PROCEDURE FOR ADVERTISING IN THE GOVERNMENT GAZETTE OF THE REPUBLIC OF NAMIBIA

1. The Government Gazette (Estates) containing advertisements, is published on every Friday. If a Friday falls on a Public Holiday, this Government Gazette is published on the preceding Thursday.

2. Advertisements for publication in the Government Gazette (Estates) must be addressed to the Government Gazette office, Private Bag 13302, Windhoek, or be delivered at Justitia Building, Independence Avenue, Second Floor, Room 219, Windhoek, not later than 12h00 on the ninth working day before the date of publication of this Government Gazette in which the advertisement is to be inserted.

3. Advertisements are published in this Government Gazette for the benefit of the public and must be furnished in English by the advertiser or his agent.

4. Only legal advertisements shall be accepted for publication in the Government Gazette (Estates) and are subject to the approval of the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Justice, who may refuse the acceptance of further publication of any advertisement.

5. The Ministry of Justice reserves the right to edit and revise copy and to delete there from any superfluous detail.

6. Advertisements must as far as possible be typewritten. The manuscript of advertisements must be written on one side of the paper only and all proper nouns plainly inscribed. In the event of any name being incorrectly printed as a result of indistinct writing, the advertisement can only be reprinted on payment of the cost of another insertion.

7. No liability is accepted for any delay in the publication of advertisements/notices, or for the publication of such on any date other than that stipulated by the advertiser. Similarly no liability is accepted in respect of any editing, revision, omission, typographical errors or errors resulting from faint or indistinct copy.

8. The advertiser will be held liable for all compensation and costs arising from any action which may be instituted against the Government of Namibia as a result of the publication of a notice with or without any omission, errors, lack of clarity or in any form whatsoever.

9. The subscription for the Government Gazette is N$3,050-00 including VAT per annum, obtainable from Solitaire Press (Pty) Ltd., corner of Bonsmara and Brahman Streets, Northern Industrial Area, P.O. Box 1155, Windhoek. Postage must be prepaid by all subscribers. Single copies of the Government Gazette are obtainable from Solitaire Press (Pty) Ltd., at the same address, at the price as printed on copy. Copies are kept in stock for two years only.

- 3.2. In terms of section 52(1)(b) cause notice of this order, in the form set out in Annexure B hereto, to be published in the Government Gazette as soon as practicable after the order is granted.
4. Any person who has an interest in the properties and who intends opposing the application for an order forfeiting the property to the State or applying for an order excluding his or her interest from a forfeiture order in respect of the properties, must enter an appearance giving notice of his or her intention in terms of section 52(3) of the Act.
5. Such notice must be delivered to the applicant:
- 5.1. in the case of any person specifically identified for service in terms of this order, within 21 days of service; and
- 5.2. in the case of any other person, 21 days after the date when a notice of the order was published in the Government Gazette.
6. A notice in terms of section 52 of the Act must contain full particulars of the chosen address for the delivery of documents concerning further proceedings in this matter and must be accompanied by an affidavit setting out:
- 6.1 the full particulars of the identity of the person giving the notice;
- 6.2 the nature and extent of his or her interest in the property concerned;
- 6.3 whether he or she intends opposing the making of the forfeiture order, or whether he or she intends applying for an order excluding his or her interest in that property from the operation of the order;
- 6.4 whether he or she admits or denies that the property concerned is an instrumentality of an offence referred to in schedule I of the Act, or is the proceeds of unlawful activities and the basis for such defence;
- 6.5 if he or she intends applying for the exclusion of his or her interests from the operation of the forfeiture order, the basis for such an application.
7. Any person who is affected by the order may on good cause shown, apply by way of application in terms of section 58 of the Act apply for variation or rescission of the order. Such application shall be made:
- 7.1 in instances where the person is able to justify the application on grounds of urgency, upon 3 days notice (or such shorter period as the court may determine on good cause shown).
- 7.2 in other instances, upon at least 7 days notice to the applicant and all other persons identified in this order as being persons who may have an interest in the property.
8. Such an application must be made not later than 8 days after the person applying for reconsideration becomes aware of the existence of the order, or within such further period as the court may consider reasonable, bearing in mind the underlying objectives of Chapter 6 of the Act.

THE PROSECUTOR-GENERAL Applicant

IN RE:

IN THE APPLICATION FOR A PRESERVATION OF PROPERTY ORDER IN TERMS OF SECTION 51 OF
THE PREVENTION OF ORGANISED CRIME ACT,
2004, NO. 29 OF 2004

Notice in terms of section 52 of the Prevention of Organised Crime Act 29 of 2004 (POCA)

This notice is addressed to all persons who have an interest in (‘the properties’);

Take notice that:

1. The Prosecutor General has obtained a preservation of property order (the order), a copy of which is attached to this notice, in terms of section 51 of the POCA in respect of the properties;
2. If you have an interest in the properties, you should understand that it is now at risk. You are advised to obtain legal advice on whether your interest can be protected and, if so, on how to protect it;
3. You are notified that the Prosecutor General will, within 120 days of publication of this notice, apply to the High Court under section 59 of the POCA for an order declaring the property forfeit to the state. The order will remain in force until the application for a forfeiture order is finalised, and until any forfeiture order that is made is satisfied;
4. If you intend to oppose the application for a forfeiture order, or you intend to apply for an order excluding your interest from a forfeiture order in respect of the properties, you must enter an appearance in terms of the order. The requirements for such an appearance are set out in the order and are also dealt with in sections 52(3), (4) and (5) of the POCA. An appearance must comply with these requirements;
5. Your attention is specifically drawn to the 21-day time limit prescribed in section 52(4) for the entry of an appearance referred to in paragraph 4 above;
6. If you enter an appearance in terms of the order you will be entitled to be given 21 days notice of the application by the applicant for a forfeiture order in respect of the properties;
7. If you fail to enter an appearance in terms of the order or to comply with the above requirements, you will not be given notice of the application for a forfeiture order and you will not be entitled to appear at the hearing of the application. In such a case, the court may grant a default order forfeiting the properties to the state under section 64 of the POCA;
8. You may, on good cause shown (including the non-availability of any other suitable remedy to protect your legitimate rights or interests), on 3 days notice in urgent instances and at least 7 days notice in other instances to the applicant, and within 8 days of becoming aware of the order, apply for reconsideration of the order;
9. You are specifically advised that even if you intend to apply for reconsideration of the preservation order in this case, you must, in addition, comply with paragraphs 4 and 5 above if you intend to oppose the forfeiture application at a later date. Failure to do so can result in a forfeiture order being granted against the properties by default and without further notice to you.
10. Whenever this order states that you must deliver or serve any notice, affidavit or other process document on the applicant, you must deliver or serve them on the applicant at the following address:
