Deeds Registries Act 47 of 1937 (SA)

(SA GG 2443)

came into force in South West Africa on 1 June 1972 when the amendments made by Act 3 of 1972, including the insertion of section 102A were brought into force

APPLICABILITY TO SOUTH WEST AFRICA: Section 102A, as inserted by Act 3 of 1972, states “This Act and any amendment thereof, save sections 70 to 74*bis*, inclusive, and sections 84 and 85, shall apply also in the territory of South-West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel.” It was amended by the Registration of Deeds in Rehoboth Act 93 of 1976 to read as follows: “This Act and any amendment thereof, save sections 70 to 74*bis*, inclusive, and sections 84 and 85, shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel, but excluding the Rehoboth Gebiet as described in section 6 of the Rehoboth Self-Government Act, 1976.” (The excluded sections relate to mineral rights and prospecting contracts.) Section 102 defines “Government”, “provincial administration”, “Republic”, “State”, and “Territory” accordingly. In Rehoboth, the analogous law is the Registration of Deeds in Rehoboth Act 93 of 1976.

TRANSFER TO SOUTH WEST AFRICA: The administration of this Act was transferred to South West Africa by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation, AG 33 of 1979, dated 12 November 1979. Section 3(1)(b) of that Proclamation as originally enacted excluded section 2, section 103(2) and the references to the Republic in the Act from the operation of the Executive Powers Transfer (General Provisions) Proclamation, AG 7 of 1977 (the “General Proclamation”). Section 2(a)(i) of the original transfer proclamation provided that the references to the Government of the Republic in sections 3(1)(c) and (l) and in section 99 of the Act were to be construed as including a reference to the Administrator-General.

The Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Amendment Proclamation, AG 32 of 1985 (OG 5060) – which was deemed to have come into force on 1 June 1984 and which amended both the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation and the Deeds Registries Act 47 of 1937 – states in section 1(2): “In the application of the provisions of the Executive Powers Transfer (General Provisions) Proclamation, 1977 (Proclamation AG. 7 of 1977) (hereinafter referred to as the General Proclamation) in respect of sections 2, 9, 45, 45*bis*, 48 and 102 of the Deeds Registries Act, 1937 (Act 47 of 1937), this Proclamation shall be deemed to be a transfer proclamation as defined in section 1 of the General Proclamation, and the reference in section 5 of the General Proclamation to a law referred to in section 2 of that Proclamation, shall be construed as a reference to sections 2, 9, 45, 45*bis*, 48 and 102 of the said Deeds Registries Act, 1937”. All of the sections of the Deeds Registries Act 47 of 1937 cited in AG 32 of 1985 were amended by that Proclamation.

Section 3(1)(b) of the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation, AG 33 of 1979, as amended by AG 32 of 1985, excluded section 103(2) from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation – meaning that this section (which deals with the State President’s power to repeal by proclamation certain laws in force only in South Africa) was not transferred to South West Africa. Section 3(1)(b) also excluded all the references to the Republic and all the references to the State in the Act from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation – meaning that prior to independence these terms retained the meaning given to them in section 102 of the Act as it stood at that time (covering both South Africa and South West Africa). Section 2(a)(i) of the transfer proclamation as amended continued to provide that the references to the Government of the Republic in sections 3(1)(c) and (l) and in section 99 of the Act were to be construed as including a reference to the Administrator-General.

Section 2, which provides for the appointment of registrars, was initially excluded from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, but this exclusion was removed by AG 32 of 1985, which also substituted section 2 in its entirety. The provisions of the Act relating to the Deeds Registry Regulation Board were initially excluded from transfer by section 3(2)(b) of the General Proclamation, which exempted from the operation of section 3(1) of the General Proclamation “those provisions of any law ... which provide for or relate to the institution, constitution or control of any juristic person or any board or any other body of persons that may exercise powers or perform other functions in or in respect of both the territory and the Republic”. However, section 9 of the Act – which pertains to this Board – was explicitly transferred to South West Africa by AG 32 of 1985, which also amended the provisions of section 9 on the constitution of the Board. The purpose of citing other specific sections of the Act for transfer in AG 32 of 1985, after the administration of the Act as a whole had already been transferred to South West Africa by AG 33 of 1979, is not clear.

None of the amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer and prior to Namibian independence – the Deeds Registries Amendment Act 44 of 1980 (RSA GG 6991), the Deeds Registries Amendment Act 27 of 1982 (RSA GG 8079), the Deeds Registries Amendment Act 62 of 1984 (RSA GG 9241), the Matrimonial Property Act 88 of 1984 (RSA GG 9322), the Black Communities Development Amendment Act 74 of 1986 (RSA GG 10333), the Deeds Registries Amendment Act 75 of 1987 (RSA GG 10952), the Marriage and Matrimonial Property Law Amendment Act 3 of 1988 (RSA GG 11171) and the Deeds Registries Amendment Act 24 of 1989 (RSA GG 11777) – were applicable to South West Africa because none were made expressly so applicable.

LAWS REPEALED

Second Schedule

BE IT ENACTED by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, the Senate and the House of Assembly of the Union of South Africa as follows:-

[The Act is inconsistent in its use of "sub-section" and "subsection", in the spelling of "fidei commissum" as two words or "fideicommissum" as one word, and in the spelling of "fideicommissary" without a hyphen or "fidei-commissary" with a hyphen.]

Act 43 of 1962 amends the Act throughout to substitute "State" for "Crown" and "State land" for "Crown land". This has been interpreted to also require the substitution of "State" for "Crown" in the phrase "Crown title".

Act 3 of 1972 amends the Act throughout to substitute "State President" for "Governor-General" and "Republic" for "Union".

Act 2 of 1996 amends the Act throughout to substitute "Minister" for "Administrator-General", and "Namibia" for "the Territory", "the territory of South West Africa" and "the Republic".]

CHAPTER I

ADMINISTRATION

Deeds Registries Act 47 of 1937 (SA)Deeds registries

1. (1) (a) There shall be deeds registries at Cape Town, Kingwilliamstown, Kimberley, Vryburg, Pietermaritzburg, Pretoria, Bloemfontein and Windhoek, each to serve its respective area as defined in the Second Schedule.

[paragraph (a) substituted by Act 3 of 1972]

- (b) The Rand townships registration office at Johannesburg, established under section 53 of the Townships Amendment Act, 1908 (Act No. 34 of 1908), of the Transvaal, shall continue to exist notwithstanding the repeal of that section by section 10 of the Deeds Registries Amendment Act, 1969, and shall also be a deeds registry, but only in connection with the registration of documents relating to immovable property in any township in the area served thereby as defined in the said Schedule,

[Subsection (1) is substituted by Act 61 of 1969 with effect from 1 November 1969. The comma at the end of paragraph (b) should be a full stop.]

(1A) After the commencement of section 1 of the Deeds Registries Amendment Act, 1969 -

- (a) any document affecting the title of the land included in a township referred to in subsection (1)(b) or of an erf in any such township shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other law contained, be registered only in the Rand townships registration office;
- (b) any such document registered in the deeds registry at Pretoria at such commencement and of which a copy has been furnished by the registrar at Pretoria to the Rand townships registrar in terms of any law repealed by section 10 of that Act or in terms of any other law, and has been entered by the last-mentioned registrar in his registers or is kept in his office, shall be deemed to be registered in the Rand townships registration office;
- (c) the copy of a document referred to in paragraph (b) shall for the purposes of any relevant law be deemed to be the registry duplicate of the document in question;
- (d) any entry made by the Rand townships registrar in the duplicate kept in his office of any register opened and kept in the deeds registry at Pretoria, and any entry in a copy of any such register furnished to that registrar in terms of any law, shall be deemed to be an entry in the register in question, and such register shall be kept by that registrar in so far as it may be relevant for the purposes of paragraph (a).

[Subsection (1A) is inserted by Act 61 of 1969, with effect from 1 November 1969, which is also the commencement date referred to in the introductory phrase.]

(2) In every deeds registry in Namibia existing at the commencement of this Act there shall be carried out to completion as if this Act had not been passed all matters which immediately prior to such commencement were pending in that registry, and each registry mentioned in sub-section (1) shall be a continuation of the deeds registry existing at the commencement of this Act in the area served thereby.

[Act 2 of 1996 makes a global substitution of "Namibia" for "the Republic", but this change iproduced an illogical result in this subsection since the Act commenced prior to Namibian independence.]

Deeds Registries Act 47 of 1937 (SA)

(3) The State President may from time to time, upon the authority of resolutions passed by both Houses of Parliament, alter by proclamation in the Gazette any area defined in the Second Schedule to this Act as the area served by any deeds registry.

Appointment of registrar and deputy registrar of deeds

2. (1) The Minister shall, subject to the provisions of the Government Service Act, 1980 (Act 2 of 1980), appoint a person as registrar of deeds who -

[The Government Service Act 2 of 1980 has been replaced by the Public Service Act 13 of 1995.]

- (a) shall be the chairman and executive officer of the deeds registries regulation board mentioned in section 9; and
- (b) shall be in charge of the deeds registry, and who shall have the power, subject to the regulations, to do any act or thing which may lawfully be done under this Act or any other law by the registrar of deeds.

(2) The Minister may, subject to the provisions of the Government Service Act, 1980 (Act 2 of 1980), appoint one or more deputy registrars of deeds, who may, subject to the control and directions of the registrar of deeds referred to in subsection (1), do anything which may lawfully be done by the registrar of deeds.

[The Government Service Act 2 of 1980 has been replaced by the Public Service Act 13 of 1995.]

(3) Whenever it becomes, in the opinion of the Minister, necessary that an acting registrar of deeds be appointed, the Minister may appoint any deputy registrar referred to in subsection (2) or any other competent officer in the government service contemplated in section 2 of the said Government Service Act to act as registrar of deeds for the period for which such appointment may be necessary.

[The word "Service" in the phrase "Government Service Act" is misspelt in the Government Gazette, as reproduced above. The Act referred to has been replaced by the Public Service Act 13 of 1995.]

(4) The Minister may delegate in writing any power conferred on him or her by subsection (3) to a staff member in the Public Service.

[subsection (4) amended by Act 2 of 1996]

(5) Every registrar or deputy registrar appointed under, or referred to in, this section shall hereinafter be referred to as the registrar.

(6) The registrar of deeds shall have a seal of office which shall be affixed to all deeds executed or attested by him and to all copies of deeds issued by him to serve in lieu of the original deeds.

[Section 2 is amended by Act 43 of 1957, Act 43 of 1962, Act 87 of 1965, Act 61 of 1969 (with effect from 1 November 1969), Act 3 of 1972 and Act 62 of 1973, and substituted by AG 32 of 1985.]

Section 2(2) of AG 32 of 1985, inserted by Act 26 of 1985 and deemed to have come into force on 1 June 1984 (at the same time as the rest of AG 32 of 1985), provides the following transitional provision:

"The person who held the office of registrar of deeds immediately before the commencement of this Proclamation [AG 32 of 1985, which commenced on 1 June 1984] by virtue of an appointment under section 2 of the Deeds Registries Act, 1937, and the person who so held the office of assistant registrar of deeds, shall be deemed to have been appointed at such commencement, under the said section 2, as amended by subsection (1) of this section, as registrar of deeds and deputy registrar of deeds, respectively.”]

[Section 2 was initially excluded from the operation of section 3(1) of the Executive Powers Transfer (General Provisions) Proclamation, AG 7 of 1977, but this exclusion was removed by AG 32 of 1985, which also substituted section 2 in its entirety.]

Duties of registrar

3. (1) The registrar shall, subject to the provisions of this Act -
- (a) take charge of and, except as provided in subsection (2) or (3), preserve or cause to be preserved all records which were prior to the commencement of this Act, or may become after such commencement, records of any deeds registry in respect of which he has been appointed: Provided that the registrar may destroy or otherwise dispose of any record as prescribed which has been cancelled in terms of this subsection;

[paragraph (a) amended by Act 41 of 1977]

- (b) examine all deeds or other documents submitted to him for execution or registration, and after examination reject any such deed or other document the execution or registration of which is not permitted by this Act or by any other law, or to the execution or registration of which any other valid objection exists: Provided that such deed or document need not be examined in its entirety before being rejected;
- (c) register grants or leases of land lawfully issued by the Government or grants issued by any other competent authority, and register amendments, renewals and cancellations of such leases, and releases of any part of the property leased;

[Prior to Namibian independence, the reference to the Government of the Republic in paragraph (c) was to be construed as including a reference to the Administrator-General.]

- (d) attest or execute and register deeds of transfer of land, and execute and register certificates of title to land;
- (e) attest and register mortgage bonds;
- (f) register cessions (including cessions made as security) of registered mortgage bonds, and register cancellations of such cessions if made as security;
- (g) register cancellations of registered mortgage bonds, releases of any part of the property hypothecated thereby or of all such property if the debt is further secured by a collateral bond, releases of any joint debtor or of any surety in respect of any such bond, the substitution of another person for a debtor in respect of any such bond, reductions of cover in respect of any such bond intended to secure future debts, and part payments of the capital amount due in respect of any such bond other than a bond intended to secure future debts;
- (h) register waivers of preference in respect of registered mortgage bonds and notarial bonds with regard to the whole or any part of the property hypothecated thereby in favour of other such bonds whether registered or about to be registered;

(2) The ownership of land alienated from and reacquired by the State may be transferred from the State either by deed of grant or by deed of transfer issued or executed, as the case may be, under proper authority, but in either case the deed of grant or transfer shall contain a reference to the title deed by which the State held the land and to the title deed to which the diagram of the land is annexed and shall set forth the conditions upon which the land is alienated and the rights to the land reserved by the State on this alienation.

(3) If any piece of unalienated State land has been surveyed and is represented on a diagram the registrar concerned shall, upon written application by the Minister of Agriculture or, in the case of Namibia, by the Administrator of the Territory, accompanied by the diagram of the land in duplicate, enter particulars of the land in the appropriate registers and execute in the prescribed form and in accordance with the diagram, a certificate of registered State title thereof prepared by a conveyancer.

[Subsection (3) is substituted by Act 3 of 1972. Act 2 of 1996 makes global substitutions of "Minister" for "Administrator-General" and "Namibia" for "the Territory", but there is no directive on changes to the phrase "Administrator of the Territory".]

(4) Transfer of the ownership of land held by the State under certificate of registered State title shall be effected by deed of grant issued under proper authority, but it shall not be necessary to annex a diagram of the land thereto: Provided that the grant shall contain a reference to the certificate and to the diagram annexed to the certificate.

(5) No deed (other than a deed of grant conveying ownership) purporting to create or deal with or dispose of any real right in any piece of unalienated State land shall be capable of registration until a certificate of registered State title has been executed in respect of that piece of land.

[subsection (3) amended by Act 43 of 1962 and by Act 2 of 1996]

Deeds of partition transfer

26. (1) If two or more persons who own in undivided shares the whole of any piece or pieces of land, have agreed to partition that land, the registrar shall, on production to him of a power of attorney by such persons authorizing the passing of deeds of partition transfer of such land in accordance with the agreement of partition, which agreement shall be embodied in the power of attorney or annexed thereto, and on compliance with the further provisions of this section, attest deeds of partition transfer which shall be as nearly as practicable in the prescribed form, conveying to the respective owners the land or shares therein awarded to them under the said agreement.

(1)bis Any agreement of partition referred to in sub-section (1) may exclude from partition any rights to minerals in the land to be partitioned: Provided that if the share or shares owned by any of the parties to a partition appear from the title deeds of the said land to be subject to a reservation or cession or exclusion of any rights to minerals, then the agreement of partition shall exclude from partition all rights to minerals in the land to be partitioned and the partition transfers shall not be attested unless the rights to minerals are so excluded.

[subsection (1)bis inserted by Act 43 of 1962]

(2) In the power of attorney or agreement of partition referred to in sub-section (1) there shall be described -

- (a) the land to be partitioned;

- (b) the share or shares registered in the name of each joint owner;
- (c) the land or share therein awarded to each of the owners;

(4) Subject to the provisions of this section, the provisions of sections twenty, twenty-one, twenty-two and twenty-three shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of deeds of partition transfer.

(5) Any deed of partition transfer attested under sub-section (1) shall in respect of the land therein described take the place of the deed or deeds by which it was previously held, but the partition transfer shall not vary or affect the conditions of tenure of the said land or any other conditions affecting the said land generally, save in so far as such last-mentioned conditions may be varied, defined or limited by the agreement of partition or the consents of interested parties.

(6) The provisions of this section shall mutatis mutandis apply to a partition of land ordered by the court or determined by an award of arbitrators.

(7) The provisions of this section shall also apply to partitions of land registered in different deeds registries.

[subsection (7) inserted by Act 43 of 1957 and amended by Act 87 of 1965]

Requisites where share in land partitioned is mortgaged

27. (1) If the share or shares owned by any of the parties to a partition is mortgaged, the partition transfers shall not be attested unless the bond is produced to the registrar together with the written consent of the legal holder of the bond, to the partition and to the substitution of the land awarded on partition to the mortgagor for the share or shares mortgaged.

- (2) In registering the transfer the registrar shall -
 - (a) endorse on the bond that the land awarded to the mortgagor has been substituted for the share or shares mortgaged;
 - (b) make an entry of the substitution in the registers; and
 - (c) endorse on the transfer that the land described therein is, in accordance with this section, mortgaged by the bond.

(3) If only a fraction of the share or shares owned by any of the parties to a partition is mortgaged, the substitution referred to in this section shall only take place in respect of the fraction so mortgaged, if from the agreement of partition or from other evidence it appears that a defined portion or share therein has been separately awarded in respect of such mortgaged fraction.

(4) Where more than one property is partitioned by the same partition and the whole of any one or more of the properties affected is awarded to an owner, such property or properties may be substituted under that owner's bond, if the bond is over his share in all the properties partitioned.

[subsection (4) inserted by Act 43 of 1957]

Requisites where share in land partitioned is subject to other rights

28. (1) If the share or shares owned by any of the parties to a partition appear from the title deeds of the land partitioned to be subject to a lease, personal servitude or other real right (excluding any rights to minerals), the written consent of the holder thereof to the partition and allocation of the lease, servitude or such other real right, together with the deed, if any, by which the lease, servitude or real right is held, shall be produced to the registrar.

[Subsection (1) is amended by Act 43 of 1962. The amendment results in a superfluous comma after the phrase "other real right".]

(2) The land described in the deeds of partition transfer shall be made subject to the lease, servitude or real right to the same extent as the share or shares for which it is substituted, and the deed, if any, by which the lease, servitude or real right is held, shall be endorsed by the registrar in the same manner as the bond mentioned in section twenty-seven.

(3) If there exists any bond by which the lease, servitude or real right is itself mortgaged, that bond shall also be produced to the registrar, together with the written consent of the legal holder thereof to the partition and allocation of the lease, servitude or such other real right, and the registrar shall make the endorsements and entries mentioned in section twenty-seven on the bond, the deeds concerned and in the registers.

Effect of compliance with sections 27 and 28

29. Upon completion of the endorsements and entries mentioned in sections twenty-seven and twenty-eight the land described in the deeds of partition transfer, and the lease, personal servitude or real right (if any) shall be deemed to be as fully and effectually mortgaged as if they had been hypothecated by the bond at the time of its execution and the said land shall be deemed to be as fully and effectually encumbered by the said lease, personal servitude or real right as if it had been encumbered thereby at the time of the registration thereof.

Partition of land subject to fidei commissum

30. (1) Any piece of land the whole or any share of which is subject to a fidei commissum may, where partition has not been prohibited, be partitioned with the written consent of the fidei commissary heirs or successors if they are ascertained and are majors and otherwise competent; if they are ascertained but any of them are minors, the consent of the Master shall be produced in respect of the minors; if they are ascertained but any of them have been declared insolvent, or if they are under curatorship or otherwise under disability the consent of their trustees or curators or other legal representatives shall be produced on their behalf; if they are not ascertained or if they cannot be found, proof shall be produced to the satisfaction of the registrar that the land awarded in the agreement of partition to the owner of any share subject to the fidei commissum is an equivalent of that share.

[The word "agreement" is misspelt in the Government Gazette, as reproduced above.]

(2) The land so awarded shall in the deed of partition transfer be made subject to the fidei commissum in the same manner as the corresponding share was in its title deed made subject thereto before partition.

Transfer of expropriated land or land vested by statute

31. (1) Whenever any land has, under the authority of any law, been expropriated by, and whenever the ownership of any land has by statute been vested in, the State, any public or local authority or any corporate body or any association of persons, the registrar shall, upon lodgment with him of a deed of transfer in the prescribed form prepared by a conveyancer in favour of the transferee, execute the same, and if the land is hypothecated, he shall endorse the fact of such transfer on the registry duplicate of the bond, and if the original bond is at any time lodged in his office for any purpose except cancellation, he shall make a similar endorsement thereon: Provided that no such transfer shall prejudice any claim to compensation which any owner or other person may have in respect of the change of ownership of such land.

[Subsection (1) is substituted by Act 61 of 1969 with effect from 28 May 1969.
The word "execute" is misspelt in the Government Gazette, as reproduced above.]

- (2) (a) The transferee shall produce the title deed of such land to the registrar together with the aforesaid deed of transfer, and the registrar shall thereupon endorse the transfer on such title deed.
- (b) Failing the production of such title deed, the transferee shall produce to the registrar an affidavit to the satisfaction of the registrar that he has been unable to obtain possession of the title deed and the registrar shall thereupon endorse such transfer on the registry duplicate of such title deed, and if the original title deed is at any time lodged in his office for any purpose, he shall make a similar endorsement thereon.

[subsection (3) deleted by Act 61 of 1969 with effect from 28 May 1969]

- (4) (a) The registrar shall not execute the said deed of transfer unless a certificate has been furnished to him by the transferee referred to in sub-section (1), to the effect that the provisions of any law in connection with the change of ownership in the land in consequence of expropriation or vesting, have been complied with.
- (b) The said deed of transfer shall be registered subject to all existing conditions affecting the land in question which have not been expropriated or vested in the transferee.

(5) No deed by the expropriating authority purporting to transfer such land or to create or deal with any real right therein shall be registered in a deeds registry until transfer thereof has been passed in accordance with sub-section (1).

(6) (a) Immediately after any land has been expropriated the expropriating authority shall lodge with the registrar a certified copy of the notice of expropriation and two copies of the relevant expropriation plan of the land in question and the registrar shall cause a note of the expropriation to be made in his registers and endorsed on the office copy of the title deed, and if at any time the original of the title deed is lodged in his registry for any purpose, he shall cause a similar note to be endorsed thereon and a copy of the expropriation plan to be annexed thereto;

Provided that the aforementioned expropriation plans shall be dispensed with where the whole of a piece of land has been expropriated.

(b) The existence of any endorsement referred to in paragraph (a), shall not debar the registered owner of the land in question from transferring or otherwise dealing with that land and upon registration of a transfer deed in favour of the transferee in pursuance of the expropriation, any such endorsement shall lapse: Provided that where the entire extent of a piece of land recognized as a separate entity in a deeds registry has been expropriated, the registered owner of the said land shall be debarred from transferring it or otherwise dealing therewith except to effect registration of a transfer deed in favour of the transferee in pursuance of the expropriation.

(7) Where any land has been expropriated and formal transfer of such land to the transferee has not been effected, the registrar shall, on written application by the transferee and the owner, cancel any endorsement made in connection with the expropriation in his registers or on the title deed of the land, and thereupon the land so expropriated shall vest in such owner.

- (2) (a) The cessionary shall produce the title deed of the land or right to minerals to the registrar together with the aforesaid deed of cession and the registrar shall thereupon endorse the cession on such title deed.

Registration of title by other than the ordinary procedure

33. (1) Any person who has acquired in any manner, other than by expropriation, the right to the ownership of immovable property registered in the name of any other person and who is unable to procure registration thereof in his name in the usual manner and according to the sequence of the successive transactions or successions in pursuance of which the right to the ownership of such property has devolved upon him, may apply to the court by petition for an order authorizing the registration in his name of such property.

(2) If rates, duly levied by any competent local authority in respect of unoccupied immovable property, have not been paid for a period of five years, the local authority with the consent of the Administrator and after publication and service of the notices prescribed in the relevant Ordinances, may apply to the court by petition for an order authorizing the attachment and sale of such property and registration of transfer to the purchaser in the prescribed form and giving directions as to the disposal of the purchase price.

[Act 2 of 1996 makes a global substitution of "Minister" for "Administrator-General", but there is no directive on changes to the word "Administrator".]

(3) Every petition to the court under the provisions of this section shall be lodged with the registrar of the said court and the allegations contained in such petition shall be supported by sworn declarations and all available documentary evidence which the applicant may be able to adduce.

(4) Every such petition shall be laid before one of the judges in chambers, who shall make such order thereon as to him shall seem fit, and any such judge may order that any matter arising upon any such petition shall be argued before and determined by the full court.

(5) The court considering any petition for registration of title, may, if such court shall deem it expedient to do so, grant a rule nisi setting forth the description of the immovable property mentioned in such petition, and calling upon all persons claiming to have any right or title to such property to appear and establish their claims to the same upon a day to be named in the rule, and may give directions as to the mode of service or publication of such rule.

(6) Upon the return day of any such rule granted as aforesaid, and no cause being shown to the contrary, the court may order the registrar of deeds to register the property mentioned in such order as the property of the person therein named, subject to such terms and conditions as may be therein mentioned.

(7) In case any person should appear to show cause against any rule nisi granted as aforesaid, the court may, if it shall see fit to do so, and without the issue of any summons, require any issue of fact to be tried upon pleadings or make such order as will determine the matter in controversy.

(8) Subject to the terms of any order made under this section any deed of transfer passed in pursuance of such order shall be passed subject to every condition, servitude, bond or other encumbrance to which, according to the records of the deeds registry, the property to which the application relates, is subject, and the registrar shall, in connection with such condition, servitude, bond or other encumbrance, make the usual and proper entries and endorsements upon or in respect of such deed of transfer in his registry, before such deed is delivered to the applicant.

(9) The registration of immovable property in the name of any person in pursuance of an order made under this section shall have the effect of vesting such person with a title to such property which shall be liable to be annulled, limited or altered on every ground on which the title of such person to such property would have been liable to be annulled, limited or altered if such property had been transferred to such person in the ordinary course.

(10) If in pursuance of any order made under this section the registrar of deeds registers any property in the name of any person, such person shall be liable to pay such taxes, duties and fees of office in respect of such registration as he would have been liable to pay if such property had been transferred to him in the usual manner directly from the last registered owner thereof, but shall not be liable to pay any tax, duty, quitrent or interest thereon which such owner or any intermediate holder of the right to such property may have become liable to pay, unless he shall by agreement have bound himself to pay such tax, duty, quitrent or interest, or unless the delay in obtaining the registration in his name was due to the neglect or default of himself or his agent: Provided that any person who has become liable to pay any tax, duty, quitrent or interest in respect of any property shall continue to be so liable notwithstanding that such property has, in pursuance of an order made under this section, been registered in the name of another person.

(11) Upon production to the registrar of deeds of any order made under this section and of a certificate by the proper officer as to the payment of the transfer duty, if any, which the person named in the order is liable to pay, and on compliance with any other requirements which have under this Act to be complied with, the registrar shall register such property in accordance with the said order, by executing a deed of transfer thereof in the prescribed form in favour of the person named in the order: Provided that it shall not be necessary to produce the title deed of the property or a certified copy thereof, if an affidavit by the transferee is produced that he has been unable to obtain possession of such title deed.

(12) The provisions of this section shall be in addition to and not in substitution for the provisions of any other law.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply with reference to any condition in a mortgage bond or lease or in a deed referred to in section 3(1)(c), (l), (m), (p) or (q).

[section 63 amended by Act 43 of 1962 and substituted by Act 62 of 1973]

64. (1) Any person who either before or after the commencement of this Act has transferred land subject to the reservation of any real right in his favour (other than a right to minerals) may on application in writing to the registrar accompanied by the title deed of the land obtain a certificate of registration of that real right as nearly as practicable in the prescribed form.

(2) Such person shall not separately mortgage or otherwise deal with such right or transfer a share thereof (if transferable) unless he has obtained such certificate in the manner aforesaid.

(2)bis Any person who transfers land or on whose land a township or settlement is established subject to a reservation in his favour of the right to receive the claim and stand licence moneys or rents, or any part thereof, accruing under any law relating to mining to the owner of such land, shall simultaneously with the passing of transfer or the opening in the deeds registry of a register in respect of such township or settlement, as the case may be, take out in the prescribed form a certificate of registered real rights in respect of the right so reserved; where the register has been opened, such certificate may be taken out in respect of the remainder of the township or settlement upon a certificate from the Surveyor-General as to the remainder.

Registration of lapse of personal servitude

68. (1) If for any reason a personal servitude has lapsed, the registrar shall, on written application by or on behalf of the owner of the land encumbered thereby, accompanied by proof of the lapse of the servitude, the title deed of the land and, if available, the title deed, if any, of the servitude (which title deed the holder of the servitude shall on demand hand over to the owner of such land) note on the title deed of the land and of the servitude, if the title deed of the servitude has been produced, that the servitude has lapsed.

(2) Cancellation of the registration of a personal servitude in pursuance of an agreement between the owner of the land encumbered and the holder of the servitude shall be effected by notarial deed: Provided that no such deed shall be registered if the servitude is mortgaged, unless the mortgagee consents in writing to the cancellation of the bond or the release of the servitude from its operation.

Transfer and mortgage of land with personal servitude thereon

cancellation of the registration of the document is sought on the ground of failure to make the periodical payments mentioned therein, and that unless written objection to the cancellation specifying the grounds of objection is lodged with the registrar within one month, if the address is in Namibia, or within three months or such further period as the registrar may in special circumstances determine, if the address is outside Namibia, application will be made to the registrar for cancellation of the registration of the said document;

- (ii) if the address of the lessee or grantee is not stated in the document or has not been notified to the registrar as aforesaid, the applicant shall publish the notice aforesaid once in the Gazette and twice in a newspaper published in the division or district in which the land in question is situated (or if there be no such newspaper then in any newspaper circulating in such division or district) and in a newspaper (to be indicated by the registrar) circulating in the division or district of the lessee's or grantee's last-known address, which shall be disclosed by the applicant in an affidavit;
 - (iii) if any objection is lodged which, in the registrar's opinion, discloses reasonable ground for refusing cancellation of the registration, he shall not cancel it until the objection is withdrawn or falls away or cancellation is ordered by the court;
 - (iv) if any of the rights to be cancelled are mortgaged, notice in writing shall be given by the applicant by prepaid registered letter to the mortgagee of the intention to cancel such rights, before the cancellation is effected.
- (2) For the purposes of this section the lessor or grantor means - executed, attested or registered by the registrar unless the transfer duty (if any) payable on the settlement or donation has been paid.

Registration of change of name

93. (1) If any person or partnership whose name appears in any registered deed or other document has changed his or its name, the registrar shall, upon written application by that person or partnership accompanied by proof of the change of name, and if he is satisfied that no change of legal personality is implied in such change of name, endorse on the said deed or other document that the name of the person or partnership has been changed to the name stated in the application: Provided that -

- (a) if it appears from such deed or other document that any other person is affected by such change of name, such other person shall consent in writing to the aforesaid endorsement;
- (b) the application shall be accompanied by any other operative deed registered in the registry in which the applicant's old name appears as a party thereto other than as transferor or cedent; and
- (c) a woman who assumes her husband's surname or resumes her former surname shall not be obliged to record such assumption or resumption of surname against any registered deed or other document to enable her to deal with land or a real right in land held by her under such deed or other document.

[Subsection (1) is amended by Act 43 of 1962 and substituted by Act 26 of 1985, which provides the following transitional provision in section 12(2):

"The provisions of subsection (1) of section 93 of the principal Act [Act 47 of 1937] as they existed prior to the substitution of that subsection by subsection (1) of this section [referring to the substitution of subsection (1) by Act 26 of 1983], shall, notwithstanding such substitution, continue to apply in respect of any application for registration of a change of name referred to in that subsection and which has been lodged with the registrar of deeds before the coming into operation of this section [on 1 June 1984]."

(2) No change in the name of any immovable property shall be recorded in a deeds registry except if required by the registrar and the Surveyor-General in order to record a new designation as a result of the introduction of a system of land numbering where no such system previously existed.

[subsection (2) deleted by Act 16 of 1967]

96. [section 97 amended by Act 43 of 1957]

Substituted copy of lost deed supersedes original which must be surrendered on recovery

98. [Prior to Namibian independence, the reference to the Government of the Republic in section 99 was to be construed as including a reference to the Administrator-General.]

Formal defects

Deeds Registries Act 47 of 1937 (SA)

100. No act in connection with any registration in a deeds registry shall be invalidated by any formal defect, whether such defect occurs in any deed passed or registered, or in any document upon the authority of which any such deed has been passed or registered or which is required to be produced in connection with the passing or registration of such deed, unless a substantial injustice has by such act been done which in the opinion of the court cannot be remedied by any order of the court.

Provided that -

[Act 2 of 1996 makes global substitutions of “Minister” for “Administrator-General” and “Namibia” for “the Territory”, but there is no directive on changes to the phrase “administrator of the territory”.]

- (a) the provisions of this Act shall apply in respect of any transfer, partition transfer, certificate of title, mortgage or other deed sought to be registered in respect of any land so held;
- (b) no transfer of or other form of title to or mortgage of any defined portion of a piece of land so held shall be registered unless the surveyor-general concerned has certified that the boundaries of such piece of land are correctly represented on the diagram thereof;
- (c) if the surveyor-general is unable to certify as aforesaid the provisions of sections forty, forty-one and forty-four shall mutatis mutandis apply, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other law contained.

(2) The provisional registration in the deeds registry at Vryburg of any cession or assignment of rights to unascertained or unsurveyed land, prescribed by Government Notice (British Bechuanaland) of the thirteenth day of November, 1886, shall continue to be of force in respect of land to which a right of ownership was acquired prior to the annexation of British Bechuanaland to the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, until such time as a grant of such land has been registered.

Act 2 of 1996 makes global substitutions of “Namibia” for “the Territory” and “Minister” for “Administrator-General”, but the resulting definition is inaccurate since the Minister responsible for the administration of the Act is part of the Government of Namibia. AG 8 of 1980 was repealed by the Namibian Constitution.]

The subsection has no relevance in independent Namibia.]

[Section 16 of Act 3 of 1972 repeals some additional laws in respect of South West Africa:
