CODE OF CONDUCT GOVERNING PERSONS ACCREDITED TO PROVIDE VOTER EDUCATION FOR OR IN RESPECT OF ELECTIONS: ELECTORAL ACT, 1992

Under section 47B of the Electoral Act, 1992 (Act No. 24 of 1992), the Electoral Commission hereby issues a Code of Conduct Governing Persons Accredited to Provide Voter Education for or in Respect of Elections as set out in the Schedule.

V. TONCHICHAIRPERSON: ELECTORAL COMMISSION

Windhoek, 30 September 2009

SCHEDULE

CODE OF CONDUCT GOVERNING PERSONS ACCREDITED TO PROVIDE VOTER EDUCATION FOR OR IN RESPECT OF ELECTIONS

1. Every person accredited to provide voter education must -
 - (a) inform and make voters aware of their protected right to freedom of conscience and belief, freedom of speech and expression, freedom of association and peaceful assembly, freedom of movement and of the right to participate freely in peaceful political activities;
 - (b) respect the right of voters to elect a party, organisation, association or candidate of their choice by using an impartial training method;
 - (c) ensure that voters are informed and made aware thereof that political parties, organisations, associations, candidates and the media are free to impart information and opinion;
 - (d) always act in a non-partisan manner and be free of any influence or control by any political party, organisation, association or candidate;
 - (e) strive to promote democratic pluralism and a culture of political tolerance;
 - (f) keep such books of account as are reasonably necessary;
 - (g) use funds received for voter education only for the purpose for which it was appropriated;
 - (h) act in a strictly neutral and unbiased manner in every matter concerning a political party, organisation, association, candidate or voter; and
 - (i) avoid doing anything that would indicate or be seen as indicating partisan support for a political party, organisation, association or candidate.
2. A person accredited to provide voter education may not -
 - (a) misuse any funds received for the purpose of voter education;

- (b) ascertain or attempt to ascertain for which political party, organisation, association or candidate any voter intends to vote;
- (c) induce, influence, persuade or procure a voter to register for or vote in an election, in the knowledge that such voter is not entitled to register or vote in the election concerned;
- (d) influence or attempt to influence the choice of a voter regarding any political party, organisation, association or candidate in an election;
- (e) publish, repeat or disseminate in any manner whatsoever false information;
- (f) obstruct or interfere with the work of any official or representative or the Commission;
- (g) accept any gift or favour from a political party, organisation, association, a candidate or any person involved in the election process; and
- (h) wear, carry or display any symbol or colour of any political party, organisation, association or candidate.
