
Summary: This Act (GG 3495) makes provision for the mutual transfer of sentenced offenders between Namibia and foreign States. It was brought into force on 28 July 2006 by GN 116/2006 (GG 3674).

Amendments: The Act is amended with respect to the use of various terms by the Correctional Service Act 9 of 2012 (GG 5008), which was brought into force on 1 January 2014 by GN 330/2013 (GG 5365).

Regulations: Regulations are contained in GN 117/2006 (GG 3674).

Notices: GN 309/2012 (GG 5109) announces the ratification of an agreement on the transfer of sentenced offenders between Zambia and Namibia, in terms of section 20(3) of the Act. (The text of the agreement is not included in the notice.)

According to the Ministry of Safety and Security, the National Assembly ratified this bilateral agreement on 9 October 2012 and notified Zambia of the ratification on 23 January 2013. On 11 November 2015, Namibia received notification from Zambia that they had fulfilled their domestic procedures in respect of the agreement. The agreement then entered into force on 12 December 2015 (in terms of Article 20(1) of the Agreement).

Correctional Service Act 9 of 2012.

Summary: This Act (GG 5008) provides for the establishment of the Namibian Correctional Service and correctional facilities (previously known as prisons). It also covers health care services and hygiene for incarcerated offenders, discipline and rehabilitation programmes for incarcerated offenders, and rules for searches and seizures in correctional facilities. It establishes the National Release Board and provides for parole, remission and pardons. The Act repeals the Prisons Act 17 of 1998 (GG 1894), which was brought into force on 24 August 1998 by GN 206/1998, GG 1927. This Act was brought into force on 1 January 2014 by GN 330/2013 (GG 5365).

The Prisons Act 17 of 1998 replaced the Prisons Act 8 of 1959. Because there is a chain of savings clauses which stretch back to that Act, it may be relevant to note its applicability to SWA. Section 96 of the Prisons Act 8 of 1959 stated: “The State President may, by proclamation in the Gazette and subject to such conditions, modifications, exceptions and additions as he may specify in such proclamation, apply the provisions of this Act and of any amendments thereof to the territory of South West Africa including that portion of the said territory known as the ‘Rehoboth Gebiet’ and defined in the First Schedule to Proclamation No. 28 of 1923 of the said territory and also that portion of the said territory known as the ‘Eastern Caprivi Zipfel’ referred to in section 38 of the South West Africa Constitution Act, 1968 (Act No. 39 of 1968), and he may in the like manner amend or repeal any such proclamation”. The Act was initially applied to South West Africa by SA Proclamation 271 of 1959, which was subsequently replaced by RSA Proclamation R.130 of 1969, as amended by RSA Proclamation R.211 of 1977. These Proclamations made several amendments to the Act as it applied to SWA. Although these South African proclamations functioned in some respects as transfer proclamations, the administration of this Act was also

Regulations: Anything done under any provision of any law repealed by this Act which could be done under a provision of this Act is deemed to have been done under this Act in terms of section 134(3) – including the issue of regulations.

Regulations made under laws repealed by the Prisons Act 8 of 1959 survived pursuant to section 95(b) of that Act.

Regulations under the Prisons Act 8 of 1959 appeared to have survived pursuant to the general wording of section 127(2) of the Prisons Act 17 of 1998, which states:

“(2) Anything done under any provision of any law repealed by subsection (1) and which could be done under a provision of this Act shall be deemed to have been done under the last-mentioned provision.”

However, according to the Namibian Supreme Court in Kamahere & Others v Government of the Republic of Namibia & Others 2016 (4) NR 919 (SC) at para [38], there was “no savings provision in respect of the regulations promulgated under the 1959 Act or orders issued under reg 148 [of those regulations] in s 127 of the 1998 Act”. The Court does not discuss the reasoning behind this interpretation, other than to state:

“When the minister made regulations under s 124 of the 1998 Act on 8 November 2001 [referring to the regulations contained in GN 266/ 2001 (GG 2643), as amended by GN 34/2009 (GG 4223) and GN 134/2009 (GG 4272)], those regulations did not repeal the regulations made under the 1959 Act, further demonstrating that those regulations had been repealed by s 127 of the 1998 Act.”

Regulations made under the Prisons Act 17 of 1998 survived pursuant to section 134(3) of the Correctional Service Act 9 of 2012, but have subsequently been repealed.

Namibian Correctional Service Regulations, made under the current Act, are contained in GN 331/2013 (GG 5365). These regulations repeal the regulations contained in GN 266/ 2001 (GG 2643), as amended by GN 34/2009 (GG 4223) and GN 134/2009 (GG 4272).

Establishment of prisons: Several new prisons were established under the Prisons Act 17 of 1998 by GN 201/1998 (GG 1927), and the Katima Mulilo police cells were declared to be a prison under that Act by GN 160/1999 (GG 2163).

Conditions in police cells: The Correctional Service Act defines “correctional facility” to include, for certain purposes, every place used as a police cell or lock-up. McNab & Others v Minister of Home Affairs & Others 2007 (2) NR 531 (HC) at 548C-ff found that conditions in the holding cells in which the plaintiffs were detained were inhuman and degrading and therefore a violation of the constitutional right to human dignity.
