CALL FOR APPLICATION (CfA) San Community Paralegals

The Legal Assistance Centre (LAC), in collaboration with the European Union (EU), is excited to announce the "Empowering San Communities – Legal Capacity Building for Human Rights Access" project. This initiative aims to strengthen the rights and legal capacities of San communities across Namibia. We invite applications from individuals within San communities to train as paralegals. Selected applicants will undergo a comprehensive participatory training programme and will be expected to support their communities in advocating for and accessing their rights and services. Applicants must be from and currently reside in the San communities they represent.

For more details, and to apply please visit LAC website: www.lac.org.na

Queries must strictly be made via email (before/by Wednesday, 7 August 2024) to: sjoas@lac.org.na CC cvanwyk@lac.org.na and responses will be posted on the same website on Thursday, 8 August 2024.
