ACT

To amend the Police Act, 1912.

(Afrikaans text signed by the Governor-General.)
(Assented to 16th May, 1957.)

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, the Senate and the House of Assembly of the Union of South Africa, as follows:—

Amendment of section 1 of Act 14 of 1912, as amended by section 1 of Act 20 of 1951 and section 1 of Act 15 of 1955.

1. Section one of the Police Act, 1912 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution for the definition of "member of the force" of the following definition:

"'member of the Force' means any commissioned officer, warrant-officer, non-commissioned officer, constable or constable-labourer serving, in accordance with this Act or the regulations, in the Police Force established under this Act;"; and

(b) by the substitution for the definition of "the Force" of the following definition:

"'the Force' means the commissioned officers, warrant-officers, non-commissioned officers, constables and constable-labourers of the Police Force established under this Act;";

Amendment of section 5 of Act 14 of 1912, as amended by section 2 of Act 20 of 1951 and section 2 of Act 15 of 1955.

2. Section five of the principal Act is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution for the word "reduce" of the words "reprimand, reduce in rank or in seniority in rank";

(b) by the deletion of the words "The appointment of every such officer shall be notified in the Gazette."; and

(c) by the addition thereto of the following sub-section, the existing section becoming sub-section (1):

"(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (1) of section nine, a commissioned officer may, with or without notice, resign from the Force at any time."

Amendment of section 6 of Act 14 of 1912, as amended by section 3 of Act 20 of 1951.

3. Section six of the principal Act is hereby amended by the addition thereto of the following sub-section, the existing section becoming sub-section (1):

"(2) A document in the form prescribed by regulation, certifying that a particular person has been appointed a member of the Force and purporting to have been signed by the Commissioner or a commissioned officer authorized by him, shall be prima facie proof of such appointment."

Amendment of section 10 of Act 14 of 1912, as amended by section 4 of Act 15 of 1955.

4. Section ten of the principal Act is hereby amended—

(a) by the insertion in paragraph (a), after the word "enrolment", of the words "training, resignation,";

(b) by the substitution for paragraphs (b) and (c) of the following paragraphs:

"(b) The standards of physical and mental fitness and the medical examination of members of the Force, and the medical, dental and hospital treatment of such members and their families.

(c) The numerical establishment and distribution of the Force, the establishment of Police districts and stations, and the conditions of service, the various divisions, branches, grades, ranks, designations and appointments in the said Force or in such districts or at such stations.

(c)bis. The establishment and maintenance of training institutions or centres for recruits and other members of the Force, and the instruction, training, discipline and control of such recruits and other members at such institutions or centres.

(c)ter. The attendance by members of the Force of instructional or training courses at institutions or centres other than those established and maintained in terms of this Act or the regulations.";

- (c) by the insertion in paragraph (h), after the word "Act", of the words "or the regulations";

- (h) by the insertion in paragraph (n), after the word "government", of the word ",control".

Amendment of section 12 of Act 14 of 1912, as amended by section 5 of Act 20 of 1951.

5. Section twelve of the principal Act is hereby amended—
- (a) by the substitution in sub-section (1) for the words "of or below the rank of head constable", of the words "other than a commissioned officer";
 - (b) by the deletion in sub-section (2) of the words "and full particulars of"; and
 - (c) by the addition thereto of the following sub-section:
 - "(5) If any member of the Force has been convicted and sentenced under this section the Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, direct that the record of the proceedings in the case be submitted to him for review, and thereupon the Commissioner may quash the conviction or confirm or reduce the sentence."

Amendment of section 13 of Act 14 of 1912.

6. Section thirteen of the principal Act is hereby amended—
- (a) by the substitution in sub-section (1) for the words "contravening any provision of this Act or any regulation" of the words "misconduct, in the manner prescribed by regulation", and for the word "contravention" of the word "misconduct";
 - (b) by the insertion in the said sub-section, after the word "force", of the words "and all of whom who are in the service of the State shall, as far as is practicable, be persons in receipt of higher emoluments than the officer so charged";
 - (c) by the deletion in sub-section (2) of all the words after the word "regulation";
 - (d) by the substitution for sub-section (3) of the following sub-sections:
 - "(3) At the investigation of any charge in terms of sub-section (2) the law relating to evidence and witnesses as applicable in connection with criminal proceedings in a magistrate's court shall, with the exception of the first proviso to sub-section (1) of section two hundred and forty-four of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1955 (Act No. 56 of 1955), be observed.
 - (3)bis. If the misconduct with which a commissioned officer is charged is the commission of an offence of which he has been convicted by a court of law, a certified copy of the record of the trial in question shall, on its mere production by any person, be admissible in evidence before the Board of Inquiry investigating the charge, and a certified copy of the charge and conviction in question shall, on its mere production by any person to such Board, be prima facie proof of the commission of such offence by such officer.

(3)ter. The Board of Inquiry shall in writing report its finding, and submit a recommendation, to the Governor-General, who may direct that no further action be taken in the matter under this Act or the regulations, or take any of the steps provided for in section five.

(3)quat. If any commissioned officer is charged with misconduct as is contemplated in sub-section (1) and he admits that he has been guilty of such misconduct, the Governor-General may take any of the steps provided for in sub-section (3)ter.

(3)quin. For the purposes of this section 'misconduct' means—

(a) any contravention of this Act or the regulations;

or

(b) the commission of any other offence.”;

and

(e) by the substitution in sub-section (4) for the word “contravention” of the words “commission of any offence”.

“Suspension of members of the Force.

17. (1) A member of the Force may be suspended from office pending his trial for, or after his conviction of, any offence, whether under this Act or otherwise, or pending any inquiry at which a charge of misconduct against him or his fitness to remain in the Force or to retain his rank is being investigated, and shall be so suspended for any period during which he is under arrest or detention or is serving a term of imprisonment, but shall not, by reason of such suspension, cease to be a member of the Force.

(2) During the suspension of a member of the Force the powers, functions and authority vested in him as such a member, shall be in abeyance, but he shall continue subject to the same responsibilities, discipline and penalties as if he had not been suspended.

(3) The suspension of a member of the Force may be terminated at any time.”.

Substitution of section 18 of Act 14 of 1912.

11. The following section is hereby substituted for section eighteen of the principal Act:

“Pay, allowances, privileges and benefits of suspended member of the Force.

18. (1) A member of the Force who has been suspended from office shall not in respect of the period of his suspension be entitled to any pay, allowance, privilege or benefit to which he would otherwise have been entitled as such a member: Provided that the Minister may, in his discretion, direct that during the period of suspension of such a member he be paid the whole or a portion of his pay and allowances or be granted such privileges and benefits as the Minister may direct.

(2) If it is decided not to discharge a member of the Force who has been suspended from office, such member shall in respect of the period of his suspension be paid his full pay and allowances and be granted all the privileges and benefits to which, but for his suspension, he would have been entitled as a member of the Force: Provided that if such a member is not discharged but reduced in rank he shall in respect of such period be paid the pay and allowances applicable to the rank to which he is reduced, but if in respect of such period he was in terms of sub-section (1) paid any pay or allowance in excess of the pay and allowances applicable to the rank to which he is reduced, he shall not be obliged to refund the excess."

Substitution of section 20 of Act 14 of 1912, as amended by section 6 of Act 20 of 1951.

12. The following section is hereby substituted for section twenty of the principal Act:

20. (1) Any member of the Force, other than a commissioned officer, may be discharged or dismissed from the Force or be reduced in rank if after inquiry, in manner prescribed by the regulations, as to his fitness to remain in the Force or to retain his rank, the Commissioner or an assistant commissioner or a deputy commissioner referred to in sub-section (1) of section six is of opinion that he is unfit to remain in the Force or to retain his rank, as the case may be.

(2) Any such member may in manner prescribed by the regulations appeal to the Minister against an order discharging or dismissing him or reducing him in rank, and in such event the Minister may confirm, alter or set aside such order or make such order as to him seems just."

Amendment of section 21 of Act 14 of 1912, as amended by section 5 of Act 15 of 1955.

13. Section twenty-one of the principal Act is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution for the words "an officer of or above the rank of captain" of the words "the commissioned officer under whose command he is serving"; and

(b) by the substitution for the word "vehicle" of the words "means of transport".

Amendment of section 22 of Act 14 of 1912.

"Retirement of servants on ground of severe bodily injury, ill-health or physical disability. 11A. The services of a servant may be dispensed with prior to the date of his superannuation if he is found—

(a) to be incapable by reason of severe bodily injury in respect of which compensation is payable to him under any law relating to workmen's compensation; or

(b) in manner prescribed to be incapable by reason of severe bodily injury other than such as is mentioned in paragraph (a), or of permanent ill-health or physical disability, of discharging the duties of his office or post, provided the Administration is satisfied on enquiry that such incapacity is permanent or will become permanent if the servant continues to perform the duties of his office or post or any other duties the Administration may assign to him.”.

(2) Sub-section (1) shall be deemed to have come into operation on the thirtieth day of May, 1930.

Amendment of section 18 of Act 23 of 1925, as substituted by section 8 of Act 49 of 1955.

5. Section eighteen of the Railways and Harbours Service Act, 1925, is hereby amended by the substitution, in sub-section (3), for the words “at the time his appeal is dealt with by the prescribed officer or the said Board, he or it shall, in addition, make such order as to him or it seems proper with regard to the payment or withholding of emoluments during the period of suspension subsequent to the date on which punishment was first imposed” of the words “or was under suspension at any time subsequent to the date on which punishment was first imposed, the prescribed officer or the said Board, as the case may be, shall, in addition, make such order as to him or it seems proper with regard to the payment or withholding of emoluments during the period of suspension subsequent to the said date.”.

Substitution of new section for section 20 of Act 23 of 1925.

6. The following section is hereby substituted for section twenty of the Railways and Harbours Service Act, 1925:

“Servants on duty while under the influence of liquor or drugs. 20. Any servant who is under the influence of intoxicating liquor or narcotic drugs—

- (a) while in charge of a locomotive or other engine, or while serving as engine driver or fireman, or as a ticket examiner or guard, or as officer in charge of a station, station foreman, shunter, gatekeeper or signaller, or as a telegraph or telephone operator transmitting or receiving messages in relation to the movement of trains, or as a pilot, crane driver or person in charge of any Government craft or marine engine; or
- (b) while on duty in any capacity other than one of those mentioned in paragraph (a) and whose performance of his duty while in such condition would be likely to endanger the safety of any person travelling or being on railway or harbour property, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding two hundred pounds or, in default of payment, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding twelve months, or to such imprisonment without the option of a fine, or to both such fine and such imprisonment.”.

Substitution of new section for section 29 of Act 24 of 1925.

7. (1) The following section is hereby substituted for section twenty-nine of the Railways and Harbours Superannuation Fund Act, 1925:

“Benefits to members of New Fund on voluntary resignation. 29. (1) A servant who is a member of the New Fund and who after giving the notice required by any law or contract, resigns voluntarily from the Service prior to superannuation shall, unless the resignation is in order to avoid discharge on account of misconduct, or in anticipation of a charge of misconduct being laid against him, become entitled—

- (a) in the case of a present member, to a refund of the total amount of his own contributions plus, in respect of each complete year for which he has contributed in excess of thirteen years, ten per cent. of the amount arrived at after deducting from the total amount of the member's own contributions, so much of the contributions paid by him during the period from the fixed date to the date of his resignation as represents two and one-half per cent. of his pensionable emoluments from time to time over the said period in the case of a male member, and three-quarters per cent. of her pensionable emoluments from time to time over the said period in the case of a female member;

- (b) in the case of a new member, to a refund of the total amount of his own contributions plus, in respect of each complete year for which he contributed in excess of thirteen years, four per cent. of the amount arrived at after deducting from the total amount of the member's own contributions so much thereof as represents two and one-half per cent. of his pensionable emoluments from time to time in the case of a male member, and three-quarters per cent. of her pensionable emoluments from time to time in the case of a female member, and on payment of any sum to which he may be entitled in terms of paragraph (a) or (b), such servant shall have no further claim upon the New Fund or upon the Administration: Provided that, if the servant concerned is a female servant who is discharged or required to resign from the Service on her marriage or who voluntarily resigns from the Service in contemplation of her marriage after having notified the head of her department in writing to that effect, and marries within three months after her resignation, the amount to be paid to her under this sub-section shall not be less than twice the amount of her own contributions to the New Fund.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1)—

“fixed date” means the first day of April, 1957, in the case of officers and employees paid on a calendar-month basis, and the sixteenth day of March, 1957, in the case of all other employees;

“new member” means a servant who became a member of the New Fund on or after the fixed date;

“present member” means a servant who became a member of the New Fund prior to the fixed date.”

(2) Section twenty-nine of the Railways and Harbours Superannuation Fund Act, 1925, as substituted by sub-section (1) of this section, shall apply in respect of every member of the New Fund whose resignation or discharge takes effect on or after the date of commencement of this Act.

Amendment of Schedule to Act 36 of 1955.

8. (1) The Schedule to the Railways and Harbours Special Pensions Act, 1955, is hereby amended by the addition of the following to the first and second columns, respectively, of part B thereof:
