

FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Inspection of Financial Institutions Act 38 of 1984, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 9155) provides for inspection of the affairs of insurers, pension fund organisations, friendly societies, medical schemes and unit trust schemes.

This Act will be repealed by the Financial Institutions and Markets Act 2 of 2021 (GG 7645), which has not yet been brought into force. Note, however, that Act 2 of 2021 (in item 6 of Schedule 3) provides for the continued application of this Act to a certain extent for a period of three years after the date of repeal, in respect of matters occurring during the period three years before that date:

Despite the repeal of the laws referred to in Schedule 2, for a period of three years after the effective date and in respect of a matter that occurred during the period of three years immediately before the effective date, NAMFISA may exercise any power under such repealed law to investigate and prosecute any breach of that law, as if it were proceeding with a complaint in terms of this Act.

Repeals: The Act repeals the Inspection of Financial Institutions Act 68 of 1962, as amended.

Applicability to SWA: Section 10 states “This Act and any amendment thereof also apply to the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Amendments: The Building Societies Act 2 of 1986 (OG 5189) repeals the portions of this Act relating to building societies.

The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- Building Societies Act 82 of 1986 (RSA GG 10401) (brought into force on 29 August 1986 by RSA Proc. R.152/1986 (RSA GG 10406); note that the amendments made by this Act are irrelevant since the Act was already repealed insofar as it relates to building societies by Act 2 of 1986, and furthermore, the portions of the Act amended by Act 82 of 1986 were repealed by Act 6 of 1987)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 6 of 1987 (RSA GG 10645)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 51 of 1988 (RSA GG 11313)
- Trust Property Control Act 57 of 1988 (RSA GG 11357)
- Accountants’ and Auditors’ and Financial Institutions Amendment Act 92 of 1988 (RSA GG 11414)
- Financial Institutions Second Amendment Act 54 of 1989 (RSA GG 11893).

The Banking Institutions Act 2 of 1998 (GG 1808) repeals section 11(1).

The Banking Institutions Act 2 of 1998 has since been replaced by the Banking Institutions Act 13 of 2023.

The Namibia Financial Institutions Supervisory Authority Act 3 of 2001 (GG 2529) amends sections 1 and 2.

Act 6/2011 (GG 4753) amends section 6.

Savings: Section 11(2) is a savings clause which states:

Anything done or deemed to have been done under any provision of a law repealed or amended by subsection (1) and which could be done under a provision of this Act, is deemed to have been done under the last-mentioned provision.

Regulations: Since this Act makes no provision for regulations, any regulations made under the repealed Act would not survive.

Cases: Van Straten NO & Others v Namibia Financial Institutions Supervisory Authority & Others 2014 (2) NR 425 (HC); overturned on appeal 2016 (3) NR 747 (SC).

Financial Institutions (Investment of Funds) Act 39 of 1984, as amended in South Africa prior to Namibian independence

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 9156) governs the administration of funds and trust property by financial institutions.

Repeals: The Act repeals the Financial Institutions (Investment of Funds) Act 56 of 1964, as amended.

Applicability to SWA: Section 10 states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall also apply in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.”

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA:

- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 6 of 1987 (RSA GG 10645)
- Financial Institutions Amendment Act 51 of 1988 (RSA GG 11313).

The Act was amended in South Africa by section 38 of the Financial Markets Control Act 55 of 1989 (RSA GG 11894). This amending Act, which amended the definitions of “financial institution” and “registrar”, was gazetted prior to Namibian independence, on 26 May 1989 – but it was brought into force in relevant part on 10 August 1990, by RSA Proc. 133/1990 (RSA GG 12690), after the date of Namibian independence. (That Proclamation brought sections 2, 3 and 18 of Act 55 of 1989 into force with effect from 7 August 1989, prior to Namibian independence, but the amendments to Act 39 of 1984 were effected by section 38.) Therefore, the amendments made by Act 55 of 1989 were not applicable to South West Africa.

The Act is amended by the Financial Institutions and Markets Act 2 of 2021 (GG 7645), which has not yet been brought into force.

Savings: Section 11(2) is a savings clause which states:

Anything done or deemed to have been done under any provision of a law repealed by subsection (1) and which could be done under a provision of this Act is deemed to have been done under the last-mentioned provision.

Regulations: Since this Act makes no provision for regulations, any regulations made under the repealed Act would not survive.

Chief Executive Officer of Namibia Financial Institutions Supervisory Authority v Legal Shield Namibia Ltd 2005 NR 151 (HC)

Chief Executive Officer of Namibia Financial Institutions Supervisory Authority & Another v FIS Life Assurance Co Ltd & Others 2013 (2) NR 532 (HC)(section 6(1)).

Building Societies Act 2 of 1986

Summary: This Act (OG 5189), which came into force on 1 April 1986 pursuant to section 80 of the Act, regulates the registration, management and dissolution of building societies.

Repeals: The Act repeals the Building Societies Act 24 of 1965 (initially promulgated in RSA GG 1066), which applied explicitly to SWA (by virtue of section 52) and which in turn repealed the Building Societies Act 62 of 1934.¹²⁹

Amendments: Prior to independence, this Act was amended by Act 15/1987 (OG 5413).

Act 25/1990 (GG 124) amends sections 1, 2 and 49 and substitutes certain words and expressions.

Act 8/1992 (GG 392) amends section 38 so as to remove the prescribed limitation on the amount which may be advanced by a building society on immovable property used for residential purposes.

Act 25/1994 (GG 967) substitutes the title of Chapter VII and adds a new section 52A.

The Married Persons Equality Act 1 of 1996 (GG 1316), which was brought into force on 15 July 1996 by GN 154/1996 (GG 1340), substitutes section 62.

The Deposit Guarantee Act 16 of 2018 (GG 6806), which was brought into force in relevant part on 20 May 2019 by GN 122/2019 (GG 6904), amends section 10.

Savings: In terms of section 79(2) of the Act:

Any regulation made or anything else done under any law repealed by subsection (1), shall, in so far as it is not contrary to or inconsistent with this Act, be deemed to have been made or done under the corresponding provisions of this Act.

Regulations: Regulations are authorised by section 78 of the Act, but no post-independence regulations have been promulgated.

Pre-independence regulations issued in terms of the Building Societies Act 24 of 1965 appear to remain in force pursuant to this savings clause. That Act was applicable to South West Africa by virtue of section 85. It was administered by the South African Minister of Finance, and the administration does not seem to have been transferred to SWA in terms of any of the transfer proclamations.

Regulations were issued in terms of that Act by RSA GN R.1039/1980 (RSA GG 7029).¹³⁰ These regulations, which do not seem to have been amended, were repealed in South Africa by new regulations contained in RSA GN R.1761/1986, which were also issued in terms of the Building Societies Act 24 of 1965. However, these regulations were dated 29 August 1986 (RSA GG 10409) and so came into force after the Building Societies Act 2 of 1986 came into force in SWA on 1 April 1986. Thus, the regulations in RSA GN R.1039/1980 appear to remain in force in Namibia.

Application of law: The application of the Act is affected by GN 61/1990 (role of the Central Bank), GN 63/1990 (approval to undertake certain business), GN 64/1990 (approval of certain shares and loans as securities), GN 54/1993 and GN 187/1999 (liquid assets).

The correct name of the Act is the “Deposit Guarantee Act”, according to section 62(1) of the Act. However, the table of contents and header of Government Gazette 6806 erroneously refer to the “Namibia Deposit Guarantee Act”.

Regulations: Regulations relating to maximum coverage limits for guaranteed deposits are contained in GN 24/2020 (GG 7117); they set the maximum coverage limit at N$25 000 per depositor.

The listing for GN 24/2020 in the table of contents in GG 7117 refers to the “Guarantee Act, 2018”, while it should read “Deposit Guarantee Act, 2018”.

Determinations: The Namibia Deposit Guarantee Authority issued a “Determination of premiums payable per risk category and interest rates payable by member institution” in terms of section 57(1)(b) of the Act read with section 34(1) and (2), in GN 100/2020 (GG 7163).

Bank of Namibia Act 1 of 2020

Summary: This Act (GG 7109) provides for the continuation of the Bank of Namibia as the central bank. It defines the relationship between the bank and the government. It also regulates the issue of bank notes and coins, and the monetary system. It was brought into force by GN 135/2020 (GG 7241) on 15 June 2020.

Repeals: The Act repeals the Bank of Namibia Act 15 of 1997 (GG 1761),¹³³ which in turn repealed the Bank of Namibia Act 8 of 1990 (GG 42), which repealed the South African Reserve Bank Act 90 of 1989 (RSA GG 11942), which repealed the South African Reserve Bank Act 29 of 1944 (SA GG 3342).

Savings: Section 87 of this Act states:

A determination, appointment, regulation, guideline, circular, notice, instruction or anything done under a law repealed by section 86 which - (a) is in force at the commencement of this Act; and (b) could be made, issued or done under a corresponding provision of this Act, is deemed to have been made, issued or done under a corresponding provision of this Act.

Thus, this Act preserves things done in terms of the Bank of Namibia Act 15 of 1997.

¹³³ The Abolition of Payment by Cheque Act 16 of 2022 (GG 7995) purports to amend section 39 of the Bank of Namibia Act 15 of 1997 - which has already been repealed.

Section 60(2) of the Bank of Namibia Act 15 of 1997 (GG 1761) stated:

Anything done in terms of a provision of the Act repealed by subsection (1) and which may or is required to be done in terms of that Act, shall be deemed to have been done in terms of the corresponding provision of this Act.

Thus, Act 15 of 1997 preserved things done in terms of the Bank of Namibia Act 8 of 1990.

Section 62(2) of the Bank of Namibia Act 8 of 1990 (GG 42) stated:

Anything done in terms of a provision of the Act repealed by subsection (1) and which may or is required to be done in terms of this Act, shall be deemed to have been done in terms of the corresponding provision of this Act.

Thus, Act 8 of 1990 preserved things done in terms of the RSA South African Reserve Bank Act 90 of 1989.

Section 40(2) of the RSA South African Reserve Bank Act 90 of 1989 (RSA GG 11942) provides that – any rules and regulations made under sections 22 and 23, respectively, of the said Act [the South African Reserve Bank Act 29 of 1944], or which are deemed to have been made thereunder, shall be deemed to have been made under the corresponding provisions 25 of this Act.

Thus, Act 90 of 1989 preserved things done in terms of the SA South African Reserve Bank Act 29 of 1944 (SA GG 3342).

This chain of savings clauses makes it possible in theory for regulations and notices issued under any of the repealed laws to remain in force.

Regulations: The savings clauses would appear to apply to regulations, which are authorised by section 85 of this Act.

The following regulations were made under section 23 of the South African Reserve Bank Act 29 of 1944 (SA GG 3342) and appear to have survived via the chain of savings clauses:¹³⁴

South African Reserve Bank-Regulations, contained in SA GN 629/1945 (SA GG 3474), as amended by RSA GN 965/1962 (RSA GG 265). However, some aspects of these regulations have obviously been superseded by the current Act while others seem to have no current relevance.

The following regulations were made under the Bank of Namibia Act 15 of 1997 and appear to have survived by virtue of the savings clause in the current Act:

Credit Bureau Regulations, contained in GN 103/2014 (GG 5518), as amended by GN 177/2014 (GG 5579).

Notices: The savings clauses also apply to notices. However, the pre-independence notices on the design of various coins would appear to have no relevance in independent Namibia and have not been recorded here. Post-independence notices are listed below.

Monetary units and symbols were set forth under the repealed laws in Proc. 19/1993 (GG 682), General Notice 339/1996 (GG 1452), General Notice 8/2000 (GG 2258) (enhanced N$50 and N$100

¹³⁴ These regulations are listed as being the only ones surviving under the South African Reserve Bank Act 90 of 1989 in Juta's Index to the South African Government and Provincial Gazettes (formerly "The Windex"), 1920-1989 at pages 180-181. No repeals have been located.

In South Africa, these regulations appear to have been replaced in 1991 by the South African Reserve Bank Regulations published in RSA GN R.30/1981 (RSA GG 12963), which were amended in 2010 by RSA GN 710/2010 (RSA GG 33457). This set of regulations was then repealed and replaced in South Africa in 2010 by the regulations contained in RSA GN R.808/2010 (RSA GG 33552).

*Namibia Financial Institutions Supervisory Authority Act 3 of 2021

Summary: This Act (GG 7646) replaces the Namibia Financial Institutions Supervisory Authority Act 3 of 2001 as the governing legislation for the authority that exercises supervision over the business of financial institutions and services, often referred to by its acronym NAMFISA. Section 30 of the Act on co-operation with other agencies and organisations was brought into force on 1 September 2023 by GN 288/2023 (GG 8203). The remainder of the Act will be brought into force on a date set by the Minister in the Government Gazette.

Repeals: The Act repeals the Namibia Financial Institutions Supervisory Authority Act 3 of 2001 and provides a number of transitional provisions.

Savings: Section 62(2) contains a general savings clause:

Any subordinate measure made under the repealed law remains in force, unless it is in conflict with this Act, and is deemed to be made under this Act until superseded by a subordinate measure made under this Act.

Banking Institutions Act 13 of 2023

Summary: This Act (GG 8155) consolidates and amends the laws relating to banking institutions, microfinance banking institutions and controlling companies. It was brought into force on 8 August 2023 by GN 250/2023 (GG 8171).

Repeals: The Act repeals the Banking Institutions Act 2 of 1998 (GG 1808), as amended by Act 14/2010 (GG 4598). The Banking Institutions Act 2 of 1998 in turn repealed the Banks Act 23 of 1965, as amended.

The repealed Banking Institutions Act 2 of 1998 was also amended by GN 34/2011 (GG 4679) (which amended section 2), the Deposit Guarantee Act 16 of 2018 (GG 6806) (which amended sections 11, 15 and 19) and the Financial Institutions and Markets Act 2 of 2021 (GG 7645) (which had not yet been brought into force when Act 2 of 1998 was repealed). None of these are repealed by the Banking Institutions Act 13 of 2023, but they would have no effect after the repeal of the underlying Act.

Savings: Regulations, determinations, guidelines, circulars or notices made in terms of the previous Banking Institutions Act 2 of 1998 survive in terms of section 109(3) of this Act:

A regulation, determination, guideline, circular or notice made or in force, or any banking institution or controlling company registered as such for the purpose of conducting banking business or any action taken by the Bank under any provision of the repealed law –

- (a) is deemed to have been made or to be in force or to have been authorised to conduct banking business or to be registered under a corresponding provision of this Act; and
- (b) remains in force until it has been repealed or amended under any appropriate provision of this Act.

Regulations (but not other subsidiary enactments) made in terms of the previous Banks Act 23 of 1965 survive in terms of section 74(2) of the Banking Institutions Act 2 of 1998:

Any regulation made or in force, or any banking institution or controlling company registered as such for the purpose of conducting banking business, under any provision of any law repealed by subsection (1) shall be deemed to have been made or to be in force, or to have been authorised to conduct banking business, under the corresponding provision of this Act.

Regulations: Regulations and determinations are authorised by section 108 of the current Act. The following regulations have been issued:

Regulations relating to restrictions on loan-to-value ratios are contained in GN 342/2023 (GG 8246), which repeals GN 334/2019 (GG 7044).¹³⁵

The following regulations made under the Banking Institutions Act 2 of 1998 appear to survive:

Regulations pertaining to fees made under this Act are contained in GN 234/2009 (GG 4386), as amended by GN 323/2017 (GG 6490).¹³⁶

Regulations relating to qualifications, terms and conditions for appointment as members of Appeal Board and conducting of appeals are contained in GN 359/2019 (GG 7057).

Regulations relating to unfair terms in transactions or contracts between banking institutions and customers or the general public are contained in GN 296/2020 (GG 7395).

The following regulations made under the Banks Act 23 of 1965 appear to survive, although they may lack current relevance:

Regulations under the Banks Act, 1965 are contained in RSA GN R.2747/1986 (RSA GG 10564), as amended by RSA GN R.1458/1988 (RSA GG 11428), and as amended after independence by GN 75/1998 (GG 1831). The remaining portions of these regulations primarily cover forms for financial returns and statements and maximum credit balances on savings accounts.¹³⁷

Determinations: A number of “Banking Institutions Determinations” were issued in terms of the Banking Institutions Act 2 of 1998 and survive under this Act:

Notices: The following notices were issued under the Banking Institutions Act 2 of 1998 and appear to survive, although they may not be relevant to the current law since they all concern interpretations of specific provisions of the previous Banking Institutions Act 2 of 1998:

General Notice 100/2009 (GG 4284) contains a declaration of conduct which constitutes “receiving of funds from the public” under section 1(d) of Act 2 of 1998 for the purpose of ascertaining if a person is conducting banking business.

GN 378/2019 (GG 7069) concerns an exemption from the definition of “receiving funds from the public” in section 1 of Act 2 of 1998.

GN 159/2020 (GG 7286) provides that multi-level marketing business practices are not considered pyramid schemes under section 55A of Act 2 of 1998.

Authorisations and suspensions: Specific authorisations to conduct banking business and suspensions of banking business are not listed here.

Related law: Note that the Financial Intelligence Act 13 of 2012 (GG 5096) places certain additional duties on persons who carry on “banking business” or are “receiving funds from the public”, as defined in section 1 of the Act.

Application of law: GN 34/2011 (GG 4679), issued under the previous Banking Institutions Act 2 of 1998, removed the Post Office Savings Bank from the coverage of section 2(2) of that Act with effect from 1 April 2011. Section 2(2) of this previous Act contained a list of institutions that the Act did not apply to; thus, the removal of the Post Office Savings Bank from the coverage of section 2(2) meant that the previous Act did apply to the Post Office Savings Bank.¹³⁹ In contrast, the exemptions listed in section 2(1)(d) of the current Act include the Post Office Savings Bank as defined in the Posts and Telecommunications Act 19 of 1992 - meaning that the current Act does not apply to the Post Office Savings Bank.

Cases: No cases have yet been decided under this Act.

The following cases concern the previous Banking Institutions Act 2 of 1998 -

Bank of Namibia v Small & Medium Enterprises Bank Ltd & Others (2) 2018 (1) NR 183 (HC) (provisional order re: insolvency under section 1 read with section 58; compliance with section 28(4)); Bank of Namibia v Small & Medium Enterprises Bank Ltd & Others (3) 2018 (1) NR 193 (HC) (final order for winding up due to insolvency under section 1 read with section 58; compliance with section 58(5)(c)); ruling on compliance with section 58(5)(c) upheld on appeal in Metropolitan Bank of Zimbabwe Ltd & Another v Bank of Namibia 2018 (4) NR 155 (SC).

¹³⁹ See Negonga v Nampost Ltd 2018 (3) NR 704 (HC), para 16.

The following case concerns section 30 of the previous legislation, the Banks Act 23 of 1965 – Grobler v Commercial Bank of Namibia Ltd 2010 (1) NR 313 (SC).

The following case makes suggestions for self-regulation of mortgages by banks to remedy Namibia's "debtor-unfriendly" laws:

First National Bank of Namibia Ltd v Musheti 2018 (1) NR 144 (HC)

Our law is still debtor-unfriendly: it entitles the creditor like in the present matter, a bank to whom an immovable property was mortgaged, to contractually refuse late payment of home loan instalments; only payment of the full outstanding accelerated amounts, not just the arrears, would save a mortgagor's property. I see no reason in principle why the banks in Namibia cannot adopt a self-regulating system in the absence of legislation to negotiate and agree on the terms of reinstatement of bond agreements. Such reinstatement will offer the mortgagor a lifeline. It spares the mortgagor who is faced with a sale in execution of his or her primary home. Such approach will contribute to and advance socio-economic welfare for the Namibian people which will in turn create a stable and conducive business environment by facilitating home ownership. Then when default on loan repayment occurs, like in the present matter, to accommodate and be prepared to renegotiate new terms of the loan. (para 37, per Angula DJP).

Payment System Management Act 14 of 2023

Summary: This Act (GG 8156) provides for the management, administration, operation, regulation, oversight and supervision of payment, clearing and settlement systems in Namibia.
