(2) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette and after consultation with the Board, declare any activity to be a special risk for the purposes of this Act.

Object of Act

2. The object of this Act is to -
- (a) convert the Association into a public company having a share capital, with shares held by the State;
 - (b) determine the nature and ambit of the special risks that the Company may underwrite; and
 - (c) determine the role of the State in the short-term insurance industry as regards special risks and to reduce the reinsurance risk exposure of the State.

PART 2
ESTABLISHMENT OF COMPANY

Conversion of the Company

3. (1) From a date determined by the Minister by notice in the Gazette, the Association is converted into a public company having a share capital, to be known as the Namibia Special Risks Insurance Association Limited.

(2) The shortened form of the name of the Company is “NASRIA” which may, despite anything to the contrary contained in the Companies Act, be used independently of its name referred to in subsection (1).

Act No. 5, 2017NAMIBIA SPECIAL RISKS INSURANCE
ASSOCIATION ACT, 2017

(3) Subject to subsection (5), the Company must have articles and a memorandum drawn up in accordance with the Companies Act and the Minister must sign and submit them to the Registrar of Companies for registration within 60 days of this Act coming into operation.

(4) When the articles and memorandum have been signed as contemplated in subsection (3) -

- (a) they are deemed to comply with the provisions of the Companies Act relating to the signature of the articles and memorandum of a company; and
- (b) the Company is deemed to comply with the provisions of the Companies Act relating to the membership of a public company.

(5) The Registrar of Companies must on receipt of the articles and memorandum register them in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act and -

- (a) endorse a certificate under his or her hand and seal that the Company is duly incorporated as a public company; and
- (b) issue the Company with a certificate to commence business, within 30 days after the date on which the Minister submitted the articles and memorandum in terms of subsection (3).

(6) Despite the provisions of the Companies Act, upon the conversion of the Association into a public company as contemplated by subsection (1), the Company has -

- (a) subject to section 22, a share capital of N$1, represented by one ordinary share with a nominal value of N$1, held by the State; and
- (b) the State as its only member.

(7) The Minister must exercise the powers and perform the functions of a member and shareholder of the Company on behalf of the State.

(8) The shares held in the Company may not be alienated and issued to any person other than to the State, unless the Company is being restructured in accordance with the procedures laid down in Part VI of the Public Enterprises Governance Act.

(9) The Minister may -

- (a) alter the articles and memorandum of association of the Company, subject to subsection (10);
- (b) appoint the board of directors of the Company in terms of section 10; and
- (c) do anything necessary to give effect to the conversion of the Company into a public company.

Act No. 5, 2017NAMIBIA SPECIAL RISKS INSURANCE
ASSOCIATION ACT, 2017

(10) The Minister may not alter the main business of the Company.

(11) The Company is exempt from payment of all fees chargeable under the Companies Act or the Stamp Duties Act, 1993 (Act No. 15 of 1993) in respect of its conversion, registration and certificate to commence business.

Application of provisions of Companies Act

4. (1) Subject to this Act, the Companies Act applies to the Company.

(2) Sections 72, 110(1), 182, 198, 216(2) and 349(d) of the Companies Act do not apply to the Company.

(3) The Minister may, after consultation with the Minister responsible for trade, by notice in the Gazette, exempt the Company from the application of any other provisions of the Companies Act or render such provision applicable subject to such modification as the Minister may consider fit, and the Minister may withdraw or amend such notice.

(4) The Registrar of Companies may issue such directives and authorise such deviations from the regulations made under the Companies Act and the forms prescribed by that Act as he or she may consider necessary to give effect to the provisions of this Act.

Application of provisions of Short-term Insurance Act

5. (1) On issuance to the Company by the Registrar of Companies of a certificate to commence business in terms of section 3(7)(b), the Company is deemed to be a short-term insurer as contemplated by the Short-term Insurance Act and the provisions of that Act apply in respect of the Company subject to subsection (3).

(2) The Registrar of Short-term Insurance, despite section 16 of the Short-term Insurance Act, on receipt of the documents referred to in section 3(5), must issue a certificate of registration to the Company as a short-term insurer in respect of all classes of short-term insurance business referred to in section 13 of the Short-term Insurance Act.

(3) The Registrar of Short-term Insurance may, with the approval of the Minister, by notice in the Gazette, issue such directives and authorise such exemptions from or modifications to the Short-term Insurance Act, and any regulations published under that Act, as he or she considers necessary in respect of the Company in order to give effect to the provisions of this Act.

Objects of Company

6. The objects of the Company are to -

(a) carry on short-term insurance business relating to special risks and to conduct all affairs relating thereto in accordance with sound insurance practices and methods;

(b) promote the development of, and the participation of the people of Namibia in, the short-term insurance industry in Namibia; and

Act No. 5, 2017NAMIBIA SPECIAL RISKS INSURANCE
ASSOCIATION ACT, 2017

- (c) provide short-term insurance cover of international standards for special risks.

Powers and functions of Company

7. (1) Despite anything to the contrary contained in the Short-term Insurance Act, the functions of the Company are to -

- (a) accept short-term insurance business in respect of special risks;
- (b) reinsure against loss or damage of any kind arising from or in connection with any risk or contingency undertaken by the Company in respect of any matter; and
- (c) reinsure with any registered reinsurer or any foreign reinsurer any risk undertaken by the Company.

(2) The Company may, subject to the provisions of this Act, do or cause to be done all or any of such lawful things which are -

- (a) necessary to achieve its objects and to effectively perform its functions in terms of this Act; and
- (b) in the best interest of the Company.

Principal office and other branch offices of Company

8. (1) The principal office of the Company is in Windhoek, or such other place as the Board may determine after consultation with the Minister.

(2) The Company may establish one or more branch offices at such place within or outside Namibia as the Board may determine after consultation with the Minister.

Board of directors

9. (1) The Company must have a board of directors which is responsible for the policy, management and control of the affairs of the Company and which, in the name of the Company, must exercise the powers and perform the functions of the Company subject to this Act, the Companies Act, its articles and memorandum and any other applicable laws.

(2) The Board may make rules relating to the terms and conditions of the policy agreement setting out the underwriting principle of the insurance business of the Company.

Appointment of directors

10. (1) Subject to section 14 and 15 of the Public Enterprises Governance Act, the Board consists of five members appointed by the Minister as follows -

- (a) the managing director who is an ex officio member; and

Act No. 5, 2017NAMIBIA SPECIAL RISKS INSURANCE
ASSOCIATION ACT, 2017

- (b) five members appointed by the Minister in consultation with the Registrar of Short-term Insurance and in accordance with subsection (2);
- (d) the appointments under paragraph (b) of this subclause shall ensure that not all the appointees are of one gender.

(2) A person to be appointed under subsection (1) must possess knowledge and a minimum of five years experience in corporate governance, insurance, economics, law or other related fields of expertise.

(3) The Minister must appoint the chairperson and deputy chairperson of the Board from among its members.

(4) An appointment of a director may not take effect until the written consent of such person to act as a director of the Company has been lodged with the Company on the prescribed form.

(5) The Minister, as soon as practicable after the constitution of the Board or any change in such constitution, must publish in the Gazette, the names of the directors and the date of commencement of their terms of office.

(6) A director, who is not in the full-time employment of the State, must be paid out of the funds of the Company, such allowances or other remuneration in respect of his or her service as director as the Minister may determine, subject to section 22(1) of the Public Enterprises Governance Act.

(7) Allowances determined under subsection (6) may differ according to the different offices held by directors.

(8) A person is not eligible for appointment as a director if he or she -

- (a) is not a Namibian citizen or is the holder of a permanent residence permit in Namibia;
- (b) is an unrehabilitated insolvent;
- (c) has been convicted of a criminal offence and sentenced to imprisonment without the option of a fine;
- (d) has a financial or other interest likely to prejudicially affect the performance of his or her duties as director of the Company; or
- (e) is disqualified in terms of the Companies Act from holding the office of director.

Alternate directors

11. (1) Subject to section 15 of the Public Enterprises Governance Act, the Minister, may appoint a person to be the alternate for one or more directors.

(2) Any appointment or any removal from office of an alternate director must be in writing, addressed and delivered to the alternate director and to the chairperson of the Board.

Act No. 5, 2017NAMIBIA SPECIAL RISKS INSURANCE
ASSOCIATION ACT, 2017

- (3) An alternate director must -
- (a) serve on the Board only during the period of absence or inability of the director to whom he or she is alternate; and
 - (b) during the period of service, exercise all the powers and perform all the functions of the director to whom he or she is alternate.

(4) An alternate director is remunerated, as determined by the Minister in consultation with the Board, from the remuneration and allowances that are due to the director in whose place he or she acts or which would have become due to such director if he or she had acted as director.

(5) Section 10 and 12 apply, with the necessary changes in respect of an alternate director.

Term of office

12. Despite anything in any other law, the term of office of a director is three years and he or she may be reappointed on expiry of such term.

Vacation of office

- 13. (1) The office of a director becomes vacant if the director -
- (a) resigns as a director by giving not less than one month's written notice to the Minister;
 - (b) is an unrehabilitated insolvent;
 - (c) is detained as a mentally ill person under any law;
 - (d) is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Board without the leave of the chairperson of the Board;
 - (e) is removed from office under subsection (2); or
 - (f) becomes subject to a disqualification referred to in section 10(8).

(2) The Minister may by written notice remove a director from office if the Minister, after having afforded the member an opportunity to be heard, is satisfied that the member -

- (a) is incapacitated by physical or mental illness;
- (b) is guilty of conduct prejudicial to the objectives of the Company; or
- (c) is unfit or unable to effectively perform the functions of his or her office.

Declaration of interest by directors or alternate directors

- 14. (1) For the purposes of this section -

Act No. 5, 2017NAMIBIA SPECIAL RISKS INSURANCE
ASSOCIATION ACT, 2017

- (a) “associate”, in relation to a director, means -
- (i) a person who -
 - (aa) is a close relative of the director; or
 - (bb) is a partner, employee or employer of the director; or
 - (cc) is a debtor, mortgager, creditor or mortgagee of, or otherwise has direct, material or commercial dealings with, the Director; or
 - (ii) any company or any body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporated, of which the director is also a director or in which the director holds any office or position or in which the director holds a controlling interest;
- (b) “close relative”, in relation to a director, means -
- (i) his or her spouse; or
 - (ii) his or her child, stepchild, parent or stepparent, or any descendant of such parent or stepparent; or
 - (iii) the spouse of any of the persons mentioned in paragraph (b);
- (c) “director” includes an alternate director where applicable;
- (d) “partner”, in relation to a director, means any person associated in any kind of partnership with the director; and
- (e) “spouse” includes a party to a customary union.

(2) At the first meeting of the Board, after a person has been appointed or elected as a director, he or she must declare to the Board any financial or other assistance, being provided by the Company to him or her or to any of his or her associates.

(3) A director who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in any business or contract or any proposed business or contract with the Company, at the meeting of the Board at which such business or contract or proposed business or contract is first taken into consideration, must declare to the Board the nature and extent of his or her interest or of any of his or her associates.

(4) If a director becomes interested, whether directly or indirectly, in any business or contract or any proposed business or contract with the Company after it has been taken into consideration by the Board, he or she must, at the first meeting of the Board after he or she became so interested, declare to the Board the nature and extent of his or her interest or of any of his or her associates.

(5) A general notice that a director or any of his or her associates is a member of -

- (a) any company or body of persons; and

Act No. 5, 2017NAMIBIA SPECIAL RISKS INSURANCE
ASSOCIATION ACT, 2017

- (b) is interested in all business or contracts by that company or body of persons, is not sufficient disclosure for the purposes of this section.

(6) Whenever any business or contract or any proposed business or contract by the Company with the company or body of person referred to in subsection (5) is taken into consideration by the Board, a declaration of interest required in terms of subsection (3) or (4), must be made to the Board.

(7) A director may not take part in any consideration of, or cast his or her vote on, a matter relating to any business or contract or any proposed business or contract with the Company, or any other matter connected with the interests of the Company, in which he or she or any of his or her associates has an interest.

(8) A declaration of interest made in terms of this section must be recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the Board at which such declaration is made.

(9) Any director who contravenes or fails to comply with subsection (2), (3), (4) or (7) commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding N$ 500 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years, or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

Meetings of Board

15. (1) The first meeting of the Board must be held at such time and place as the Minister may determine, and subsequent meetings of the Board must be held at such time and place as the Board may determine.

(2) The chairperson may at any time convene a special meeting of the Board, and must do so if so requested in writing -

- (a) by the Minister; or
- (b) by at least three directors.
- (3) At a meeting of the Board -
- (a) a majority of the members of the Board forms a quorum;
- (b) all questions are decided by a majority of votes of the members present and voting; and
- (c) the member presiding has, in the event of an equality of votes, a casting vote in addition to his or her deliberative vote.

(4) Subject to the provisions of section 8(3), the chairperson of the Board presides at all meetings of the Board and in his or her absence, the deputy chairperson must preside.

(5) If both the chairperson and deputy chairperson are absent from any meeting, the members of the Board present must elect one from their number to preside at that meeting and the member so presiding has the powers and perform the functions of the chairperson.

ASSOCIATION ACT, 2017

(6) A decision of the Board or an act performed under a direction of the Board is not invalid because of -

- (a) a defect in the appointment of a member of the Board;
- (b) the existence of a vacancy in the membership of the Board; or
- (c) the fact that a person not entitled to sit as a member of the Board was in attendance when the decision was taken or act authorised, if the decision was taken or act authorised by a majority of the members who were present and entitled to vote at such meeting.

(7) Despite subsection (3), a resolution of the Board contained in writing and signed by all the directors constitutes a valid decision of the Board as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board and such resolution must be recorded in the minutes of the first ensuing meeting of the Board.

(8) The chairperson of the Board may, with the written approval of the Board, invite any person who in his or her opinion possesses the necessary expertise in any matter which is under consideration by the Board to take part in such discussions at a meeting of the Board as in the opinion of the chairperson relate to the expertise of such person, but such person may not cast a vote in respect of any matter which is being put to the vote.

(9) The Board may, after consultation with the Minister, make rules relating to convening of, and the procedure at a meeting of the Board of a committee of the Board.

Committees of Board

16. (1) The Board may establish a committee for the purposes of -
- (a) advising the Board in the exercise of its powers and performance of its functions; and
 - (b) performing any function that the Board may delegate to such committee, but a decision or recommendation of a committee is subject to ratification by the Board.

(2) A committee established under subsection (1) consists of two or more directors appointed by the Board from among its members, and may with the written approval of the Board co-opt persons of special expertise to advise it in the performance of its functions.

(3) The Board must designate one of the committee members as chairperson of that committee.

(4) Subject to section 22(1) of the Public Enterprises Governance Act, a member of the committee, who is not in the full-time employment of the State, must be paid from the funds of the Company such allowances as the Board, with the written approval of the Minister, may determine.

Act No. 5, 2017NAMIBIA SPECIAL RISKS INSURANCE
ASSOCIATION ACT, 2017

Minutes of proceedings of Board and committees

17. (1) The Board must cause proper records to be kept of the proceedings at every meeting of the Board and of every committee appointed by the Board under section 14(1), and the chairperson of the Board must -

- (a) within 14 days from the date on which a meeting of the Board was held, submit to the Minister a copy of the minutes of that meeting; or
- (b) at the written request of the Minister, submit to the Minister a copy of the minutes of any meeting of a committee of the Board.

(2) Any minutes referred to in subsection (1) purporting to have been signed by the chairperson of the meeting to which the minutes relate or by the chairperson at the next meeting of the Board or of the committee in question are prima facie evidence of the proceedings of the meeting to which the minutes relate.

Delegation of powers and functions

18. (1) Subject to section 19(5), the Board may delegate any power, duty or function conferred upon it under this Act to -

- (a) a director of the Board;
- (b) a committee of the Board;
- (c) the managing director; or
- (d) any other employee of the Company.

(2) The managing director may delegate any power or function conferred upon him or her under this Act or delegated to him or her under subsection (1), to any other employee of the Company.

(3) A power or function delegated under subsection (1) must be exercised or performed subject to the direction of the Board and the Board is not divested of such delegated power or function, and may -

- (a) amend or set aside anything done in the exercise of such power or the performance of such function; and
- (b) may at any time withdraw such delegation.

(4) A power or function delegated under subsection (2) must be exercised or performed subject to the direction of the managing director and the managing director is not divested of such delegated power or function, and may -

- (a) amend or set aside anything done in the exercise of such power or the performance of such function; and

Act No. 5, 2017NAMIBIA SPECIAL RISKS INSURANCE
ASSOCIATION ACT, 2017

(b) may at any time withdraw such delegation.

(5) Subject to section 20(1), the Board may under subsection (1)(c) delegate to the managing director the power to adjust post structures, to appoint and dismiss employees of the Company and to determine their conditions of service, but the Board may not delegate its powers under this Act to -

(a) make rules of procedure for the meetings of the Board or its committees; or

(b) determine the terms and conditions of service of the managing director under this section.

(6) Nothing in this section prevents the Board or the managing director from exercising a delegated power under this section.

Managing director

19. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Board with the written approval of the Minister must -

(a) appoint a suitably qualified person to be the managing director of the Company; and

(b) subject to section 22(3) of the Public Enterprises Governance Act, determine the terms and conditions of service and other benefits of the managing director.

(2) The managing director -

(a) is the chief executive officer of the Company;

(b) holds office for a term of five years and is eligible for re-appointment at the end of such term, but he or she may be removed from office before the expiry of the term of office in accordance with the provisions of the contract of employment;

(c) must be in the full-time employment of the Company and may not engage in any other occupation or employment, whether for remuneration or not, without the prior written approval of the Board, which approval may only be given after consultation with the Minister;

(d) must exercise such powers and perform such functions as are conferred by this Act or assigned or delegated to him or her by the Board;

(e) is entitled to attend all meetings of the Board and to take part in discussions at such meetings but does not have a voting right; and

(f) is, subject to the control and directions of the Board, responsible for the efficient management and administration of the Company.

(3) A person may not be appointed as managing director if such person -

Act No. 5, 2017NAMIBIA SPECIAL RISKS INSURANCE
ASSOCIATION ACT, 2017

- (a) is under the age of 21 years or has attained the age of 65 years;
 - (b) is not a Namibian citizen or a holder of a permanent residence permit;
 - (c) is an unrehabilitated insolvent;
 - (d) has been convicted of a criminal offence and sentenced to imprisonment without the option of a fine; or
 - (e) has at any time by order of a competent authority, been suspended or disqualified from practising a profession on grounds of professional or personal misconduct.
- (4) The managing director may, before the expiration of his or her term of office -
- (a) be removed from office by the Board, with the concurrence of the Minister, on grounds of misconduct or inability to efficiently discharge the functions of his or her office, subject to the rules of natural justice; or
 - (b) resign from office by giving a written notice of resignation of not less than three months to the Board.
- (5) If the office of managing director is vacant or if he or she is unable for any reason to perform the functions of his or her office, the Board may designate any director or one of the senior employees of the Company to temporarily act as managing director, and such person must exercise the powers and perform the functions of the managing director during that period.
- (6) A person designated to act as managing director in terms of subsection (5) may not act for a period of more than six months, but the Board may for sufficient reason extend such appointment for a further period not exceeding six months.

Staff of Company

20. (1) The Board, on such terms and conditions of service as the Board may determine, may appoint as senior management staff, such persons as it may consider necessary in order to assist the board to perform the functions and conduct the affairs of the Company.

(2) The Board may promote, discharge, reduce in rank or grade or transfer a senior management staff member, appointed in terms of subsection (1), in accordance with those terms and conditions.
