- (2) (a) Every holder of a participation secured by a participation bond shall, unless it is otherwise provided in the rules of the scheme in which the bond is included, be entitled to enforce against the mortgagor his rights under such participation as soon as it has been granted to him, in the same manner as if the bond were registered in his name as mortgagee.
- (b) Such a holder shall not be entitled to enforce his right to repayment of the principal debt secured by the bond unless -
 - (i) the mortgagor fails to comply with the conditions of the bond; or
 - (ii) subject to the terms and conditions of the bond, he, together with any other such holders who, together with him, hold a majority in value of the participations in the bond, instructs the manager in writing to recover from the mortgagor such portion of the principal debt as is necessary to repay in full his participation and the participations of such other holders or, such an instruction having been given, the manager fails to comply therewith within six months of the date of receipt thereof: Provided that in a case where the right to such repayment was acquired on or after 28 June 1972, a holder shall not be entitled to take part in so instructing the manager before the period of five years in question referred to in paragraph (b)(ii) of the proviso to section 3(1) or in section 3(3)(d), as the case may be, has elapsed.

Participation Bonds Act 55 of 1981 (RSA)

(3) Where it is provided in the rules of the scheme in which a participation bond is included that the nominee company shall be entitled to bring any proceedings in respect of that bond in its own name, the nominee company shall, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), be entitled in such proceedings to recover any amount owing by the mortgagor in terms of the bond.

(4) Any money recovered by the nominee company from the mortgagor in any proceedings referred to in subsection (3) shall be the property of the participants proportionately to the extent of their participations, and the participants shall be obliged to refund to the nominee company pro rata any of the costs of such proceedings that may not be recovered by the nominee company from the mortgagor.

(5) The rights of a participant in a particular participation bond shall be limited to his rights in respect of such bond and any collateral security relating thereto and shall not extend to other property or securities registered in the name of, or to any other assets of, the nominee company.

(6) A participant shall have the right to transfer, cede or encumber his rights in a participation bond without the consent of the mortgagor, provided -

- (a) he has obtained the prior written consent of the manager to such transfer, cession or encumbrance; and
- (b) in the case of any such transfer or cession -
 - (i) he acquired his rights in such participation bond before 28 June 1972; or
 - (ii) where he acquired his rights in such participation bond on or after 28 June 1972, the amount of money which is due to him in terms of the participation by which the said rights are conferred, had been invested in his name in the scheme up to the date of transfer or cession and for a continuous period of not less than five years; or
 - (iii) the registrar approves such transfer or cession.

8. A nominee company shall not transfer, cede or in any way encumber any rights under a participation bond without the written consent of the registrar.

Amalgamation of nominee companies, and cession or transfer of participation bonds

9. (1) Two or more nominee companies shall not amalgamate, nor shall any rights of any such company under any participation bond registered in its name be ceded or transferred to or taken over by any other nominee company, except with the prior written consent of and on the conditions prescribed by the registrar, and no such consent shall be given by the registrar unless he is satisfied that the transaction in question will not be detrimental to the participants in the bond in question.

Participation Bonds Act 55 of 1981 (RSA)

- (2) Upon the coming into effect of a transaction referred to in subsection (1) -
- (a) in the case of an amalgamation, all the rights and obligations of an amalgamating nominee company in terms of the participation bonds registered in its name, or, in the case of a cession or transfer of rights in terms of any participation bond, all the rights and obligations of the nominee company by which the cession or transfer is given, shall vest in and become binding upon the new nominee company or, as the case may be, the nominee company taking over such rights and obligations in terms of such bonds;
 - (b) in the case of an amalgamation, the new nominee company or, in the case of a cession or transfer of rights and obligations in terms of any participation bonds, the nominee company taking over such rights and obligations shall have the same rights and be subject to the same obligations as were immediately before the amalgamation, cession or transfer vested in or binding upon the amalgamating nominee companies or, as the case may be, the nominee company by which such cession or transfer has been effected;
 - (c) all agreements, transactions and documents made, entered into, drawn up or executed in respect of a scheme by, with or in favour of an amalgamating nominee company or, as the case may be, the nominee company by which the cession or transfer has been given, and in force immediately prior to the amalgamation, cession or transfer, shall remain of full force and effect and shall be construed for all purposes as if they had been made, entered into, drawn up or executed by, with or in favour of the new nominee company or, as the case may be, the nominee company taking over the rights under the participation bond.

- (3) The provisions of subsection (2) shall apply mutatis mutandis to -
- (a) any collateral security which was accepted by a manager for a debt secured in terms of a participation bond registered in the name of an amalgamating nominee company or, as the case may be, in the name of the nominee company ceding or transferring its rights in terms of a participation bond and which was in force immediately prior to the amalgamation, cession or transfer;
 - (b) any cash which immediately prior to the amalgamation, cession or transfer was held on deposit in terms of section 10(5) in the name of an amalgamating nominee company or, as the case may be, in the name of the nominee company ceding or transferring its rights in terms of a participation bond; and
 - (c) the agreement referred to in paragraph (c) of the definition of nominee company in section 1.

(4) The officer in charge of a deeds registry in which is registered any participation bond in favour of any nominee company which has amalgamated with any other nominee company or, as the case may be, has ceded or transferred all its rights in terms of that participation bond to any other nominee company shall, upon production of the written consent of the registrar to the registration of the amalgamation, cession or transfer, and upon production to him by the nominee company concerned of such bond, and without payment of stamp duty or registration fees or charges, make such endorsements upon such bond and such entries in his registers as are necessary to record the cession or transfer thereof and of any rights thereunder to the new nominee company or, as the case may be, the nominee company which has so taken over the said rights.

Participation Bonds Act 55 of 1981 (RSA)

(5) An amalgamation of nominee companies or a cession or transfer of rights under a participation bond in terms of this section shall not affect the rights of a participant in a participation bond registered in the name of any of the nominee companies concerned, or alter the conditions on which a participation was granted: Provided that nothing in this subsection contained shall prohibit a manager from altering the rules of the scheme, as applicable to any particular participation bond, with the consent in writing of all the participants therein and of the registrar.

Rules of scheme

10. (1) A manager shall frame rules for governing the operation of the scheme managed by it or him, which rules shall be subject to the approval of the registrar.

(2) The rules referred to in subsection (1) shall be deemed to include any conditions imposed by the registrar under section 37(2)(a) of the Unit Trusts Control Act, 1981 (Act No. 54 of 1981), in relation to the scheme, as well as any other conditions the registrar may from time to time impose in relation to the scheme for the purposes of this Act, and shall include -

- (c) any agreement entered into between the nominee company and its manager in relation to the scheme.

[subsection (2) amended by Act 51 of 1988]

(3) The rules of the scheme may provide that the manager may exercise through the nominee company on behalf of the participants any of the rights of the participants which are specified in such rules and, without affecting the generality of the foregoing, such rules may provide in particular that the manager may without the consent of the participants procure that the nominee company on behalf of the participants in any particular bond shall -

- (a) grant any consent in any case where the consent of a mortgagee, a legal holder of a bond or a holder of a bond is required in terms of the Deeds Registries Act, 1937 (Act No. 47 of 1937);

Participation Bonds Act 55 of 1981 (RSA)

(4) The rules of the scheme may provide that the manager shall not be obliged to distribute any payments made in reduction of the principal debt by the mortgagor under the bond among the participants proportionately to the extent of their participations, but may repay to any one or more of the participants the whole or a part of his or their participations without making any payment or any equivalent payment to any one or more of the other participants.

(5) The rules of the scheme shall provide that money accepted by the manager in terms of section 3(1) or money received by the manager in consequence of an offer made by it or him in terms of section 3(2) or money paid to the manager in reduction of the principal debt owing under a participation bond shall be deposited by the manager in the name of the nominee company on behalf of the investor with a banking institution registered otherwise than provisionally in terms of the Banks Act, 1965 (Act No. 23 of 1965), and that such money shall remain so deposited until the investor is granted a participation in a participation bond included in the scheme or until the money is repaid to the investor.

[The Banks Act 23 of 1965 has been replaced by the Banking Institutions Act 2 of 1998.]

(6) The rules of the scheme as applicable to any particular participation bond may not be altered without the consent in writing of all the participants therein and the manager: Provided that if the registrar is satisfied that an alteration of such rules will not prejudice the interests of participants and does not alter a fundamental provision of such rules and does not operate to release the manager or the nominee company or the mortgagor from any responsibility to participants, or that the alteration is necessary to enable such rules to comply with the provisions of this Act, he may direct that such consent be dispensed with.

Collateral security in respect of participation bonds

11. (2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law contained, a contract of suretyship relating to a debt secured by any participation bond or securing the due performance by the mortgagor of his obligations under such a bond or securing the due performance by a surety of his obligations under a contract relating to such debt or to the obligations of the mortgagor and drawn and executed in favour of a nominee company, shall be as valid and enforceable by the nominee company in its own name against the surety on behalf of participants in the bond concerned, as if the contract had been drawn and executed in favour of every participant from time to time in the bond.

(3) The provisions of sections 2(2), 6, 7, 8, 9(1) and 10(3) shall apply mutatis mutandis, in so far as such provisions can be applied, with reference to and in respect of any collateral security accepted by a nominee company for any of the purposes set forth in subsection (1), and in the application thereof a reference therein to a participation bond or bond shall be construed as a reference to a participation bond and collateral security, and a reference to a mortgagor as a reference to a mortgagor and the grantor of collateral security.

Participation Bonds Act 55 of 1981 (RSA)

(4) The provisions of this section shall apply mutatis mutandis with reference to any collateral security accepted before 21 June 1978 by the nominee company or the manager for any of the purposes referred to in subsection (1) and in respect of which the contract or arrangement or other document containing the terms and conditions thereof was of full force and effect at that date.

(ii) in every other instance, within six months of the annual closing of the books of account; and
