opinion unable to continue, disqualify the former boxer and award the decision in favour of his opponent; or

- (bb) stop the contest, disqualify the boxer concerned and award the decision in favour of his opponent:

Provided that the referee may at any time consult with the judges when he has to decide whether a boxer is guilty of a foul;

(xvii) if he is of the opinion that -

- (aa) one of the boxers is not boxing to the best of his ability or is fooling or is defending himself in a totally passive way; stop the contest, disqualify the boxer concerned and award the decision in favour of his opponent;
- (bb) neither of the boxers is boxing to the best of his ability or that both are fooling, stop the contest, disqualify both boxers and determine that the contest has ended undecided;

(xviii) decide on -

- (aa) the interpretation of any or all of provisions of these regulations;
- (bb) any question not expressly provided for in these regulations and any such decision by the referee shall be final.

(4) Whenever the referee is counting in terms of subregulation (3)(b)(vi), (vii) or (xv) -

- (a) he shall at the same time indicate each second of the count by means of a vertical movement of his arm;
- (b) he shall, if the opponent of the boxer who is down leaves the neutral corner in which he has to be, interrupt the count until the said opponent has returned to the neutral corner, whereafter he shall proceed with the count from where he has so interrupted it.

(5) After completion of the contest the referee shall -

- (a) take the scoring cards of the judges from the announcer and -
 - (i) award the decision in favour of the boxer indicated as the winner by the majority of the judges each according to the total number of points awarded by him;
 - (ii) when two judges have each according to the total number of points awarded by him indicated a different boxer as the winner and the third judge has awarded an equal number of points to each boxer, award a draw: Provided that if the contest concerned is a contest for a vacant South West African championship title, each judge shall indicate a winner and the boxer indicated as the winner by the majority of the judges shall be assigned to be the victor by the referee;

REGULATIONS
Boxing and Wrestling Control Act 11 of 1980

Regulations in Respect of the Regulation and Control of Professional Boxing

- (b) tell the announcer which decision to announce;
 - (c) as soon as possible hand all scoring cards in his possession to a representative of the board designated for this purpose;
 - (d) if he has under subregulation (3)(b) disqualified a boxer due to a foul, report the matter in writing to the board within 36 hours.
- (6) The referee shall not -
- (a) publicly criticize any decision made by the judges;
 - (b) show any scoring card in his possession to the public or any member thereof or discuss the same with the public or any member thereof.
- (7) In all cases where a boxer defends his South West African championship title and the contest ends in a draw or undecided, he shall retain that title.

Duties of boxers after certain actions by referee

21. (1) Whenever the referee gives the command “break” in terms of regulation 20(3)(b)(iv) the boxers shall each take one step backwards and while doing so take a defensive stance and as soon as both boxers have completed the said movement, any one of them may immediately resume the contest without any command from the referee.

(2) Any boxer shall whenever his opponent is down and at all other times when the referee is counting immediately proceed to the neutral corner furthest from his opponent and remain there until the referee stops the contest or indicates that the contest shall proceed.

Duties of the ringmaster

- 22. The ringmaster shall -
- (a) exercise control over -
 - (i) the ring and all accessories thereof;
 - (ii) the boxing gloves to be used during a tournament;
 - (iii) all other requisites and facilities supplied for or in connection with a tournament;
 - (b) see to it -
 - (i) that the floor of the ring is kept properly resined at all times during a tournament;
 - (ii) that no time is wasted between contests due to the unpreparedness of boxers and officials taking part in the tournament.

REGULATIONS
Boxing and Wrestling Control Act 11 of 1980

Regulations in Respect of the Regulation and Control of Professional Boxing

23. (1) The announcer shall -
- (a) before the start of the a contest announce -
- [The word “a” between the words “the” and “contest” is superfluous.]
- (i) the names of the contestants and the mass of each;
- (ii) the title at stake (if any);
- (iii) the names of the referee, judges and timekeeper,
- from the inside of the ring in a clearly audible way, preferably by means of a loudspeaker;
- (b) after the end of the contest -
- (i) collect the scoring cards from the judges and hand them over to the referee;
- (ii) announce the result of the contest according to the decision furnished to him by the referee.
- (2) The announcer shall not -
- (a) look at the judges’ scoring cards;
- (b) divulge any information which he has obtained by whatever means concerning the judges’ scoring cards.

Duties of the timekeeper

24. (1) The timekeeper shall take up his seat next to the ring at the side where the gong or bell has been fixed in terms of regulation 14.
- (2) (a) The timekeeper shall indicate the beginning and the end of each round by sounding the gong or ringing the bell.
- (b) Five seconds before the beginning of each round the timekeeper shall give the command “seconds out” and announce the number of the round and in the case of the last round add the command “shake hands”.
- (c) The timekeeper -
- (i) shall take stoppages ordered by the referee properly into account when determining the end of the round;
- (ii) shall not, except in the last round, so indicate the end of the round while the referee is counting.

Duties of the judges

25. (1) The judges shall take up their seats next to different sides of the ring at those sides other than that next to which the timekeeper has to take up his seat.

REGULATIONS
Boxing and Wrestling Control Act 11 of 1980

Regulations in Respect of the Regulation and Control of Professional Boxing

- (2) Every judge shall -
 - (a) individually award points to the boxers in accordance with the provisions of regulation 26;
 - (b) at all times be ready, if consulted by the referee, to assist the referee when the latter has to decide -
 - (i) whether a low blow has been hit;
 - (ii) whether a boxer has committed a foul;
 - (c) at the end of a contest that has lasted the stipulated number of rounds hand his scoring card to the announcer.
- (3) A judge may, between rounds, bring any matter to the attention of the referee.
- (4) Subject to the provisions of this regulation a judge shall not -
 - (a) during the contest converse with any person;
 - (b) criticise in public any decision given by the referee or any other judge;
 - (c) show his scoring card to the public or any member thereof or discuss the same with the public or any member thereof.

Awarding of points

- 26. (1) Points shall be awarded to each boxer during course of each round -
 - (a) in respect of attack, for -
 - (i) direct clean blows with the knuckle part of the closed glove on any part of the target area; and
 - (ii) the effectiveness of the attack;
 - (b) in respect of defence, for -
 - (i) guarding against and blocking of and escaping and ducking away from blows;
 - (ii) counter-attacks; and
 - (iii) in general the able evasion of blows:

Provided that the points so awarded to a boxer in respect of defence shall not exceed the points awarded to him in respect of attack.

- (2) Points shall not be awarded to any boxer for -
 - (a) tapping;

REGULATIONS
Boxing and Wrestling Control Act 11 of 1980

Regulations in Respect of the Regulation and Control of Professional Boxing

(b) blows on any part of the body other than the target area.

(3) Points shall be deducted during the course of each round from each boxer committing a foul which is not so serious that the boxer is disqualified as a result thereof, irrespective of whether the said boxer is warned or not.

(4) At the end of each such round the scoring cards shall be marked by -

- (a) awarding ten points to the boxer who, based on the points awarded in terms of subregulations (1) to (3) has put up the best performance and awarding a proportionate number of points, not exceeding seven, to his opponent: Provided that fractions of a full point shall not be taken into consideration;
- (b) awarding ten points to each boxer if the points awarded in terms of subregulations (1) to (3) indicates that both boxers have put up an equal performance.

Definition of fouls

27. A boxer commits a foul if he -

(a) employes a low blow;

[The word “employes” is misspelt in the Official Gazette, as reproduced above.]

- (b) hits an opponent while he is down or while he is getting up after having been down;
- (c) hits, slaps or knocks his opponent with any part of his hand or arm other than the knuckle part of the closed glove;
- (d) knocks his opponent with his head;
- (e) deliberately hits his opponent on that part of the latter’s body over the kidneys;
- (f) knocks or kicks his opponent with his knee;
- (g) pivots around on one foot, swings his arm with him in a level horizontal motion and on conclusion of that revolution delivers any blow whatsoever to his opponent;
- (h) performs any physical action which, in the opinion of the referee, can injure his opponent;
- (i) gives his opponent a groundward punch with the side of the glove at the back of his neck;
- (j) while holding his opponent with one hand, hits him with the other;
- (k) pins his opponent’s arms or head or holds the same with one or both hands or commits pinning;
- (l) lies on or bores his opponent;

[A better translation for the Afrikaans word “inboor” used in this paragraph in the Afrikaans version of the regulations might be “drills” instead of “bores”.]

REGULATIONS
Boxing and Wrestling Control Act 11 of 1980

Regulations in Respect of the Regulation and Control of Professional Boxing

- (m) does not break in accordance with regulation 21(1) when the referee gives the command “break” in terms of regulation 20(3)(b)(iv);
- (n) holds a rope or ropes with one hand for the purpose of obtaining greater power in order to hit his opponent with the other;
- (o) wrestles with his opponent or commits roughing;
- (p) rests on the ropes during any stoppage in the contest other than between rounds;
- (q) after the referee has given the command “stop,” deliberately deliver or attempts to deliver any blow before the referee has caused the contest to proceed by means of the command “box”;
- (r) during a contest, uses offensive language or behaves offensively in any other way;
- (s) during an attack ducks or bobs below his opponent’s waist line;
- (t) in any way deliberately provokes his opponent to commit a foul;
- (u) refuses or fails to obey any order by the referee other than those specifically referred to in this regulation.

Boxers’ seconds and their duties and powers

28. (1) Each boxer shall be entitled to have not more than three seconds at his corner, one of which shall be appointed as chief second.

(2) All seconds shall be attired in white shirts and white trousers.

(3) The seconds of a boxer may -

- (a) sit or stand at his corner;
- (b) assist and advise him before the start of the contest and between rounds, and not more than two of the said seconds may for this purpose enter the ring itself with the necessary chairs, buckets and other aids provided: Provided that no such second may so enter the ring or place anything in the ring before the bell or gong has indicated the end of any round;
- (c) between rounds administer water and smelling salts and a coagulant approved by the physician referred to in regulation 15, such as a solution of adrenalin (1/1 000) to stop bleeding of minor cuts and lacerations, but no other restorative or stimulant whatsoever.

(4) All seconds shall, at the command “seconds out”, immediately leave the ring and remove therefrom everything that has been placed in the ring.

(5) A second shall not, during the course of a round -

- (a) talk to a boxer; or
- (b) give advice to a boxer; or

- (d) assist a boxer in any other way whatsoever; or
- (e) place any of the aids referred to in subregulation (3)(b) on the floor of the ring.
- (6) The chief second of a boxer referred to in subregulation (1) -
 - (a) shall supervise the behaviour of his fellow seconds;
 - (b) shall under the supervision of the referee tie up the gloves of the boxer concerned to the satisfaction of the referee.
- (7) (a) Only the chief second referred to in subregulation (1) of a boxer may indicate that boxer's retirement from a contest.
- (b) The said retirement shall be so indicated by throwing a towel into the ring and drawing the referee's attention to that.

Liquor at tournaments

29. (1) No person shall sell or be in possession of any intoxicating liquor on any premises on which a boxing tournament is held or bring intoxicating liquor onto any such premises.

(2) No person shall sell or be in possession of any liquor, other than intoxicating liquor, on any premises on which a boxing tournament is held otherwise than in soft plastic containers and no person shall bring any such liquor on any such premises, otherwise than in any such container.

Tournament licence fees

30. (1) Any promoter to whom a licence referred to in regulation 7 has been granted shall pay to the board an amount equal to six per cent of the gross income of the tournament in respect of the granting of the said licence: Provided that the amount so payable shall not exceed the amount of thirty thousand rand.

(2) The promoter referred to in subregulation (1) shall within one month after the date on which the tournament has been held submit to the board a statement in which -

- (a) all income directly or indirectly derived from or in connection with the tournament is set out;
- (b) the numbers of all the admission tickets issued and the entrance fee paid in respect of every such ticket or series of tickets are stated.
- (3) The statement referred to in subregulation (2) shall be accompanied by -
 - (a) all tickets printed for the tournament but not issued;

Boxing and Wrestling Control Act 11 of 1980

Regulations in Respect of the Regulation and Control of Professional Boxing

- (b) the portions referred to in regulation 8(2)(c) that were torn off of all tickets used to gain admission to the premises on which the tournament was held;
- (c) such other evidence and information as the board may require in support of the information of the said statement;
- (d) if required by the board, a statement showing the expenditure incurred in connection with the tournament.

Benevolent fund

31. (1) (a) The board shall have the power to -
- (i) accept donations and contributions;
 - (ii) recover and collect money by way of -
 - (aa) levies in terms of paragraph (b) on the purses that boxers receive as participants in tournaments;
 - (bb) tournaments held or caused to be held by the board or in any other way which the board may deem fit;
- for the benefit of the benevolent fund.
- (b) Any person who is the holder of a certificate of registration as a boxer issued to him under section 7(c) of the Act and as such participates in a tournament shall pay an amount consisting of 1,5% of the purse that he receives as such a participant in a tournament to the board as a levy for the benefit of the benevolent fund.
- (2) The benevolent fund shall in the discretion of the board be used -
- (a) by way of donations, whether monetary or otherwise, loans, allowances, annuities, the provision of medical services by medical practitioners and specialists appointed for the purpose by the board and designated in the particular case, the payment of medical, funeral and such other expenses as the board may deem fit, or in any other manner which the board may deem fit, to render assistance to persons who are the holders of certificates of registration as boxers issued to them under section 7(c) of the Act, or who at any stage were the holders of such certificates, and who are in need, and to the dependants of such persons;
 - (b) to defray costs incurred for or in connection with -
 - (i) recovering or collecting money in terms of subregulation (1)(a)(ii);
 - (ii) the rendering of assistance referred to in paragraph (a);
 - (iii) the administration of the benevolent fund;
 - (c) to pay the premiums of a group insurance policy, effected by the board, providing for payments or other benefits to persons who, while holding certificates of registration as boxers issued to them under section 7(c) of the Act, are injured to such an extent during tournaments approved by the board that as a result thereof they die or become incapacitated to pursue their careers (apart from boxing), and to the dependants of such persons.

(3) The board shall have the power to invest any portion of the benevolent fund not required for immediate use or as a reasonable operating balance in such manner as the board may deem fit.

(4) Assistance referred to in subregulation (2)(a) shall be rendered on such conditions, including, in the case of payment of medical expenses, a condition that use shall be made of the services of such medical practitioner or specialist as the board may appoint for the purpose and designate in the particular case, as the board may determine.

(5) (a) The board shall cause a separate banking account to be opened in respect of the benevolent fund in which all monies received for the benefit of the benevolent fund or accruing to the benevolent fund shall be deposited and from which all payments from the benevolent fund shall be paid.

(b) The board shall cause separate accounts to be opened in the books to be kept by it in terms of section 9(2) of the Act in respect of all receipts and accruals of and payments from the benevolent fund.

(6) Any person desiring assistance referred to in subregulation (2)(a) from the benevolent fund shall apply therefor to the board in writing and shall in such application furnish such details and other information as the board may require.

Penalty

32. Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of these regulations shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand rand or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months.

Board not compelled to furnish reasons

33. The board shall not be compelled to furnish reasons to any persons for any decision given by it under these regulations.

World title contests according to rules of World Boxing Association

34. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these regulations, the rules determined by the World Boxing Association shall apply in relation to all contest for world championship titles under the auspices of the said association.
