

Seeking Safety

Domestic Violence in Namibia and the Combating of
Domestic Violence
Act 4 of 2003

Gender Research and Advocacy Project
LEGAL ASSISTANCE CENTRE

2012

... our women have the right to lead their lives without fear of being attacked or violated in any way.

Statement by
His Excellency Hifikepunye Pohamba,
23 October 2010

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
------------------------	----

Chapter 1

Introduction	1
---------------------------	----------

Chapter 2

Defining Domestic Violence	3
---	----------

2.1 INTERNATIONAL RECOGNITION OF THE PROBLEM	4
2.2 NAMIBIAN DEFINITIONS OF GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE	9
2.3 OVERLAPPING TERMINOLOGY	11

Chapter 3

The Combating of Domestic Violence Act	13
---	-----------

3.1 LEGAL REMEDIES FOR DOMESTIC VIOLENCE PRIOR TO THE COMBATING OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE ACT	14
3.2 OVERVIEW OF THE COMBATING OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE ACT	15
3.3 BACKGROUND TO THE LEGISLATION	15
3.4 KEY ADVOCACY EFFORTS	17
3.5 THE PARLIAMENTARY DEBATE	21
3.5.1 Monitoring bedrooms?	21
3.5.2 'Sexual denial'	22
3.5.3 Gender issues	26
3.5.4 Echoes of gender concerns from previous debates	29
3.5.5 Culture	33
3.5.6 The meaning of "domestic relationship"	35
3.5.7 Support for the Bill	36
3.6 AMENDMENTS TO THE BILL AND PASSAGE BY PARLIAMENT	37
3.7 DETAILED SUMMARY AND ANALYSIS OF THE LAW	43

3.7.1	Definition of “domestic violence”	43
3.7.2	Definition of “domestic relationship”	45
3.7.3	Protection orders	46
3.7.4	Domestic violence offences	56
3.7.5	Police duties	61

Chapter 4

A Profile of Domestic Violence in Namibia 63

4.1	INFORMATION SOURCES AND GAPS	64
4.2	DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CASES REPORTED TO THE POLICE	69
4.2.1	Reported cases of violence in domestic relationships (LAC-LRDC study, 1994 data)	69
4.2.2	Reported rape in domestic relationships (LAC, 2001-2005 data)	72
4.3	INTIMATE PARTNER VIOLENCE	74
4.3.1	Spousal abuse in Karas Region (1997 data)	74
4.3.2	WHO study of intimate partner violence in Windhoek (2001 data)	77
4.3.3	CIET-Soul City study of physical intimate partner violence in national sample (2002 data)	84
4.3.4	SIAPAC study of physical intimate partner violence in eight regions (2007/2008 data)	87
4.3.5	Congruity of the various studies	92
4.4	DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AGAINST CHILDREN	96
4.4.1	General prevalence and profile	96
4.4.2	Domestic violence and child discipline	102
4.4.3	Sexual abuse of children within the family	106
4.4.4	Neglect	111
4.4.5	Harmful cultural and traditional practices	113
4.4.6	Giving alcohol to children	115
4.4.7	Exposing children to domestic violence	116
4.4.8	Abuse of children in intimate relationships by their partners	118
4.5	DOMESTIC VIOLENCE IN OTHER FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS	121
4.6	IMPACT OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE	127
4.6.1	Impact of domestic violence on adults	128
4.6.2	Impact of domestic violence on children	134
4.7	VICTIM RESPONSES TO DOMESTIC VIOLENCE	137
4.7.1	Suffering in silence	137
4.7.2	Staying in abusive intimate relationships	144
4.7.3	Awareness of laws and services	147
4.7.4	Accessing legal rights	150
4.7.5	Service shortages	154

4.8 CAUSES OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE	155
4.8.1 Overview	155
4.8.2 Causes of intimate partner violence	158
4.8.2.1 The changing dynamics of intimate relationships	159
4.8.2.2 Attitudes about intimate partner violence	165
4.8.2.3 Attitudes about sexual abuse and sexual autonomy in intimate relationships	186
4.8.2.4 Concepts of masculinity and femininity	195
4.8.2.5 Research involving perpetrators of intimate partner violence	209
4.8.2.6 The significance of equality	215
4.8.3 Causes of domestic violence against children	221
4.8.3.1 Child discipline and physical violence	222
4.8.3.2 Attitudes relating to child sexual abuse	225
4.8.3.3 Backlash against children’s rights	227
4.9 SUMMARY OF KEY FINDINGS OF PREVIOUS STUDIES	229

Chapter 5

Implementation of the Combating of Domestic Violence Act 239

5.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE OF STUDY	240
5.1.1 Problems with police records	240
5.2 METHODOLOGY	242
5.2.1 Sample of protection order applications	243
5.2.2 Interviews and focus group discussions	245
5.2.3 Follow-up research	247
5.2.4 Terminology	248
5.2.5 Confidentiality	249
5.3 PROTECTION ORDER APPLICATIONS	249
5.3.1 Total protection order applications in Namibia	249
5.3.2 Representivity of sample	255
5.3.3 Dates of protection order applications	256
5.3.4 Problems with applications	257
5.3.5 Applying for interim protection orders outside normal office hours	261
5.3.6 Protection order applications and criminal charges	262
5.4 PROFILE OF COMPLAINANTS	263
5.4.1 Sex	263
5.4.2 Age	265
5.4.3 Language group	267
5.4.4 Employment	267
5.4.5 Rural versus urban	269

5.5	APPLICATIONS MADE ON BEHALF OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE VICTIMS BY SOMEONE ELSE	270
5.6	RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN COMPLAINANT AND RESPONDENT	273
5.6.1	Types of domestic relationship	273
5.6.2	Common residence	276
5.7	OTHER PERSONS AFFECTED	278
5.7.1	Number of other persons affected	278
5.7.2	Profile of other persons affected	279
5.7.3	Children affected	281
5.7.4	Type of effect on other persons	282
5.8	PROFILE OF RESPONDENTS	283
5.8.1	Sex	283
5.8.2	Age	283
5.8.3	Language group	285
5.8.4	Employment	286
5.8.5	Previous convictions	288
5.8.6	Drug and alcohol use	290
5.8.7	Weapon ownership	291
5.8.8	Other characteristics of respondents	292
5.9	MOST RECENT INCIDENT OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE	292
5.9.1	Length of time between most recent incident and application	292
5.9.2	Type of violence in most recent incident	294
5.9.3	Weapon use in most recent incident	297
5.9.4	Physical injury to victim in most recent incident	300
5.9.5	Witnesses to most recent incident	307
5.9.6	Other evidence	313
5.10	HISTORY OF ABUSE	314
5.10.1	Duration of abuse	314
5.10.2	Profile of past abuse	315
5.10.3	Escalation of abuse over time	320
5.10.4	Weapon use in past abuse	322
5.10.5	Injuries from past abuse	325
5.10.6	Past threats	330
5.10.7	Witnesses to past abuse	332
5.10.8	Effect of past abuse on complainant	336
5.11	REQUESTS FOR PROTECTION ORDERS	337
5.11.1	Basis for protection orders	337
5.11.2	Requests for emphasis on specific types of violence	338
5.11.3	Requests for removal of weapons	341
5.11.4	Requests for no-contact provisions	344
5.11.5	Requests relating to exclusive occupation of joint residence	354
5.11.6	Requests relating to alternative accommodation	363

5.11.7	Requests relating to securing complainant’s property	365
5.11.8	Requests for temporary maintenance	369
5.11.9	Requests for temporary orders on custody and access	372
5.11.10	Requests to keep complainant’s address confidential	382
5.12	POTENTIAL WITNESSES FOR COMPLAINANT	383
5.13	INTERIM PROTECTION ORDERS	386
5.13.1	Interim protection orders granted	388
5.13.2	Who received interim protection orders?	390
5.13.3	How long does it take to obtain an interim protection order?	392
5.13.4	Criteria for decision-making	394
5.13.5	Overview of terms of interim protection orders	395
5.13.6	Emphasis on specific types of domestic violence	397
5.13.7	Removal of weapons	402
5.13.8	No-contact provisions	407
5.13.9	Exclusive occupation of joint residence	415
5.13.10	Alternative accommodation	426
5.13.11	Securing complainant’s property	428
5.13.12	Temporary maintenance orders	433
5.13.13	Temporary orders for custody and access	439
5.13.14	Additional orders	446
5.13.15	Summary of interim protection order outcomes	451
5.14	SERVICE OF INTERIM PROTECTION ORDERS	454
5.15	RESPONDENT’S RESPONSE TO INTERIM PROTECTION ORDER	461
5.15.1	Notice of intention to oppose interim protection orders	464
5.15.2	Timeframes	467
5.15.3	Witnesses for respondents	471
5.15.4	Fairness to respondents	473
5.16	ENQUIRIES AND FINAL PROTECTION ORDERS	474
5.16.1	Enquiries	475
5.16.2	Final protection orders granted	482
5.16.3	Who received final protection orders?	486
5.16.4	How long does it take to obtain a final protection order?	488
5.16.5	Terms of final protection orders compared to terms of interim protection orders	491
5.17	OVERALL CASE OUTCOMES	492
5.17.1	Interim protection orders	492
5.17.2	Final protection orders	493
5.17.3	Interim protection orders not followed by final protection orders	493
5.18	APPEALS	506
5.19	REQUESTS FOR MODIFICATION OR CANCELLATION OF PROTECTION ORDERS	507

5.20 BREACH OF PROTECTION ORDERS	508
5.21 DOMESTIC VIOLENCE OFFENCES	517
5.22 DO PROTECTION ORDERS WORK?	537
5.22.1 Use and abuse of protection orders	537
5.22.2 Effectiveness of protection orders	539

Chapter 6

Conclusions and Recommendations 547

6.1 OVERVIEW OF RESEARCH FINDINGS	548
6.2 GENERAL RECOMMENDATIONS	553
6.2.1 Amendments to the Act and regulations	553
6.2.2 Revision of the forms	553
6.2.3 Training of service providers	553
6.2.4 Unsympathetic police response	556
6.2.5 Dedicated and specialised staff	557
6.2.6 Links to support services	558
6.2.7 Closer cooperation between service providers	560
6.2.8 Material resources at courts	561
6.2.9 Application process	561
6.2.10 Procedure for after-hours applications	562
6.2.11 Investigation	563
6.2.12 Service of interim protection orders	564
6.2.13 Case withdrawals	566
6.2.14 Role of clerks at enquiries	567
6.2.15 Protecting children	567
6.2.16 Enforcement	568
6.2.17 Harassment and stalking	571
6.2.18 Raising public awareness of the law	572
6.2.19 Mobile courts	574
6.2.20 Record-keeping	574
6.3 PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE ACT, REGULATIONS AND FORMS	575
6.3.1 The Act	575
6.3.2 The regulations	589
6.3.3 The forms	592
6.4 CONCLUSION	600

Acknowledgements

The final report was written by Dianne Hubbard, Coordinator of the Gender Research and Advocacy Project of the Legal Assistance Centre with assistance from Ruth Chun, a Canadian lawyer who served as a legal intern.

Initial field research was coordinated by Anne Rimmer, Development and Training Manager of the Gender Research and Advocacy Project at the time, and conducted by the following persons:

- Antonia Carew-Watts, a legal intern funded by the Chayes International Public Service Fellowship and the Summer Public Interest Fund of Harvard Law School
- Rachel Coomer, Public Outreach Manager of the Gender Research and Advocacy Project.
- Sonia Eggerman, a legal intern sponsored by Foreign Affairs Canada's Young Professionals International Program, through the Canadian Bar Association
- Katharina Kleikamp, a German lawyer who served as a legal intern
- Judy Munyiri, a volunteer with a master's degree in Gender Studies from Free State University, South Africa
- Wairimu Munyinyi, a VSO volunteer with a degree in social science from the Catholic University of Eastern Africa
- Martin Schulze-Allen, a German-Canadian lawyer who served as a legal intern
- Erin Valentine, a legal intern funded by the Public International Fellowship Program at the University of Pennsylvania Law School.

Logistics were arranged by Sophie van Wyk, Project Assistant for the Gender Research and Advocacy Project at the time.

Christa Schier, a local statistician, was responsible for data entry and coding, statistical analysis and original construction of all the tables in the report.

Follow-up field work was coordinated by Rachel Coomer, Public Outreach Manager of the Gender Research and Advocacy Project at the Legal Assistance Centre, and conducted by the following persons:

- Laila Hassan, a British lawyer whose placement as a legal intern was supported by the UK law firm Clifford Chance
- Thomas Wood, a British lawyer who served as a legal intern.
- Zoila Hinson, a Fulbright scholar who worked as a legal intern.

Case law research was provided by:

- Dianne Hubbard
- Laila Hassan
- Thomas Wood.

The following persons assisted with various tasks including budget supervision, fact-checking, references, proof-reading and refining of the report recommendations:

- Anne Rimmer
- Rachel Coomer
- Sophie Van Wyk
- Yolandé Engelbrecht, Public Outreach Officer of the Gender Research and Advocacy Project

- Grace Kapere, Project Assistant of the Gender Research and Advocacy Project
- Christina Beninger, a Canadian lawyer from the Canadian Bar Association Young Lawyers International Program, funded by the Canadian International Development Agency
- Gloria Song, a Canadian lawyer from the Canadian Bar Association Young Lawyers International Program, funded by the Canadian International Development Agency.

Perri Caplan was responsible for design, layout and printer liaison.

Printing is by _____.

© Legal Assistance Centre 2012

 4 Marien Ngouabi Street
 (former name Körner Street)
 Windhoek
 PO Box 604
 Windhoek
 Namibia
 264-061-223356
 264-061-234953
 Email – info@lac.org.na
 Website – www.lac.org.na

A digital version of this publication is available on the LAC website.

ISBN 978-99945-61-45-2