INHERITANCE

Political Ordinance of 1 April 1580, articles 19-29.

Summary: This Ordinance unified the law of intestate succession in the provinces of North Holland and South Holland so that the whole of the Netherlands was governed by the “Skependomserfreg” (Southern Provinces System) principle of per stirpes inheritance. See a translation and summary of this law in English below.

Amendment and interpretation: The Interpretation of 13 May 1594 and Octrooi of 10 January 1661 clarify and amend the 1580 Ordinance.

Applicability to SWA: The Octrooi of 10 January 1661 clarified that both the Ordinance and the 1594 Interpretation applied to the Cape Colony. (The Octrooi applied the Political Ordinance to the “Indies”, which at the time included the Cape Colony.) They were subsequently made applicable to SWA by the SWA Administration of Justice Proclamation 21 of 1919, as interpreted by Tittel v The Master of The High Court 1921 SWA 58.

Cases: Frans v Paschke & Others 2007 (2) NR 520 (HC) (citing the Political Ordinance of 1580, the Interpretation of 13 May 1594 and the Octrooi of 1661, explaining their historical background and the route by which they became applicable to SWA at paragraphs 9-14, and finding the rule that children born outside marriage may not inherit intestate from their fathers to be unconstitutional).

Political Ordinance of 1 April 1580, articles 19-29

Art 19: Regarding inheritances, the States are hereby withdrawing and repealing all written rights, customs and laws applicable in the States and countries of Holland and Friesland concerned with intestate deaths or where a person dies without a last will. These regulations concern all movable and immovable properties. From now on only these new Articles that follow will be applicable.

Art. 20: Firstly, children and other direct descendants ad infinitum succeed by representation or per stirpes.

Art. 21: If both parents of the intestate be alive, they succeed absolutely upon failure of children and descendants of remoter degree.

Art 22: If one or both of the parents be dead, the succession must go absolutely to the intestate’s brothers and sisters and their children and grandchildren per stirpes or by representation.

Art. 23: Half-brothers and half-sisters, their children and grand-children, and other collateral relations who were related to the intestate through one parent only, take with the “half-hand” and according to the degree of consanguinity in which they stood related to him.

Art. 24: Failing all descendants, father, mother, brothers and sisters and their children and grandchildren, the uncles and aunts, and their children, take per stirpes.

Art. 25: But, however, if grandfather and grandmother on the one side be both alive, they succeed, as regards property derived from that side, in preference to the uncles and aunts and their children descended from these grandparents of the intestate; but these grandparents do not oust the intestate’s brothers and sisters as regards such property.

Art 26: In the case of own parents or other ascendants when the bed has been severed and one alone survives, the latter does not participate in the succession.

Art. 27: “The estate of the deceased shall go to his next of kin on the father’s and mother’s side, and be divided into two equal parts, without any distinction being made whether the deceased inherited more from his father than from his mother, or vice versa.” Now, the context clearly shows that this section was intended to apply to the case in which the deceased died without either descendants or parents him surviving. In such a case the general rule is laid down that the succession shall be per lineas, one-half of the estate going to the next of kin on the paternal side, and the other half to the next of kin on the maternal side.

Art. 28: Representation shall not be admitted among collaterals, further than the grandchildren of brothers and sisters, and the children of uncles and aunts, inclusively, and all other collaterals, being the next of kin of the deceased, and in equal degrees, shall take per capita, to the exclusion of all who are in a more remote degree of consanguinity, the nearest excluding those more remote.

Art. 29: Children who have received from their parents any money or property given as a marriage gift or for the purpose of benefiting the children in business affair or otherwise in such matters, must collate or bring into the estate of their parents such money or property before sharing the estate with the other successors. The amount to be collated is the value of the donation at the time it was made, if the property had not had a valuation placed upon it; but if such was the case, the valuation must be followed in collating. The property must then be divided into equal parts, one half going to the surviving spouse, and the other half the heirs take: This will also take place in the first, second and third generations. The foregoing rules regarding succession and collation rule when no contrary provisions exist by virtue of a testament, antenuptial contract, deeds executed before the Orphan Chamber, or any other contracts”.

Interpretation of 13 May 1594

This Interpretation essayed to elucidate the difficult and doubtful points that arose in regard to the terms of the Political Ordinance: Half-brothers and half-sisters must succeed with the half-hand if both of the parents of the intestate predeceased him; that is, the full brothers and sisters or their children or grandchildren by representation must take one-half of the estate, whilst the other half they share equally with the half-brothers and half-sisters, or their children or grandchildren by representation, who are related to the intestate on the one side only. But if that parent alone is dead through whom the half-brothers and half-sisters have their claim upon the intestate, the other parent of the intestate being still living, they, or their children or grandchildren by representation, succeed with a full hand: not otherwise, however. The same applies to the case of other collaterals, in their various degrees, when related to the intestate on the one side only. [Compare, however, the rule stated below, regarding collaterals related through other ascendants.] Further descendants of brothers and sisters, in the fifth and remoter degrees, rank before grandparents and remoter ascendants, as also uncles and aunts, their children and grandchildren, and further descendants, and they succeed per capita, not per stirpes. If, on the one side, only one of the ascendants [as in Art 26, the application hereof to parents is nullified by the Charter of 1661] be alive, neither he, nor any persons, related to the intestate through the deceased spouse alone, will succeed to the intestate. The division of the intestate’s estate per lineas, to the father’s and the mother’s side equally, occurs only when the parents are both dead. And the above rules must govern.

Octrooi of 10 January 1661

In applying the above laws to the Indies, this Charter partially altered Art 26 of the Ordinance: When the marriage of the intestate’s parents has been dissolved, and only one of them is living, he or she will succeed to the intestate along with the brothers and sisters, whether of the full or the half blood, or their children or grandchildren by representation. That is, the surviving parent takes one-half, and the brothers and sisters, or their children or grandchildren by representation, take the other half; but the half relations in order to succeed must be related to the intestate through his deceased parent. If there be neither brothers nor sisters alive, their children or grandchildren by representation will in like manner take one half, the parent taking the other. If there be neither, brothers, sisters, their children nor grandchildren alive, the surviving parent of the intestate will succeed to the estate absolutely, and exclude all collaterals. Land, houses and other immovable property must follow the law and customs of the Provinces, Districts of places where it is situated.
“By virtue of the Administration of Justice Proclamation, 21 of 1919, the Roman-Dutch common law applied in the Province of the Cape of Good Hope became the common law of Namibia. Mr Schickerling correctly points out that the common law on intestate succession was based upon the old Political Ordinance of 1580 and the Interpretation Ordinance of 1594, as modified by the Octrooi of 1661, all passed in the Netherlands and imported to the Cape Colony. The system was based upon consanguinity (blood relationships). The unfairness of intestate succession under the common law upon a spouse was ameliorated in South Africa by the Succession Act, 1934 by conferring rights of intestate succession upon a surviving spouse. Similar legislation was enacted in Namibia some 12 years later when the Intestate Succession Ordinance, 1946 was passed. The Ordinance amended the common law of intestate succession by providing that the surviving spouse of a deceased is declared to be an intestate heir of the deceased’s spouse according to certain rules set out in that ordinance which essentially provide for a surviving spouse to succeed to the extent of a child’s share or a certain amount whichever was the greater. The amount in question was subsequently increased in amendments to the Ordinance in 1963 and again in 1982.”

Summary: This Proclamation (OG 920) (which was amended by the Administration of Estates Amendment Act 4 of 1981 (Rehoboth) (Official Gazette) previously regulated the administration of estates in Rehoboth. The Estates and Succession Amendment Act 15 of 2005 (GG 3566) repeals the Proclamation, but provides that the rules of intestate succession that applied by virtue of Schedule 2 of the Proclamation before the date of its repeal “continue to be of force in relation to persons to whom the relevant rules would have been applicable had the said Proclamation not been repealed”. Therefore, Schedule 2 of the repealed Act continues to be of relevance. (The repealing Act also provides that the repeal does not affect the validity of a will which would have been valid in terms of the Proclamation had it not been repealed.)

Amendments: The Proclamation was amended by the Administration of Estates Amendment Act 4 of 1981 (Rehoboth) (Official Gazette 37 of Rehoboth, dated 23 December 1983). It was repealed by the Estates and Succession Amendment Act 15 of 2005 (GG 3566), with the caveat described above.

Regulations: The Act made no provision for regulations.

Intestate Succession Ordinance 12 of 1946.

Summary: This Ordinance (OG 1259) sets forth rules for intestate inheritance by surviving spouses and other relatives.

Amendments: The Ordinance is amended by Ord. 6/1963 (OG 2460) and Act 15/1982 (OG 4721), both of which simply substitute the amounts referred to in section 1. (The amounts which are currently applicable are all set at R50 000.)

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.
Inheritance

Cases: Legislative history discussed in Tjingaete v Lakay NO & Others 2015 (2) NR 431 (HC), as well as section 1(2).

Summary: This Act (SA GG 5018) covers the execution of wills.

Applicability to SWA: In the original Act, section 8 stated: “This Act shall apply also in the Territory of South-West Africa.” Section 8 was substituted, with retrospective effect, by the General Law Amendment Act 80 of 1964 (RSA GG 829) to make all amendments to the Act automatically applicable to South West Africa. As substituted, section 8 states: “This Act and any amendment thereof which may be made from time to time shall apply also in the territory of South West Africa, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel referred to in section three of the South West Africa Affairs Amendment Act, 1951 (Act No. 55 of 1951).” Section 1 defines “Court” and “Master” accordingly.

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act is transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979, as amended. There were no amendments to the Act in South Africa after that date and prior to Namibian independence.

Amendments: The following pre-independence amendments in South Africa were applicable to SWA –

- Wills Amendment Act 48 of 1958 (SA GG 6122) (The wording of section 8 in the original Act did not make amendments to the Act automatically applicable to South West Africa, but this amendment was made expressly applicable to South West Africa by its own terms; see section 2 of the amending Act.)
- General Law Amendment Act 80 of 1964 (RSA GG 829) (amends section 8 of the Act with retrospective effect to make all amendments to the Act automatically applicable to South West Africa)
- Wills Amendment Act 41 of 1965 (RSA GG 1084).

The definitions of “Court” and “Master” are substituted by the Walvis Bay and Offshore Islands Act 1 of 1994 (GG 805).

Regulations: The Act makes no provision for regulations.

Cases:

- Lerf v Nieft NO & Others 2004 NR 183 (HC) (lack of testamentary capacity)
- Hoveka NO & Others v The Master & Another 2006 (1) NR 147 (HC) (factual dispute about compliance with section 2(1)(a); costs)
- Kalomo v Master of the High Court & Others 2008 (2) NR 693 (SC) (valid German will of German citizen residing in Namibia at time of death covered by section 3bis)
- Vermeulen & Another v Vermeulen & Others 2012 (1) NR 286 (HC) (burden of showing invalidity on grounds of mental incompetency to make a will under section 4 lies with the persons challenging the will; test for testamentary capacity); reversed on appeal in Vermeulen & Others v Vermeulen & Another 2014 (2) NR 528 (SC) (test for lack of testamentary capacity; re-evaluation of factual evidence in light of standard of proof of testamentary capacity and appropriate degree of caution)
Afrikaner v The Master of the High Court of Namibia & Others 2013 (4) NR 1129 (HC) (noncompliance with section 2(1)(a)(v) cannot be condoned; rectification after death of testator is impermissible).

General Law Amendment Ordinance 12 of 1956, section 5.

Summary: Section 5 of this Ordinance (OG 2018) deals with the power of the High Court in certain situations where an unborn person will be entitled to an interest in immovable property in terms of a will. (Section 4 of this Ordinance is discussed under ARMS AND AMMUNITION. Sections 6-7 of this Ordinance are discussed under CRIMINAL LAW AND PROCEDURE)

Amendments: This portion of the Ordinance is amended by Ord. 36/1965 (OG 2642).

Summary: This Act (RSA GG 1128) governs the liquidation and distribution of the estates of deceased persons.

Applicability to SWA: Section 1, as amended by Act 54 of 1970, defines “Republic” to include “the territory”, which is defined as “the territory of South West Africa”. Section 108A, inserted by Act 54 of 1970, states “This Act and any amendment thereof shall apply also in the territory, including the Eastern Caprivi Zipfel, but shall, in the territory known as the ‘Rehoboth Gebiet’ and defined in the First Schedule to the agreement referred to in the Schedule to Proclamation No. 28 of 1923, of the territory, not apply to the estate of any person to whom Proclamation No. 36 of 1941, of the territory, applies”. (The Proclamation referred to was the Administration of Estates (Rehoboth Gebiet) Proclamation 36 of 1941 (OG 920), which was repealed by the Estates and Succession Amendment Act 15 of 2005 (GG 3566); Act 15 of 2005 provides that the administration of all estates in future falls under this Act.)

Transfer of administration to SWA: The administration of this Act was transferred to SWA by the Executive Powers (Justice) Transfer Proclamation (AG 33/1979), dated 12 November 1979. None of the amendments to the Act in South Africa after the date of transfer were made expressly applicable to SWA.

Section 3(1)(o) of the Transfer Proclamation as originally enacted excluded sections 2, 88, 91, 92, 93, 97 and 103(1)(b) from the operation of section 3(1) of the General
Proclamation, and excluded all the references to the Republic in the Act from section 3(1) of the General Proclamation, meaning that Republic retained the meaning given to it in the definition section of the Act (South Africa and SWA). Section 3(1)(o) of the Transfer Proclamation, as amended by the SWA Administration of Estates Amendment Act 2 of 1987, no longer listed any specific sections, but continued to exclude all the references to the Republic in the Act from section 3(1) of the General Proclamation.

Amendments: The following pre-independence South African amendments were applicable to SWA –

- General Law Amendment Act 102 of 1967 (RSA GG 1171)
- Establishment of the Northern Cape Division of the Supreme Court of South Africa Act 15 of 1969 (RSA GG 2315)
- Administration of Estates Amendment Act 54 of 1970 (RSA GG 2827)
- Administration of Estates Amendment Act 79 of 1971 (RSA GG 3196)
- General Law Amendment Act 57 of 1975 (RSA GG 4760)
- Administration of Estates Amendment Act 15 of 1978 (RSA GG 5919)
- Divorce Act 70 of 1979 (RSA GG 6506).

The Native Laws Amendment Proclamation, AG 3 of 1979 (OG 3898), deemed to have come into force in relevant part on 1 August 1978 (section 5 of AG 3 of 1979), amends certain terminology. Act 17/1981 (OG 4568) amends sections 18, 29 and 34 of the Act. Act 6/1986 (OG 5196) and Act 2/1987 (OG 5338) both make substantial amendments to the Act.

The Married Persons Equality Act 1 of 1996 (GG 1316) repeals section 17, amends section 72 and substitutes section 85.

Act 15/2001 (GG 2672), which was brought into force on 1 July 2002 by GN 107/2002 (GG 2760), amends sections 1, 18, 28, 30, 34, 80, 90, 91, 93, 102 and 103 of the Act.

The Estates and Succession Amendment Act 15 of 2005 (GG 3566) repeals the Administration of Estates (Rehoboth Gebiet) Proclamation 36 of 1941 and portions of section 18 of the Native Administration Proclamation 15 of 1928. It makes this Act applicable to all deceased estates, whether testate or intestate, of persons who died on or after the date of commencement of the amending Act (29 December 2005). Act 15 of 2005 also provides transitional provisions in section 3 in respect of estates already being administered in terms of the repealed laws where the liquidation and distribution was not yet complete; the general rule is that those estates will continue to be administered under the repealed laws, but any person with an interest in an estate has the option to request that the estate be administered in terms of this Act. Act 15 of 2005 also inserts section 4A, which authorises the Minister to assign functions of the Master to magistrates.

The Child Care and Protection Act 3 of 2015 (GG 5744), which was brought into force by GN 4/2019 (GG 6829), amends section 72.

Act 22/2018 (GG 6813) amends sections 1, 87, 88 and 103 and inserts section 87A.

Regulations: Pre-independence regulations have not been comprehensively researched.

Regulations are contained in RSA GN 473/1972 (RSA GG 3425), as amended by the following:

- RSA GN 817/1977 (RSA GG 5542)
Regulations determining the amounts set in terms of various sections of the Act are contained in GN 108/2002 (GG 2760).

Section 18 of the Native Administration Proclamation 15 of 1928 (OG 284), as amended by Act 27/1985 (OG 5147): This section previously governed the administration of the estates of “natives” in some parts of Namibia. Section 18(3) and (9) were applied to the area north of the Police Zone with retroactive effect from 1 August 1950 (GN 67 of 1 April 1954). The whole of section 18 and its accompanying regulations were made applicable to the whole of South West Africa with the exception of Ovambo, Kavango and Caprivi by RSA Proclamation R.192 of 15 February 1974. Thus, sections 18(3) and 18(9) on succession applied in Ovambo, Kavango and Caprivi (with effect from 1950), while the whole of section 18 on succession applied to the remainder of Namibia (with effect from 1974). The Estates and Succession Amendment Act 15 of 2005 (GG 3566) repeals section 18(1), (2), (9) and (10), but provides that the rules of intestate succession that applied by virtue of those provisions before the date of their repeal “continue to be of force in relation to persons to whom the relevant rules would have been applicable had the said provisions not been repealed”.

Administration of Estates (Rehoboth Gebiet) Proclamation 36 of 1941: This Proclamation (OG 920) (which was amended by the Administration of Estates Amendment Act 4 of 1981 (Rehoboth) (Official Gazette 37 of Rehoboth, dated 23 December 1983) previously regulated the administration of estates in Rehoboth. The Estates and Succession Amendment Act 15 of 2005 (GG 3566) repeals the Proclamation, but provides that the rules of intestate succession that applied by virtue of Schedule 2 of the Proclamation before the date of its repeal “continue to be of force in relation to persons to whom the relevant rules would have been applicable had the said Proclamation not been repealed”. Therefore, Schedule 2 of the repealed Act continues to be of relevance.

Notices: GN 43/2006 (GG 3591), issued in terms of section 4A of the Act, assigns certain powers of the Master of the High Court to magistrates in respect of intestate estates. This notice refers to the amount determined in respect of section 18(3) of the Act. That amount is currently set at N$100 000 by GN 108/2002 (GG 2760).
