    - (i) it is done in accordance with the principles and practices of financial management of the registered insurer or reinsurer; and
    - (ii) the valuator is satisfied that it is actuarially sound and that payment of the bonus will not cause the insurer or reinsurer to be in contravention of section 20.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(c)(i), “principles and practices of financial management” means a statement approved by the board of directors of the registered insurer or reinsurer setting out the discretion retained by the board of directors and the parameters within which that discretion must be exercised in respect of policies where the registered insurer or reinsurer has to exercise its discretion in awarding a bonus or similar benefit.

(2) If any money becomes payable to a person who has attained the age of 18 years under a life policy effected by that person on his or her own life, the registered insurer or reinsurer that is liable under the life policy must pay that money to that person, and that person may deal therewith as he or she thinks fit without the consent of his or her guardian.

(3) Any discharge given by a person referred to in subsection (1) to a registered insurer or reinsurer without the consent or assistance of his or her guardian with regard to a payment made in terms of subsection (2), will be of full force and effect.

Life policies: married persons

- (a) may effect and own a life policy;
- (b) may hold and, by way of gift or otherwise, acquire from or dispose of to any person, including a spouse, any right or interest in a life policy;
- (c) becomes the owner of -
  - (i) any moneys paid by a registered insurer or reinsurer in respect of any right or interest held by that person in a life policy or any assets acquired with those moneys; and

Financial Institutions and Markets Act 2 of 2021

- (ii) any moneys or assets acquired in respect of the disposal of any right or interest held by that person in a life policy or any assets acquired with those moneys; and
- (d) may dispose of moneys or assets referred to in paragraph (c) to any person, including a spouse, by way of gift or otherwise, in all respects as if that person were a single person of full age and capacity, and any such policy, right, interest, assets or money may be excluded from any joint estate, whether or not it was effected, acquired or paid before or during the marriage.

Persons married in community of property

33. If a premium paid under a life policy effected by a spouse married in community of property or under a life policy in which that spouse holds any right or interest, was paid out of moneys which belonged to the joint estate of both spouses and the liabilities of both spouses continuously exceeded the value of their assets from the time of the payment of any such premium until their joint estate was sequestrated, the spouse by whom the life policy was effected or by whom the right or interest is held, must pay into the insolvent estate the amount of every such premium in so far as its payment created or increased the excess of liabilities over assets in the joint estate.

Life policy on own life: protection during life

34. (1) A life policy effected by a person on his or her own life which has endured for a period of at least three years from the date of the payment of the first premium and which -

- (b) becomes part of that person's insolvent estate during the lifetime of that person, is, to the extent specified in subsection (2), protected against any creditor of that person and against any claim in connection with the attachment or the insolvency.

(2) The protection afforded in respect of a life policy referred to in subsection (1) extends to so much of the realisable value of the life policy as does not exceed the prescribed amount, except that -

- (a) where there are two or more such life policies, the protection will extend only to the amount determined in accordance with this subsection; and
- (b) where a life policy referred to in that subsection is pledged or ceded as security for any liability, the realisable value of the policy which forms the security for the liability in respect of which the life policy was pledged or ceded, may not be included as part of the amount determined in accordance with this subsection.

(3) Where a life policy is afforded protection in the circumstances contemplated in subsection (1), the policyholder, the judgment creditor or the trustee of the insolvent estate must notify the registered insurer or reinsurer who is liable under that policy in writing of the protection, whereupon the registered insurer or reinsurer must issue an endorsement to the policy to the effect that during the time that the judgment debt remains unsettled or the owner of that policy remains an unrehabilitated insolvent, that policy may be dealt with only with the permission of the judgment creditor or the trustee or, if there is no judgment creditor or trustee, of a court.

- (4) For the purposes of this section -

Financial Institutions and Markets Act 2 of 2021

- (a) a life policy issued by a registered insurer or reinsurer in exchange for or in consideration of the surrender of another life policy under which the registered insurer or reinsurer was previously liable, is deemed to have been effected on the date on which the surrendered life policy was issued, if no payment other than -
- (i) the value of the surrendered life policy; and
  - (ii) any premium or premiums that would have become payable under that policy if it were not surrendered;
- was received by the registered insurer or reinsurer as consideration for the new life policy; and
- (b) a life policy issued by a registered insurer or reinsurer under section 38(3) is deemed to have been effected on the date on which the surrendered life policy for which it is substituted was issued.

Life policy on own life: protection on death

35. (1) If a person has effected a life policy on his or her own life which at the date of that person's death has endured for a period of at least three years from the date of the payment of the first premium, and -

- (a) on the death of that person, and subject to the provisions of subsection (2), his or her liabilities exceed his or her assets, whether or not that person has been declared an insolvent; and
- (b) that person has left a surviving spouse, child or parent, any money payable to the deceased estate of that person under any such life policy must be paid to that estate.

- (2) Money paid to an estate pursuant to subsection (1) -
- (a) must, to the extent that it does not in the aggregate exceed the prescribed amount, devolve upon the surviving spouse, child or parent in accordance with the provisions of a valid testamentary disposition of that person or, if there is no valid testamentary disposition, by right of intestate succession; and
  - (b) is, to the extent that it does not in the aggregate exceed the prescribed amount, not liable to be attached in execution of a judgment or an order of any court at the instance of a judgment creditor of that person or of any other person.

(3) When calculating whether the liabilities of a deceased person exceed his or her assets, any life policy effected by the deceased person on his or her own life and which has endured for a period of at least three years from the date of the payment of the first premium, may not be included as assets of the deceased estate to the extent that the realisable value of such life policy or the aggregate realisable value of all such life policies does not exceed the prescribed amount.

Life policies: spouses and children

- 36. (1) Subsection (3) does apply in the situation where a person -

Financial Institutions and Markets Act 2 of 2021

- (2) The persons referred to in subsection (1)(a) and (b) are the person's -
- (a) intended spouse; or
  - (b) spouse, and additionally or alternatively, child or children, including an unborn child.
- (3) A life policy referred to in subsection (1) or money becoming due under that life policy, subject to the provisions of this section and to the terms and conditions on which the person may have ceded or effected the policy or may have made the nomination -
- (a) is not liable for attachment in execution of a judgment or an order of any court at the instance of a judgment creditor of the person to whom such life policy was ceded or in whose favour it was effected or who has been nominated as beneficiary of the policy;
  - (b) may not become part of the insolvent estate of the person to whom such life policy was ceded or in whose favour it was effected or who has been nominated as beneficiary of the policy, but -
    - (i) the protection afforded in terms of this section may, together with the protection afforded in respect of life policies in terms of any other provision of this Act, not exceed the prescribed amount; and
    - (ii) where the life policy is pledged or ceded as security for any liability, the realisable value of the policy which forms the security for the liability in respect of which the life policy was pledged or ceded, must not be included as part of the amount determined in accordance with subparagraph (i).
- (4) The entitlement to a benefit conferred or purported to be conferred upon an intended spouse, a spouse or child under a life policy in any of the circumstances contemplated in this section is, despite -
- (a) any agreement to the contrary between the registered insurer or reinsurer liable under such policy and the person by whom such policy was effected; or
  - (b) the fact that the intended spouse, spouse or child has not accepted that benefit and is not a party to the life policy, but subject to the terms and conditions on which such policy was ceded or effected or the nomination was made, enforceable against such registered insurer or reinsurer at the instance of the intended spouse, spouse or child or the legal representative of the intended spouse, spouse or child.

Protected life policies: selection for realisation

37. If -

- (a) two or more life policies in respect of which protection is afforded under section 34, 35 or 36, are the property of one person and the life policies are attached in execution of a judgment or an order of any court at the instance of a judgment creditor of the policyholder; or
- (b) the estate of the policyholder of two or more life policies referred to in paragraph (a) is sequestrated, and a part only of the aggregate realisable value of those life policies is so protected, the creditor or the trustee of the insolvent estate of the policyholder may determine which life policy or policies will be realised wholly or partly in order to make available to the creditor or trustee so much of the aggregate realisable value as is not so protected.

Protected life policies: partial realisation

38. (1) A judgment creditor of the holder of a life policy or the trustee of the insolvent estate of that policyholder who is entitled to a part of the realisable value of the life policy may, if the creditor or trustee is in possession of the life policy, deliver that policy to the registered insurer or reinsurer who is liable under the life policy for the purposes of the payment to the creditor or trustee of the amount to which that creditor or trustee is entitled.

(2) If a judgment creditor or trustee referred to in subsection (1) is not in possession of a life policy in respect of which the creditor or trustee is entitled to a part of the realisable value, the holder of the life policy or any other person in possession of the policy must, at the request of the creditor or trustee, deliver the life policy to the registered insurer or reinsurer who is liable under the life policy for the purposes of the payment to that creditor or trustee of the amount to which the creditor or trustee is entitled.

(3) On receipt of a life policy delivered to a registered insurer or reinsurer under subsection (1) or (2), the registered insurer or reinsurer must -

- (a) at the request of the judgment creditor or trustee referred to in subsection (1), pay to that creditor or trustee an amount equal to the part of the realisable value of the life policy to which the creditor or trustee is entitled; and
- (b) pay the remaining part of the realisable value to the holder of the life policy, if at that time the full realisable value of the life policy is less than the full sum insured under that life policy, including any bonus which may have accrued in connection therewith; or
- (c) at the request of such policyholder, issue to the policyholder a new life policy with the same provisions, but for a sum insured equal to the difference between -
  - (i) the full sum insured under the original life policy, including any bonus which may have accrued in connection therewith; and
  - (ii) an amount which bears the same ratio to the full sum insured under the original life policy, including any bonus which may have accrued in connection therewith, as the amount paid by the registered insurer or reinsurer to such creditor or trustee bears at that time to the full realisable value of the original life policy, whereupon the original life policy will lapse.

Life policies ceded or trust policies not kept up

- 39. (1) If a person who -
- (a) has effected or ceded a life policy for the benefit of his or her spouse, and additionally or alternatively of his or her child or children or of any of them; or
  - (b) holds a life policy in trust for any other person and is obliged to pay the premiums under that policy, is or has been unable to pay the premiums, that person may, with the consent of any person who holds or has acquired any right or interest in the life policy or if the last-mentioned person is a minor, with the consent of that minor's guardian or of the Master of the High Court, agree with the registered insurer or reinsurer liable under such policy as set out in subsection (2).

(2) A person referred to in subsection (1) may agree with the registered insurer or reinsurer liable under the policy concerned -

- (a) to convert the life policy into a paid-up life policy of a value determined in accordance with the current tariff of the registered insurer or reinsurer payable, at the time and in the manner specified in the original policy, to the person entitled to the sum insured by the original policy;
- (b) to borrow from the registered insurer or reinsurer upon security of such policy sums of money as may be necessary to keep such policy in force or to revive it; or
- (c) to apply the value of any bonus which may have accrued in connection with the life policy to a temporary or permanent reduction of premiums or to the payment of any premiums which have fallen due.

Life policies ceded or premiums paid with intent to defraud creditors

40. (1) Nothing contained in this Part may be construed as derogating from the power of the High Court to set aside in terms of any law relating to insolvency, a cession of a life policy made with intent to benefit any person at the expense of a creditor of the cedent.

(2) If a premium under a life policy was paid with intent to benefit any person at the expense of a creditor of the person making the payment, the High Court may order the person so benefiting to pay an amount equal to the aggregate of all premiums so paid, with interest on the amount of each premium so paid as from the date of its payment, to the creditor to whose detriment one or more premiums were paid or if the estate of that creditor is sequestrated, to the trustee of the insolvent estate of that creditor.

(3) An order of the High Court contemplated in subsection (2) has the effect of pledging, in security for payment of the amount payable under that order, the life policy in question to the creditor entitled to the payment until the payment is made, and while the life policy is so pledged that creditor may possess the life policy.

“conversion” means a conversion of a collective investment scheme to any other format of a collective investment scheme permissible under this Chapter;

“conversion scheme” means a scheme regulating a conversion and governing the reciprocal rights and obligations of the parties to the conversion; and “qualifying interest”, in relation to a collective investment scheme which is converted, means any participatory interest in such scheme which was issued before the conversion.

(2) A conversion scheme must -

- (a) specify the basis, terms, conditions and cost of the conversion;
- (b) provide for the issue of participatory interests in a collective investment scheme established by the conversion;
- (c) provide for an offer, to persons who immediately before the conversion date were investors with a qualifying interest in the collective investment scheme and to members of the public, to take up participatory interests in the collective investment scheme established by the conversion, except that participatory interests may be offered to members of the public only to the extent to which they are not taken up by persons holding a qualifying interest in the collective investment scheme concerned immediately before the conversion date; and
- (d) provide for payment of the value of the participatory interest of any investor who chooses not to take up a participatory interest in the collective investment scheme established by the conversion or who holds a qualifying interest of a lesser value than the value determined in the conversion scheme as the minimum for a qualifying interest.

Limitations on conversion of collective investment scheme

223. A manager may not convert a collective investment scheme unless -

- (a) the prior approval of NAMFISA to the conversion has been obtained; and

- (b) the conversion has been authorised by a resolution of the investors adopted in accordance with, and in the manner described by the standards.

Application for approval of NAMFISA

224. (1) A manager must apply to NAMFISA in the manner and form provided by the standards, for approval of a conversion before a resolution on the matter is passed by investors.

(2) An application referred to in subsection (1) must be accompanied by the documents required by the standards.

(3) A manager must furnish any additional particulars in connection with the conversion that NAMFISA may require.

Consideration of application

225. (1) NAMFISA may approve an application for a conversion made under section 224, if NAMFISA is satisfied that the application complies with the requirements of subsection (2).

(a) any of the documents referred to in section 224(2) are inconsistent with this Act or contain a provision which, in the opinion of NAMFISA, is undesirable;

(b) the basis or conditions on which a participatory interest in the proposed collective investment scheme is offered only to investors or to investors and members of the public referred to in section 222(2)(c) are not reasonable or fair or might have the effect that a participatory interest in the proposed scheme may be acquired contrary to this Act or any other law; or

(c) the application does not comply with a requirement of this Act or any other law.

(3) For the purposes of considering the basis or conditions on which a participatory interest in any proposed collective investment scheme is offered to investors or to investors and members of the public, NAMFISA may, after consultation with the manager, designate a person to investigate and advise NAMFISA on the reasonableness and fairness of the proposed basis and conditions.

(4) The costs of an investigation under subsection (3) must be borne by the manager.

(5) NAMFISA may not refuse an application made under section 224 without having afforded the manager a reasonable opportunity to amend the relevant documents in accordance with NAMFISA's requirements.

Resolution by investors

226. (1) As soon as NAMFISA has approved a conversion, the manager must obtain a resolution passed by investors authorising the conversion.

(2) If the investors pass a resolution authorising the conversion, NAMFISA must, at the request of the manager, issue a certificate to the manager confirming NAMFISA's approval of the conversion.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1) it must be presumed that holders of a majority in value of participatory interest certificates in an original scheme or portfolio have given their consent to the proposed conversion, unless the holders of a majority in value of participatory interest certificates in such scheme or portfolio have notified the manager in writing on or before a date determined by NAMFISA that they refuse their consent to the proposed conversion and such refusal has been disclosed by the manager to all investors.

Registration of memorandum and articles by Registrar of Companies

227. (1) If a collective investment scheme that is not a company is to be converted into a collective investment scheme that is a company, that new company must be incorporated under the Companies Act with its memorandum and articles complying with that Act, and subject to the requirements of that Act and any requirement of NAMFISA, the conversion is deemed to have taken place upon the registration of the memorandum and articles under that Act.

(2) The Registrar of Companies may not register the memorandum and articles of a company pursuant to subsection (1) unless the application for registration is accompanied by a certificate issued under section 226(2).

(3) For the purposes of the registration of the memorandum and articles, the persons designated to act as the first directors of the company after the conversion must, if they accept their appointment as the first directors, sign the memorandum and articles as if they were the subscribers of such company under section 61(2) of the Companies Act.

Certificate of registration of conversion and notification

228. (1) Within 14 days after the conversion date, the manager must forward four certified copies of its deed to NAMFISA and NAMFISA must issue the manager with a certificate of registration as a manager of the converted collective investment scheme upon payment of the registration fee set out in the standards.

- (b) if applicable, the persons who immediately before the conversion were directors of the manager must vacate their offices and the persons referred to in section 227(3) become the directors of the manager of the converted collective investment scheme;
- (c) the investors holding a qualifying interest become investors in the converted collective investment scheme; and
- (d) all participatory interests issued by the former collective investment scheme and which were not repurchased or cancelled before the conversion become participatory interests in the converted collective investment scheme.

(2) Except in so far as this section provides otherwise, a conversion does not derogate from the obligations of the collective investment scheme or the rights of any creditor of the collective investment scheme before the conversion.

Issue of participatory interests to former investors

230. (1) An offer to investors holding a qualifying interest to take up a participatory interest in a collective investment scheme established by a conversion under this Part must be made in writing to each individual investor, and such offer must be accompanied by a statement issued by the manager and must contain particulars in connection with -

- (a) the offer, the conversion and the converted collective investment scheme's potential profit;
- (b) the scheme's business prospects;
- (c) the scheme's general state of affairs; and
- (d) such other affairs of the scheme as NAMFISA may require.

(2) The provisions of the Companies Act with respect to the issue of a prospectus or an offer of shares do not apply to an offer referred to in subsection (1).

(3) On a request by an investor holding a qualifying interest made in writing to a manager, other than a manager of a collective investment scheme in property, to apply the proceeds of such interest for the payment of a participatory interest in a converted collective investment scheme -

- (a) such qualifying interest may be redeemed immediately despite the conditions attached to it; and
- (b) such proceeds may be applied for the payment of such participatory interest.

NAMFISA may direct that such consent be dispensed with.

(4) Subject to subsection (3), the parties to a deed which immediately prior to the date of commencement of this Chapter was a deed pursuant to any law repealed by this Act, must within 12 months from the date of commencement of this Chapter amend, supplement or replace the deed in order to comply fully with the requirements of this Chapter.

Postponement of realisation of assets on winding-up

243. (1) If it appears to NAMFISA that it would be in the interests of investors to continue a collective investment scheme for a period of time, NAMFISA may, with the approval of the court which has issued an order for the winding-up of the collective investment scheme under Part 7 of Chapter 10, issue a directive to the manager and trustee or custodian of the collective investment scheme or to the manager or operator of a foreign collective investment scheme referred to in section 219 -

(2) Funds deposited into an operational trust account referred to in subsection (1) may only be withdrawn for the purposes of making payment -

- (a) to the investor, person or manager entitled to such payment; or
- (b) pursuant to this Act, any other law and the deed, except that if subsequent to such withdrawal any deposited draft or other instrument of payment against which such withdrawal was made is not honoured, the manager must immediately pay the shortfall arising from such default into the operational trust account or cancel any participatory interest issued in respect of such defaulting payment.

(3) Any excess remaining in the operational trust account after payment of or provision for all claims of investors whose funds have or should have been deposited in such account is not trust property as determined in section 193.

(4) The court may on application by NAMFISA or by any other person having a financial interest in or claim against an operational trust account, on good cause shown, prohibit the manager from operating the account in any way and may appoint a person to control and administer such account with such duties and powers in relation to the account as the court may consider fit.
