GAMING AND ENTERTAINMENT CONTROL AMENDMENT
ACT, 2020

Insertion of section 88A in Act No. 13 of 2018

6. The principal Act is amended by the insertion after section 88 of the following section:

“Continuation of gambling business by executor, trustee, liquidator or curator

88A. (1) Despite anything to the contrary in this Act -

- (a) the executor of the deceased estate of a licence holder, subject to the laws relating to the administration of estates, may continue to conduct the gambling business of the deceased licence holder for a period as the Board may allow, pending the finalisation of the estate by the executor;
- (b) the trustee or liquidator in the insolvent estate of a licence holder, subject to the laws relating to insolvency, companies or close corporation, may continue to conduct the gambling business of the licence holder for a period as the Board may allow, pending the final sequestration order of the insolvent estate or the final winding up order of the company or close corporation; or
- (c) if a licence holder is declared, by an order of court, incapable of managing his or her own affairs, his or her curator, subject to the laws relating to curatorship, may continue to conduct the gambling business of the licence holder for a period as the Board may allow or extended.

(2) Despite any law to the contrary, the person who inherits the gambling business in accordance with laws relating to the administration of estates or to whom the gambling business is disposed to, in accordance with laws relating to insolvency, companies or close corporations must apply to the Board for a licence in accordance with this Act before the person may conduct the gambling business.

(3) An executor, a trustee, a liquidator or a curator referred to in subsection (1) before commencing with any function or exercise any power in terms of that subsection must submit to the Board written proof of his or her appointment as the executor, trustee, liquidator or curator.”.
