REGULATIONS
Labour Act 11 of 2007

Regulations relating to Domestic Workers

Definitions

1. In this Order, a word or an expression to which a meaning has been given in the Act has that meaning and, unless the context otherwise indicates -

“domestic work” means work performed in and for a household;

“domestic worker” means any person engaged in domestic work in an employment relationship, including a child-minder, cook, driver, gardener or housekeeper;

“the Act” means the Labour Act, 2007 (Act No. 11 of 2007);

“the Regulations” means the Regulations Relating to Domestic Workers published in Government Notice No. 257 of 29 September 2017; and

“this Order” means the Wage Order for Setting Minimum Wage and Supplementary Minimum Conditions of Employment for Domestic Workers.

Application of Order

2. This Order -

- (a) applies to all domestic workers, including domestic workers placed with households by a private employment agency contemplated in section 1 of the Employment Services Act, 2011 (Act No. 8 of 2011);
- (b) does not apply to domestic workers covered by any collective agreement in the agricultural sector.

Effect of Order

3. (1) This Order supplements Chapter 3: Basic Conditions of Employment and Chapter 4: Health and Safety Welfare of Employees, in the Act, which are applicable to all employees including domestic workers.

(2) The terms and conditions of employment of the domestic worker must not be less favorable than those set out in this Order and in Chapter 3 of the Act.

(3) Every provision of this Order constitutes a term of any contract of employment of domestic workers, except to the extent that the parties agree to more favourable terms.

Minimum wage

4. (1) With effect from 1 October 2017 the minimum wage for domestic workers, to whom this Order applies, is -

- (a) N$ 1 502.05 per month;
- (b) N$ 346.89 per week;
- (c) N$ 69.37 per day;

REGULATIONS
Labour Act 11 of 2007Regulations relating to Domestic Workers

- (d) N$ 8.67 per hour; and
- (e) N$43.35 per day for part-time domestic workers who work five hours or less in any day other than a Sunday or public holiday.

(2) The minimum overtime pay and minimum pay to be paid to domestic workers for work on Sundays and public holidays are as follows:

- (a) N$13.00 per hour for overtime as contemplated in section 17(2) of the Act;
- (b) N$17.34 per hour for work on Sundays as contemplated in section 21(5) of the Act;
- (c) N$17.34 per hour for work on public holidays as contemplated in section 22(7) of the Act; or
- (d) N$86.70 per day for part-time domestic workers who work five hours or less.

(3) With effect from 1 October 2018, the minimum wage referred to in subparagraph (1) must be increased by one percent plus a percentage equal to the average of the increases in the inflation rates, for the categories “Food and Non-Alcoholic Beverages” and “Housing, Water, Electricity, Gas and other fuels”, published by the Namibia Statistics Agency under the Statistics Act, 2011 (Act No. 9 of 2011) for the preceding 12 months from the effective date.

Duty to pay full monetary remuneration

- 5. An employer of a domestic worker -
 - (a) must pay the domestic worker the full amount of the minimum wage contemplated in paragraph 4, or a higher wage agreed upon minus lawful deductions as contemplated in section 12 of the Act; and
 - (b) may not, pursuant to regulation 3 of the Regulations, deduct from the monetary remuneration contemplated in item (a) the value of in-kind payments or contributions, such as food, clothing or housing.

Transport allowance

6. Where public transport is available, a live-out domestic worker is entitled, in addition to the basic wage contemplated in paragraph 5, to receive a transport allowance for travel to and from work in an amount that is equivalent to the cost of a round-trip public transport for each day of work, unless the employer provides transport.

Accompanying employer on vacation

7. If a domestic worker accompanies his or her employer on vacation for the purposes of rendering services to the household, the time spent rendering those services must be treated as working time and all provisions of the Act and of this Order apply.

Provision of food

8. An employer must, without charge, provide suitable food in reasonable quantity to meet the dietary needs of an employee who is a -

Regulations relating to Domestic Workers

- (a) live-in worker; or
- (b) live-out worker who is entitled to a meal interval contemplated in section 18 of the Act.

Accommodation for live-in domestic workers

9. (1) When a domestic worker is required to live at the place of his or her employment, the employer is obliged to provide living quarters without charge to the domestic worker with the following minimum conditions -

- (a) a lockable room, with -
 - (i) a room key;
 - (ii) good ventilation;
 - (iii) electricity, if available to the household;
 - (iv) a bed and mattress;
 - (v) heat, if such is the prevailing condition in the household; and
- (b) access to clean drinking water, toilet and bathing facilities.

(2) The employee is entitled to receive visitors upon reasonable notice and at reasonable intervals or hours, in consultation with the employer.

Health and safety requirements

- 10. (1) An employer of a domestic worker must, without charge -
- (a) provide to that worker -
 - (i) a uniform; and
 - (ii) appropriate and effective personal protective equipment;
 - (b) replace the uniform and protective equipment contemplated in item (a) at reasonable intervals; and
 - (c) provide to that worker a health and safety induction and that induction must include at a minimum -
 - (i) possible hazards relating to the duties of that worker, including potentially dangerous equipment and toxic substances;
 - (ii) proper use and maintenance of personal protective equipment; and
 - (iii) safe work techniques relating to domestic work.

REGULATIONS
Labour Act 11 of 2007

Regulations relating to Domestic Workers

(2) An employer who hires a domestic worker must comply with all regulations relating to domestic worker made under section 135 of the Act.

[The phrase “relating to domestic worker” should be “relating to domestic workers” (plural).]

Freedom of association and trade union access

11. (1) A domestic worker has a right to be member of a trade union.

[The article “a” should appear before the phrase “member of a trade union”.]

(2) An employer of a domestic worker or a person acting in the capacity of that employer may not unreasonably deny access to the premises of the employer for trade-union related activities as contemplated in section 65 of the Act.

Written contract of employment

12. (1) An employer must, upon hiring a domestic worker -

- (a) enter into a written contract, with the domestic worker, on Form DW1 set out in the Annexure which sets out the terms and conditions of employment; and
- (c) provide to the domestic worker a copy of the contract contemplated in item (a).

[The subparagraphs are mislettered ni the Government Gazette; there is no paragraph (b).]

(2) Before signing the contract contemplated in subparagraph (1), the employer must explain or cause to be explained to the domestic worker, the provisions of the contract in a language that the domestic worker understands.

(3) An employer of a domestic worker must retain copies of the signed contract of employment, contemplated in subparagraph (1) for a period of the most recent five years of employment of the domestic worker by the employer.

Code of conduct

13. Any code of conduct for domestic work issued under section 137(1)(a) of the Act must be taken into account in interpreting and analysing the provisions of this Order.

Review period

14. The Wages Commission must review this Order every two years.

Tax deductions

15. For purposes of deducting tax from the taxable income of a domestic worker pursuant to the Income Tax Act, 1981 (Act No. 24 of 1981), an employer of the domestic worker must register the domestic worker as taxpayer.

GUIDANCE NOTES ON STATUTORY MINIMUM WAGES AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT FOR DOMESTIC WORKERS AND OTHER STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS

The Wage Order for Setting Minimum Wage and Supplementary Minimum Conditions of Employment for Domestic Workers and the Labour Act, 2007 (Act No. 11 of 2007) stipulate the minimum wages and conditions of employment for domestic workers which are summarized below. Reference is made also to compliance with the Social Security Act, 1994 (Act No. 34 of 1994) and the Employees Compensation Act, 1941 (Act No. 30 of 1941).

The parties to the contract are encouraged to negotiate higher wages and more favourable conditions of employment above the minimum wage prescribed but they may not agree to wages and conditions that are less favourable than the minimum wage prescribed.

The employer of the domestic worker is referred to herein as “employer” and the domestic worker as “employee.” A reference to “section” refers to a section of the Labour Act, 2007 whereas reference to “item” refers to a section/item of the Wage Order for Setting Minimum Wage and Supplementary Minimum Conditions of Employment for Domestic Workers, and “regulation” refers to a regulation of the Regulations Relating to Domestic Workers.

1. Ordinary hours of work (section 16) and meal intervals (section 18)

- 1.1 An employee’s ordinary hours of work may not be more than 45 hours in any week.
- 1.2 The maximum daily hours are:
 - a) nine hours on any day if the employee works five days or fewer in a week; or
 - b) eight hours on any day, if the employee works for more than five days in a week.
- 1.3 An employee is entitled to a meal interval of one (1) hour for every five (5) hours of continuous work.
- 1.4 Any work required of the domestic worker during the mandatory meal interval is regarded as overtime worked (section 17).

2. Monetary remuneration and basic wages (section 11 and item 4)

- 2.1 “Basic Wage” means the employees’ minimum wage excluding overtime, night work pay, allowances and bonuses.
- 2.2 Effective 1 April 2015, the minimum wage for domestic worker is:
 - a) N$12 18.00 per month;
 - b) N$281.09 per week;
 - c) N$56.21 per day; or
 - d) N$7.02 per hour.
- 2.3 Effective 1 April 2016, the minimum wage must be increased by 5% plus a percentage equal to the increase in the consumer price index for the preceding 12 months.
- 2.4 If an employee is paid on a basis other than hourly, the basic hourly wage must be determined as follows (section 10):
 - (a) For an employee paid daily - divide the daily rate by the number of ordinary hours of work of each day.

REGULATIONS
Labour Act 11 of 2007

Regulations relating to Domestic Workers

- (b) For an employee paid weekly - divide the weekly rate by the number of ordinary hours of work of each week.
- (c) For an employee paid fortnightly - divide the fortnightly rate by two times the number of ordinary hours of work each week.
- (d) For employees paid monthly - divide the monthly rate by 4,333 times the number of hours ordinary worked each week.

3. Deductions from remuneration (item 5 and regulation 3)

- 3.1 The employer must pay to the employee the full amount of the minimum wage or higher wage agreed upon, minus lawful deductions.
- 3.2 The employer may not deduct from the remuneration of the employee the value of in-kind payments or contributions, such as food, clothing or housing as contemplated in regulation 3.

4. Overtime (Section 17)

- 4.1 Any work performed in addition to the ordinary working days and ordinary working hours shall be treated as overtime.
- 4.2 The employer may not assign overtime work unless the employee agrees on each occasion that the employer requests overtime work.
- 4.3 An employer may not assign or permit an employee to work overtime in excess of three hours per day or a total of ten hours per week.
- 4.4 The employer must pay for overtime work at the hourly rate of:
 - (a) one-half (1.5) times the hourly basic wage for work on Monday through Saturday;
 - (b) Two (2) times the basic hourly wage for work on a Sunday or public holiday that is not part of the employees' normal schedule;
 - (c) As an alternative to (b) an employer may pay an employee one-half (1.5) times the employees' hourly basic wage for each hour of overtime worked, but only if the employer grants the employee an equal period of time away from work and the employee agrees to the arrangement.
- 4.5 The minimum overtime rates are:
 - a) N$ 10.53 per hour for overtime worked on Monday through Saturday; and
 - b) N$14.04 per hour for overtime worked on a non-regularly scheduled Sunday or public holidays.
- 4.6 Where the employee's wage is higher than the minimum overtime must be calculated in accordance with 4.4.

5. Night work (section 19)

An employer must pay to the employee an additional six percent of the hourly basic wage for each hour of work performed between 20h00 and 07h00.

6. Sunday and Public Holiday Work (section 21 and 22)

- 6.1 An employer must pay to an employee ordinarily scheduled to work on Sunday the total amount of daily remuneration plus the hourly basic wage for each hour worked on a Sunday.

REGULATIONS
Labour Act 11 of 2007

Regulations relating to Domestic Workers

6.2 An employer must pay to an employee ordinarily scheduled to work on a public holiday the total amount of daily remuneration plus the hourly basic wage for each hour worked on the public holiday.

7. Transport Allowance (item 6)

Where public transport is available, an employer must pay to a live-out employee a transport allowance for travel to and from work in an amount that is equivalent to the cost of a round-trip transport for each day of work, unless the employer provides transport.

8. Social Security (sections 20 and 21 of the Social Security Act, 1994; sections 68, 69 & 72 of the Employee Compensation Act, 1941)
