certain persons employed by the South African Government, the Administration of South West Africa, and provincial administrations.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Republic” to include “the territory”, which is defined as “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 19 states “This Act shall apply also in the territory, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” The wording of section 19 did not make amendments to the Act automatically applicable to SWA, but they are probably applicable by virtue of the definition of “Republic” in section 1.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The relevant transfer proclamation is the Executive Powers (Social Welfare and Pensions) Transfer Proclamation (AG 11/1977), dated 30 November 1977. However, section 3(c) of the transfer proclamation provided that section 3(1) of the General Proclamation shall not apply to “the provisions of any law relating to any pension or provident fund or scheme which is administered by the Minister of Social Welfare and Pensions or is otherwise controlled by him ...”. Therefore, the administration of the Act was not transferred to SWA.

Amendments: Only one South African amending Act – the Pensions Laws Amendment Act 83 of 1976 (RSA GG 5173) – was made expressly applicable to SWA. However, the other amendments to the Act in South Africa were probably applicable to SWA by virtue of the definition of Republic, making the following list of amendments applicable to SWA –

- Pension Laws Amendment Act 15 of 1974 (RSA GG 4198) (repeals section 17(2)(i))
- Pension Laws Amendment Act 83 of 1976 (RSA GG 5173) (amends sections 5 and 7)
- Pension Laws Amendment Act 26 of 1977 (RSA GG 5463)
- General Pensions Act 29 of 1979 (RSA GG 6390)
- Pension Laws Amendment Act 97 of 1980 (RSA GG 7150)
- Pension Laws Amendment Act 106 of 1986 (RSA GG 10452)
- Pension Laws Amendment Act 89 of 1988 (RSA GG 11411).

Section 2 of the Pension Laws Amendment Act 15 of 1974 (RSA GG 4198) is an independent provision which was made explicitly applicable to South West Africa.

Section 2(5) was substituted by the Pension Laws Amendment Act 83 of 1976 (RSA GG 5173), with this amendment being explicitly applicable to SWA. (Section 2 was amended further in RSA by the General Pensions Act 29 of 1979 (RSA GG 6390) which repealed all of section 2 except subsection (4) – but that amending law was not made explicitly applicable to SWA, nor was the Act itself applicable in any way to SWA, not even by a definition of Republic.) Section 2 of the Pension Laws Amendment Act 15 of 1974, as amended in SWA, reads as follows:

“Regulations relating to payment of compensation and rendering of medical treatment

2. (1) Notwithstanding anything to contrary any law contained, the Minister of Social Welfare and Pensions may, in consultation with the Minister of Finance, the Minister of Posts and Telecommunications and the Administrators, and after consultation with –

(a) the Minister who is responsible for the Bureau;
(b) the Minister of the Interior;
(c) the Minister of Defence;
(d) the Minister of Police; and
(e) the Minister of Prisons, make regulations which provide for the payment of compensation to or in respect of, or to a dependant of, any officer or employee who dies or is retired or as a result of injury or ill-health out of and in the course of his employment by the Government or by an administration of any province or of the territory South West Africa, and for the rendering of medical treatment (including surgical or hospital treatment, skilled nursing services and the supply and repair of any artificial part of the body or any device), to such officer or employee in respect of such injury or ill-health.

(2) Regulations referred to in subsection (1), except regulations which reduce compensation, may be made with retrospective effect and different regulations may be made in respect of different classes or categories of officers or employees.

(3) For the purposes of this section—

“employee” means any member of the Reserve Police Force established section 34(2) of the Police Act, 1958 (Act 7 of 1958), or any member of the Police Reserve established under 34A(1) of the Police Act, 1958, or any member of the Government Employees’ Provident Fund referred to in section 2(3) of the Government Service Pensions Act, 1965 (Act 62 of 1965), and includes any person who in terms of section 2 of the Simonstown Naval Base Employees’ Transfer Act, 1956 (Act No. 72 of 1956), became an employee referred to that section but does not include any employee to whom the provisions of the War Pensions Act, 1967 (Act No. 62 of 1967), apply in relation to the injury or ill-health referred to in subsection (1) of this section;

“officer” means any member of the Government Service Pension Fund established under section 3 of the Government Service Pension Act, 1973 (Act No. 57 of 1973), and includes a specified officer as defined in section 3(6) of the Pension Laws Amendment Act, 1973 (Act No. 73 of 1973), but does not include any officer to whom the provisions of the War Pensions Act, 1967, apply in relation to the injury or ill-health referred to in subsection (1) of this section.

(4) Any annuity, pension or benefit payable immediately before 1 July 1973 in terms of the regulations promulgated by Government Notice R.1929 of 8 December 1965, and any amendment thereof, shall be continued at the rates and subject to the conditions which were applicable immediately before the date of commencement of this section.

(5) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law contained—

(a) any increase of a pension or other benefit effected under section 5(1)(bA) of the Government Service Pensions Act, 1965, or in terms of any regulation made under that Act on or after 1 July 1973, but before the date of commencement of this section, shall be deemed to be compensation in terms of the regulations promulgated under subsection (1);

(b) any military service as defined in section 1 of the Military Pensions Act, 1976, and rendered by an officer or employee, shall, for the purposes of this section and the regulations made thereunder, be deemed to have been service in the Government or in the administration of the province or of the territory of South West Africa in whose service he was during the time he rendered such military service;

(c) an officer or employee who renders military service or undergoes training within the meaning of the Defence Act, 1957 (Act No. 44 of 1957), shall, for the purposes of the Workmen’s Compensation Act, 1941 (Act No. 30 of 1941), be deemed to be a workman while rendering such military service or undergoing such training.

[subsection (5) substituted by the Pension Laws Amendment Act
83 of 1976 (RSA GG 5173)]

(6) This section shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”
No repeal of this provision has been located, but it is not clear if it has any ongoing effect.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 17 of the Act, as well as the independent supplementary provision on regulations discussed above. Pre-independence regulations under these laws have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 4432) provides for pensions and other retirement benefits to non-white employees of the Administration of Railways and Harbours.

Applicability to SWA: Section 18 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The relevant transfer proclamation is the Executive Powers (Transport) Transfer Proclamation (AG 14/1978), dated 15 March 1978. However, the Act was excluded from transfer by section 3(2)(a) of the General Proclamation, which exempted “those provisions of any law ... which provide for or relate to ... pension rights and privileges or any other conditions of service of any person who is, or is engaged for employment, in the service of the State or the Government of the Republic or any of its departments in terms of that law or any other law”.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA—

- Second Railways and Harbours Acts Amendment Act 89 of 1976 (RSA GG 5179)
- Railways and Harbours Acts Amendment Act 64 of 1978 (RSA GG 6019)
- Railways and Harbours Acts Amendment Act 67 of 1980 (RSA GG 7039)
- Railways and Harbours Acts Amendment Act 29 of 1981 (RSA GG 7475)
- Second Railways and Harbours Acts Amendment Act 60 of 1981 (RSA GG 7753)
- South African Transport Services Amendment Act 6 of 1982 (RSA GG 8039)
- South African Transport Services Amendment Act 13 of 1983 (RSA GG 8595)
- South African Transport Services Amendment Act 5 of 1984 (RSA GG 9081)
- South African Transport Services Amendment Act 44 of 1985 (RSA GG 9708)
- South African Transport Services Amendment Act 91 of 1987 (RSA GG 10983)
- Finance Act 88 of 1988 (RSA GG 11410)
- Finance Act 80 of 1989 (RSA GG 11935).

The Act was amended in South Africa by the Legal Succession to the South African Transport Services Act 9 of 1989. However, the portions of this Act which amended Act 43 of 1974 came into force only after Namibian independence, on 1 April 1990, in terms of section 37(2) read with section 3(1) of Act 9 of 1989; the date referred to in section 3(1) was set by RSA Government Notice 578/1990 as being 1 April 1990. These amendments were thus not applicable to South West Africa.
Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 3 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Military Pensions Act 84 of 1976, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 5174) provides benefits and medical treatment in regard to disablement caused or exacerbated by military service under the Defence Act. It also consolidates other war pensions.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Republic” to include “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 25 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The relevant transfer proclamation is the Executive Powers (Social Welfare and Pensions) Transfer Proclamation (AG 11/1977), dated 30 November 1977. However, section 3(b) of this Transfer Proclamation explicitly excluded this Act from section 3(1) of the General Proclamation. Therefore, the administration of the Act was not transferred to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –
- Pension Laws Amendment Act 26 of 1977 (RSA GG 5463)
- General Pensions Act 29 of 1979 (RSA GG 6390)
- Pension Laws Amendment Act 100 of 1979 (RSA GG 6549)
- Pension Laws Amendment Act 97 of 1980 (RSA GG 7150)
- Pension Laws Amendment Act 81 of 1982 (RSA GG 8239)
- Pension Laws Amendment Act 96 of 1983 (RSA GG 8809)
- Pension Laws Amendment Act 123 of 1984 (RSA GG 9381)
- Pension Laws Amendment Act 106 of 1986 (RSA GG 10452)
- Pension Laws Amendment Act 88 of 1987 (RSA GG 10980).

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched. RSA regulations are contained in RSA GN R.1806/1976 (RSA GG 5304), which is deemed to have come into force on 30 June 1976 by section 15(2) of the Pension Laws Amendment Act 26 of 1977 (RSA GG 5463); this section 15 was repealed by the General Pensions Act 29 of 1979 (RSA GG 6390).

No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Pensions Laws Amendment Act 83 of 1976, sections 1-5 and 8.

Summary: Sections 1-4 of this Act (RSA GG 5173) amend other laws. Section 5 relates to the consolidation of pensions or benefits under the Simonstown Naval Base Employees’ Transfer Act 72 of 1956 and allowances or bonuses under any other law. Section 8 contains presumptions and definitions for purposes of laws relating to social pensions.

Applicability to SWA: Section 10 states that sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 8 “shall also apply in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel”.

PENSIONS-11
Transfer of administration to SWA: The relevant Transfer Proclamation is the Executive Powers (Social Welfare and Pensions) Transfer Proclamation (AG 11/1977), dated 30 November 1977. However, section 3(c) of the Transfer Proclamation provided that section 3(1) of General Proclamation shall not apply to “the provisions of any law relating to any pension or provident fund or scheme which is administered by the Minister of Social Welfare and Pensions or is otherwise controlled by him ...”. Therefore, the administration of the Act was not transferred to SWA. In any event, the wording of section 10 did not make amendments made to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence automatically applicable to South West Africa.

Section 8 of the Act was amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence by the Pension Laws Amendment Act 40 of 1978 (RSA GG 5965), which was not made independently applicable to SWA. The General Pensions Act 29 of 1979 (RSA GG 6390), which was also not made independently applicable to SWA, repealed sections 1–4 and 8–11 as well as section 10 of Act 83 of 1976 which made the selected sections of the Act applicable to SWA. However, since these amendments were not independently applicable to SWA, the Act appeared to remain in force in SWA as it stood prior to these amendments.

Temporary Employees Pension Fund Act 75 of 1979, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 6518) provides pensions and other benefits to certain temporary employees and their dependants.

Applicability to SWA: Section 9A (added by RSA Proclamation R.217 of 1979) states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the Territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivitiep.” This section also provides special definitions for “revenue” and “Government” in regard to South West Africa.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The relevant transfer proclamation is the Executive Powers (Social Welfare and Pensions) Transfer Proclamation (AG 11/1977), dated 30 November 1977. However, section 3(c) of the transfer proclamation provided that section 3(1) of the General Proclamation shall not apply to “the provisions of any law relating to any pension or provident fund or scheme which is administered by the Minister of Social Welfare and Pensions or is otherwise controlled by him ...”. Therefore, the administration of the Act was not transferred to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –
- Pension Laws Amendment Act 106 of 1986 (RSA GG 10452)
- Pension Laws Amendment Act 89 of 1988 (RSA GG 11411).

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 8 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 5831) deals with issues related to the termination of the Statutory Institutions Pensions Fund established in terms of Statutory Institutions.
Pensions Act 3 of 1980 (OG 4117), which was repealed in its entirety by this Proclamation.

Amendments: Act 5/1990 (GG 30) repeals section 3 and amends section 4, so as to remove the right of persons to invest their accrued pension benefits in retirement annuity funds of life insurance companies.

Regulations: The Proclamation makes no provision for regulations.

Pension Gratuities to Former Members of the National Assembly and of Legislative and Executive Authorities Proclamation, AG 8 of 1990.

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 5918), issued on the eve of independence, provided for pension gratuities to persons entitled to annuities or payments upon vacation of office in terms of the Members of the National Assembly and of Legislative and Executive Authorities Pensions Act 11 of 1981 (OG 4505) (since repealed by the Members of Parliament and other Office-bearers Pensions Act 21 of 1990 (GG 116)). It also exempted the gratuities from the Income Tax Act 24 of 1981. It has no ongoing application.

Regulations: The Proclamation made no provision for regulations.

National Pensions Act 10 of 1992.

Summary: This Act (GG 395) provides for national pensions to be paid to aged, blind and disabled persons. It repeals the German War Veterans’ Pensions Ordinance 3 of 1965 and the Social Pensions Act 37 of 1973. It was brought into force on 1 October 1994 by Proc. 25/1994 (GG 942).

Regulations: Regulations made under the repealed laws survive pursuant to section 17(2) of this Act, which states that “any regulation, made, or any act done under any provision of any law repealed by subsection (1), shall be deemed to have been made or done under the corresponding provisions of this Act: Provided that in the case of any regulation made in relation to any old age pension or veteran’s pension, as the case may be, such regulation shall be deemed to have been made in relation to a basic state pension payable under this Act”. Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched, although it appears that many of the surviving regulations are race-based and therefore inappropriate to independent Namibia. Section 16 of this Act authorises regulations, but none have yet been promulgated.

Notices: All national pensions were equalised at N$135/month in terms of section 17(3) by GN 201/1994 (GG 962). Subsequent pension increases were not gazetted; section 16 of the Act authorises regulations on maximum pension amounts but does not require that such amounts be contained in regulations.

The old age pension was increased from N$600/month to N$1000/month in April 2015. (See “Old age pension to increase by N$100 next year”, The Namibian, 6 November 2015.) Disability pensions also increased from N$600/month to N$1000/month in April 2015. (See Verua Kavezeri, “Daily struggles of a maimed villager”, The Namibian, 3 September 2015.) Both old age and disability pensions were increased to N$1100/month effective 1 April 2016. (See “Increase in pensioner, disability grants”, PENSIONS-13
Both old age and disability pensions were again increased, to N$1200/month, effective 1 April 2017. (This was reported in a press release of Ministry of Poverty Eradication and Social Welfare dated 14 July 2017; the increased amount was provided from August 2017, with a once-off extra amount to cover the increase for the period from April to August.) Both “pensions and grants” were again increased, to N$1250/month, effective 1 April 2018. The increased amount was provided from August 2018, with a once-off extra amount to cover the increase for the period from April to August. (See Alwonda Izaaks “Govt increases pensions and grants by N$50”, The Namibian, 3 July 2018.)

Summary: This Act (GG 2239) establishes a pension fund for Members of Parliament and other Office-bearers. It was brought into force on 4 January 2000 by GN 284/1999 (GG 2253), replacing the Members of Parliament and other Office-bearers Pensions Act 21 of 1990 (GG 116) which was repealed with effect from the same date (GN 285/1999, GG 2253).

Application of law: Note that the Judges’ Pensions Act 13 of 2011, provides for the transfer of judges’ pensions and gratuities from the State Revenue Fund to the Members of Parliament and other Office-bearers Pension Fund.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Rules: The pension fund established under this Act was registered in terms of the Pension Fund Act 24 of 1956. The rules approved by the Registrar of Pension Funds and the announcement of the registration are contained in GN 269/2000 (GG 2443).

Notices: Certain specific officials are named as office-bearers for purposes of the Act from time to time, but these designations have not been recorded here.

Judges’ Pensions Act 13 of 2011.

Summary: This Act (GG 4862) repeals the Judges Pensions Act 28 of 1990 and provides for the transfer of judges’ pensions and gratuities from the State Revenue Fund to the Members of Parliament and other Office-bearers Pension Fund. (See Members of Parliament and other Office-bearers Pension Fund Act 20 of 1999.) The Act was brought into force on 30 March 2012 by GN 92/2012 (GG 4915), which was also set as the transfer date for the pension funds in terms of section 2 of the Act by GN 93/2012 (GG 4915).

It should be noted that section 7 of the Act provides that, if there is a dispute or doubt regarding entitlement to a pension under the repealed law on the transfer date, then the repealed Act will continue to apply as if this Act had not been passed, and the transfer date will become the date on which the dispute is settled or the doubt resolved.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Police Act 19 of 1990.

Summary: This Act (GG 113) provides for the establishment, organisation, administration, and powers and duties of the Namibian Police Force. It prescribes procedures to protect the internal security of Namibia and to maintain law and order. It also regulates the appointment, promotion, discipline and discharge of members of the Namibian Police Force. It repeals the Police Act 7 of 1958.

Note that the original Gazette was replaced by another GG 113 with the same date; the correct version states at the top: “This Government Gazette replaces Government Gazette No. 113 of 3 December 1990.”

Amendments: The Act is substantially amended by Act 3/1999 (GG 2072). Particularly notable is the amendment of section 14, which substantially broadens police powers of search and seizure.

Section 4 of the Act is amended by Act 5/2001 (GG 2566) (regarding standards for physical and mental fitness).

Regulations: Regulations made in terms of the repealed Police Act 7 of 1958 survive pursuant to section 45(2) of the Police Act 19 of 1990. Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched.

Pre-independence regulations were contained in RSA GN R.203/1964 (RSA GG 719, republished in OG 2542), amended by GN 16/1991 (GG 159). However, GN 167/1994 (GG 919) repealed and replaced these regulations, with the exception of regulation 58(32). This regulation was declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court case of Kauesa v Minister of Home Affairs 1995 NR 175 (SC).

The following regulations were made under this Act:

GN 238/2014 (GG 5616) refers to a previous amendment made by GN 201/2002 (GG 2862), but this is in fact a separate set of regulations which was replaced by GN 124/2003 (GG 2997). (See below.)

Regulations for Municipal Police Services are contained in GN 184/2002 (GG 2833), as amended by GN 253/2003 (GG 3108) and GN 197/2004 (GG 3270).

Regulations relating to the award of decorations and medals to members of the Namibian Police Force are contained in GN 201/2002 (GG 2862), which is replaced by GN 124/2003 (GG 2997).

Municipal regulations: Windhoek Municipal Police Service Regulations issued by the Council of the Municipality of Windhoek are contained in General Notice 32/2013 (GG which replaced and replaced General Notice 296/2004 (GG 3335).

PRESCRIPTION

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 2421) governs prescription (time limits on instituting legal proceedings). It replaced the Prescription Proclamation 13 of 1943. (According to O’Linn v Minister of Agriculture, Water and Forestry & Others 2008 (2) NR 792 (HC) at 797F-G, the South African Prescription Act 18 of 1943 was never applicable to Namibia or South West Africa.)

Applicability to SWA: Section 21 states “This Act and any amendment thereof which may be made from time to time, shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section 38(5) of the South West Africa Constitution Act, 1968 (Act No. 39 of 1968).”

Transfer to SWA: Although this Act makes no reference to any minister, it probably fell under the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended, by virtue of its subject matter. (Note that it is one of the laws listed in the South African Justice Laws Rationalisation Act 18 of 1996 (RSA GG 17129).) There was one amendment to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Prescription Amendment Act 11 of 1984 (RSA GG 9087) – which was not made expressly applicable to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence amendments in South Africa were applicable to SWA:
- General Law Amendment Act 62 of 1973 (RSA GG 3947)
- General Law Amendment Act 57 of 1975 (RSA GG 4760).

Terminology in the Act was amended by the Native Laws Amendment Proclamation, AG 3 of 1979 (OG 3898), deemed to have come into force in relevant part on 1 August 1978 (section 5 of AG 3 of 1979).

The Married Persons Equality Act 1 of 1996 (GG 1316) amends section 3.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Cases:
H Charney & Co (Pty) Ltd v Segall & Matheson Properties 1995 NR 148 (HC) (sections 11(d) and 12(1))
Seaflower Whitefish Corporation v Namibia Ports Authority 1998 NR 316 (HC) (section 12(1) and (3))

Section 12(3) was amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence by the Prescription Amendment Act 11 of 1984 (RSA GG 9087) which was not made expressly applicable to South West Africa. This amendment removed the phrase “which does not arise from contract” from section 12(3). This amendment does not appear to have been applicable to South West Africa, but it should be noted that this case assumes without discussion that section 12(3) reads with the amendment in question, stating at 322B-E: “The relevant section of the Prescription Act 68 of 1969, is s 12 and the relevant portions of that section are as follows:

'(1) Subject to the provisions of ss (2) and (3), prescription shall commence to run as soon as the debt is due.

(3) A debt shall not be deemed to be due until the creditor has knowledge of the identity of the debtor and of the facts from which the debt arises: Provided that a creditor shall be deemed to have such knowledge if he could have acquired it by exercising reasonable care.”"

Seaflower Whitefish Corporation Ltd v Namibian Ports Authority 2000 NR 57 (HC) (sections 11 and 12)

Bank Windhoek Ltd v Kessler 2001 NR 234 (HC) (section 13(1)(b))

Merlus Seafood Processors (Pty) Ltd v Minister of Finance 2013 (1) NR 42 (HC)(section 10)

Section 12(3) was amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence by the Prescription Amendment Act 11 of 1984 (RSA GG 9087) which was not made expressly applicable to South West Africa. This amendment removed the phrase “which does not arise from contract” from section 12(3). This amendment does not appear to have been applicable to South West Africa, but it should be noted that the Wellman case applies section 12(3) to a contractual debt (see paragraph 78); thus, although the issue is not discussed, the case appears to assume that section 12(3) applies as amended by Act 11 of 1984.

Namibia Development Corporation v Mwandingi & Others 2013 (3) NR 737 (LC) (Act applies to labour-related claims arising under Labour Act 6 of 1992 or Labour Act 11 of 2007)

Tjama-ha & Another v Master of the High Court & Others 2016 (1) NR 186 (HC) (vindicatory claim is not a “debt” for purposes of Act).

Hartzenberg v Standard Bank Namibia 2016 (2) NR 307 (SC) (an amendment to a claim which is proposed after the prescription period cannot be allowed where it claims new debts not arising from the same material facts relied upon in the original claim)

Okorusu Flurospar (Pty) Ltd v Tanaka Trading CC & Another 2016 (2) NR 486 (HC) (an amendment which does not introduce a new cause of action but merely expands on the initial plea may be made after the prescription period has run)

Van Straten NO & Others v Namibia Financial Institutions Supervisory Authority & Others 2016 (3) NR 747 (SC) (section 12(3)).

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 2902) prescribes time limits for legal proceedings in respect of certain debts against provincial administrations, local authorities and the Administration of the territory of South West Africa.

Applicability to SWA: Section 7 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer proclamation: Although this Act makes no reference to any minister, it probably fell under the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended. There were no amendments to the Act in South Africa before or after the date of transfer.

Section 95(1) of the Local Authorities Act 23 of 1992 (GG 470) repeals section 9, insofar as it related to the Municipal Ordinance 13 of 1963, which is repealed by Act 23 of 1992.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Cases: Sebatane & Another v Mutumba & Others 2013 (1) NR 284 (HC) (section 2(1)(a) upheld against constitutional challenge).
Former Presidents’ Pension and Other Benefits Act 18 of 2004.

Summary: This Act (GG 3350) provides for the payment of tax-free pensions and other benefits to former Presidents of Namibia and their families.

Amendments: The Act is amended by Act 14/2012 (GG 5105), which amends section 2 to increase the gratuity paid to former Presidents from a single gratuity to a gratuity in respect of each term of office, and substitutes item 3(a) of the Schedule with respect to residential accommodation. With an unusual degree of retrospectivity, the amending Act is deemed to have come into force on 18 December 2004.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Conferment of Status of Founding Father of the Namibian Nation Act 16 of 2005.

Summary: This Act (GG 3567) confers the status of Founding Father of the Namibian Nation on the first President of the Republic of Namibia, His Excellency Dr Sam Nujoma.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Presidential Remuneration and Other Benefits Act 5 of 2016.

Summary: This Act (GG 6045) covers the remuneration payable to the President, the allowance payable to the President’s spouse, medical aid benefits for the President and his or her spouse and exemption of these amounts from income tax. The President’s remuneration is set at 15% above the remuneration “payable at any given time” to the Vice President, and the Vice-President’s remuneration is 15% above the remuneration “payable at any given time” to the Prime Minister under the Public Office-Bearers (Remuneration and Benefits) Act 3 of 2005.

This Act repeals the Presidential Remuneration and Other Benefits Act 15 of 2012 (GG 5114). The previous Act pre-dated the introduction of the Office of Vice-President by the Namibian Constitution Third Amendment Act 8 of 2014. It set the President’s remuneration at 15% above the remuneration “currently payable” to the Prime Minister under the Public Office-Bearers (Remuneration and Benefits) Act 3 of 2005. (See also Proc. 32/2015 (GG 5838), which set the remuneration of the Vice-President at 10 per cent above the remuneration payable to the Prime Minister.)

The Presidential Remuneration and Other Benefits Act 15 of 2012 in turn replaced the Presidential Emoluments Act 17 of 1990 (GG 100) – which was originally the “Presidential Emoluments and Pension Act 17 of 1990” until the short title was amended by Act 18 of 2004.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.
Notices: The remuneration of the President and the Vice-President and the pension of the first former President and former President are set out in Proc. 4/2017 (GG 6259), which makes reference to the authority of this Act.

Applicability to SWA: The Security Matters Proclamation (AG 29/1985) (OG 5059) made this Act applicable to South West Africa, with minor amendments.

Transfer of administration to SWA: This Act post-dated the transfer proclamations.

Amendments: Note that a portion of section 4 was not applied to SWA by AG 29/1985 (OG 5059). AG 29/1985 also amends section 2.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Public Gatherings Proclamation, AG 23 of 1989.

It also gives the police powers to place conditions on gatherings and to disperse riots. The Proclamation repeals portions of the Riotous Assemblies Act 17 of 1956.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Notices: See General Notice 143/1992 (GG 503), which refers to the Proclamation in connection with guidelines for the holding of elections.

Public Service Act 2 of 1980, which was originally named the Government Service Act 2 of 1980. (Note that transitional provisions in section 37 of the Act provide for the continued application of sections 10(A) and 14 of the Public Service Act 2 of 1980 to permanent secretaries, regional councils and chief regional officers under certain circumstances.)

Amendments: Schedule 2 to the Act is amended by Proclamation 3/1997 (GG 1500), which changes “Ministry of Labour and Human Resources Development” to “Ministry of Labour”.

Schedules 1 and 2 are substituted by Proc. 5/2005 (GG 3436), as part of a substantial reorganisation of ministries.

Schedule 2 is substituted in its entirety by Proc. 10/2009 (GG 4331).

Regulations: Regulations promulgated under the previous Act survive under the new Act in terms of section 37(1), which states “Anything done under the Public Service Act, 1980 (Act 2 of 1980), and which could have been done under a provision of this Act, shall be deemed to have been done under the corresponding provision of this Act.”

Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched.

Regulations issued under the previous Act are contained in AG GN 28/1981 (OG 4429), as amended by GN 90/1986 (OG 5210), AG GN 14/1989 (OG 5664) and GN 1/1995 (GG 1006).

PURCHASE AND SALE

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 2427) sets forth the necessary formalities in contracts for the sale of land or certain interests in land.

Applicability to SWA: Section 3 of the Act states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Commerce) Transfer Proclamation (AG 28/1978), dated 28 April 1978. There were no amendments to the Act prior to its repeal in South Africa by the Alienation of Land Act 68 of 1981 (RSA GG 7789), which was not made applicable to SWA.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Cases: Mack v Uni-Signal (Pty) Ltd 1993 NR 304 (HC); Hayley Fay t/a Hayley Fay Properties v Uptown Property Investment CC & Others 2016 (3) NR 893 (HC) (section 2).

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 3175) regulates the purchase and sale of residential land, where payments are to be made in instalments over a period of at least one year.

Applicability to SWA: Section 19 of the Act states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Commerce) Transfer Proclamation (AG 28/1978), dated 28 April 1978.

Section 3(2)(b) of the transfer proclamation stated that the reference to the “Minister” in section 2(b)(i) of the Act should be construed as including a reference to the Administrator-General (rather than being construed as the Administrator-General only).

The only amendment to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer – the Sale of Land on Instalment Amendment Act 74 of 1978 (RSA GG 6049) – was not made expressly applicable to SWA.

Like the Formalities in Respect of Contracts of Sale of Land Act 71 of 1969, this Act was replaced in South Africa by the Alienation of Land Act 68 of 1981 (RSA GG 7789), which was not made applicable to SWA.
Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Sale of Land on Instalments Amendment Act 72 of 1972 (RSA GG 3571)
- Sale of Land on Instalments Amendment Act 49 of 1975 (RSA GG 4738)

Section 4 of the Executive Powers (Commerce) Transfer Proclamation (AG 28/1978) (OG 3743) amends section 2 of the Act.

The Native Laws Amendment Proclamation (AG 3/1979) (OG 3898) amends certain terminology.

Regulations: The Act makes provision only for regulations which set the maximum rate of interest from time to time in respect of contracts governed by the Act. The regulations setting such rates have not been researched.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 7073). It regulates transactions where movable goods are purchased or leased on credit. It also applies to services rendered on credit. It repeals the Hire-Purchase Act 36 of 1942.

Applicability to SWA: Section 30 of the Act, as substituted by the Credit Agreements Proclamation, AG 17 of 1981 (OG 4472), states “This Act shall be called the Credit Agreements Act, 1980, and shall come into operation on the date on which the Credit Agreements Proclamation, 1981, of the Administrator-General is published in the Official Gazette.” Section 1 of the Credit Agreements Proclamation, AG 17 of 1981, states “Subject to the provisions of this Proclamation, the Credit Agreements Act, 1980 (hereinafter referred to as the Act), shall apply to the territory of South West Africa.” This wording did not make subsequent amendments to the Act automatically applicable to South West Africa.

Transfer of administration to SWA: Section 4 of the Credit Agreements Proclamation (AG 17/1981) made certain amendments to the Act which had the effect of transferring the administration of the Act to SWA. This satisfies the definition of a transfer proclamation in section 1 of the General Proclamation (“a proclamation by the Administrator-General by which the administration of the affairs of the territory in relation to any matter is transferred from a Minister of the Republic to the Administrator-General”). Furthermore, as noted above, the terms of the application of the Act to SWA do not make subsequent amendments to the Act automatically applicable to SWA. There were two amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Credit Agreements Amendment Act 9 of 1985 (RSA GG 9642) and the Credit Agreements Amendment Act 53 of 1987 (RSA GG 10920) – neither of which was made expressly applicable to SWA.

Amendments: The Credit Agreements Proclamation (AG 17/1981) (OG 4472) amends section 1 and section 30 of the Act.

Act 3/2016 (GG 6043) amends sections 1, 2 and 23.

Application of law: AG GN 67/1981 (OG 4473), which is replaced by GN 141/2016 (GG 6052), affects the application of the Act.
Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched.

Regulations are contained in AG GN 68/1981 (OG 4473), as amended by GN 118/1984 (OG 4955), AG GN 47/1985 (OG 5035), GN 1/1986 (OG 5158), GN 177/1992 (GG 536), GN 142/2016 (GG 6052) and GN 97/2017 (GG 6297).

Cases: Courtney-Clarke v Bassingthwaighte 1990 NR 89 (HC).

GOD SAVE THE KING.

Given under my hand at Windhoek this 18th day of November, 1920.

GIJS. R. HOFMEYR Administrator

Most of the laws contained in the list in this Proclamation have since been repealed.

- The SA Railways and Harbours Regulation, Control and Management Act 22 of 1916 was repealed in South Africa by the SA Railways and Harbours Control and Management (Consolidation) Act 70 of 1957 (SA GG 5908).

- The Railways and Harbours Regulation Control and Management Act Amendment Act 32 of 1920 was repealed by the SA Railways and Harbours Control and Management (Consolidation) Act 70 of 1957 (SA GG 5908).

- The Railway Board Act 17 of 1916 was repealed by the RSA Railway Board Act 73 of 1962.

- The Railways and Harbours. Strike and Service Act Amendment Act 34 of 1920 was repealed by the RSA Railways and Harbours Pensions Act 35 of 1971 (RSA GG 3104), which was applicable to SWA and is apparently still in force in Namibia.
One exception is the Crown Liabilities Act 1 of 1910, which has not been repealed. According to Mwandingi v Minister of Defence 1990 NR 363 (HC) at 377C-D (approved of on appeal in Minister of Defence v Mwandingi 1993 NR 63 (SC) at 77C-F),

“the Crown Liabilities Act 1 of 1910 was extended by the Railway Management Proclamation 20 of 1920 to the territory [this is an error; the correct citation for this Proclamation is Proclamation 70 of 1920]. It is true that it was so extended for purposes of that proclamation, but the act applied in its entirety and it seems to me, once it was extended, it was accepted by our courts as also binding on all other, at that stage, departments (see Hwedhanga v Cabinet for the Territory of South West Africa 1988 (2) SA 746 (SWA); Binga v Cabinet for South West Africa & Others 1988 (3) SA 155 (A)).”

The Crown Liabilities Act 1 of 2010 is accordingly listed in the more general category of LAW.

There are three other laws in the list contained in the Railway Management Proclamation 70 of 1920 (OG 46) for which no repeals have been located:

- Railways and Harbours Service Act 28 of 1912
- Railways and Harbours Service Act Amendment and Further Provision Act 7 of 1917
- Railways and Harbours Service Act Amendment and Further Provision Act 33 of 1917.

These three laws may still be technically in force, but it is not clear if they have any ongoing effect.

According to research by the late Klaus Dierks:

“The legal basis for the operation of the Namibian railways under South African control was the [South-West Africa Railways and Harbours] Act No. 20 of 1922 which provided that the railway and harbours in the then territory of ‘South-West Africa’ as they existed on the 10th of January 1920, should as from that date be transferred to and vested in the Governor-General of the (South African) Union and should be controlled, managed and worked by the Railway Administration of the Union as part of the South African railway system…

Under the pressure of the League of Nations the South African Government was obliged to amend the ‘South West Africa Railways and Harbours Act, 1922’ by Act No. 9 of 1930 where it was stipulated that Act 22 should be carried only ‘subject to the Mandate issued by the Council of the League of Nations in pursuance of Article 22 of the Treaty of Versailles’. This Amendment Act No. 9 of 1930 to Act 20 of 1922 is of great importance, although subsequently it was ignored by the South African authorities…

The former Interim’s Government of Namibia has transformed the Namibian railways and adjacent transport means into a state-owned corporation ‘National Transport Corporation’ which came into being on 1 July 1988. The name of the corporation was changed to ‘TransNamib Limited (TNL)’ with effect from 1 July 1989.”

The SA Rating of Railway Property Act 25 of 1959 was applicable to SWA, but was repealed by the Municipal Amendment Act 18 of 1985 (OG 5111).

The RSA Railways and Harbours Finances and Accounts Act 48 of 1977 was applicable to SWA, but was repealed in South Africa by the South African Transport Services Finances and Accounts Act 17 of 1983 (RSA GG 8599), which was expressly applicable to SWA (see section 16) but was repealed by the National Transport Corporation Act 21 of 1987 (OG 5439).

Railways fell under the National Transport Corporation Act 21 of 1987 (OG 5439) at independence, which was replaced after independence by the National Transport Services Holding Company Act 28 of 1998 (GG 1961). This Act, which provides for the incorporation of a holding company to undertake transport services, is listed in Namlex under TRANSPORTATION.

Note
The Liquor Act 6 of 1998 (GG 1843) states that it repeals Chapter V of the Railways and Harbours Control and Management Consolidation Act 70 of 1957 (SA GG 5908). However, research by the authors of this index indicates that this Act was not actually in force in Namibia. Act 70 of 1957 was repealed in South Africa by the South African Transport Services Act 65 of 1981 (RSA GG 7786), which was made expressly applicable to SWA (see section 78). (Act 65 of 1981 was subsequently repealed in respect of South West Africa by the National Transport Corporation Act 21 of 1987 (OG 5439).) Thus, it is our theory that even if the Railways and Harbours Control and Management Consolidation Act 70 of 1957 had already been transferred to SWA in terms of a Transfer Proclamation, the repealing Act would have repealed it in respect of SWA because it was explicitly made applicable to SWA.

Summary: This Act (GG 469) provides for the establishment of regional councils in respect of regions determined in accordance with Article 103 of the Constitution and sets forth the rights, powers, duties and functions of such councils. It also provides for the election of National Council members by regional councils.

The Act was brought into force on 31 August 1992 by GN 117/1992 (GG 472), except for section 45(1) which came into force on the date for regional elections fixed in terms of Article 137(6) of the Constitution. This date was set as 30 November-3 December 1992 in Proc. 39/1992 (GG 502).

Amendments: Act 17/1997 (GG 1764) amends sections 5 and 21 and inserts section 18A (erroneously numbered as “(19A)”).

Act 30/2000 (GG 2461), which was brought into force on 5 March 2001 by GN 35/2001 (GG 2492), amends sections 1, 17, 18A (also correcting its erroneous numbering), 20, 28, and 32 and inserts sections 24A, 24B, 24C, 44A and 44B.

Act 12/2002 (GG 2870), which was brought into force on 15 February 2003 by GN 18/2003 (GG 2915), amends sections 1 and 24, substitutes section 23, and repeals section 24A, 24B, and 24C.

Act 12/2010 (GG 4543) amends sections 7 and 8 to reduce the term of office of regional councillors from six years to five years.

Act 16/2010 (GG 4618) amends sections 1, 11, 18 and 21 to delineate the functions of chairpersons of regional councils and regional governors.

Act 7/2017 (GG 6422) amends sections 1, 18, 23, 44 and 44A. Amongst other things, these amendments provide that a member of a Regional Council who is a member of the Council’s management committee is not eligible for election to the National Council, and that the appointment of the chief regional officer of a Regional Council is subject to the approval of the Minister.

Schedule 1 of the Act indicates the regions for which regional councils have been established. Schedule 2 indicates the number of council members for each of these regions. These Schedules are amended by Proc. 25/2013 (GG 5261) “so as to bring those Schedules in line with the changes effected by this Proclamation and previous Proclamations issued under section 5(3)”. Proc. 25/2013 is amended by Proc. 34/2015 (GG 5853) to substitute “//Kharas” for “!Karas”.

Note that there are two Proclamations numbered as Proclamation 34 of 2015, in GG 5853 and GG 5869.

Regulations: Commercialisation Regulations are contained in GN 41/2001 (GG 2492). Joint Business Venture Regulations are contained in GN 42/2001 (GG 2492). Tender Board Regulations are contained in GN 43/2001 (GG 2492).

Rules: A Code of Conduct for members of Regional Councils is contained in GN
Standing rules in connection with meetings of Regional Councils and committees established by Regional Councils, are contained in GN 175/2004 (GG 3255).

Fees: Remuneration, allowances and benefits for members of Regional Councils are contained in Proc. 35/2008 (GG 4129).

Appointments: The First Delimitation Commission was appointed before this Act was passed in Proc. 12/1990 (GG 69), in terms of the Constitution. Delimitation Commissions are appointed in terms of section 5 of the Act by Proc. 9/1998 (GG 1855) and Proc. 6/2002 (GG 2855).

Elections of members of the National Council: No gazette setting the date for the 1992 elections of members of the National Council has been located. The date of election of members of the National Council in 1998 was fixed by the President as 8 December 1998 by GN 291/1998 (GG 2005). The date of election of members of the National Council in 2004 was fixed as 7 December 2004 by GN 255/2004 (GG 3334). No gazette setting the date for the 2010 election of members of the National Council has been located.

Designation and boundaries of regions: Prior to the enactment of this law, the boundaries of regions were established in the Boundaries of Regions and Local Authorities Proclamation 6 of 1992 (GG 368).

The boundaries of many regions are defined with reference to land boundaries established by various pre-independence government notices, proclamations and AG proclamations. Some of the pre-independence government notices and proclamations were subsequently amended. However, Proclamation 6 of 1992 does not appear to adopt the amendments; it refers to boundaries established by pre-independence government notices and proclamations, but does not say “as amended”. Furthermore, some of the boundaries it adopts come from proclamations that it identifies as being repealed. This further supports the interpretation that Proclamation 6 of 1992 adopts the original boundaries described in the referenced government notices and proclamations, and not the boundaries as they were subsequently amended. Therefore, only post-independence changes which clearly affected regional boundaries in Namibia are recorded here.

Proc. 20/1992 (GG 436) amends the First Schedule of the Proclamation to correct the spelling of the Otjozondjupa Region.

Section 45(2) of Act 22/1992 (GG 469) amends the First Schedule of the Proclamation to re-name the Liambezi Region as Caprivi Region.

Proc. 15/1998 (GG 1940) amends the First Schedule to Proclamation 6 of 1992 to alter the boundaries of six regions (Kunene, Omusati, Oshana, Oshikoto, Okavango and Caprivi). It also renames the Okavango Region as the Kavango Region.

Proc. 7/2003 (GG 2942) amends the First Schedule to Proclamation 6 of 1992 to alter the boundaries of two regions (Omaheke and Khomas).

Proc. 25/2013 (GG 5261) amends the First Schedule to Proclamation 6 of 1992 to rename “Caprivi Region” as “Zambezi Region”, and “Karas Region” as “!Karas Region” and to divide “Kavango Region” into “Kavango East Region” and “Kavango West Region”.

174/2004 (GG 3255).
The boundaries of the constituencies within the regions are set forth in Proc. 25/1992 (GG 473), which is amended by Proc. 42/1992 (GG 506) (substitutes description of boundaries of Rehoboth West Urban Constituency), Proc. 16/1998 (GG 1940) (re-divides constituencies in all regions other than Karas), Proc. 35/1999 (GG 2233) (affecting two constituencies in the Oshikoto Region), Proc. 7/2003 (GG 2942) (which affects constituencies in a number of regions), Proc. 11/2011 (GG 4767) (renaming “Soweto Constituency” in the Khomas Region as “John Pandeni Constituency”) and Proc. 25/2013 (GG 5261) (which substitutes names and/or boundaries of many constituencies pursuant to the report of the Fourth Delimitation Commission). As in the case of the regions, the boundaries of some constituencies are defined with reference to land boundaries established by various pre-independence government notices, proclamations and AG proclamations – but apparently without the intention to incorporate amendments to these documents which are not referenced. In fact, some of the constituency descriptions make reference to certain Government Notices as they stood before particular amendments.

Note: Proc. 25/2013 re-named several constituencies, amongst them the “Luderitz Constituency” in !Karas Region which was re-named “!Nami≠Nüs Constituency”. This was widely reported in the press as having changed the name of the local authority of Lüderitz to !Nami≠Nüs, but in fact the Proclamation was issued in terms of section 5(3) of the Regional Councils Act and does not purport to affect the names of any local authorities.

Designations of settlement areas and withdrawals of such designations have not been recorded here.

Commentary:

Summary: This Act (GG 470) provides for the determination of local authorities and the establishment of local authority councils. It also sets forth the powers, duties and functions of such councils.

It repeals the Municipal Ordinance 13 of 1963, the Village Management Boards Ordinance 14 of 1963 and the Peri-Urban Development Board Ordinance 19 of 1970. It also repeals a number of other laws, including the Native Administration Proclamation 11 of 1922, the Local Loans Ordinance 7 of 1927, the Natives (Urban Areas) Proclamation 56 of 1951, the Housing Schemes Loans Ordinance 24 of 1952,

This Act was brought into force on 31 August 1992 by GN 118/1992 (GG 472), with the exception of section 94(5), which is deemed to have come into force retroactively on 1 April 2018 pursuant to section 96(1A) of the Act as inserted by Act 3/2018 (GG 6578).

Act 3/1997 (GG 1584) substitutes sections 5 and 6 to provide that the second local government elections shall be held on a party list system and defer the delimitation of local authorities into wards until after the second elections. These substitutions also increase the maximum size of municipal councils from 12 to 15, and strengthen the affirmative action provisions for women in respect of the second local elections.

Act 14/1997 (GG 1743) amends section 8 of the Act in connection with the postponement of Namibia’s second local authority elections.

Act 24/2000 (GG 2455), which was brought into force on 15 February 2001 by GN 29/2001 (GG 2486), amends the Act substantially.

Act 17/2002 (GG 2887), which was brought into force on 15 February 2003 by GN 19/2003 (GG 2915), amends the Act substantially. Amongst other things, it eliminates provisions for a ward system and extends the period for the third general elections for members of local authority councils.

The Electoral Amendment Act 7 of 2003 (GG 3013), which was brought into force on 8 July 2003 by GN 146/2003 (GG 3014), substitutes the definition of ‘party list’ in section 1 of the Act.

Act 27/2003 (GG 3126) substitutes the date for elections for members of local authority councils in section 8 of the Act.

Act 14/2004 (GG 3330), which was brought into force on 27 November 2004 by GN 254/2004 (GG 3331), amends sections 1 and 30 and inserts section 94C.

The Electoral Amendment Act 4 of 2006 (GG 3759) amends section 1 of the Act.

Act 1/2009 (GG 4258) amends section 8 on the dates for elections of local authority councils.

The Water Resources Management Act 11 of 2013 (GG 5367), which has not yet been brought into force, amends section 30(1).

Act 3/2018 (GG 6578) amends the Act substantially.

Note that there are two versions of GG 6578.

The following Proclamations and Government Notices – which establish new local authorities, change the designations of local authorities or alter the size of local authority councils – amend or substitute the Schedules to the Act accordingly:

Schedule 1 is amended by Proc. 16/1994 (GG 873) and Proc. 18/1994 (GG 893), substituted by Proc. 13/1997 (GG 1639) and amended by Proc. 22 of Regulations: Regulations made under repealed laws survive pursuant to section 95(5) of this Act, which states that anything done under a provision of a law repealed by the Act which could have been done under a corresponding provision of this Act survives. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Designation and boundaries of local authorities: Prior to the enactment of this law, the boundaries of local authorities were established in the Boundaries of Regions and Local Authorities Proclamation 6 of 1992 (GG 368), as amended by Proc. 20/1992 (GG 436) and Act 22/1992 (GG 469). The local authorities covered were Aranos, Ariamsvlei, Aris, Aroab, Aus, Bethanie, Gobabis, Gochas, Groothoofd, Grünau, Hentiesbaai, Kalkveld, Kalkrand, Kamanjab, Kappsfarm, Karasburg, Karibib, Keetmanshoop, Koes, Leonardville, Lüderitz, Maltahöhe, Mariental, Noordoewer, Okahandja, Okakarara, Omaruru, Omitara, Ondangwa, Ongwediva, Opuwo, Oshakati, Otavi, Otjiwarongo, Outjo, Rehoboth, Stampriet, Summerdown, Swakopmund, Tsumeb, Usakos, Warmbad, Windhoek, Witvlei and Wlotzkasbaken. The boundaries of many local authorities were defined with reference to land boundaries established by various pre-independence government notices, proclamations and AG proclamations. Some of the pre-independence government notices and proclamations were subsequently amended. However, Proclamation 6 of 1992 does not appear to adopt the amendments; it refers to boundaries established by pre-independence government notices and proclamations, but does not say “as amended”. In fact, some of the local authority descriptions make reference to certain Government Notices as they stood before particular amendments. Furthermore, some of the boundaries referenced in Proclamation 6 of 1992 come from proclamations that it identifies as repealed. This further supports the interpretation that Proclamation 6 of 1992 adopts the original boundaries described in the referenced government notices and proclamations, and not the boundaries as they were subsequently amended. Therefore, only post-independence changes which clearly affected local authority boundaries in Namibia are recorded here.

The boundaries of Windhoek are extended by Proc. 26/1992 (GG 479) (the incorporation of Brakwater into the municipality under the previous Municipal Ordinance 13 of 1963) and altered further by GN 184/2011 (GG 4801). Four additional villages (Berseba, Gibeon, Tses and Uis) are proclaimed by Proc. 27/1992 (GG 479), which accordingly substitutes Schedule 3 of the Act.

The boundaries of Tsumeb are altered by Proc. 17/1993 (GG 668), GN 39/2010 (GG 4440) and GN 115/2012 (GG 4941).

Note that GN 39/2010 is erroneously labelled as GN 49 on the list of contents in the relevant Gazette.

Five villages are deproclaimed in Proc. 22/1993 (GG 718) (Aris, Kappsfarm, Omitara, Summerdown and Wlotzkasbaken), which accordingly substitutes Schedule 3 of the Act.

The history of the Walvis Bay municipal area is set forth in Walvis Bay Municipality & Another v Occupiers of the Caravan Sites at Long Beach Caravan Park, Walvis Bay 2007 (2) NR 643 (SC) at 647I-648C.

Eenhana and Outapi are proclaimed as towns in Proc. 14/1997 (GG 1673), which accordingly substitutes Schedule 2 of the Act. (Proc. 18/1997 (GG 1698), Proc. 26/1997 (GG 1738) and Proc. 31/1997 (GG 1749) amend the election date set for these towns in Proc. 14/1997.)

Helao Nafidi is proclaimed as a town in GN 194/2003 (GG 3054), which accordingly substitutes Schedule 2 of the Act. Its boundaries are amended by GN 11/2005 (GG 3379).

Otjinene is proclaimed as a village in GN 6/2011 (GG 4649), which accordingly substitutes Schedule 3 of the Act.

Note that GN 6/2011 contains a confusing error of wording. It does not “substitute section 3(4)(c) of the Local Authorities Act, 1992, for Schedule 3 of that Act” as it states; instead, pursuant to section 3(4)(c) of the Act, it substitutes Schedule 3 of the

The designations of several local authorities (Karibib, Karasburg, Usakos, Ruacana, Aranos, Oshikuku, Otavi) are altered in GN 193/2010 (GG 4556), which designates all of these local authorities as towns and amends Schedules 1-3 of the Act accordingly.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 3415) establishes the National Road Safety Council and includes provisions intended to promote road safety. It repeals the South African Road Safety Council Act 1 of 1960.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Republic” to include “any territory in respect of which Parliament is competent to legislate”. Section 29 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall also apply in every territory in respect of which Parliament is competent to legislate.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The relevant transfer proclamation is the Executive Powers (Transport) Transfer Proclamation (AG 14/1978), dated 15 March 1978. However, this Act is excluded from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation by section 3(1)(f), meaning that the administration of the Act was not transferred to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- General Law Amendment Act 57 of 1975 (RSA GG 4760)

See GN 52/2001 (GG 2503).

Applicability to SWA: Section 46 states “The provisions of this Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the Territory, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” Section 1 defines “Administration”, “local authority”, “province”, “Republic” and “Territory” accordingly.
Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Transport) Transfer Proclamation (AG 14/1978), dated 15 March 1978.

Section 3(1)(i) of the transfer proclamation excluded the reference to the “Republic” in the Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that “Republic” retained the meaning given to it in the definition section of the Act (South Africa and SWA).

None of the amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer were made expressly applicable to SWA.

(2) General Notice 68/2010 (GG 4438) states that it amends GN 4220 of 9 March 2009. This is an error. This was probably intended to be a reference to GN 29/2009, which is published in GG 4438 of 9 March 2009. Road Traffic and Transport Act 22 of 1999.

Summary: This Act (GG 2251) establishes a Transportation Commission of Namibia and regulates traffic on public roads, the licensing of drivers, the registration and licensing of vehicles and cross-border road transportation.

The Act came into force on 6 April 2001, with the following exceptions:

- Section 23 did not come into effect at all.
- Section 112 did not come into effect insofar as it relates to the repeal of the Road Transportation Act 74 of 1977 and its amendments, as these laws relate to passenger transport. See GN 52/2001 (GG 2503).

The Act repeals the Road Traffic Ordinance 30 of 1967, the Road Transportation Act 74 of 1977 and the Cross-Border Road Transportation Act 18 of 1996 (GG 1384).

However, although the Road Traffic Ordinance 30 of 1967 (OG 2080) was repealed by this Act, section 113(1)(a) of this Act, read together with Schedule 2, states that sections 78, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 95, 96, 97(1) and 98 of Ordinance 30 of 1967 remain in force (with some amendments made by the Schedule) insofar as they relate to public driving permits “until the date fixed by the Minister under section 40(2) or such later date as may be determined by the Minister by notice in the Gazette”. According to section 40(2):

“With effect from a date to be fixed by the Minister by notice in the Gazette, but not later than the date contemplated in subsection (5), any holder of a driving licence referred to in subsection (1) [a licence authorising the driving of a motor vehicle which was issued under the repealed Ordinance] may apply to a driving testing centre for the replacement of such licence by a driving licence issued under this Act.”
Section 40(5) refers to the date determined by the Minister by notice in the Gazette as to when a driving licence issued under a previous law ceases to be valid if not replaced in accordance with subsection (2). GN 102/2002 (GG 2759) set 1 July 2002 as the date in terms of section 40(2) with effect from which any person who is the holder of a driving licence issued in Namibia in terms of the Road Traffic Ordinance 30 of 1967, and contained in an identity document issued by the South African Government, may apply for the replacement of such licence by a driving licence issued under Act 22 of 1999. GN 162/2002 (GG 2815) set additional dates for the exchange of various driving licences issued in terms of the Road Traffic Ordinance 30 of 1967, with those dates ranging from 2 September 2002 to 1 July 2005. GN 43/2005 (GG 3419) set 31 August 2005 as the relevant date in respect of section 40(5) of the Act, when driving licences not replaced in accordance with section 40(2) cease to be valid. Thus, the provisions of Ordinance 30 of 1967 which temporarily remained in force are now extinguished.

The Act curiously repeals section 59 of the National Transport Corporation Act 21 of 1987 (OG 5439) insofar as it relates to Act 44 of 1977 in the Second Schedule. However, Act 21 of 1987 was previously repealed in its entirety by the National Transport Services Holding Company Act 28 of 1998 (GG 1961) with effect from 1 April 1999.

Savings: In terms of section 113(3), any “proclamation, regulation, notice, order, prohibition, authority, appointment, permission, information or document” made under any one of the pieces of legislation repealed by this Act remains in force insofar as it is not inconsistent with this Act.

Regulations and notices made under repealed laws: Pre-independence regulations and notices have not been comprehensively researched. Regulations and notices made under the repealed laws include the following:

Road Traffic Ordinance 30 of 1967

Proposed regulations on the transportation of dangerous goods by road are published for comment in General Notice 17/1998 (GG 1781).

Notices: Registration marks for motor vehicles are assigned in GN 57/1990 (GG 89), as amended by GN 229/1998 (GG 1951).

RegISTRATIONemarks for government vehicles are assigned in GN 76/2018 (GG 6573), which repealed GN 322/2017 (GG 6490), which in turn repealed GN 23/2001 (GG 2481).

The Namibia Traffic Information System contemplated in section 55A(1) of the Ordinance is made applicable to the Windhoek Registering Authority Area by GN 16/1998 (GG 1796).

The applicability of NaTIS to motor vehicles owned by the state is addressed in GN 145/2000, GN 147/2000 and GN 148/2000 (all contained in GG 2350).

Fees: The payment of fees for motor vehicles of government, regional councils and local authorities is addressed in GN 146/2000 (GG 2350).

Road Transportation Act 74 of 1977

GN 90/1992 (GG 448) withdraws AG GN 101/1989 (OG 5851), which prohibited consideration of permits for transportation of certain goods between certain places.

Cross-Border Road Transportation Act 18 of 1996 (GG 1384)

Notices: The Southern African Customs Union Memorandum of Understanding on Road Transportation Regulations, 1998 is published in GN 33/1998 (GG 1803), and amended by GN 43/1998 (GG 1810).

Regulations in terms of the current Act: Proposed road traffic and transport regulations are published for comment in GN 268/2000 (GG 2441). Proposed amendments to the 2001 regulations are published in GN 135/2005 (GG 3520).

Extensive regulations are contained in GN 53/2001 (GG 2503). These regulations came into force on 6 April 2001, with the following exceptions:

- Chapter 3, Parts 3 and 5
- Chapter 4
- Chapter 5, Parts 1 and 2
- Chapter 6, Parts 2 and 4
- Regulation 235.
Part 1 of Chapter 4 and Part 1 of Chapter 5 was brought into force on 1 November 2001 by GN 222/2001 (GG 2641).

Part 2 of Chapter 4 was brought into force on 2 September 2002 by GN 161/2002 (GG 2815).

Part 2 of Chapter 5 was brought into force on 17 November 2007 by GN 172/2007 (GG 3907).

GN 86/2017 (GG 6285) states that it is bringing Part 3 of Chapter 10 into force on 13 April 2017. However, this must have been intended to refer to Part 3 of Chapter 3, which is amended by the same Government Notice. Chapter 10 was not divided into parts and was already in force.

The remainder of the regulations exempted from GN 53/2001 (Part 5 of Chapter 3, Parts 2 and 4 of Chapter 6 and regulation 235) do not appear to have been brought into force.

The regulations are amended by:
    GN 97/2001 (GG 2538)
    GN 103/2002 (GG 2759)
    GN 163/2002 (GG 2815)
    GN 205/2004 (GG 3287)
    GN 206/2004 (GG 3287)

These amendments were withdrawn by GN 45/2005 (GG 3422) without ever coming into force.
    GN 32/2005 (GG 3402)
    GN 45/2005 (GG 3422)
    GN 183/2005 (GG 3560)

    GN 81/2010 (GG 4473)
    GN 156/2015 (GG 5792)

GN 156/2015 states that the regulations were amended by GN 222/2001 (GG 2641) and GN 161/2002 (GG 2815). This is not correct; these two notices deal only with the commencement of various portions of the regulations.

GN 98/2016 (GG 6016)
    GN 98/2016 states that the regulations were amended by GN 222/2001 (GG 2641) and by GN 161/2002 (GG 2815). This is not correct; these two notices deal only with the commencement of various portions of the regulations.

GN 86/2017 (GG 6285)
    GN 86/2017 states that the regulations were amended by GN 222/2001 (GG 2641) and by GN 161/2002 (GG 2815). This is not correct; these two notices deal only with the commencement of various portions of the regulations.

GN 130/2018 (GG 6637)
    GN 130/2018 states that the regulations were amended by GN 222/2001 (GG 2641) and by GN 161/2002 (GG 2815). This is not correct; these two notices deal only with the commencement of various portions of the regulations. GN 130/2018 also states that the regulations were amended by GN 322/2017 (GG 6490). This is not correct; GN 322/2017 is a notice issued in terms of regulation 34(3).
Section 113(1)(b) of the Act refers to the Road Traffic Ordinance 30 of 1967 (OG 2080) and states that “the Minister may, under the power conferred by section 91 to make regulations, incorporate in any regulation so made any of the repealed provisions of that Ordinance which relate to the registration and licensing of motor vehicles, by mere reference to the provisions concerned, subject to such amendments or modifications as may be provided for in such regulation, and the provisions so incorporated shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be regulations made thereunder by virtue of the provisions of section 20”. To date, provisions from Ordinance 30 of 1967 seems to be re-iterated as needed rather than incorporated by mere reference (see, for example, GG 2503). However, should any of the provisions of Ordinance 30 of 1967 be incorporated by mere reference in future, the amendments to that Ordinance prior to its repeal may be of relevance:

GN 162/2002 (GG 2815) set additional dates for the exchange of various driving licences issued in terms of the Road Traffic Ordinance 30 of 1967, with those dates ranging from 2 September 2002 to 1 July 2005. GN 43/2005 (GG 3419) sets 31 August 2005 as the relevant date in respect of section 40(5) of the Act, when driving licences not replaced in accordance with section 40(2) cease to be valid.

GN 100/2003 was withdrawn and replaced by GN 280/2015 (GG 5892).

An agreement between the Minister of Works, Transport and Communication and the Roads Authority on functions delegated by the Ministry to the Roads Authority is published in GN 163/2005 (GG 3546).

An aircraft investigation vehicle is determined to be an emergency service vehicle in terms of section 1 of the Act in GN 195/2009 (GG 4350).

The powers of the Namibian Police to perform certain functions in terms of the Act (such as testing for learners’ permits, driving licences, and vehicle roadworthiness) have been withdrawn in respect of specific locations from time to time, but these notices are not recorded here. Also not recorded are dates for registration at driving and vehicle testing centres in specific locations; appointments or withdrawals of the Roads Authority, various local authorities or other agencies to act as registering authorities or to operate driving testing centres and vehicle testing centres in specific locations.

Merchant Shipping Act 57 of 1951, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act controls merchant shipping.

Applicability to SWA: Section 3(1) states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply to the Territory of South West Africa and the port and settlement of Walvis Bay, and the said territory shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to form part of the Republic.” The Act expressly states that it does not affect the competency of the Legislative Assembly of South West Africa to make ordinances dealing with sealing, sea fisheries, and the licensing of sealing and fishing vessels.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The relevant Transfer Proclamation is the Executive Powers (Transport) Transfer Proclamation (AG 14/1978), dated 15 March 1978. However, section 3(1)(c) of the transfer proclamation excluded this Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that the administration of the Act was not transferred to SWA.

Amendments: Act 7/1991 (GG 217) amends the Act substantially to make it consistent with an independent Namibia (affecting sections 2, 3, 10, 11, 64, 135, 152, 161, 180, 267, 292, 298, 355, 356, 356bis and substituting certain words, and repealing sections 14 and 251).

The Namibian Ports Authority Act 2 of 1994 (GG 810) amends the definition of “port” in section 2.

Construction and Equipment Regulations for fishing vessels are contained in GN 61/2002 (GG 2729), which repeals the regulations contained in RSA GN 79 of 19 January 1968 insofar as they apply to fishing vessels.

Manning of Ships Regulations are contained in GN 240/2003 (GG 3097).

Certificates of Qualifications Regulations are contained in GN 41/2004 (GG 3164), as amended by GN 185/2007 (GG 3919).

Merchant Shipping Fees Regulations are contained in GN 39/2009 (GG 4227), which repeal GN 80/1998 (GG 1837). (Note that GN 80/1998 repealed a number of previous regulations and amended the Record Book Regulations contained in RSA GN R.2080 of 14 October 1977.)
Merchant Shipping (Radio Installations) Regulations are contained in GN 105/2010 (GG 4486).

Notices: Ports of registry for the registration of ships are identified in GN 77/1990 (GG 112) and GN 24/1994 (GG 801).

The measurement of tonnage is addressed in GN 22/1991 (GG 162) and GN 109/1991 (GG 276).

Cases: Bourgwellts Ltd (Owners of MFV Ofelia) v Shepalov & Others 1999 NR 410 (HC) (sections 135 and 172).

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 7408) regulates marine traffic comprehensively.

Applicability to SWA: RSA Proclamation 93 of 1985 (RSA GG 9774), issued in terms of the South-West Africa Constitution Act 39 of 1968, makes the Act “and all amendments thereof” applicable to SWA from 7 June 1985. The only amendment to the Act in South Africa prior to Namibian independence was the Marine Traffic Amendment Act 5 of 1983 (RSA GG 8571), which was applicable to SWA by virtue of RSA Proc. 93 of 1985.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendment was applicable to SWA –

Namibian Ports Authority Act 2 of 1994.

The Act – with the exception of paragraphs 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 of Schedule 2 – came into force on 1 March 1994. The excepted provisions – all of which deal with amendments to the National Transport Corporation Act 21 of 1987 (GG 5439) (which was repealed by the National Transport Services Holding Company Act 28 of 1998 (GG 1961) with effect from 1 April 1999) – was brought into force on 1 April 1995 by GN 58/1995 (GG 1044).

Amendments: The National Transport Services Holding Company Act 28 of 1998 (GG 1961), brought into force in relevant part on 1 April 1999 (GN 51/1999, GG 2075), amends Schedule 2.

These sections of the amending Act came into force on 2 May 2002. (See GN 221/2001 (GG 2641) and GN 66/2002 (GG 2734).)

The State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 (GG 3698), which was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733) and which has since been re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006, amends section 4, 6, 7 and 9 and substitutes section 16.

Regulations: Section 30 includes a savings clause, but pre-independence regulations have not been researched.

Regulations are contained in GN 117/2001 (GG 2549), which repeals RSA GN R.562 of 26 March 1982 (as amended).

Notices: The date determined under section 11(1)(b) for transfer of management and control of the Lüderitz port and the Diaz Point lighthouse to the Namibian Ports Authority is 1 April 1995 (GN 58/1995, GG 1044). See also GN 131/1998 (GG 1885) on this topic.

Tariffs: Tariffs prescribed by the Namibian Ports Authority from time to time have not been recorded here.

Appointments: Appointments to the Board of Directors are announced in GN 8/2005 (GG 3374), GN 78/2012 (GG 4901) and GN 81/2012 (GG 4901).

SOCIAL SECURITY

Summary: This Act (GG 992) establishes a Social Security Commission as well as the following funds: a Maternity Leave, Sick Leave and Death Benefit Fund; a National Medical Benefit Fund; a National Pension Fund; and a Development Fund. The Act – with the exception of Parts VI (National Medical Benefit Fund) and VII (National Pension Fund) – was brought into force on 15 January 1995 by GN 7/1995 (GG 1006).

Amendments: The State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 (GG 3698), which was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733) and which has since been re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006, amends section 4, 5 and 12.

The State-owned Enterprises Governance Act incorrectly refers to this Act as the “Social Security Commission Act” in Schedule 2.

The Labour Act 11 of 2007 (GG 3971), brought into force in relevant part on 1 November 2008 (GN 260/2008, GG 4151), amends the definition of “employee” in section 1.

Regulations: Regulations are contained in GN 198/1995 (GN 1181), as amended by

GN 31/1996 (GG 1258) (amends Reg 2)
GN 80/1996 (GG 1291) (amends Reg 2)
GN 244/1997 (GG 1741) (amends Regs 9-10 and substitutes Form 7)
GN 235/1998 (GG 1952) (substitutes Form 7 with a Social Security Card confirming registration as an employee)
GN 101/2001 (GG 2544) (amends Reg 11 to increase the death benefit)
GN 227/2003 (GG 3092) (amends Reg 11 to increase the death benefit)
GN 53/2008 (GG 4002) (amends definition of “remuneration” and Regs 2, 3, 5; amends Reg 9 to make maternity benefits 100 per cent of remuneration up to a specified ceiling, and adjusts the ceiling; amends Reg 10 to adjust the percentage of sick leave benefits; and amends Reg 11 to increase the death benefit)
GN 49/2009 (GG 4236) (substitutes “basic wage” for “remuneration”; amends Reg 9 to increase the ceiling for maternity benefits; amends Reg 10 to raise sick leave benefits; and amends Reg 11 to increase the death benefit)
GN 147/2010 (GG 4530) (amends Reg 9 to increase the ceiling for maternity benefits; amends Reg 10 to raise the ceiling for sick leave benefits; and amends Reg 11 to increase the death benefit)

GN 147/2010 states that the regulations were previously amended by Government Notice 101 of 11 May 2001, but this is an error; there is no such Government Notice. This Government Notice also lists Government Notice 101 of 1 June 2001, which is correct.

GN 69/2011 (GG 4725) (amends Reg 9 to raise the ceiling for maternity leave benefits)

GN 129/2011 (GG 4767) (substitutes Reg 3(4), authorising fee as fixed by Commission for replacement social security card or registration certificate)

GN 129/2011 states that the regulations were previously amended by Government Notice 101 of 11 May 2001; the correct date for this Government Notice is 1 June 2001. GN 129/2011 lists GN 5 of 2
January 2009 as a previous amendment to these regulations, but this is an error as GN 5/2009 is actually an announcement of members of the Social Security Commission.

GN 97/2012 (GG 4919) (amends Reg 9 to raise the ceiling for maternity leave benefits to N$10 500/month; amends Reg 10 to set sick leave benefits at 75% of basic wage up to ceiling of N$7 875/month for first 12 months, and 65% of basic wage up to ceiling of N$6 825/month thereafter; and amends Reg 11 to raise the death benefit to a single payment of N$5 515)

This Government Notice states that the regulations were previously amended by Government Notice 101 of 11 May 2001, but this is an error; there is no such Government Notice. This Government Notice also lists Government Notice 101 of 1 June 2001, which is correct.

GN 301/2012 (GG 5101) (amends definition of “basic wage” in Reg 1)

GN 44/2016 (GG 5967), as corrected by GN 51/2016 (GG 5971) (amends maternity, sick leave and death benefits).

Social Security Development Fund Regulations are contained in GN 215/2010 (GG 4565), as substantially amended by GN 302/2012 (GG 5101).

Notices: Notices regarding unclaimed monies in terms of the maternity leave, sick leave and death benefits fund are not listed here.

Note: The wording of the appointments differs in these different Government Notices. Most of the notices refer to the appointment of members of the Social Security Commission, but two notices have different wordings: GN 167/2016 (GG 6086) (appointed as Commissioners) and GN 39/2018 (GG 6538) (appointed as board members).

Cases: See Engelbrecht & Others v Hennes 2007 (1) NR 236 (LC) (deductions made from commissions in respect of social security payments are an indication of an employment relationship).

SOCIAL WELFARE

Summary: This Act regulates friendly societies, which are associations of persons established to provide relief to children, the aged, the sick, widows and so forth.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Union” to include “the Territory”, which is defined as “the Territory of South West Africa”. “Court” and “Gazette” are defined accordingly. Section 52 states “This Act shall apply also in the Territory.” Although the wording of section 52 did not make amendments to the Act automatically applicable to South West Africa, they are probably applicable by virtue of the definition of “Union”.

Transfer of administration to SWA: This Act was administered by the Minister of Finance. Acts administered by the Minister of Finance in the Department of Inland Revenue were transferred to South West Africa by the Executive Powers (Inland Revenue) Transfer Proclamation, AG 18 of 1978, but this Act fell under the Department of Finance at the time, as indicated by government notices pertaining to the Registrar and Deputy Registrar of Friendly Societies issued during the 1970s. See, for example, Government Notice 1317/1970 (RSA GG 2768) and Government Notice 1640/1977 (RSA GG 5715). There was no transfer proclamation for laws administered by the Minister of Finance in the Department of Finance.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Finance Act 81 of 1957 (SA GG 5907)
- Finance Act 80 of 1959 (SA GG 6255)
- Inspection of Financial Institutions Act 68 of 1962 (RSA GG 264)
- Friendly Societies Amendment Act 60 of 1963 (RSA GG 540)
- Friendly Societies Amendment Act 67 of 1965 (RSA GG 1128)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 65 of 1968 (RSA GG 2107)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 91 of 1972 (RSA GG 3594)
- Medical Schemes Amendment Act 43 of 1975 (RSA GG 4721)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 101 of 1976 (RSA GG 5217)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 103 of 1979 (RSA GG 6568)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 99 of 1980 (RSA GG 7151)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 86 of 1984 (RSA GG 9313)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 51 of 1988 (RSA GG 11313)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 53 of 1989 (RSA GG 11892)
- Financial Institutions Second Amendment Act 54 of 1989 (RSA GG 11893).

The Act was amended in South Africa by the Friendly Societies Amendment Act 44 of 1988 (RSA GG 11273), but Act 44 of 1988 was brought into force only after Namibian independence, on 1 July 1993 by RSA Proc. 54/1993 (RSA GG 14931). Act 25 of 1956 was also amended in South Africa by the Legal Succession to the South African Transport Services Act 9 of 1989 (RSA GG 11743). However, the portions of this Act which amended Act 25 of 1956 came into force only after Namibian independence, on 1 April 1990, in terms of section 37(2) read with section 3(1) of Act 9 of 1989; the date referred to in section 3(1) was set by RSA Government Notice 578/1990 (RSA GG 12364) as being 1 April 1990. These amendments were thus not applicable to South West Africa.

The Short-term Insurance Act 4 of 1998 (GG 1832) repeals section 50 insofar as it relates to short-term insurance.

The Long-term Insurance Act 5 of 1998 (GG 1834) repeals the remainder of section 50.

The Namibia Financial Institutions Supervisory Authority Act 3 of 2001 (GG 2529) amends section 1, substitutes section 4 and repeals section 4A.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 47 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Appointments: A Registrar and Deputy Registrar of Friendly Societies are appointed in General Notice 27/1991 (GG 174).

Social Pensions Ordinance 2 of 1965.

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 2614) consolidates the laws relating to social pensions. It repeals the Old Age Pensions Ordinance 13 of 1942. The remaining portions of the Ordinance appear to be superseded by the National Pensions Act 10 of 1992.

Amendments: The Ordinance is repealed in part by the RSA Aged Persons Amendment Act 14 of 1971 (RSA GG 3062) and the RSA Blind Persons Amendment Act 16 of 1971 (RSA GG 3064).

Regulations: Regulations made in terms of the previous Old Age Pensions Ordinance 13 of 1942 survive pursuant to section 27(2) of this Ordinance. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

---

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 1163) establishes a National Welfare Board of Namibia and provides for the registration and control of certain welfare organisations.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Republic” to include “the territory”, which is defined as “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 43A, which was inserted by Act 13 of 1971 and repealed by Act 9 of 1993, stated “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Social Welfare and Pensions) Transfer Proclamation (AG 11/1977), dated 30 November 1977. None of the amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer were made expressly applicable to SWA.

In South Africa, the portions of the Act relating to the National Welfare Board and to welfare organisations were repealed by the National Welfare Act 100 of 1978 (RSA GG 6094). The portions of the Act relating to social workers were repealed by the Social and Associated Workers Act 110 of 1978 (RSA GG 6102). The remainder of the Act was repealed by the Pension Laws Amendment Act 81 of 1982 (RSA GG 8239). None of the repealing acts were made expressly applicable to SWA.

Section 3(2) of the Executive Powers Transfer (General Provisions) Proclamation, AG 7 of 1977, excluded from transfer the provisions of any transferred law “which provide for or relate to the institution, constitution or control of any juristic person or any board or other body of persons that may exercise powers or perform other functions in or in respect of both the territory and the Republic”. This may have at some stage have excluded from transfer the provisions of this Act relating to the National Welfare Board, as well as possibly some commissions and committees established under this Act.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- General Law Amendment Act 102 of 1967 (RSA GG 1771)
- National Welfare Amendment Act 13 of 1971 (RSA GG 3061)

Act 12/1979 (OG 4028) amends this Act substantially to provide for a National Welfare Board of South West Africa.

The Act is also substantially amended to make it consistent with an independent Namibia by Act 9/1993 (GG 692), which was brought into force on 1 July 1994 by GN 117/1994 (GG 875). This amending act amends sections 1-8, 10, 11, 14, 18, 19, 21, 25, 38, 39, 42; repeals sections 33-37, 40 and 43A; and substitutes certain expressions and the long title.

Act 20/1994 (GG 935) amends section 1 and repeals section 38, which formerly required that only registered welfare workers could be appointed as professional welfare officers in the public service.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 42 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Aged Persons Act 81 of 1967, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 1771) provides for the protection and welfare of certain aged and debilitated persons.

Applicability to SWA: Section 16 of the Pension Laws Amendment Act 79 of 1968 (RSA GG 2119, and also published in OG 2915), without amending the Aged Persons Act 81 of 1967, empowered the State President to make the provisions of the Act “mutatis mutandis applicable in the territory of South-West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel, in respect of natives, as defined in section 25 of the Native Administration Proclamation, 1928 (Proclamation No. 15 of 1928), of the said territory, in so far as those provisions relate to Bantu or Bantu persons”, subject to “such conditions, amendments or exceptions as may be specified in the proclamation”. It also empowered the State President to withdraw or amend any such proclamation. Section 16(4) stated:
“With effect from the date on which any Act referred to in subsection (1) becomes applicable in the said territory in terms of a proclamation issued under that subsection, the corresponding Act which under section 45(1) of the Pension Laws Amendment Act, 1965 (Act No. 102 of 1965), was declared to be applicable in the said territory, shall cease to be applicable therein: Provided that anything done in terms of the relevant corresponding Act and which could be done in terms of the relevant Act referred to in subsection (1) which becomes applicable in the territory on the said date, shall be deemed to have been done in terms of the last-mentioned Act.”

(Please note: The corresponding Act cited in section 45(1) of the Pension Laws Amendment Act 102 of 1965 (RSA GG 1171) was the Old Age Pensions Act 38 of 1962 (RSA GG 231).)

Pursuant to this authority, RSA Proc. R.293/1968 (RSA GG 2182) provided that the provisions of the Act were brought into force on 1 October 1968 “in the Territory of South-West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel, in respect of Natives, as defined in section 25 of the Native Administration Proclamation, 1928 (Proclamation No. 15 of 1928), of the said Territory, in so far as those provisions relate to Bantu”.

The Act was brought into force generally in SWA only when the amendments made by Act 14 of 1971 came into force on 1 January 1972. Section 21A (which was added by Act 14 of 1971) states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall, save in so far as it has already been declared to be applicable in the territory in terms of section 16(1) of the Pension Laws Amendment Act, 1968 (Act No. 79 of 1968), also apply in the territory, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” Section 1 (as inserted by Act 14 of 1971) also defines “Republic” to include “the territory”, which is defined as “the territory of South West Africa”.

The original Act also dealt with old age pensions, but this portion of the Act was repealed by section 21 of the Social Pensions Act 37 of 1973 (RSA GG 3866), which was applicable to SWA.

Transfer of administration to SWA: Section 21 of the Act gives the State President the power to assign the administration of the Act to one or more Ministers and to vary this assignment from time to time.

RSA Proc. No. R.283/1968 (RSA GG 2176) assigned the administration of the Act as follows:

(a) to the Minister of Bantu Administration and Development, in so far as the said provisions refer to Bantu as defined in section 1 of the Aged Persons Act, 1967;
(b) to the Minister of Coloured Affairs, in so far as the said provisions refer to Coloured persons as defined in section 1 of the Aged Persons Act, 1967;
(c) to the Minister of Indian Affairs, in so far as the said provisions refer to Indians as defined in section 1 of the Aged Persons Act, 1967; and
(d) to the Minister of the Interior in so far as the said provisions refer to Chinese as defined in section 1 of the Aged Persons Act, 1967.

RSA Proc. R. 270/1971 (RSA GG 3327) assigned the administration of the Act as follows:

(a) to the Minister of Social Welfare and Pensions, in so far as the said provisions refer to White persons;
(b) to the Minister of Bantu Administration and Development, in so far as the said provisions refer to Bantu;
(c) to the Minister of Coloured Affairs, in so far as the said provisions refer to Coloured persons and Namas;
(d) to the Minister of Rehoboth Affairs, in so far as the said provisions refer to Burghers;
(e) to the Minister of Indian Affairs, in so far as the said provisions refer to Indians; and
(f) to the Minister of the Interior, in so far as the said provisions refer to Chinese.

This 1971 Proclamation was repealed by RSA Proc. 219/1973 (RSA GG 4030).

The Department of “Bantu Administration and Development” must have become the “Department of Co-operation and Development” at some stage – as RSA Proc. No. R.283/1968 was amended by RSA Proc. R.154/1985 (RSA GG 9917) to substitute “Minister of Constitutional Development and Planning” for “Minister of Co-operation and Development” in paragraph (a).

Therefore it is not clear which transfer proclamation, if any, was applicable. However, the date of transfer is not relevant to the content of the statute, as there were no amendments to the law in South Africa after 1976 (the date of the earliest transfer proclamation) and before Namibian independence.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Pension Laws Amendment Act 98 of 1969 (RSA GG 2463)
- Second Pension Laws Amendment Act 86 of 1970 (RSA GG 2896)
- Aged Persons Amendment Act 14 of 1971 (RSA GG 3062)
- Pension Laws Amendment Act 97 of 1972 (RSA GG 3605)
- Social Pensions Act 37 of 1973 (RSA GG 3866), which was made expressly applicable to SWA and which repealed the Act “in so far as it relates to pension matters;

Some terminology was also amended by the Native Laws Amendment Proclamation, AG 3 of 1979 (OG 3898), deemed to have come into force in relevant part on 1 August 1978 (section 5 of AG 3 of 1979).

There have been no amendments to the Act in Namibia since independence.

The original Act covered pensions for aged persons, but this portion of the Act was repealed by section 21 of the Social Pensions Act 37 of 1973, which was applicable to SWA.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 20 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated. Since the portions of the Act relating to pensions for aged persons have been repealed, any regulations on this topic would have no current relevance.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 2032) concerns the promotion of the welfare of blind persons.
Applicability to SWA: Section 16 of the Pension Laws Amendment Act 79 of 1968 (RSA GG 2119, also published in OG 2915) – which came into force on 1 October 1968 (section 17(1) of Act 79 of 1968) – without amending the Blind Persons Act 26 of 1968, empowered the State President to make the provisions of the Act “mutatis mutandis” applicable in the territory of South-West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel, in respect of natives, as defined in section 25 of the Native Administration Proclamation, 1928 (Proclamation No. 15 of 1928), of the said territory, in so far as those provisions relate to Bantu or Bantu persons”, subject to “such conditions, amendments or exceptions as may be specified in the proclamation”. It also empowered the State President to withdraw or amend any such proclamation. Section 16(4) stated: “With effect from the date on which any Act referred to in subsection (1) becomes applicable in the said territory in terms of a proclamation issued under that subsection, the corresponding Act which under section 45(1) of the Pension Laws Amendment Act, 1965 (Act No. 102 of 1965), was declared to be applicable in the said territory, shall cease to be applicable therein: Provided that anything done in terms of the relevant corresponding Act and which could be done in terms of the relevant Act referred to in subsection (1) which becomes applicable in the territory on the said date, shall be deemed to have been done in terms of the last-mentioned Act.” (The corresponding Act cited in section 45(1) of the Pension Laws Amendment Act 102 of 1965 (RSA GG 1171) was the Blind Persons Act 39 of 1962.)

Pursuant to this authority, RSA Proc. R.293/1968 (RSA GG 2182) provided that the provisions of the Act were brought into force on 1 October 1968 “in the Territory of South-West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel, in respect of Natives, as defined in section 25 of the Native Administration Proclamation, 1928 (Proclamation No. 15 of 1928), of the said Territory, in so far as those provisions relate to Bantu”.

The Act was brought into force generally in SWA only when the amendments made by Act 16 of 1971 came into force on 1 January 1972. Section 18A (inserted by Act 16 of 1971) states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall, save in so far as it has already been declared to be applicable in the territory in terms of section 16(1) of the Pension Laws Amendment Act, 1968 (Act No. 79 of 1968), also apply in the territory, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” Section 1 (as inserted by Act 16 of 1971) also defines “Republic” to include “the territory”, which is defined as “the territory of South West Africa”.

The original Act covered pensions for blind persons, but this portion of the Act was repealed by section 21 of the Social Pensions Act 37 of 1973, which was applicable to SWA.

Transfer of administration to SWA: Section 18 of the Act gives the State President the power to assign the administration of the Act to one or more Ministers and to vary this assignment from time to time.

RSA Proc. R.285/1968 (RSA GG 2176) assigned the administration of the Act as follows:

(a) to the Minister of Bantu Administration and Development, in so far as the said provisions refer to Bantu as defined in section 1 of the Blind Persons Act, 1968;
(b) to the Minister of Coloured Affairs, in so far as the said provisions refer to Coloured persons as defined in section 1 of the Blind Persons Act, 1968;
(c) to the Minister of Indian Affairs, in so far as the said provisions refer to Indians as defined in section 1 of the Blind Persons Act. 1968;
(d) to the Minister of the Interior, in so far as the said provisions refer to Chinese as defined in section 1 of the Blind Persons Act. 1968.

RSA Proc. R. 273/1971 (RSA GG 3327) assigned the administration of the Act as follows:

(a) to the Minister of Social Welfare and Pensions, in so far as the said provisions refer to White persons;
(b) to the Minister of Bantu Administration and Development, in so far as the said provisions refer to Bantu;
(c) to the Minister of Coloured Affairs, in so far as the said provisions refer to Coloured persons and Namas;
(d) to the Minister of Rehoboth Affairs, in so far as the said provisions refer to Burghers;
(e) to the Minister of Indian Affairs, in so far as the said provisions refer to Indians;
(f) to the Minister of the Interior, in so far as the said provisions refer to Chinese; and
(g) to the Minister of Labour, in so far as the said provisions refer to-
   (i) the making of contributions to a welfare organisation registered under the National Welfare Act, 1965 (Act 79 of 1965), towards the provision or maintenance by such organisation of workshops for the training or employment of members of the population groups, excluding Bantu and Natives, referred to in this Proclamation, and the remuneration of persons employed by such organisation for the purpose of conducting any such workshop; and
   (ii) the making of contributions towards the augmentation of the earnings of members of the population excluding Bantu and Natives, referred to in this ‘on, who are employed in the aforementioned workshop.

This 1971 Proclamation was repealed by RSA Proc. 219/1973 (RSA GG 4030).

The Department of “Bantu Administration and Development” must have become the “Department of Co-operation and Development” at some stage – as RSA Proc. No. R.285/1968 was amended by RSA Proc. R.153/1985 (RSA GG 9917) to substitute “Minister of Constitutional Development and Planning” for “Minister of Co-operation and Development” in paragraph (a).

Therefore it is not clear from the face of the Act which transfer proclamation, if any, was applicable. However, the date of transfer is not relevant to the content of the statute, as there were no amendments to the law in South Africa after 1976 (the date of the earliest transfer proclamation) and before Namibian independence.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Second Pension Laws Amendment Act 86 of 1970 (RSA GG 2896)
- Blind Persons Amendment Act 16 of 1971 (RSA GG 3064)
- Pensions Laws Amendment Act 97 of 1972 (RSA GG 3605)
- Social Pensions Act 37 of 1973 (RSA GG 3866), which was made expressly applicable to SWA and which repealed the Act “in so far as it relates to pension matters”.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 17 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated. Since the portions of the Act relating to pensions for blind persons have been repealed, any regulations on this topic would have no current relevance.

Namibia Red Cross Act 16 of 1991.

Summary: This Act (GG 313) recognises the Namibia Red Cross Society as the only Red Cross society in Namibia, and prohibits the unauthorised use of the name or emblem of the Red Cross or Red Crescent.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Veterans Act 2 of 2008.

Summary: This Act (GG 4051) provides for the establishment of a Veterans Fund for the provision of assistance to veterans and their dependants, and projects for the benefit of veterans. It also provides for the integration of the pension benefits of veterans. It establishes a Veterans Board and Veterans Appeal Board. It repeals the War Veterans Subvention Act 16 of 1999 (GG 2211).

Part IV of the Act was brought into force on 23 June 2008 by GN 156/2008 (GG 4072). The remainder of the Act, except for section 37, was brought into force on 8 July 2008 by GN 167/2008 (GG 4080). Section 37, which deals with the pension integration scheme for veterans, will be brought into force on a date set by the Minister.

Amendments: Act 3/2013 (GG 5185) amends sections 1, 6, 15, 22, 30, 35, 36, 44 and 46; substitutes sections 27 and 37 and inserts section 37A. Amongst other things, it replaces the provisions on a pension scheme for veterans with a once-off gratuity and provides for tokens of appreciation in monetary or material form. It also changes the qualifications for registration as a veteran or a dependant of a veteran. The amending Act was originally to come into force on a date set by the Minister in the Gazette, but it was amended by the Act 5/2015 (GG 5774) to provide that it comes into force on its date of publication.

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched. Regulations made under the repealed Act survive under this Act, but no such regulations have been located. The repealed Act replaced the unrepealed portions of the War Veterans’ Pensions Act 25 of 1968, which applied only to coloured persons resident outside the territory of South West Africa; regulations made under that Act also appear to survive.

Regulations made under this Act on the registration and benefits of veterans and their dependants are contained in GN 168/2008 (GG 4080). GN 134/2010 (GG 4514) substitutes regulation 25.

Regulations relating to appeals to the Veterans Appeal Board are contained in GN 45/2011 (GG 4692).

Notices: General Notice 271/2010 (GG 2574) recognises the National Liberation Veterans Association as the organisation representing veterans with effect from 1 September 2010, in terms of section 44(3) of the Act.
Appointments: Members of the Veterans Appeal Board are announced in GN 70/2011 (GG 4725).

Commentary:

COMMENTARY

Summary: This Act (GG 5490) provides for various criminal offences connected with terrorism and proliferation activities, and measures to combat and prevent such activities and the funding of such activities. It also gives effect to international conventions, United Nations Security Council Resolutions, instruments and best practices on measures to combat terrorist and proliferation activities. Some of its provisions are to be implemented by the Security Commission established under Article 114 of the Namibian Constitution. It repeals the Prevention and Combating of Terrorist Activities Act 12 of 2012. The Act was brought into force on 1 July 2014 by GN 80/2014 (GG 5497).

Regulations: Section 64 provides that anything done under the repealed Prevention and Combating of Terrorist Activities Act 12 of 2012 that could be done under a corresponding provision of this Act is deemed to have been done under this Act. However, the only regulations issued under the 2014 Act have been repealed.

In terms of the current Act, Regulations relating to the Implementation of Security Council Decisions are contained in GN 163/2014 (GG 5560), which repeals GN 196/2013 (GG 5250).

Relevant international law: Section 1 of the Act defines “terrorist activity” to include any act which constitutes an offence within the scope of, and as defined in one of the following treaties -

- Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts against the Safety of Civil Aviation (1971)
- Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of Crimes against Internationally Protected Persons, including Diplomatic Agents (1973)
- International Convention against the Taking of Hostages (1979)
  Note that this convention is now known as the “Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material and Nuclear Facilities, 1980”, due to the Amendment to the Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material (renaming the convention as Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material and Nuclear Facilities), 2005, which Namibia has accepted.
- Convention on the Suppression of Unlawful Acts relating to International Civil Aviation (2010) (not yet agreed to by Namibia nor in force internationally)
- Protocol Supplementary to the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Seizure of Aircraft (2010) (not yet agreed to by Namibia nor in force internationally).

Notices: In terms of the previous Act (and surviving pursuant to section 654 of this Act), GN 276/2013 (GG 5318) publishes a United Nations list of persons and organisations, and persons associated with such persons and organisations, against whom Member States of the United Nations must take actions in order to combat or prevent any terrorist activity in terms of regulation 4(2)(c).

In terms of this Act, GN 172/2015 (GG 5804) issues an arms embargo preventing the direct or indirect supply, sale, brokering or transfer of all types of arms and related materials to designated persons, organisations or countries by Namibian citizens or residents of Namibia, Namibian citizens outside Namibia or by making use of Namibian flagged vessels or aircraft or aircraft registered in Namibia.

From time to time, sanction lists issued by the United Nations Security Council pursuant to various Security Council Resolutions are published and freezing orders relating to these lists issued. These are published frequently and have not been recorded here.

INTERNATIONAL LAW

Charter of the Regional Tourism Organisation of Southern Africa (RETOSA), 1997
Statutes of the World Tourism Organization (UNWTO), 1970
Amendment to Article 38 of the Statutes of the World Tourism Organization, 1979
Sugar Act 28 of 1936, with some South African amendments.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 2365) provides for the control of the sugar industry and regulates sugar prices. It repeals the Sugar Prices Act 47 of 1926.

Applicability to SWA: Section 10(2), which was added by Act 17 of 1955 (SA GG 5465, also published in OG 1902), states that “This Act shall apply also in the territory”, which is defined in section 13 of the Act as “the Territory of South West Africa”. There is no definition of “Union” or “Republic”.

This wording does not seem to make amendments to the Act automatically applicable to SWA. However, the amendments contained in Act 17 of 1955 are presumably applicable to SWA since it was that amending act which applied the principal Act to SWA. There was only one other amending act in South Africa – the Sugar Amendment Act 26 of 1958 (SA GG 6109) – which was not made expressly applicable to Namibia.

The Act was repealed in South Africa in its entirety by the Sugar Act 9 of 1978 (RSA GG 5907), which was brought into force on 27 April 1979 by Proc. R.81/1979 (RSA GG 6419). However, this repeal came into force in SA after the date of transfer to SWA.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of the Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Commerce) Transfer Proclamation (AG 28 of 1978), dated 28 April 1978.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendment was applicable to SWA –

- Sugar Amendment Act 17 of 1955 (SA GG 5465).

Regulations: There is no savings clause for regulations issued under the repealed Act. Regulations are authorised by section 11 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Industrial Development Act 22 of 1940, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act (SA GG 2764) establishes the Industrial Development Corporation of South Africa to promote new industries and develop existing ones. As the Act applied to SWA only by virtue of its definition of “Republic”, its continued applicability since independence is questionable.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Republic” to include “the territory of South West Africa”. Amendments and regulations to the Act in South Africa may have been made applicable to SWA by virtue of this definition, although there is no provision in the Act stating that they are automatically applicable to SWA.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The relevant Transfer Proclamation is the Executive Powers (Industries) Transfer Proclamation (AG 5/1978), dated 30 January 1978. However, section 3(1)(a) of the Transfer Proclamation excluded this Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that the administration of the Act was not transferred to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –
- Industrial Development Amendment Act 27 of 1942 (SA GG 3041)
- Industrial Development Amendment Act 40 of 1951 (SA GG 4627)
- Industrial Development Amendment Act 67 of 1961 (RSA GG 31)
- Industrial Development Amendment Act 52 of 1964 (RSA GG 815)
- Industrial Development Amendment Act 89 of 1965 (RSA GG 1163)
- Industrial Development Amendment Act 45 of 1966 (RSA GG 1576)
- Finance Act 88 of 1972 (RSA GG 3591)
- Second General Law Amendment Act 94 of 1974 (RSA GG 4510)
- Industrial Development Amendment Act 47 of 1975 (RSA GG 4730)
- Finance Act 102 of 1976 (RSA GG 5199)
- Finance Act 21 of 1980 (RSA GG 6915)
- Industrial Development Amendment Act 96 of 1980 (RSA GG 7149)
- Industrial Development Amendment Act 53 of 1984 (RSA GG 9186)
- Transfer of Powers and Duties of the State President Act 97 of 1986 (RSA GG 10438).

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 750) allows for state control of the prices of goods and services.

Applicability to SWA: Section 21 of the original Act stated: “This Act shall apply also in the territory of South-West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section three of the South-West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951), and in relation to all persons in that portion of the said territory known as the ‘Rehoboth Gebiet’ and defined in the First Schedule to Proclamation No. 28 of 1923 of that territory.”

Section 21 was substituted by Act 80 of 1967, to make amendments to the Act also applicable to South West Africa. Section 21 as substituted states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall also apply in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section 3 of the South West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951) and in relation to all persons in the portion of the said territory known as the ‘Rehoboth Gebiet’ and defined in the First Schedule to Proclamation No. 28 of 1923 of the Administration of that territory.” Section 1 defines “Gazette” accordingly.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Commerce) Transfer Proclamation (AG 28/1978), dated 28 April 1978. There were two amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Price Control Amendment Act 16 of 1984 (RSA GG 9092) and the Coal Resources Act 60 of 1985 (RSA GG 9773) – neither of which was made expressly applicable to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –
Price Control Amendment Act 80 of 1967 (RSA GG 1764)

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Notices: The application of the Act is affected by a large number of Government Notices which have not been comprehensively recorded here.

Maximum margarine prices were contained in GN 72 of 15 April 1986, as amended by GN 43/1990 (GG 60), GN 68/1991 (GG 220) and GN 41/1992 (GG 390) and supplemented by GN 146/1992 (GG 512). GN 72/1986 is repealed by GN 64/1993 (GG 662), which is replaced by GN 115/1994 (GG 870), which is replaced in turn by GN 209/1995 (GG 1183), which is repealed by GN 57/1997 (GG 1528).

Deposits and refunds on returnable containers were addressed after independence by GN 96/91 (GG 249), as amended by GN 19/92 (GG 359), which was replaced by GN 27/2003 (GG 2925), which was replaced by GN 130/2005 (GG 3507), which was replaced by GN 237/2008 (GG 4136).

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 2898) empowers the Minister of Economic Affairs to acquire goods and services if he deems it necessary to the security of the Republic.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Republic” to include “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 19 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including that part of the said territory known as the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Transfer of administration to SWA: The relevant Transfer Proclamations are the Executive Powers (Industries) Transfer Proclamation (AG 5/1978), dated 30 January 1978, and the Executive Powers (Commerce) Transfer Proclamation (AG 28/1978), dated 28 April 1978. Both of these transfer proclamations excluded this Act from the operation of Section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that the administration of the Act was not transferred to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Finance Act 63 of 1973 (RSA GG 3948)
- General Law Amendment Act 29 of 1974 (RSA GG 4220)
- National Supplies Procurement Amendment Act 89 of 1974 (RSA GG 4520)
- National Supplies Procurement Amendment Act 54 of 1975 (RSA GG 4754)
- National Supplies Procurement Amendment Act 70 of 1976 (RSA GG 5129)
- National Supplies Procurement Amendment Act 73 of 1979 (RSA GG 6516)
- Finance Act 21 of 1980 (RSA GG 6915)
- National Supplies Procurement Amendment Act 31 of 1982 (RSA GG 8083)

The Act was also amended in South Africa by the Legal Succession to the South African Transport Services Act 9 of 1989 (RSA GG 11743). However, the portions of Act 9 of 1989 which amended Act 89 of 1970 came into force only after Namibian independence, on 1 April 1990, in terms of section 37(2) read with section 3(1) of Act.
9 of 1989; the date referred to in section 3(1) was set by RSA Government Notice 578/1990 (RSA GG 12364) as being 1 April 1990. Therefore these amendments were not applicable to South West Africa.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 5150) regulates certain advertisements, restricts the use of trade coupons in connection with the sale of goods and services, and controls various other trade practices.

Applicability to SWA: Section 23 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” There were no amendments to the Act in South Africa prior to the date of transfer.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Commerce) Transfer Proclamation (AG 28/1978), dated 28 April 1978. (The first amendment to the Act in South Africa, the Trade Practices Amendment Act 78 of 1978, came into force shortly after the date of transfer, on 9 June 1978.) None of the amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer were made expressly applicable to SWA.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

- S v Khumalo & Another 1994 NR 3 (HC).

Note: See also Nature Conservation Ordinance 4 of 1975 re: export of game and game products.

Note on possible effect of discrepancies between Appendices in Act and CITES
The Appendices to CITES can be, and regularly are, amended by “the Conference of the Parties” under Articles XV and XVI of the Convention, and the amendments enter into force automatically for all parties.
However, section 11(1) of this Act states: “Whenever Appendices I, II or III is amended [sic], the Minister must by notice in the Gazette amend Schedule 3 accordingly.” (emphasis added). In addition, section 1(3)(c) of this Act states: “Any provision of this Act is construed with reference to the Convention and any provision of the Convention is deemed to be part of this Act and for that purpose... (c) a species is deemed to be included in an Appendix only if it appears in the relevant column of Schedule 3 and also subject to such further qualifications as set out in the relevant entry or such further notes as may appear in that Schedule.” (emphasis added).

The problem is that the version of the Appendices which appeared in the Act for the first nine years appeared to be those that were in force in 2008, when the Act was promulgated; subsequent amendments to the Appendices were not accompanied by amendments to Schedule 3 by notice in the Gazette, as the Act requires, until 2017.

The version of the Appendices on the CITES website, <www.cites.org/eng/app/appendices.php>, is updated to include the latest amendments to the CITES Appendices in a convenient table format. It is advisable to consult this website for additional amendments.

In light of the sections of this Act quoted above, the question arises as to what the position would be where the Minister has not carried out the mandatory duty imposed by section 11(3) of the Act to ensure that international amendments to the Appendices are incorporated into Schedule 3.

In general, where it is clear from the language of the Act that the draftsman intended to include the text of a Convention in an Act, and got it wrong, courts will (or at least should) follow the text of the Convention. Anything else would thwart the intention of the lawmaker. But it does depend on the language of the particular Act.

The preamble to this Act states that its purpose is “To provide for the implementation of the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora”. This is further emphasised by section 1(3), which provides that “Any provision of this Act is construed with reference to the Convention and any provision of the Convention is deemed to be part of this Act and for that purpose”.

However, there is a specific qualification as far as the different species in Schedule 3 are concerned: while there is a duty on the Minister to update this Schedule under Art 11, section 1(3)(c) provides specifically that “a species is deemed to be included in an Appendix only if it appears in the relevant column of Schedule 3 and also subject to such further qualifications as set out in the relevant entry or such further notes as may appear in that Schedule”.

So assume that a question arises before a Namibian court that turns on whether a species is listed in an Appendix to the Convention. It is, but in a later version not included in Schedule 3 to the Act. It seems possible that the court might follow the Schedule, and not the actual Appendix, because this law seems to be an example of the legislator intending to override or qualify the international obligation. However, there could be an ancillary action against the Minister to force him to amend the Schedule, or alternatively an action for damages if he has failed to do so and this has led to a loss (which is not an ideal remedy in the context of endangered species).

It seems unnecessary and unwise for the legislature to have required that portions of the Convention which are periodically updated be incorporated into Namibian domestic law in this way, rather than incorporating by reference the Appendices to CITES as updated from time to time.

Namibia Investment Promotion Act 9 of 2016.

Summary: This Act (GG 6110) provides for the promotion of foreign and domestic investment. It also provides for the reservation of certain economic sectors and business activities to certain categories of investors – the State; Namibians and entities which are majority-owned by Namibians; joint venture partnership between Namibian investors and foreign investors; and investors which meet certain requirements (such as employment of Namibians, skills transfer, etc). The Act also provides for dispute resolution mechanisms involving investment. It repeals the Foreign Investment Act 27 of 1990, as amended; however, it provides that the Namibia Investment Centre established by Act 27 of 1990 will continue to exist as a department of the Ministry responsible for investment. The Act will be brought into force on a date set by the Minister in the Government Gazette.

Regulations: Regulations made under the repealed Foreign Investment Act 27 of 1990 survive pursuant to section 35(3) of this Act. Regulations made under the repealed Act are contained in GN 120/1992 (GG 477).

Regulations are authorised by section 30 of this Act, but none have yet been promulgated.

Namibia Industrial Development Agency Act 16 of 2016.

The Act was brought into force, with the exception of sections 30, 32, 33 and 34, on 1 October 2018 by GN 253/2018 (GG 6724). These sections, which concern the transfer of assets to the Agency, and amendments and repeals of other laws, were all brought into force on 15 November 2018 by GN 295/2018 (GG 6767).

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

These pre-independence transfer proclamations governed the transfer of the administration of certain laws from South Africa to “South West Africa”. The transfer proclamations are particularly relevant in determining which South African amendments made prior to Namibian independence have become part of Namibian law. This section lists general transfer proclamations which governed multiple transfers. Laws which functioned as transfer proclamations for individual pieces of legislation are listed only in the entry for the statute in question. Most of these transfer proclamations remain in force, although their function is only historical. This section also lists laws and notices relating to pre-independence assignments and delegations of powers, some of which determined which transfer proclamation applied.

Summary: This Act (GG 324) establishes the Namibian Transport Advisory Board and sets forth its composition and functions.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 14 of the Act, but none have yet been promulgated.

Amendments: Act 12/1998 (GG 1880) amends sections 4 and 5.

Summary: This Act (GG 1961) provides for the incorporation of a holding company to undertake transport services. It repeals the National Transport Corporation Act 21 of 1987 (OG 5439). Most of the Act was brought into force on 1 January 1999 by GN 306/1998 (GG 2075). However, sections 5-13 and 15-19 came into force only on the date of transfer of services to the holding company, which was 1 April 1999 in terms of GN 51/1999 (GG 2075).

Amendments: The State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 (GG 3698), which was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733) and which has since been re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006, amends sections 1-10, 14 and 17.

Regulations: Anything done under the National Transport Corporation Act 21 of 1987 (OG 5439) which could have been done under a corresponding provision of the new Act remains valid. However, since this Act makes no provision for regulations, regulations made under the repealed law would not survive.

Cases: The following cases concern the present Act –

- Clear Channel Independent Advertising Namibia (Pty) Ltd & Another v Transnamib Holdings Ltd & Others 2006 (1) NR 121 (HC) (section 14(4))
- Coetsee v Transnamib Holdings Ltd & Another 2015 (4) NR 1183 (HC) (Schedule 1, Item 8).

The following cases concern the previous National Transport Corporation Act 21 of 1987 –

- Krüger v Transnamib Ltd (Air Namibia) & Others 1996 NR 168 (SC) (section 48)
- Poolman & Others v Transnamib Ltd 1997 NR 89 (HC); Transnamib Ltd v Poolman & Others 1999 NR 399 (SC) (section 48).

TRUSTS

Summary: This Act (SA GG 2201) protects trust moneys. It provides for the registration of trust deeds and, in some circumstances, requires security from trustees.

Applicability to SWA: Section 8A(1) states: “Subject to the provisions of subsections (2) and (3), this Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” Subsection (2) exempted certain trustees appointed prior to the Act from the provisions of the Act. Subsection (3) specifies that the Magistrate of Rehoboth shall be considered the “Master” where a trustee is a member of the Rehoboth Baster community. (In other circumstances “Master” is defined as the Master of the Supreme Court of South Africa.)

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended. There were no amendments to the Act in South Africa after that date and prior to Namibian independence. The Act was repealed in South Africa by the Trust Moneys Control Act 57 of 1988 (RSA GG 11357) which was not made expressly applicable to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendment was applicable to SWA –

- General Law Amendment Act 57 of 1975 (RSA GG 4670), which inserted section 8A making the Act applicable to SWA.

Application of law: The application of this law is affected by the Financial Intelligence Act 13 of 2012 (GG 5096), which places certain duties on the Master of the High Court in respect of trusts.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 8 of the Act. Pre-independence regulations have not been researched. No post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Cases: Ellis & Others NNO v Noabeb 2015(2) NR 325 (HC) (a sole trustee cannot be a sole beneficiary).

Summary: This Act concerns the control, use and conservation of water. It was repealed by the Water Resources Management Act 24 of 2004 (GG 3357), which never came into force. That Act has now been superseded by the Water Resources Management Act 11 of 2013 (GG 5367) – which repeals this Act and will be brought into force on a date set by the Minister by notice in the Government Gazette.

Applicability to SWA: Section 180 of the original Act stated “The Governor-General may, by proclamation in the Gazette, apply the provisions of this Act to the territory of South-West Africa or any area within that territory.” As amended by Act 77 of 1969, section 180(1) states “The State President may, by proclamation in the Gazette, apply any of or all the provisions of this Act to the territory of South West Africa or any portion thereof.” Section 180(2) applies sections 1–4 of the Act to South West Africa from the date of commencement of Act 77 of 1969 (25 June 1969).

RSA Proclamation 281 of 1970 (RSA GG 2921) applies section 162 to South West Africa with effect from 1 April 1971. It makes no mention of the applicability of future amendments to South West Africa, stating “I do hereby declare that as from 1 April 1971, the provisions of section 162 of the Water Act shall apply to the Territory of South West Africa.” However, this proclamation presumably applied the stated sections as they stood at 1 April 1971.

RSA Proclamation 151 of 1971 (RSA GG 3167) applies sections 5–7, 9A, 21–23, 26 (excluding paragraph (a)), 27, 28(1), 30, 34–43, 44(2), 45–51, 54–56, 57(1), 59(2), 61, 66, 67, 69, 70 (excluding paragraphs (d), (f), (g) and (h)), 139–152, 164bis, 164ter, 165, 166, 170 (excluding paragraphs (3) and (5)(c)) and 171 to South West Africa. This Proclamation became effective from the date of its publication, 25 June 1971. It makes no mention of the applicability of future amendments to South West Africa, stating “I hereby declare, in terms of section 180(1) of the Water Act, 1956 (Act 54 of 1956), the provisions of the following sections of the said Act to be applicable to the Territory of South-West Africa with effect from the date of publication hereof… [followed by a list of section numbers].” However, this Proclamation presumably applied the stated sections as they stood at 25 June 1971.

The Water Amendment Act 22 of 1985 (OG 5142) makes sections 9B, 30A(a) and 170(3) applicable to “the Territory of South West Africa”. Section 1(2) of Act 22 of 1985 states “For the purposes of any provision of the principal Act the provisions of subsection (1) shall be deemed to be a proclamation made under section 180 of the principal Act.” Act 22 of 1985 came into force on its date of publication (18 December 1985). It states “Sections 9B, 30A(a) and 170(3) of the Water Act, 1956 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), shall apply in the territory of South West Africa.” It does not make any of the amendments to these sections after the date of transfer explicitly applicable to South West Africa, and so apparently applies the stated sections as they stood in South Africa at the date of transfer, 28 September 1977. Alternatively, it is possible that Act 22 of 1985 applied the sections in question as they stood in South Africa as of 18 December 1985. However, the first interpretation is supported by Act 22 of 1985: it amends section 9B “as inserted by section 2 of Act 36 of 1971 and amended by section 1 of Act 42 of 1975 and section 1 of Act 108 of 1977”. This marginal notation makes no mention of the amendment of section 9B by Act 96 of 1984, which amended section 9B in South Africa after the date of transfer but prior to Act 22 of 1985.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers Transfer Proclamation (AG 3/1977) dated 28 September 1977, as amended. None of the amendments to the Act in South Africa after that date were made expressly applicable to SWA.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Water Amendment Act 56 of 1961 (RSA GG 30)
- Water Amendment Act 71 of 1965 (RSA GG 1136)
- Water Amendment Act 11 of 1966 (RSA GG 1380)
- Agricultural Credit Act 28 of 1966 (RSA GG 1546)
- Water Amendment Act 79 of 1967 (RSA GG 1763)
- Establishment of the Northern Cape Division of the Supreme Court of South Africa Act 15 of 1969 (RSA GG 2315)
- Water Amendment Act 77 of 1969 (RSA GG 2443)

  Amendments in South Africa to section 162 were not applicable to South West Africa after this point.
- Water Amendment Act 36 of 1971 (RSA GG 3106)

  Amendments in South Africa to other provisions of the Act which applied to South West Africa, with the exception of sections 9B, 30A(a) and 170(3), were not applicable after this point.
- Water Amendment Act 45 of 1972 (RSA GG 3516)
- Water Amendment Act 42 of 1975 (RSA GG 4720)
- Water Amendment Act 108 of 1977 (RSA GG 5660)

  Amendments in South Africa to sections 9B, 30A(a) and 170(3) of the Act were not applicable to South West Africa after this point.

The following South African amending Acts were not relevant to SWA because they amend only provisions of the Act which were not applicable to SWA:

- Water Amendment Act 75 of 1957 (SA GG 5908)
- Water Amendment Act 63 of 1963 (RSA GG 540)
- General Law Amendment Act 102 of 1972 (RSA GG 3610)
- Water Amendment Act 58 of 1974 (RSA GG 4452).
- Expropriation Act 63 of 1975 (RSA GG 4780)

Section 33 of the Public Service Act 2 of 1980 (OG 4116) repealed section 3(2) of Act 54 of 1956. However, AG 18/1980 (OG 4212), which brought Act 2 of 1980 into force, excluded section 33, and the reference to the Water Act in section 33 of Act 2 of 1980 was deleted altogether by the Water Amendment Act 4 of 1982 (OG 4617).

The Native Laws Amendment Proclamation, AG 3 of 1979 (OG 3898), deemed to have come into force in relevant part on 1 August 1978 (section 5 of AG 3 of 1979), amends certain terminology.

Act 4/1982 (OG 4617) amends sections 1 and 3.

Act 22/1985 (OG 5142) amends several sections of the Act.

This Act was repealed by the Water Resources Management Act 24 of 2004 (GG 3357), which never came into force. That Act has now been superseded by the Water Resources Management Act 11 of 2013 (GG 5367), which also repeals this Act but has not yet been brought into force.

Application of law: Section 42 of the Namibia Water Corporation Act 12 of 1997 (GG 1703) affects the applicability of this Act to the NamWater Corporation.

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched.

Section 180(3) and (4) of the Act give the State President of South Africa the power to issue special water regulations for application in South West Africa, so long as such regulations are approved by both the Senate and the House of Assembly. Section 180(5) provides that the South West African Water Ordinance 13 of 1932 and the Artesian Water Control Ordinance 35 of 1955) will be deemed to be regulations issued under the Act, and provides rules for their interpretation.

The Water Ordinance 13 of 1932 (GN 13/1932) (OG 478) was initially enacted as an Ordinance. It was then deemed by section 180(5) of the Water Act 54 of 1956, as amended by the Water Amendment Act 77 of 1969, to constitute regulations.

The Artesian Water Control Ordinance 35 of 1955 (GN 229/1955) (OG 1930) was initially enacted as an Ordinance. It was then deemed by section 180(5) of the Water Act 54 of 1956, as amended by the Water Amendment Act 77 of 1969, to constitute regulations.

Section 180(5) provides the following rules of construction in respect of these Ordinances as regulations: (a) References to the “Administration” shall be construed as a reference to the department. (b) References to the “Administrator” shall, except in section 2(2), be construed as a reference to the Minister. (d) References to the “Legislative Assembly” shall be construed as a reference to Parliament.

Section 180(5) also provides that anything done by any authority under any provision of these Ordinances prior to the commencement of the Water Amendment Act 77 of 1969 shall be deemed to have been done by the corresponding authority under such provision as so construed.

RSA GN R.1277/1971 (RSA GG 3218) sets forth regulations for SWA pursuant to section 180(3) of the Act. These regulations are amended by RSA GN R.875/1975 (RSA GG 4692), AG GN 16/1980 (OG 4097) and section 8 of the SWA Water Amendment Act 22 of 1985 (OG 5142).

RSA GN R.1278/1971 (RSA GG 3218) sets forth regulations for SWA pursuant to section 30(2) of the Act. These regulations are amended by section 8 of the SWA Water Amendment Act 22 of 1985 (OG 5142).

Notices: AG GN 12/1980 (OG 4089), GN 167/1986 (OG 5254) and GN 50/2000 (GG 2280) concern the delegation of powers under the Act.

Cases: See Namib Plains Farming CC v Valencia Uranium (Pty) Ltd & Others 2011 (2) NR 469 (SC) at 480C-481E and 482A-E, summarising and discussing the unreported High Court case in the same matter, which discussed sections 27, 28 and 30.

Commentary: Legal Assistance Centre / Mills International Human Rights Clinic, Stanford Law School, Not coming up dry: regulating the use of Namibia’s scarce water resources by mining operations, Windhoek: Legal Assistance Centre, 2009, available at www.lac.org.na.

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 3105) establishes a Water Research Commission to promote research into water affairs, as well as a Water Research Fund.

Applicability to SWA: Section 15 states “The State President may by proclamation in the Gazette declare any of or all the provisions of this Act and of any amendment thereof to be applicable in the territory of South West Africa (including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel) or any portion thereof.” All of the provisions of the Act were made applicable to SWA by RSA Proc. 279/1972 (RSA GG 3685) as from 27 October 1972, but not future amendments: “Now, therefore, under the powers vested in me by the said section 15, I do hereby declare that all the provisions of the said Act shall, with effect from the date of publication hereof, be applicable in the Territory of South-West Africa.” This Proclamation did not make amendments to the Act in South Africa automatically applicable to SWA.

Neither of the two amending Acts enacted prior to the date of transfer – the Water Research Amendment Act 16 of 1974 (RSA GG 4199) and the Water Research Amendment Act 37 of 1975 (RSA GG 4700) – were applied to South West Africa by Proclamation of the State President, and it is debatable whether the wording of RSA Proc. 279 of 1972 was intended to incorporate future amendments (“…all the provisions of the said Act… with effect from the date of publication hereof…”). However, based on the approach to the Act taken by the Administrator-General of South West Africa after the date of transfer, it appears that the wording of RSA Proc. 279 of 1972 was understood to incorporate amendments to the Act.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of the Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers Transfer Proclamation (AG 3/1977) dated 28 September 1977, as amended. (The Act gives the term Minister the meaning assigned to it in the Water Act 54 of 1956, where it is defined as being the Minister of Water Affairs; AG 3/1977 applies to all laws administered by that Minister.) After the date of transfer, the Administrator General made one South African amendment – the Water Research Amendment Act 106 of 1977 – applicable to South West Africa, by means of AG Proclamation 29 of 1978 (OG 3745): “Under the powers vested in me by section 2 of the Water Research Amendment Act, 1977 (Act 106 of 1977), as applied by the Executive Powers Transfer Proclamation, 1977 (Proclamation AG. 3 of 1977), I hereby determine that the said Act shall come into operation on 1 July 1978”. (Section 2 of Act 106 of 1977 states “This Act shall be called the Water Research Amendment Act, 1977, and shall come into operation on a date fixed by the State President by proclamation in the Gazette.”)

Note that this Proclamation appears to assume that amendments to the principal Act were automatically applicable to South West Africa, with the power to declare a commencement date lying with the Administrator-General of South West Africa instead of the State President of South Africa by virtue of the Transfer Proclamation.
Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were apparently applicable to SWA –
  • Water Research Amendment Act 16 of 1974 (RSA GG 4199)
  • Water Research Amendment Act 37 of 1975 (RSA GG 4700).

AG 29/1978 makes the Water Research Amendment Act 106 of 1977 (RSA GG 5658) applicable to SWA as from 1 July 1978. This Act amends section 11, which deals with the levying of rates and charges.

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Summary: This Act (GG 1703) establishes “NamWater” and provides for its powers, duties and functions. It was brought into force on 20 November 1997 by GN 234/1997 (GG 1732).

Amendments: Act 17/2001 (GG 2674), which has not yet been brought into force, amends sections 17, 18 and 19 and substitutes section 21.

The Water Resources Management Act 24 of 2004 (GG 3357), which has not yet been brought into force, amends a cross-reference in the Act.

The State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 (GG 3698), which was brought into force on 1 November 2006 by Proc. 13/2006 (GG 3733) and which has since been re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006, amends sections 17, 18, 19, 21, 22 and 28.

The Water Resources Management Act 11 of 2013 (GG 5367), which has not yet been brought into force, amends sections 6 and 7 and will repeal the Water Resources Management Act 24 of 2004.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 43 of the Act, but none have yet been promulgated.

Notices: The date for the transfer of bulk water supply functions from the Department of Water Affairs to the Namibia Water Corporation Ltd is determined to be 1 April 1998 in GN 169/1998 (GG 1909).

Tariffs: Bulk water supply tariffs are set forth from time to time and have not been recorded here.

Summary: This Act (GG 3357) concerns the management, development, protection, conservation and use of water resources. It establishes a Water Advisory Council, a Water Regulatory Board and a Water Tribunal. This Act was intended to replace the Water Act 54 of 1956. However, it never came into force and has been repealed by the Water Resources Management Act 11 of 2013 (GG 5367), which will be brought into force on a date set by the Minister by notice in the Government Gazette.

Summary: This Act (GG 5367) concerns the management, development, protection, conservation and use of water resources. It establishes a Water Advisory Council, a Water Regulator and a Water Tribunal, as well as Basin Management Committees and Water Point Committees. It provides for an Integrated Water Resources Management Plan and a Water Pricing Policy, and covers licencing for water services providers and for water abstraction and use. Amongst the other topics it addresses are management of internationally shared water resources, protection of groundwater, control of water pollution, dams, flood management and wetlands. This Act repeals the Water Act 54 of 1956 and the Water Resources Management Act 24 of 2004 (which was never brought into force). It will be brought into force on a date set by the Minister by notice in the Government Gazette.

Regulations: Subject to certain transitional provisions, anything done under a law repealed by this Act which may be done under a corresponding provision of this Act, remains in force. Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched.
