Aged Persons Act 81 of 1967, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence.

Summary: This Act provides for the protection and welfare of certain aged and debilitated persons.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1 defines “Republic” to include “the territory”, which is defined as “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 21A (which was added by a 1971 amendment) states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall, save in so far as it has already been declared to be applicable in the territory in terms of section 16(1) of the Pension Laws Amendment Act, 1968 (Act No. 79 of 1968), also apply in the territory, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

The original Act also dealt with old age pensions, but this portion of the Act was repealed by the Social Pensions Act 37 of 1973, which was applicable to SWA.

Transfer of administration to SWA: Section 21 of the Act gives the State President the power to assign the administration of the Act to one or more Ministers and to vary this assignment from time to time. Therefore it is not clear from the face of the Act which transfer proclamation, if any, was applicable.
