Publications Act 42 of 1974 (RSA)

(RSA GG 4426)
brought into force in South Africa and South West Africa as follows (see section 46 of the Act):
* sections 1-14, 16-24, 26-27, 29-32 and 34-53 were brought into force on 1 April 1975 by RSA Proc. R.74/1975 (RSA GG 4617);
* sections 15 and 33 were brought into force on 1 September 1975 by RSA Proc. R.187/1975 (RSA GG 4815);
* sections 25 and 28 were brought into force on 1 October 1975 by RSA Proc. 229/1975 (RSA GG 4855)

APPLICABILITY TO SOUTH WEST AFRICA: Section 46 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” Section 47 defines “Republic” to include “the territory of South West Africa”.

TRANSFER TO SOUTH WEST AFRICA: The Act was under the authority of “the Minister to whom the administration of this Act is from time to time assigned” rather than under any particular government department (section 47). Section 3(2) of the Executive Powers (Interior) Transfer Proclamation AG 17 of 1978, specifically exempted the Act from the operation of section 3(1) of Executive Powers Transfer (General Provisions) Proclamation, AG 7 of 1977, meaning that the administration of the Act was not transferred to South West Africa by that transfer proclamation.

Certain powers under the Act were transferred to the Administrator-General by the Publications Proclamation, AG 43 of 1978 (OG 3776). However, this Proclamation did not seem to function as a transfer proclamation. Under section 2 of AG 43 of 1978, the Administrator-General was given the power to amend, set aside or substitute any decision made by any committee referred to in the principal Act, by the Publications Appeal Board, or by the Directorate of Publications. However, these bodies were still in a position to make decisions which were applicable to South West Africa if the Administrator-General did not intervene.

as amended by

brought into force on 1 August 1998 by GN 186/1998 (GG 1918)

The Publications Proclamation, AG 43 of 1978 (OG 3776), which came into force on its date of publication, 3 July 197, does not amend the Act but it supplements it by giving the Administrator-General of South West Africa certain powers in respect of its administration. The substantive provisions of this Proclamation are as follows:

"Interpretation
