1. Upon enrolment in terms of section 2 of Proclamation No. 3 dated the 23rd May 1919, or so soon thereafter as may be, every notary public shall take before a military magistrate an oath of office in the following form:

I . . . swear before God that I will faithfully carry out the duties of a notary
SO HELP ME GOD.

Sworn before me at . . . on the . . . day of . . . 1919.

MILITARY MAGISTRATE.

2. Such oath shall be subscribed in triplicate. The original shall be transmitted by the magistrate to the Secretary for the Protectorate. One copy shall be filed by the magistrate and the remaining copy shall be filed by the notary in his protocol.

II. PROTOCOLS.

3. Every notary public shall keep a protocol containing a chronologically arranged and consecutively numbered file of the minutes of all deeds passed before him and a register in the form set out in the schedule which shall contain an entry in chronological order of every deed passed before him. Such entry shall be made by the notary public when the deed is passed before him, and he shall subscribe thereto a declaration in the form set out in the said schedule.
4. Every notary shall neatly and securely, to the satisfaction of the examiner of protocols, cause all minutes of deeds passed before him, together with an index of those minutes, to be bound in chronological order and numbered consecutively in volumes of equal and convenient size.
5. A notary shall not alter or mutilate any minutes filed in his protocol or extract therefrom any minutes, save in so far as may be required by any law or practice in force.
6. The minutes of deeds passed before a notary shall be written, typed, or printed on good strong and durable paper of foolscap size in good and durable ink and to the satisfaction of the examiner. No carbon copies shall be filed in the protocols.
7. Every notary shall be obliged to keep his protocol in safe custody under lock and key and wherever possible in a fire-proof safe so as to guard against a violation of the secrecy of its contents or against any alteration or mutilation thereof or any extraction therefrom, and shall take such other reasonable precautions for the safe custody thereof as may be necessary.
8. Every notary in practice at the coming into operation of these regulations shall, within one month thereafter, and every notary commencing or recommencing practice shall within one month thereafter, give written notice to the magistrate for his district or subdistrict of his full name and business address, and if he change his address shall, within one month thereafter, give notice thereof with full particulars of the new address.
9. Every notary shall, if he leave the Protectorate with intention to cease such practice or if he be removed from the roll or suspend or otherwise retire from practice and his executor or other representatives shall in the event of his death, lodge

The examination shall take place in the examiner's office or in the notary's office, whichever shall be more convenient, and in the notary's presence or in the presence of a person who has by written notice delivered to the examiner been nominated as the notary's representative at the examination. The examination shall take place, if possible, in the months of April and October for the preceding half-years ending 31st March and 30th September respectively. The first such examination hereunder shall taken place in October 1919.
12. The examiner shall at the conclusion of each examination endorse a certificate on the notary's register duly recording his examination, and if all the minutes filed therein are correctly and properly stamped in accordance with law he shall certify to that effect; but if any minutes therein liable to stamp duty be found unstamped or insufficiently stamped he shall forthwith take the necessary steps in accordance with law to have such minutes duly stamped and shall certify accordingly on such minutes.
13. The examiners shall not read the contents of the minutes contained in the protocols examined by them except in so far as may be necessary to ascertain that the deeds have been duly attested and in case of minutes liable to stamp duty to assess the amount of the stamp duty payable thereon.
14. All knowledge obtained by any examiner in the course of an examination of protocols shall be regarded by him as information confidentially acquired in the course of his official duty and shall be treated by him accordingly.
15. An examiner shall, on finding any material or serious omissions or defects in any protocols examined by him or the minutes therein contained or any breach of duty or non-compliance with these regulations on the part of a notary record the same and particulars thereof in the certificate aforesaid, and shall immediately report the same to the Secretary for the Protectorate; provided that where the examination is made by a receiver of revenue who is not the magistrate of the district the receiver as examiner shall notify the existence of any such irregularities to the magistrate of the district who shall report the same as herein before provided.
