REGULATIONS MADE IN TERMS OF

Namibian Constitution

pursuant to Article 26(5) of the Namibian Constitution, subsequent to the declaration of a State of Emergency in the whole of Namibia, following a worldwide outbreak of the disease known as Coronavirus Disease 2019
(COVID-19), by Proclamation No. 7 of 18 March 2020 (GG 7148)

State of Emergency - Covid-19: Suspension of Operation of Provisions of Certain Laws and Ancillary Matters Regulations

Proclamation 36 of 2020

(GG 7275)

came into force on date of publication: 16 July 2020

Many of these regulations apply to the “restricted area” and/or the “specified period” referred to in the Stage 3: State of Emergency Regulations: Erongo Region.
The specified period extended from 00:00 on 7 July 2020 to 24:00 on 3 August 2020, and the restricted area was essentially the local authority areas of Arandis, Swakopmund and Walvis Bay.
(See the definition of “restricted area” and “specified period” in regulation 1 read together with the definitions of those terms in “Stage 3: State of Emergency Regulations: Erongo Region” published in Proclamation 32 of 2020 (GG 7264) – which were repealed and replaced by the “Stage 3: State of Emergency - Covid-19 Regulations: Erongo Region” contained in Proclamation 39 of 2020 (GG 7283) – and the references to these terms in regulation 2 and throughout the regulations.)

However, some of the regulations applied throughout Namibia but only for limited time periods specified in individual regulations, while some of the regulations apply generally throughout Namibia during the entire State of Emergency.

PRELIMINARY MATTERS

Definitions

1. In these regulations a word or an expression to which a meaning has been given in the Regulations or in an affected law bears that meaning and, unless the context indicates otherwise -

“Stage 3 State of Emergency Regulations: Erongo Region” means Stage 3: State of Emergency - Covid-19 Regulations: Erongo Region published under Proclamation No. 32 of 6 July 2020;

[The referenced regulations have been repealed and replaced by the “Stage 3: State of Emergency - Covid-19 Regulations: Erongo Region” contained in Proc. 39 of 2020 (GG 7283), as amended by Proclamation 43 of 2020 (GG 7294).]

“specified period” means the period referred to in regulation 3 of the Stage 3: State of Emergency Regulations: Erongo Region;

[The referenced regulations have been repealed and replaced by the “Stage 3: State of Emergency - Covid-19 Regulations: Erongo Region” contained in Proc. 39 of 2020 (GG 7283), as amended by Proc. 43 of 2020 (GG 7294). The “specified period” began at 00:00 on 7 July 2020 in terms of the repealed regulations and continued without a break under the replacement regulations; the specified period in both the repealed regulations and the replacement regulations was initially set to end at 24:00 on 3 August 2020 but was extended by Proc. 43 of 2020 to 24:00 on 31 August 2020.]

“restricted area” means restricted area as defined in regulation 1 of the Stage 3 State of Emergency Regulations: Erongo Region; and

REGULATIONS
Namibian Constitution

State of Emergency – Suspension Regulations

[The referenced regulations have been repealed and replaced by the “Stage 3: State of Emergency - Covid-19 Regulations: Erongo Region” contained in Proc. 39 of 2020 (GG 7283), as amended by Proc. 43 of 2020 (GG 7294). The definition of “restricted area” is the same in the repealed regulations, the replacement regulations and the replacement regulations (as amended): “restricted area’ means the local authority areas of Arandis, Swakopmund and Walvis Bay including the portion of the main tarred road that connects the local authority areas of Arandis and Swakopmund and which portion is situated outside these two local authority areas, as well as the strips of land of five kilometers on either side of that portion of the road.”]

“State of Emergency” means the State of Emergency that was declared by the President by Proclamation No. 7 of 18 March of 2020, and which came into effect on 17 March 2020.

Purpose of regulations

2. The purpose of these regulations is to -
  - (a) suspend the operation of provisions of certain laws; and
  - (b) deal with incidental matters arising from the suspension of the operation of the laws by the President pursuant to Article 26(5)(b) of the Namibian Constitution, subject to such conditions as are reasonably justifiable, for the purpose of combating, preventing and suppressing the spread of COVID-19, for the duration of the periods specified in these regulations or the State of Emergency, as applicable.

SUSPENSION OF OPERATION OF PROVISIONS OF CERTAIN LAWS

Suspension of operation of certain provisions of Magistrates’ Courts Act, 1944

3. (1) The procedures and time periods specified in the Rules of Court published under Government Notice No. R.1108 of 21 June 1968 (hereafter “the Rules of Court”), are suspended in respect of the restricted area for the duration of the specified period insofar as they relate to -

- (a) a party or witness who is not ordinarily resident in the restricted area and who, for the duration of the specified period, is refused entry into Namibia or is unable to enter the restricted area due to the restrictions on movement of persons imposed by the Stage 3 State of Emergency Regulations: Erongo Region; or
  - (b) any other party or witness, including a Namibian citizen, a person domiciled in Namibia or any other person who in terms of any law has the right to residency in Namibia, and who, for the duration of the specified period, is not -
    - (i) in the restricted area; and
    - (ii) able to return to the restricted area because of any Covid-19 related reason.
- (2) Any sale in execution and the time periods specified in -
- (a) sections 63, 65E, 66 and 71A of the Magistrates’ Courts Act, 1944 (Act No. 32 of 1944); and
  - (b) rules 36, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43 and 45(4) of the Rules of Court, are suspended in the restricted area for the duration of the specified period.

Suspension of operation of certain provision of Price Control Act, 1964

4. Despite section 2 of the Price Control Act, 1964 (Act No. 25 of 1964) that requires the Minister to appoint a Price Controller subject to the laws governing the public service, the Minister responsible for administering that Act, may appoint a Price Controller for the duration of the State of Emergency, without complying with the requirements of that section.

Suspension of operation of certain provisions of Criminal Procedure Act, 1977

5. (1) Any time period, time limit and process relating to the operations of the Magistrates' Courts in criminal matters as contemplated in Chapters 15, 17, 18, 19A, 20, 21, 22, 25, 26, 27, 28 and 29 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977) (hereafter "the Act"), are suspended in the restricted area for the duration of the specified period insofar as they relate to -

- (a) an accused person or a witness who, for the duration of the specified period, is refused entry into Namibia or is unable to enter the restricted area due to the restrictions on movement of persons imposed by the Stage 3 State of Emergency Regulations: Erongo Region; or
- (b) any other accused person or witness, including a Namibian citizen, a person domiciled in Namibia or any other person who in terms of any law has the right to residency in Namibia, and who, for the duration of the specified period, is not -
  - (i) in the restricted area; and
  - (ii) able to return to the restricted area because of any Covid-19 related reason.

(2) The time periods contained in sections 303, 306 and 310 of the Act, are suspended in the restricted area for the duration of the specified period insofar as they relate to -

- (a) an accused person or a witness who is not ordinarily resident in Namibia and who, for the duration of the specified period, is refused entry into the restricted area; or
- (b) any other accused person or witness, including a Namibian citizen, a person domiciled in Namibia or any other person who in terms of any law has the right to residency in Namibia, and who, for the duration of the specified period, is not -
  - (i) in the restricted area; and
  - (ii) able to return to the restricted area because of any Covid-19 related reason.

(3) The computation of any time period or time limit or days required for the completion of any process or the doing of anything as contemplated in subregulation (1) or (2) interrupted during the specified period commences after the expiry of that period.

Suspension of operation of certain provisions of Social Security Act, 1994

6. (1) The provisions of section 21(4) and (5) of the Social Security Act, 1994 (Act No. 34 of 1994), insofar as they relate to the obligation of the employer to deduct and pay over both the employees' and employer's contributions to the Social Security Commission, are suspended from 1 May 2020 to 31 July of 2020, except that this benefit only extends to an employer who has suffered or is likely to suffer financial losses due to the impact of COVID-19 on the employer's operations.

(2) An employer who is exempted from deducting and paying over contributions to the Social Security Commission pursuant to subregulation (1) is discharged from liability to pay money to the Commission as contemplated in section 26(1) of the Act referred to in subregulation (1) for the period from 1 May 2020 to 31 July 2020.

(3) The conducting of training schemes and employment schemes approved by the President for the benefit of socio-economically disadvantaged persons who are unemployed as contemplated in section 37(4) of the Act referred to in subregulation (1) is deemed to be extended to include a member of any of the funds who was registered on or before 17 March 2020, and who has suffered or is likely to suffer financial losses due to the impact of COVID-19 during the State of Emergency.

Suspension of operation of certain provisions of Medical Aid Funds Act, 1995

7. (1) Section 30(1)(d) of the Medical Aid Funds Act, 1995 (Act No. 23 of 1995) and any rules embodying the prohibition under section 30(1)(d), which provides that every registered fund as defined in section 1 of that Act must have rules in which provision must be made that no portion of any surplus realised by the fund in any financial year may be distributed to its members or any other persons, is suspended from 28 March 2020 to 17 September 2020.

(2) For the duration of the period referred to in subregulation (1) registered funds referred to in that subregulation may allocate a portion of any surplus realised by the funds -

- (a) to transactions that may be regarded as critical and essential and to the extent that it relates to the COVID-19 pandemic;
- (b) to voluntarily provide financial assistance or donate or sponsor medical equipment, medical consumables, including but not limited to gloves, masks, testing kits or any other aid that will complement and assist the fight against the COVID-19 pandemic, subject to the medical aid funds remaining in a sound financial position.

(3) A registered fund referred to in subregulation (1) may select beneficiaries of its choice to receive assistance referred to in subregulation (2) and in so doing registered funds are encouraged to implement fair and objective criteria in selecting beneficiaries.

Suspension of operation of certain provision of Identification Act, 1996

8. The operation of section 14(2) of the Identification Act, 1996 (Act No. 21 of 1996) is suspended for the duration of the State of Emergency, except that the Minister responsible for administering that Act may, whenever he or she considers it necessary, disclose specific information such as the name, surname and identity number of any person contained in the Population Register for Namibia to any institution, public or private, for the validation and verification of such information for the purpose of payment of any grant made available by the State.
