This notice is addressed to all persons who have an interest in the positive balance on the Nedbank account number 12993055164 held in the name of Immanuel Nowaseb, herein after referred to as the property.

Take notice that:

1. The Prosecutor General has obtained a preservation of property order (the order), a copy of which is attached to this notice, in terms of section 51 of POCA in respect of the property;
2. If you have an interest in the property, you should understand that it is now at risk. You are advised to obtain legal advice on whether your interest can be protected and, if so, on how to protect it;
3. You are notified that the Prosecutor-General will, within 120 days of publication of this notice in the Government Gazette, apply to the High Court under section 59 of POCA for an order declaring the property forfeited to the State. The order will remain in force until the application for a forfeiture order is finalised, and until any forfeiture order that has been made is satisfied;
4. If you intend to oppose the application for a forfeiture order, or you intend to apply for an order excluding your interest from a forfeiture order in respect of the property, you must enter an appearance in terms of the order. The requirements for such an appearance are set out in the order and are also dealt with in sections 52 (3), (4) and (5) of POCA. An appearance must comply with these requirements;
5. Your attention is specifically drawn to the 21 calendar days' time limit prescribed in section 52 (4) for the entry of an appearance referred to in paragraph 4 above;

8. You may, on good cause shown apply for variation or rescission of the order;
9. You may also apply for reasonable legal and living expenses in terms of section 57 of POCA;
10. You are specifically advised that even if you intend to apply for rescission of the preservation order in this case, you must, in addition, comply with paragraph 4 and 5 above if you intend to oppose the forfeiture application at a later date.
