ACTS OR OMISSIONS BY REGISTERED NURSES CONSTITUTING IMPROPER CONDUCT OR MISCONDUCT

2. The following acts or omissions by a registered nurse, as set out in this Chapter, shall constitute improper conduct or misconduct in respect of which the Board may conduct inquiries and take disciplinary steps in terms of Part V of the Act:

- (a) Omitting or neglecting to carry out such acts relating to monitoring, diagnosing, treatment, prescription, collaboration, referral, co-ordination and patient advocacy as the scope of the profession of a registered nurse requires;
- (b) omitting or neglecting to maintain the health status of a patient under his or her care or charge, or to protect the name, person and possessions of that patient, through -
 - (i) the correct identification of the patient;
 - (ii) the determination of the health status of the patient and the physiological responses of the body to disease conditions, trauma and stress;
 - (iii) the correct administration of treatment, medication and care;
 - (iv) the prevention of accidents, injury or other trauma;
 - (v) the prevention of infection and of the spread of infection;
 - (vi) the checking of all forms of diagnostic and therapeutic interventions for the individual;
 - (vii) the specific care and treatment of the seriously ill patient, the disturbed patient, the confused patient, the aged patient, infant and children patients, the unconscious patient, the patient with communication problems and the vulnerable and high-risk patient; and
 - (viii) the monitoring of all vital signs of the patient concerned;
- (c) omitting or neglecting to keep clear and accurate records of all actions which he or she performs in connection with a patient;
- (d) contravenes section 27(1)(b), (2)(b) or (c) or (3) of the Act;

(e) advertising -

- (i) or permitting such advertisement, for professional gain, other than by indicating his or her name, address, telephone number, hours of attendance and registered qualification; or
- (ii) of any other person, whether or not such person is registered or enrolled under the Act or is a practitioner, or any product, business, institution or organisation of any nature, for any purpose and in any way, or permitting his or her name or photograph, whether or not he or she is in uniform, to be used in such advertisement, but the actions by a registered nurse, as set out in the Appendix to these rules shall not constitute advertising;

(f) the use by a registered nurse who is in private practice of a name plate at his or her permanent consulting rooms or permanent residence, which exceeds 360 mm x 210 mm in size and which bear other particulars in addition to his or her -

- (i) title, initials and surname;
- (ii) registered profession and field of practice;
- (iii) professional qualifications or additional qualifications registered by him or her as such or as specialities;
- (iv) telephone numbers; and
- (v) hours of consultation,

but if a registered nurse prefers not to have particulars concerning telephone numbers and hours of consultation to be indicated on a name plate containing the particulars referred to in this paragraph, a separate plate, not exceeding 360 mm x 210 mm in size, with the telephone numbers and hours of consultation concerned, may be affixed directly below such name plate;

(g) in the case of an itinerant practice, the use of a name plate which exceeds the size stipulated in paragraph (f) and which bear other particulars than those referred to in that paragraph, and the days and hours of consultation when he or she will be available at his or her consulting rooms, may be indicated on a separate plate or surface, not exceeding 360 mm x 210 mm in size;

(h) the use of more than one name plate at each entrance to a building in which his or her consulting rooms are situated and on or next to the door of such consulting rooms, but -

- (i) a name plate may, with the prior approval of the Board, be affixed to an outer wall or pillar of the building concerned if such building does not have suitable facilities for a name plate to be affixed to it, and the particulars stipulated in paragraph (f) may, with the prior approval of the Board, where such building has no such facilities for a name plate to be affixed to it, be affixed in a framed area of 360 mm x 210 mm on a glass window as close as possible to the entrance of the building in which the consulting rooms are situated;

- (ii) if facilities exist in the entrance hall or on the ground floor of a building in which the consulting rooms of a registered nurse are situated to indicate the names of tenants, the title, initials, surname and profession of the registered nurse may be indicated in such places;
 - (iii) a plate with the initials and surname of a registered nurse and a direction indicator on it may be displayed in the corridor of the floor where the consulting rooms of that nurse are situated;
- (i) If -
- (i) a registered nurse has taken over the practice of another registered nurse; or
 - (ii) a partner, a shareholder of a company or a member of a close corporation dies or retires, the display of the name plate of the predecessor, the deceased or the retired partner, shareholder or member, for more than 12 months after the date of the take over, death or retirement, and failure by the person who has taken over the practice to display his or her name during the period referred to in this paragraph;

- (j) if a registered nurse has moved to consulting rooms at a new address, the display of a notice to this effect at the previous address, mentioning the new address of his or her consulting rooms, for more than 12 months from the date of so moving;
- (k) causing or permitting the appearance of any other information on professional stationery and business cards, apart from -
 - (i) the name of the registered nurse and partner, shareholder of a company or member of a close corporation, if any;
 - (ii) the registered profession, field of practice and abbreviations in respect of qualifications registered by the Board;
 - (iii) addresses and telephone numbers; and
 - (iv) hours of consultation.
- (l) canvassing or touting for patients for himself or herself or for any other person, whether personally or through an agent, or in any other manner;

- (m) carrying on of an itinerant practice for less than one month, at a place where a registered nurse does not render a complete and satisfactory service to his or her patients in such practice on a regular basis and which place is not similar to the place where the registered nurse carries on his or her main practice;
- (n) accepting or insisting on any commission or remuneration, financial or otherwise, from manufacturers of, or dealers in, medicine, remedies or any equipment, apparatus, instrument, appliance or material which is used in the course of practice of a registered nurse or prescribed to patients;
- (o) paying or giving commission or remuneration to any person, financial or otherwise, or the offering of anything to any person for the recommendation of patients;
- (p) accepting commission or remuneration, financial or otherwise, from any person for the recommendation of patients;
- (q) sharing of fees collected for a service, with any person other than a partner, a shareholder of a company or a member of a close corporation, unless the sharing is commensurate with the extent of the other person's participation in the rendering of that service;
- (r) charging higher fees for professional services rendered than the fees prescribed in terms of the Act;
- (s) issuing a certificate of sickness when a registered nurse is not convinced, from his or her personal observation or from what the patient has communicated to him or her, that the facts stated in that certificate are correct, and where a certificate of sickness is issued only on the grounds of the communication of a patient or another person the registered nurse shall specifically mention that fact in the certificate;
- (t) divulging information concerning a patient, which information has become known to a registered nurse in his or her professional capacity, but this paragraph shall not apply if the information is made known -
 - (i) with the explicit consent, in writing, of a patient who is of age, of the parent or guardian of a patient who is a minor, or of the surviving spouse or child who is of age, or of a patient who is deceased;
 - (ii) on the instruction of a court of law or where a registered nurse is lawfully bound to make that information known;
 - (iii) in the exclusive interest of a patient who is not able to, or is not capable of, granting permission; or
 - (iv) in a professional consultation with anybody involved in the treatment of the patient or, in the exclusive interest of the patient, with any other person;

- (u) applying or using in a practice -
 - (i) any form of treatment, apparatus or process which is secret or claimed to be secret;
 - (ii) any apparatus which upon inspection by the Board does not prove to be capable of fulfilling the claim made in respect of it; or
 - (iii) diagnostic and treatment methods which do not comply with the accepted standards as determined by the Board;
- (v) impeding a patient, or a person properly acting on behalf of a patient, who desires to obtain the advice of, or treatment by, a practitioner, from consulting that practitioner;
- (w) performing, except in a case of emergency, an act which does not pertain to his or her registered profession or for which he or she has inadequate training or experience;
- (x) using consulting rooms connected to or with a corridor to premises or portion of premises where another business, trade, work or profession different from the profession in which he or she is registered in terms of the Act, is practised or carried on, but the entrance and corridors of a public building in which his or her consulting rooms are situated, or a connection which may not be used by patients, shall not be deemed to be an unauthorised connection or thoroughfare;
- (y) Practising or conducting from the consulting rooms of a registered nurse any business, trade, work or profession other than the profession in which he or she is registered in terms of the Act, except with the consent, in writing, of the Board and subject to such conditions as the Board may determine;
- (z) sharing consulting rooms with someone other than a person referred to in paragraph (cc), without the consent in writing of the Board;
- (aa) displaying, subject to paragraph (bb), in the consulting rooms of a registered nurse, other certificates apart from -
 - (i) certificates, diplomas and degrees which have a bearing on the profession in which he or she is registered; and
 - (ii) membership certificates of professional associations with which he or she is affiliated;
- (bb) omitting or neglecting to display clearly in the consulting rooms of a registered nurse the registration certificate issued to him or her in terms of the Act;
- (cc) entering into a partnership, incorporating a company or establishing a close corporation or where such partnership, company or close corporation already exists at the coming into effect of these rules, maintaining such partnership, company or close corporation, with a person who is not -

- (i) registered or enrolled under the Act; or
 - (ii) registered under any other Act in respect of a profession which is approved by the Board in the public interest and with consideration of professional ethics, as an acceptable profession for the purpose of partnership, incorporation of a company or establishment of a close corporation;
- (dd) unilaterally breaking, without the approval of the other party, a contract of service into which he or she has entered;
- (ee) refusing, omitting or neglecting to execute any lawful duties for which he or she has been employed;
- (ff) supporting or assisting any person in any way in illegal practice or action;
- (gg) employing of any person who is not registered or enrolled in terms of the Act, to perform nursing acts, but this paragraph shall not apply in an emergency;
- (hh) tendering for a full-time, part-time or any other kind of nursing appointment;
- (ii) taking the place of another nurse or midwife who is in charge of a case in respect of which he or she acted together with or on behalf of that nurse or midwife, without the consent of that nurse or midwife, unless the consent is unreasonably refused or unless no other nursing, midwifery or medical assistance is available;
- (jj) taking over a case of another nurse or midwife without first being convinced that the patient or the person in charge of the case has notified the nurse or the midwife who was originally in charge of the case that he or she no longer requires his or her services;
- (kk) in accordance with the exigencies of the circumstances and the seriousness of the condition of a patient -
- (i) neglecting to refer the patient for medical care where such care is beyond the scope of practice of the nurse and delaying that referral;
 - (ii) neglecting to do what he or she can do to save a life, to arrest deterioration in the health status of the patient, to prevent deformity or to reduce pain and suffering;
 - (iii) in circumstances where the patient is in the care of a registered nurse, but the control over the medical treatment of that patient rests with any person other than that nurse, neglecting to execute without reasonable grounds any verbal or written prescriptions or any request made to that nurse by that person with regard to the medical treatment of that patient, or where the prescription or request is not executed, to inform that person of the non-execution as soon as practically possible;

- (ll) unjustified casting of reflections, explicitly or by implication, upon the probity or professional reputation, skill, knowledge, service or qualifications of any person registered or enrolled under the Act or any practitioner;
- (mm) performing any act which is calculated to -
 - (i) prevent the Board, a committee of the Board or the secretary of the Board from performing a duty which may be lawfully performed by the Board, the committee or the secretary; or
 - (ii) bring the Board or any member or official of the Board into contempt of discredit, unless the act concerned is the truth and is in the public interest;
- (nn) permitting a registered nurse to be exploited in a manner detrimental to the public or professional interest;
- (oo) omitting or neglecting to notify the Board that he or she acquires, possesses, uses or supplies scheduled substances in accordance with the Medicines and Related Substances Control Act, 1965 (Act No. 101 of 1965);
- (pp) omitting or neglecting to submit proof to the Board that he or she has followed a programme approved by the Board with regard to the acquisition, possession, use or supply of scheduled substances permitted in his or her practice in accordance with the provisions of the Medicines and Related Substances Control Act, 1965 (Act No. 101 of 1965); or
- (qq) recovering, where he or she conducts a private practice, more money from a patient than the costs involved in the purchase and shelving of the scheduled substances concerned plus interest on capital outlay, not exceeding the prime lending rate as determined by the Bank of Namibia.

- (d) if the applicant did not take the course of study through the language medium of English, a certificate, satisfactory to the Board, that the applicant is proficient in the reading, writing and speaking of English to such extent that the applicant can take and give instructions for the nursing of patients in English;
- (e) such other information as the Board may reasonably require; and
- (f) an application fee of N$30 for each qualification in respect of which registration is applied for, which fee shall under no circumstances be refundable.

(2) The Board may require -

- (a) proof of the authenticity and validity of any document accompanying an application submitted to it;
- (b) if any document so submitted to it is not in the English language, that the original document be accompanied by a sworn translation thereof in that language.

(3) A certificate of registration substantially in the form as set out in Annexure B shall, upon payment of a fee of N$15 for each qualification in respect of which an application for registration has been granted, be issued to every person who has been registered as a nurse or a midwife in terms of section 13(3) of the Act.

Qualifications which entitle holder thereof to registration

3. The qualifications contemplated in section 18(1) of the Act which, when held singly or conjointly with any other qualification, shall entitle the holder thereof to registration in the nursing or midwifery profession are as set out in Annexure C.

Registration of additional qualifications

4. (1) The provisions of regulation 2(1), excluding paragraph (d) thereof, and of regulation 2(2), shall apply mutatis mutandis in relation to an application for the registration of each additional qualification contemplated in section 25 of the Act, except that the application shall be submitted to the Board on a form similar to the form contained in Annexure D.

(2) A certificate of registration of an additional qualification substantially in the form as set out in Annexure E shall, upon payment of a fee of N$15 for each additional qualification in respect of which an application for registration has been granted, be issued to every person in respect of whom an additional qualification has been registered.

Particulars to be entered in registers

5. The following particulars shall, in respect of every registered nurse and registered midwife, be entered in the appropriate register in terms of section 14(1)(a) of the Act:

- (a) Full names;
- (b) sex;
- (c) residential address;
- (d) date of registration;
- (e) qualification registered; and
- (f) date on which such qualification was obtained.

Restoration of names to registers

6. (1) An application for the restoration of the name of a registered nurse or registered midwife to the appropriate register shall be submitted to the Board on a form similar to the form contained in Annexure F, containing the required information, and shall be accompanied by -

- (a) the annual fee for the current financial year of the Board; and
- (b) an additional application fee of -
 - (i) N$25, irrespective of the number of qualifications in respect of which restoration is desired, if the name of such nurse or midwife was removed from the appropriate register under section 15(1)(c) of the Act; or
 - (ii) N$30, irrespective of the number of qualifications in respect of which restoration is desired, if the name of such nurse or midwife was so removed for any other reason.

(2) A certificate of restoration substantially in the form as set out in Annexure G shall be issued to every registered nurse or registered midwife whose name has been restored to the appropriate register.

Change of name

7. (1) If the name of a registered nurse or registered midwife is changed by marriage or other process of law, he or she shall, within 30 days after such change, notify the Board in writing thereof, and the Board may require documentary or other proof of such change.

(2) A marriage certificate shall be submitted to the Board in the event of a change of name by marriage.

PART III

STUDENT NURSES AND STUDENT MIDWIVES

Application for registration of student nurses and student midwives

8. (1) An application for registration as a student nurse or a student midwife contemplated in section 21(2) of the Act shall, within two months after the commencement of the applicant's course of study, be submitted to the Board on a form similar to the form contained in Annexure H, containing the required information, and shall be accompanied by -

- (a) the applicant's birth certificate; and
- (b) an application fee of N$40, in the case of registration for a first qualification, which fee shall under no circumstances be refundable.

(2) If an application referred to in subregulation (1) is submitted to the Board after the expiry of the period referred to in that subregulation, only the tuition or training undergone during the two months immediately before the submission to the Board of such application shall be recognized as part of the course of study.

(3) A certificate of registration substantially in the form as set out in Annexure I shall be issued to every person who has been registered as a student nurse or a student midwife.

Particulars to be entered in registers

9. The following particulars shall, in respect of every student nurse and student midwife, be entered in the appropriate register in terms of section 14(1)(a) of the Act:

"accused" means a person registered or enrolled under section 13, against whom a complaint, charge or allegation has been made or laid, to the Board;

"chairperson" means the chairperson of the disciplinary committee;

"disciplinary committee" means a committee established by the Board in terms of section 10(1)(a);

"inquiry" means a disciplinary inquiry held by the Board or a disciplinary committee in terms of Part V of the Act and these regulations;

"investigating committee" means a committee established by the Board under section 10(3) of the Act to investigate any complaint made, charge laid or allegation made against an accused;

"legal practitioner" means a legal practitioner as defined in section 1 of the Legal Practitioners Act, 1995 (Act No. 15 of 1995);

"secretary" means the secretary of the Board;

"section" means a section of the Act;

"the Act" means the Nursing Professions Act, 1993 (Act No. 30 of 1993).

Lodging of complaints, charges or allegations

2. A person who makes a complaint, lays a charge or makes an allegation against an accused on the ground of an alleged act or omission shall -

- (a) make the complaint, lay the charge or make the allegation, in writing and address and deliver it to the secretary;

- (b) after delivering his or her complaint, charge or allegation to the secretary in terms of paragraph (a), confirm such complaint, charge or allegation in an affidavit or solemn declaration, if requested to do so by the secretary; and
- (c) if he or she makes the complaint, lays the charge or makes the allegation in terms of paragraph (a), be prepared to give evidence in the event of an inquiry being held.

Procedure on receipt of complaint, charge, allegation or record

3. On receipt of a complaint, charge or allegation or of a copy of a record transmitted in terms of section 35(2), the secretary shall, on his or her own motion or in consultation with the president of the Board -

- (a) seek further information regarding the complaint, charge, allegation or record;
- (b) advise the accused in writing of the nature of the complaint, charge or allegation, and afford the accused an opportunity to explain his or her conduct within 21 days, or such further period as the secretary may permit and shall inform the accused that such explanation may be used as evidence in an inquiry; or
- (c) refer the matter with the relevant documents to the investigating committee.

Reference of matter to investigating committee

4. The secretary shall, on receipt of the explanation referred to in regulation 3(b), or, if no such explanation is received within the period laid down in that regulation, refer the matter, together with the relevant documents, to the investigating committee.

Action by investigating committee

5. The investigating committee shall, after the matter has been referred to it by the secretary in terms of regulation 4 -

- (a) cause further investigation to be made or seek legal or other advice;
- (b) if it is of the opinion that an inquiry would not be appropriate, submit a recommendation together with the relevant documents, to the Board which shall accept such recommendation; or
- (c) decide that an inquiry should be held by the disciplinary committee.

Legal representation of accused

6. An accused may be represented by a legal practitioner in all proceedings under these regulations, and, if he or she is so represented, shall, in writing and before the commencement of the proceedings, inform the secretary of the name of that legal practitioner.

Power of Board to deal with matters

7. Nothing contained in these regulations shall prevent the Board from dealing with any matter without referring that matter to a committee, and if the Board deals with any matter without referring it to a committee, these regulations shall apply mutatis mutandis.

Procedure in case of an inquiry

8. If the investigating committee decides, in terms of regulation 5, that an inquiry should be held, the secretary shall -

- (a) determine the date, time and venue for the inquiry; and
- (b) in writing, inform the members of the disciplinary committee of its decision and of the date, time and venue for that inquiry and shall furnish the members with the relevant documents.

Form of notice

9. A notice referred to in section 30(4), to a person in respect of whom an inquiry is to be held in terms of section 29 and these regulations shall -

- (a) be in Form 1 set out in the Appendix to these regulations; and
- (b) be accompanied by a copy of these regulations.

Witnesses and fees

10. (1) An accused may request the secretary to summon witnesses to testify on behalf of the accused during the inquiry, but the secretary shall not comply with such request unless the accused deposits an amount sufficient to cover the costs involved in the summoning of the witnesses.

(2) The secretary shall pay witness fees according to the tariff applicable to criminal cases in a magistrate's court and those fees shall be borne -

- (a) if the witness was summoned to testify on behalf of the accused, by the accused; or
- (b) if the witness was summoned to testify on behalf of the Board or the disciplinary committee, by the Board.

Summons to appear before the Board or the disciplinary Committee as a witness or to produce any book, document, record or other thing

11. A summons in terms of section 30(8) to appear as a witness before the Board or the disciplinary committee, or to produce any book, record, document or thing shall be as nearly as practicable in Form 2 set out in the Appendix to these regulations.

Chairperson

12. The president of the Board, or in his or her absence, the vice-president, or in the absence of both the President and the vice-president, a chairperson appointed by the disciplinary committee from amongst its members shall act as the chairperson of that committee.

Procedure at inquiry

13. (1) The disciplinary committee shall conduct inquiries in public, but may direct that the whole or any part of the proceedings be conducted in camera.

(2) The secretary shall at an inquiry read out the notice delivered to the accused in terms of section 30(4), but shall not do so if the accused is absent or the accused or the legal practitioner representing the accused indicates that it is not necessary to read out the notice.

(3) The chairperson shall ask the accused, or in the absence of the accused, the legal practitioner representing the accused, to plead either guilty or not guilty to each charge and the plea shall be recorded.

(4) The chairperson shall not, in the absence of the accused, enter a plea of guilty unless the accused has clearly and in writing under his or her own signature, informed the secretary of that plea prior to the commencement of the inquiry.

(5) If an accused or the legal practitioner representing him or her refuses or fails to plead directly to a charge, the secretary shall record that fact and shall enter a plea of not guilty which plea shall have the same effect as if the accused had pleaded not guilty.

(6) If a plea of guilty is entered the disciplinary committee shall decide whether or not evidence is to be led.

(7) If a plea of not guilty is entered, the disciplinary committee shall order that evidence should be led.

(8) The disciplinary committee shall afford the proforma complainant appointed in terms of section 36 an opportunity to state his or her case, either orally or in writing, and to lead evidence, after which his or her case shall be closed.

(9) After the proforma complainant has closed his or her case, the disciplinary committee shall afford the accused or the legal practitioner representing him or her an opportunity to state his or her case, either orally or in writing, and to lead evidence, after which his or her case shall be closed.

(10) If an accused is neither present nor represented, his or her written defence, statements made by him or her or on his or her behalf or explanations, if any, shall constitute his or her defence and shall be submitted to the disciplinary committee.

(11) The chairperson may permit the proforma complainant and the accused or the legal practitioner representing the accused to lead further evidence even after the proforma complainant and the accused have closed their cases.

(12) The person, other than the person who led the evidence, shall be entitled to cross-examine the witness called by the person who led the evidence after that witness has testified.

(13) The chairperson, or with the permission of the chairperson, the members of the disciplinary committee, may question a witness after the cross-examination referred to in subregulation (12).

(14) The person who led the evidence shall be entitled to re-examine the witness, but shall confine his or her re-examination to matters raised in cross-examination and questions put to the witness in terms of subregulation (13).

(15) Oral evidence shall be given on oath or affirmation, and the chairperson shall, at the inquiry, administer an oath to a witness in Form 3 set out in the Appendix to these regulations.

(16) If a witness objects to the taking of the oath, he or she shall make an affirmation that he or she shall speak the truth.

(17) The chairperson shall warn a witness who is making an affirmation that such affirmation has the same effect as an oath.

(18) The disciplinary committee may refuse to admit evidence when a witness is not available for cross-examination or refuses to submit to the cross-examination.

(19) Subject to subregulation (18), if evidence is to be led in the absence of a witness that evidence shall be in the form of an affidavit or solemn declaration, and the opposing party may object to the admission of that evidence if he or she is not afforded the opportunity to cross-examine the witness.

(20) If any information or accusation is based on the record of a legally constituted court or on an inquest, the disciplinary committee shall accept such record as prima facie evidence if it is certified as a true copy.

(21) The disciplinary committee may, if practicable and if it considers it necessary to do so, summon witnesses whose evidence appears in a record referred to in subregulation (20) for purposes of further examination and cross-examination.

(22) The disciplinary committee shall -

(a) after all evidence has been given, give the pro forma complainant an opportunity to make a submission to the disciplinary committee on the evidence and the legal position, and shall be given this opportunity whether or not the accused has led evidence;

(b) after the pro forma complainant has made a submission in terms of paragraph (a), give the accused or the legal practitioner representing the accused, if present, an opportunity to make a submission to the disciplinary committee; and

- (c) after the accused or the legal practitioner representing him or her has made a submission, give the pro forma complainant an opportunity to reply to points of law raised by the accused or the legal practitioner representing the accused in his or her submission.

(23) The disciplinary committee shall, after the close of a case, go into committee and consider the evidence led, with a view to a finding.

(24) If after the finding referred to in subregulation (23) the disciplinary committee finds that the accused is not guilty, it shall immediately inform, him or her, in writing of that finding and report its action to the Board.

(25) The disciplinary committee may make a finding of not guilty even where the accused has pleaded guilty.

(26) If the accused is found guilty the disciplinary committee shall decide whether the complaint, charge or allegation of which the accused is found guilty constitutes improper conduct or misconduct, and the parties concerned shall be informed, in writing, of that decision immediately.

(27) The pro forma complainant shall, after the accused has been found guilty furnish details to the disciplinary committee of previous convictions, if any, of the accused under the Act or any law repealed by the Act, but he or she may do so only if notice was given to the accused prior to the commencement of the inquiry that this would be done in the event of a finding of guilty.

(28) Proof of previous convictions referred to in subregulation (27) shall be by means of a certificate under the hand of the secretary indicating the nature of the conviction, the date of the conviction and the penalty imposed.

(29) If the accused challenges the correctness of the certificate referred to in subregulation (28), a copy of the relevant record and a copy of the minutes of the meeting of the Board or other competent body at which the finding and the penalty were made or confirmed shall be produced, after which the fact of conviction shall be regarded as proved.

(30) The pro forma complainant shall be afforded the opportunity of making representations or leading evidence, either orally or in writing, regarding a suitable penalty, after which the accused or the legal practitioner representing the accused shall be afforded the same opportunity, including the adducing of evidence in mitigation of the penalty to be imposed.

(31) If an accused is neither present nor represented, any written representations or statements made by him or her or on his or her behalf or explanations, if any, and which have a bearing on a penalty shall be taken into account.

(32) The disciplinary committee shall, before imposing a penalty on an accused, go in camera and deliberate upon the imposition of a penalty and shall immediately after such deliberation inform the accused, in writing, of the penalty imposed.

(33) If the penalty imposed is a caution, a reprimand or a caution and a reprimand, such penalty shall immediately be imposed by the disciplinary committee, which shall report its action to the Board.

(34) If the disciplinary committee decides on a penalty other than that referred to in subregulation (33) -

- (a) the penalty decided upon shall immediately be communicated, in writing, to all the parties concerned with reference to the rights of the accused in terms of paragraph (c);
- (b) the disciplinary committee shall submit all relevant documents and the record of its inquiry together with its finding and recommendation to the Board, which may confirm or vary such finding and the penalty recommended;
- (c) the accused shall be entitled, within 14 days after the finding of guilty by the disciplinary committee, to make representations, in writing, to the secretary for submission to the Board; and
- (d) the Board shall, if it decides to accept the recommendation of the disciplinary committee, communicate that decision to the accused immediately.

(35) The secretary shall -

- (a) reduce the decision of the disciplinary committee or of the Board to writing, have it signed by the president of the Board or the vice-president of the Board and file it on the file of the accused;
- (b) cause a finding of guilty and the penalty imposed to be published in the Gazette and in the report of the Board, if any, and shall state the name of the accused, the contravention and the penalty; and
- (c) communicate a decision of the disciplinary committee relating to any point arising in connection with or in the course of an inquiry and which concerns any person not present or represented at the inquiry, to the person concerned.

(36) After deliberating in camera the disciplinary committee may of its own accord or at the request of the pro forma complainant or of the accused or the legal practitioner representing the accused, adjourn any inquiry being held in terms of these regulations, to be resumed at such date, time and place as the disciplinary committee may determine or as the secretary may by registered post communicate to all parties concerned.

(37) The procedure prescribed in these regulations shall apply mutatis mutandis to any inquiry conducted in terms of section 38 of the Act.

(38) In this regulation "competent body" means any body which has powers to inquire into any complaint, charge or allegation under the Act.

Obstruction or interruption of proceedings

14. Any person who obstructs or interrupts the proceedings at an inquiry, insults a member or official of the Board or of the disciplinary committee or misbehaves in any other way -

- (a) shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding N$1 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months or to both such fine and such imprisonment; and
- (b) may be removed from the proceedings by the chairperson by order of the chairperson.

Submission of minutes of inquiry to the Board

15. If the disciplinary committee has conducted an inquiry the chairperson shall submit to the Board a copy of the minutes of the inquiry.

Repeal of regulations

16. The regulations promulgated by Government Notices R.373 of 13 March 1970, R.1737 of 29 September 1972 and R.1707 of 27 September 1974 are hereby repealed.

MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND SOCIAL SERVICES

No. 13

NURSING PROFESSIONS ACT, 1993: REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE SCOPE OF PRACTICE OF PERSONS WHO ARE REGISTERED OR ENROLLED UNDER THE NURSING
PROFESSIONS ACT, 1993

The Minister of Health and Social Services has under section 48 of the Nursing Professions Act, 1993 (Act No. 30 of 1993), and, on the recommendation of the Nursing Board, made the regulations set out in the Schedule.

SCHEDULEDefinitions

1. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise indicates, an expression defined in the Act has a corresponding meaning and -

"child" includes an unborn child;

"co-ordination" means the bringing together of the acts of members of a health team to meet the spectrum of identified health needs of an individual or a group of persons;

"diagnosis" means the identification of and discrimination between physical, psychological and social signs and symptoms in man;

"health needs" means signs, symptoms and processes which denote the individual's interaction with any actual or potential health problem and which require nursing intervention;

"midwifery regimen" means the regulation and implementation of matters which, through midwifery intervention, have an influence on the course and management of pregnancy, all stages of labour and the puerperium, and includes the -

- (a) provision, implementation and evaluation of midwifery care plans;
- (b) recording of the course of pregnancy, labour and puerperium and of any health problem; and
- (c) care received by the mother and child whilst in the charge of the midwife;

"nursing regimen" means the regulation of matters which, through nursing intervention, have an influence on the -

- (a) preventative, promotive, curative or rehabilitative aspects of health care;
- (b) provision, implementation and evaluation of nursing care plans;
- (c) recording of the course of any health problem; and

- (d) health care received by a patient and the outcome of such health care whilst the patient is in the charge of a nurse;

"prescribing" means giving written directions regarding treatment, nursing care, co-ordination, collaboration and patient advocacy functions essential to the effective execution and management of the nursing regimen or the midwifery regimen;

"registered person" means -

- (a) a person registered as a nurse or a midwife under the Act;
- (b) a person registered as a medical practitioner or a dentist under the Medical and Dental Professions Act, 1993 (Act No. 21 of 1993); or
- (c) a registered person defined in section 1 of the Allied Health Services Professions Act, 1993 (Act No. 20 of 1993);

"the Act" means the Nursing Professions Act, 1993 (Act No. 30 of 1993);

"treatment" means the selection and performance of therapeutic measures essential to the effective execution and management of the nursing regimen.
