ANNEXURE "B": Fees

Definitions

1. In these regulations a word or an expression to which a meaning has been given in the Act has that meaning, and unless the context otherwise indicates-

REGULATIONS
Legal Aid Act 29 of 1990
Legal Aid Regulations

“dependant” means minor child, including a stepchild, legally adopted child, child born of a marriage under customary law, and a child born outside marriage or any such child who is not a minor, but who is not self-supporting by reason of any permanent physical or mental disability and includes, in the case of a person who is a breadwinner, his or her spouse;

“the Act” means the Legal Aid Act, 1990 (Act No. 29 of 1990);

“tribunal” means any board, council, body or other authority referred to in section 22(1) of the Act.

Eligibility for legal aid

2. (1) A person may qualify for legal aid if his or her monthly income, as determined in accordance with the provisions of subregulation (3), does not exceed the amount of N$3 500 but subject to the provisions of subregulation (2).

(2) The Director may use his or her discretion to grant legal aid where the amount mentioned in subregulation (1) is exceeded by an amount of not more than N$1 000 and it is in the interest of justice that the application be granted.

(3) For the purpose of subregulation (1) “income” means the balance of the applicant’s income, from whatever source including any salary, wage, bonus, pension, allowance, value of livestock owned by the applicant or any money received in respect of the applicant’s maintenance, and further includes the value of any movable or immovable property including livestock the applicant owns, and may sell in order to raise funds for his or her case at any period.

(4) For purposes of subregulation (3), income as well as the value of movable and immovable property that the applicant may sell to raise funds for his or her case excludes the items stated in section 16 of the Act and further excludes any amount deducted for any commitment in respect of -

- (a) a compulsory contribution to a pension fund;
- (b) employee’s tax in terms of section 80 of the Income Tax Act, 1981 (Act No. 24 of 1981);
- (c) the maintenance of any other person pursuant to a court order or evidence is produced to the satisfaction of the Director that some form of maintenance is in fact being provided in kind or cash; and
- (d) any financial obligation arising from a bond towards the purchase of a dwelling house.

(5) The income of an applicant’s spouse may not be taken into account for the purpose of determining the applicant’s income in terms of this regulation except where the applicant is married in community of property.

Application for legal aid

3. (1) An application for legal aid subject to the provisions of regulation 4, must be in the form set out in Form 1 of Annexure A, and must be delivered to the Director or to a designated officer at the nearest Magistrates’ Court.

REGULATIONS
Legal Aid Act 29 of 1990
Legal Aid Regulations

(2) The Director may require a legal aid applicant to attend an oral interview for the purpose of -

- (a) clarifying any information contained in the application; or
- (b) obtaining any further information which the Director considers to be relevant in relation to the application.

(3) Where an application has been delivered to a designated officer at the Magistrates' Court, the designated officer must transmit such application to the Director as soon as possible.

Contribution to costs of legal aid

4. (1) Every applicant who is granted legal aid must pay a contribution of N$350.

(2) The Director may waive the contribution referred to in subregulation (1) where the applicant shows that he or she is unable to pay the contribution.

(3) The contribution required to be made towards the costs of legal aid must be paid to the Director within 14 working days from the date on which the Director notifies the person concerned that he or she is required to make such a contribution or within such further period as the Director may allow.

(4) The Director may not issue instructions to a legal practitioner or legal aid counsel to represent a person who has been granted legal aid until such a person has paid his or her contribution, except where a matter is already before court.

(5) The contribution must be paid into the State Revenue Fund and is not refundable, except in a case in which no legal assistance was rendered.

Legal practitioners' fees

5. A practitioner to whom the Director has allocated a matter under section 6 or 12 of the Act is entitled to the appropriate fees set out in Annexure "B" for the services rendered by such practitioner as long as the invoice is accompanied by a detailed report on the status of the legal aid matter being claimed for by such practitioner.

Notice of grant of legal aid

6. When the Director, legal aid counsel, legal assistant or a practitioner represents a legally-aided person in any civil or criminal matter before a court or any proceeding before a tribunal, he or she must file with the court or tribunal where such matter is pending and with the opposing party, a notice in the form set out in Form 2 of Annexure A.

Notice of termination of legal aid

7. If the Director terminates the legal aid granted to a person in any matter or proceedings referred to in regulation 6, the Director, legal aid counsel, legal aid assistant or practitioner to whom such matter was allocated to by the Director must file with the court or tribunal and with the opposing party, a notice in the form set out in Form 3 of Annexure A.
