REGULATIONS MADE IN TERMS OF

Long-term Insurance Act 5 of 1998

section 72

Long-term Insurance Regulations, 1998

Government Notice 145 of 1998

(GG 1888)

came into force on date of publication: 18 June 1998

as amended by

Government Notice 47 of 2000 (GG 2274)

came into force on date of publication: 15 February 2000

Government Notice 143 of 2001 (GG 2579)

came into force on date of publication: 16 July 2001

Government Notice 31 of 2008 (GG 3985)

came into force on date of publication: 4 February 2008

Government Notice 350 of 2013 (GG 5383)

came into force on date of publication: 31 December 2013

Government Notice 195 of 2018 (GG 6688)

came into force on date of publication: 24 August 2018

The Government Notice which publishes these amendments notes that they were made after consultation with the Advisory Committee on Long-term Insurance.

The regulations were also amended by Government Notice 126 of 2013 (GG 5205). However, GN 350/ 2003 (GG 5383) withdraws GN 126/2013 “with effect from that date of its publication in the Gazette”. Thus, it is withdrawn as if it never existed.

[definition of “domestic asset” inserted by GN 350/2013 and substituted by GN 195/2018]

“foreign asset” means an asset that is not a domestic asset;

[definition of “foreign asset” inserted by GN 350/2013]

“investment subsidiary”, in relation to a registered insurer and reinsurer, means a company -

- (a) which by virtue of shareholding, voting power, power to appoint directors, or otherwise, is controlled by the registered insurer or reinsurer concerned;
- (b) which is used by the registered insurer or reinsurer concerned for the purposes of holding investments; and
- (c) whose shares are not listed on the Namibian Stock Exchange or any other stock exchange within the common monetary area;

“linked business” means any business of assuming obligations under a contract under which no investment guarantees are given by a registered insurer or reinsurer, either explicitly or implicitly, and in respect of which investment benefits are determined solely by reference to the value of specific assets to which the contract is linked and which assets are actually held by the registered insurer or reinsurer or, with the approval of the Registrar, by a person on behalf of the registered insurer or reinsurer under section 30(1) of the Act;

“local authority” means a local authority council as defined in section 1 of the Local Authorities Act, 1992 (Act No. 23 of 1992);

“long-term insurance business” means long-term insurance business as defined in section 1(1) of the Act, but does not include linked business;

“market value”, in relation to -

- (a) the value of every quoted asset, means the price at which it was quoted on the Namibian Stock Exchange or any other stock exchange within the common monetary area within a period of three months immediately preceding the date to which the statement relates, which value shall be shown in the statement at an amount not exceeding the value determined according to the price last so quoted:

REGULATIONS
Long-term Insurance Act 5 of 1998
Long-term Insurance Regulations, 1998

Provided that if such quotation relates to a date other than the date to which the statement of assets relates, the said amount shall be properly adjusted in the case of -

- (i) any interest-bearing asset, by the difference between the amount of the interest which had accrued from the last date on which interest was payable up to the date of the quotation in question and the corresponding amount of interest accrued up to the date to which the statement relates; and
 - (ii) any share on which dividends have been declared, by the difference between the amount of any dividend which had been declared but not paid on the date of the quotation in question and the amount of any dividend which had been declared but not paid on the date to which the statement relates;
- (b) assets to which the provisions of paragraph (a)(i) do not apply, means the value determined in accordance with section 29 of the Act;

“Namibian Stock Exchange” means the Namibian Stock Exchange licensed under the Stock Exchange Control Act, 1985 (Act No. 1 of 1985);

[The title of Act 1 of 1985 is the “Stock Exchanges Control Act”, with the word “Exchanges” being plural.]

[This definition should end with a semicolon rather than a full stop now that it is no longer the last definition in the list.]

REGULATIONS
Long-term Insurance Act 5 of 1998
Long-term Insurance Regulations, 1998

“unlisted investment” means an investment that takes the form of equity or debt capital in a company incorporated in Namibia and not listed on any stock exchange;

[The definition of “unlisted investment” is inserted by GN 350/2013. As the last definition in the list, it should end with a full stop rather than a semicolon.]

Deposits

2. (1) Where a depositor has in terms of the Act deposited with the Treasury -
 - (a) any amount -
 - (i) interest at a rate fixed from time to time by the Minister shall accrue to the amount so deposited; and
 - (ii) the accrued interest shall be paid to the depositor concerned by the Treasury within seven days from the last day of each successive period of six months, reckoned from the date on which the amount was deposited;
 - (b) any security approved by the Registrar, the depositor shall be entitled to continue to receive any income deriving there from.
- (2) A depositor -
 - (a) may at any time with the approval of the Registrar -
 - (i) but subject to the provisions of paragraph (a)(ii) of subregulation (1), withdraw so much of a deposit contemplated in the said subregulation as exceeds the amount or value of the deposit which the depositor is required to make in terms of a provision of the Act;
 - (ii) substitute for any such deposit, or any part thereof, any other deposit of equal value;
 - (b) shall, if at any time so requested in writing by the Registrar, to the extent that the amount or value of the depositor’s deposit falls short of that required in terms of the Act, make a further deposit with the Treasury to remedy the shortfall within such period as may be determined by the Registrar.
- (3) If the registration of a depositor is cancelled in terms of the Act, the Registrar may appropriate or cause to be appropriated so much of any deposit made by the depositor concerned as may be required to meet that depositor’s liabilities under policies or policies relating to a particular class of long-term insurance business issued by that depositor and, if the Registrar is satisfied that those liabilities have been met, he or she shall grant written approval for any balance of such deposit remaining to be returned to that depositor by the Treasury.
- (4) Upon an order being made by the High Court for the winding-up of a registered insurer or reinsurer, any amount or security deposited with the Treasury by the registered insurer or reinsurer shall be made available to the liquidator appointed in terms of subsection (2)(a) of section 40 of the Act for distribution in accordance with subsection (6) of that section.

REGULATIONS
Long-term Insurance Act 5 of 1998
Long-term Insurance Regulations, 1998

(5) At the request of a depositor, the Treasury shall once in any financial year of the depositor, furnish the depositor with a certificate in a form determined by the Treasury in confirmation of the deposit made by the depositor with the Treasury, and of its value.

Payment of premiums received

3. (1) Where -
- (a) money is received by an insurance agent or an insurance broker or a reinsurance broker from or on behalf of a person insured or to be insured, or from another insurance agent or insurance broker or reinsurance broker on behalf of a person insured or to be insured, as a premium payable under a policy or proposed policy;
 - (b) the risk, or a part of the risk, to which the policy or proposed policy relates is accepted by a registered insurer or reinsurer; and
 - (c) the insurance agent or insurance broker or reinsurance broker who so received the money is informed by the registered insurer or reinsurer of, or otherwise ascertains, the amount of the premium to be paid, the insurance agent or insurance broker or reinsurance broker who so received the money shall, in accordance with the provisions of subregulation (2), pay to the registered insurer or reinsurer by whom the risk, or a part of the risk, to which the policy or proposed policy relates, is accepted, an amount equal to so much of the money as does not exceed the amount of the premium to be paid, less any commission due to the insurance agent or insurance broker or reinsurance broker by the registered insurer or reinsurer in respect of such premium.

(2) For the purposes of subregulation (1), every insurance agent, insurance broker and reinsurance broker shall -

- (a) close off his or her records of all premium receipts not later than the last day of the month during which the due date of such premiums occurred;
- (b) pay the amount contemplated in subregulation (1) to the registered insurer or reinsurer concerned within 15 days after closing the records referred to in paragraph (a); and
- (c) simultaneously furnish that registered insurer or reinsurer with a statement containing detailed particulars of a payment made in terms of paragraph (b).

(3) Payment of a premium by a policyholder under a policy to an insurance agent or an insurance broker or a reinsurance broker shall be deemed to be specific performance under the policy.

Report of non-payment

4. If an insurance agent or an insurance broker or a reinsurance broker fails to make a payment as required in terms of regulation 3, the registered insurer or reinsurer concerned shall, within 30 days from the date on which payment was required to be made, notify the Registrar in writing of such failure.

Prohibition of differentiation, inducements and assumption of obligations

REGULATIONS
Long-term Insurance Act 5 of 1998
Long-term Insurance Regulations, 1998

5. (1) No registered insurer or reinsurer shall make or permit any differentiation as between one life policy and another in regard to their terms and conditions unless and then only to the extent that the valuator of the registered insurer or reinsurer has satisfied himself or herself that such differentiation is justified on actuarial grounds.

(2) No person shall, directly or indirectly, pay, allow or give, or offer to pay, allow or give to any other person any valuable consideration as an inducement to that other person to take out any domestic policy, and no person shall knowingly receive or offer to receive as such an inducement any such valuable consideration.

(3) No registered insurer or reinsurer shall assume an obligation under a domestic policy unless and until it has received at least one-twelfth of the first year's premium in respect thereof or has satisfied itself that such part of such premium will be paid by stop order, debit order, credit card, or other instruments approved by the Registrar, not later than 30 days after the assumption by it of such obligation.

Insurance tables

6. No registered insurer or reinsurer shall make use of any table or statement of the rates of premium which it ordinarily charges and of the benefits which it ordinarily undertakes to grant in respect of domestic policies unless the actuarial soundness of such table or statement has been examined and attested by the valuator of the registered insurer or reinsurer in terms of section 24(3)(a) of the Act.

Maximum sum insurable on life of a minor under fourteen years of age

7. No person shall effect and no registered insurer or reinsurer shall issue any policy on the life of a minor who is under the age of fourteen years which provides for the payment of a certain sum of money which exceeds, or which when added to any amount which to the knowledge of such person or insurer or reinsurer is payable upon the death of that minor under any other policy exceeds, the sum of -

- (a) an amount equal to the aggregate of all premiums paid in respect of such policy plus interest on each premium at a rate not exceeding ten per cent per annum, compounded annually; and
- (b) an amount, upon the death of that minor -
 - (i) before he or she attains the age of six years, of N$10 000; or
 - (ii) on or after he or she attains the age of six years, but before he or she attains the age of fourteen years, of N$30 000, plus the amount of any bonuses accrued to any such amount.

Payment of monetary benefits under funeral policies

8. (1) Every funeral policy -
- (a) shall provide that the owner thereof shall, at his or her option, be entitled to the payment of a sum of money instead of the provision of a funeral or the granting of any other non-monetary benefit under such policy;

REGULATIONS
Long-term Insurance Act 5 of 1998
Long-term Insurance Regulations, 1998

- (b) may provide that the registered insurer or reinsurer liable under such policy shall likewise have the option to pay such sum of money instead of providing for any such funeral or other non-monetary benefit, and such option and the sum of money to which it relates shall be stated expressly and clearly in such policy and in every premium receipt book issued in connection therewith, in printed or typed letters not smaller than, and as legible as, the letters of the main provisions thereof.

(2) The sum of money to which an option referred to in subregulation (1) relates shall be not less than the amount specified in the funeral policy to be the monetary limit upon the value of any claim that may be brought in respect of the provision of a funeral or the granting of any other non-monetary benefit under such policy.

Proof of age and procedure when accepted age found incorrect

9. (1) It shall, in respect of a life policy and a funeral policy, be the duty of the policyholder to provide and of the registered insurer or reinsurer to obtain, before the expiry of three years from the date on which any such policy was effected, reasonable proof by documentary evidence, medical examination or otherwise of the age or date of birth of the person whose life is insured under any such policy or upon whose death a funeral, any other non-monetary benefit or a sum of money is to be provided under any such policy, and the age or date of birth of that person so provided and obtained shall, subject to the provisions of subregulation (2), be accepted as the correct age or date of birth of that person.

(2) If on the date on which a claim is brought under any policy referred to in subregulation (1) the provisions of the said subregulation have not been complied with, any written statement made in the proposal or application for the policy in question as to the age or date of birth of the person whose life is insured under such policy shall be accepted as the correct age of that person for the purposes of the claim.

(3) If -

- (a) after the issue of any policy referred to in subregulation (1); or
 (b) before the payment of a claim referred to in subregulation (2), and contrary to what has been accepted as the correct age or date of birth of the person whose life is insured under the policy in question, it is proved that the accepted age or date of birth of that person, upon which such policy is based, is incorrect, the sum insured and other benefits under such policy shall -

- (i) in the case of a life policy, be the same as those which the premiums payable under such policy would have secured had such policy been based upon the correct age of that person; or
 (ii) in the case of a funeral policy, not be altered but the premiums payable under such policy shall be the same as those which would have been payable had such policy been based upon the correct age of that person and the registered insurer or reinsurer shall -
 (aa) be entitled to recover from the policyholder any amount by which premiums have by reason of such incorrect age been underpaid; or

REGULATIONS
Long-term Insurance Act 5 of 1998
Long-term Insurance Regulations, 1998

- (bb) refund to the policyholder any amount by which premiums have by reason of such incorrect age been overpaid:

Provided that if the Registrar is satisfied that the actuarial nature of any particular policy or kind of policy is such as to render the application of the foregoing provisions of this subregulation inequitable, he or she may direct the registered insurer or reinsurer to apply, in respect of such policy or kind of policy, such other method of adjustment as he or she may deem equitable.

Lost Policies

10. (1) When a domestic policy which constitutes any long-term policy has been lost or destroyed and the loss or destruction has been proved and a notice of the alleged loss or destruction has been published in terms of subregulations (2), (3) and (4), the registered insurer or reinsurer liable under the lost or destroyed policy shall, at the request of the owner of such policy and upon payment by him or her to the registered insurer or reinsurer of the fees prescribed in subregulation (5), issue upon the expiry of a period of at least 30 days, reckoned from the date of publication of such last notice, to that owner a correct and certified copy of such policy (including any endorsement made on the original policy after its issue) and of any record in the possession of the registered insurer or reinsurer of any dealings with such policy, and such certified copy shall thereafter for all purposes take the place of the policy so lost or destroyed and be the sole evidence of the contract made in terms of such policy.

(2) For the purposes of subregulation (1), the owner of a lost or destroyed policy shall submit to the registered insurer or reinsurer liable under such policy -

- (a) an affidavit in which he or she deposes -
 - (i) that he or she is the owner of such policy; and
 - (ii) either -
 - (aa) that he or she has made or caused to be made proper search for such policy and is unable to find it; or
 - (bb) that to the best of his or her know ledge and belief such policy has been lost or destroyed in circumstances stated in the affidavit; and
- (b) such other proof of the loss or destruction of such policy as the registered insurer or reinsurer may require.

(3) A notice of the alleged loss or destruction of a policy, which is in the form prescribed in subregulation (4), shall be published by the registered insurer or reinsurer once in the Gazette and at least once in each of two newspapers, or, if the registered insurer or reinsurer so prefers, twice at an interval of not less than three weeks in one newspaper, nominated by the registered insurer or reinsurer and circulating in Namibia.

(4) A notice referred to in subregulation (3) shall be substantially in the form as set out below:

Name and address of registered insurer/reinsurer*
 =Person whose life is insured
 Owner of policy
 Policy number Date of policy

REGULATIONS
Long-term Insurance Act 5 of 1998
Long-term Insurance Regulations, 1998

Sum insured

Notice is hereby given that proof of the loss or destruction of the above-mentioned policy has been submitted to the registered insurer/ reinsurer*. Any person in possession of this policy, or claiming to have any interest therein should communicate immediately by registered post with the registered insurer/reinsurer*, failing which a certified copy of the policy (which will be the sole evidence of that contract) will be issued to the owner.

*Delete whichever is inapplicable.

=To be omitted in the case of a policy other than a life policy.

- (5) The fees payable in terms of subregulation (1) shall be the total amount of -
 - (a) such amount as the registered insurer or reinsurer may determine that does not exceed N$50; and
 - (b) the actual expenses incurred by the registered insurer or reinsurer in providing the owner with a certified copy of the policy in question, including any stamp duty payable in respect thereof.

Days of grace, paid-up policies and non-forfeiture rules: life policies

11. (1) If a premium has not been paid on its due date in respect of a life policy under which there are to be two or more premium payments, the registered insurer or reinsurer liable under the policy shall, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary between the parties thereto, without charge maintain the policy in force for the full sum insured for a period of 30 days from the due date of the unpaid premium and, if that premium is not paid within that period -

- (a) in the case of a life policy the value of which, as at that due date, is equal to or less than half of the total amount of the premium payments due under the policy in the period of 12 months commencing on that due date, the registered insurer or reinsurer shall maintain the policy in force by the application, in accordance with the rules made by such insurer or reinsurer in terms of subregulation (4), of the non- forfeiture value of the policy until the policy no longer has any such value remaining whereupon, unless payment of premiums has been resumed, the policy shall lapse; or
- (b) in the case of a life policy the value of which, as at that due date, is more than half of the total amount of the premium payments due under the policy in the period of 12 months commencing on that due date, the registered insurer or reinsurer shall within 14 days after the expiry of the said period of 30 days, by written notice sent to the policyholder at his or her last known address or place of work, notify him or her -
 - (i) of the amount of that value; and
 - (ii) that the policy is to be so dealt with that it will be maintained in force by the application, in accordance with the rules made by such insurer or reinsurer in terms of subregulation (4), of the non-forfeiture value of the policy until -
 - (aa) the policy no longer has any such value remaining whereupon, unless payment of premiums has been resumed, the policy shall lapse; or

REGULATIONS
Long-term Insurance Act 5 of 1998
Long-term Insurance Regulations, 1998

- (bb) if the policyholder so requests, the terms of the policy are altered, in accordance with the rules of the registered insurer or reinsurer, so that it becomes a policy which is fully paid-up; or
- (cc) if the policyholder so requests, the policy is surrendered in accordance with the rules of the registered insurer or reinsurer, and the registered insurer or reinsurer shall then deal with the policy accordingly:

Provided that if, within six months after the policy was dealt with in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b), the policyholder notifies the Registrar in writing that he or she has not received such notice, and if the Registrar is not satisfied that the policyholder has been duly notified, the Registrar may require the registered insurer or reinsurer, upon payment within a period determined by the Registrar of the overdue premium and of any other premiums that would by then have been payable but have not been paid, to revive the policy without any alteration to its terms.

(2) If a claim under a life policy arises during any period of grace referred to in subregulation (1), the registered insurer or reinsurer shall be entitled to deduct the value of any unpaid premium from the sum payable in terms of that claim.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subregulation (1), a registered insurer or reinsurer

- (a) may grant to a policyholder more favourable terms than those contemplated in the said subregulation;
- (b) shall be entitled to receive interest, in accordance with the rules made by such insurer or reinsurer in terms of subregulation (4), on any such overdue or unpaid premium.

(4) Every registered insurer and reinsurer shall make rules which its valuator is satisfied provide a sound basis on which and the methods by which a long-term insurance policy is to be valued and otherwise be dealt with for the purposes of subregulation (1).

Days of grace: funeral policies

12. (1) If a premium under a funeral policy has not been paid on its due date, the registered insurer or reinsurer liable under the policy shall, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary between the parties thereto, without charge maintain the policy in force for the full value of the benefits thereunder for a period of 30 days from the due date of the unpaid premium and -

- (a) if the overdue premium is paid within that period, the policy shall be renewed by the registered insurer or reinsurer and continue in force;
- (b) if the premium is not paid within that period, the registered insurer or reinsurer shall notify the policyholder in writing that the premium is overdue and that the policy is due to lapse upon the expiry of such period -
 - (i) determined by the registered insurer or reinsurer in terms of subregulation (2); and
 - (ii) specified in the notice sent to the policyholder at his or her last known address or place of work at least 14 days before the expiry of that specified period,

REGULATIONS
Long-term Insurance Act 5 of 1998
Long-term Insurance Regulations, 1998

and if, on or before the last day of that specified period, the overdue premium and every other premium that falls due during the period so specified -

- (aa) have been paid, the policy shall be renewed by the registered insurer or reinsurer and continue in force;
- (bb) have not been paid, the policy shall then lapse.

(2) The period referred to in paragraph (b) of subregulation (1) shall be determined in accordance with rules made by the registered insurer or reinsurer concerned, and made known to the policyholder not later than the date of issue of the funeral policy, but shall be not less than a number of months equal to the number of complete years for which premiums have been paid before the due date of the unpaid premium.

(3) If a claim under a funeral policy arises during any period of grace referred to in subregulation (1), the registered insurer or reinsurer shall be entitled to deduct the value of any unpaid premium from the value of any benefit payable or to be provided in terms of that claim.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subregulation (1), a registered insurer or reinsurer -

- (a) may grant to a policyholder more favourable terms than those contemplated in the said subregulation;
- (b) may not after the date contemplated in paragraph (b) of the said subregulation grant to a policyholder, in respect of a funeral policy effected before such date, terms which are less favourable than those which were applicable to the discontinued policy on such date;
- (c) shall be entitled to receive interest, in accordance with the rules made by such insurer or reinsurer in terms of subregulation(2), on any such overdue or unpaid premium.

Limitation of remuneration

13. (1) No consideration shall in respect of long-term insurance business, directly or indirectly, be paid, allowed or given to, or accepted by or on behalf of, an insurance agent or an insurance broker or a reinsurance broker or any other person as remuneration for rendering services as an intermediary towards effecting, maintaining or servicing any long-term policy otherwise than by way of commission in monetary form.

(2) The commission payable in respect of a long-term policy shall, regardless of the number of intermediaries involved, in total not exceed the maximum rate of commission specified in Annexure A.

(3) No commission shall be paid, allowed, given or accepted in respect of a long-term policy before the date on which the premium in respect of which it is payable is paid to the registered insurer or reinsurer concerned: Provided that in respect of such policy commission relating to any particular policy year may at the commencement of that year be paid, allowed, given or accepted in advance of receipt of any premium for that year, provided -

REGULATIONS
Long-term Insurance Act 5 of 1998
Long-term Insurance Regulations, 1998

- (a) for the purposes of calculating the amount of the advance commission, it shall be assumed that the premium becomes due with the same frequency as the commission; and
- (b) if any such premium remains partially or wholly un-paid, the registered insurer or reinsurer shall reverse the commission relating to at least the unpaid part or the whole, as the case may be, of such premium.

(4) If a premium or any part thereof is for any reason refunded by a registered insurer or reinsurer, the commission paid, allowed or given in respect of that premium or part of that premium, if any, shall be refunded to the registered insurer or reinsurer by the person to whom it was paid, allowed or given.

Fees

14. (1) The fees payable in terms of sections 14(3)(b)(ii), 15(2)(b)(ii), 18(3)(b)(ii), 55(2)(b)(ii) and 64 of the Act are as set out in the second column of Annexure B opposite the type of transaction set out in the first column of that Annexure.

- (2) No fees shall be payable by a Government office, ministry or agency.

Limits of investment

15. (1) The value of the assets which every registered insurer and every reinsurer is, subject to the provisions of subregulation (5), required to hold in respect of its long-term insurance business in terms of sections 26 and 27 of the Act, shall not, in respect of the kinds or categories of assets set out in Column 2 of Annexure C, exceed the percentage set out opposite each such kind or category of asset in Column 3 of that Annexure, which percentage expresses a maximum percentage of the aggregate liabilities of the long-term insurance business of the registered insurer or reinsurer, except for assets of the kind or category referred to in item 10 where the percentage expresses a percentage of the market value of the investments of the registered insurer or reinsurer, but -

- (a) assets of the kinds or categories referred to in items 6 to 9, inclusive, in Column 2 of that Annexure held in respect of long-term insurance business shall not exceed 95 per cent of the aggregate liabilities of the long-term insurance business of the registered insurer or reinsurer; and
- (b) assets of the kinds or categories referred to in item 6 and 7 in Column 2 of that Annexure held in respect of long-term insurance business shall not exceed 90 per cent of the aggregate liabilities of the long-term insurance business of the registered insurer or reinsurer.

(2) Notwithstanding subregulation (1), a registered insurer or reinsurer shall, in respect of its long-term insurance business, invest in domestic assets not less than the following percentages of the market value of its total assets, at all times after the following dates -

- (a) 31 August 2018, not less than 40%;
- (b) 30 November 2018, not less than 42.5%; and
- (c) 31 March 2019, not less than 45%.

REGULATIONS
Long-term Insurance Act 5 of 1998
Long-term Insurance Regulations, 1998

(3) In the application of subregulation (1), with regard to domestic assets of a registered insurer or reinsurer, domestic assets consisting of shares acquired in a company incorporated outside Namibia shall not exceed -

- (a) 30 per cent of the market value of its total assets from 1 January 2014;
- (b) 25 per cent of the market value of its total assets from 1 January 2015;
- (c) 20 per cent of the market value of its total assets from 1 January 2016;
- (d) 15 per cent of the market value of its total assets from 1 January 2017; and
- (e) 10 per cent of the market value of its total assets from 1 January 2018.

(4) Assets consisting of shares in a company incorporated outside Namibia in excess of the limit set out in subregulation (3), acquired on a stock exchange licensed under the Stock Exchanges Control Act, 1985 (Act No. 1 of 1985) are, in the application of this regulation, regarded as foreign assets.

(5) Notwithstanding subregulation (1), every registered insurer or reinsurer shall invest 1.75 per cent of the market value of its investments in unlisted investments, but the unlisted investments may cumulatively not exceed 3.5 per cent of the market value of a registered insurer or reinsurer's investments.

(6) An investment in any asset is only to be regarded as an investment in that kind or category of asset when a registered insurer or reinsurer has directly or indirectly invested in a specific asset falling within that kind or category.

(7) With regard to the assets which every registered insurer and reinsurer is required to hold in terms of subregulation (1), where the value of a kind or category of asset or an asset exceeds a percentage contemplated in subregulation (1) by 5% or less, as the result of a movement in the value of any asset and not due to a further investment in the same kind or category of asset or the asset which exceeds the percentage, a registered insurer or reinsurer is not be in contravention of subregulation (1) if the registered insurer or reinsurer -

- (a) immediately on becoming aware of such excess notifies the Registrar in writing that a percentage contemplated in subregulation (1) has been exceeded; and
- (b) complies with this regulation within the period specified by the Registrar in writing after having been notified in terms of paragraph (a).

(8) An investment may only be classified or counted as an investment in one kind or category of asset and such investment shall not be changed without the written approval of the Registrar upon good cause shown.

(9) A registered insurer or reinsurer shall within 90 days, or a shorter period determined, after the end of each calendar quarter, submit to the Registrar a statement of investment holdings in such form as the Registrar shall determine.

(10) With regard to the assets which every registered insurer and reinsurer is required to hold in terms of subregulation (1), where a registered insurer or reinsurer invests in a unit trust scheme as defined in the Unit Trusts Control Act, 1981 (Act No. 54 of 1981), such investment is regarded as a proportionate investment in the unit portfolio's underlying assets.

REGULATIONS
Long-term Insurance Act 5 of 1998
Long-term Insurance Regulations, 1998

(11) The assets which every registered insurer and reinsurer are required to hold in terms of subregulation (1) shall, without any limitation per kind or category of asset, include -

- (a) assets of the kinds or categories referred to in items 1 and 8 of Schedule 1 to the Act; and
- (b) assets of the kinds or categories referred to in items 2 to 6, inclusive, of Schedule 1 to the Act, but the limitations per institutions set out in items 2 and 3 of Annexure C apply thereto.

(12) For the purposes of subregulation (1) -

- (a) assets of the kinds referred to in Schedule 1 to the Act (excluding amounts due by a registered insurer or reinsurer to an investment subsidiary) of an investment subsidiary are to the following extent deemed to be assets of such insurer or reinsurer in lieu of such insurer's or reinsurer's shares in and net loans to the investment subsidiary -

- (i) that part of each asset of the investment subsidiary which is included as an asset of such insurer or reinsurer in lieu of such insurer's or reinsurer's net loans to the investment subsidiary, calculated as follows:

market value of each asset of investment subsidiary		insurer's or reinsurer's net loans to investment subsidiary
market value of total assets of investment subsidiary

market value of each asset of investment subsidiary		insurer's or reinsurer's net loans to investment subsidiary

- (13) For the purposes of subregulation (12) -

- (a) "each asset", in relation to an investment subsidiary, means an asset of the investment subsidiary of the kinds referred to in Schedule 1 to the Act, excluding an amount due by a registered insurer or reinsurer to an investment subsidiary;
- (b) "equity shares", in relation to an investment subsidiary, means the issued shares of the investment subsidiary, but not shares which, concerning neither dividends nor capital, grant a right to participate in excess of a determined amount in a distribution;
- (c) "net loans", in relation to an investment subsidiary, means all loans by a registered insurer or reinsurer to the investment subsidiary less all loans by the investment subsidiary to the registered insurer or reinsurer; and
- (d) "non-equity interest", in relation to an investment subsidiary, means the issued shares of the investment subsidiary (excluding equity shares) plus the value to be apportioned.

(14) Every registered insurer and every reinsurer shall annually, within six months after the end of its financial year, submit to the Registrar in the form set out in Annexure D, a statement containing such particulars as the Registrar shall require in determining whether the registered insurer or reinsurer is complying with subregulation (1).

(15) Any investment made outside the common monetary area shall comply with such limitations as shall be determined under the Currency and Exchanges Act, 1933 (Act No. 9 of 1933), from time to time.

(16) The Registrar, on prior written application by a registered insurer or reinsurer, shall grant such registered insurer or reinsurer written exemption from any of the provisions of this regulation subject to such conditions as he or she shall impose, but the Registrar shall only exempt
