

SAVE THE

PANGOLINS

The Environmental Club
Delta Secondary School Windhoek
30 October 2023

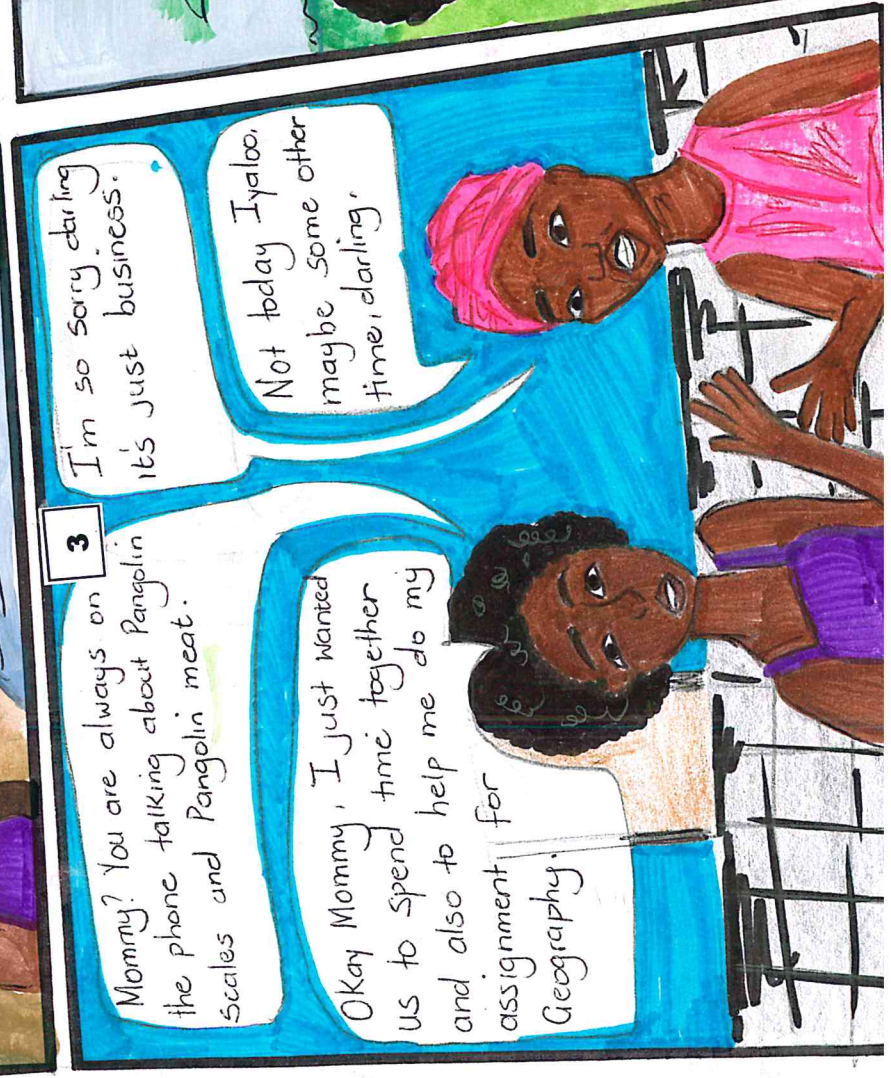

Hi, My name is Iyaloo, and this is my community!

1

...the Pangolin scales will be shipped to you tomorrow. everything is in order. Just transfer the N$ 50 000 to my bank account.

2

Mommy? You are always on the phone talking about Pangolin scales and Pangolin meat.

3

I'm so sorry darling it's just business.

Okay Mommy, I just wanted us to spend time together and also to help me do my assignment for Geography.

Not today Iyaloo, maybe some other time, darling.

4

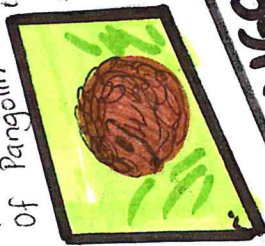

Bye! my beautiful Iyaloo.

Okay mommy. Nex time. Bye!

"Man Caught with live Pangolin"
 "Farmworker arrested for possession Of Pangolin"
 "Two Angolans arrested for selling" Okahandja.

PANGOLINS
struggled

BC

My mom is always busy on her phone and laptop. She doesn't have time for me. But she always has time for these men that bring parcels here. This is becoming worrisome.

7

Hi Iyaloo! I'm on my way to the Environmental Club, would you like to walk with me?

Hi Alazinia! I'm on my way to the Environmental Club meeting too. Let's walk together and chat about the Green Hydrogen project.

9

Let us report all the illegal activities that are committed against our wildlife to the nearest Police. This way we are protecting and promoting a healthy ecosystem... Our wildlife plays an important role in maintaining a healthy ecosystem...

Our community generate money through wildlife conservation as more and more tourists visit our community. Our people benefit through job creation in the tourism industry.

PANGOLINS
SHUGGLED
???

10

11

Could this be the Pangolin scales that I heard mom talking about on the phone the other day? I'll check where she will put it.

12

OH NOOOOOO!!!! Mommy is doing something illegal, let me call my friend Alazinia, oh nooo!!!!

13

Why did mom do this?
The teacher said we should report illegal activities, BUT what if mom goes to jail?
OH NO!!

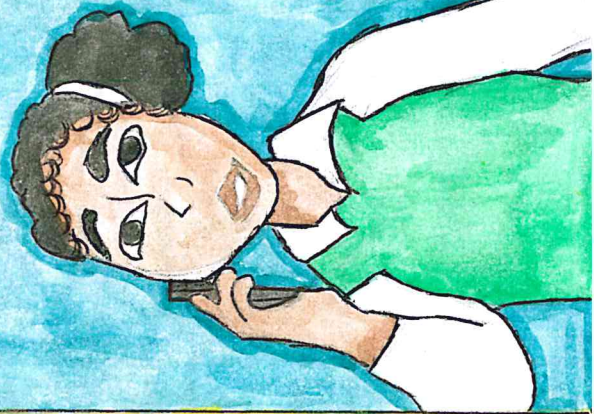

14

Hi Alazinia! I'm so disappointed, I found out that mom is involved in some illegal business of selling pangolins to foreigners.

15

Really?? Oh noooo!! We will talk later Iyaloo... I'm going to buy bread now at the market!

16

Alazinia running towards the Police station to report Iyaloo's mother.

18

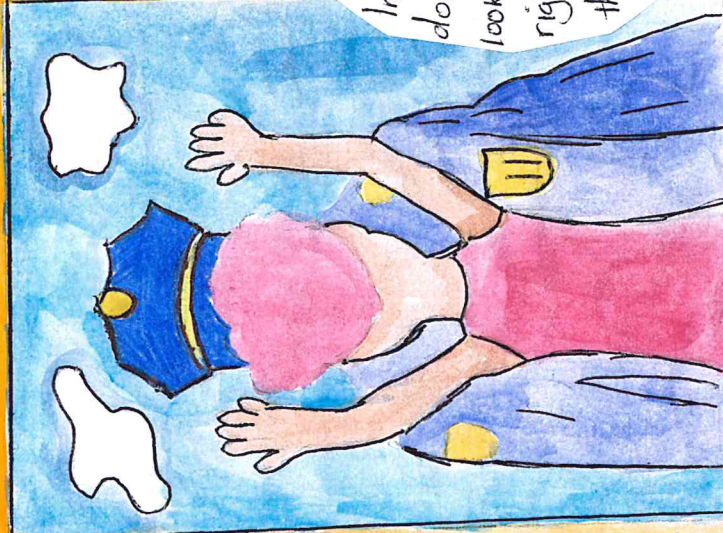

Ms John, you are in possession of protected wildlife products under the environmental act number 71 of 1962,

Good afternoon Ms John! My name is Inspector James, We are doing a random inspection to look out for illegal objects... Your rights will be protected throughout the search, this is my Job Identification card

17

Inspector James showed up at Iyaloo's house.

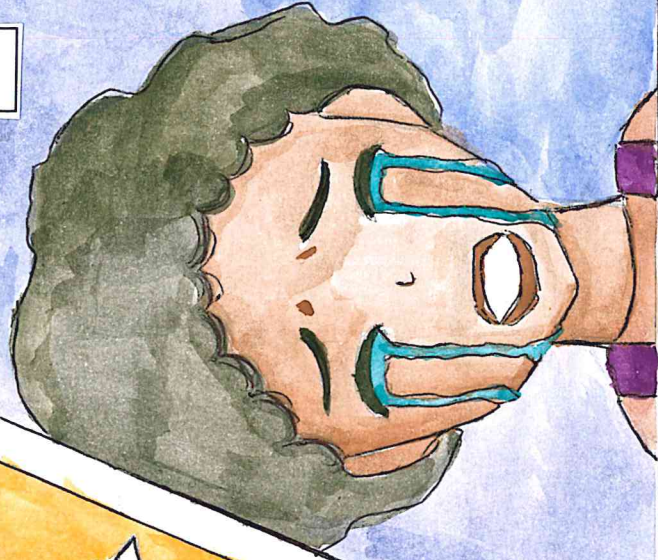

19

... You are under arrest ...

20

Mooooooooom!!!!
Officer please have mercy on my mom!!!!

21

BREAKING news

nbc

A 46 year-old lady was arrested today in Windhoek after she was found with a 5 kg bag of Pangolin scales. The Police is yet to determine the value of the scales. She was denied bail in the Katutura Magistrate Court today. The Case has been postponed to 30 November to allow further police investigations.

Why did mom do this?!!
 She should have continued working at the Supermarket
 We would have been a happy family, now she has to be in jail...

and pay a huge sum of money... I need to talk to my brother
 and educate him
 so that he doesn't end up like mom!!!

How are you my darling Iyaloo? I'm so so sorry for everything my child. I regret what I did and from now I will be taking care of our wildlife

- All illegal activities committed against wildlife should be reported immediately to law enforcement officers.
- Community members should be educated on the importance and benefits of wildlife conservation.
- Schools should educate learners on sustainable development goals.
- The school curriculum should sufficiently cover the aspect of law towards environmental conservation.
- Community should be sensitized on how to co-exist with wildlife.
- Strict laws should be enforced to offenders who poach the wildlife.

NBC | PANGOLINS SMUGGLED

GAVE THE PANGOLINS

DELTA SECONDARY SCHOOL WINDHOEK

☎ 264-61-252244 - ☎ 264-61-252018 - ✉ 80302/3 - WINDHOEK - Namibia - E-mail: secretary@dssw-namibia.org

~SAVE THE PANGOLIN~

Slide 1: An ecosystem comprising of various animals and a happy girl named lyaloo standing and looking on. lyaloo: "Hi, my name is lyaloo, and this is my community".

Slide 2: At home, lyaloo overheard the mom talking on the phone. Mom: "The pangolin scales will be shipped to you tomorrow, everything is in order. Mom: "Just transfer the N$ 500 000 to my bank account." [lyaloo behind the door overhearing the mom on the call]

Slide 3: lyaloo: "Mommy you are always on the phone talking about Pangolin scales" Mom: "I'm so sorry my darling, it's just business" Mia: "Okay mommy, I just wanted to spend some time together". Mom: "Not today, maybe another time, darling". [lyaloo and her mom having a conversation]

Slide 4: lyaloo: "Okay mommy, Next time. Bye!" Mom: "Bye darling". lyaloo: Thinking "Mommy is always busy, she doesn't have time for me, this is becoming worrisome" [I with a thinking or worried face]

Slide 5: TV headlines with Pangolins smuggled. [Big screen TV with NBC logo on the corner]

Slide 6: At school. lyaloo: "Hi Alazinia, I'm on my way to the environmental club meeting too, would you like to walk with me?" Alazinia: "of course lyaloo, let's go together..." [lyaloo and Alazinia walking on grass]

Slide 7: [learners seated in the classroom with the chalkboard filled with 'Pangolin smuggling headlines]

Slide 8: Teacher: "Lets us report all the illegal activities that are committed towards our wildlife to the nearest police. This way we are protecting and promoting a healthy ecosystem..." "Our wildlife plays an important role in maintaining a healthy ecosystem and communities can generate money through wildlife conservation as more and more tourists will visit our community. Our people can benefit through job creation in the tourism industry. "Pangolins help to eat the termites that infest the wood plants." [Class with teacher and learners and a chalkboard]

Slide 9: Iyaloo at home: [TV, news of pangolin smuggling] Iyaloo: Thinking "This topic of Pangolins is very sensitive...the poor animals are being taken away from the natural habitat and very soon they will become extinct..." [Iyaloo seated watching TV]

Slide 10: Iyaloo saw her mom and an unknown man giving her a 5kg white sack. Iyaloo thinking: [Could this be Pangolin scales that I heard mom talking about on the phone the other day? I'll check where she will put it] [Iyaloo looking through the window]

Slide 11: [Iyaloo shocked] she discovered the Pangolin scales in the same 50kg sack.]

Slide 13: [Iyaloo in tears] "OH NOOOOO, Mommy is doing something illegal, let me call my friend Alazinia"

Slide 14: [Iyaloo on The phone] "Hi Alazinia, I'm so disappointed in my mom, I found out that she is involved in some illegal business of selling Pangolins to some foreigners...I don't know what to do? Alazinia [shocked] really? Oh noo... we will talk later Iyaloo"

Slide 15: [Alazinia running towards a police station [building with Police station]

Slide 16: [Police officer facing Iyaloo's mother as she opened the door]

Slide 17: Good afternoon Ms John, my name is Inspector James we are doing a random search to look for illegal objects...your rights are protected... [serious face of Inspector James]

Slide 18: [Mother busted with a 5kg of Pangolin scales] Police officer: "Ms John, you are in possession of protected wildlife products under the environmental act number Act 71 of 1962, you are under arrest" Iyaloo: "Moooooooooom" [Iyaloo shouting and crying]

Slide 19: [Iyaloo watching TV with the headlines] [a 46-year-old lady was arrested today after she was found with 5kg bag of Pangolin scales. The Police is yet to determine the value of the scales. She was denied bail in the Katutura Magistrate court today, the case has been postponed to 30 November to allow further police investigations]

Slide 20: [Iyaloo crying] and thinking [why does my mom had to do this? She should have continued working at the supermarket, we would have been a happy family, now she has to be jailed and get fined a huge sum of money...I need to go talk to my brother about this and educate him so that he won't end up in the same situation as my mom.

ENDING NOTES:

- All illegal activities committed against wildlife should be reported immediately to law enforcement officers.
- Let us educate our community members on the importance and benefits of wildlife conservation.
- Schools should educate learners on the importance of wildlife conservation and the sustainable goals of development.
- The school curriculum should sufficiently cover the aspect of law towards environmental conservation.
- Community members should be sensitized on how to co-exist with wildlife.
- Strict laws should be enforced to offenders who poach the wildlife.
- The private sector should avail funds towards initiatives that are protecting and conserving our wildlife.

Co-ordinator: Ms Paulina M. Kandjinga

Contact e-mail: paulina.kandjinga@dssw-namibia.org Cell: +264814018774