N.B.—It must be clearly understood that in the case of a lease the Board does not accept any responsibility to grant the registration to the lessor at the termination of the lease. Parties are therefore advised to have this matter very closely drafted in order to avoid eventual disputes. In any event any dispute arising from non-compliance with the provisions of the lease of deed of sale is entirely a matter between the lessee(s) (or buyer/s) and the lessor(s) (or seller/s), and the Board will only be guided by an order of Court and not by the claim of either party as to the interpretation of the document unless the terms are absolutely clear.
