BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of Namibia, as follows:-

Definitions

1. In this Act, unless the context indicates otherwise –

“bank” means any person carrying on a banking business as defined in the Banks Act, 1965 (Act 23 of 1965);

“court” means the High Court, and includes, for the purposes of section 10 and 11, a judge in chambers and, for the purposes of section 10, a magistrate’s court which has jurisdiction in the matter concerned;

“building society” means any person carrying on business as a building society as defined in the Building Societies Act, 1986 (Act 2 of 1986);

“joint estate” means the estate of a husband and wife married in community of property.

PART I ABOLITION OF MARITAL POWER

Abolition of marital power

2. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act with regard to the administration of a joint estate –

- (a) the common law rule in terms of which a husband acquires the marital power over the person and property of his wife is hereby repealed; and
- (b) the marital power which any husband had over the person and property of his wife immediately before the commencement of this Act, is hereby abolished.

(2) The abolition of the marital power by paragraph (b) of subsection (1) shall not affect the legal consequences of any act done or omission or fact existing before such abolition.

Effect of abolition of marital power

3. Subject to this Act, the effect of section 2(1) is –

- (a) to remove the restrictions which the marital power places on the legal capacity of a wife to contract and litigate, including, but not limited to, the restrictions on her capacity --
 - (i) to register immovable property in her name;
 - (ii) to act as an executrix of a deceased estate;
 - (iii) to act as a trustee of an insolvent estate;
 - (iv) to act as a director of a company; and
 - (v) to bind herself as surety; and

- (b) that the common law position of the husband as head of the family is abolished, provided that nothing herein shall be construed to prevent a husband and wife from agreeing between themselves to assign to one of them, or both, any particular role or responsibility within the family.

PART II
PROVISIONS REGARDING MARRIAGES IN COMMUNITY OF PROPERTY

Application of this Part

4. The provisions of this Part shall apply to every marriage in community of property, irrespective of the date on which such marriage was entered into.

Equal powers of spouses married in community of property

5. Subject to this Part, a husband and wife married in community of property have equal capacity –
- (a) to dispose of the assets of the joint estate;
 - (b) to contract debts for which the joint estate is liable; and
 - (c) to administer the joint estate.

Spouse's juristic acts generally not subject to other spouse's consent

6. Subject to section 7, a spouse married in community of property may perform any juristic act with regard to the joint estate without the consent of the other spouse.

Acts requiring other spouse's consent

7. (1) Except in so far as permitted by subsection (4) and (5), and subject to sections 10 and 11, a spouse married in community of property shall not without the consent of the other spouse –

- (a) alienate, mortgage, burden with a servitude or confer any other real right in any immovable property forming part of the joint estate;
- (b) enter into any contract for the alienation, mortgaging, burdening with a servitude or conferring of any other real right in immovable property forming part of the joint estate;
- (c) alienate, cede, or pledge any shares, stocks, debentures, debenture bonds, insurance policies, mortgage bonds, fixed deposits or similar assets, or any investment by or on behalf of the other spouse in a financial institution, forming part of the joint estate;
- (d) alienate or pledge any jewellery, coins, stamps, paintings, livestock, or any other assets forming part of the joint estate and held mainly as investments;
- (e) alienate, pledge, or otherwise burden any furniture or other effects of the common household forming part of the joint estate;
- (f) as a credit receiver enter into a credit agreement as defined in the Credit Agreements Act, 1980 (Act 75 of 1980), and to which the provisions of that Act apply in terms of section 2 thereof;
- (g) as a purchaser enter into a contract as defined in the Sale of Land on Instalments Act, 1971 (Act 72 of 1971), and to which the provisions of that Act apply;
- (h) bind himself or herself as surety;
- (i) receive any money due or accruing to that other spouse or the joint estate by way of –

- (i) remuneration, earnings, bonus, allowance, royalty, pension or gratuity by virtue of the other spouse's employment, profession, trade, business, or services rendered by him or her;
- (ii) compensation for loss of any income contemplated in sub-paragraph (i);
- (iii) inheritance, legacy, donation, bursary or prize left, bequeathed, made or awarded to the other spouse;
- (iv) income derived from the separate property of the other spouse;
- (v) dividends or interest on or the proceeds of shares or investments in the name of the other spouse; or
- (vi) the proceeds of any insurance policy or annuity in favour of the other spouse; or
- (j) donate to another person any asset of the joint estate or alienate such an asset without value, excluding an asset of which the donation or alienation does not and probably will not unreasonably prejudice the interest of the other spouse in the joint estate, and which is not contrary to any of the provisions of paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e).

(2) The consent required under subsection (1) for the performance of an act contemplated in that subsection may be given either orally or in writing, but the consent required for the performance of –

- (a) any such act which entails the registration, execution, or attestation of a deed or other document in a deed registry; or
- (b) an act contemplated in paragraph (h) of that subsection, shall, in respect of each separate performance of such act, be given in writing only.

(3) The consent required for the performance of any act contemplated in paragraphs (b) to (j) of subsection (1), except where it is required for the registration, execution, or attestation of a deed or other document in a deeds registry, may also be given by way of ratification within a reasonable time after the performance of the act concerned.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (1)(c), a spouse married in community of property may without the consent of the other spouse –

- (a) sell listed securities on a stock exchange and cede or pledge listed securities in order to buy other listed securities; or
- (b) alienate, cede, or pledge –
 - (i) a deposit held in his or her name at a building society or bank; or
 - (ii) building society shares registered in his or her name.

(5) A spouse married in community of property may, in the ordinary course of his or her profession, trade, occupation, or business perform any of the acts referred to in paragraphs (b), (c), (f) and (g) of subsection (1), without the consent of the other spouse as required by that subsection.

(6) In determining whether a donation or alienation contemplated in subsection (1)(j) does or probably will unreasonably prejudice the interest of the other spouse in the joint estate, the court shall have regard to the value of the property donated or alienated, the reason for the donation or alienation, the financial and social standing of the spouses, their standard of living and any other factor which in the opinion of the court should be taken into account.

Consequences of act performed without required consent

8. (1) If a spouse married in community of property enters into a transaction with another person without the consent required by the provisions of section 7, or without leave granted by a competent court in terms of section 10 or contrary to an order of a court in terms of section 11, and –

- (a) that other person does not know and cannot reasonably know that the transaction is being entered into without such consent or leave or in contravention of that order, as the case may be, such transaction shall be deemed to have been entered into with the required consent or leave or while the power concerned of the spouse has not been suspended, as the case may be;
- (b) that spouse knows or ought reasonably to know that he or she will probably not obtain such consent or leave or that the power concerned has been suspended, as the case may be, and the joint estate suffers a loss as a result of that transaction, an adjustment shall effected in favour of the other spouse –
 - (i) upon division of the joint estate; or
 - (ii) upon demand of the other spouse at any time during the subsistence of the marriage.

(2) In determining for the purposes of subsection (1)(b) whether or not a joint estate has suffered any loss as a result of the alienation of any property, regard shall be had not only to the economic value of the property in question but also to any sentimental replacement value which, at the time of alienation of that property, such property had to the spouse without whose consent the property was alienated.

(3) Where the amount of a loss determined for the purpose of subsection (1)(b) consists of, or includes, an amount representing –

- (a) the sentimental replacement value of any property as contemplated in subsection (2); or
- (b) the value of any asset being a personal effect of the spouse without whose consent such asset was alienated, the amount representing that value shall upon the making of an adjustment be allocated in full for the benefit of the spouse without whose consent the property in question was alienated, and no deduction shall be allowed in respect of the other spouse by virtue of his or her interest in the joint estate.

(4) Where pursuant to a demand of a spouse in terms of subsection (1)(b)(ii) for an adjustment during the subsistence of a marriage an amount is determined to be payable to that spouse in settlement of such adjustment, the amount in question shall be recovered from the separate property, if any, of the other spouse, and only in so far as such other spouse has no separate property, from the joint estate: Provided that where an amount is recovered from the joint estate, there shall, upon a subsequent division of the joint estate, be allocated to the spouse to whom the payment was made, and as a first charge against the value of the assets available for distribution, such an amount as that spouse may have contributed to the said adjustment by virtue of his or her interest in the joint estate.

(5) Any amount paid or asset transferred to a spouse during the subsistence of the marriage in settlement of an adjustment demanded by that spouse in terms of subsection (1)(b)(ii), and any proceeds derived therefrom, shall be the separate property of such spouse, but in the event of the sequestration of the joint estate such property and proceeds shall vest in the trustee of that insolvent estate as if the adjustment in question had not been effected.

(6) For the purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection (1), if it is proved in any civil proceedings that a spouse entered into a transaction without the consent required in terms of section 7(1), or leave granted in terms of section 10, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that he or she knew that he or she would probably not obtain the consent or leave in question.

Litigation by or against spouses

9. (1) A spouse married in community of property shall not without the written consent of the other spouse institute legal proceedings against another person or defend legal proceedings instituted by another person, except legal proceedings –

- (a) in respect of his or her separate property;
- (b) for the recovery of damages, other than damages for patrimonial loss, by reason of the commission of a delict against his or her person;
- (c) in respect of a matter relating to his or her profession, trade, occupation, or business.

(2) A party to legal proceedings instituted or defended by spouse may not challenge the validity of the proceedings on the ground of want of the consent required in terms of subsection (1).

(3) If costs are awarded against a spouse in legal proceedings instituted or defended by him or her without the consent required in terms of subsection (1), the court may, with due regard to the interest of the other spouse in the joint estate and the reason for the want of consent, order that those costs be recovered from the separate property, if any, of the first-mentioned spouse and, in so far as those costs cannot be recovered, that they be recovered from the joint estate, in which case the court may order that upon the division of the joint estate and adjustment shall be effected in favour of the other spouse.

(4) (a) An application for the surrender of a joint estate shall be made by both spouses.

(b) An application for the sequestration of a joint estate shall be made against both spouses: Provided that no application for the sequestration of the estate of a debtor shall be dismissed on the ground that such debtor's estate is a joint estate if the application satisfies the court that despite reasonable steps taken by him or her he or she was unable to establish whether the debtor is married in community of property or the name and address of the spouse of the debtor.

(5) Where a debt is recoverable from a joint estate, the spouse who incurred the debt or both spouses jointly may be sued therefor, and where a debt has been incurred for necessaries for the joint household, the spouses may be sued jointly or severally therefor.

Power of court to dispense with spouse's consent with regard to specific juristic act.

10. If a spouse married in community of property withholds the consent required in terms of section 7 or 9 or if that consent cannot for any other reason be obtained, a court may on the application of the other spouse give that spouse leave to perform the act in question without the required consent if the court is satisfied, in the case where the consent is withheld, that such withholding is unreasonable or, in any other case, that there is good reason to dispense with the consent.

Power of court to suspend powers of spouse

11. A court may, on the application of a spouse, if it is satisfied that it is essential for the protection of the interest of that spouse in the joint estate, suspend for a definite or indefinite period any power that the other spouse may exercise in terms of this Part, either in general or in relation to a particular act as the court may specify in its order.

PART III PROVISIONS REGARDING DOMICILE OF MARRIED WOMEN AND DOMICILE AND GUARDIANSHIP OF MINOR CHILDREN

Domicile of married women

12. The domicile of a married woman shall not –

- (a) by virtue only of the marriage; or

- (b) where applicable, by virtue only of the provisions of Article 41 of the Schedule to the Recognition of Certain Marriages Act, 1991 (Act 18 of 1991), be considered to be the same as that of her husband, but shall be ascertained by reference to the same factors as apply in the case of any other individual capable of acquiring a domicile of choice.

Domicile of minor children

13. (1) (a) The domicile of a child shall be the place with which that child is most closely connected.

- (b) If, in the normal course of events, a child resides with his or her parents or with one of them, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is shown, that such child's domicile is where he or she so resides.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) –

“child” means any person under the age of 18 years, excluding such a person who by law has attained the status of a major; and

“parents” includes the adoptive parents of a child and the parents of a child who are not married to each other.

Guardianship of minor children of a marriage

14. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law or the common law, but subject to any order of a competent court with regard to sole guardianship of a minor child or to any right, power, or duty which any other person has or does not have in respect of a minor child, the father and the mother shall have equal guardianship over a minor child, including an adopted child, of their marriage, and such guardianship shall, subject to subsection (2), with respect to rights, powers and duties be equal to the guardianship which every guardian immediately before the commencement of this Act had under the common law in respect of his or her minor children.

(2) Where both the father and the mother have guardianship of a minor child, each one of them is competent, subject to any order of a competent court to the contrary, to exercise independently and without the consent of the other any right or power or to carry out any duty arising from such guardianship: Provided that, unless a competent court orders otherwise, the consent of both parents shall be necessary in respect of –

- (a) the contracting of a marriage by the minor child;
- (b) the adoption of the minor child;
- (c) the removal of the minor child from Namibia by either of the parents or any other person;
- (d) the application for the inclusion of the name of the minor child in the passport issued or to be issued to any one of the parents;
- (e) the alienation or encumbrance of immovable property or any right to immovable property vesting in the minor child.

PART IV

PROVISIONS REGARDING MARRIAGES OUT OF COMMUNITY OF PROPERTY

Liability of spouses married out of community of property for household necessities

15. (1) Spouses married out of community of property are jointly and severally liable to third parties for all debts incurred by either of them in respect of necessities for the joint household.

(2) Unless the parties agree otherwise, a spouse married out of community of property before or after the commencement of this Act is liable to contribute to necessities for the joint household pro rata according to his or her financial means, and, in the case of a marriage subsisting at the commencement of this Act, a spouse shall, notwithstanding the provisions of section 3 of the Matrimonial Affairs Ordinance, 1955 (Ordinance 25 of 1955) which were in force immediately before the commencement of this Act, be deemed to have been so liable as from the beginning of such marriage.

(3) A spouse married out of community of property has a right of recourse against the other spouse in so far as he or she has contributed more in respect of necessaries for the joint household than for which he or she is liable in terms of subsection (2), and, in the case of a marriage subsisting at the date of commencement of this Act, such right of recourse is enforceable also with respect to the period of the marriage before the commencement of this Act, but without prejudice to the provisions of subsection (4).

(4) In any action commenced by the issue of process on or before the date of commencement of this Act, a claim based on the right of recourse conferred by the proviso to section 3 of the Matrimonial Affairs Ordinance, 1955, shall, notwithstanding the repeal of that section by this Act, not be affected by any provision of this section, and such claim shall be justifiable as if this Act had not been passed.

(5) This section shall not be construed as conferring on the husband a right to reclaim anything that he had already paid at the date of commencement of this Act in satisfaction of a right of recourse exercised by his wife by virtue of section 3 of the Matrimonial Affairs Ordinance, 1955, before the repeal of that Ordinance by this Act.

PART V MISCELLANEOUS AND AMENDMENT OF CERTAIN LAWS

Provisions not applicable to marriages by customary law

16. The provisions –

- (a) regarding the abolition of the marital power and the consequences of that abolition as set out in Part I;
- (b) regarding marriages in community of property as set out in Part II; and
- (c) regarding marriages out of community of property as set out in Part IV, do not apply to marriages by customary law.

Amendment of section 1 of Matrimonial Causes Jurisdiction Act, 1939, as amended by section 6 of Act 37 of 1953 and section 21 of Act 70 of 1968

17. The following section is hereby substituted for section 1 of the Matrimonial Causes Jurisdiction Act, 1939:

“Jurisdiction

1. (1) A court shall have jurisdiction in a divorce action if the parties are or either of the parties is

- (a) domiciled in the area of jurisdiction of the court on the date on which the action is instituted; or
- (b) ordinarily resident in the area of jurisdiction of the court on the said date and have or has been ordinarily resident in Namibia for a period of not less than one year immediately prior to that date.

(2) A court which has jurisdiction in terms of subsection (1) shall also have jurisdiction in respect of a claim in reconvention or a counter-application in the divorce action concerned.

(3) A court which has jurisdiction in terms of this section in a case where the parties are or either of the parties is not domiciled in Namibia shall determine any issue in accordance with the law which would have been applicable had the parties been domiciled in Namibia on the date on which the divorce action was instituted.

(4) The provisions of this Act shall not derogate from the jurisdiction which a court has in terms of any other law or the common law.

(5) For the purposes of this Act a divorce action shall be deemed to be instituted on the date on which the summons is issued or the notice of motion is filed or the notice is delivered in terms of the rules of court, as the case may be.”

Amendment of section 5 of Magistrates’ Courts Act, 1944

18. Section 5 of the Magistrates’ Courts Act, 1944 (Act 32 of 1944) is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:

“(2) The court may in any case, in the interest of good order or public morals, direct that a [civil] trial shall be held [with closed doors] in camera or that (with such exceptions as the court may direct) [females or] minors or other categories of persons or the public generally shall not be permitted to be present thereat.”

Amendment of section 111 of Magistrates’ Courts Act, 1944, as amended by section 10 of Act 63 of 1976

21. Section 4 of the Matrimonial Affairs Ordinance, 1955, is hereby amended –

(a) by the substitution in subsection (1) for the words preceding paragraph (a) of the following words:

“The High Court [of South West Africa] of Namibia or any judge thereof may –”;

(b) by the substitution for subsection (3) of the following subsection:

“(3) Subject to any order of court –

(a) a parent to whom the sole guardianship or custody of a minor has been granted under subsection (1) or a father or mother upon whom a children’s court has under section [58(1) of the Children’s Ordinance, 1961 (Ordinance 31 of 1961)] 60 of the Children’s Act, 1960 (Act 33 of 1960), conferred the exclusive right to exercise any parental powers in regard to a minor, may by testamentary disposition appoint any person to be the sole guardian or to be vested with the sole custody of the minor, as the case may be; and

(b) the [father] parent of a minor to whom the sole guardianship of the minor has not been granted under subsection (1) or upon whom a children’s court has not conferred the exclusive right to exercise any parental powers in regard to a minor shall not be entitled by testamentary disposition to appoint any person as the guardian of the minor [in any other manner than to act jointly with the mother] unless such parent was the sole natural guardian immediately before his or her death.”;

(c) by the deletion of subsection (4);

(d) by the substitution for subsection (5) of the following subsection:

“(5) The court or a judge may, where a parent has appointed a guardian or custodian as provided in paragraph (a) of subsection (3), upon application of the other parent or such guardian, made after the death of the testator or testatrix, make such order in regard to the guardianship or custody of the minor as the court or judge may deem in the interest of the minor.”;

(e) by the substitution for subsection (6) of the following subsection:

“(6) If an order under section [58 of the Children’s Ordinance, 1961,] 60 of the Children’s Act, 1960, is rescinded, or if an order under subsection (1) of this section granting the sole guardianship or custody of a minor to a parent lapses or is rescinded or is varied in such a manner that the parent is not longer the sole guardian or vested with the sole custody of the minor, any disposition made under subsection (3)(a) shall lapse.”; and

(f) by the deletion of subsection (7).

Amendment of First Schedule to Defence Act, 1957

22. Section 78 of the First Schedule to the Defence Act, 1957 (Act 44 of 1957), is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (3) of the following subsection:

“(3) Whenever it appears to a convening authority or a court martial that, in the interests of good order or public morals or the administration of justice or for reasons of security, a trial ought not to be conducted or continued in open court, the convening authority of the court martial may at any time either before the commencement or during the course of the trial, order that persons other than the accused, his or her counsel and the necessary court officials, or [females,] that juveniles or other [classes] categories of persons shall not be permitted to be present at the trial.”
