and may contain any other matter not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act which is necessary or expedient in order to achieve its objects.

(2) Any rules regulating the internal affairs of a co-operative referred to in paragraph (n) of subsection (1) -

- (a) shall not be inconsistent with any provision of this Act or the by-laws of the co-operative;
- (b) shall be approved by special resolution by the co-operative.

Amendment of by-laws

12. (1) A co-operative may amend its by-laws by special resolution, but such amendment shall not be of any force or effect unless such amendment has, upon an application made to the Registrar in terms of subsection (2), been approved by the Registrar, and shall come into operation on the date on which it is so approved or on such other date (which may be a date prior to the date of approval) as may be specified in the special resolution.

(2) An application referred to in subsection (1) for the approval of the Registrar of an amendment of the by-laws of a co-operative shall be made to the Registrar, in such form as may be determined by the Registrar, within 30 days as from the date on which the special resolution referred to in that subsection has been passed or such longer period as the Registrar may in a particular case, on good cause shown, allow.

- (3) An application in terms of subsection (2) shall be accompanied by -
  - (a) a statement by the person who acted as chairperson of the general meeting at which the special resolution referred to in subsection (1) has been passed -
    - (i) that the said meeting was held on a date mentioned in the statement;
    - (ii) that he or she has satisfied himself or herself that proper notice of such meeting and the proposed amendment has been given to the members of the co-operative; and
    - (iii) that such special resolution was passed by a majority of votes of two-thirds of its members present at such meeting;
  - (b) an explanation of the reasons for the amendment;

Co-operatives Act 23 of 1996

- (c) two copies of the special resolution in which the amendment is set out;
- (d) revenue stamps to the value of such amount as may be determined in terms of section 106 in respect of applications made in terms of this section, and which shall be cancelled by the Registrar upon the granting of the application.

(4) If the Registrar is satisfied that the provisions of this Act and the by-laws of the co-operative concerned have been complied with in respect of an application in terms of subsection (2), he or she shall approve the amendment and make an endorsement on one copy of the special resolution in question to the effect that it has been approved by the Registrar and affix the official stamp of the Registration Office for Co-operatives on each page of the special resolution.

(5) The copy of the special resolution, endorsed as provided in subsection (4), shall be handed over or forwarded by certified post within a period of two months from the date of such endorsement to the co-operative concerned, and the other copy of such special resolution shall be retained by the Registrar in the Registration Office for Co-operatives.

(6) If the by-laws of a co-operative is amended in order to alter the name of the co-operative or an abbreviation of such name, the Registrar shall -

- (a) enter the new name or abbreviation of such name in the register of co-operatives in the place of the name so altered; and
- (b) issue within a period of two months from the date of such entry a certificate to such co-operative in which it is declared that the name of such co-operative or the abbreviation of such name has been altered in accordance with this Act and in which the new name or abbreviation of such name is mentioned.

(7) The Registrar shall, if an application in terms of subsection (2) is refused, within a period of two months from the date of such refusal, by notice in writing inform the co-operative concerned of such refusal setting forth his or her reasons for such refusal.

(8) An amendment or substitution which alters the name of a co-operative shall not affect any right or obligation of the co-operative or its members or past members, and any legal proceedings pending may be commenced or continued by or against such co-operative under its new name.

(9) The provisions of this section, in so far as they relate to the approval of the Registrar, shall not apply in relation to an amendment of the by-laws of a co-operative in terms of which -

- (a) the minimum number of shares which every member of a co-operative is required to hold in the co-operative is increased;
- (b) the postal address or the street address of the registered office of the co-operative or the description of the place where such office is situated, is changed.

- (iii) to compile an estimate of revenue and expenditure and a cash flow forecast for at least the first three years, or such shorter period as the Registrar may on good cause shown in any particular case allow, of the business of such proposed co-operative.

Co-operatives' founders meetings

14. (1) A formation committee referred to in section 13 shall, after having complied with the relevant provisions of that section, convene a founders meeting of persons qualified as provided in section 10 and who desire to become members of the proposed co-operative.

(2) At a meeting convened in terms of subsection (1) at which the required number of persons prescribed by section 10 are present who are in favour of the formation of the proposed co-operative -

- (a) there shall be submitted -
  - (i) in the case of an intended application for provisional registration of the co-operative, the proposed by-laws referred to in section 13(4)(a)(ii); and
  - (ii) in the case of an intended application for full registration of the co-operative, in addition to the said proposed by-laws, the list, feasibility study, estimate of revenue and expenditure and cash flow forecast referred to in section 13(4)(b)(iii);
- (b) a written declaration shall be prepared and signed by the persons present at such meeting in which it is declared that it has been resolved to form such proposed co-operative;
- (c) the proposed by-laws of such proposed co-operative shall be considered and approved with or without amendments by a majority of votes of at least two-thirds of the persons referred to in subsection (1) present at such meeting;
- (d) a register of members shall be opened and signed by the persons who are so present and who wish to become members of such proposed co-operative;
- (e) there shall, subject to subsection (3), be elected by simple majority by secret ballot a number of natural persons mentioned in the proposed by-laws to be the members of the first board and the first supervisory committee, if any, of such proposed co-operative; and
- (f) there shall be kept minutes of the proceedings.

(3) No person shall participate in any election in terms of subsection (2)(e), unless he or she has signed the register of members of the proposed co-operative concerned.

Applications for registration of co-operatives

15. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, an application for provisional or full registration as a co-operative shall be made to the Registrar, in such form as may be determined by the Registrar, by not less than the required number of persons referred to in section 10 within a period of two months as from the date on which the founders meeting referred to in section 14(1) was held or such longer period as the Registrar may allow.

- (2) Any application referred to in subsection (1) shall be accompanied by -

Co-operatives Act 23 of 1996

- (a) in the case of an application for the provisional registration of a co-operative -
  - (i) the written declaration referred to in section 14(2)(b);
  - (ii) the by-laws of such co-operative approved as provided in section 14(2)(c) containing on each page thereof the initials, and on the last page thereof the signatures, of at least three persons elected in terms of section 14(2)(e) as the members of the first board of such co-operative;
  - (iii) a list of the persons who have in terms of section 14(2)(d) signed the register of members as first members of such co-operative;
  - (iv) a description of the proposed business and other activities of such co-operative;
  - (v) a list of the names and addresses, identity numbers and occupations of the persons elected in terms of section 14(2)(e) as the members of the first board and the first supervisory committee, if any, of such co-operative; and
  - (vi) the minutes of the proceedings of the founders meeting referred to in section 14(2)(f);
- (b) in the case of an application for full registration of a co-operative, in addition to the documents referred to in paragraph (a), also the list, feasibility study, estimate of revenue and expenditure and cash flow forecast referred to in section 14(2)(a)(ii);
- (c) such other documents or information as the Registrar may require; and
- (d) revenue stamps to the value of such amount as may be determined in terms of section 106 in respect of applications made in terms of this section, and which shall be cancelled by the Registrar upon the granting of the application.

(3) The Registrar may, for purposes of the consideration of an application made to him or her in terms of subsection (1), at any time visit any premises of the proposed co-operative concerned or cause such meetings as the Registrar may deem necessary or expedient for purposes of discussing or determining any matter relating to such application to be convened at a place mutually agreed upon between the Registrar and the persons elected in terms of section 14(2)(e) as the first members of the board of that proposed co-operative.

Registration of co-operatives

16. (1) Within a period of two months as from the date on which an application referred to in section 15 has been received in the Registration Office for Co-operatives, or such longer period as the Permanent Secretary may upon good cause shown approve in writing, the Registrar shall consider such application and -

- (a) shall grant or, subject to subsection (2), refuse such application;
- (b) shall, if such application is refused under paragraph (a), by notice in writing inform the persons concerned of such refusal setting forth his or her reasons for such refusal;
- (c) shall, if such application is granted under paragraph (a) -

- (i) provisionally or fully register, as the case may be, the co-operative concerned by entering in the register of co-operatives the particulars of such co-operative as required by section 5(1);
  - (ii) issue, in such form as may be determined by the Registrar, a certificate of registration that the co-operative concerned is provisionally or fully registered, as the case may be, and on which the seal of the Registrar is impressed and to which a number has been allotted;
  - (iii) approve, with or without any amendments, the by-laws of such co-operative and make an endorsement on each page of such by-laws to the effect that such by-laws have been approved by him or her and affix the official stamp of the Registration Office for Co-operatives on each such page;
- (d) may, if, in the case of an application for full registration as a co-operative, he or she is satisfied that he or she would have provisionally registered such co-operative had the application been an application for provisional registration, in consultation with the persons who made the application in question, provisionally register the co-operative mutatis mutandis in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (c).
- (2) An application for provisional or full registration of a co-operative shall not be granted -
- (a) if the Registrar is satisfied -
    - (i) that the provisions of this Act have not been complied with in relation to such application; or
    - (ii) that the by-laws of such co-operative are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act;
  - (b) unless and until such time as the Registrar is satisfied that the members of the first board of such co-operative elected in terms of section 14(2)(e) have sufficient knowledge of the by-laws of such co-operative and, in the case of an application for full registration, of the business and activities of the co-operative as reflected in the documents submitted in relation to the application, and the Registrar may from time to time postpone his or her decision on the application until he or she is so satisfied;
  - (c) unless, in the case of an application for full registration, the Registrar is satisfied that the co-operative is likely to be economically viable and that its registration will be in the interest of its members.
- (3) (a) The certificate of registration issued in terms of subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (c) of subsection (1) and the by-laws endorsed as provided in subparagraph (iii) of that paragraph shall be handed over or forwarded by certified post to the co-operative registered in terms of subparagraph (i) of that paragraph, and a copy of such certificate and by-laws shall be retained by the Registrar in the Registration Office for Co-operatives.
- (b) A certificate of registration of a co-operative referred to in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (c) of subsection (1) or a certified copy thereof shall upon its mere production be prima facie proof that the requirements of this Act in respect of its registration have been complied with and that the co-operative is a registered co-operative.

- (c) A member shall not be eligible for re-election for a period exceeding nine consecutive years, but shall again be eligible after the elapse of a period of two years after such period of nine years.

(4) A member of the board shall receive no remuneration or allowances in respect of his or her services as such a member other than a honorarium authorized by a resolution passed at any general meeting of the co-operative, but the board may, in accordance with its estimates of revenue and expenditure, authorize the payment to any member of the board of any actual expenditure incurred in connection with any journey undertaken by him or her in connection with the functions of the board.

Qualifications of members of boards

- 30. A person shall not hold office as a member of a board -
- (a) unless he or she is a member of the co-operative;
  - (b) unless he or she is 18 years of age or older or, in the case of a registered co-operative of which all its members are learners at a school, at least 14 years of age;
  - (c) if such person is the chief executive officer or any other officer in the employ of the co-operative;
  - (d) if such person is a corporate body or an unincorporated association of persons: Provided that a corporate body or an unincorporated association of persons may be represented on the board by any natural person duly elected thereto in the manner contemplated in section 29(3) from persons nominated, in such manner as may be prescribed in the relevant by-laws, by such corporate body or unincorporated association or persons;
  - (e) if he or she is a member of the National Assembly, the National Council, a regional authority or local authority;
  - (f) if he or she is in the service of any governmental body established by or under any law which is funded, whether partly or wholly, out of funds appropriated by Parliament and he or she has not obtained the necessary permission to hold such office from the governmental body concerned;
  - (g) if his or her estate is sequestrated;
  - (h) if he or she has at any time been removed from an office of trust on account of misconduct;
  - (i) if he or she has at any time been convicted of any contravention of any provision of this Act in relation to the formation or management of a co-operative or any offence involving dishonesty;
  - (j) if he or she has within a period of five years prior to the date of election or appointment of members of the board been dismissed fairly as an employee of a co-operative;
  - (k) if he or she has at any time been expelled as provided in section 21(1)(b)(ii)(bb) as a member of a co-operative;

---

- (l) if he or she is not qualified by virtue of the by-laws of the co-operative concerned to hold such office.

Vacation of offices by members of boards, and filling of casual vacancies

31. (1) A member of the board shall cease to hold office as a member of such board if he or she -

- (a) becomes incompetent in terms of section 30 to hold such office as member of such board;
- (b) has absented himself or herself from three consecutive meetings of that board without the leave of the board;
- (c) resigns by notice in writing;
- (d) accepts any remuneration or allowances from the co-operative other than a honorarium authorized as provided in section 29(4);
- (e) is removed from office under subsection (2).

(2) A member of the board may at any time be removed from office by special resolution by the co-operative and in respect of which due notice has been given of the intention to move such a resolution

(3) Any vacancy on the board arising from a circumstance referred to in subsection (1) and every vacancy caused by the death of a member may be filled by the appointment of any other competent person by the board in such manner as may be provided in the by-laws, and every member so appointed shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the period of office of the vacating members.

Office bearers of boards

32. (1) One member of the board elected in terms of section 29(3) shall, in such manner as may be provided in the by-laws of the co-operative, be elected as the chairperson, and two other such members shall be so elected as the vice-chairperson and secretary of the board.

(2) When the chairperson of the board is absent or is unable to perform his or her functions as chairperson, the vice-chairperson shall act as chairperson during the absence or incapacity of the chairperson, or, if both the chairperson and the vice-chairperson are absent or unable to perform the functions of the chairperson, the board may elect any other member to act as chairperson during such absence or incapacity, and such member shall, while he or she so acts, have all the powers and shall perform all the duties and functions of the chairperson.

[The word “vice-chairperson” is misspelt in the Government Gazette in its first use in subsection (2), as reproduced above.]

- (3) (a) The chairperson of the board of a co-operative shall, subject to his or her remaining a member of the board, retire as chairperson at the first meeting of the board held subsequent to an annual general meeting, but shall be eligible for re-election.
- (b) The provisions of paragraph (a) shall mutatis mutandis apply to the vice-chairperson and secretary of the board.

Meetings of boards

33. (1) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), a meeting of the board of a co-operative shall be held on at least four occasions during the financial year of the co-operative at a time and place determined by the chairperson.

(b) The chairperson shall on a reasoned request in writing by at least one-third of the members of the board or by the supervisory committee of the co-operative convene a special meeting of the board.

(2) A majority of all the members of a board of a co-operative, or such larger number of such members as may be determined in the by-laws of a co-operative, shall form a quorum for a meeting of the board.

(3) A decision of the majority of the members of the board present and voting at a meeting of the board, or such larger number of such members so present and voting as may be determined in the by-laws of the co-operative, shall be a decision of the board: Provided that in the event of an equality of votes the chairperson shall, in addition to his or her deliberative vote, have a casting vote.

(4) No decision taken by the board or act performed under the authority of the board shall be invalid by reason only of -

(a) a vacancy on the board;

(b) the fact that a person who is not entitled to sit as a member sat as a member;

(c) the fact that a person who was entitled to be elected, appointed or co-opted was not so elected or appointed or co-opted, at the time when the decision was taken or the act was authorized, if the decision was taken or the act was authorized by the requisite majority of the members who were present at the time and entitled to sit as members.

Minutes of meetings of boards

34. (1) The board shall cause minutes to be kept of all proceedings at its meetings, to be entered as soon as may be possible, but not later than the date of its next consecutive ordinary meeting, in one or more books to be kept for that purpose at the registered office of the co-operative.

(2) The minutes of any meeting of the board signed by the chairperson of the board shall in any court be prima facie proof of the taking place of anything which according to such minutes took place at such meeting.

Liability of members of boards

35. A member of the board or its chief executive officer or other officer of the co-operative shall not be liable to any person in his or her personal capacity for any loss or damage which may occur in or in connection with the performance of his or her duties, unless -

(a) the loss or damage is due to his or her wilful misconduct, dishonesty or gross negligence or to the fact that he or she wilfully contravened or that he or she refused to comply with a provision of this Act or the by-laws or rules regulating the internal affairs of the co-operative and such loss or damage is not covered by a fidelity guarantee policy or any other similar policy taken out by the co-operative; or

- (b) the loss or damage is due to his or her reckless conduct, or conduct which is or was intended to defraud any person or for any other fraudulent purpose, in which case he or she shall be liable in his or her personal capacity without any limitations or liability.

Subcommittees of boards

36. (1) If provision is made in the by-laws of a co-operative for the establishment and constitution of subcommittees of the board, any such subcommittee shall -

- (a) have at least one member of the co-operative who is not a member of the board;
- (b) in the case of a co-operative that has more than 20 women as members or if more than one-third of its members are women or the members who are women represent more than three percent of the total number of its members, whichever is the lesser, have at least one woman, as a member of such subcommittee.

(2) If no woman is, in terms of paragraph (b) of subsection (1), elected or appointed as a member of the subcommittee, the subcommittee shall, at its first meeting held after such election or appointment has taken place, appoint a woman who is a member of the co-operative, and such woman shall have all rights, duties, liabilities and obligations as if she was so elected or appointed.

Supervisory committees of co-operatives

37. (1) A co-operative that has 40 or more members shall, and a co-operative that has less than 40 members may, provide in its by-laws for the establishment of a supervisory committee which shall consist of a chairperson and at least two other members of the co-operative, or if any such member is a corporate body or an unincorporated association of persons, a natural person to represent such member, elected by it at a general meeting mutatis mutandis in the manner determined in its by-laws for the election of members of the board.

(2) A member of the board or the chief executive officer or any other officer in the employ of a co-operative shall not be eligible for election as a member of the supervisory committee.

(3) The provisions of sections 29(3)(b) and (4) shall apply mutatis mutandis in relation to members of the supervisory committee.

Functions of supervisory committees

38. (1) It shall be the functions of a supervisory committee -

- (a) to monitor, as a body independent from the board, the activities of the board; and
- (b) to report at least once in every financial year to the members of the co-operative at the annual general meeting of the co-operative on the manner in which the board or any of its members or the chief executive officer or any other officer in the employ of the co-operative have exercised their powers or performed their duties or functions and whether or not such powers, duties or functions have been exercised or performed effectively and in the interest of the co-operative.

(2) For purposes of the performance of its functions the supervisory committee shall have -

- (a) access to all registers, records and other documents kept by the co-operative in connection with its management, members, administration and business;
- (b) the right to -
  - (i) be furnished with all such documents and information submitted to or at the disposal of the board;
  - (ii) make use, out of moneys made available for such purpose, of the services of an expert or specialised institution for a particular period;
  - (iii) to attend a meeting of the board convened at its request in terms of section 33(1)(b), and may, on special request or invitation by the board, be present at any other meetings of the board;
- (c) such other powers as may be conferred upon it by or under any provision of this Act or the by-laws or the rules regulating the internal affairs of the co-operative.

(3) The board shall cause the minutes of meetings of the board to be made available to every member of the supervisory committee at the same time as such minutes are made available to the members of the board.

Meetings of supervisory committees

39. (1) A meeting of the supervisory committee shall be convened by its chairperson at the request of the majority of its members.

(2) The chairperson shall cause minutes to be kept of the proceedings at a meeting of the supervisory committee which shall from time to time be made available to the board.

Notification to Registrar of certain information relating to members of boards and supervisory committees

40. A co-operative shall inform the Registrar in writing of -

- (a) the names, identity numbers, occupations and addresses of the members of its board and its supervisory committee, if any, and the Registrar shall keep and maintain a register of such members;
- (b) any changes in relation to such members within 14 days of such change, whereupon the Registrar shall make an appropriate entry of such change in the register referred to in paragraph (a).

Part VIII*Meetings of members of co-operatives*Annual general meetings

---

41. (1) A co-operative may, as soon as possible after its registration, and shall thereafter and within six months or such shorter period as may be required by its by-laws after the end of each financial year of the co-operative, hold an annual general meeting of the members of the co-operative so as to -

- (a) consider and approve or issue, in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the by-laws of the co-operative, such other directives as it may deem necessary or expedient -
  - (i) with due regard to the report of the supervisory committee prepared in terms of section 38(1)(b) and the report of the auditor referred to in section 66, the financial state of affairs of the co-operative;
  - (ii) the management report, the programme of activities and the estimate of revenue and expenditure of the co-operative prepared by the board in terms of section 29(1)(b);
- (b) dispose of any other matters which shall or may in terms of this Act or the by-laws of the co-operative be disposed of at an annual general meeting.

(2) (a) An annual general meeting shall, subject to subsection (1), be held at a time and place determined by the board and shall be convened on the authority of the board by giving each member of the co-operative at least 21 days written notice of the meeting.

(b) A notice referred to in paragraph (a) shall, in addition to the time and place of the meeting, state such business as may be determined by the board to be considered at such meeting.

(c) No business other than the business stated in the notice referred to in paragraph (a) or business in respect of which notice has been given, not later than seven days before the time referred to in paragraph (a), to the board by at least 10 members of the co-operative shall be considered at an annual general meeting, except with the approval of at least two-thirds of the members present at such annual general meeting.

(3) If the board fails to convene an annual general meeting as provided for in this section, the supervisory committee shall have the power to convene an annual meeting as if it were the board and its chairperson were the chairperson of the board.

Ordinary and extraordinary general meetings

42. (1) A co-operative may, in addition to its annual general meeting, from time to time hold ordinary general meetings and extraordinary general meetings of its members in order to dispose of any matter relating to the affairs of the co-operative which is not a matter to be disposed of at an annual general meeting or of any matter dealt with but not disposed of, at an annual general meeting.

(2) An ordinary general meeting may as a routine procedure from time to time be convened by the board of the co-operative as provided in the by-laws of the co-operative.

(3) An extraordinary general meeting shall be convened by the chairperson of the board on a reasoned request in writing by -

- (a) at least one-third of the members of the board of the co-operative;

---

- (b) the supervisory committee of the co-operative;
- (c) in the case of a primary co-operative, at least one-tenth of all the members of the co-operative or, if the co-operative has more than 400 members, by at least 40 of its members, whichever is the lesser;
- (d) in the case of a secondary co-operative or a co-operative of a level higher than the level of a secondary co-operative, at least two or more members of the co-operative constituting one-tenth of all the members of the co-operative, and shall be so convened by giving each member of the co-operative at least 14 days' written notice of the meeting.

Appointment of proxies

43. A member of a co-operative that has more than 1000 members may, if authorized thereto by the by-laws of the co-operative, appoint, in a form approved by the Registrar, any member who is competent to become a member of the board as his or her proxy to attend, speak and vote in his or her stead at a general meeting of the co-operative: Provided that -

- (a) a member shall not be entitled to appoint more than one proxy;
- (b) the same member shall not act as proxy to more than seven members.

Quorum for general meetings

44. (1) Unless the by-laws of a co-operative require a larger quorum, a quorum for a general meeting of a co-operative shall be constituted by at least -

- (a) one-half of its first 20 members; and
- (b) if the co-operative has more than 20 but not more than 100 members, a further one-quarter of the number of its members above 20 in addition to the quorum referred to in paragraph (a); and
- (c) if the co-operative has more than 100 but fewer than 1000 members, a further one-twentieth of the number of its members above 100 in addition to the quorum referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b); and
- (d) if the co-operative has more than 1000 members, a further one-fiftieth of the number of its members above 1000 in addition to the quorum referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c), or, in the case of a general meeting of delegates, a quorum for any such general meetings shall be a majority of the delegates elected or appointed as provided in its by-laws.

(2) If within one hour from the time appointed for any general meeting of a co-operative a quorum for such meeting is not present, a second general meeting shall be deemed to be adjourned to a time, not later than 15 days thereafter, determined by the chairperson of the board.

(3) If within one hour from the time determined for an adjourned meeting referred to in subsection (2) a quorum for such meeting is not present, the members present, not being fewer than five, in the case of a primary co-operative, or two, in the case of a secondary co-operative or a co-operative of a level higher than the level of a secondary co-operative, shall be deemed to constitute a quorum for such meeting: Provided that no resolution shall be passed at such a meeting relating to the conversion of the co-operative into a company or close corporation, the winding up of the co-operative, or a matter referred to in section 60.

Chairperson of general meetings

45. (1) The chairperson of the board of a co-operative shall act as the chairperson of any general meeting.

(2) When the chairperson of the board is absent from a general meeting referred to in subsection (1) or is unable to perform his or her functions as chairperson, the vice-chairperson of the board shall act as chairperson during the absence or incapacity of the chairperson, and if both the chairperson and the vice-chairperson are absent or unable to perform the functions of the chairperson, the meeting may elect any other member of the board to act as chairperson during such absence or incapacity, and such member shall, while he or she so acts, have all the powers and shall perform all the duties and functions of the chairperson.

[The word “incapacity” contains an unnecessary hyphen.]

Minutes of general meetings

46. A co-operative shall cause minutes to be kept of all proceedings at its general meetings and to be entered as soon as may be possible, but not later than the date of the next annual general meeting or ordinary or extraordinary general meeting, as the case may be, of the members of the co-operative, in one or more books to be kept for that purpose at the registered office of the co-operative.

Voting rights of members

47. (1) Every member of a co-operative who is not temporarily suspended as a member in terms of the provisions of section 21(1)(b) shall have the right to vote at a general meeting of the co-operative.

(2) A member present at a general meeting of a co-operative and entitled to vote thereat shall have -

- (a) in the case of a primary co-operative where a vote is taken by way of the show of hands or secret ballot, one vote irrespective of the number of shares he or she or it holds;
- (b) in the case of a secondary co-operative or a co-operative of a level higher than secondary level, subject to the provisions of subsection (3), as many votes as may be provided for in the by-laws of that co-operative.

(3) If the by-laws of a co-operative referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) provide for a different number of delegates in respect of its different members, the number of delegates, each having one vote, of each co-operative entitled to vote as a member at a general meeting of any such co-operative shall not exceed a number equal to three times the lowest number of delegates so provided for.

Meetings of members held on area or regional basis

48. (1) If provision is made in the by-laws of a co-operative for the holding of meetings of members on the basis of different regions or areas followed by a general meeting of delegates elected or appointed at meetings held on such regional or area basis, a meeting so held on a regional or area basis shall be held at least 10 days before each general meeting and shall be attended by at least one member of the board.

(2) Unless the by-laws of a co-operative determine otherwise, any recommendation made or decision taken at a meeting held on an area or regional basis shall be valid notwithstanding the number of members who were present at such meeting.

[The word “decision” is misspelt in the Government Gazette, as reproduced above.]

(3) In respect of each meeting held on a regional or area basis there shall be elected or appointed as provided in the by-laws of the co-operative two persons charged with the powers, duties and functions ordinarily exercised or performed by a chairperson and a secretary.

(4) The provisions of this Act relating to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of meeting of delegates referred to in subsection (1).

Part IX Financial matters of co-operatives

Funds of co-operatives

- 49. The funds of a co-operative shall comprise -
- (a) moneys obtained by way of shares issued to members of the co-operative;
  - (b) moneys received by way of fees charged in terms of the by-laws of the co-operative on admission of members;
  - (c) moneys set aside in terms of the provisions of this Act or the by-laws of the co-operative by way of capital reserve funds or deferred expenditure funds out of the net surplus of the co-operative;
  - (d) grants and donations;
  - (e) moneys borrowed by way of loans from any person;
  - (f) any other moneys received by the co-operative from any source.

Share capital of co-operatives

- 50. (1) (a) Subject to subsection (2), a co-operative may, subject to such limitations as may set out in its by-laws, issue as many shares as it may deem fit.
- (b) A share in a co-operative shall come into being when issued and shall lapse when cancelled under section 54.
- (c) The share capital of a co-operative shall be the total nominal value of the shares issued in terms of its by-laws by such co-operative.
- (2) (a) A share shall not be issued by a co-operative at a value of less than one Namibia dollar, and every member shall hold at least one share.
- (b) No member other than a member which is a co-operative shall hold more than one-fifth of the share capital of any co-operative.

Share certificates

51. (1) Every member of a co-operative shall be entitled to a share certificate in respect of shares issued or share certificates in respect of shares issued from time to time to him or her or it, signed by at least one member of the board of such co-operative and an officer duly authorized thereto by such co-operative, specifying the name of the member to whom it has been issued, the number of shares in the co-operative of which such member is the holder and the nominal value of such shares.

(2) A share certificate referred to in subsection (1) may be signed by affixing to such share certificate the signature of the member of the board and officer concerned by autographic or mechanical means.

(3) A share certificate referred to in subsection (1) held by a member of a co-operative shall be prima facie proof of the title of such member to the shares specified therein.

(4) A share certificate which has been lost or destroyed shall be replaced by the co-operative against payment of an amount prescribed by or under the by-laws or the rules regulating the internal affairs of such co-operative.

Payment for shares

52. (1) A share in a co-operative shall not be issued -

- (a) at an amount other than the nominal value thereof;
- (b) for any consideration other than money.

(2) If authorized thereto by its by-laws, a co-operative may issue shares not fully paid up, and such shares shall be paid for in such manner, at such times and on such conditions as may be set out in the by-laws: Provided that -

- (a) no share shall be issued unless at least one-tenth of the nominal value of the shares has been paid to the co-operative;
- (b) an amount payable by a co-operative to a member in respect of bonuses or dividends on shares may be set off by the co-operative against any arrears on shares held by such a member;
- (c) a co-operative may, if it deems fit, accept from a member an amount due, but not yet payable, on such members' shares.

Bonus shares

53. (1) The by-laws of a co-operative may provide for the allocation of bonus shares to the members of the co-operative in accordance with the patronage proportion as determined in the by-laws.

[The word "co-operative" is misspelt in the Government Gazette in its second use in subsection (1), as reproduced above.]

(2) Any bonus shares allocated as provided in subsection (1) shall not be withdrawn or transferred, except -

---

- (a) after such period, but not less than five years, as may be determined in the by-laws of a co-operative; or
- (b) upon the sequestration of the estate or the death or winding-up, as the case may be, of a member.

Cancellation of shares

54. (1) A share in a co-operative issued to a member may, subject to the provisions of the by-laws of such co-operative, be cancelled -

- (a) if such member dies;
- (b) in the case of a member which is a corporate body, if it is wound up;
- (c) if the estate of such member is sequestrated;
- (d) if such member terminates his or her membership under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 21;
- (e) if such member is expelled as a member from the co-operative under section 21(1)(b);
- (f) if such member no longer qualifies to remain a member of the co-operative;
- (g) on any other ground set out in the by-laws of such co-operative.

(2) The amount paid up on shares cancelled under subsection (1) shall be refunded by the co-operative to the person who was the holder of the cancelled shares, in such manner and at such time or over such period as set out in the by-laws of the co-operative.

(3) A person who was the holder of shares immediately before the cancellation thereof under subsection (1) shall not by reason only of such cancellation be released from any liability in respect of such shares until the date on which the amount referred to in subsection (2) has been refunded.

Transfer of shares

55. (1) A member of a co-operative shall not transfer any share held by him or her or it, unless such share is transferred, in such manner and subject to such limitations as may be determined by the by-laws of the co-operative, to the co-operative, a member of the co-operative or a person whose application for membership has been accepted by the co-operative.

(2) Any transfer of shares shall take effect when such transfer is registered in the register of members referred to in section 20.

Restriction on loans and investment of funds of co-operatives

56. (1) The board shall not, in terms of the by-laws of a co-operative, obtain any loan exceeding an amount determined by resolution at a general meeting of the co-operative, except with the prior approval of the members granted by resolution at a general meeting.

(2) The board shall not, in terms of the by-laws of a co-operative, invest any amount exceeding an amount determined by resolution at a general meeting of members of the cooperative, except with the prior approval of the members granted by resolution at a general meeting.

Provisions relating to grants, donations or other contributions made to co-operative

57. (1) (a) Any person who makes any grant, donation or other contribution of whatever nature to a co-operative shall within two months after such grant, donation or contribution has been so made, notify the Registrar in writing of the nature and purpose of such grant, donation or contribution, and shall at the same time submit a copy of such notice to the co-operative concerned.
- (b) The provisions of paragraph (a) shall not be construed as requiring a person referred to in that paragraph to consult the Registrar before making such grant, donation or contribution.

(2) A co-operative to which any grant, donation or contribution referred to in subsection (1) has been made shall, in such form as may be determined by the Registrar, notify the Registrar in writing of the nature of any such grant, donation or contribution, and shall at the same time submit a copy of such notice to the person who has made such grant, donation or contribution.

[The first use of the word "Registrar" in subsection (2) contains an unnecessary hyphen.]

Co-operatives may maintain capital reserve funds or deferred expenditure funds

58. (1) A co-operative may, subject to subsection (2), set aside in a capital reserve fund or a deferred expenditure fund or in a capital reserve fund and a deferred expenditure fund as a reserve any amount or amounts out of its net surplus.

(2) A co-operative shall not distribute to its members out of its net surplus an amount equal to at least 20 percent of such net surplus, but -

- (a) shall -
- (i) issue bonus shares in respect of such amount to its members; or
  - (ii) set aside an amount equal to at least five percent of such amount in any one or both funds referred to in subsection (1); or
- (b) may utilize the balance of the amount referred to in paragraph (a)(ii) as capital in the business of the co-operative, or cause it to be invested in a manner approved by resolution by the members of the co-operative at a general meeting.

Distribution of net surplus

59. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the balance of the net surplus of a co-operative remaining after the 20 percent referred to in subsection (2) of section 58 has been utilized as provided in that subsection and any surplus carried forward from preceding years may be utilized in one or more of the following ways, namely -

- (a) to pay bonuses to each member of the co-operative in such proportion as the proportion which the value of the transactions conducted by each such member with the co-operative during the financial year in question bears to the value of the transactions conducted by all members with the co-operative during such financial year ;

---

- (b) to pay interest to the members of the co-operative on amounts paid up on shares which shall not exceed the rate of interest determined in terms of section 35(a) of the State Finance Act, 1991 (Act 31 of 1991) in respect of loans granted as a charge against the State Revenue Fund;
- (c) to pay incentive bonuses to the employees of the co-operative;
- (d) to fund any special funds established by or under the by-laws of the co-operative;
- (e) to make grants, donations or other contributions to charitable institutions to a total amount not exceeding 10 percent of the net surplus derived in the immediately preceding financial year of the co-operative;
- (f) to pay honoraria authorized as provided in section 29(4) to members of the board;
- (g) to pay up bonus shares for allocation to the members of the co-operative in accordance with the provisions of section 53;
- (h) for any other purpose provided for in the by-laws.

(2) If a loss is incurred during any financial year the net surplus in any succeeding financial year or years shall not be distributed to members until such time as such loss has been recovered.

Restriction on granting financial assistance

- 60. A co-operative shall not -
- (a) advance money to a co-operative of which it is member;
  - (b) indemnify its members or any such co-operative against damage or loss; or
  - (c) become a surety or give security on behalf of its members or any such co-operative, except under the authority of a special resolution.

Restriction relating to borrowing money

61. (1) A co-operative shall not borrow or raise money or overdraw a banking account for an amount exceeding one half of the aggregate of its share capital and general reserve, except under the authority of a special resolution.

(2) Money standing to the credit of members in a members' fund administered by a co-operative shall for the purposes of subsection (1) not be deemed to be money borrowed or raised by such co-operative.

Part X*Accounting records, annual financial statements and auditing*Financial year

62. The financial year of a co-operative shall, unless its by-laws provide otherwise, be a year ending on the last day of February.

Co-operatives Act 23 of 1996

Keeping of accounting records

63. (1) Subject to subsection (3), a co-operative shall keep, in accordance with general accepted accounting principles, such accounting records as are necessary fairly to reflect the state of affairs and business of the co-operative and to explain the transactions and financial position of the business of the co-operative, including -

- (a) records showing the assets and liabilities of the co-operative;
- (b) a register of fixed assets showing in respect of each asset the date of acquisition, the cost price or, if it stands in the co-operative's books at a valuation, the amount of the valuation, depreciation, if any, the date of disposal and the consideration received in respect thereof, and in the case of immovable property a valuation may be done once every three years, and in the intermediate 2 years an estimate shall be sufficient;
- (c) records containing daily entries in sufficient detail of all cash received and paid out and of the matters in respect of which cash is received and paid out;
- (d) where the business of the co-operative involved dealings in goods, records of all goods sold and purchased;
- (e) where the business of the co-operative involved dealings with members and non-members, separate accounts in respect of business with members and non-members; and
- (f) statements of an annual stocktaking.

(2) The accounting records referred to in subsection (1) may be kept either by making entries in bound books or by recording the matters in question in any other manner, and where such records are not kept by making entries in bound books, adequate precautions shall be taken for guarding against falsification and for facilitating its discovery.

(3) The Registrar may, on application made to him or her by any co-operative and if he or she is satisfied that, having regard to the nature and extent of the business transactions carried on by it, such co-operative is unable to keep its accounting records in the form and manner as provided in subsection (1) or that it is impractical for such co-operative to keep such accounting records, authorize such co-operative to keep such other accounting records as may be determined or approved by him or her.

(4) The accounting records referred to in subsection (1) shall be kept at the registered office of the co-operative or at such other place as may be determined by the co-operative and shall at all times be available for inspection by any member of the board or its auditor.

Part XI

Amalgamation, transfer, division and conversion of co-operatives

Amalgamation of co-operatives

73. (1) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), any two or more co-operatives intending to amalgamate may, in such form as may be determined by the Registrar, apply to the Registrar to be amalgamated.

[The word “paragraph” is misspelt in the Government Gazette, as reproduced above.]

- (b) Subject to paragraph (c), an application referred to in paragraph (a) shall not be made except on the authority of a special resolution passed by each of such co-operatives at a general meeting convened for such purpose.
- (c) A special resolution referred to in paragraph (b) shall not be passed, unless at least three months’ notice of the intended amalgamation has been given to the creditors of each of the co-operatives concerned who shall, on demand, be entitled to payment of any amounts owing to any of them on the date immediately before the amalgamated co-operative is registered.
- (2) An application referred to in subsection (1)(a) shall be accompanied by -
- (a) a declaration by each of the persons who acted as the chairperson of the general meeting at which the special resolution referred to in subsection (1)(b) was passed -
- (i) that the meeting of which he or she was the chairperson was held on a date mentioned in the declaration;
- (ii) that he or she has satisfied himself or herself that proper notice of the meeting and the proposed special resolution has been given to the members of the co-operative;
- (iii) that proper notice has been given to the creditors of the co-operatives concerned and that any such creditors who demanded payment of any amounts owing to them have been paid, or will be paid before the registration of the proposed amalgamated co-operative; and
- (iv) that the special resolution was passed by the requisite majority;
- (b) a copy of each of the relevant special resolutions and an explanation of the reasons for the proposed amalgamation;
- (c) the proposed by-laws, containing provisions referred to in subsection (3), for the amalgamated co-operative approved by the respective co-operatives at a general meeting; and
- (d) revenue stamps to the value of such amount as may be determined in terms of section I 06 in respect of the application made in terms of this section, and which shall be cancelled by the Registrar upon the granting of the application.

(3) The by-laws of an amalgamated co-operative shall contain provisions so as to effectively accomplish the amalgamation of the co-operatives concerned, and shall in particular provide for -

- (a) the appointment of the first members of the board of the amalgamated co-operative;
- (b) the issue of shares in the amalgamated co-operative to the members thereof in the place of the shares which the said members held in the previous co-operatives; and
- (c) the application of any net surplus which may have resulted from the operations of the previous co-operatives in respect of a period immediately preceding the amalgamation: Provided that any net surplus (or portion thereof) of the previous co-operatives in respect of the said period may be separately determined and be distributed amongst the persons who immediately before the amalgamation were members of such a co-operative in the same proportion as the proportion in which such surplus (or portion) would have been distributed among the said persons had the co-operative still existed.

(4) If the Registrar is satisfied that the provisions of this Act have been complied with in respect of an application referred to in subsection (2) and that the proposed by-laws and the registration of the proposed amalgamated co-operative are not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, he or she shall -

- (a) grant such application and register the amalgamated co-operative by entering in the register of co-operatives such particulars of such co-operative as provided in terms of section 5;
- (b) approve, with or without any amendments, the by-laws of the amalgamated co-operative and make an endorsement on each page of such by-laws to the effect that such by-laws have been approved by him or her, and affix the official stamp of the Registration Office for Co-operatives on each such page;
- (c) strike the names and other particulars of the co-operatives referred to in subsection (1)(a) off the register of co-operatives and enter the name and other particulars of the amalgamated co-operative in that register; and
- (d) issue, in such form as may be determined by the Registrar, a certificate of registration that the amalgamated co-operative concerned is registered and on which the seal of the Registrar has been impressed and to which a number has been allotted.

(5) The certificate of registration issued in terms of paragraph (d) of subsection (4) and the by-laws endorsed as provided in paragraph (b) of that subsection shall be handed over or forwarded by certified post to the amalgamated co-operative registered in terms of paragraph (a) of that subsection, and a copy of such certificate and by-laws shall be retained by the Registrar in the Registration Office for Co-operatives.

(6) As from the date on which the amalgamated co-operative concerned has been registered in terms of subsection (4) -

- (a) the co-operatives referred to in subsection (1)(a) shall cease to exist;
- (b) the amalgamated co-operative shall become a juristic person;

Co-operatives Act 23 of 1996

- (c) subject to subsection (8), the persons who at the said date were members of the said co-operatives shall ipso facto become members of the amalgamated co-operative;
  - (d) all assets, rights, liabilities and obligations of the said co-operatives shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (7), vest in the amalgamated co-operative;
  - (e) the by-laws shall bind the co-operative and each member (including an executor, a trustee, or other administrator of a member's estate) to the same extent as if it has been signed by each member, to observe, subject to the provisions of this Act, all the provisions of the by-laws.
- (7) (a) Any property which vests, by virtue of the provisions of paragraph (d) of subsection (6), in the amalgamated co-operative shall be transferred, without payment of transfer duty, stamp duty or any other fee or charge, to the amalgamated co-operative.
- (b) The registrar of deeds shall upon production to him or her of the title deed of immovable property which is as provided in paragraph (a) transferred to the amalgamated co-operative concerned, endorse the title deed to the effect that the immovable property described therein vests in the amalgamated co-operative and shall make the necessary entries in his or her registers, and thereupon that title deed shall serve and avail for all purposes as proof of the title of that amalgamated co-operative to the property in question.

[The word "property" is misspelt in the Government Gazette in its third use in paragraph (b), as reproduced above.]

(8) Any member of a co-operative referred to in subsection (1)(a) may, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the by-laws of that co-operative, by notice in writing, given within at least one month after the meeting on which the special resolution referred to in subsection (1)(b) has been passed, terminated his or her membership of such co-operative on the date immediately before the date on which the amalgamated co-operative is registered in terms of paragraph (a) of subsection (4).

- (a) grant such application;
- (b) strike the name and other particulars of the co-operative referred to in subsection (1)(a) off the register of co-operatives.

(4) As from the date on which the application for transfer of assets and liabilities has in terms of paragraph (a) of subsection (3) been granted -

- (a) the co-operative referred to in subsection (1)(a) shall cease to exist;
- (b) all assets and liabilities of the co-operative concerned shall, subject to subsection (5), vest in the co-operative to which such assets and liabilities are transferred;
- (c) subject to subsection (6), the persons who at the said date were members of the said co-operative shall ipso facto become members of the co-operative to whom the assets and liabilities have been transferred.

(5) (a) Any property which vests, by virtue of the provisions of paragraph (b) of subsection (4), in the co-operative concerned shall be transferred, without payment of transfer duty, stamp duty or any other fee or charge, to that co-operative.

(b) The registrar of deeds shall upon production to him or her of the title deed of immovable property which is as provided in paragraph (a) transferred to the co-operative concerned endorse the title deed to the effect that the immovable property described therein vests in that co-operative and shall make the necessary entries in his or her registers, and thereupon that title deed shall serve and avail for all purposes as proof of the title of that co-operative to the property in question.

(6) Any member of a co-operative referred to in subsection (1)(a) may, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the by-laws of that co-operative, by notice in writing, given within at least one month after the meeting on which the special resolution referred to in subsection (1)(b) has been passed, terminate his or her membership of such co-operative on the date immediately before the date on which the application for transfer of assets and liabilities has in terms of paragraph (a) of subsection (3) been granted.

Conversion of co-operative to any other kind or form of juristic person or to unincorporated association of persons

76. (1) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), any co-operative that has passed as special resolution authorizing the conversion of the co-operative into any other kind or form of corporate body or, in the case of a provisionally registered co-operative, into an unincorporated association of persons may apply to the Registrar, in such form as may be determined by the Registrar, to cancel its registration as a co-operative.

(b) An application for the cancellation of the registration as a co-operative referred to in paragraph (a) shall not be made -

(i) except with the consent in writing of at least two-thirds of all its members;

(ii) unless at least three months' notice of the intended conversion has been given to the creditors of the co-operative concerned, who shall, on demand, be entitled to payment of any amounts owing to any of them on the date immediately before the registration of the co-operative is cancelled.

(2) An application referred to in subsection (1)(a) shall be accompanied by -

(a) a declaration by the chairperson of the board of the co-operative concerned -

(i) that the consent in writing of the requisite number of the members of the co-operative have been obtained for the proposed conversion;

(ii) that proper notice has been given to the creditors of that co-operative and that any such creditors who demanded payment of any amounts owing to them have been paid or will be paid before the registration of the co-operative is cancelled;

(b) revenue stamps to the value of such amount as may be determined in terms of section 106 in respect of applications in terms of this section, and which shall be cancelled by the Registrar upon the granting of the application.

(3) The Registrar may require a co-operative referred to in subsection (1)(a) to submit to him or her such proof as may be determined by him or her in respect of any matter contained in a declaration referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (2).

(4) If the Registrar is satisfied that the provisions of this Act have been complied with in respect of an application referred to in subsection (2), he or she shall cancel the registration of the co-operative referred to in subsection (1)(a) and strike the name and other particulars of that co-operative off the register of co-operatives.

(5) As from the date on which the registration of co-operative has been cancelled under subsection (4) -

(a) such co-operative shall cease to exist;

(b) all assets, rights, liabilities and obligations of such co-operative shall, subject to the provisions (6), vest in the corporate body into which the co-operative is converted, or, if it is by virtue of its constitution capable of owning property separate from its members, the unincorporated association of persons into which the co-operative is converted.

[The words "corporate" and "association" are misspelt in the Government Gazette, as reproduced above.]

(6) (a) Any property which vests, by virtue of the provisions of paragraph (b) of subsection (5), in the corporate body or unincorporated association of persons concerned shall be transferred, without payment of transfer duty, stamp duty or any other fee or charge, to that corporate body or unincorporated association of persons, as the case may be.

[The word “provisions” is misspelt in the Government Gazette, as reproduced above.]

- (b) The registrar of deeds shall upon production to him or her of the title deed of immovable property which is as provided in paragraph (a) transferred to the corporate body or unincorporated association of persons concerned, endorse the title deed to the effect that the immovable property described therein vests in that corporate body or unincorporated association of persons and shall make the necessary entries in his or her registers, and thereupon that title deed shall serve and avail for all purposes as proof of the title of that corporate body or unincorporated association of persons to the property in question.

Part XII
Winding-up of co-operatives

Winding-up of co-operatives and appointment of liquidator

77. (1) The Registrar may order that a co-operative be wound up -
- (a) either on his or her own accord or after an enquiry held in terms of section 71, if -
- (i) the membership of such co-operative has reduced to less than the number as provided in section 10(3) or (4);
- (ii) it has not transacted business during a continuous period of six months;
- (iii) it was formed for a particular period and that period has expired; or
- (iv) the Registrar is of the opinion -
- (aa) that the registration of the co-operative was obtained through fraud;
- (bb) that the co-operative does not carry out its objects according to the co-operative principles referred to in section 9; or
- (cc) that it is just and equitable that the co-operative should be wound-up; or
- (b) upon a request in writing of two-thirds of all the members of the co-operative,
- and shall appoint a liquidator in respect of such co-operative.

(2) If a liquidator ceases to hold office, the Registrar shall appoint another person to fill the vacancy.

(3) A liquidator shall after his or her appointment forthwith publish a notice in the Gazette and in a newspaper circulating in the area in which the registered office of the co-operative concerned is situated in which his or her appointment, name and address are made known.

(4) A liquidator shall be entitled to such reasonable remuneration for his or her services as may be determined by the Registrar.

Commencement of winding-up of co-operative

78. The winding-up of a co-operative shall commence on the day on which the Registrar's order in terms of section 77(1) that the co-operative be wound-up is received by the co-operative concerned, and in any case such commencement shall not be later than 14 days after the day on which that order was forwarded by certified post to the co-operative concerned.

Effect of winding-up on status of co-operative and legal proceedings

79. (1) A co-operative being wound-up shall continue to be a corporate body, but shall as from the date of commencement of its winding-up cease to carry out its objects except in so far as it is necessary for the purposes of its winding-up.

(2) The functions of the board of a co-operative being wound-up shall terminate at the commencement of the winding-up of the co-operative except in so far as the continuation thereof has been approved by the Registrar or liquidator.

(3) After the commencement of the winding-up of a co-operative any attachment or execution put into force against an asset of such co-operative under a judgement given by a court before the commencement of the winding-up shall be void.

Powers of liquidator

80. (1) Subject to section 81, the liquidator appointed by the Registrar under section 77 shall have the power -

- (a) to recover and take into his or her possession all the assets of the co-operative and all books, records and other documents pertaining to its business;
- (b) to realize such assets and apply the proceeds thereof for purposes of the winding-up of such co-operative;
- (c) to continue, as far as may be possible, to carry out the objects of such co-operative in so far as is necessary for its beneficial winding-up;
- (d) to determine by notice in the Gazette and a newspaper circulating in the area in which the registered office of the co-operative is situated a date before which creditors are required to prove any amounts owing by the co-operative to them;
- (e) to report a dispute and, with the approval of the Registrar, institute defend or take any action or other civil proceedings in the name and on behalf of the co-operative;
- (f) to give such directions in regard to the collection and realisation of assets as may be necessary in the course of winding-up the co-operative;
- (g) to investigate all claims against the co-operative and, subject to the provisions of this Act, decide by order questions of priority arising between claimants;
- (h) to pay claims against the co-operative, including interest payable up to date of the winding-up order given in terms of section 77, according to the respective priorities, if any, in full or to such extent as the assets of such co-operative permit;
- (i) with the prior approval of the Registrar, to compromise any claim by or against the co-operative;

---

- (j) to call such meetings of members as may be necessary for the proper conduct of the liquidation, giving not less than 15 days notice of every such meeting;
- (k) to decide by order, subject to any by-law limiting the liability of members, the contributions to be made by members or previous members or by the estates of deceased members of the co-operative to its assets;
- (l) to arrange for the distribution of the assets of the co-operative in a convenient manner in accordance with a scheme of distribution approved by the Registrar;
- (m) to order by what persons and in what proportions the costs of the liquidation are to be borne.

(2) A liquidator shall deposit the funds and other assets of a co-operative wound-up under section 77 which are collected by him or her or which come into his or her possession as liquidator, in such manner and at such place as may from time to time be determined by the Registrar.

(3) A liquidator shall, once in every three months, submit to the Registrar a report stating the progress made in winding-up the affairs of the co-operative, and shall, on completion of the liquidation proceedings, submit a final report and hand over to the Registrar all books, registers and accounts relating to such proceedings kept by him or her.

(4) A liquidator appointed under this Act shall, in so far as such powers are necessary for carrying out the purposes of this section, have power to summon and enforce the attendance of parties and witnesses, and to compel the production of documents by the means and, so far as may be, in the same manner as is provided in the case of a court of law.

Powers of Registrar to control liquidation

81. A liquidator shall exercise his or her powers subject to the control and supervision of the Registrar, who may -

- (a) rescind or vary an order made by a liquidator and make whatever new order is required;
- (b) remove a liquidator from office;
- (c) call for all books, documents and assets of the co-operative;
- (d) by order in writing limit the powers of a liquidator granted under section 80;
- (e) require accounts to be rendered to him or her by the liquidator;
- (f) cause the liquidator's accounts to be audited and authorize the distribution of the assets of the co-operative;
- (g) make an order for the remuneration of the liquidator, which remuneration shall be included in the costs of liquidation and shall be payable out of the assets in priority to all other claims.

Disposal of assets on liquidation

82. Upon winding-up of a co-operative, the assets, including the capital reserve fund and deferred expenditure fund referred to in section 58(1), shall be applied first to the costs of liquidation, then to the discharge of all preferent claims, then to the discharge of an deposit liabilities to its depositors, then to the discharge of all other liabilities of the co-operative, then to the payment of share capital held by members and then, provided that the by-laws of the co-operative permit, to the payment of a dividend or bonus at a rate not exceeding that as laid down in the by-laws of the co-operative for any period during which no dividend or bonus was in fact paid.

[The word “liabilities” is misspelt in the Government Gazette, as reproduced above.]

Cancellation of registration

83. (1) When the affairs of a co-operative, in respect of which a liquidator has been appointed, have been wound-up, the Registrar shall -

- (a) cancel the registration of such co-operative and strike the name and other particulars of that co-operative off the register of co-operatives; and

[The word “register” is misspelt in the Government Gazette, as reproduced above.]

- (b) publish in the Gazette a notice of closure of liquidation and the date of cancellation of registration of that co-operative.

(2) As from the date on which the registration of the co-operative concerned has been cancelled, the co-operative shall cease to exist.

(3) The claim of a creditor or a member of the co-operative who has not received what is due to him or her under the approved scheme of distribution shall be prescribed when two years have elapsed from the date of cancellation of registration.

(4) Any moneys remaining after the application of the funds as provided in section 82 and any sums unclaimed after two years under subsection (3) shall be divided among the members who were registered as such during the date of cancellation of registration.

Part XIII*Co-operatives Advisory Board

[The spacing of this heading differs from the spacing of the headings of most of the other parts.]

Establishment of Co-operatives Advisory Board

84. There is hereby established a board to be known as the Co-operatives Advisory Board.

Functions of Advisory Board

85. (1) The functions of the Advisory Board shall be to make such investigations as it may deem necessary, and to advise the Minister generally or in respect of any particular matter, and to make recommendations to him or her, in relation to -

- (a) an appeal lodged in terms of section 98 with the Minister against a decision or order of the Registrar;

---

- (b) any dispute between, on the one hand, a co-operative or proposed co-operative, the board of a co-operative or a member of a co-operative and, on the other hand, the Registrar;
- (c) the policy which may be followed in relation to co-operative development in Namibia, and the manner in which such policy is or may be implemented;
- (d) the amendment or application of provisions of this Act or any other law on matters relating to co-operatives;
- (e) any matter referred to the Advisory Board by the Minister under subsection (2).

(2) Where the Minister is required to exercise or perform any power, duty or function or to take any decision under or for the purpose of this Act, the Minister may, before doing so, request the Advisory Board to advise him or her in relation to the exercise or performance of such power, duty or function or the taking of such decision.

(3) The expenditure incidental to the performance of the functions of the Advisory Board shall be defrayed out of moneys appropriated for that purpose by Parliament.

Members of Advisory Board

86. (1) The Advisory Board shall comprise -

- (a) a person designated by the Minister;
- (b) seven persons selected and appointed by the Minister from persons nominated by co-operatives in Namibia, by virtue of an invitation made in terms of subsection (2), and of whom -
  - (i) one shall represent the interests of workers' co-operatives;
  - (ii) one shall represent the interests of marketing and supply co-operatives;
  - (iii) one shall represent the interests of consumer co-operatives;
  - (iv) one shall represent the interests of housing co-operatives;
  - (v) one shall represent the interests of savings and credit co-operatives; and
  - (vi) two shall represent any type of co-operative and co-operatives in general;
- (c) three persons selected and appointed by the Minister from persons nominated by organizations, other than governmental organizations, actively involved in co-operative development, by virtue of an invitation made in terms of subsection (2); and
- (d) two persons selected by the Minister from persons nominated by development corporations established by or under any law, by virtue of an invitation made in terms of subsection (2).

(2) For purposes of the nomination of persons referred to in subsection (1) or to fill any casual vacancies which may have occurred in the membership of the Advisory Board, the Minister shall by notice in writing invite any co-operatives, organizations and corporations referred to in that subsection to make such nominations as may be specified in such notice within such period as may be so specified.

(3) If no such co-operative, organization or corporation exists, ceases to exist or fails to comply with any invitation referred to in subsection (2) within the period referred to in that subsection, the Minister may, with due regard to the provisions of subsection (1), appoint as a member of the Advisory Board a person who in his or her opinion represents the interests of co-operatives.

(4) The Advisory Board may, with the concurrence in writing of the Minister and on such conditions as may on the recommendation of the Advisory Board be determined by the Minister, co-opt in an advisory capacity -

- (a) one or more, but not more than six, persons designated by such other Minister or Ministers as may in the discretion of the Minister have an interest in any matter dealt with the Advisory Board;
- (b) any one or more other persons, as an additional member or members of the Advisory Board, whether for a particular period or in relation to a particular matter dealt with by the Advisory Board, and such an additional member or members may participate in the proceedings of the Advisory Board during any such period or in relation to such matter, but shall not be entitled to vote on any matter.

(5) The Minister shall on the recommendation of the Board appoint a member as chairperson and a member as vice-chairperson from the members referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subsection (1).

Committees of Advisory Board

87. (1) The Advisory Board may from time to time establish committees to advise or assist it in the performance of any of its functions.

- (2) A committee established under subsection (1) -
  - (a) shall consist of such members or other persons appointed by the Advisory Board as the Advisory Board may deem fit, to be members of such committee, and of whom one shall be designated by the Advisory Board to be the chairperson of the committee;
  - (b) shall meet at such times and places as may be determined by the chairperson of that committee.

(3) A member of a committee established under subsection (1) who is not a member of the Advisory Board or is not employed in the public service on a full-time basis shall be paid out of moneys appropriated by laws for that purpose such remuneration and allowances, if any, and in respect of a journey undertaken for purposes of the business of the committee, such subsistence and travelling allowances as the Minister may, with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance, determine.

Terms of office and conditions of service of members of Advisory Board

88. (1) Subject to section 89, a member of the Advisory Board referred to in paragraph (b), (c) or (d) of subsection (1) of section 86 shall hold office for a period not exceeding three years, but may, if nominated as provided in subsection (2) of the said section 86, be reappointed at the expiration of that period.

(2) A member of the Advisory Board who is not employed in the Public Service on a full-time basis shall be paid out of moneys appropriate by law for that purpose such remuneration and, allowances, if any, and in respect of a journey undertaken for purposes of the business of the advisory Board, such subsistence and travelling allowances as the Minister may, with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance, determine.

(3) The remuneration and allowances determined under subsection (2) may differ according to the office on the Advisory Board held by a member of the Advisory Board concerned, or the functions performed by him or her.

Vacation of offices by members of Advisory Board

- 89. (1) A member of the Advisory Board shall vacate his or her office, if -
- (a) such member is by reason of his or her physical or mental illness or for any other reason incapable of acting as a member of the Advisory Board;
  - (b) such member is convicted of an offence and sentenced to imprisonment without the option of a fine;
  - (c) such member, in writing under his or her hand addressed and delivered to the chairperson of the Advisory Board, resigns from his or her office as a member of the Advisory Board;
  - (d) such member has absented himself or herself from three consecutive meetings of the Advisory Board without the leave of the chairperson of the Advisory Board.

(2) Any casual vacancy on the Advisory Board caused by the death or vacation of office by any member of the Advisory Board shall, with due regard to the provisions of section 86, be filled for the unexpired portion of the period of office of the member of the Advisory Board who has died or vacated his or her office, as the case may be.

Meetings of Advisory Board

90. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a meeting of the Advisory Board shall be held at such a time and place as may be determined by the chairperson of the Advisory Board.

(2) The chairperson of the Advisory Board shall at the request of the Minister or on a reasoned request in writing of at least four members of the Advisory Board convene a special meeting of the Advisory Board.

(3) The majority of the members of the Advisory Board shall form a quorum for a meeting of the Advisory Board.

(4) The chairperson of the Advisory Board shall preside at all meetings of the Advisory Board at which he or she is present.

(5) When the chairperson of the Advisory Board is absent from a meeting of the Advisory Board the members of the Advisory Board present shall elect a person from amongst their number to act as chairperson at that meeting, and while such member so acts he or she shall have all the powers and shall perform all the duties and functions of the chairperson.

---

(6) The decision of a majority of members of the Advisory Board present at the meeting of the Advisory Board shall be a decision of the Advisory Board: Provided that in the event of an equality of votes the person presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to his or her deliberative vote.

(7) The person presiding at a meeting of the Advisory Board shall cause -

- (a) any decision of the Advisory Board and the reasons for such decision; and
- (b) upon the request of any member who has voted against such decision, his or her reasons for voting against such decision, to be conveyed to the Minister.

(8) No decision taken by the Advisory Board or act performed under the authority of the Advisory Board shall be invalid by reason only of a vacancy on the Advisory Board, or by reason only that any person who is not entitled to sit as a member of the Advisory Board sat as a member of the Advisory Board when the decision was taken or the act was authorised, if the decision was taken or the act was authorised by the requisite majority of the members of the Advisory Board who were present at the time and were entitled to sit as such members.

(9) The Advisory Board shall cause minutes to be kept of the proceedings of the meetings of the Advisory Board.

(10) The Advisory Board may make rules in relation to the holding of, and procedure at, meetings of the Advisory Board.

Performance of administrative functions of Advisory Board

91. (1) The administrative work relating to the functions of the Advisory Board shall be performed by staff members of the Ministry made available by the Permanent Secretary for that purpose.

(2) The Permanent Secretary may designate a staff member referred to in subsection (1) as secretary of the Advisory Board.

(3) The Advisory Board may, after consultation with the Permanent Secretary and on such conditions as may be mutually agreed upon, obtain the services of such persons as it may deem necessary to advise it in connection with the performance of its functions.

Expenses in connection with functions of Advisory Board

92. The expenditure incidental to the performance of the functions of the Advisory Board shall, subject the State Finance Act, 1991 (Act 31 of 1991), be defrayed from moneys appropriated by law for that purpose.

Part XIV
Co-operatives Tribunal*Establishment of Co-operatives Tribunal

93. There is hereby established a tribunal to be known as the Co-operatives Tribunal.

Functions of Tribunal

Co-operatives Act 23 of 1996

94. (1) The functions of the Tribunal shall be -
- (a) to enquire into any question relating to the subject matter of any dispute reported in terms of section 99(1)(a); and
  - (b) to make such decision or to give such order as it may consider equitable relating to any dispute referred to in paragraph (a).

(2) A decision made or order given by the Tribunal shall be final and each party to the dispute shall abide and comply with such decision or order in accordance with its terms.

Members of Tribunal

95. (1) The members of the Tribunal shall comprise -
- (a) the Registrar or an officer designate by him or her, who shall be the chairperson of the Tribunal; and
  - (b) two other persons, of whom -
    - (i) one shall be a person appointed by mutual agreement by the parties to a dispute referred to in section 99(1)(a) or, in the absence of such agreement, by the Registrar from a list of persons compiled in terms of subsection (2)(a) of this section; and
    - (ii) one shall be a person who has been admitted or is entitled to be admitted as a legal practitioner in terms of the laws of Namibia on the admission of legal practitioners and appointed by such parties by mutual agreement or, in the absence of any such agreement, by the Registrar, from a list of persons compiled in terms of subsection (2)(b).

(2) The Registrar shall, with the concurrence of the Advisory Board, from time to time compile -

- (a) for purposes of the appointment of members in terms of sub-paragraph (i) of paragraph (b) of subsection (1), a list containing the names of persons who in his or her opinion are, on account of their special knowledge and experience of the administration and management of the affairs of co-operatives or similar bodies, fit and proper persons; and

[The word “sub-paragraph” appears in paragraph (a) with a hyphen, but all other instances of the word in this Act appear as “subparagraph”, without a hyphen.]

- (b) for purposes of the appointment of members in terms of subparagraph (ii) of the said paragraph (b), a list containing the names and qualifications of persons contemplated in that subparagraph who in his or her opinion are, on account of their special knowledge and experience of the laws on the administration and management of the affairs of co-operatives or similar bodies, fit and proper persons, to serve as members of the Tribunal.

---

(3) A member of the Tribunal who is not in the full-time employment of the Public Service shall, from moneys appropriated by law for that purpose, be paid such remuneration and allowances as the Minister, with the concurrence of the Minister of Finance, may determine.

(4) All administrative work relating to the functions of the Tribunal shall be performed by officers in the Ministry made available by the Permanent Secretary for that purpose.

(5) Any meeting of the Tribunal shall be held at a time and place determined by the chairperson of the Tribunal.

(6) All three members of the Tribunal shall form a quorum for a meeting of the Tribunal.

(7) The decision of two of the members of the Tribunal shall be a decision of the Tribunal.

Powers and duties of Tribunal

96. (1) In the performance of its functions in terms of this Act, the Tribunal may in relation to a dispute referred to in section 99(1)(a) -

- (a) subject to the provisions of any law or the common law regulating the privileges or immunities of any person, itself or by way of any person determined by mutual agreement between the parties concerned and authorized by the Tribunal thereto, enter at any time, after such notice as the Tribunal may deem sufficient or appropriate, any building or premises of any part of any building or premises, except any building or premises or any part thereof used as a private home, and make such enquiries therein or thereon, and put such questions to any person employed thereon or finds himself or herself in or on such building or premises as the Tribunal or person deems necessary in connection with any such dispute;
- (b) request particulars and information from any person which the Tribunal may deem necessary in connection with such dispute.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the provisions of sections 14, 15, 16, 17, 20, 22, 23, 24, 25, 30, 32 and 33 of the Arbitration Act, 1965 (Act 42 of 1965), shall apply mutatis mutandis in relation to the proceedings which may be followed by the Tribunal as if the Tribunal were an arbitration tribunal referred to in that Act and its decision or order were an award made by such arbitration tribunal.

(3) No costs shall be awarded by the Tribunal in relation to the expenses incurred by the parties in relation to any proceedings before the Tribunal, except in so far as the parties to the dispute have by mutual agreement determined otherwise.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not be construed as precluding the jurisdiction of any competent court to adjudicate on any subject matter relating to any dispute referred to in subsection (1).

Representation of parties to a dispute

97. A party to any proceedings before the Tribunal may appear in person or, in the case of a co-operative, by way of a member of the board or member or employee authorized thereto by the board, or be represented by a legal representative admitted as a legal practitioner in terms of the laws of Namibia governing the admission of legal practitioners.

Part XV

Disputes between co-operatives or members of co-operatives and Registrar or such co-operatives or members and person other than Registrar

[The spacing of this heading differs from the spacing of the headings of most of the other parts.]

Appeals against decisions or orders of Registrar

98. (1) Any person or, in the case of a winding-up order given under section 77, at least one-tenth of all the members of the co-operative or 40 of such members, whichever is the lesser, who feels aggrieved by any decision made or order given by the Registrar in terms of any provision of this Act may, within 30 days as from the date on which such decision or order was made known to such person or members, as the case may be, in writing lodge an appeal with the Minister against such decision or order.

(2) A notification referred to in subsection (1) -

(a) shall contain the subject matter of the appeal and the facts and circumstances which gave rise to the appeal; and

(b) shall be accompanied by such written representations as the person or members referred to in subsection (1) may wish to make in regard to the appeal in question.

(3) The Registrar shall on request by the Minister forward to the Minister a statement of his or her reasons for the decision or order against which the appeal is made, together with such written representations as he or she may wish to make in regard thereto.

(4) The Minister may on the recommendation of the Advisory Board made at a meeting at which any person other than the Registrar acted as the chairperson while such recommendation was considered, and subject to such conditions or directions, if any, as the Minister may determine, confirm, set aside or amend any decision or order against which the appeal has been made.

(5) The Registrar shall give effect to any decision made and conditions or directions, if any, determined by the Minister in terms of subsection (4),

(6) The operation of a winding-up order given by the Registrar in terms of section 77 shall not be suspended pending the outcome of an appeal under subsection (1).

Reporting of disputes

99. (1) Any co-operative, the board of a co-operative or member of a co-operative who is party to a dispute may -

(a) in the case of a dispute between, on the one hand, itself or himself or herself and, on the other hand, any person other than the Registrar, in writing report such dispute to the Registrar;

(b) in the case of dispute between, on the one hand, itself or himself or herself and, on the other hand, the Registrar, in writing, report such dispute to the Minister, and shall submit a copy of that written notification to all parties involved in the dispute.

(2) A notification referred to in subsection (1) shall contain -

Co-operatives Act 23 of 1996

---

- (a) an indication whether the dispute in question is a dispute between the co-operative or member of a co-operative concerned and the Registrar or any person other than the Registrar;
- (b) if the dispute in question is a dispute between such co-operative or member and person other than the Registrar, the name and address of such person;
- (c) the subject matter of the dispute and the facts and circumstances which gave rise to the dispute;
- (d) the steps, if any, which have been taken to resolve or settle the dispute.

Disputes between co-operatives or members of co-operatives and persons other than Registrar

100. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Registrar shall, upon the receipt of a notification referred to in subsection (1) of section 99 in relation to a dispute referred to in paragraph (a) of that subsection, as soon as practicable, convene a meeting of the Tribunal.

(2) The Registrar shall not convene a meeting of the Tribunal as provided in subsection (1) unless he or she is satisfied that the parties have taken all reasonable steps to resolve or settle the dispute in question or until such time as he or she is so satisfied.

Disputes between co-operatives or members of co-operatives and Registrar

101. (1) The Minister shall, upon the receipt of a notice referred to in subsection (1) of section 99 in relation to a dispute referred to in paragraph (b) of that subsection, after consultation with the Advisory Board, enquire into and determine any question relating to the subject matter of any such dispute and make such decision or give such order as he or she may consider equitable.

(2) A decision made or order given by the Minister under subsection (1) shall be final and each party to the dispute shall abide and comply with such decision or order in accordance with its terms.

Part XVI
Offences and penalties*Prohibition of use of word “co-operative”

102. Any person other than a co-operative who trades or carries on business under a name or title of which the word “co-operative” is part without the approval of the Registrar shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction liable to a fine not exceeding N$100 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

False statements

103. Any person who in any application, return, report or other document under this Act wilfully furnished information or makes a statement which is false in any material respect shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction be liable to the penalty which may be imposed by law for the crime of forgery and uttering.
